Swimmers Will Boost Cancer Fund

Next Monday the local cancer unit is sponsoring a "Swim for Life" to be held at the Tahoka Swimming Pool from 1 to 5 p.m.

Local youth and adult swimmers will swim for the benefit of The American Cancer Society. Macky Turner of the local unit said that swimmers will obtain sponsors who will pledge so much for each lap a swimmer completes. A lap will be the length of the pool and there are no rules on the swimming stroke used, whether it be dogpaddling, back stroke, floating, or what. Anything goes as long as the swimmer reaches the other end of the pool. Swimmers can take a break after each swim and still be eligible to enter the water again and swim more laps.

Prizes are being given to the swimmer for the most money raised, the most laps completed, and one for the oldest and youngest swimmer. "Swim for Life" iron-on decals will be given each swimmer. To be eligible for the prizes, the participants must turn in their money by Monday, Aug. 16 at the Tahoka Dental Office. Prizes will be awarded Aug. 23 at the gazebo in the mini-park.

In case of bad weather, August 9 will be the alternate date.

To obtain entry blanks, a swimmer should contact Macky Turner or the swimming pool in Tahoka; Wendell McClendon or the O'Donnell pool in O'Donnell, or Mrs. Pearl Davidson in Wilson.

Light refreshments will be served to the participants during the swim.

WOODWORK

by DALTON

THE SUBJECT of hitchhiking came up at the office the other day as a couple of females told how a hitchhiker thought they were going to pick him up when they had to turn around and go back by him because they had made a wrong turn.

Thumbing it used to be a way of easy travel for lots of people, and I remember how as a teenager (our kids don't believe I was ever that young) I used to hitchhike a lot, with no problems.

We lived at Jacksboro then, and it is about 60 miles to Fort Worth. Quite often a couple of us boys would hitchhike to Fort Worth, look around at Kress and Leonard Bros. stores, and then catch a city bus back out to the highway and hitchhike home that afternoon. Sometimes during the school term, we'd do this almost every Saturday. Often we would go to a movie at the Worth Theater right down in the middle of town.

We would even ride the bus from Jacksboro to Fort Worth occasionally, but usually we could hitchhike home faster than the bus could take us.

In those days, the early 1940s, there was very little danger in hitchhiking for boys. I remember once getting into a car with a drunk driver but he let me out when I asked him to (about two miles and six wounded pedestrians down the road).

Now, of course, people still hitchhike, but they are taking great chances. It's dangerous to thumb a ride, and it's dangerous to pick up a hitchhiker. In either case, something unpleasant or worse could happen.

Does this mean there is more violence per capita now than there was then, or that there are more wierdos everywhere? I think it does.

If you try to hitch a ride, or if you decide to pick up someone, you stand a good chance of running into a robber, murderer, rapist or rock music lover. There are strange people every place...including newspaper offices, I guess.

Cotton Disaster Aid Program Explained

About 85 farmers heard discussions of the current Department of Agriculture disaster program by National Cotton Council and USDA officials at a meeting in the Lyntegar building Monday from 9:30 to 11 a.m. presided over by Wayne Huf-faker.

Principal speakers were Gaylon Booker and Charles (Buddy) Bragg of NCC, Memphis, Tenn., and Jimmy Woodard, Lynn County ASCS office manager. Also present to answer questions were Fred Johnson of NCC, Don Perry of Farmers Home Administration, and Don Tatum, ASCS district director.

Booker explained some details of the disaster program and the amount farmers may expect to receive. Using an example of a crop totally destroyed with a 375-pound cotton allotment approved, the farmer can expect to receive from 75 per cent of this figure, 20.5 cents per pound, or $57.61 per acre. In addition, on the other 25 per cent of the approved poundage allotment, the farmer may receive about 12 cents per pound in a deficiency payment, or $11.28 an acre. Thus, on an approved 375 pounds per acre he may receive a total of $68.87 per acre on totally destroyed cotton land.

Some farmers with cotton remaining, may not be paid until after harvest, or may qualify to draw partial payment.

Bragg stated the crop insurance program was totally inadequate, evidenced by the fact that only six per cent of Texas farmers took out crop insurance. Efforts are being made, he said, to improve this program.

Bragg, a Tahoka native, explained the efforts to secure the disaster program, and complimented highly Representatives Kent Hance, Charles Stenholm, and Jack Hightower; Senators John Tower and Lloyd Bentsen, and Gov. Bill Clements; the Secretary of Agriculture and the Reagan Administration for making the disaster program possible.

Bragg also explained many other details of the program, and answered questions from the crowd.

Under an Emergency Conservation Program, $25 million has been approved for repair of terraces, land washes, etc., details of which are yet to be announced.

Perry of FmHA explained briefly the eight per cent emergency loan program.

Woodard went into detail in explaining the importance of meeting requirements by Aug. 2 for compliance certification, particularly in regard to set-aside acres, replanted cotton, replanting of maize and sunflowers on destroyed land, and every farmers making certain he is in compliance. He also answered many questions in regard to the program.

During the program, movies taken by Lubbock television stations of crop damage were shown. This film of unprecedented havoc was also shown to Department of Agriculture officials in Washington.

Crime Line Success Is Reported

Lubbock's Crime Line, from which Lynn County's is modeled, has been a big success, Police Sgt. Doyle Nelson told Rotarians last Thursday noon. He and Sgt. Gaylon Taylor supervise the Crime Line organization.

Lubbock Crime Line has solved 33 per cent of crimes reported, with 553 arrests of people charged with crimes. It has recovered $567,000 in stolen merchandise and $41,000 worth of drugs.

Set up in April, 1979 during the term of Mayor Dirk West, Lubbock Crime Line is modeled after Albuquerque, N.M. Crime Line. Citizens are encouraged to report by telephone clues to crimes committed. Name of the person reporting is never revealed to the Crime Line, but he is given a number, requested to report back later for further instructions, and if his information leads to an arrest, he is paid $500 or more through an intermediary. The reporter's name is never made known, unless he offers to testify in court. Funds for Crime Line are raised by tax-free donations of businesses and individuals interested in reducing crime.

He said several Lynn County crimes have been solved by Lubbock Crime Line.

Sheriff Stanley Krause has taken the lead in organizing a Lynn County Crime Line, which is already paying off with the solving of several crimes here. Donations to the project are sought to keep the program in Lynn County going.

Incidentally, Nelson, with Lubbock Police Dept. for 22 years, was reared in Gordon community of Lynn County, according to County Judge Melvin Burks, who arranged the program.

New Superintendent Named At Wilson

Raymond Bethke has been employed as superintendent for the Wilson School District, following the resignation of former superintendent L.F. Jacobs, who retired at the end of the 1982 school year.

Bethke and his wife, Pat, and one son moved to Wilson July 1 from Round Rock where he was employed as principal of Robertson Elementary School, the largest elementary school in Round Rock. They have two sons; Craig, 21, who is employed at a camp in Kerrville and Jeffrey, 18, who lives at home now, but will be attending Texas Tech University this fall. Mrs. Bethke is a certified teacher.

Bethke graduated from Sam Houston State University receiving a Bachelors degree. He then went on to receive his Master's degree from Sam Houston. He has done post-graduate work there also. Bethke also attended Texas A&M University where he took several education administrative courses.

The Bethkes attend the Lutheran Church and plan to join the St. John Lutheran Church in Wilson when their eldest son returns home from his summer job.

The new superintendent is a member of Texas Association of School Administrators (TSTA), the American Association of School Administrators (AASA), and a life member of the Texas Elementary Principal and Supervisors Association (TEPSA).

In his 22 years involvement in education, Bethke's first nine years were as Junior High-High School coach. The next five were spent teaching at Alvin Community College in Alvin and the last eight were at three different elementary schools in Round Rock.

Officers Looking For Rape Suspect

Lynn County Sheriff's Dept. this week continued its investigation into the reported rape of a 27-year-old farm housewife last week, with a composite drawing of a suspect being studied by area law enforcement officers.

The mother of two children told officers last week that she was attacked by a white man who entered the farm home in the county about 10 p.m. Monday, Aug. 19, while her husband was away.

She described her attacker as about 5-8, slender build, and in his late 20's, driving a small car, possibly a Toyota. He was wearing blue jeans, a yellow short sleeve shirt and a brown and yellow cloth plaid hat, she said, when he first stopped at the home about 9:10 p.m. purportedly to ask directions to Tahoka.

She said she was in the bathroom and four young children were playing in the front room of the house, when the man returned through the back door, carrying a hammer in his hand and this time with no shirt or hat on.

The man reportedly threatened to hurt her and the children unless she cooperated. He told her to go with him outside to a garden area some distance from the house, which she said she did because of fear for the children. She said he then forced her to remove her clothing and attacked her in the garden.

She was treated at Lubbock General Hospital, where she also was met by a representative of the Rape Crisis Center.

Tire tracks and tennis shoe prints were found in the area by officers who were continuing their investigation this week.

Tahoka police investigated a two-car accident on Saturday at 9:30 p.m. at the intersection of N. 2nd and Main that involved a 1979 Oldsmobile driven by Sheryl Angerer of Wilson and a 1978 Chevrolet Im-pala driven by Victor Charo of Tahoka. There were no injuries reported.

Mike Braddock at the Texaco station reported to police that someone had broken a small glass on one of the pumps on the south side of the station on Sunday.

A Tahoka woman called the police to report her neighbor's dog in the 1700 block of S. 8th had tried to bite one of her children.

Police issued one citation during the past week for following too closely and one citation for exhibition of acceleration.

Theft Suspect

A 30-year-old Connecticut man was arrested by Lynn County sheriff's deputies south of Tahoka on U.S. 87 Sunday night in a 1981 Chevrolet reported stolen the previous day in Big Spring. Jack Kenneth Frechette was later released to Howard County authorities.

Three men were arrested by a DPS officer Monday in Lynn County as they were spotted in a pickup reported stolen from Houston. Charges later were dropped by Houston Police Dept. and the men were released.

A 15-year-old Tahoka girl, Elisa Gonzales, was treated at Lynn County Hospital for wounds in her side after a rifle she was removing from a case discharged, with fragments of the case causing the wound.

Dan Lockaby of Tahoka reported an alternator had been stolen off a tractor in a field south of Tahoka near U.S. 87.

Cecil Kizar, Rt. 5, Tahoka reported four Oldsmobile hubcaps worth $395 had been stolen off his car, possible while the vehicle was in Lubbock.

In jail during the week were three persons for public intoxication, four on charges relating to motor vehicle thefts, and one for public intoxication and disorderly conduct.

INSIGHT INTO EYESIGHT

David Gibson, O.D.
OPTOMETRIST

HOW WE SEE
After centuries of wonder about how we are able to see, science has come up with the answers. It also has answers for people who need help in seeing clearly.

What happens when we see? It all depends on light (even a cat can't see when it's pitch black). Every object exposed to light emits light rays. These rays travel from the object to our eyes. They enter through the cornea, the transparent membrane in the center of the eye. The cornea bends the rays slightly inward on the way to the lens, which narrows them even more.

In normal eyes, the rays converge together in sharp focus when they reach the retina.

This is the "black wall" of the eye that transmits the image to the brain.

What kind of image the brain receives depends on how sharp the picture is. If it isn't in focus, it will be blurred. And that means the eyes need corrective glasses. Difficulty in focusing on objects at a distance or up close (like the newspaper) are common. These are some of the problems corrective glasses can solve.

Cotton Use Down In June: Consumption of cotton by U.S. mills declined in June, falling to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 4.9 million 480-pound bale equivalents, according to the National Cotton Council. The June total was 5.8 per cent below the May level and down 14.4 per cent from the year-earlier rate.

Textile mill use of man-made fiber remained unchanged from the previous month but declined 20.9 per cent from June, 1981. Cotton's share of total fiber consumption stood at 24.8 per cent, down from May's 25.9 per cent but higher than the 23.3 per cent level recorded a year ago.

Export Sales Increase: Net new sales of cotton for the 1982-83 marketing year totaled 59,900 running bales for the week ended July 15 to bring the new season's total commitments to 1,265,000 bales.

The major buyer was Japan with 37,700 bales. The week's export shipments totaled 115,900, bringing the 1981-82 export shipments to 6,064,000 bales, according to the National Cotton Council.

Fiber Market To Be Featured: Opportunities in today's market for cotton and other fibers will be described in an address

VA News

A number of honorably discharged veterans appear to have formed the opinion that they cannot be admitted to a Veterans Administration hospital for needed medical care, and such decisions have been made without having personally applied for such care. According to James Reed, Veterans Service Officer for Lynn County, some of these veterans are financially unable to pay for the needed care in civilian hospitals.

Under current laws, the following persons are eligible for admission to Veterans Administration Hospitals when such care is needed:

(a) Any honorably discharged veteran for a service-connected disability; or for a non-service-connected condition if veteran is unable to pay

Hahn is executive vice president and chief operating officer of Cotton Incorporated.

The conference is sponsored by the National Cotton Council, the National Wool Growers Assn., and the U.S. Department of Agriculture, in cooperation with the American Sheep Producers Council, The Cotton Foundation, and the Wool Bureau.

for his needed care;

(b) A veteran who was discharged from military service because of a service incurred disability;

(c) A veteran who is in receipt of service-connected compensation from the VA, or would be in receipt except for receipt of retirement pay;

(d) A veteran who is a former prisoner of war;

(e) A Vietnam veteran who may have been exposed to dioxin or other toxic substance while in service;

(f) Any veteran for a non-service-connected condition if he is 65 years of age or older.

Any honorably discharged veteran who meets any one of these requirements, and who is in need of hospital or surgical care, may apply directly to the nearest Veterans Administration hospital for admission. Application may be made by appearing at the hospital, where an examination will be made to determine the need for hospital care.

County Seeking Road Work Funds

Lynn County Commissioners, faced with a major road repair and rebuilding problem all over the county as a result of recent heavy rains, this week voted to publish a notice of intent to transfer $60,000 from other funds into the precinct funds which pay for road work.

If no major objections are raised, the county will take $40,000 from the general fund and $20,000 from revenue sharing funds to put into the four precincts. This would give each precinct an additional $15,000 for road repairs, and commissioners indicated that even this amount may not take care of all the problems.

All four commissioners and Judge Melvin Burks were present Monday for a mostly routine session, and two officials who have been elected to take office next January sat in as observers, judge-elect

ASC News

Disaster Payments To Be Made-- The Secretary of Agriculture has announced that disaster payments will be made for 1982 crops. There are many details to be worked out before ASCS offices will be allowed to issue payments. It appears the program will follow the disaster program of the last few years. It was announced that crops participating in the 1982 farm program would be eligible for disaster payments. The payment rates will be 75% of the cotton established yield x 20.5 cents per pound x certified acres; other crops at 60% of the established yield at $1.75 per bu. for wheat, .18 per bu. for grain sorghum, .15 per bu. for barley. As in past years, pounds of production will be subtracted when figuring disaster payments.

Many have signed up for measurement service instead of certifying. Payments cannot be made until your acreage has been determined. Because of the disaster and replanting, the slides will have to be made later. You may want to review your farm and see if you can measure and certify the acreage accurately. Measurement service can be canceled and certification made until Aug. 2. Be careful, if you miss the certification payments can be lost. The tolerance is the larger of 5% or 1 acre up or down from your reported acreage on crops and the larger of 10% or 1 acre for set aside.

Certification Deadline Nears-- The final date to request measurement service or certify is Aug. 2. An accurate certification is very important. Remember to report your acreage field by field and separate irrigated and dryland acres.

Those that have planted other crops over failed cotton are encouraged to report these acreages. This will make a record of the second crop being planted on your farm and possibly a base for the second crop in 1983 will be established.

Set-Aside Required-- Remember that even if you have lost your total cotton crop, set-aside is required. Failure to maintain the required set-aside will mean loss of program benefits. Set-aside acreage cannot be harvested except by grazing after Oct. 1. Weeds must be controlled by plowing or chemical spraying. Program crops planted on set-aside must be destroyed. Wind and water erosion must be controlled.

ACP Signup-- There will be a signup for deep breaking Aug. 9 until Aug. 20. This is the same special program offered in past years. Cost shares are offered on breaking of 22 inches and deeper.

Insurance On Wheat Is Available

Wheat growers interested in All-Risk insurance for their 1983 crops should contact their insurance agent as soon as possible, according to F.W. "Ted" Crouch Jr., All-Risk Insurance Field Operations Director.

Deadline to obtain wheat insurance is Sept. 15, but Crouch suggests that growers should begin making their plans now. The ASCS county office has a list of local private agents who are handling the federally-backed insurance policies.

Certification Deadline Nears--The final date to request measurement service or certify is Aug. 2. An accurate certification is very important. Remember to report your acreage field by field and

A RARE GIFT—Mrs. K.R. Durham, right, is shown as she presented this antique piano to her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Eugenia McMeans of Greenville. The piano originally was owned by Mrs. Durham's grandmother. It has been restored and refinished.

Tahoka Woman Gives Historic Piano To Next Generation

A 123-year-old grand piano which has been in the family of Mrs. K.R. Durham of Tahoka for most of those years, has been restored inside out and refinished and now has been presented by Mrs. Durham to her daughter, Margaret Eugenia Durham McMeans of Greenville.

Mrs. McMeans is the namesake of the original owner, Margaret Eugenia Hargrove Paxton of Mt. Lebanon, La. At the age of 16 in 1859, Margaret Eugenia Hargrove was given the square grand piano manufactured by Boardman, Gray and Co. of Albany, N.Y. It was given to her by her uncle, Reuben Hargrove.

Miss Hargrove married a Mr. Fuller, but was left a young widow when he was killed in the Civil War. She lost her only child and all her slaves. She started teaching piano at the age of 20.

Later she met Dr. W.E. Paxton, a widower who had served as a captain in the Civil War and they were married in 1866, when she was 23.

A small sterling silver plate on the piano bears the inscription "Presented by R.M. Hargrove to his niece M.E. Hargrove January 1st 1859."

Mrs. Durham, granddaughter of the original owner, had been given the historic piano and has had it restored inside and out and put back into playable condition, with the work done by Bill Baker of Slaton. She then presented the piano last week to her daughter, Mrs. McMeans, and the piano has been moved to Greenville.

For 35 years the piano was not in the possession of the family. The original owner found it necessary to sell the piano while she was at Mt. Lebanon. She had moved several times after the death of her second husband in 1883. But in 1918 the piano was bought by the family again, after tracing it and identifying it by the silver inscription plate. It was shipped to Mansfield, La. where it was in possession of the original owner's daughter, Mrs. D.W. Saunders. After Mrs. Saunders died, the piano went to her daughter, Margaret, and after her death, the piano was in storage in a furniture repair shop in poor condition in Mansfield until about November 1981 when it was given to a sister of Margaret Saunders, Mrs. Harold Quinn. Mrs. Quinn gave the piano to Mrs. Durham, also a granddaughter of the original owner.

Now restored to much of its original beauty, the piano has been handed down to yet another generation, and could well be around for generations to come.

County TSTA Leader Attends Sessions

Wendell McClendon, a teacher of English and foreign languages at O'Donnell High School and current President of the Lynn County unit of the Texas State Teachers Assn., returned recently from California, where he served as a delegate for Yoakum, Hale and Lynn counties to the annual convention of the National Education Association. Some 6,000 other delegates from all over the U.S. and Puerto Rico also made the trip to L.A., to express their local and personal viewpoints before the world's largest representative assembly for teachers.

This was McClendon's first time to attend an N.E.A. convention.

Among resolutions adopted at the assembly were (1) firm opposition to any federal efforts to impose tuition tax credits (which would in the teachers' view take the "public" out of public education), (2) upholding the worth of the schools in the face of smear campaigns against both teachers and schools, (3) support for strong admission policies for teacher candidates, and (4) support for a legislative proposal already before the Congress, called the American Defense Education Act.

Last weekend McClendon attended a leadership development seminar in Austin. Teacher leaders from all over the state of Texas met to study problems and issues that schools face and will face in the near future.

In the course of the seminar, Mark White, candidate for governor, Bill Hobby, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, Jim Maddox, candidate for Attorney General and Lloyd Bentsen, candidate for U.S. Senate, spoke to the teachers about their views on and plans for education. The teachers enthusiastically endorsed the candidacies of all these.

Don't forget to come by the Center today (Thursday) and Friday for our garage sale 9 to 5.

Thanks to all of you who supported us by coming to eat dinner with us Sunday. We had about 100 guests. A special thanks to the ladies who made cakes for us. Besides the employees, cakes were brought in by Alta Thomas, Geneva Carter, Willie Thomas and Mildred Abbe. Tinnie Meeks came in early to help.

Blood pressure check is Tuesday, Aug. 3. Social Security representative will be here Aug. 11.

The singing scheduled for Aug. 2 had to be cancelled due to too many conflicts. We will have the usual 42 and domino party. We plan to be back on our schedule by Sept. and hope to have a singing on Sept. 6 with ice cream for refreshments.

City-County Library News

By LENNIE COX

For those of you who would like some large print books to read, we have a list of them which are available through the West Texas Library System. There are fiction, mystery, westerns, short stories, and non-fiction books available. If you are interested, just come to the library and choose some from the list.

It has really been encouraging to me to note that for the first six months of this year we have had an average of 353 books a month checked out of the library. Also for the most part, our patrons have been prompt in returning books when they are due. This really helps me to save time by not having to call and remind someone of an overdue book. It also shows me that people are considerate of others when they return books on time. As you know, some people like to read the same books you do.

I have started working on the card catalog file just recently, but it will take at least a year if not longer to complete this monumental task. However, this file will be of tremendous help in locating books that anyone might want to find in our library.

More Than 10 Directory Assistance Calls To Bring Fee

Beginning Aug. 1, General Telephone customers in Texas will be charged for calls to directory assistance that exceed a 10-call per month limit.

"The increasing volume of calls to directory assistance is one factor that had made local basic monthly rates paid by all customers go up in the past," O.D. Hearn, operations manager -Western Division Operations for General Telephone, said. "With the directory assistance charging plan, the local rate increases recently placed in effect were less than what they would have been without directory assistance charging."

Hearn pointed out that charging for calls to directory assistance exceeding a 10-call per month limit will have little effect on the majority of the company's customers, except to help keep basic rates lower than they would be without the charge.

"Our studies have shown that approximately nine per cent of the total directory assistance users make nearly half of all calls to directory assistance," Hearn said.

"Under the previous method, the cost of providing directory assistance was spread among all customers, regardless of whether they use the service or not," the telephone company manager said. "Customers formerly could make an unlimited number of calls to directory assistance without paying a separate charge."

Each General customer will have a 10-call per month line allowance without charge. The caller can also obtain a maximum of two telephone numbers during each call under the plan approved July 14 by the Public Utility Commission.

"We feel this will take care of new listings and number changes most customers will need during the course of a month," the manager said.

"After the 10-call limit, a 25-cent charge per request will be assessed."

Telephone business customers who do not pay their telephone bills on time also will be charged a late charge fee on past due amounts effective Aug. 4, it was announced.

The charge will apply only to business customers in accordance with Public Utility Commission of Texas rules.

The fee will be equal to five per cent of the delinquent amount. The late charge will apply if the bill is not paid by the due date shown on the bill.

Hearn said the late pay charge is designed to place the costs associated with collecting past due business account bills on those customers causing the costs.

"It is not fair to customers who pay their bills on time to have to pay higher monthly local basic rates because of customers who do not pay on time," Hearn said.

Hearn also noted that the Public Utility Commission of Texas approved $46.8 million in new revenues for General during final hearings July 14 on the company's $110 million rate filing.

The final order, officially signed July 19, issued by the commission will result in most customers receiving refunds ranging from 10 to 40 cents per month. The refunds are the result of the company placing new rates for most services in effect June 4 under state law, subject to refund of the difference between the June 4 rates and the final rates approved by the commission July 14.

The only changes from the June 4 rates are reductions ranging from 10 to 35 cents in all local basic service rates, and a five-cent reduction per month in some business rates for extended area service (EAS) or toll-free calling to neighboring exchanges.

The rates placed in effect June 4 for services other than local basic service and extended area service did not change under the commission's final order and are not subject to refund. These include mobile telephone service; miscellaneous services and equipment including monthly telephone instrument charges; and airport

The first will be an eight-day trip to San Antonio and area to see the historical sites and to LBJ Ranch and Johnson City on Aug. 23-30. They will leave from Levelland by charter bus. Cost of the trip is $385 which covers everything except meals and extras.

A Southern Autumn Foliage Tour and the World's Fair is scheduled for September 28-Oct. 10. A deposit of $100 will hold a reservation for this tour.

SPC Sets Registration

Registration for the 1982 fall semester at South Plains College, Levelland, will be Aug. 26-27.

Day class registration is scheduled from 9 a.m.-noon and 1:30 - 4 p.m. both days; and evening registration will be 7-8:30 p.m. Aug. 26, both in the SPC Women's Gym.

New programs in automotive apprenticeship technology, auto body repair, auto machinist trades, and home economics will be offered for the first time this fall.

telephone service, as well as other services used mostly by business customers.

In addition to these changes, new charges became effective July 14 for some services which were not placed in effect under bond June 4. These services include directory assistance charging, late pay charge for business accounts and returned check charges.

GTE said the commission concurred with the company's proposal to bill only customers who have EAS or toll-free calling between exchanges for the additional investments required to provide the service, and to show those charges separately on customer bills.

"Some customers have misunderstood the change. It is a charge customers have paid in the past; however, it was not formerly shown as a separate charge on their monthly bills," Hearn explained.

Pictures To Be Run In The News

The Lynn County News has for many years run pictures of the youngsters in this area as "Citizens of Tomorrow". In the near future we will again be publishing free a picture of all the children who are brought by their parents or other guardian to the Community Center between 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. on Thursday, Aug. 5.

Please dress your children colorfully to take advantage of color photography. The pictures will run in black and white in the newspaper.

There is no cost to parents...they do not even have to be subscribers to participate. They are not obligated to purchase any of the Color pictures taken but may obtain them by making arrangements with the Studio representative when they select the pose they wish to see printed in the News.

Appointments may be made by calling Carol Ratcliff, 998-5300 after 1 p.m. Appointments are not necessary but it could avoid your having to wait.

His wife, Nancy, is the daughter of Pinkney D. and R. Jewell Branch of Knoxville, Tenn.
