One Accident, Theft Of Tools Are Reported

Theft of tools, a house burglary and one vehicle accident headed the list of incidents investigated by city and county law enforcement officials during the last week.

A wreck Sunday at Main and U.S. 87 involved a 1978 Pontiac driven by Bobby Ray Cranford of Tahoka and a 1978 Chevrolet driven by Laura Ann Montemayor, also of Tahoka. The girl, a student, was treated and released at Lynn County Hospital.

Elmer Wilson of Tahoka reported two propane stoves and some bedroom furniture stolen from a house a mile and a half northeast of Tahoka sometime in January.

Gayland James of New Home told the sheriff's office that someone took tools valued at $882 from a pickup parked at his home between Jan. 29 and Feb. 2.

In jail during the week were one person for public intoxication and another arrested on a welfare fraud indictment.

Two Seeking Council Posts

Two Tahoka City Council members whose terms are scheduled to expire this year have signed as candidates for re-election in the city election April 3.

Jim Solomon and Richard Wright have signed, but the third incumbent councilman, James Roberts, has not. No other candidates for the unexpired offices had signed up by Tuesday afternoon.

Deadline for filing for the council at city hall is March 3.

Assembly of God Sets Revival

The Assembly of God Church is beginning revival services Feb. 14 through Feb. 21. Services will begin nightly at 7:30 p.m. with the Rev. and Mrs. H.L. Wampler and family.

Everyone is invited to attend the services.

WOODWORK

by dalton

SOME OF THESE hard-drinking, Marlboro-image type smokers with their macho ways and appearance are going to look pretty funny carrying their purses around on their arms before very long.

And some of the rest of us who think men carrying purses are strongly suspect in their manhood may feel a bit uncomfortable carrying our purses, too. But unless some laws are changed soon, we may have no choice.

The reason is obvious, if you'll just observe any man sitting on a wallet full of junk that the law now requires you to have at one time or another, and if you don't carry them in your billfold, you never will have them when they are needed.

My own wallet is an inch and a half thick, and quite uncomfortable to sit on. If you happen to wear a coat, you can put it up there in the inside coat pocket, only it doesn't do much for the cut of the clothing. You look like you're packing a rod, as Edward G. Robinson used to say in the gangster movies.

In your hip pocket it doesn't improve your silhouette any either, especially since most of us have enough of ourselves back there already.

A man's wallet (if mine is typical) is crammed full of credit cards, driver's license, social security card, photos of the family, auto club and other membership cards, identification cards, insurance cards (including the latest stuff the state has decided you have to have at all time proving you have vehicle coverage), blood type card, a card showing that upon your death your eyes go to the NFL Officials Assn.; several business cards, including some of your own; 10 or 12 phone numbers and addresses you sometimes need; your voter registration card.

Also, a couple of blank checks, a two-month-old list of things to pick up at the grocery store, a few jokes and funny cards someone gave you, an extra key, a calendar and a card listing your wife's sizes.

And $100 in cash.

Admittedly a few of those things could be thrown out, but most are necessary in these trying times. Carrying a purse wouldn't really be a good solution, though, because aside from how silly it would look, most men would leave it someplace the first day and then not have any of that important stuff.

A customer paid me $20 on the street one day, all in $1 bills. Everytime I sat down that day I almost fell out of the chair sideways. I am considering one solution to the problem:

I could carry two wallets, one in each hip pocket, to keep me on an even keel when seated. This also would make me taller at meetings of governing bodies and committees, and my opinions therefore would have stronger influence. Until I stood up.

LONGTIME SWEETHEARTS—Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Luttrell (Wes and Eugie) of 2128 Ave. M have been each other's valentines for a long time...they've been married 66 years.

Commissioners Discuss County Criminal Cases

Lynn County Commissioners Monday discussed at length handling of criminal cases by the county judge, county attorney's office and sheriff's department after some question regarding the relationship between these offices was raised.

It was noted that the commissioners actually have no authority over any other elected officials in the county except through handling and allocation of finances.

With all four commissioners and Judge Melvin Burks present, the group routinely approved bills and reports and took care of several items on the day's agenda.

The county's portion of the salaries for the 7th Judicial District Judge, Ray McKim of Midland, and for the secretary of 100th District Judge George Hansard at Lamesa were approved for 1982.

Commissioners agreed to pay annual dues to South Plains Assn. of Governments, amounting to $480.

Repairs on roofs of the Extension Service and welfare buildings were discussed, and it was decided to get bids on the repairs.

The Dept. of Highways and Transportation had requested the exact mileage of roads in the county other than state and federal highways, and the group Monday certified that figure as 960.95 miles in Lynn County.

Work on a backup radio and purchase of a new typewriter for the Department of Public Safety office in the county were approved, and trips to College Station for Judge Melvin Burks, Dist. Clerk Jay Laws and County Clerk C.W. Roberts to attend various meetings were approved. Trips by county agents Stanley Young and Brent Drennan to stock shows also were given approval.

Discussed at length was a proposed policy on sick leave and vacations for county employees, but no action was taken.

Selective Service Gives Grace Period

Colonel Paul D. Aikin, Texas State Director, announced that young men who were required to have registered with the Selective Service System before Jan. 8, 1982, but who failed to do so, will be granted a grace period in which to register that will extend through Feb. 28, 1982. During that time, these men may register without fear of prosecution for late registration.

This announcement implements President Reagan's statement of Jan. 7, in which the President endorsed the continuation of registration and provided for a grace period for those who had previously failed to register. The President made his decision based on the findings of the Military Manpower Task Force that peacetime registration saves the United States about six weeks time in mobilizing its manpower in an emergency. President Reagan also reaffirmed his commitment to meeting peacetime military manpower needs without a draft.

After Feb. 28, and after identifying the names of those persons who registered during the grace period, Selective Service will carry out a program of full compliance with the registration law. The Department of Justice, in coordination with the Selective Service System, will initiate appropriate enforcement action. This will include action against persons whose names were referred by Selective Service to the Department of Justice for possible criminal prosecution prior to Jan. 8, in the event those persons failed to register during the grace period.

All young men born since Jan. 1, 1960, who have attained age 18 are required to register at any U.S. Post Office. Men born in 1964 are now registering as they reach their eighteenth birthday - 30 days before or after it.

Registration is a "simple process. A man fills out a form at any U.S. Post Office which asks for his name, address, telephone number, social security number and date of birth. He must bring some form of personal identification with him - such as a driver's license or birth certificate.

Senior Citizens Sponsor Dinner

The Senior Citizens Center is sponsoring a fund raising dinner on Valentine Day, Feb. 14. A home cooked dinner will be served from 11:30 until 1:30 and will consist of turkey and dressing and all the trimmings.

This is open to the public and everyone is invited to attend. Prices are $3.50 for adults and $2 for those 12 and under.

Sponsors urged everyone to take the family out for dinner on Valentine's Day at the Senior Citizen Center, 1600 S. 3rd.

NO SCHOOL MONDAY, FEBRUARY 15

Students of the Tahoka schools will observe a holiday Monday, Feb. 15, as teachers observe an in-service day. Regular scheduled classes will resume Tuesday.

Lynn Finances In Good Shape, Judge Declares

Lynn County finances are in pretty good shape," stated County Judge Melvin Burks in a "State of the County" report at Tahoka Rotary Club last Thursday.

He said the budget for 1982, approved by the Commissioners Court, is based on 85 percent collection of 1981 taxes.

County evaluations total $236 million, and the tax rate is 30 cents. This year, in Lynn County farm machinery valued at about $26 million and automobiles valued at about 24 million are not being taxed.

In spite of these exclusions, expenses of setting up the appraisal district, jail improvements to meet state standards, and expenses such as help to the City-County Library, Senior Citizens Center, welfare and juvenile programs, and raises in county officials and employees salaries, he thinks Lynn County can stay within its budget.

He compared Lynn's position financially, with surrounding counties, such as Garza, Crosby, Lubbock, Dawson and Terry counties, all of which have a much larger tax base than Lynn because of oil and other factors. For example, he said one oil company in Terry County has a valuation in excess of Lynn County's total tax base.

GLENDIA WILLIAMS

Mrs. Williams Announces For Treasurer

Glenda Williams of Tahoka this week announced as a candidate for Lynn County Treasurer, subject to the Democratic primary May 1.

She is the wife of Richard Williams. They have farmed in Lynn County for the past 5 years and owned a business. They have three children, Dallas, Eden and Georgia.

The new candidate grew up in Draw. She was a 1970 graduate of O'Donnell High School. She has been employed by Paymaster Gin in Draw and Woolam Gin in O'Donnell. She also was a bookkeeper and half owner in Rim-Rock Supermarket in Tahoka for 7 years. She has been a Cub Scout leader, and involved in reorganization of Girl Scouts in Tahoka. She and her family attend the First Baptist Church of Tahoka.

"I have had bookkeeping experience and experience with the public, and feel I am qualified to do the job correctly," she said. "I enjoy being with people and helping my community and county to grow and prosper. Your support would be greatly appreciated."

CHARLES A. SMITH

Charles Smith Commissioner Candidate

Charles A. Smith of New Home this week made a formal announcement of his candidacy for Commissioner, Post 4, Lynn County.

A resident of New Home for 39 years, Smith is owner and manager of New Home Gin Co., Inc., and has been in farming and ginning for many years. For eight years he was in the custom terracing business.

A member and deacon in New Home First Baptist Church, Smith is the father of three sons. He is a graduate of New Home High School, a member of the New Home Volunteer Fire Dept. and currently is serving on the school board.

In making his announcement, Smith said:

"I think our county roads need to be rebuilt, and I feel that my experience in construction and the earth-moving business will enable me to see that the roads are properly built and maintained. Also, I believe my experience in operating a business qualifies me to take leadership in running the county's business.

"If elected I will devote the necessary time to the job to see that everything is done. I will appreciate any support I get in the upcoming Democratic Primary May 1."

MRS. TERRY MC CORD nee SUSAN TAYLOR

Susan Taylor - Terry McCord Are Married In Wichita Falls

Susan Lynn Taylor and Terry B. McCord were married Saturday, Feb. 9, in First Baptist Church in Wichita Falls with Dr. Morris Chapman, pastor, officiating. The couple's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd J. Taylor Jr. of Wichita Falls and Mr. and Mrs. H.B. McCord Jr. of Tahoka. Honor attendants were Holloway and Keith Hancey. The bride's parents gave the reception at Wichita Falls Country Club, where the rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents.

The bride is a graduate of Texas Tech University, where she was on the Dean's List and a member of Kappa Alpha Theta. She is employed by the Mesquite Independent School District.

The groom is a graduate of the University of Texas, where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. He is employed by Pharmacy Practice Group, Inc.

After a trip to Winter Park, Colo., the couple will live in Mesquite.

R.I.F. Program Scheduled For Feb. 12

Texas Migrant Council Head Start will have their second R.I.F. distribution on Feb. 12 according to Jesus Martinez, center director.

The children will have their pick of all kinds of books. Books like: Smiley Lion, Winnie the Pooh Puzzle Book, Puppy's 1, 2, 3, book, books consisting of all animals. Old MacDonald Had a Farm, etc.

During the course of a year, a migrant child may live in many places, both strange and familiar. Unfortunately, however, families travel more easily than schools. And sometimes, the education of a migrant child can get lost in the shuffle.

That makes Reading Is Fundamental especially important for migrant young people. The goal of RIF is to promote reading, and the method is simple. RIF projects motivate young people to want to read by letting them choose, to keep, books they like, and by showing them that reading is fun—and important.

Under the new law, Reading Is Fundamental can provide qualified groups with 100% federal funding to buy books for the children of migrant and seasonal farmworkers.

The children will have a pick of two books each. The distribution will take place at St. Jude's Catholic Church, South 4th and Ave. M, Tahoka Center. Also the distribution will be accompanied by a Valentine party for the children. The party will begin at 1:45 p.m. at the center. The children will exchange valentine cards in their class.

We cordially invite all the parents of the children to attend this special party with their children.

AROUND TOWN

By Leona Waldrip

Having been a patient in Methodist Hospital for more than two weeks, Ted Kuzwaski remains in serious condition there.

On last Thursday Mildred (Cox) Patterson had surgery in Methodist Hospital for a malignancy. She was at one time church secretary at First Baptist Church here and later a Home Demonstration Agent in another county. Her parents lived here in the 40s and 50s.

Mrs. Silva Dillard, daughter-in-law of Mrs. Dovie Dillard, died in a Midland Hospital on Thursday. Services were held on Monday at 10 a.m. She is survived by her husband, Elmer, who grew up and attended school in Tahoka. For health reasons, Mrs. Dovie Dillard was not able to attend the services.

Word was received here late Monday night of the death of Mrs. Fay Thayer in Lubbock. She had resided in a nursing home there for several months and had been hospitalized for about a week. She moved here from O'Donnell about 10 years ago.

and resided at Golden Manor Apts. until she went to the nursing home. Arrangements are not known at this time but it is expected that services will be at Sweet Street Baptist Church where she was a member and the body will be shipped to New York where she formerly lived.

Four members of the Lemon family met after church Sunday at the Circus Inn Cafeteria in Lubbock for a celebration of the birthdays of both the boys, Lynn and Weldon, who have birthdays on the 7th and 11th of this month. Other family members attending were their wives Lucy and Estelle and sister, Leta Brown, all of Lubbock and Leona Waldrip, sister, of Tahoka.

A Fellowship was held at Parkway Drive Baptist Church in Lubbock, after Sunday night services, honoring Weldon Lemon, who is music director there. Gifts were presented and birthday cake was served. His brother, Lynn, entertained with guitar playing and singing of songs that they both sang as teenagers. The two sang with two cousins many years ago under the name "Cousin Quartet," giving concerts at many school houses in this area.

'Peachy' Costumes are Made From Valley-Grown Produce

MISSION--The Princess is wearing a flowing gown that sparkles brilliantly in the sunlight. The crowd oos' and ah's as she walks past. Her dress is painstakingly fashioned by the finest of craftsmen from rose petals, marigolds, orange blossoms and sunflowers.

This may sound like a scene from the Sugarplum Fairy, but it originates here in Texas.

During January the Product Costume Show held in Mission, Texas hosts an array of costumes fashioned by local designers. Rules of the contest dictate that all visible parts of the cloth base and accessories be covered by some type of Valley-Grown product. Three performances are scheduled for the costume show at the Mission Community Center on January 28th and 29th at 7:30 p.m. and January 31st at 2:30 p.m.

The costume show is among the festivities slated for the Texas Citrus Fiesta. This year's celebration will mark the fiftieth anniversary of the Festival.

Through years of experimentation and diligent effort, the designers of these costumes have employed almost every conceivable method to produce the most splendid and awe-inspiring creations one could ever hope to encounter.

Techniques involved in the costume making process have become highly sophisticated compared to those of the early 1930's when entire pieces of fruit or leaves covered the costumes. Today's products are dehydrated, pulverized, tinted with natural dyes, blended, and microwaved, undergoing such metamorphosis that they are rarely recognizable in their finished state.

The designer of last year's Judges Favorite costume, Mrs. Maurine Duncan, says she fashioned her costume after one that appeared in the "The Sound of Music," and utilized one of the widest varieties of Valley-grown produce in the history of the show.

"You use every trick in the hat. First you must select a good model and you have to be a very good seamstress," Duncan said. "Then you enter the craft world. Its sort of like indian sand painting, you process the different produce, get all the different colors in front of you and go to work."

Duncan said that around 2,000 hours of work were involved on the costume that won last year's show, and that the most time ever spent on one costume was 3,000.

"No one person could do it alone," Duncan said. "It takes several volunteers with a real love for the show to produce these unique costumes. We have to begin the actual artwork about two weeks before the show. If we start earlier the colors might fade."

Duncan says the yellow color on last year's costume was produced by processing yellow roses and sunflowers. The maroon was produced by dark red roses and turnip seeds, green colors were made using parsley flakes.

MRS. GREG SALLEY nee MARILYN THOMAS
Marilyn Thomas-Greg Salley
Wed in Candlelight Ceremony

Marilyn Thomas became the bride of Gregory L. Salley, Saturday afternoon, Jan. 2, at First United Methodist Church in Paducah with Rev. Henry Salley, father of the groom officiating.

Parents of the bride are the late Mr. and Mrs. Lindley Thomas of Tahoka. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Clyde F. Thomas of Tahoka. The groom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Henry Salley of Paducah.

The bride wore a gown of white-organza and Venice lace which featured a Queen Anne neckline edged in a lace motif with seed pearls. The lace trimmed empire waistline fell to a natural waist in back. Sheer organza bishop sleeves featured a triangle of lace at the upper portion and were gathered to a wide lace trimmed cuff.

The A-line skirt flowed to a back fullness and was defined by a watteau train. The skirt and chapel length train were edged with Venice lace for-get-me-not motifs.

The fingertip length mantilla veiling of illusion was edged with Venice lace in a forget-me-not motif, to match the dress. It fell from a Juliet cap of lace flowers dotted with seed pearls.

The bride carried a bouquet in shades of pink silk flowers and baby's breath cascaded by streamers of burgandy satin ribbon.

DeAnna Salley, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. She wore a burgandy satin gown featuring a Queen Anne neckline, long puffed sleeves and a fitted waist line. She carried a nosegay of silk tiger lilies and baby's breath in shades of pink and organza.

The groom was attended by Joel Weaver of Lubbock. Serving as ushers were Tom Rigsby of Lubbock, Joe Mark Cargile of Crosbyton, and Lloyd Gregory of Lorenzo.

A prelude of hymns of the Christian Faith in the Christmas season was presented by the organist, Mrs. T. J. Richards, and Mrs. W. Q. Richards at the piano. Twyla Walker, vocalist, sang "The Rose" accompanied by Mrs. W. Q. Richards at the piano.

The reception following the ceremony was held in the fellowship hall of the church.

Twyla Walker of Plano and Mrs. Jerry Rekieta of Lubbock presided at the bride's table.

Mrs. Robert D. Walker of Plano and DeAnna Salley served at the groom's table.

Rice bags were distributed to the guests by Tonia Walker and Missy Hajek.

Hostesses for the reception were Mrs. Tom Hoobler, Mrs. Carl Kent Black, Mrs. L.M. McCarroll, Mrs. Press Canon and Mrs. Steve Beck.

After a wedding trip to Purgatory, Colo., the couple will reside in Midland.

The bride attended Texas Tech University and the groom is a graduate of Texas Tech. He is employed by Elms and Farris CPA Firm of Odessa.

MRS. WAYNE CROTWELL nee ANN HINSON

Ann Hinson - Wayne Crotwell
Exchange Double Ring Vows

Adria Ann Hinson and Wayne Crotwell exchanged wedding vows in a double-ring ceremony at 7 p.m. Feb. 3 in First Baptist Church Chapel in Brownfield with Rev. Kenneth Flowers of Brownfield officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Adiran Hinson of Brownfield and Mr. and Mrs. Elwayne Crotwell of Tahoka.

The bride was given in marriage by her great-grandfather, E.V. Riley of Brownfield.

The bride wore a traditional wedding gown of candlelight satin with sheer a-la-mode fabric accents. The molded bodice, enriched with clusters of Venice lace flowerlets and leaves, featured a sheer yoke of imported silk English net with a high wedding band neckline encircled with clusters. Venice lace daisies encircled the crescent waistline. Sheer long sleeves fell to points on her hands. The full circular skirt was accented with a sheer a-la-mode stin glass window pane effect with three dimensional lace appliques on the sheer fabric. Venice lace flowers encircled the entire hemline of the gown which swept to form a cathedral length train.

The bride selected a picture hat fashioned with Venice lace to complete her ensemble. A bouffant veil of silk illusion edged in the matching Venice and Cluney lace, was attached to the hat in a cloud of bridal illusion forming a face veil.

The bride's bouquet was a cascading arrangement of fresh gardenias accented with silk pale pink rose buds and gypsophis, baby orchids, stephanotis and baby's breath with candlelight and pale pink ribbon streamers.

In keeping with tradition, the bride wore a wedding band belonging to her maternal great-grandmother as something old, her hat was new, her mother's pearls were borrowed, and she wore a blue garter.

Serving her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Billy Hyman Jr. of Brownfield. Bridesmaids were Lise Hook of San Angelo, Kim Clark of Brownfield and Sue Hinson, sister of the bride.

also of Brownfield. The attendants wore gowns of pale pink Qiana knit and sheer ribbon chiffon. They carried bouquets of light pinks to mauve tones of tiger lilies, impatiens, and gypsophis.

Aimee Hyman of Brownfield, niece of the bride, served as flower girl and Chad Holloway of Tahoka was ring bearer.

Heida and Harold Cornett Jr., cousins of the bride, were candlelighters.

Musical selections of "There Is Love," "Endless Love," and "The Lord's Prayer" were presented by Susan Sears, soloist, and Joe Mike Sears, accompanied by Mrs. Clifford Niles, organist, and Mrs. Mike Swaringer, pianist.

The groom was attired in a candlelight tuxedo.

Serving the groom as best man was Mike Aten of Tahoka. Groomsman were Gary Crotwell and Garland Crotwell of Tahoka, brothers of the bridegroom, and Steve Renfro of Tahoka.

Brenda Crotwell of Tahoka, sister of the groom, registered guests.

A reception was held following the ceremony in Fellowship Hall of the church.

Serving at the bride's table were Mrs. Dennis Atchely of Levelland, Mrs. Donny Jones of Brownfield and Mrs. Neil Moore of Seminole, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Lomuh Harston and Suzy Lawson of Tahoka served at the groom's table.

Jill Hinson of Seminole and Jill Ward of Ropesville, cousins of the bride, distributed rice rosettes to the guests.

Other members of the houseparty were Freddie Tatum, great-aunt of the bride, Mrs. Darrel Ellis, Mrs. Olen Whitfield, Mrs. Chick Clark, Mrs. Robert Biles, Mrs. Donald Hancock, Mrs. Melvin Terry and Mrs. Ray Cargill, aunt of the bride.

Out of town guests were Harold Crotwell, Maria Edwards and Doug Crotwell of Lawton, Okla.; Chris Summers of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Terry of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. George Holt of Lubbock, Rafi Ali of Singapore, Gehnam Slim of Lebanon, Mayin Aiide and Rifaat Hlaemeh of Lebanon.

After a wedding trip, the couple will reside in Tahoka.

Courtesies
 A rehearsal dinner hosted by the groom's parents was held at K-Bob's Restaurant in Brownfield Thursday, Feb. 4.

The bride was honored with a bridal shower Saturday, Jan. 30, in the home of Mrs. Sherman Hope.

The bride-elect was given a lingerie shower hosted by Mrs. Donny Jones and Mrs. Dennis Atchely on Jan. 30.

Not Running, Says Morales

Ray Morales of Tahoka this week said that in response to several inquiries, he would like to explain why he did not file for the office of justice of the peace.

"Due to my health and financial status, I am not running for the office," he said. "The Morales family wishes to express support for Ed Hamilton as justice of the peace. We believe Mr. Hamilton is doing a good job."

Cotton Prices Trend Lower

High Plains cotton prices were slightly lower during the week ended Feb. 4, according to Mack Bennett, Area Director for USDA's Marketing Services Office at Lubbock.

Growers sold mixed lots of mostly grades 42 and 52, staples 31 and 32, mike 35-49 at about 44.75 cents per pound, down 55 points from a week earlier. Grade 52 staple 32, mike 30 - 32 sold around 39.65 cents per pound, down 35 points from last week. This is about 210 points over the loan, Bennett said.

Supplies of cotton for sale remained heavy as classing totals at Lubbock passed previous records. Many growers turned to Commodity Credit for loans until heavy supplies can move into trade channels. An estimated 870,000 bales of High Plains cotton classed at Lubbock had entered the CCC loan program as of last week. These include Form A, Form G and seed cotton loans.

The Lubbock Marketing Services Office classed 82,000 samples during the week ended Feb. 4. This brought the season's total to 2,226,000 and compares with 1,589,000 classed by the same date a year earlier.

Predominantly, 40 percent was grade 52, 12 percent was grade 43, and 24 percent was grade 53. About 90 percent was reduced one grade because of bark. About eight percent was below grade.

Staples were predominantly 13 percent staple 29, 41 percent staple 30, 32 percent staple 31 and nine percent staple 32 for an average of 30.4 thirty-seconds of an inch.

Micronaire 35 - 49 was 20 percent, 33 - 34 was 15 percent, 30 - 32 was 30 percent, 27 - 29 was 22 percent and 26 or below was 13 percent for an average of 31.

Gins paid growers $70 to $100 per ton for cottonseed, mostly $75 per ton.

COTTON'S ECONOMIC OUTLOOK PRESENTED:

National Cotton Council economists look for world cotton supply and demand to shift into a better balance in the coming season, and restore some degree of prosperity to the industry.

Reporting at the annual meeting, Council economists identified the global supply bulge as cotton farmers' biggest problem and the worsening textile trade deficit as one of the chief culprits behind cotton mill difficulties.

World cotton production is expected to take a 5.2 million bale leap this season, soaring to a record 78 million bales due to increased yields and acreage. The average world yield jumped 5 percent over last year.

World cotton use is expected to reach a new high of 90 million bales this season. While this is 1.5 million above a year ago, the economists said it could have been significantly higher except for depressed economic conditions.

These factors directly influenced U.S. cotton's market as the large global supply weighed heavily on depressed economies and pushed prices down to the loan level, the economists said.

Cotton exports for the season are expected to total 7 million bales, but U.S. mill consumption at 5.6 million bales for the 1981 calendar year is below projections.

Council economists said the economy alone is not to blame for weak domestic consumption, noting that the cotton textile trade deficit plunged to 1.3 million bale equivalents. This was more than twice the 1980 deficit, and resulted from both a rise in imports and a drop in textile exports.

Adding net cotton textile imports to U.S. mill consumption reveals that consumer use of cotton was actually about 100,000 bales higher in 1981 than in either of the previous two years.

For the 1982-83 season, the economists believe world cotton production will be near 85 million bales or about 7 percent below this year. Lower acreage is anticipated in view of current prices, and yields are not expected to equal this season's record levels.

World cotton consumption is expected to post another gain of 1 million to 1.5 million bales or perhaps more if the global economy improves significantly.

Most of the increase will occur in the net importing countries and, since the U.S. is again expected to have sufficient supplies, exports of 8 million bales or more are generally expected for 1982-83.

Domestic demand for cotton could be stimulated by lower interest rates which would remove some of the disincentive for inventory ownership and lead to some rebuilding of stocks. While stocks have been reduced to bare-bones levels all the way from mills' raw fiber warehouses to retailers' shelves, the practice of hand-to-mouth purchasing will probably continue until buyers are convinced that the upside price risk exceeds the carrying cost. The economists see prospects for a U.S. offtake of 14 million bales which would reduce domestic stocks to 4 million by August, 1983.

CCI OFFICIALS NAMED: Harold C. Weeth, Coalinga, Calif., producer, is the 1982 president of Cotton Council International, the overseas division of the National Cotton Council.

Weeth, who serves as board chairman of Calcot, Ltd., succeeds Robert H. Squires, Lubbock, Tex., who now becomes CCI board chairman.

Other officers are: Heinz H. Moslen Jr., Dallas merchant, first vice president; and Rudi E. Schmidt, Memphis merchant, treasurer.

New directors are: Morris M. Bryan Jr., Jefferson, Ga.; W.L. Carter, Scotland Neck, N.C.; W.B. Dunaway Jr., Memphis; J.S. Francis Jr., Peoria, Ariz.; Bruce Heiden, Buckeye, Ariz.; Aven Whittington, Greenwood, Miss.; and Mike Wilson, Wilson, Ark.

Re-elected directors were: E.N. Arnold Jr., El Paso; Donald Cromer Jr., Sylacauga, Ala.; Eduardo C. Esteve, Dallas; Rufus Grisham, Lubbock; Robert A. Grove, Galveston; Frank B. Jones, Lamesa; Roger Malkin, New York, N.Y.; Glenn O. Petersen, Wardell, Mo.; Vernon Scott, Tillar, Ark.; and Charles C. Wisler, Fort Worth.

The group will supervise CCI programs and activities designed to boost overseas sales of U.S. cotton.

Social Security Misuse Law In Effect

Stricter laws regarding the misuse of Social Security numbers and cards are now in effect, according to Laura Peacock, manager of the Lubbock social security district office.

A law signed by President Reagan in late December 1981 provides criminal penalties for:

- 1. Using a Social Security Card obtained with false information.
- 2. Using someone else's Social Security number.
- 3. Buying, selling, or counterfeiting Social Security Cards.

1. Possessing a regular or counterfeit card with intent to sell or alter it.

An unlawful act affecting the Social Security Card or number is now considered a felony, rather than a misdemeanor, Peacock added.

Penalties for conviction can be fine of up to $5,000 or a prison term of up to 5 years or both.

According to Peacock, individuals wishing to report misuse of Social Security cards or numbers should call the Social Security office listed in the directory or the HHS hot line in Washington, D.C. at 202-472-4222.

CONTROL SOIL PESTS IN GARDENS

With the spring gardening season looming ahead, it's time for home gardeners to start thinking about controlling soil pests.

Soil pests feed on sprouting seed, tender shoots and roots of developing plants. They are usually most severe where gardens are planted in new areas previously covered with grass.

Soil insects include cutworms, wireworms, false wireworms, white grubs, soil maggots and rootworms, says Stanley Young, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Each year many gardens have to be replanted due to soil insect damage. Soil insects are difficult to control once damage begins to show up in planted gardens.

For best results, home gardeners should inspect the proposed garden plot before planting. Examine a spade full of soil at several locations in the garden plot. If soil pests are found, apply an approved insecticide at least two weeks before planting.

Diazinon will control most soil pests. For each 1,000 square feet use 1/4 cup of diazinon 25 percent EC (emulsifiable concentrate) or 1/2 cup diazinon 50 percent WP (wetttable powder) in three gallons of water. Apply the mixture evenly and work it into the soil to a depth of 4 to 6 inches.

Protect transplants from soil pests by using two teaspoons of diazinon 25 percent EC or three teaspoons diazinon 50 percent WP per gallon of water and applying one cup of this solution to the base of each transplant. Cutworms, and pillbugs may be controlled with Sevin bait (5 percent) which is approved for use on most vegetables. Check the label for specific recommendations.

For further information concerning soil insects and their control, get a copy of Extension publication B-1300 "Vegetable Garden Insects and Their Control," at the county Extension office.

4-H'ERS SPEAK UP FOR BETTER COMMUNICATION

More effective communication may be one solution to closing, or at least narrowing, the generation gap.

4-H young people from 9 to 19 in the 4-H public speaking program are working to establish better rapport with adults -- and with peers, says Brent Drennan, county agent.

Through learn-by-doing activities, these 4-H'ers become skilled and confident in presenting their ideas formally, to an audience. As a result, they are better able to get their message across clearly, and convincingly in informal, everyday situations.

The 4-H public speaking program teaches 4-H'ers to: --Choose an interesting topic, research it thoroughly, organize material carefully, then write an outline. --Speak clearly and loudly

Texas judges learn to catch speeders

COLLEGE STATION — City judges from throughout Texas went back to school to learn what it takes to catch a speeder during a recent one-day seminar at Texas A&M University.

The course, presented by the Law Enforcement Training Division of the Texas Engineering Extension Service, taught the magistrates the basics of radar operation and speed violation evidence gathering. During the afternoon, the judges took to the test track to watch radar in use.

enough to be heard throughout the room and avoid nervous mannerisms.

--Capture audience attention by opening with an anecdote, startling statement or quotation.

--Cover no more than three to five main points in the body of the speech.

--Stick to the time limit. Close with a summary of major points and an effective quotation, surprise statement or appeal for action.

To recognize the accomplishments of 4-H'ers, Union Oil Co. offers medals of honor to a maximum of four members per county and an expense-paid trip to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago for each state winner.

Six national winners receive special recognition and $1,000 college scholarships.

Winners are selected by the Extension Service on the basis of their records of accomplishments, with special emphasis on growth and development in 4-H public speaking activities.

Post Nursing Home News

This has been a busy week for us. Patsy Craig was sick last week and Beverly Stancell brought the Bible Study for her.

Mrs. Cora Bush is back from the hospital. Golden Johnson is still in the hospital.

Everyone is saddened by the death of Georgia Davies. Special thanks goes to Don and Carol for the potted plants donated to the home.

Mrs. Rosa Boucher heard this week of her brother's death. We extend our sympathy to her and her family.

Our exercise class is increasing in number each morning. Thursday mornings are set aside for reading the weekly papers.

Several of our ladies enjoyed a ride out into the country on Friday. Cleo, Joann and Inez deserve a special thank you.

Bonnie reported she spent a most enjoyable day last Wednesday with Beverly Stancell. Congratulations also to Bonnie on being our Monday bingo winner.

Our residents are thrilled to see their friends each week. The Methodist Church started our week with services on Sunday afternoon. On Thursday night, Noel White brought his dad, L.C. White, and his son. They entertained us with country and western ballads on the guitar, frenchharp and violin. Noel will be with us every fourth Thursday of the month.

Darlene Rylant, our director or nursing, and her family have scranaded us with music. We wish her son, Jack, good luck at solo contest this week.

Ruby Woodard and William Brookshire are our birthday celebrants this week. Happy Birthday to both of you.

Opal Rudd has moved from Nursing to the position of Food Service Supervisor. She is doing a good job, but nursing surely misses her.

Everyone is eager and looking forward to our Senior Citizens coming next week and to the fun and all the surprises they always bring with them.

Tips for keeping energy costs down when using fireplaces

COLLEGE STATION — If you have a fireplace, you should consider these maintenance and operational suggestions from the Texas A&M University Center for Energy and Mineral Resources:

time to time because of the formation of creosote, a black tarry liquid that results from the condensation of wood gases not burned in the combustion process.

— Lower the thermostat setting to between 50 and 55 degrees when the fireplace is in use. Heated air from the rest of the house will be lost, but the furnace won't use nearly as much fuel.

— Close all doors and warm air supply ducts entering the room with the fireplace, and open a window near the fireplace about 1/2 to 1 inch. Air for combustion will be drawn in through the partially opened window, not from the rest of the house.

— Consider installing a glass screen if you have an open masonry fireplace. Louvers at the bottom restrict the amount of air a fire consumes and can be closed when the fire burns down. This cuts substantially the loss of warmed air up the flue.

— If your fireplace damper opening can be adjusted from outside the fireplace, try closing the damper part way. This reduces the draft and the amount of warmed air drawn in from other parts of the house.

— Close the damper when the fire is out. If the damper is left open, your furnace may consume 10 to 30 percent more fuel than it does normally.

NEWSWORTHY TRENDS

The chart on the right will tell you at a glance that increases in fuel oil and natural gas costs are expected much more rapidly in the next decade than in the cost of electricity.

Heating experts tell us that this knowledge can be put to good use in holding down the cost of heating our homes. They advise keeping an existing gas or oil system if it's working well. How then can one save? By the addition of an electric heat pump that, in many cases, will lead to an immediate drop in heating bills.

An ingenious concept that works on a scientific principle discovered more than 150 years ago, the heat pump is already saving dollars in thousands of American homes.

The home heat pump is a close relative of the familiar home central air conditioner. The Carrier people, who make both systems, explain that heat pumps take advantage of the fact that refrigerating equipment can be used for heating as well as for cooling. That's because refrigeration really moves heat.

Your refrigerator works by moving heat from inside the refrigerator to the outside. That's how a home air conditioner works, too. A heat pump goes one step

Pictured are forecasted increases in natural gas, fuel oil and electricity in the next decade. The solid line indicates gas; the dashes, fuel oil; and the dots, electricity.

A "Talking" Camera

Technological advances have affected the American way of life in many ways — right down to our gift-giving habits. This Christmas, more high tech items than ever before will pop up under the tree — home computers, calculators, digital watches and electronic games.

A new camera has even been developed which can "talk" a photographer out of taking a bad picture. With just a touch of the shutter release button, Minolta's new Hi-matic AF2 automatically focuses on a subject for clear, sharp pictures. If the subject is outside the flash range or too close for proper focusing, the camera warns the user to use the built-in flash by means of audible "beeps" and visual light emitting diodes (LEDs).

The Hi-matic AF2 performs extremely well in all lighting situations, something not possible for most auto-focus cameras. Other convenience features including automatic exposure, built-in flash and an easy new film-loading system help make this one of the most convenient, easy-to-use 35mm cameras available.

With Americans taking such a positive view about high-technology gifts, a camera that can "talk" should be a welcome addition to this holiday's space-age gift lineup.

About 60 Elizabethan songs can be found in Shakespeare's plays.

Shelia and David Williams and son, Casey, have moved to Lawton, Okla. David is employed with Pen-Rod Oil Company.

The Liberty Bell Home Demonstration Club held their monthly meeting Monday, Feb. 2, in the home of Judy Fillingim with 12 members present. The year book was planned and names were drawn for secret sisters.

Refreshments were served. New officers for the year are president, Carol Fillingim; vice presidents, Judy Clem and Carol Taylor; Secretary-treas., G.G. Fillingim; reporter, Donna Smith; council delegates, Judy Fillingim and Donna Willis. Person responsible for flowers and gifts, Judy Gandy; scrap book, Georgia Clem. Next meeting will be in March and the women will meet for a style show at Diana's Doll House in Lubbock.

Mrs. Jack (Lynda) Murphy and son, David Vaughn of Gallup, N.M., were here Wednesday until Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Follis. Jack is terminal manager of Whitefield Tank Line and Lynda is dispatcher.

J.W. Edwards is still confined to room 662 Methodist Hospital. He especially enjoys a visit or cards to help pass the long days.

Mrs. B.L. (Helen) Ernst is receiving chemo-therapy treatment for acute leukemia in M.D. Anderson Hospital in Houston. She entered the hospital about two weeks ago and will be there several more weeks. Mr. Ernst has been with her but returned home Saturday and will return to Houston Wednesday. Their daughter, Carol, is with her now. Remember Helen with cards and letters to Room 1131, M.D. Anderson Hospital, 6723 Bertner Ave., Houston, Texas 77031.

Mrs. Mike Montemayor, who was badly injured in a car wreck near Wolforth Saturday Jan. 2, remains in Methodist Hospital, Room 399. Surgery was performed Tuesday.

Mary Ellen James of Lubbock visited here Sunday with Gayland and family.

Sue Inman and Sherry Tilly went to Irving Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Bill (Nancy) Evans and girls. Saturday night they saw "Over the Rainbow", in the Nimetz High School where she is a junior. The Vikas drill team is composed of 50 girls. Nancy has been elected president of the PTA in the Nimetz High School. Returning home Sunday. Sue and Sherry had dinner in Sweetwater with Sue's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reep.

Mrs. Leroy Nettles was in Methodist Hospital Tuesday until Saturday.

Anyone interested in taking Aerobics call 924-7419 or 924-7511. Classes will start Feb. 23.

Vegetables include roots such as potatoes, stems such as celery, flowers such as asparagus, fruits such as tomatoes and seeds such as peas.

the Texas A&M University System and the Women's Bureau of the U.S. Department of Labor, the conference is titled "Society's Hope for Equality—Women in Non-Traditional Employment," and will be held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel.

The three-day program focuses on subjects ranging from women in the military to women in politics, and from stress management to women as agents of change.

The conference is open to any woman — especially those seeking employment in non-traditional jobs or who are considering mid-life career changes — as well as employers of women. Registration information is available from the Texas Engineering Extension Service, P.O. Box 40, San Antonio, Texas, 78291.

A&M tops nation in recruiting scholars

COLLEGE STATION — Texas A&M University gained more National Merit Scholars this year than any other institution in the nation, confirmed officials at the organization which bestows the coveted designation on the brightest of the bright high school students.

The freshman class at Texas A&M this fall includes 148 National Merit Scholars, up more than 100 percent over the number of high-achieving students who entered there last year for an increase unmatched by any of the country's some 3,000 other colleges and universities, according to records at the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Texas A&M now has a total of 325 National Merit Scholars enrolled.

Women's Seminar focuses on non-traditional jobs

SAN ANTONIO — The woman who coined the phrase "workwife," another who urges women to "make time work for them" and a third who found success in a blue collar trade are among speakers for a national women's conference to be held here March 7-10.

Combine 5-1/2 cups white flour and whole wheat flour.

In a large bowl thoroughly mix 2-1/3 cups flour mixture, sugar, salt and Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast. Add Fleischmann's Margarine. Gradually add very warm water to dry ingredients and beat 2 minutes at medium speed of electric mixer, scraping bowl occasionally. Add sweet potatoes and 1/2 cup flour mixture; beat at high speed 2 minutes scraping bowl occasionally. Stir in remaining flour mixture and enough additional white flour to make a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board; knead until smooth and elastic, about 8 to 10 minutes. Place in a greased bowl, turning to grease top. Cover; let rise in a warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.

Punch down dough; turn out on lightly floured board and knead in 3 tablespoons toasted sesame seed. Divide dough in half. Roll each half into a 14 x 9-inch rectangle. Shape into loaves. Place in 2 greased 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf pans. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.

Mix egg white and 1 tablespoon water and brush over tops of loaves. Sprinkle with remaining toasted sesame seed. Bake at 375° F. for 35 to 40 minutes, or until done. Remove from pans and place on wire racks to cool.

Texas Triathlon scheduled for April

COLLEGE STATION — The first Texas Triathlon — patterned after the Hawaiian endurance event featuring swimming, running and bicycling — will be held here Saturday, April 10, 1982.

The Texas Triathlon, jointly sponsored by the Texas A&M University Extramural Sports Club Association, Bryan/College Station Chamber of Commerce and Schlitz Brewery, will include swimming one kilometer (20 lengths of a 50-meter pool), running 10 kilometers (6.2 miles) and cycling 30 kilometers (about 18 1/4 miles).

Events begin at 8 a.m. Because of the logistics involved in the swimming, that event will have three starting times — 8, 9, and 10 a.m. — with participants having a choice of which time they begin.

Each participant must be accompanied by a person to be available to count laps at the swimming pool and transport the person's bike to the start of the cycling event.

To obtain registration forms or more information, interested persons may contact the Bryan-College Station Chamber of Commerce, Information and Hospitality Center of Brazos Valley, 2615 Texas Avenue South, College Station, Texas 77840 or call 713/693-6552.

MORE POWER—Tolk Station, Southwestern Public Service Company's new coal-fired electric generating station is located 10 miles east of Muleshoe. The first 561,000 kilowatt generating unit is scheduled to be completed this summer. The second unit will go on line in 1985.

First Coal Delivered To
New SPS Plant

The first trainload of coal at Southwestern Public Service Company's new electrical generating station near Muleshoe was unloaded at the plant last week.

The new power plant is named Tolk Station, in tribute to Roy Tolk, recently retired chairman of the SPS board of directors and a current board member. Tolk threw the switch to dump the first car of coal.

Ben Green, plant manager, said the 110-car unit train delivered approximately 11,000 tons of coal to the Tolk Station site.

With the arrival of additional shipments, about 200,000 tons of coal will be stored at the plant prior to start-up of the first generating unit in June of this year. The 200,000 tons is enough fuel to run the 561,000-kilowatt generator for approximately 60 days during the start-up phase while operating at considerably reduced loads.

Tolk Station is the second coal-fired power plant for SPS. The first, Harrington Station, was completed in 1980 and is presently the largest of Southwestern's 10 generating plants.

The new plant will have a total capability of more than a million kilowatts when completed. The first 561,000 kilowatt unit is scheduled to go on line in July of this year and the second unit in July of 1985.

Commenting on the fuel supply, Green said, "we have enough coal under contract for the life of the plant, which is about 35 years."

SPC Hosts Workshop For Area Students

Area high school seniors who are planning to attend college this fall and who are looking for financial assistance with their college bills can have many of their questions answered at a special Financial Aid Workshop being planned by South Plains College.

The workshop has been scheduled for 7 p.m. Feb. 25 in the Student Assistance Center on the College's Levelland campus.

It's important that students who are seeking financial aid begin the application process soon," Beck said. "Most colleges in Texas require that your application records and need assessment files be finalized by June 1 in order to award financial aid for the fall semester."

Senior Citizens Menu

MONDAY- Swiss Steak, Blackeyed Peas, Fried Okra, Cornbread, Butter, Apricots and Milk.

TUESDAY- Pork Chop Suey, Chinese Noodles, Broccoli, Roll, Butter, Pineapple upside-down Cake, Milk.

A&M professor receives SME award

COLLEGE STATION — Dr. Robert E. Young, assistant professor of industrial engineering at Texas A&M University, has been awarded the 1982 Outstanding Young Manufacturing Engineer Award by the Society of Manufacturing Engineers.

Young is a leader in the construction of miniature machine tools built with plastic parts from West German toy-maker Fischertechnik that simulate factory machines costing millions of dollars. Computerized numerical controls and stepping motors make the machines work like the real thing.

"The SME Honor Awards Committee is deeply impressed by your accomplishments and feels that the society's prestige will be enhanced by your selection to receive this new award," said Arthur R. Thomson, chairman of the committee.

OEA Student Of The Week

OEA STUDENT OF THE WEEK—This week's student is Jana Hammonds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.M. Hammonds Jr. Jana is a junior at THS and is in her first year of OEA. She is studying legal secretary work.

The Merit Report: A Public Opinion Survey

Most Americans, as they prepare to enter the new year, are feeling guarded optimism for their own family financial future and the ability of President Reagan to solve the nation's economic problems. These are among the findings of The Merit Report: A Public Opinion Survey, conducted Dec. 1-6, under the direction of Audits & Surveys, Inc., one of the nation's largest survey research organizations.

Some 1,202 adult Americans living in telephone households were randomly selected to participate in this scientific, nationally projectable survey on current news issues. The Merit Report is sponsored by Merit cigarettes.

(15%) concern. Of those earning more than $25,000 a year, only 22% express either "great" (9%) or "fair" (13%) concern.

City Life In 1982: Better or Worse?

Half of all Americans (51%) think life in cities will get worse in 1982 than it is now. A third (32%) believe the quality of city life will stay about the same. Only one in ten (10%) say city life will improve in the coming year. This pessimistic outlook is found across the board by sex, age, income and region of the country.

The Home Is Still One's Castle

Despite the fact that Americans believe life in cities will get worse in the coming year, and that crime is on the increase, the great majority of all Americans (89%) feel either "fairly safe" (50%) or "very safe" (39%) in their homes at night. Less than one in ten (9%) feel either "fairly unsafe" (5%) or "very unsafe" (4%). Fewer people with incomes under $15,000 are likely to say they feel safe (81%) than those earning over $25,000 (94%). Men and women both feel safe in their homes, but more men (93%) say they feel safe than women (85%).

Mexico is estimated to have enough oil to supply all U.S. needs for the next 40 years.

Family Finances in 1982

Nearly two-thirds (64%) of American adults are either "somewhat optimistic" (49%) or "very optimistic" (15%) about their family financial outlook for 1982. Over a quarter (29%), however, are either "somewhat pessimistic" (20%) or "very pessimistic" (9%) about family finances in the year to come. Optimism about family finances increases with income. Seventy-five percent of adults making over $25,000 a year express optimism (54% are "somewhat optimistic" and 21% "very optimistic"). Sixty-eight percent of those earning $15,000 — $25,000 are either "somewhat optimistic" (56%) or "very optimistic" (12%). A smaller, 45%, of those making under $15,000 a year are either "somewhat optimistic" (36%) or "very optimistic" (9%).

Job Security in 1982

In households where the head of household is employed, one in three of adult Americans express either a "fair" (14%) or "great" (19%) amount of concern about the head of household losing his or her job during 1982. The majority (66%) of Americans, however, express "little" (28%) or "no" (38%) concern. Fears concerning job security decrease as income increases. One-half (50%) of those earning under $15,000 a year express "great concern" (35%) or "fair concern" (15%). Fewer (36%) of those earning $15,000 — $25,000 say they feel either "great" (21%) or "fair"

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA CELEBRATES 72ND ANNIVERSARY

With the theme, "The Better Life... Through Conservation", the South Plains Council will celebrate the 72nd Anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America from February 7th to the 13th.

Cub Scout Packs, Boy Scout Troops and Explorer Posts are encouraged to plan and take part in a variety of activities. Mayor's Proclamations, Blue and Gold Banquets, Scout Family night suppers, Window displays in shopping centers, and a rededication of Scouting's partnership with chartered organizations are just a few of the many activities that will be taking place during this important week. This week is just one part of the year-long program theme, "Save Our American Resources... for the Better Life."

Youth members are encouraged to wear their uniforms to school on Monday, February 8, officially designated as Uniform Day.

Scouting can make its presence known in every community on Scout Sunday, February 7. Units are encouraged to share this date with all youth members, encouraging these youth members and their families to participate, in uniform, at the church of their choice on Sunday, February 7.

TTI conducting van-pool census

COLLEGE STATION — If you drive your own van and regularly haul at least seven other people to and from work, researchers at the Texas Transportation Institute want to hear from you.

Experts with TTI, a transportation research branch of the Texas A&M University System and the state agency responsible for promoting and counting vanpools in Texas, are trying to obtain an accurate count of individually owned and operated ride-share vehicles.

What van census takers lack, said Dr. Don Maxwell — a civil engineer at Texas A&M and director of the TTI vanpool project — is an accurate estimate of how many vanpools are owned by individuals or a group of neighbors. "We know of about 30 some-odd cases, but we feel there must be at least 300 we don't know about," he said.

Maxwell asks any individual vanpool operators to contact his office with the Texas Transportation Institute at Texas A&M University.

Homeowners, if structural defects are uncovered in your home, you may be able to get the builder to fix them, even if you aren't the original owner, says Dr. Jane Berry, a housing and home furnishings specialist.

In the past, homebuilders' warranties have traditionally covered only problems encountered by the original owner, but the courts have ruled in South Carolina and in Wyoming that builders can be liable for latent defects discovered within the first few years.

Berry is on the home economics staff of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Thank You

Since we may not be able to see each of you, may we take this way of saying a heartfelt Thank You to all of you who have been so very supportive during Delwin's series of surgeries. He has had two of them, and the surgeon is very encouraging and confident that all is just as it should be. Delwin will have another 10 hour surgery on Feb. 17, and we hope to be back home by March 1. Your gifts of money, the many, many cards and gifts Delwin has received and above all the knowledge of your support and prayers has meant more to us than we can ever express. Only God knows the depth of our feelings and only he can repay each of you for the wonderful things you have done. All we can do is say a very inadequate Thank You. Tom and Lavonia Crutchfield 6-1tp

We would like to thank everyone for the prayers, cards, flowers, and food given to us during the loss of our loved one. We really appreciate all the kind deeds in a time of great need and comfort.

In Christian love,
The Family of Wayne Cloe 6-1tc

To "all" of you in Lynn County, take a gallon of your well or city water and put it in a stainless steel boiler, then boil it down to a "pint". See the white material that sticks to the side of your pan. Ask yourself what happens to this when you drink or cook with it. Does it go into your joints or where? This may be causing it to hurt. "Think" seriously about this. Our water distillers "remove" this plus all the other impurities. We will take your order by telephone.
