All of us know people (it may be ourselves) who are completely and fanatically addicted to one particular interest; their whole lives revolve around going fishing, playing golf or tennis, raising pigs, watching soap operas, eating, playing guitars or some other instrument, building cabinets, taking medicine, or whatever turns them on.

Like everyone else, I have my own favorites, and I can understand most of those others, even if they don't appeal to me personally.

However, I can't imagine anyone wanting to pay $19.95 for a "precise reproduction of Princess Diana's engagement ring" such as was offered in a full page ad in last Sunday's edition of Parade. Why in the world would anyone want one of those things to wear? The ad says by ordering a copy of "Prince Charles' Royal Gift of Love," the wearer will be sharing in this "continuing storybook romance."

Prussic Acid Poisoning In Livestock

Frost will be hitting Lynn County before long, and this could lead to prussic acid poisoning in livestock grazing certain pasture grasses and forage, points out Stanley Young, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System.

Although many plants contain the toxic material that causes poisoning, those causing the highest mortality in livestock when grazing after they have been frozen and wilted are Johnson and Sudan grasses and sorghum or hybrids of these.

The most dangerous time as far as the grazing of these plants is concerned is following frost when the plant material begins to wilt. Livestock should not be allowed access to the wilted material until it has dried completely. This usually takes three or four days of good sunlight. New plant growth usually becomes nontoxic and can be grazed within 10 days to two weeks following a rain. As far as prussic acid poisoning is concerned, the poison acts rapidly and can kill animals within minutes. In most acute cases, animals become affected within 10-15 minutes after eating toxic material and can die in two to three minutes. Symptoms may include a brief period of stimulation followed by depression and paralysis. Signs of colic may be present. Stupor (loss of sensibility), difficult breathing and frequent convulsions may result. Death is caused by suffocation since oxygen remains in the blood and is not exchanged to the tissues. This also causes the blood

Economics Program Set: An economic outlook report by Robert T. Parry, executive vicepresident and chief economist of Security Pacific Bank, Los Angeles, will be one of 40 reports at a Cotton Economics and Marketing Conference Jan. 7-8 in Las Vegas.

The session is part of the Beltwide Cotton Conferences, sponsored by the National Cotton Council and others.

Russell Barlowe, a U.S. Department of Agriculture fibers analyst, will be chairman of the session. Reports ranging from international trade developments to the futures market are slated.

"Those who attend should get a better understanding of the general economy and the competition that can be expected from both cotton-producing countries and textile-exporting countries." Barlowe said.

Bollworm Committee To Convene: The National Cotton to appear bright red.

To prevent prussic acid poisoning in livestock, Young outlines these steps:

1. Allow plant material affected by frost to dry thoroughly before grazing. This may require a week or more of good sunlight.

2. Feed animals hay or a supplement before turning them in on plants that may contain prussic acid. Animals that are not hungry will not be affected as seriously by toxic material since their intake will be limited.

3. Remove all animals from the pasture if one in the herd shows any signs of poisoning.

4. Call a veterinarian immediately if an animal appears to be poisoned. An antidote to treat affected animals is highly efficient if given early. This product is available from veterinarians.

5. Have suspect plant material checked by the Texas Veterinary Medical Diagnostic Laboratories at College Station or Amarillo. Local veterinarians will be happy to submit samples for you.

The overall key to prevent prussic acid poisoning in livestock is to be aware of plant materials that may cause poisoning and then to keep cattle from grazing such plants until a safe period has passed, points out

Council's Pink Bollworm Action Committee will discuss the current bollworm situation in Arizona and California at a meeting in Las Vegas, Nov. 6-7.

Jack Stone, Stratford, Calif., producer and committee chairman, said other topics to be covered are Arizona's regulatory program, pink bollworm research, the Southwest Boll Weevil Eradication Program, and the Animal & Plant Health Inspection Service's support and funding of the bollworm and boll weevil program.

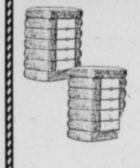

Former Maid To Head Judging Panel: Jann Carl, the 1982 Maid of Cotton who is now a Los Angeles television show host, will chair a five-member judging panel that will select the cotton industry's 1986 goodwill ambassador in Dallas, Dec. 28-30.

Other judges will be Jack Miller, board chairman of Sanger Harris, Dallas; Robert J. Boslet, president of Cotton Incorporated; New York; Albert R. Russell, former National Cotton Council executive vice president, Oxford, Miss.; and Dorothy Roberson, the Council's communications director.

Meanwhile, would-be Maid of Cotton finalists have until Nov. 9 to submit applications to Council headquarters. The winner will receive a $10,000 educational award made possible by a grant to the Cotton Foundation from the Ciba-Geigy Corporation, and will make an international tour on behalf of the U.S. cotton in-

NOTICE TO PUBLIC OF NO SIGNIFICANT EFFECT ON THE ENVIRONMENT AND NOTICE TO PUBLIC OF REQUEST FOR RELEASE OF FUNDS

City of Tahoka 1612 Lockwood Tahoka, Texas 79373

TO ALL INTERESTED AGENCIES, GROUPS AND PERSONS:

On or about November 25, 1985, the above-named City of Tahoka will request the Department of Housing & Urban Development to release Federal funds under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 as amended, to be used for the following project in an adjacent area to the 1982 HUD grant:

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT

Project to be located in the City limits of Tahoka, Lynn County, Texas within the Enumeration District 5. A more detailed description of the project and a map showing the specific additional locations of the proposed improvements is available for public examination at City Hall, 1612 Lockwood.

Finding of No Significant Impact

It has been determined that such request for release of funds will not constitute an action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment and accordingly the above-named City of Tahoka has decided not to prepare an Environmental Impact Statement under the National Environmental Policy Act. of 1969. This is an amendment to the 1982 HUD Grant which will include the same activities.

The Reasons for such decision not to prepare such Statement are that additional adjacent area consists of the same activities which are:

CLEARANCE ACTIVITIES- Unoccupied and dilapidated structures, abandoned vehicles and uncleared overgrown lots in the project are creating serious threats to public health and safety and contribute to overall neighborhood blight. The project will seriously reduce this problem through a comprehensive program in the community. No major effects on environmental pollution or neighborhood development are expected.

PAVING/DRAINAGE- It is the major intent of the City of Tahoka to improve access for area residents within the neighborhood and into and out of their neighborhoods. Unpaved streets in the Target Areas create safety hazards and air pollution. The project will eliminate these problems. Minor grading and clearing will occur in regard to street improvements, but no long-term change in land characteristics will occur. Construction activities will produce certain amounts of very limited air and noise pollution over a short term. No major increases in traffic or auto exhaust pollution are

REHABILITATION- Numerous structures throughout the City currently do not meet code standards. Rehabilitation grants to homeowners will make a mechanism available to finance necessary improvements. Although construction will produce noise and dust, the construction period is expected to be short and the pollution effects in-

The original Environmental Assessment has been re-evaluated respecting the additional area by the above-named City of Tahoka which documents the environmental review of the project and more fully sets forth the reasons why such Statement is not required. The original Environmental Assessment is on file at the above address and is available for public examination and copying upon request in t he office of the City Secretary bewteen the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Public Comments on Finding

All interested agencies, groups and persons disagreeing with this decision are invited to submit written comments for consideration by the City of Tahoka, to the office of the undersigned. Such written comments should be received at City Hall on or before November 22, 1985. All such comments so received will be considered and the City of Tahoka, will not request the release of Federal funds or take any administrative action on the projects within the additional area prior to the date specified in the preceding sentence.

Release of Funds

The City of Tahoka will undertake the project described above in the additional area with Community Development funds from the Department of Housing and Urban Develoment under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974. The City of Tahoka is certifying to HUD that the City of Tahoka and James A. Solomon in his official capacity as Mayor consent to accept the jurisdiction of the Federal courts if an action is brought to enforce responsibilities in relation to environmental assessments, decision making and action; and that these responsibilities have been satisfied. The legal effect of the certification is that upon its approval the City of Tahoka may use the Community Development Block Grant funds and HUD will have satisfied its responsibilities under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969.

Objections to State Release of Funds

Department of Housing & Urban Development will acept an objection to its approval only if it is on one of the following basis: (a) that the certification was not in fact executed by the certifying officer or other officer of applicant approved by HUD; or (b) that applicant's environmental review record for the project indicates omission of a required decision finding or step applicable to the project in the environmental review process. Objections must be prepared and submitted in accordance with the required procedure (24 CFR Part 58.75) and may be addressed to Community Development Block Grant Program; Department of Housing & Urban Development, 221 West Lancaster Avenue, 10th Floor, P.O. Box 2905, Ft. Worth, Texas 76fil3.

Objections to the release of funds on basis other than those stated above will not be considered by HUD. No objection received after December 13, 1985, will be considered by HUD. The Chief Executive Officer of the City of Tahoka is James A. Solomon,

CREDIT REPORT RIGHTS--A poor credit report can make it difficult for your to buy a house or car, or get certain jobs. Yet, until recently consumers had little protection against credit reports containing erroneous, incomplete or dated information. "The Federal Trade Commission's Fair Credit Reporting Act now gives consumers some rights that can help them clear a poor credit report," says Nancy Granovsky, family economics specialist. For example, if you have been denied credit or employment because of information in a credit report, you have the right to be told the name and address of the reporting agency, she explains. Then that agency must tell you the nature, content, and source of all the information in your credit file, except medical information. "Most importantly, you can challenge incorrect, unverified or incomplete informations in your files, and it must be removed," says Granovsky. If the issue is not resolved, you may explain your side of the story in future reports.

ARE YOUR ELDER PARENTS EATING RIGHT? -- Since our parents teach us to eat our vegetables when we're children, it's difficult to imagine that they may not be eating right in their later years. Yet research shows that older people in all economic groups in this country often don't get enough calories, protein, vitamin C and calcium, says Dr. Alice Hunt, a nutritionist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service. "The need for nutrients does not change with age, but a decreased sense of taste and less activity can result in a loss of appetite and lead to a less than adequate nutritional intake," she says. Adult children should be concerned about older parents' eating habits because a prolonged poor diet can affect them psychologically and reduce their ability to fight disease, advises Hunt.

New Years Day.

Devotional

By Rev. Hazel House

In verses 10 and 11 the lesson for us is that a person's way of fulfilling a small task is the best proof of his or her fitness or unfitness to be entrusted with a bigger task - and that is clearly true of earthly things. But Jesus extends the principle to eternity, saying, "Upon earth you are in charge of things which are not really yours. You cannot take them with you when you die, for they are only lent to you." You are only a steward over them, for they cannot? in the nature of things, be permanently yours. But in heaven you will get what is really and eternally yours. And what you get in heaven depends on how good a steward you are, how you used the things of earth - the things you are stewards over now.

Then Jesus tells us the truth, to help us and to warn us now. He said that no slave can serve two masters, for he or she belongs to their master.

In our day a workman can do one job in his or her working time, and another in their spare time. But a servant, "slave", had no spare time, for every moment of his day, and every ounce of energy of that slave belonged to his master.

So what the Lord is saying is that serving Him cannot be a part-time job. Once a person chooses to follow and to serve Jesus as Lord, that person belongs to God. Everything done by the servant is for the glory of God. We either belong to Him totally - all we do, all that we are, and all we say is in His presence with

We are either altogether His, or we are not His, for you "cannot serve God and Mammon.

Does Jesus walk with you, talk with you? He loves us and wants us just like we are, and He will make us more like Jesus each day, if we will let Him. If we love, trust, and obey His loving words. All this is to tell us, that rich or poor in things, God loves and call us us to "come" follow Him each day and on into the eternal kingdom. Are you managing what is entrusted to you?

This Gospel speaks to all of us, and it speaks directly to that isolated person within the heart of every one of us: God cares, God is concerned about us. Although we can and we may shut ourselves off from God, God will never leave us alone. He wants us. He tells us how to follow Him in His word.

Do you love Him? We show Him and others that we love Him by being obedient to His word, to not forget to gather together in worship of Him, to be a part of the church Yellowship. A Christian cannot be a Christian by themselves. Let God be God in your life. A Christian is one who gives cheerfully, gladly to the cause of Christ, and we also love and care about each other.

How is your stewardship - your answer to His call?

A strong Mustang defense holding the O'Donnell Eagles to only 49 total yards and four first downs gave Wilson a 17-0 victory in a District 1-7A North Zone clash Friday night at Mustang Stadium.

The Mustangs can clinch a spot in the playoffs this Friday night at 7:30 with a win over Ropes and can come home with the zone crown with a Mustang win. They would play either Roscoe or Garden City in the playoffs and if O'Donnell beats Klondike. the Eagles would be the runnerup and would go against Forsan. Meadow could be in the playoffs if either Wilson or O'Donnell lose this Friday night.

Wilson junior Justin Bednarz, the Mustangs' star tailback, wasn't supposed to see much action, but he ended up accounting for two scores. Freshman fullback Ruben Garcia wasn't planning on even touching the ball, but he rushed for 97 yards.

The key was character and attitude," Wilson coach Gary Lewis said. "These kids never quit. Our offensive line just blew them off the ball, and we just shut them down on defense.

O'Donnell came into the game as the obvious favorite, undefeated at 2-0 in 7-1A action and 5-2 overall. Wilson, 5-1-1 overall prior to the game, was hampered by injuries to key players and was a game behind the Eagles at 1-0-1 in league

On paper, O'Donnell was a cinch to wrap up the zone championship Friday night, but football is played on grass instead of pulp, and Wilson is quite thankful for that.

IF YOU COULD GO BACK IN TIME to as recent as the early 1950's, scarcely thirty years ago, you'd discover that most of the drugs we take for granted today didn't exist then. Doctors, in the 1950's were severely limited-compared to today-in their choice of medicines for treating their patients. During the past three decades, we have all become the beneficiaries of what can only be described as a

"pharmaceutical revolution." Our illnesses can presently be treated with hundreds of new and effective medical compounds that have come into being in recent years. This, then, is an exciting time to be alive. And we, as pharmacists in this community, are pleased that we can play a part in this age of AMMONIATING HAY BOOSTS QUALITY--Any hay that might be of poor quality this year can be improved by treating bales with anhydrous ammonia, notes a forage specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. This involved covering hay bales with black pastic and injecting anhydrous ammonia. Hay ammoniation increases crude protein, digestibility and animal intake, all of which lead to increased animal performance. In feeding studies, steers fed ammoniated hay gained one-half pound more per day than those on the same type of hay but untreated. Treated hay should remain covered for at least three weeks before feeding.
