Tahoka Pharmacist Dayton Parker this week is celebrating his 20th year in Tahoka. Dayton Parker Health Mart Pharmacy is holding an anniversary sale to mark the occasion. Parker says the store now has a larger range of services available by reason of the recently expanded stock of merchandise.

A native of Crosby County,

Parker had just graduated from University of Texas School of Pharmacy in January 1963 and was immediately employed by Wynne Collier, owner of the store at that time. Less than two years later, Collier died in November, 1964. The following January, 1965, the store was incorporated with the name of the store being changed to Collier Parker

Pharmacy with Wynne's widow, Coye Collier, Wynne's brother, Bob Collier, and Dayton Parker being the shareholders. Five years later, in 1970, Parker became the sole owner of the corporation and the store name became Dayton Parker Pharmacy.

For 80 years this coming October, there has been a drug store on these same lots at the northwest corner of the public square in Tahoka.

Until April 15, 1903, the site of Tahoka was prairie land grazed by cattle and antelope. That was the date Lynn County was officially organized and Tahoka established. Within a few weeks about 40 businesses, residences, tents and dugouts sprang up.

1903 Building

By October, 1903, Blake Brothers of Lubbock had built a frame store building in which W.E. Gilmore & Son had opened a drug store on one of the lots now occupied by Dayton Parker's business. It sold a year or two later to Dr. S.H. Windham, one of Tahoka's two first physicians. A.S. Coughran also had a drug store there in 1906, and records are not clear as to whether or not this store was the same as the Windham store.

But at any rate, A.I. Thomas, who had come out to Lamesa in 1906 to establish a drug store, bought out Coughran and Dr. Windham on July 1, 1907. C.A. (Cliff) Thomas, a few days later came up from Lamesa to join his brother, A.I., and the firm's name was changed to Thomas Brothers Drug. Still later, W.O. (Otho) Thomas came here from Old Mexico, and bought A.I. Thomas's interest, and the firm name held until 1936.

Goes To Post

In the meantime, the Thomases influenced their brother-in-law, R.H. Collier, to come up from Equis in the winter of 1908-1909 and operate a store they established at the new town of Post.

Thomas Bros. frame store building burned in the disastrous fire of December 30, 1915, that consumed all 13 buildings on the north side of the square in Tahoka and the new large brick Lynn Hotel.

Almost immediately, Thomas Bros. in 1916 began erection of the present two-story brick structure occupied on the corner by the drug store, a barber shop in the east half of the present building and a meat market on an addition to the north. For many years, doctors, lawyers and others occupied the second floor office rooms.

Deciding to retire in 1936, C.A. and W.O. sold the drug store to their nephew, Wynne Collier. In 1945, Wynne remodeled and enlarged the store, taking in the east half to double the store's floor space. In 1967 the first carpet was laid and the phar-

Snow Totals 13 Inches

By FRANK HILL

The year 1982 and the beginning of 1983 saw a record snow storm and cold wave sweep over Lynn County and adjoining areas—at least a record for this period as far as local weather statistics reveal since 1912.

Snow started falling the night of Christmas day, and by Tuesday, Jan. 2, a total of 13 inches of the white stuff had covered the ground. Melted down to water in the National Weather Service gauge here, this amounted to 1.34 inches of water.

Heaviest snowfall came on Sunday, Dec. 26, when by Monday at 7:30 a.m., seven inches had fallen, melted down to .75 inches of water. There was a trace by Tuesday morning, .02 of water added by Wednesday, a trace Thursday a.m., and .03 Friday a.m. More snow, 4 inch snow and .33 inch of water by Saturday morning, Jan. 1, and 2 inches of snow melted down to .21 inch of water by Sunday morning. The sun was out all day Sunday, but the temperature did not rise above 32 degrees. Monday dawned foggy with a trace of precipitation.

Some Melting

Tahoka recorded a low of eight degrees on Thursday morning and six degrees on Monday, but some snow melted when temperatures rose to 36, 33 and 34 degrees three days during the period.

About seven inches remained on the ground through Monday and all snow will not be melted for several days yet.

Most people in this farming country are happy to see this much moisture at this time of year because it puts a good season in the ground for the coming crop year.

Average precipitation for December in Lynn County is less than .6 of an inch. Total for this past December has been 1.76 inches, not counting the .54 inch recorded for the first two days of January, 1983.

December Totals

Only years when more than 1.76 inches of December precipitation has been received in Tahoka were the 2.72 inches in 1932 and 1.78 inches in 1959.

Strangely, Lubbock was the coldest place, even colder than Amarillo, with zero degrees, on two mornings.

Total precipitation for the year in Tahoka was 19.89, although most of Lynn County received more than that. A breakdown by months: January .71; February .38; March .93; April .74; May 6.02; June 4.28; July 2.46; August .19; September .95; October .42; November 1.05; and December 1.76.

Tahoka Man Shot To Death

A 45-year-old Tahoka man was fatally shot Saturday, apparently as a result of an argument between him and another man during a day-long party on private property just southeast of the city.

Guadalupe Cano of 1828 S. 5th was shot four times with a .22 caliber pistol, according to investigating officers. Sheriff's deputies, city police and state patrolmen went to the scene of the shooting about 5:30 p.m. Saturday, arrested a suspect and recovered a .22 pistol.

Charged with murder was Jose Pedro Alvarez, 53, of Tahoka, whose bond was set at $10,000 by Justice of the Peace Ed Hamilton. Alvarez posted bond Monday.

Cano was shot twice in the abdomen, once in the chest and once in the head. He was taken to Lynn County Hospital, transferred to Lubbock Methodist, and died there about 9:30 a.m. Sunday. Investigation indicated that the victim and the suspect had had an argument earlier in the day Saturday.

On Christmas morning a pickup truck owned by Fernando Rivera was stripped of tires, wheels and battery after the pickup had been left beside U.S. 87 about a mile south of Tahoka for several days.

In jail during the week were the shooting suspect and one person for public intoxication.

Tahoka police investigated a two-car accident on Friday at the intersection of the 2500 block of Lockwood and Ave. S, involving a 1980 Buick driven by N.M. Barham Jr. of Brownfield and a 1971 Jeep driven by James Austin Simpson of Tahoka. There were no injuries.

Tahoka High School reported to police that a Magnavox stereo had been stolen from the High School Band Hall sometime during the holidays. There was no apparent sign of break-in or other form of entry.

Police made one arrest during the past week for public intoxication.

Tahoka Man Hurt In Fire

Jerry Meeks, 28, of Tahoka, was in a Lubbock hospital early this week for treatment of second-degree burns suffered when fire destroyed his frame home at 2305 N. 5th St. just before dawn Monday morning.

Meeks was injured after an electric heater set fire to a blanket on his bed during the night. The ensuing blaze gutted the house and destroyed most of the contents, including items owned by him and by Bruce Spruiell, who also was living in the house. Spruiell, sleeping in another room when the fire broke out, was not injured. A pet dog died in the blaze, it was reported.

Tahoka volunteer firemen answered the alarm in the bitter cold morning and brought the blaze under control.

THANKS TO PEOPLE like Gloria Steinam and the national TV networks, I never know exactly how to begin a business letter anymore, nor can I decide what to call some females in news stories.

I'm old-fashioned in some ways and therefore not really happy with calling all women "Ms." in news stories; although we have done it a few times when we didn't know if a woman were married or not.

Journalism students in my day (by cracky) were taught to use a person's full name on the first reference in a story and after that you said "Smith" if referring to a man (ordinarily we don't call men "Mr." unless they're dead or 100 years old), or "Miss Smith" or "Mrs. Smith" if referring to a woman, depending on whether she is currently married.

Admittedly, it's easier to write "Ms." and not have to worry about her marital status. But I always feel that anything we write should be put down on paper in a way that it could be read aloud to someone. So how does one pronounce "Ms."? It comes out as a hiss, or maybe as "Miz", which is a bit country.

DON'T MS. CONSTRUE THS.
There was a young Ms. from Tahoka
Who married a practical joke.
It was his, when they'd ks.,
But when he kd. the wrong ms.
She ds.abled him with a poka.

Television reporters have a way of calling women by their last names, the same as men, and this still sounds dumb to me, except maybe in sports stories. Use of the last name alone defeminizes a person and makes her sound like a male.

Business letters are a problem when you're writing to some company and you suspect that a female will handle your letter, but you aren't sure. I don't know what they teach as the proper salutation in a business letter these days, but it probably no longer is "Dear Sir." You might say "Dear Sir or Madam" (especially if you're writing to a bawdy house), or you can start off with "Gentlepersons:" which I have done a time or two.

Maybe the best way is to just start out with a big "Howdy."

I read a story the other day about a woman judge who was elected despite the fact that she uses her maiden name, although married. I still think a woman should be willing to take the name of her husband if she loves him.

Don't get the idea that I'm a chauvinist, even if my middle name is Arnold (same as the pig on Green Acres).

SEVERAL PERSONS commented on what a good job the Lynn County crew of the Texas Highway Dept. did during the worst of the snow and ice storms last weekend. Many noticed that a driver on U.S. 87, for instance, could tell exactly where the Lubbock and Dawson County lines began, because the roads in Lynn were cleared off sooner and better.

Carolyn Cowan-Tommy Botkin Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

Carolyn Cowan and Tommy Botkin exchanged double ring wedding vows Friday, Dec. 31, at 2 p.m. in First United Methodist Church of Tahoka with Rev. Gene Wisdom officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don D. Cowan of San Benito. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Finis Botkin of Tahoka.

Presented in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father, the bride wore an ivory waltz length gown of embrodered English lace over ivory bridal satin, which she designed and made herself.

The gown featured a fitted bodice, long sheer sleeves of lace, an ivory satin sash and a gathered skirt of bordered lace with scalloped lower edge.

Her three-layered finger-tip veil of silk illusion was attached to a lace and satin covered Juliet cap.

The bride's bouquet was an arrangement of ivory orchids, camellias, tiger lilies and apple blossoms; burgandy and dusty rose panthus blossoms accented with baby's breath surrounded by trailing English ivy.

Keeping with tradition, the bride carried a handkerchief belonging her great-grandmother as something old; her dress was something new; a necklace was borrowed from her sister; she wore the traditional blue garter and a penny in her shoe.

The altar was flanked by candelabrum decorated with greenery, a unity candle was placed on the altar and votive candles along the communion rail.

Nancy Cato of Lubbock, organist, presented traditional wedding selections and accompanied Mrs. Erin Dubose of Seguin as she sang "The Wedding Song", "Prayer of Saint Frances," and "Our Love Will Light The Way," written especially for the couple by Mrs. Erin Dubose.

Serving as maid of honor was DeAnna Cowan of San Benito, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Chris Cowan of Conroe, the bride's sister-in-law, and Christye Waters of Lubbock. They wore burgandy dresses featuring chiffon overdresses tucked in front and back, ruffles at the neckline and cuffs. They carried bouquets of silk carnations in ivory and rose with trailing English ivy, greenery and baby's breath.

Tony Botkin of Tahoka, brother of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were Terry and Ty Botkin, brothers of the groom, also of Tahoka. They wore burgandy tuxedos and ivory pleated shirts.

Ushers were David Burton of League City, Mitch Raindl of Lubbock, Steve Miller and Clint Gardner, both of Tahoka.

Candlelighters were Holly and Eric Hook, cousins of the bride, of Medina, Ohio.

Rice bags were handed out by Megan Freeman of Lubbock, cousin of the bride, and Tevian Prohl of Kerrville, cousin of the groom.

Special guests were grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. V.F. Jones of Tahoka and Mrs. Winston Davies of New Home; grandparents of the groom, Mrs. Grace Prohl and Mr. and Mrs. V.L. Botkin of Tahoka.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church fellowship hall. Serving at the bride's table were Tammy Baker of Rio Hondo, Linda Corona of San Benito and Mrs. Erin Dubose. Attending the groom's table were Kenna Jo Davies and Sarah Freeman of Lubbock, cousins of the bride.

Members of the houseparty included Mrs. Bill Hook of Medina, Ohio, Mrs. Waylon Walton of Snyder and Mrs. Charles Freeman of Crosbyton, all aunts of the bride.

Mrs. Carol Botkin of Tahoka, sister-in-law of the groom, registered guests.

The bride is a graduate of San Benito High School and Texas Tech University with a BS degree in Home Economics, and is employed by Southwestern Bell Telephone in Lubbock.

The groom is a graduate of Tahoka High School, attended Texas Tech University and is presently engaged in farming in Lynn County.

Following a wedding trip to Keystone, Colo. the couple will reside in Tahoka.

Courtesies

Mr. and Mrs. Finis Botkin hosted a rehearsal dinner honoring the couple Thursday, Dec. 30, in the Methodist Church Fellowship Hall.

A bridal shower was given in the home of Mrs. Clifton Gardner. Hostesses were Mmes. Loretta Tekell, Carol Miller, Mary Beth Dodson, Audrey Owens, Gerald Deane Wood, Wanita Kelley, Buna Hagood, Donna Raindl, Linda Slone, Cindy Gardner, Macky Turner, Pauline Stephens, Fran Dunn and Jeanell Edwards.

WILSON NEWS

St. John Lutheran ALC Women of Wilson sponsored a Christmas party in the parish hall in December for the ladies and their husbands. The evening meal was served to approximately 54 people. Several of the ALC women read seasonal scripture readings and poems and everyone joined in on favorite Christmas carols.

Pat Bethke provided a special musical number for the group. The focus of the program was directed away from the material aspects and focused on the love and special blessings made possible by Christ's birth.

A renewed commitment to our partners

As the hopeful anticipation of 1983 begins, it is time to count blessings and to think about how the accomplishments of the past year will make the new year better.

Only a few weeks ago, an important energy decision made years ago became a reality and commitment to the future of the Southwest.

The decision was made by the customers and the employees of Southwestern Public Service Company, working together as partners to make a difference in the cost of electricity. The reality and commitment was symbolically begun in November, as literally thousands of Southwesterners toured Tolk Station.

the new power plant near Muleshoe, Texas. The first of two electrical generating units at this new facility is now producing electricity—from coal.

Because this and other SPS power plants are designed and built by SPS's own engineering and construction department, the cost to our customers is less than one-half the national average cost for coal-fired plants and less than one-fourth the national average cost for nuclear power plants. SPS is one of only two electric utilities in the United States which can design and build its own power plants.

That's money saved for everyone, especially our customers.

The employees of Southwestern Public Service Company thank you for your understanding, your encouragement, and your support.

As you and SPS enter 1983 together, as partners managing electricity, you can be assured that Tolk Station will make a difference in helping provide you with dependable electric service at the lowest possible cost.

You and SPS, partners managing electricity, make the difference.

Chinese cuisine has been on the Texas scene for more than a century.

Railroad construction first brought the Chinese to Texas in 1870. This marked their entry into Texas culture and introduced various types of Chinese food.

Chinese-style food is exciting but different in flavor and takes a minimum of time to prepare. "Stir-frying" is the most popular cooking technique. Slivered or diced vegetables and meat are cooked in hot oil over high heat and stir constantly. Scarcity of fuel in China dictates this rapid cooking method over high heat.

A large heavy skillet or a wok—a round-bottomed, high sided metal pan—can be used to produce crisp, crunchy vegetables and distinct flavors that typify this technique.

Guidelines For Selecting Pork

Pork—fresh or in cured forms—has been a favorite in Chinese dishes. When selecting pork for all types of cookery, use appearance as your guide to quality. Choose fresh or cured pork that has a high proportion of lean to fat and bone. The flesh should be fine textured but firm, and color of the lean in fresh pork should range from grayish pink to red. Lean cured pork, on the other hand, should have a deep pink color.

In stir frying pork, the meat will lose its pinkness and turn white when cooked. Never add more than one pound of pork or other meat at a time to the fry pan or wok for this method of cookery. A larger amount will lower the temperature of the pan too rapidly. If larger quantities are needed, then stir-fry in batches.

Here are two USDA recipes featuring Chinese cuisine. You may want to introduce your family to this stir-fry method of cookery. Calories per serving and menu suggestions are included with each recipe. Children, in particular, would probably enjoy and added mealtime challenge of using chopsticks with the foods.

Chinese Sweet-Sour Pork

6 servings, 1 cup each
Oil for deep fat fryer
1 egg, beaten
½ cup flour unsifted
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soy sauce
¼ cup water
Pork shoulder, cut in ½ inch cubes 1½ pounds
2 tablespoons cornstarch
¼ cup sugar
½ cup vinegar
¾ cup water
1 tablespoon soy sauce
2 cup green peppers cut in squares
13 oz. can pineapple chunks
½ cup sweet mixed pickles, drained
Heat oil to 375 degrees in deep fat fryer or heavy saucepan.
Mix egg, flour, salt, 1 teaspoon soy sauce, and ¼ cup water.

Coat pork pieces with egg mixture.

Fry in hot fat until brown, about 5 minutes. Drain on absorbent paper. Mix cornstarch and sugar in saucepan.

Add vinegar, ¼ cup water, 1 tablespoon soy sauce, green pepper, pineapple, and pickles.

Cook, stirring constantly until mixture is thickened and clear.

Stir in meat. Heat to serving temperature.

Calories per serving: 430

Serve with buttered rice and broccoli spears.

Chow Mein

6 servings, ¼ cup each
3 cups pork, cooked, cut in julienne strips
1½ cups celery cut into thin strips
1 cup onion sliced
1 tablespoon fat or oil
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1½ cups bean sprout liquid plus water
½ teaspoon salt
Few grains pepper
3 tablespoons soy sauce
16 oz. can bean sprouts, drained
Chow mein noodles ..as desired

Cook pork with celery and onion in the fat in a large frypan until mixture begins to brown.

Mix cornstarch with a little of the liquid. Add to meat mixture with remaining liquid, salt, pepper and soy sauce.

Stir until well mixed.

Cook until thickened, stirring as needed.

Add bean sprouts and heat to serving temperature.

Serve over chow mein noodles.

Calories per serving: About 220 (not including noodles).

Note: if preferred, start with 1½ pounds lean raw pork cut into julienne strips. Brown the meat in the fat. Add ½ cup water and simmer, covered, until the meat is almost tender, about 45 minutes.

Add celery and onion and cook until the vegetables are tender. Add cornstarch-liquid mixture and continue as directed in recipe.

Serve with parsley buttered potatoes and spinach salad.

Students Urged To Enter Essay Competition

All students in grades 7-12 are encouraged to enter the National Americanism Essay Contest for 1983. The theme for this year's contest is, "The Bill of Rights and Me."

Awards for this contest are a $100, $75 and $50 United States Savings Bond for the first, second and third place winner in each grade group respectively. The Grand National Prize is a $1,000 U.S. Savings Bond. Each entrant will receive a "Certificate of Recognition" and all winners will receive a plaque.

There are several rules for this contest including (1) all entrants shall be students in grades seven through twelve, (2) each essay shall be on the theme, "The Bill of Rights and Me" and be limited to approximately three hundred words in length, (3) the essay shall be legibly written, printed or typewritten on one side of the paper, (4) each entry must be accompanied by a separate sheet of paper stating: entrant's name, address, ZIP Code, telephone number, school grade, social security number, parent or guardian's name and social security number and the sponsor's name, (5) entries sponsored by Branches or Branch members shall be submitted to their respective Regional Americanism Committee Chairman and shall be postmarked not later than March 31, 1983.

In Tahoka, the man to contact for more information or to mail entries is William C. Morgan, Rt. 5, Tahoka. He can also be reached at 998-4302.

Rotarians Get Art Lesson

"Anyone can learn to paint," stated Don Dawes, Church of Christ minister and amateur artist, as he demonstrated some of the techniques in painting in oils on canvas at Rotary last Thursday.

While making his talk, he painted a scene involving sky, clouds, ocean, a light house, grass, rocks and road, using the four basic colors—white, red, blue and orange.

He does not claim to be an artist, just a painter, but he convinced his audience that he was pretty good at his hobby.

Dr. David Midkiff arranged the program.

Rain, Snow Halt Cotton Harvest

Last weekend's rain and snow halted High Plains cotton harvesting at about the 80 percent complete mark. About 75 percent of the crop had been classed, according to Mack Bennett, Area Director for USDA's Marketing Services Offices at Lubbock. Harvesting was just gaining momentum following the previous wet spell, Bennett said.

Lubbock's Marketing Services Office classed 56,700 samples during the week ended Dec. 29 for a season's total of 536,000. This compares with 1,155,000 classed by the same date last year.

Predominant grades were grade 42 at 44 percent, grade 52 was 24 percent and grade 43 accounted for 11 percent. About 25 percent was reduced one grade because of bark and six percent for grass.

Predominant staples were staple 30 at 25 percent, staple amounted to 40 percent and staple 32 was 18 percent for an average of 31.2 thirty-seconds of an inch.

Mike 35-49 was 73 percent, 33-34 amounted to 10 percent, 30-32 was 10 percent and 27-29 accounted for five percent for an average of 37.

Breaking strength averaged 24.3 grams per tex.

Growers took advantage of the slack in harvesting to sell mixed lots of mostly grades 42 and better, staples 30-32, mike 35-49 at around 75 to 250 points over 1982 Commodity Credit loan rates. Equities of 1981-crop loan cotton brought about $5 to $25 per bale, mostly $5 to $10.

Gins paid growers $65 to $100 per ton for cottonseed, mostly $75 to $85. Loans were outstanding on 1.9 million bales of the 1982 U.S. Cotton crop on Dec. 15. Loans were outstanding on 2.8 million bales of the 1981-crop and 112,000 bales of 1980-crop cotton.

Farm Loan Interest Rate Is Reduced

Interest rates on Land Bank variable rate loans will be reduced to 11.25 percent on farm loans and to 11.75 percent on farm-related business and rural residence loans, said Jay Dee House, president of the Federal Land Bank Association of Lubbock-Tahoka.

These rates became effective Jan. 1, 1983.

"The Land Bank's objective is to provide credit to Texas agriculture at the lowest possible cost, consistent with sound business practices," said Thomas H. Benson, president of the Federal Land Bank of Texas in Austin.

"For over two years the Bank's average cost of funds consistently has been higher than the loan rate," Benson continued, "however, for the past four months, we have begun to see a decline in bond costs."

"As a result of this decline, we are able to reduce the Bank's loan interest rate," he said. "We hope that the decline in bond interest rates will continue, allowing us to make further reductions in the loan rate."

The Federal Land Bank Association of Lubbock-Tahoka makes long-term real estate loans on farm and rural residence property in the counties of Lynn, Garza and Lubbock.

Two new regulations have resulted from the recent nationwide drug product tampering, which claimed seven lives in the Chicago area, emphasizes Dr. Mary Ann Shirer, health education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A & M University System. As of early Nov. 1982, the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) began requiring tamper-resistant packaging for certain over-the-counter human drug and cosmetic products, and for contact lens solution and tablets. Additionally, each retail package must bear a prominent statement to alert consumers to the specific tamper-resistant features of the package. Purpose of these regulations is to assure package integrity and product security.

THEN AND NOW

Although there is no cure for the common cold, for centuries people have tried all sorts of remedies to relieve its uncomfortable symptoms.

THEN: People in some parts of the world believed that wearing garlic around the neck would ward off the infectious common cold. Despite their efforts, the cold persisted, though the garlic may have kept away some cold carriers.

NOW: Still not curable, the cold may make people less miserable today than it used to, thanks to the introduction of over-the-counter decongestant cold medications. However, some people complain that these products may produce uncomfortable over-drying side effects. Many find that Coricidin* tablets, which do not contain a decongestant, ease cold symptoms without the discomfort of drying out the nasal passages. The Coricidin formula, introduced originally to the medical profession as a prescription product, reflects the latest findings and thinking of both medical and scientific research. For those who prefer cold medication with a decongestant, Coricidin 'D' is also available at most stores.

Burial Plots, Taxes Topics

Tahoka City Council Monday night reached an agreement with First National Bank of Tahoka regarding partial payment of taxes assessed on bank stock, with an amount to be put into a special interest-bearing account until courts decide if bank stocks are taxable.

The city will get the interest on the certificate of deposit regardless of the final outcome. It is the same kind of agreement as the bank made with other taxing jurisdictions, and was presented to the council by Frank Barrow, president of the First National.

Councilmen present were Jim Solomon, Cap Whorton, David Midkiff, and Tom Cooper, plus Mayor Mel Leslie. Councilman Richard White was absent.

The group also discussed acquisition of more land for the cemetery.

The New Year in old Japan was the time for everyone to don new clothes, take three days off from work and visit friends. Gatopests were adorned with pines.

program, which will include two Omar Burleson Congressional Interns and two Lyndon B. Johnson Congressional Interns, must be postmarked by midnight, Feb. 17, and mailed to the Abilene office.

The interns selected will receive full Congressional experience in Stenholm's Washington office this summer, with one intern from each program to serve during June or July, 1983.

Selection for the internships is made by a District-wide selection committee, chaired by former Congressman Burleson.

Applicants must be at least 18 years of age when he or she is in Washington, allowing high school seniors who have enrolled in an institute of higher learning to be eligible. Others eligible include any student or graduate student who was enrolled during the preceding academic year at any of the District colleges, universities or technical institutes, or any other school, if the person's home of record is within the 17th Congressional District. Teachers, counselors or ad-

Free Clinics Are Offered

Community Hospital of Lubbock's Healthline begins the new year with free clinics offered as a public service to the Lubbock community. All clinics are held at the hospital, 5301 University Ave., and all require a reservation. For reservations or more information, call 795-9301, extension 45.

On Tuesday, Jan. 11, administrators are also eligible.

Dr. Hsu will conduct a Urology Clinic from 1 to 3 p.m. Men, women or children having urological problems will receive a free examination.

On Thursday, Jan. 13, Dr. Gary Raymond will conduct a Podiatry Clinic from 1 to 3 p.m.

Blood pressure clinics continue weekly at Community Hospital every Wednesday from 1 to 3 p.m. Volunteers will be on hand to take blood pressure readings. No appointment is required for this clinic.

Gifts to Texas A&M totaled $40.7 million

Gifts to Texas A&M University totaled $40.7 million last year, President Frank Vandiver announced recently, up $5 million over the previous year.

"The significant financial support from outside sources provides the margin of excellence at Texas A&M," Vandiver said. "As a public institution our foundation is built on the rock of public funds. The private support from corporations, foundations and our very generous alumni provides the margin for preeminence. We are state-assisted and privately inspired."

City-County Library News

By LENNIE COX

Here it is a brand new year, and I for one have made just one New Year's resolution which pertains to the library. Yes, I am going to try my best, believe it or not, to finish the card catalog this year. I hope you, too, will make a resolution to use the library more and read many of the books that we have available for you. At the same time, though, I hope you will resolve to turn the books in on time, for, believe it or not, that will help me to reach my own goal in getting the card catalog done. I can utilize that time on it instead of having to make calls to remind people of overdue books. We will be getting some more new books in this month or the first of February.

Our new films are here which can be checked out until the middle of January. They are the following: Basketry, The Case of the Elevator Duck, Creative Arts and Crafts of Mexico, Elsa and Her Cubs, Fishing

Off the Coast of Japan, Grand Canyon, Goliath II, How About You? A Film on Birth Control and Sexuality, If It Doesn't Work-Complain, Magic Rolling Board, Martin Luther King Jr., The Owl and the Pussycat, The Promise, A Rhyming Dictionary of Zoo Animals, The Road to Interdependence, Sports For Life, Texas Our Texas, What are Values? and Yukon Territory.

Among human service professions competing for government and business dollars, home economics offers financial supporters the most for their money, says Dr. Kinsey Green, executive director of the American Home Economics Association. By working to prevent family problems, rather than having to treat them, home economists provide more cost effective services than others involved in crisis intervention, she contends.

INSIGHT INTO EYESIGHT

DAVID R. GIBSON, O.D.
— OPTOMETRIST —

WHAT AN EYE DOCTOR LOOKS FOR

If you've never had an eye examination and your eyes are bothering you for any reason, you're in for a surprise. An eye examination is a lot more thorough than finding out how well you can read an eye chart.

An eye doctor spends years of study and training so he can recognize problems and treat them effectively. Sure, he'll want to know how well you can see the letters on an eye chart. He'll test both eyes together and then test each eye separately. Maybe your problem is only in one eye.

He'll want to know how well you see at a distance as well as close up. He'll want to know how good your peripheral or side vision is, how well you see objects around you. He'll want to know how good your color vision is.

Your eye doctor will be using very precise instruments to check your eyes to see if there are any signs of disease that could impair your vision or cause blindness.

All of this information will be considered when he writes a prescription for eyeglasses or contact lenses. He's the best friend your eyes will ever have.

In the interest of better vision from the office of:

★ INTS FOR HOMEOWNERS ★

Hot Idea In Home Heating

Last year, thousands of Americans spent an average of $4,500 to install solar heat to protect themselves against rising fuel costs. Now, for less than one-tenth that cost, many others are heating their home with a simple, supplemental solar heating system which can supply more BTU's of heat than a bank works. To absorb radiation, collector panels are mounted on a south-facing wall or roof. Inside each airtight, silicon-sealed collector is an absorber plate. When the temperature on the plate reaches 80 degrees F, a thermostatic switch automatically turns on a low-wattage air shuttle. The air shuttle takes cold air from inside the home and moves it through the absorber plate where it gains about 30 degrees of heat. This heated air is then automatically circulated back into the house at a rate of 80 cubic feet of warmth a minute.

If you are handy with simple tools, you can install this Hansolar TA-3 System in less than one day.

Here's more good news. Since the federal government will subsidize an energy-saving installation with energy tax credits, you can save the original purchase price of your system in less than two seasons of use.
