Commissioners Discuss Items, Defer Action

Lynn County Commissioners Court Monday discussed problems involving payment of pauper's funerals in the county, hospitalization plans for county employees and bids which were opened on microfilming county records.

The commissioners took no action on any of the above matters, pending further study of all of them. Two bids on the microfilming were opened and a representative of one of the companies was on hand to answer questions.

Also appearing before the group were Billie Everett and Rufus Gerner representing White Funeral Home in Tahoka, and Sheriff Stanley Krause appeared briefly to discuss an insurance matter.

All commissioners and Judge J.F. Brandon participated in a brief memorial prayer in honor of E.R. Blakney, Precinct 4 commissioner who was killed in a tractor accident on his farm near New Home Dec. 3. Judge Brandon said he had not yet appointed anyone to take Blakney's post, but indicated he would do so before Jan. 1. The person appointed will serve until next November's general election, he said, but added that persons wishing to run for the office will have a chance to sign up next year for the primaries held earlier.

Commissioner Boyd Barnes moved to rescind an earlier motion he had made regarding the amount to be paid on funeral expenses for those meeting the definition of indigents. Action on the matter is planned at a later meeting.

Other commissioners present were Eldon Gattis and Bart Anderson.

WOODWORK

BY DALTON

IF YOU LIVE IN a house with a chimney sticking up above the roof, someone has probably knocked on your door at one time or another and asked you if you'd like to buy some firewood "at a really good price, because we've got this one load left and want to get rid of it," or some such story designed to part you from your money.

What confuses a lot of people is how much wood they are getting for their money. Some wood salesmen tell you they have a cord, or a rick, or a stack (or just a bunch) of wood out here, "and we usually get $97 for it, but you can have it for just $75" or whatever, and some of us who never cut any wood or bought any until about 10 years ago have trouble with all the ways wood is measured.

The first time someone tried to sell me a rick, I thought he meant something a Chinaman pulls tourists around in.

I still don't know how much wood is in a rick (somebody said a half a cord), but I have learned that a cord of wood is supposed to equal 128 cubic feet, or a stack four feet high by four feet wide by eight feet long.

Next guy who comes to my door selling wood, I'll ask him if he has 128 cubic feet. If he's like most wood salesmen I've encountered, he'll likely say, "I just got two feet and they're shaped just like everybody else's." Anyway, U.S. News and World Report suggests you make them stack it up so you can measure it before you pay for it.

Around here, if you have a chain saw, a lot of patience and know somebody who has some mesquite trees he wants to get rid of, you can cut your own wood. It's almost as cheap as buying it, after paying for chain sharpening, the saw itself, new pull cords, gasoline and oil, repainting your pickup, doctor bills for wood dropped on your toe and splinters in your eye, etc.

Mesquite and maybe some elm are about all you can find around here, and everybody I know tells me burning mesquite will cause your fireplace to fall apart, because mesquite burns so hot. But nobody I know can cite me an example of that actually happening to a fireplace.

It probably is just another tale with no basis in fact, possibly started by some salesman of oak or pinon firewood.

Sales Tax Rebate Told

State Comptroller Bob Bullock sent checks totaling $52 million in local sales tax payments to the 980 cities that levy the one percent city sales tax.

For the second straight month the city checks came earlier than usual, thanks to taxpayers meeting the state's new earlier reporting deadline of the 20th of the month.

"This payment is up 23.3 percent over the payment we sent out last December," Bullock said.

O'Donnell's Net payment this period, $914.61; comparable payment prior year, $578.00; 1983 payments to date, $11,904.09

Tahoka's net payment this period, $5,753.32. Comparable payment prior year, $2,802.40; 1983 payments to date, $56,629.84.

Wilson's net payment this period, $00; comparable payment prior year, $1,697.53; 1983 payments to date, $3,518.24.

Punishment Too Severe, Parents Tell School

Parents of four of five Tahoka High School students who recently drew three-day suspensions for drinking before a basketball game appeared before the Tahoka school board last Thursday night to question school policy regarding loss of privileges which automatically goes along with the suspensions.

The parents, who presented their case calmly without heat, said they feel that depriving the boys of taking part in any extracurricular activities for the rest of the entire year is discipline "too harsh for a first offense."

The parents said they did not question the suspension or the fact that it is wrong for the boys to be drinking, but did question the policy which mandates they not be allowed to hold class offices, participate in school UIL events and other loss of privileges.

A spokesperson for the group asked that the school board consider changing that portion of the handbook and making the action retroactive to give the young men some leniency.

School board members explained to the group that no action on changing the handbook could be taken until the matter has been placed on the agenda for consideration at the January meeting. They agreed to put the matter on the agenda for consideration at the January meeting, but made no commitment to change the policy, which they said had been established because they felt that use of alcoholic beverages by students was such a serious offense.

Board President Bob Haney thanked the group of parents and other interested adults in the 13-visitor group for their interest and clear presentation of their case.

The group also approved monthly bills, salary increases for auxiliary workers and membership in the Texans for Equitable Taxation, a group which is supporting a plan to replace the property tax with a one-cent sales tax to be used for school financing.

A deep fryer for the school cafeteria also was authorized. All school board members, Supt. Jim Coulston and principals Tom Cooper and Clifton Gardner and Assistant Principal A.D. Shaver were present.

Truck Theft Puts Suspect In Jail

A 20-year-old Tahoka man was in jail this week on charges of theft of a grain truck and criminal mischief for a tractor after the tractor and truck were taken last Wednesday night and both wound up with considerable damage.

Charged was Steve Trevino Serrato III, 20, who had bond set by Judge J.F. Brandon at $1500 on the criminal mischief charge and $25,000 set by Justice of the Peace Ed Hamilton on the charge of theft over $10,000.

Grassland Co-Op Gin Manager Doug Shepherd of Post reported a John Deere tractor missing from the gin. It later was found with a wheel off near U.S. 380 just east of Tahoka. Later a city patrolman stopped a grain truck to question the driver, who ran away on foot, leaving the truck which is owned by Bartley-Weaver Fertilizer Co. The truck engine was badly damaged as it had been run without oil, officers said.

A city officer and county deputy arrested Serrato later at a home in Tahoka.

About $400 in cash, credit cards and keys were in a billfold stolen from Genny's dress shop in Tahoka Dec. 1, but the credit cards and keys later were turned in at the courthouse. The billfold was taken from the purse of Genny Halford of New Home, owner of the business.

Items stolen from the Tommy Maeker home near Wilson were recovered during the last week, except for a 9-inch television set. Michael Dewayne Cleaver, 23, of Lubbock, pleaded guilty Friday before District Judge George Hansard of burglary of a habitation, and was awaiting sentencing this week.

In jail during the week were one person each for theft and criminal mischief, fleeing an officer, revocation of probation, public intoxication and disorderly conduct, and disorderly conduct.

A Tahoka resident reported to police that two men were prowling around the bank and the electric company at approximately 10 p.m. Tuesday.

On Dec. 3 police investigated a two-car accident at the intersection of 1600 Conway and S. 1st that involved a 1977 Ford driven by Travis Renard Moore of Tahoka and a 1980 Oldsmobile driven by Ouida Atkinson Gunnels of Tahoka. No injuries were reported.

New Allsup's Store Open

Allsups has now opened in Tahoka and is located at the intersection of Ave. L and Lockwood. Area supervisor Ken Szelazkiewicz and store manager Elva Martinez have been busy with last minute details in opening the 24 hour convenience store.

Allsups will feature a self-service soft drink fountain along with cooked food specials each week. There will be a microwave oven on hand for customers to warm up a variety of sandwiches and other food items. Also featured will be fresh popcorn, coffee and hot chocolate along with Freezebee ice cream cones and Slush Puppies.

Allsups will eliminate the deep frying method of their cooked food items by using a unique method of greaseless cooking.

Along with regular grocery items, Allsups will also carry three types of gasoline including unleaded, regular and diesel fuel.

Review Board Ponders Bank Stock Values

The question of how much value to place on stocks of banks in Lynn County for tax purposes remained unsettled Tuesday after the county appraisal district's review board heard a presentation from one of four taxing units in the county which have formally protested the value set on bank stock as being too low.

Values set on the stocks of the three banks in the county were cut by about 90 per cent by the review board Nov. 15 after two of the banks protested the original figures as being too high. Tahoka and Wilson school districts, the City of Tahoka and Lynn County then protested the ruling of the review board.

Tahoka Supt. Jim Coulston presented the school board's case to the review board Tuesday, with the other taxing entities agreeing that his presentation would also present their own protests adequately. Coulston offered 52 documents supporting his case and concluded by asking that the review group either raise the value of the bank stocks or put the stocks on a supplemental role, with taxes to be assessed retroactive to this year at any time a generally accepted method of valuing bank stocks is determined statewide.

Harold Barrett of O'Donnell, chairman of the review board, and members Curtis Wilke of Wilson and J.T. Miller of Tahoka, then went into executive session to discuss the situation. After the closed session, the group announced it was not ready to rule on the protests of the taxing groups, but would do so at another meeting at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday, Dec. 28.

Barrett did ask the parties involved in the conflict to try to get together on some kind of compromise if possible before Dec. 28. "If no compromise is reached by that time, we will then make our ruling," he said.

WBY-JUKBY?

Here are some interesting facts about your skin that you may not know:

- The skin of the average person, if it were spread out flat, would cover about 1.8 square feet.
- The skin is the largest organ of the human body.
- The skin of an adult weighs about six pounds.

A piece of skin the size of only a quarter contains a yard of blood vessels, four yards of nerves, 25 nerve ends, 100 sweat glands and more than three million cells.

It is most important to take care of your skin.

Increasingly, men are adding after shaves and colognes to their regular skin grooming routine. That's one reason after shave gift sets, such as the Skin Bracer & Gift Collection by Mennen, are popular holiday items. The soothing, cooling and stimulating effect of Skin Bracer After Shave is also available in Spice Scent, a product that was recently introduced and is proving popular with men of all ages.

What A Gift!

Spectacular gifts were given to guests at the parties of the Roman Emperor Nero. He would shower his guests with gifts in glass balls that dropped from the palace ceiling.

A spectacular gift for today's modern executive might be a portable computer, including a display, an on-board dot matrix printer, micro-cassette storage capabilities and rechargeable batteries that run for up to 50 hours on one charge.

The Epson HX-20 can be used for word processing, note taking or telecommunications, and weighs about four pounds. For more information, call (800) 421-5426, if outside California, or (213) 539-9140, within California.

The Bank of Vernal, Utah, is the only bank that has been built with bricks that were sent through the mail. It cost less to have them sent through the mail than to build with bricks.

AWARD RECIPIENT—Swapan K. Banerjee, Lynn County Hospital physician, has earned the Physician's Recognition Award. Marvin E. Johnson, M.D., director of the American Medical Assn., informed Dr. Banerjee, "Your personal program of continuing medical education identifies you with a distinguished group of physicians who have accepted participation in continuing medical education as a basic responsibility of the profession of medicine and have met that responsibility." ### City-County Library News

By LENNIE COX

The coming of Christmas means a busy time for everyone, yet I hope you will take time out from your busy schedule to relax and enjoy a good book which you can always find at the library. Then after Christmas during the long, cold winter days and nights it is good to have an interesting book to read while you sit by a warm fire and enjoy it all. We have a wide range of new books now for you to choose from, some of which are the following: The Clan of the Cave Bear and its sequel, The Valley of Horses by Jean Auel; Poland by James Michener as well as his book called Space; Master of the Game by Sidney Sheldon; Tanamera and A Farewell to France by Noel Barber; The Lonesome Gods by L'Amour; Voice of the Heart by Bradford; One Minute Manager, The One Minute Father and the One Minute Mother by Johnson; History of the Vietnam War by Lawson; Megatrends by Naisbitt; some Judy Blume books; a set of the Trixie Beldon books; Nursery Tales by Grasset; Erma Bombeck's new book; Allen Drury's new book called Decision; some of Danielle Steel's newest books; and many others which are too numerous to mention. The work on the card catalog is coming along fine. I am now working on the nonfiction books putting the Dewey decimal numbers on them before fixing cards for each to put in the card catalog. When I have completed this portion of the work, then I will start working on the catalog for the children's books. We hope that you will remember that we can still get books for you through the interlibrary loan system even though we no longer belong to the West Texas System. Just this morning I received a book from Dodge City, Kansas for one of my patrons who requested it through this system. I cannot always guarantee that you will get the book you request, but nine times out of ten, it is possible to get what you want.

VITAMIN C PILLS-- Although many people take vitamin C in pill form, it's not necessary. The vitamin is available from a variety of foods such as dark green leafy vegetables, citrus fruits and berries. According to the National Research Council, 60 milligrams of vitamin C per day is adequate to maintain good health. A single orange has about 66 milligrams. A stalk of broccoli has 100 milligrams; a cup of chopped cabbage or coleslaw, raspberries, a baked potato or a tomato each have about 30 milligrams of vitamin C. Since the tablets can be costly, consumers might find food sources a more economical way to get their vitamin C.

The most popular fruit in the U.S. is the banana. Americans consume an average of 18.7 pounds per year.

MICROWAVE MAGIC MAKING POPCORN

With microwave ovens already cooking in some 40 percent of America's kitchens—and that number is growing daily—homemakers have acquired a whole new set of cooking equipment to work with these appliances.

Why shouldn't you cook in conventional pots and pans when using a microwave? Food must absorb the microwaves to get the cooking done. Those waves must pass through the cooking utensil. Most plastic containers, glass and paper will allow the microwaves to penetrate. With metal, they would just bounce off.

Each carton of the new types of cookware, now there are new foods made exclusively for microwaves as well. One good example is popcorn, packaged in its own quick and easy popping bag. Just introduced by FLAVOR*WRITE, it's one of growing daily—homemakers have acquired a whole new set of cooking equipment to work with these appliances.

The popcorn, which is to be prepared only in microwave ovens of at least 600 watts, is done simply by placing the bag seam side up in the oven. In about five minutes, the expanded bag may be opened to reveal a scrumptious snack of hot, freshly popped salted corn—a treat for young and old.

Each carton of the new popcorn includes three pop-serve bags and each bag turns out eight cups of freshly made popcorn.

High Plains Cotton Prices Move Higher

Mixed lot prices have moved up 5½ cents per pound for West Texas cotton since early October. Mixed lots of mostly grades 42 and better, staples 30-32, mike 34-49 traded at about 1250 points over 1983 loan rates on Oct. 3. Similar lots brought about 1800 over on Dec. 8.

The current West Texas base quality (grade 52, stapel 32, mike 35-49) was quoted by the Lubbock Cotton Exchange at 56.90 cents per pound on Oct. 3, compared with 63.65 on Dec. 8. That's 6¼ cents higher, according to Mack Bennett, Area Director, at USDA's Marketing Services Office in Lubbock.

Current Below Grade prices are equal to Low Middling spotted grades. Both groups are hovering just under 60.00 cents Bennett continued. Grade 82, staple 31, mike 35-49 brought about 53.00 cents per pound in early October. Prices moved up 5½ cents to 58.50 on Dec. 8. Grade 53, staple 31, mike 35-49 was quoted at 52.70 on Oct. 3 against 59.70 on Dec. 8. That's seven cents higher.

Pakistan closed the export door in October. Pakistan owed about 300,000 bales from sales made to textile mills, but could not deliver. West Texas became the world's major supplier of short staple cotton.

About that same time, domestic mills discovered that the average breaking strength of the West Texas new crop was well above the national average of 25.00 grams per tex.

The net effect on West Texas cotton prices was a strong surge upward caused by increased demand from both export and domestic users, Bennett concluded.

USDA's Marketing Services Office at Lubbock classed an estimated 177,300 samples during the week ended Dec. 8 for a season's estimated total of 583,000. "We used estimated figures because our computer has malfunctioned," he said. No quality statistics are available for that reason.

Crop, Livestock Reports Important

The Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service is currently gathering information from thousands of farmers and ranchers to be used in developing final 1983 state and county crop estimates and 1984 livestock inventories.

This survey information serves as the basis for determining allotments and payment levels to producers under various commodity programs, so producers are encouraged to give their full support.

In turn, producers can use the statistics making production and marketing decisions.

With today's low prices and depressed farm incomes, farmers and ranchers need all the accurate, up-to-date information they can get to wisely plan their production and marketing operations.

This year's survey carries with it some significant features. After last year's PIK program and drought, the current supply and demand situation facing agriculture makes it imperative that true crop production conditions be known. Also, the cow liquidation caused by last summer's drought and the effect of the new dairy liquidation legislation requires an accurate picture of the state's livestock inventory this coming year. This numbers estimate could be the most important in years.

Collection and publication of agricultural statistics is a cooperative effort between the Texas and U.S. Departments of Agriculture. This cooperation avoids duplication of effort saves money and increases the effectiveness of statistical reports.

Individual farm and ranch information is kept strictly confidential and only state and county summaries become part of the final published estimate.

Annual county estimates are published for livestock dairy, poultry, cotton, field crops, small grains, fruits and pecans, vegetables and cash receipts from the sale of farm products.

You can remove spilled food and odors from your refrigerator with a sponge and a solution of one tablespoon of a product such as 20 Mule Team Borax and a quart of warm water. Rinse with cold water.

Letters to the Editor

Letters to the editor do not necessarily express the views of this newspaper. All correspondence must be signed, and in good taste before it will be published, and the name of the writer must be published also. Letters to the editor may not be more than two double-spaced typewritten pages.

Dear Sir:

I was in your town last Saturday to attend the 50th anniversary of the L.J. Woods. I dropped by your office but you were closed. I had a little matter to complain about. I read your article, wood work, each week and like it. I would like to meet you.

My wife and I celebrated our 50th wedding anniversary a couple of weeks ago. We have taken the Lynn County News each year we have been married. My dad subscribed for it in 1922 when we moved to Tahoka country from Chilicothe, Texas.

We like to read all the news, especially the New Home News, as my sister, Florence Davies, reports for you there.

Now to get back to my complaint, you have gone up so much on the subscription rate. In 1927 I took some squash out of the garden to the Lynn County Fair and won 1st place. My prize for winning was a 1 yr. subscription to your paper which was $1, but I guess it is still worth the money so you will find enclosed $10 for one more year.

Merry Christmas!
Sincerely,
Sherman Inman
Muleshoe, Texas

EDITOR'S NOTE: A Tahoka High School sophomore English class wrote letters to the editor as a class assignment. Some of the letters which are considered representative of the group are being printed; many of the others complained of not enough activities for teenagers in

Tahoka, and not enough support for school athletics.]

Dear Mr. Wood:
I would like you to print this in your next edition. I would like to thank the very few, that supported the Tahoka Bulldogs in our '83-'84 football season. As you all know we didn't have a very good season this year. We had many odds against us because the team was so young and inexperienced. Much of the Bulldogs' success comes from the support of the fans. The fans have to support us through our winning and losing season. We'll try to do better in the '84-'85 season and would appreciate the support from the fans.

Sincerely,
Jeff Forsythe

Dear Mr. Wood:
I would like to commend you on your coverage of Lynn County football this past season. All of your articles throughout the season were well worth reading. The only thing that I would like to see change is for you to add a few more pictures from each game every week. Keep up the good work!

Sincerely,
Tadd Knight

Dear Mr. Wood:
I would like to take this time to say that I feel that our town is one of the friendliest towns in Texas. I have many close friends in this town and they are all super friendly. If the whole world were as nice, sweet and considerate as they are, this would be a better place for everyone. Many people complain about the way Tahoka teenagers act. Well, if some of the adults would look back at their teenage days, then they would realize that we are not as bad as they were.

Thank you,
Carla Ash

Dear Mr. Wood:
I think our city is running well. Our school system is great. All of our parks are nice to go and have a good time. Our town is already in the Christmas mood. The Snowman in front of the court house looks really nice. The ornaments on the light poles need more red to make it really good.

Sincerely,
Richard A. Calvillo

Dear Mr. Wood:
I would like to express my gratitude to all the true blue Bulldog fans in Tahoka. Those fans that stuck with us through the last two years helped us more than they will ever know and we will try our hardest to make the Bulldog fans of Tahoka proud.

Sincerely,
Doug Lawson

Dear Mr. Wood:
I would like to ask Tahoka to help support the Bulldogs. I have not seen many people this year at the ball games. Talk to the people and see if anything will change. Also help keep Tahoka clean. The town is worse than the dump. I guess the people just do not care what happens in Tahoka now a days.

Yours truly,
Mary Jane Munoz

Dear Mr. Wood:
I would like to ask you if you would print more about the townspeople and school kids. Let every one know what's going on in school. Write more about the basketball team. Put more pictures of townspeople. Put pictures of the basketball team. The paper is interesting. Make it more fun to look at.

Sincerely,
Brenda Chapa

Dear Mr. Wood:
I would like to ask that you print the following story. I do not think that there are enough job offers for teenagers. I have been searching for a job for two months and everyone says that they would keep me in mind if anything opens. It seems as if everyone that hires teenagers is all through hiring for the winter. I wish that if anyone would need a worker to print it in the paper.

Sincerely,
James Aldous

Dear Mr. Wood:
I would like to say that I think we need more recreation here. There is nothing to do here! We need a theatre, skating rink, bowling alley, shopping center, recreation center, or something to keep us busy. I believe that this might put an end to teenagers dragging the streets at night.

Sincerely,
Melinda Sullivan

(if it's safe) so you won't be downshifting on the hill. If you think you must downshift on an up or down hill, do so before the hill.

To straighten a skid, turn smoothly into the direction the rear wheels have skidded. Keep front wheels headed as straight as possible in heavy snow to avoid "plowing" resistance. If you're stuck, try to "rock out"—keep the wheels from spinning, shift back and forth between low and reverse, time your shift at the top of each rock.

Keep your windshield clear. When you park, covering your windshield with a plastic sheet cut from a rubbish bag lets you peel off snow and ice when you come back. Carry a scraper; in a pinch the edge of your plastic credit card will do.

GOOD ADVICE!

Get Involved With Drugs Before Your Children Do
Sooner or later, someone's going to turn your children on.

It could be their best friends.

And chances are, you won't be anywhere in sight.

So what can you do?

Talk to your children about drugs before they have to make a decision on their own. Which means you have to learn something about drugs. That's the advice from the National Institute on Drug Abuse.

To prevent gummy noodles, rice, macaroni and spaghetti, add two teaspoons of cooking oil to the water before cooking. This makes the noodles glisten and stand apart.

"Pick a Phone, Any Phone?"

Just because a phone will plug into your wall jack, it doesn't mean that it will work.

Why?
Well, for instance, let's look at a phone that will be used on a party-line. Since customers share a common line to the telephone company switching office, each phone has its own special ringing-cycle setting which allows the phone to know when it should ring on the party-line.

Even if you have a 'Private Line', you still may have problems.
Single-line customers may also have special dialing or ringing requirements that are not apparent. So, they purchase a new phone and sadly discover that it won't work. This is especially true for customers who may be considering a cordless telephone or even a universal dialing telephone, a clock radio that offers telephone access capability or any other special telephone service.

Trading in your dial phone could be asking for trouble.
The joy of owning your very own 'Touch Tone' phone could turn into tragedy if your phone line is designated for a dial or pulse phone. A pushbutton 'pulse' phone will work on most lines, since it also duplicates the signal of a regular dial phone. However, a 'Touch Tone' phone emits a 'beeping' tone that requires special equipment to recognize the signal. Some dial phones, even if you have Touch Call Service, are not compatible under certain circumstances.

So, if you decide to buy a new telephone, take the time to stop by your neighborhood GTE Phone Mart and see if your particular line has any special limitations. It could possibly save you a lot of frustration and money.

COTTON TALKS
 FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

A great mishmash of ever-changing systems, formulas and combinations of multi-year planting and production histories have been used over the years to assign farm program crop acreage and yields on American cotton, wheat, feed grains and rice farms. Now comes an effort to devise and enact into law a single "consensus system" of acreage bases and production yields for all crops and all farms, not subject to change with the passage of each successive two or four-year farm bill as in the past.

After more than a year of study, Congressman Charles Stenholm of Stamford has introduced H. R. 4565, the "Agricultural Efficiency and Equity Act of 1983." The bill, Stenholm says, would provide a "skeletal structure" around which a wide variety of future price support and production adjustment programs can be built.

An early draft of the proposal was discussed briefly in an October Plains Cotton Growers Board meeting and continues under study by PCG. An analysis of the bill as introduced November 18 will be available for the Board's further consideration at its meeting in January.

The "system" would first establish for each farm a farm acreage base (FAB) equal to the rolling average of total acreage planted to all four program crops in each of the five preceding years.

Within the FAB would be a crop acreage base (CAB) for each commodity, the sum of which could not exceed the FAB.

For 1986, each producer would be allowed to choose his own set of crop acreage bases, so long as the total acreage involved did not exceed the FAB. This is a new approach, completely different from past procedures under which each year's crop acreage base was determined in some way from planting history.

For the crop year 1987-1990, each CAB would be the average of plantings to that crop during all crop years from 1986 forward. After 1990 each CAB, like the FAB, would be a rolling five-year average of acreage planted to the crop in question.

Another innovative feature: All of the above notwithstanding, producers would have freedom to adjust any crop acreage base for a given year simply by giving notice of the desired adjustment at least 60 days before the required program announcement date for the crop. However the CAB could not be increased by more than 25 percent of the FAB. And of course the increase in one CAB would have to be offset by a corresponding decrease in another CAB.

Yields for all crops would be determined in the same way, by taking a rolling five-year average of actual yields, with the high and low yields from those years omitted. The program yields for any year however could not rise or fall from the previous year by more than 10 percent.

According to an aide, Stenholm has no delusions about the bill in its present form being perfect. Rather, he says, it is seen as a catalyst which will initiate, through hearings, a forum for discussing problems with the present system and achieving a consensus on a permanent system for determining acreage bases and yields in the future.

THEN-NOW

Although stoves have been known to man for more than 1,000 years, their use of cooking food is actually fairly recent.

THEN: The Chinese were using stoves for heating their homes as early as the 700s. However, popular use of stoves for cooking didn't begin in America until the last century. Most of these early iron cookstoves used wood for fuel.

NOW: Cooking, today, can be a finely honed skill, thanks to new developments in microwave cookery. Today's ovens, using energy-saving microwaves, can roast meat, bake a cake, simmer a sauce for pasta, cook a casserole and much more. New developments in utensils, made of Udel polysulfone, are making microwave cookery even better. They're chip and break-resistant, are very transparent to microwaves and clean with ease. They're even dishwasher-safe.

VITAMIN C NOT A CURE ALL- Just how much vitamin C is necessary for good health has been the subject of a 50-year controversy. According to the National Research Council, which sets recommended levels for nutrients, 60 milligrams of vitamin C per day is adequate, for to maintain good health. A single orange has about 66 milligrams. It takes only 15 milligrams of vitamin C per day to prevent scurvy. "Some self-taught nutritionists and vitamin sales persons disagree with this figure," says Dr. Alice Hunt, Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist. "They believe that two-four-ten or 100-ties more than the recommended daily amount will protect you from illness. But these claims have not been supported by scientific investigations," she says. For example, research shows that the duration of cold symptoms could be reduced by only about 2 1/2 hours by taking high doses of vitamin C, reports Hunt.

Payton 6, Tammi Hood and Rosie Montemayor, 3 each.

Littlefield vs Tahoka
 The Tahoka Bulldogs hosted the Littlefield Wildcats Dec. 6. The varsity boys were defeated 64-96. Johnny Morin and Anthony Justice led the Bulldogs with 19 and 18 points respectively. Trey Teaff scored 11 points, Doug Lawson scored 8, and Danny Hart and Scott Isbell scored 4 each.

The Lady Dogs were upset 19-38. The leading scorer for the girls was Lela Bailey with 12 points. Tammi Hood and Rosie Montemayor scored 5 and 2 points respectively.

4-H'ers Learn Management Skills

4-H members who want to learn management skills and apply them in real-life situations can do so in the 4-H home management program.

The 4-H home management program encompasses projects and activities designed to encourage the development of personal, home and family management abilities, points out Greg Henly, county 4-H program coordinator.

The program focuses on planning, goal setting, resource management and budgeting as essential skills regardless of the undertaking, says Henly. It concentrates on the development of these fundamental skills.

4-H members who participate in the learn-by-doing program set attainable goals based on their values, needs and wants. They work towards these goals by identifying, acquiring, allocating and using available resources. In the process, 4-H'ers improve their management and decision-making skills.

Beatrice Foods Co., a Chicago-based international corporation, is the national sponsor of this popular 4-H project. Awards include eight $1,000 national scholarships, one expense-paid trip to the annual National 4-H Congress per state, and four medals of honor at the county level.
