MAURO VISITS TAHOKA—Garry Mauro, right, Democratic candidate for Texas Land Commissioner, talks with Melvin Burks, Lynn County Judge on Wednesday afternoon. Mauro and his associates are currently campaigning throughout West Texas and the Panhandle.

Garry Mauro Brings Campaign To Tahoka

Garry Mauro, Democratic nominee for Texas Land Commissioner, campaigned in Tahoka and Texas this week stating "the public lands of Texas are of extreme importance to the education of the school children and the university students in this state. Based on the fact these lands generated almost $800 million in revenues last year, the Land Commissioner needs to have the ability and experience to efficiently manage the General Land Office."

Mauro, 34, an attorney and businessman in Austin, met with County Democratic Chairman Tommy Lawson and others here Tuesday afternoon. He formerly served as the Deputy Comptroller under Bob Bullock, overseeing a staff of over 1,500 employees and a budget of $25 million. He was campaign manager and a special assistant to former Congressman and Ambassador Bob Krueger. "Texas Business" magazine named him one of the "25 Rising Stars of Texas." He is a graduate of Texas A&M and received his law degree from the University of Texas.

"Texas is blessed with 22.5 million acres of public land which generate money for our public schools and universities. In order to increase revenues for education and preserve this unique heritage, the Land Commissioner must have the necessary management and business skills to effectively administer this office," Mauro said. "I plan to bring the latest management and business techniques to this office."

Mauro also spoke in support of the Veterans Land Program which is under the administration of the Land Commissioner. "Texas veterans should be allowed to purchase homes under this program using the money as a down payment."

MAYBE IT'S NOT really important to know how to spell words correctly, but usually people who can't spell also can't put their thoughts down on paper and communicate well with others in writing.

Of course, a lot of folks who can't communicate well on paper do very well in getting their ideas across verbally, and in fact, the best advertising salesmen I know can't spell worth a hoot.

Also, everybody knows that one requirement for being a doctor is to have completely illegible handwriting. So maybe all this written communication stuff is not so important.

Besides, a lot of folks wouldn't want to write down all their thoughts. And some go to the extreme, by knowing so many big words (including the correct spellings) and complicated phrases that their correspondence is just as hard to understand as those who are just barely literate. Then, of course, they go to work for the government, writing forms and pamphlets and instructions in such a way that confuses everybody.

SOMEbody named Vic Oliver says this about people and money:

"If a man runs after money, he's money-mad. If he keeps it, he's a capitalist; if he spends it, he's a playboy; if he doesn't try to get it, he lacks ambition. If he gets it without working for it, he's a parasite; and if he accumulates it after a lifetime of hard work, people call him a fool who never got anything out of life."

AN ELDERLY woman on her afternoon stroll noticed a small boy trying to reach a doorbell. She walked over, rang the bell for the lad and asked, "What now, young man?"

The boy looked up at her in amazement and shouted, "Run like heck!" before he turned and fled.

Seat Belts Save Lives
 "I have never seen a dead person taken from a wrecked car who was wearing a seat belt." This was a statement made in a talk at Rotary last Thursday by Trooper Bert Sinclair of the Texas Highway Patrol.
 "I don't like seat belts, either, but they do save lives," he declared.
 In a brief talk preceding the showing of a shocking traffic safety film, "Room to Live", Sinclair said 98.5 per cent of the people killed in Texas car wrecks were not wearing their seat belts. Most people killed in violent wrecks are thrown from the vehicles in which they were riding—50,000 a year in the U.S.

The graphic pictures illustrated the safe area in a car wreck is the passenger compartment, and few people die from being thrown into the windshield or dash or from the car when wearing the seat belts provided in modern cars.

H.B. McCord Jr., in charge of the program, introduced the speaker and Trooper Paula Mazurek, who accompanied Mr. Sinclair.
 Prior to the program, Rev. Lloyd Hamilton inducted a new Rotary member, Fred Curran, a new associate with Thomas, Love, Hays and Schaffner, certified public accountants.
 President Joe Hays announced District Governor John R. Collard Jr. will visit the club Sept. 1-2; the Harvest Festival will be on Sept. 25; and Tech President Lauro F. Cayazos will be the speaker at the annual Rotary-Teacher banquet on Nov. 11.

Senate Passes Immigration Bill: The Senate has approved an immigration bill by a 81-18 vote. Strongly supported by the Administration and organized labor, it provides amnesty for illegal aliens who have lived in the U.S. continuously since 1977 and temporary residence status for those residing here since 1980. It also calls for civil and criminal penalties for employers who knowingly hire illegal aliens, development within the next three years of a counterfeit-proof national identity card, and a revised program for temporary foreign workers. The bill now goes to the House where the Judiciary Committee is working on similar legislation.

SBA Disaster Loans May Be Forthcoming For West Texas: A Small Business Administration official notified National Cotton Council President Ed Breihan this week that economic injury disaster loans will be made available to businesses in the weather-stricken West Texas area. The action hinges on Agriculture Secretary Block's approval of a request by Texas Governor William Clements to make 26 counties in the area eligible for emergency loans. Breihan earlier had urged the SBA loans in support of a request by Earl Jalufka, president of the Texas Independent Ginners Assn.

Export Sales Advance: Net new cotton export sales for 1982-83 delivery were 66,200 running bales during the week ended Aug. 12. The National Cotton Council reports that South Korea bought 48,000 bales of the total and Japan, 7,700.

Total commitments for the new season stand at 1,936,600 bales. The week's export shipments totaled 69,500.

New Cancer Unit Officer Announced

The Lynn County Unit of the American Cancer Society has announced the incoming officers and chairpeople for 1982-83. These people are active members of their communities who organize and implement efforts of the American Cancer Society. These efforts help further progress of education, both throughout the community and in schools, they aid in promoting research for treatment and prevention of cancer.

As an organized unit they can function as an active and contributing component of the American Cancer Society.

Fifty percent of all cancer can be overcome now by early detection and treatment, according to the ACS, and these success rates can be traced back to those devoted individuals who, on a local level, provide education and give of their time to help in the crusade for American Cancer Society which is so vitally important to cancer research.

New officers are as follows:

President, Wendell McClendon of O'Donnell; Vice President, Howard Moore of Wells; Secretary, Pearl Davidson of Wilson; Treasurer, Memorial and Crusade Chairperson, Macky Turker of Tahoka; Public Education, Richard White, D.D.S of Tahoka; and Service and Rehabilitation, Mrs. Urban Aycock of Tahoka.

Mrs. Turner, The 1982-83 Memorial Chairperson, observed that many persons choose to remember others who have died with memorial contributions. The ACS also offers "The Gift of Life", a gift which contributes to progress for the Cancer Society in the name of an individual as a special gift.

Anyone interested in making memorial gifts of either type is urged to contact Mrs. Turner at Box 975, Tahoka 79373 or by phone at 998-4146.

Lynn County Courthouse Listed In Register

The Lynn County Courthouse, a significant Lynn County historical site, was officially listed in the National Register of Historic Places on July 8, 1982. By Florence Davies — Call 924-7479

In the fall of 1924, W.B. Morris, his wife and their nine children moved from Fort Worth to Tahoka. They later moved four miles east of New Home on the Donnie Morris farm. All children were here for the Morris family reunion held Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 14-15 at Knapp Park in Lubbock.

The families attending were: Jewel Carter, Lubbock; Hazel Kelley, Lubbock; Mae Curtis, Hobbs, N.M.; Gene Morris, Duncan, Ariz.; Donnie Morris, New Home; Doyle Morris, San Jose, Calif.; Norbert Morris, Kent, Washington; Aubrey Morris, Seattle, Wash.; and Gloella Finch of San Saba.

There were over 100

The Don McBrayers are moving to Lubbock on Aug. 27, however, they plan to retain New Home as their permanent address. Don is still in the Food Brokerage Business and Gloria will be returning to her profession as a nurse at Methodist Hospital on Aug. 30. Tommy will finish his senior year at New Home High School. The McBrayers plan to stay active in the New Home community. The move to Lubbock was a very hard decision for them. They will reside at 5727 2nd Place and their phone number is 797-5600.

Mrs. Nan Fortenberry and Marlin Maloney spent Saturday in Hale Center with Jeff and Menette Black and children.

Mrs. Bessie Fuller is visiting here with James and Jean Ray. The Morrow family had been in Missouri with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bur Morrow. They stopped in Ardmore and brought Mrs. Fuller here.

Winston's sister, Mrs. Jo Spikes of Lubbock, visited with us here Saturday. On Thursday Jo had a dinner in her home for several family members to visit with Anita Pruet and her children as they were leaving Friday for their home in Kentucky.

Ruth and Pat Chapman of Borger, Mrs. Beatrice Byrd of Electra, Sylvia and Frank Shelly and Ross McDonold of Sweetwater were here to help Bessie Strain celebrate her birthday. The birthday dinner was at Margaret and Boswell Edwards on Saturday.

After visiting here several days with her father, D.B. Morris, Glenda and Shannon Sparkman returned to their home in Houston Friday.

Freddie and Charlene Kieth visited in Earth Sunday with Lana and Van Ray.

★ CARD OF THANKS ★

There's no words to express all the acts of kindness shown us during the loss of our loved one, Norris Workman.
But perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray.
If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much, whatever the part.
