

Tahoka Bank Depository For County

First National Bank of Tahoka was accepted as the depository for Lynn County funds for the next two years as county commissioners Monday looked at bids submitted by the Tahoka bank, Wilson State Bank, First National Bank of O'Donnell and Sentry Savings.

Commissioners voted to pay the Texas Assn. of Counties the quarterly payment of $2,123 for workman's compensation through March 31.

Bids were opened from three companies on a new maintainer for Precinct 4, but no action was taken pending further study of the bids by Commissioner J.T. Miller.

Payment to the 7th administrative judicial district for 1985, totaling $180, was approved, as was renewal of insurance coverage on the Extension Service building and library.

County Clerk C.W. Roberts was given approval to attend a clerk's meeting in College Station in March.

Mayor Proclaims February As Heart Month

Mayor Meldon Leslie issued a proclamation this week designating February as American Heart Month and urged Tahoka area residents to support the 1985 campaign to be conducted nationwide.

"These diseases accounted for nearly 5,000,000 of the nation's deaths last year and more than 50,000 here in Texas," Leslie said, more than half of the deaths from all causes.

Volunteers in the Tahoka area will join the effort to distribute heart information and collect contributions to support research, education and community service projects. These programs are aimed at reducing early death and disability from heart disease and stroke.

Evidence indicates that some heart disease can be traced to an early age in life and that the disease could be prevented if bad habits, poor nutrition, lack of exercise, smoking and others were prevented in the first 20

Tahoka Police Issue Tickets To Drivers

Tahoka police issued ten tickets during the past week including three for exhibition of acceleration, one for driving without headlights and six tickets for running stop signs.

Police also investigated one family disturbance call, one prowler call and one report from a Tahoka woman who complained of beer bottles and cans being thrown in her yard.

Sheriff's officers investigated reports of thefts at farms in the county. Donald Basinger of Slaton reported a barn burglarized six miles east of Wilson at FM 212 last Thursday night. Stolen were a Forney welder, John Deere tool boxes and tools. Officers had a description of a suspect and were seeking him this week.

Jerry Harlan, Rt. 2, Slaton,

Special Recognition Set For Lady Stewart Sunday

Tahoka Mayor Meldon Leslie has proclaimed Sunday as Lady Stewart Day in Tahoka, and a special program recognizing Mrs. Stewart for her "dedicated and unselfish" contributions to the community is planned Sunday afternoon.

The recognition for Mrs. Stewart's role in community affairs comes just prior to her 90th birthday next Wednesday.

A member of First United Methodist Church, Mrs. Stewart will be honored by the program starting at 3 p.m. Sunday in the sanctuary of that church, with a reception to follow in Fellowship Hall.

In part, Mayor Leslie's proclamation read:

"WHEREAS, throughout all of her adult life, Lady Dobbins Stewart, an esteemed citizen of this City, has fully devoted herself, in an unselfish manner, to promote the general welfare of her fellow citizens, not only in the City of Tahoka but in and throughout this entire area, giving of herself and of her means and spending countless hours inspiring, encouraging, and giving moral strength and comfort to all of those that have come in contact with her; and because of her exemplary life she has been instrumental in formulating the character and ideals of all of those who have been fortunate to have known her; and

"WHEREAS, during her entire lifetime she has gone about her daily tasks in service to her fellow man in a dedicated and unselfish manner....and

"WHEREAS, Lady Dobbins Stewart has attained the age of 90 years and this is the time when individual recognition and honor can be justly bestowed upon her and for which she so richly deserves,

"NOW, THEREFORE, I, Meldon Leslie, Mayor of the City of Tahoka, Texas, do hereby designate Sunday, Feb. 17, 1985, as Lady Dobbins Stewart Day and I ask all of the citizens....to communicate their personal appreciation to Lady Dobbins Stewart for the manner in which she has enriched all of our lives."

Sen. Montford Introduces New Legislation

State Senator John T. Montford has introduced legislation in the Texas Senate which would increase the number of commissioners to serve on the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission. The Highway Commission determines where highway funds will be spent in Texas.

The Highway Commission currently has three members who are appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Texas Senate. Under Senate Bill 264, the current three member board would be expanded to a six member board with each member serving a six-year term.

One third of the board, or two members, would come up for appointment every two years. Also the Governor would be required to appoint members to the commission on a geographic basis so that all regions of the State will be represented on the Commission.

WOODWORK BY DALTON

SOMEBODY sent me a clipping of one of those "You Know It's Going To Be a Bad Day If..." clippings. We've seen this several times over the years and even reprinted it once, and we have a copy stuck on the wall somewhere here in the office. But all of them vary a little. Along with the usual things common to all the lists, this one had two or three I hadn't heard before, including:

You Know It's Going To Be A Bad Day When:

You see a "60 Minutes" news team waiting in your office.

Your boss tells you not to bother to take off your coat.

Your blind date turns out to be your ex-wife.

Your son tells you he wishes Anita Bryant would mind her own business.

ALSO STOLEN from somewhere else is this list recently handed to me by another newspaper worker. It is entitled "Famous American Fibs" and includes:

The check is in the mail. I'll start my diet tomorrow. We service what we sell.

Give me your number and the doctor will call-you right back.

Money cheerfully refunded. One size fits all.

Your luggage isn't lost, it's only misplaced.

Leave your resume and we'll keep it on file.

This hurts me more than it hurts you.

I just need five minutes of your time.

Your table will be ready in a few minutes.

Open wide, it won't hurt a bit.

Let's have lunch sometime.

Statewide Study On School District Property Values Released

The market value of property in Texas school districts totaled $745.5 billion in 1983, according to a study just completed by the State Property Tax Board (SPTB). Ron Patterson, SPTB's executive director, said property values have increased by 21 percent since 1981, the date of the last study. The study estimates that $636.5 billion of the total value was actually taxable by the state's 1,070 school districts. Taxable value is calculated by deducting from market value the value of state-mandated homesteads and veterans' exemptions and value lost because of productivity appraisal for rural acreage, the school tax ceiling for over-65 homeowners, and the portion of appraised values unavailable for taxation within reinvestment zones. Patterson explained that the study of the local school district property tax base is required by the Texas Education Code. "A school district's taxable value estimate is one of several factors used by the Texas Education Agency to determine the district's share of state education aid for the 1984-85 school year," said Patterson. SPTB's report shows a total market value for each school district, a breakdown of the total by property category and the deductions made in calculating the district's taxable value. Statewide, the total market value of Texas school districts increased by $129.6 billion, or 21 percent, over the value determined in SPTB's 1981 study. Values on the school districts' own tax rolls totaled $590.3 billion. Overall, the study estimates that about 15 percent of 1983 market value, or $109 billion, was not taxable by school districts. State-mandated exemptions reduced the total by $18.3 billion, compared to $14.3 billion in 1981. The school tax ceiling on over-65 homesteads removed another $6 billion in value. Productivity valuation for agricultural and timber acreage lowered the value totals by $84.4 billion. Reinvestment zones removed only about $36.7 million

The largest category of property value was single-family residences, which made up over 28 percent of 1983 values. Their value increased by 25 percent from 1981 to a total of $212.6 billion. Values of commercial and industrial real properties combined with business personal properties accounted for a fourth of the value totals and posted a 27 percent increase from 1981.

Oil, gas and minerals made up about 11 percent, or $84.7 billion, of the state's market value for 1983. However, their value was virtually unchanged from 1981, reflecting the slump in oil and gas production in Texas.

The highest point on the State highway system is at Mount Locke, site of the famed Mac Donald Observatory, on Park Road 78.

Crime Stoppers Offer Reward

ANTHONY GINETTI

The people around the West Texas town of Coahoma say Anthony Ginnetti was a super salesman.

Investigators from the FBI, the Texas Department of Public Safety and the Swisher and Howard County Sheriff's Departments say the same thing. The only problem, they say, is that all Ginnetti sold was a "bill of goods".

Ginnetti, who also goes by the names of, Terry Lee Ginnetti, Terry Lee Prero, Anthony Culpert, and Tony Argus, is wanted by state and federal law enforcement officials on charges of defrauding the Coahoma State Bank out of $260,000 and a private individual out of some $150,000.

The dapper-looking 37-year-old fugitive began negotiating with Coahoma State Bank in October, 1982, to secure an automobile "floor plan" for his Car City Auto Sales and Service business. The original agreement, say investigators, was for $38,000 worth of automobile purchases. A total of $20,000 was to be secured by a Certificate of Deposit held by the bank and the rest of the loan was to be secured by automobile titles held by the bank as collateral.

But detectives say that between October 1982, and April 1984, Ginnetti was able to get the "floor plan" raised to $80,000, with $30,000 in CD's and the remainder in automobile titles.

During the same period of time, say investigators, Ginnetti was able to defraud the bank in the following manner:

—replacing all good automobile titles held by the bank with illegally acquired titles, thereby effectively reducing a portion of the collateral held by the bank.

—passing insufficient fund checks, which were honored by the bank.

Services for Mrs. Lena Ferguson of Post, cousin of Lucille Clary, were held Monday at Post.

—having the bank release liens on automobiles by telling them he had the vehicles sold and would return with the money. He would never deposit the money in the bank.

—by writing checks on collected funds which subsequently had "Stop Payment" placed on them.

—by purchasing a large number of automobiles or customer drafts which were honored by the bank, despite the fact there was not sufficient funds on deposit at the bank.

—forging signatures on vehicle titles held by the bank.

—forging his partner's signature to checks and drafts which were honored by the bank.

Investigators caution that while Ginnetti might have left the state, there is a possibility that he might still be somewhere in Texas operating in the same manner.

Ginnetti is described as white male, 5-9, 175 pounds, with blonde hair and blue eyes.

This week Texas Most Wanted is offering a $1,000 reward for information leading to Ginnetti's capture. To be eligible for the reward, citizens are asked to call Texas Crime Stoppers Advisory Council toll free at 1-800-252-8477 or their local Crime Stoppers program. Callers do not have to reveal their identities.

Conditions For Harvest Poor

Cold, damp weather hampered final harvest efforts on the Texas High Plains. The on-again-off-again harvest was estimated at 98 percent off the stalk late this week, said Mack Bennett, Area Director for USDA's Marketing Services Office at Lubbock. Many modules remain stored in fields.

"Southern counties had a late killing freeze and that's where most current ginning is underway," Bennett continued. Low micronaire and low gin turnouts have been disappointing during the past few weeks. These two factors resulted in a lower estimated High Plains production in early January.

USDA's Crop Reporting Board lowered the Texas district number 1, covering the High Plains, from 2.76 million 480 pound

GENERIC DRUGS

Laws enacted in some states allow the pharmacist to substitute a "generic equivalent" drug under certain conditions, when such a similar drug is available. This means that your pharmacist may dispense an identical drug in terms of quality and active chemical composition, but manufactured by another pharmaceutical company at considerable savings to you, the patient. This is an effective way to reduce the cost of certain prescription drugs, and we encourage you to request your physician and pharmacist to use "generic" drugs whenever possible.

Cotton Prices Move Lower

High Plains cotton prices moved lower again this week. Growers sold moderate amounts in mixed lots of mostly grades 42 and 52, staples 30 to 32, mike 30-32 at around 325 to 425 over 1984 loan rates. This was about three-fourths of a cent lower than a week earlier, said Mack Bennett, Area Director for UDSA's Marketing Services Office in Lubbock.

Harvesting was halted in the final stages when snow blanketed the High Plains Wednesday and Thursday. Most gins in northern and central counties have finished the season, Bennett continued. Much of the remaining harvesting and ginning is in southern and western counties.

Home Economics In The '80s

By TAMERA OVERCAST

HEATING SEASON MEANS COLD SEASON—It's inevitable. The cold weather means we turn on the central heating. The heat dries out the air. And this lack of moisture causes noses and throats to dry, making the mucous membranes of our noses and respiratory systems more susceptible to infections.

The average adult can expect to catch two colds during the year. The average child under four years old is likely to have as many as eight colds.

Americans spend millions of dollars each year on pills and formulas aimed at relieving runny noses or stuffed-up heads. Some may even make a visit to the doctor. But the Health Insurance stitute points out that the money spent on medicine or doctor's visits is doing little good.

Extensive studies by the Food and Drug Administration have shown that there is no generally accepted treatment which can prevent, cure or shorten the course of the common cold. Bedrest and plenty of liquids are as good as any medicine - and a lot cheaper.

Most colds will normally last between two days to a week, no matter what you do. If you have one that lasts much longer though, you may not have a cold at all. It could be an allergy or sinus infection and in this case, see your physician.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

A public hearing will be conducted Monday, Feb. 18, 1985, at Tahoka City Hall, beginning at 7 p.m. in the council room, for the purpose of receiving public comment on a proposal by Signet Cablevision of Tahoka to increase basic cable rates by $1.50 per month and to add new channels to the basic cable.

Anyone interested in the proposal is invited to attend and comment. 7-1tc
