New Rains Add To Farmers' Misery

Lynn County's farmers, delivered a TKO by a couple of storms in mid-June, took an additional blow last week as another heavy rain and windstorm struck, killing the chances of getting into the fields, and washing out some more cotton--including some which had just been replanted.

County Agent Stanley Young told Lynn County Commissioners Court Monday that the loss estimate was upgraded Friday after a heavy rainstorm Wednesday night blocked highways in every direction from Tahoka from high water and made new lakes in fields.

"The county emergency disaster committee met Friday and we now believe 80 per cent of all the cotton yield is lost," Young said. "This means the cotton loss alone in Lynn County will be about $44 million." He added that figuring in damage to farm equipment--some overturned and damaged by winds and many tractors in mud up to the engines--and adding damage to an estimated 300 homes, the total loss will reach $60 million.

Young said that of 730 farmers in the county, 80 per cent of the group has been estimated to have a total loss.

Although a disaster survey team from the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture was in the area this week, no information was immediately available regarding any disaster designation for the county and accompanying aid.

Some farm observers estimate five percent or less of healthy cotton is left in Lynn County as violent rain, hail and wind storms have continued over the past week.

Although Tahoka received only an inch and a half total this past seven days and 4.28 inches for the month of June, almost all the rest of the county has received much, much more. For example, Ben Moore Jr., O'Donnell weather observer, reported more than five inches in two rains.

Further hail and rain, sand and wet weather seedling disease have taken out even more cotton that could have been saved with favorable weather.

Continuing wet weather is preventing farmers from getting in fields to plant some kind of crop, although some were planting Monday and Tuesday.

Some are still replanting cotton, others plan to plant maize, a few sunflowers, if they get a chance, and a few plan to let their land lay out.

Many farmers are in desperate circumstances financially, and it is feared many are going broke unless saved by some adequate relief program--low interest loans will not help many farmers, since they have already borrowed the limit and already have more money in this destroyed crop than it normally takes to produce one.

With all commissioners present, the county group also took care of several other items of business. Bids on purchase of a new car for the sheriff's department were opened, and the low bid of Bray Chevrolet for $9385.60 on a unit meeting the specifications of the sheriff's office was accepted.

Also approved were sending an employe to janitor school in Lubbock, making payroll withholding possible on an optional cancer insurance plan, and contracting with the juvenile detention center in Lubbock to take care of Lynn juveniles. Also, Lucio Trevino was hired as a corrections officer for the sheriff's department.

Stenholm To Be In Tahoka On Monday

Congressman Charles Stenholm will be in Tahoka on Monday, July 5, at 8:30 a.m. for a "Chat with Charlie." The congressman will be in the District Courtroom and anyone who would like to talk to Charlie personally is urged to attend.

Congressman Stenholm will give an update report on events in Washington and cover all subjects mentioned by those in attendance.

The ceremony will take place at the Tahoka Mini-Park at 8 p.m. July 15. There will be a $1 charge to those attending the weddin' and home grown talent and entertainment to follow. Refreshments will be served for a fee (ice cream, cokes, popcorn, 50 cents each)."

Burglary Suspects Caught At Scene

A call from an alert nearby resident who heard glass breaking at Chancy and Son Exxon Station after midnight Friday resulted in the arrest of two men near the scene and the thwarting of a burglary attempt.

Police and sheriff's officers and a reserve officer went to the scene and arrested two suspects after they fled in a car, leaving some tires and a battery charger outside the building where they had been taken.

Charged with burglary were Kenneth Eugene Flowers, 48, of Hobbs, N.M., and Welton Thomas Flowers, 58, of Tahoka.

A 19-year-old black Tahoka man was charged with attempted theft over $20 and under $200 after he was seen reaching into the cash drawer at Tahoka City Hall last Wednesday. He threw the money down and left after being seen by city employes, and was arrested a few minutes later by police and sheriff's officers.

Sheriff Stanley Krause and DPS Officer Jerry Griffin, noting that a barricade on FM 1317 which is under water a mile west of U.S. 87 has been torn down several times, advised that anyone caught tearing down the barricade will be subject to fine up to $1,000 or up to two years in jail, or both. The water has been over that road about two feet deep for several days.

Water over U.S. 87 caused at least two accidents during the last week. DPS investigated one such collision at O'Donnell Saturday night, with no injuries, and another about 14 miles north of Tahoka last Wednesday.

THERE'S ANOTHER FUNNY STORY making the rounds which may or may not be true. It's kind of like the story that lots of folks were telling a couple of years back about a woman who broke her leg skiing at Ruidoso--only it also was told for other ski resorts, so probably was made up in the first place.

Anyway, we got this one from the Pocahontas Star Herald, which also sounds like something somebody made up, but the lady who brought us the paper (Pocahontas is in Arkansas) says there really is such a place. True or not, here is the story:

Three women, all in their 70s, are good friends who enjoy going places together. Not long ago they announced to their families that they had made arrangements to fulfill a lifetime dream of visiting New York City.

Their relatives told them they weren't so sure it was a good idea for them to go to the big city by themselves at their ages, but after talking with them and warning them about all the bad things which could happen in the large city, advising them to be on the alert for muggers, etc., they saw the three women off.

The ladies saw the sights in New York for a day or two, then one day decided to strike out again for more entertainment, entered an elevator in the large hotel in which they were staying and punched the button to descend to the lobby from the seventh floor. They were alone on the elevator, when it stopped in its descent at the third floor, and a very large man got on the elevator with two huge Dobermans. The three ladies simply froze with fright, and the big man immediately ordered, "Sit!"--The three little gray haired women dropped like bombs to the floor to "sit", not realizing that the command was to the dogs.

The women said they were relieved when the big man started laughing so hard that he was still shaking with mirth when they all alit from the elevator into the lobby.

Later that day, when the women prepared to check out of the hotel to leave for home the desk clerk informed them that they didn't owe anything, that it had been paid, and he handed them a note.--The note simply thanked the little ladies for "making someone's day", --stating that the man on the elevator had started out the day, his morale low, and the three women's action at his command to his dogs had given him the biggest laugh he'd had in months, and that the two or three hundred dollars he spent for their bill at the hotel was well spent.

The note was signed "Reggie Jackson."

Reunion Awards Made

By FRANK HILL

Although attendance was a little less than usual, the crowd attending the annual Pioneer Reunion Saturday, obviously enjoyed the fellowship, meeting old friends, and recalling events of earlier days. Many declared the barbecue lunch was superb.

Following the meal, John Ed Redwine, who presided, presented the special awards.

A special award was presented Mr. and Mrs. Wes Luttrell, who have attended every reunion since the affair began in 1934, when Mrs. J.S. Wells initiated the Pioneer Reunion idea. The meeting has been held annually on the Saturday nearest her birthday, June 24.

Mrs. Strain Honored

Mrs. J.R. (Bessie) Strain, 87, of New Home, won out as the eldest lady who had not previously won the award. Close competitors were Mrs. Belton Howell and Mrs. Lady Stewart.

Hugo Maeker, 84, of Wilson, a reunion attendant for many years, won the oldest man present award.

Mrs. Marie James of Grass Valley, Calif., a Wells family relative here for the first time, won the award for the person coming the greatest distance. Visitors were here from other far-away places, even from Alaska, but some of them had previously won.

Awards for the best decorated business show windows were Genny's Ready-to-Wear, first; and Marrier Furniture, second.

This year's reunion was staged under direction of Jim Wells, president, and wife Chloe Jan, secretary-treasurer.

New Officers

Dan Stone is the new president, advancing from vice president, and his wife, Donna, becomes the new secretary-treasurer.

The group elected Wayne Tekell as the new vice president, without opposition.

McCord Motor Co. Offers Direct Leasing

McCord Motor Co. has announced a new direct leasing plan that should encourage credit-worthy individuals and businesses that own or operate less than 20 vehicles to take a closer look at advantages of leasing, a closer look than they might have possibly given in the past.

This new GMAC Direct Leasing Plan incorporates the following features:

- (1) New General Motors passenger cars of any size and make, and light trucks up to 15,000 pounds gross vehicle weight, are available.
- (2) Credit-worthy individuals and businesses which own or operate less than 20 vehicles can be benefited.
- (3) The open and closed-end leases involve terms not to exceed 48 months. Maintenance leases are not eligible.
- (4) Outside insurance may be obtained.
- (5) A 12.5 per cent interest rate is effective July 1—July 31, 1982 only. After July 31, 1982, a 15.5 per cent interest rate will apply.

Comparison Made

It is pointed out, for comparison purposes only, that it would be possible for a customer to save up to $25 to $30 per monthly payment during the month of July 1982, because of the special interest rate of 12.5 per cent which, it is emphasized, will be in effect during the month of July only.

Family Focus

By Harriett Pierce

You have a job, a family and "no time" to relax. "Later, maybe, but not now," you tell yourself.

Private time is absolutely essential to mental well-being -- no matter how many responsibilities you may have.

Too many people feel they're not entitled to taking time for themselves.

However, recent studies tell us that mental stress and fatigue have "close ties" with physical illness.

Finding time for oneself IS healthy for you -- it IS NOT selfishness.

When a person takes time out for himself -- to do for himself, to take care of himself -- he reflects a good self-image.

As one saying goes, "You'll pay at the doctor's office what you don't pay for a vacation."

Too often most people -- women, in particular

-- feel they are never free from their responsibilities to the family and/or the job.

They will end up, instead, taking AWAY from the family and job anyway by being ill more often, being less responsive to others or by turning against themselves because of exhaustion.

Everyone -- adults and children alike -- needs enough time for themselves to relax, unwind and escape responsibility.

Challenge yourself to "make" time rather than to "take" time from responsibilities.

Overcoming the "guilt" of "doing nothing" may be the first barrier to hurdle -- and probably the most difficult.

Start with these specific goals to make time for yourself:

1. Share household tasks among all family members, equally distributing the menial and difficult tasks of home, job and family.

2. Find a rewarding outlet outside of your work and home -- one that is stimulating to you.

3. Or learn a new skill that you think you can enjoy developing.

When the newness, the resentment and guilt have all disappeared, you, too, will find that taking some time to relax IS being good to yourself.

47 Persons May Die On Weekend

The Department of Public Safety today estimated that as many as 47 persons could die in traffic accidents during this July 4th weekend unless drivers are exceptionally careful.

Colonel Jim Adams, DPS director, said the risk of traffic accidents will increase during the 78-hour holiday period as more drivers take to the streets and highways for the holidays.

"As in many weekend traffic accidents, alcohol, excessive speed, and failure to use seat belts are the major contributing factors in the traffic deaths," he said.

DPS statistics show that 63 persons were killed during the last 4th of July holiday and 25 of those fatalities resulted from accidents in which driving while intoxicated was a factor.

"We know that drinking may have been involved in more of the traffic deaths, but since state law does not require blood alcohol samples from traffic victims, we are uncertain how many more of the deaths may have involved drivers impaired by alcohol," Adams noted.

The DPS director said additional troopers would be assigned to areas where heavy volumes of traffic are expected.

The DPS Operation Motorcade counting period begins at 6 p.m. Friday, July 2, and continues through midnight Monday, July 5. The Department will tabulate city and highway traffic fatalities and release totals three times daily at 10 a.m., 3 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Brucellosis Ruling Is Appealed

Commissioners of the Texas Animal Health Commission have decided to appeal the recent ruling of Judge Harley Clark regarding the Texas brucellosis program.

"The present Texas brucellosis program will continue as it is presently being administered," John B. Armstrong, Kingsville, chairman, Texas Animal Health Commission, said.

He also said Commissioners will submit recommendations to the Texas Legislature so that the Texas brucellosis program will conform to state statutes and be in accordance with federal regulations.

U.S. Department of Agriculture officials have indicated they will not enforce the quarantine on day. Drivers in that collision, also not reported injured, were Polly Gwin of Matador, in a 1977 Buick station wagon, and Gonzalo Mendoza of Lubbock, in a 1970 Ford.

The sheriff's office answered seven family disturbance calls during the week.

In jail during the week were four for public intoxication, four for theft by checks, two for burglary, and one each for attempted theft, attempted murder and traffic violation.

Tahoka police made three arrests during the past week for public intoxication. Police also investigated an assault on a woman and a shooting at the county showbarn late Saturday night during the dance. No one was injured in either case and no charges had been filed.

Police answered one family disturbance call and a complaint about teenagers parking around in the Echo Motel parking lot and making noise.

A woman on N. 5th reported to police that someone had tried to kick her front door in on Friday night.

One ticket was issued for failure to control speed which resulted in an accident with a fixed object.

News From Lynn County Hospital

The hospital is partially supported by taxes and is governed by a seven member board elected by the voters of Lynn County for a two year term each, with three elected one year and four the next year so there will always be experienced members on the board. The annual payroll for the hospital amounts to more than $500,000 and other expenses added to this makes a total operating budget of more than $1,000,000 per year.

The hospital is a member of the Texas Hospital Association, Northwest Texas Hospital Association, approved by Medicare, Medicaid, Blue Cross of Texas and other insurance companies. It is licensed by the Texas Department of Health for 24 beds and 6 bassinets in the nursery.

The hospital has purchased Radio Equipment that will allow our hospital and ambulance direct contact with the hospitals in Lubbock in case of emergencies. This equipment was purchased at approximately $5,000 through South Plains Emergency Medical Service and the hospital only paid about 25 percent of the original cost including installation in the hospital and ambulance. O'Donnell Ambulance Service has the same type of radio equipment and both ambulance services in Lynn County will be able to contact Lubbock Hospitals in case of emergency transfers to Lubbock.

The public is invited to come out and visit the hospital at any time. It is your hospital and needs your support. Use it when you need to be hospitalized.

GETTING USED TO BIFOCALS
If you can move your eyes, you won't have any problem getting used to bifocals. The eyeglasses have to be properly fitted so they are centered in front of your eyes. The rest is up to you.

Your eyes will move up to use the vision correction in the upper part of the lenses. That's for looking at objects beyond your reading distance, depending on your vision problem. Your eyes move down naturally when you're reading to make use of the lower part of the lens.

Walking up or down stairs may be a problem at first. You have to look down to see where you're going. You may find it easier to use the upper part of your lens. All you have to do is bend your chin down a bit. The same goes when you're stepping off a curb. It just takes a little practice.

Bifocals are convenient to use. You don't have to change glasses for different kinds of viewing. But if you'd rather have two sets of glasses, you have that option, too.

Flea Markets Are Visited By Comptroller

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said Comptroller-enforcement officers are visiting flea markets across the state to make sure all Texas retailers are treated equally.

"We have received complaints from taxpayers about competitors who don't charge or don't pay sales taxes. The business people who have made these complaints are only asking for what they deserve--to be treated just exactly like their neighbors and their competitors," Bullock said.

We are looking for people who continually sell merchandise. When you start setting up shop week in and week out, you're not a garage sale anymore, you are a retailer. And the Legislature says retailers

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell, in accordance with the rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas, hereby gives notice of the company's intent to implement a new schedule of telephone rates in Texas, effective July 27, 1982, unless otherwise determined by the Commission.

It is expected that the requested rate schedule will furnish a 13.4 percent increase in the company's intrastate revenues.

A complete copy of the new rate schedule is on file with the Public Utility Commission at Austin, Texas, and with each affected municipality served by Southwestern Bell, and is available for inspection in each of the company's public business offices in Texas. The Commission staff has contended in the past that all rates are subject to change as a result of Southwestern Bell's rate application.

Notice to El Paso Area Customers

Effective January 1, 1982, Southwestern Bell adopted the Mountain States tariffs in effect for El Paso County. Southwestern Bell proposes to merge the separate El Paso tariffs with its tariffs applicable to the rest of Texas. The resulting new rate schedule is on file with the PUC and the El Paso area municipalities served by Southwestern Bell, and is available for inspection at our El Paso business office.

Notice to Customers of Other Telephone Companies

The filing includes, but is not limited to, proposals to increase rates for interexchange private line and foreign exchange (FX) service. Changes in such rates would also affect customers of other telephone companies because such companies provide interexchange private line and foreign exchange service in accordance with rates specified in Southwestern Bell's tariffs. While Southwestern Bell has proposed no increase in long distance rates, any change in those rates would also affect customers of other telephone companies.

Aviso Público

Southwestern Bell, en conformidad a las reglas del Public Utility Commission (Comisión de Servicios Públicos) de Texas, por la presente hace saber su intención de establecer un nuevo arancel para servicio de teléfono en Texas con vigencia a partir del 27 de julio, 1982, a menos que la Comisión haga otra determinación.

Se espera que el nuevo arancel que se ha solicitado rendirá un aumento de 13.4 por ciento en los ingresos intraestatales de la compañía.

Una copia completa del nuevo arancel se ha archivado en las oficinas del Public Utility Commission en Austin, Texas, al igual que en cada municipalidad afectada y servida por Southwestern Bell, y cada una de las oficinas de la compañía para negocios con el público en Texas tiene una copia para lectura pública. En el pasado, la Comisión ha sostenido que toda tarifa está sujeta a cambios que resulten de la manera en la cual Southwestern Bell aplique sus tarifas.

Aviso a Clientes en la Región de El Paso

Con vigencia a partir del 1o de enero de 1982, Southwestern Bell ha adoptado las tarifas de Mountain States efectivas en el condado de El Paso. Southwestern Bell propone unir las tarifas de El Paso con sus otras tarifas que se aplican al resto de Texas. El nuevo arancel que resulta de esta unión se ha archivado en la Comisión de Servicios Públicos (Public Utility Commission), al igual que en las municipalidades de la región de El Paso servidas por Southwestern Bell, y está disponible para inspección pública en nuestras oficinas de El Paso.

Aviso a los Clientes de Otras Compañías de Teléfono

El registro incluye, pero no se limita a, propuestas para aumentar las tarifas para servicio de línea privada entre centrales telefónicas (interexchange private line) y servicio de central telefónica extranjera (foreign exchange FX). Cambios en dichas tarifas de servicio también afectarían a clientes de otras compañías de teléfono porque dichas compañías proveen los servicios ya mencionados en conformidad a tarifas especificadas por Southwestern Bell. Aunque Southwestern Bell no ha propuesto un aumento en las tarifas para larga distancia, cualquier cambio en las mismas también afectaría a los clientes de otras compañías de teléfono.

"I never saw a rancher that was liberal with a paycheck or conservative about gittin' a man up early."

STILL SOME COTTON--Excessive rains and high winds have created numerous situations like this one in Lynn County. This farm near the West Point community still had a fair stand of cotton; however, hail, rain, wind, flooding and seven trips over the field have all taken their toll.

(SCS Photograph by Os Longoria)

An urgent telegram from Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. to Secretary of Agriculture John Block tells the sad story.

Asking that appropriate action be taken immediately, the wire advised the Secretary that "Hail, rain, wind and cold temperatures have destroyed an estimated 1.5 million acres of High Plains cotton," and that such "unprecedented losses and the pre-existing financial plight of producers clearly justify activating the disaster payment program authorized in . . . the 1981 farm law."

Copies of the telegram went to area representatives, Texas Senators and to House Agriculture Committee Chairman Kika de la Garza.

Putting the disaster program into effect would mean more and possibly quicker income on lost crops and crops not planted because of insufficient moisture, and also would provide additional income on weather-damaged crops yielding less than 75 percent of the farm's payment yield.

Without the disaster program the farmers who planted cotton, whether or not it is harvested, could expect target price payments of from 10 cents to 13.92 cents per pound times the farm's payment yield, the actual payment rate depending on the average price paid to all U. S. farmers for all cotton during the 1982 calendar year.

Disaster provisions of the 1981 farm law under a given set of circumstances permits the Secretary to pay producers who were never able to plant or whose cotton has been destroyed 23.67 cents per pound times 75 percent of the farm's established payment yield. This payment could be made as soon as calculated, and the same farmers later would be eligible for the target price deficiency payment times the other 25 percent of their payment yield. Crops carried to harvest under the disaster program would be eligible for 23.67-cent per pound payment times the difference between actual yield and 75 percent of the payment yield, plus the deficiency payment rate on that portion of the payment yield not receiving a disaster payment.

"Secretary Block has agreed to send one or more department officials to see for themselves the sorry state of our crops," notes PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson. "And, thanks to the National Cotton Council we have the full support of every segment of the industry, so we are encouraged that the Secretary may be persuaded to use his authority to give us as much relief as possible within the limits of the law."

On other fronts, emergency federal loans are being sought for farmers through the FMHA and by way of asking the President to designate the High and Rolling Plains as disaster areas.

"Relief from all these sources and more is going to be necessary to forestall economic convulsions more severe than any ever seen before in the agricultural sector," Johnson said, "and we can only hope that federal officials will recognize this fact and act accordingly."

ESTIMATE DAMAGE--County Emergency Board members shown here are from left to right: Jimmy Woodard, ASCS; Jimmy Hobson, FmHa; Eual Davis, SCS; and Stanley Young, County Extension Agent. Not shown but participating were Judge Melvin Burks and Commissioner J.C. Gandy. The Emergency Board met for the second time last week on Friday, to update earlier figures on the extent of damage to crops, homes, equipment, roads, and cropland fields in Lynn County. Causes of the extensive damage were listed as hail, wind, rain and flooding. Figures prepared by the board will be submitted through the State to Washington and will also be available to the special task force in the area making their own assessment of the damage.

Severe Weather Received In Lynn County-- A very large part of the cotton crop in Lynn County has been lost. Deficiency payments are the only direct payments that can be made under present regulations. These are made based on your certified acres. Before you replace cotton with another crop, you must certify or sign up for measurement service for the failed cotton. Failure to do so will mean loss of possible payments on the cotton crop. Set aside required to participate in the cotton program must be certified and rules for set aside followed even if the cotton fails and is replanted to another crop. Be sure to check with this office if you have any questions. After the weather damage the county has received, we do not want any producer to lose any payments due him.

Measurement Service By Slides-- In 1982 measurement service and spot checks will be done by the use of slides taken from an airplane. This method requires more information from you when you sign up. You will need to show us on the map of your farm generally such things as crop areas with different skip row patterns, gardens, set aside, outs, turnrows, etc. This will require more time when you come in so do not wait until the last day. You may want to bring in a sketch of your farm with you. This is a new procedure for us and your patience will be appreciated.

Cotton And Grain Sorghum On Set Aside-- If you have planted cotton or grain sorghum on set aside acres and plan to plow up or shred these crops later, July 15 is a date to remember. The slides for measurement service will be taken soon after this date. Crops still standing will show up on the slide as that crop. Your measurement service request will not be of much help if the crop is still standing.

The office will be closed July 5 for a holiday.

FARMERS FACE DIFFICULT DECISIONS

Lynn County's cotton crop is virtually at a total loss. Severe storms beginning June 18 and continued for the following week has destroyed approximately 85 per cent of our projected 260,000 acre crop. Many of these acres are unhealthy and still dying. It is estimated over 50 million dollar loss has occurred.

The decision a farmer must face are multiple: A farmer can decide to leave his land idle and not tie up any more funds in the crop; or he can choose an alternate crop such as grain sorghum, soybeans, sunflowers, forage crops or a soil building type crop; or preparation can be made for establishing wheat on the damaged acres to allow for a source of income before fall of '83 both from harvest and grazing fees, or replant to an early variety cotton crop.

Many of the decisions will have to be reached with the aid of his financial lender and what will fit into his own particular program.

If he chooses to replant cotton, it is most important to use an early maturity cotton such as Tamco CAMD-E, Early Cot 48, Paymaster 793 or Cascot B-2. Prospects to harvest replanted cotton is very slim. Farmers are encouraged to weigh the yield potentials, quality prospects and market outlook before he makes this decision- however we realize our cotton farmers feel the need to raise some cotton for sake of being called a "cotton farmer." Alternate crops offers some returns, if grain sorghum is selected medium varieties can still be planted up until the first of next week, after that date early varieties should be considered in your selection. Most important is to make sure seed placement is below your herbicide zone in order to secure germination. Soybeans offer an opportunity especially where supplemental irrigation water is available. Selection should be from maturity group IV and V. Seed may be limited so contact your dealer as soon as possible. Sunflowers offer a third alternative crop. Some contracts are available. Variety selection should be made in consultation with your seed supplier.

These alternative crops offer our best outlook at the present - hopefully Mother Nature will look our direction with favorable weather for the remainder of the growing season and allow us to salvage some of the '82 crop.

For more information, please contact us at the Extension Office, 1600 Ave. J in Tahoka or call 998-4650.

Art Viewed At Museum

Tahoka Pioneer Museum had many visitors Saturday to view the exhibits and art show it sponsored.

On exhibit were works of three outstanding artists of this area, Bob Chennault of Lubbock, Rodney Watson of Plainview, and Bill Craig of Tahoka.

On display were oils, water colors, prints, and bronze cast works of art. Sales of the works of art were only fair, however, probably due to depressed farming conditions.

About one hundred people registered for the art exhibit. Visitors were served lemonade and coffee.
