Economic Development Ideas Offered By Speaker

Tahoka business operators and citizens interested in seeing the city grow instead of diminish will have to do the work of trying to attract industry themselves, those attending the quarterly meeting of Tahoka Chamber of Commerce were told Tuesday.

Cheryl Pink, business development coordinator for West Texas with the Texas Economic Development Commission, was principal speaker at the noon luncheon served by Tahoka Chamberettes in the First Methodist Church of Tahoka.

She told about the work of the Economic Development Commission and said, "My job is to bring you the services which will help you in economic development...We help find sites and provide data on possible locations for industrial prospects."

Observing that all of West Texas is having economic problems because of the situation in agriculture and in the oil and gas industry, Mrs. Pink said that "anytime an area depends upon just one kind of economic base, the area is in trouble when that base is threatened."

On a more positive note, she said, "You can do things if you try...You are only as limited as the time and effort you put into your community."

She also suggested that communities such as Tahoka not only need to try to attract new businesses, but also need to help any existing business expand, if that help is needed. She later commented that most new jobs in any community are the result of expansion by existing businesses, rather than new ones starting up.

Following the meeting, attended by about 50 persons, Mrs. Pink met with several community leaders for an expanded discussion of what can be done to help the city to grow.

WOODWORK

BY DALTON

NO DOUBT about it--if I lived in a large city I would adjust to driving in heavy traffic every day without having to wait three more days for the nervous rigors to die down. But since I don't, driving a vehicle in a big city is no fun for me or any of us who enjoy a more placid life in the smaller, safer and mostly better towns.

I have survived the Los Angeles freeway, the nation's capital city, and the Boston metropolitan area (although I got called an unprintable name there). These all are experiences best recalled only under hypnosis. More recently I drove, or tried to, in Dallas and San Antonio.

It's bad enough to try to get from one place to another, not knowing exactly where you need to turn off or change lanes. But what makes it worse is that the whole world is under construction and even if you know which exit to take, it is closed off. Besides that, every one-way street goes the wrong way.

Driving in these cities (and in Lubbock, even) makes me thankful I live in a town small enough to walk to work if your car breaks down; where the only real danger in traffic is forgetting to watch out for those three or four drivers in town that everybody knows can't drive.

If I had to drive in those larger places, I soon would be just like the rest of them: a raving, slobbering maniac behind the wheel, totally paranoid and convinced that every other driver is out to get me. I would kick the dog when I got home, curse city hall and snarl at my neighbors (on the phone, probably, since they are all younger and bigger than I am, and since even insanity sometimes is tempered by good judgement).

I'll bet a person who lives and drives to work and to other places in Lubbock, even, spends a whole month of every year just driving around, and another two weeks waiting for lights to change.

THIS IS written before the NBC showing Monday night of "Early Frost," and maybe it's not good to criticize something you haven't seen, but I'm going to do it anyway. I certainly don't intend to watch it, because I can't think of anything less inspiring than watching a show which implies approval of homosexual behavior. The show is about AIDS.

I do feel a tremendous sympathy for those heterosexuals who have caught the homo disease in some way, but these are few. But if the show is attempting to throw rocks at the medical people who refuse to treat AIDS victims and the funeral homes who refuse to handle their bodies, let me say that I don't blame them a bit. I certainly would want no contact of any kind with any victim of AIDS.

On a related topic, I think it is sickening how network television has been so eager to produce shows condoning and supporting the so-called "gays" and their lifestyles. I would use that other word, but it got Louie Welch in a bunch of trouble.

Burglaries Reported; Grand Jury Indicts Six

Burglaries of two homes in Lynn County were reported during the last week, but a suspect in one of the burglaries was arrested and charged after the license number of a vehicle seen in the vicinity was given to Lynn County Sheriff's Dept.

A Wilson woman reported the break-in at the home of Tommy Maeker, Rt. 1, Wilson, and advised that a black male suspect was seen driving toward Lubbock on FM 2192. Arrested later in Lubbock and charged with burglary was Clarence Earl Willard of Lubbock, who was indicted on the charge Monday by a 106th District grand jury, with bond set at $75,000. Willard was arrested about three hours after the burglary, and items stolen were not recovered.

Items valued at a total of $3347 were reported missing from the home of Jimmy Kieth, 3 1/2 miles northwest of New Home, after a mid-afternoon break-in. Most expensive item listed was a Konica 35 mm camera and lenses, valued at $1500. Among other things stolen were a VCR, microwave, clothing, an electric typewriter and some silver coins. Crime

Line, 998-5145, has posted a $300 reward in the case.

Willie Shambeck of Lubbock reported about 200 gallons of diesel had been stolen from a tank on the Dale Zant farm 10 miles north of Tahoka last Friday.

Police were called to Allsup's in Tahoka Saturday night where a young woman reported she had been struck by a man. The man was jailed on a charge of assault.

Tahoka police were called to Lynn County Hospital on Saturday at 10 p.m. by nurses on duty reporting that someone was inside the business office in the medical records department. Police found that two ceiling panels were missing in the business office where the subject had apparently removed them to climb into the medical records department. Police found a Tahoka woman hiding under a desk and she was then arrested and charged for burglary of a building and taken to Lynn County Sheriff's Office where she was booked and jailed. Charged with burglary was Sandra Thompson, who was indicted by a district grand jury Monday.

Also indicted by the grand jury Monday, in addition to the Thompson woman and Willard, were the following:

Jewell David Townsend of Lubbock, two counts of burglary, involving the homes of Curtis Bruedigam and Alvin Buxkemper near Wilson. A second suspect, Carlton Ray Edmerson, 33, of Lubbock, pleaded guilty last week, waiving grand jury action.

Bryan Lowell Harston, 23, of Tahoka, charged with indecency with a child, an incident allegedly involving a 16-year-old Lubbock girl on Sept. 27 in Tahoka.

James Ray Evans, 30, of Lubbock, one count of burglary of a habitation and one count of sexual assault. Both counts were related to an incident reported by a young woman living west of New Home on Oct. 8.

Edward Gutierrez, 26, of Gail, sexual assault, involving a mentally retarded young woman at O'Donnell on Oct. 5.

In jail during the week were one person each for assault, driving while intoxicated and unlawfully carrying a weapon, burglary of a building and DWI.

Turkey Walk Set Saturday

Area walkers will participate in the Turkeywalk in Tahoka Saturday, Nov. 16, with participants hoping to raise funds benefiting the American Heart Assn.

Event participants walk as many miles as they choose. Prior to the event, they recruit sponsors who make pledges based on number of miles the participant completes. After the event the participants collect the pledges to turn in to a local American Heart Assn. representative.

"The Lynn County division of the American Heart Assn. urges everyone to take part," said chairperson Johnette Havens. Anyone wanting to take part or make a pledge in support of a Turkeywalk participant may call 998-4511 or 998-4575 or come to the Mini Park Saturday from 10 a.m. to noon.

County Project Action Delayed

Lynn County commissioners Monday discussed with an architect the plans for renovation of the courthouse to comply with laws regarding easy access for the handicapped, but took no action since one commissioner could not be present.

"We want everyone here when we act on this matter," said County Judge J.F. Brandon, who explained that Commissioner Boyd Barnes had to be out of state attending the funeral of his father.

Bills were paid, and the group authorized payment of dues for 1986 to the Texas Assn. of Counties, totaling $685.

IT'S A SPACE SHIP--Thalia Burks of Tahoka is standing in the back of a pickup watching the launch of a space shot at Cape Canaveral, Fla. Oct. 30. Here the trail indicates the ship has just separated from its booster rockets.

Tahoka Couple Attends Reunion Of WW II Crew

A Tahoka couple who went to Florida for a reunion of his shipmates on a World War II vessel also took the opportunity to view the launching of a space shot from Cape Canaveral, and to look at some of the treasure recently brought up by famed diver Mel Fisher.

On Nov. 1-2, Melvin and Thalia Burks attended the reunion of the crew of the USS Sumter at Buena Vista, Fla.

This was the first reunion of the ship crew, Burks said. The attack transport, which carried 31 landing boats and 1,500 troops, was commissioned in 1943 and decommissioned in February 1946.

"I went aboard in Norfolk, Va. in 1943 as a landing boat officer and later I was 1st Division deck officer and gunnery officer," Burks said. The ship made eight invasions in the South Pacific, starting in January, 1944, in the Marshall Islands and winding up at Okinawa on April 1, 1945. It also took two loads of occupation troops to Japan.

"We had 31 shipmates for the reunion, which was organized by me and Pete Roche of Stuart, Fla.," said Burks. "Since we never had attempted a reunion, it was difficult to find people, but we hope to have more at our next one in New Orleans in 1987."

The Burks visited the Ernest Hemingway home and toured the Mel Fisher Spanish ship treasure museum in Key West, and saw the Oct. 30 space shot at Cape Canaveral.

Burks said the youngest crew member at the reunion is now 58, and was only 18 at the end of the war. The oldest is 82. "He was an old man of 40 when I went aboard in 1943," said Burks.

Burks was a lieutenant when he left the service in 1945. He stayed in the reserve for a number of years, reaching the rank of lieutenant commander.

Bulldogs End Year With Loss To Morton

A 40-6 defeat at the hands of the Morton Indians closed out a 1-9 season for the Tahoka Bulldogs last Friday. Ironically, the only win for the Bulldogs was in the second game of the season, when they walloped Hale Center 45-12, and Hale Center wound up going into the playoffs from its district.

At Morton last week, the home team scored on a 26-yard pass play and a 44-yard run in the first quarter. Another score with 19 seconds left in the half made it 20-0 at halftime.

In the third, Morton scored twice more to make it 33-0 going into the final quarter, and then the Indians added another touchdown in the fourth to go up by 40 points.

Tahoka finally put together a drive in the final period which led to a touchdown. The Bulldogs started the drive on their own 18, and when the drive apparently bogged down around midfield, elected to punt. But Morton had 12 men on the field, and the penalty gave Tahoka a first down. The drive was mostly on running, and featured runs of 15 and 19 yards by Johnny Morin and a 12-yard gain by Paul Couch. Morin scored the touchdown on a 2-yard run, but a try for two points after the TD failed, leaving the score at 40-6. Morin gained 69 yards in 24 carries and Couch gained 28 in 9 efforts.

On defense, coaches singled out Doug Lawson, and also said Jim Patterson, filling in as defensive back, did good work.

FARM-CITY WEEK IS NOV. 22-28—The week of Nov. 22-28 is Farm-City Week and focuses on the teamwork of farm and city people as partners in growing, processing, marketing and consuming food and fiber. In Texas, movement of food and fiber from the farm or ranch to the supermarket and family table provides jobs and income for about a fourth of the working force, notes an economist. One out of every 35 Texans is a farmer or rancher, and about 25 percent of the state's retail trade business is directly associated with agricultural production and marketing.

Their patients took from 2 to 4 tablets, three times a day. Discuss this treatment with your doctor.

OUT OF THE WOODS

By Juanell (Wood) Jones

WE'VE BEEN gathering pecans at our house during the past week when we get home from work, and I think we just might be the neighborhood entertainment.

Let me explain how the family "assembly line" works: First, I pick up as many pecans as I can carry, then dump them on the ground next to my husband, who is sitting beside and watching over our 10-month-old girl. Now, he is supposed to take the hulls off and put the pecans in a bucket that our 3-year-old son carries. Theoretically this should be a great system, right?

Well, not quite ... our girl keeps trying to eat the discarded hulls, so my husband must stay near her to keep her from swallowing things she shouldn't, but as he gets the hulled pecans ready for the bucket, our boy runs around and around with it, sure that this must be some new kind of game. Lacking a bucket for the pecans, my husband proceeds to shell them and eat them on the spot, then when the bucket comes within range he deposits those pecans that haven't yet been eaten.

At this rate, we may harvest enough pecans by Christmas to make one pecan pie.

Remember when you were a child and learned the bedtime prayer that starts, "Now I lay me down to sleep..." I thought that was such a neat prayer when I was a kid (I also thought my daddy made it up — he never told me he didn't). Anyway, as conscientious parents, we have passed this time-proven prayer along to our son, who at 3 years old does pretty well with the words except for the last part that goes, "I pray the Lord my soul to take." I guess that verse doesn't make any sense to him, because he always says, "I pray the Lord my soul get cake." Oh well, to each his own.

I have a friend who told me when she was a child at a family picnic, she solemnly recited the Pledge of Allegiance when they asked

Mustangs Win District With Victory Over Ropes

The Wilson Mustangs were crowned District 7-1A North Zone champions Friday night as they fought off Ropes with a 19-14 win. It was a see-saw game as Ropes scored with 6:59 left in the first quarter on a 51-yard run by Mitch Satterwhite and the PAT no good made it 6-0 Ropes. Wilson took the lead with 3:19 left in the first quarter as Rubin Garcia ran 3 yards for a TD and Justin Bednarz good PAT kick made it 7-6 at the end of the first quarter.

With 11:57 left in the second period Garcia scored on a one-yard run for TD and extra point no good made it 13-6 at the end of the first half.

Ropes regained the lead with 9:27 left in the third quarter on a 92-yard pass from Satterwhite to Whitehead and a 2 point conversion run by Satterwhite gave Ropes a 14-13 lead.

Wilson showed some guts with 3:29 remaining in the final period as Bednarz ran for a 47-yard TD on fourth and one situation and the extra point blocked gave the Mustangs a 19-14 win and a right to go to bi-district. The Mustangs will play Roscoe in Wilson Friday night at 7:30 p.m. Roscoe is the runnerup for District 7-1A South Zone to Forsan.

her to give grace at the table. She said at the time she didn't understand all the giggles during that solemn moment, because she thought she did real well.

Garcia had 35 carries for 173 yards and two TDs, Bednarz had eight carries for 89 yards and one TD and Mark Burtch ws 3-9 passing for 47 yards. Bednarz also caught two passes for 34 yards and Richard Nolte caught one pass for 13 yards for Wilson. Bednarz led the Mustangs with 28 tackles followed by Craig Wuensche and Johnny Guzman with 15 tackles each.

Devotional

By Rev. Hazel House

SCRIPTURE:

St. Luke 12:49-59; 13:1-5
"I came to send fire upon the earth," Jesus said. And since "fire" was almost always, to the Jews, a symbol of judgement, they firmly believed God would judge the nations by one standard, and then by another, for they thought that the very fact that they were Jews would be enough to absolve them from the judgement of God. So how about us?...

In these five verses from Luke 13, we have references to some great disaster when 18 Galileans were killed and Pontius Pilate mingled their blood with their sacrifices. Now we know very little about what kind of disaster that was, but it is in the Bible to tell us something.

When Jesus asked the Jews if they supposed these 18 Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things? And then He continued with a very profound statement to all the Galileans, and to us today: for Jesus said, "I tell you, no; but except you repent, you shall all likewise perish."

And what did He mean? Just what He said, for all mankind to hear. Jesus knew that if the Jewish nation kept on seeking an earthly kingdom and rejecting the kingdom of God, the could only come to one end. This is not to say that individual suffering and sin are connected—far from it. But the nation which rejects the only right way (following Jesus) and chooses the wrong, this nation will in the end suffer for it. The individual in that situation may object to the course that nation was taking, and warn them, yet when the consequence of that national course comes, the individual person cannot escape suffering in it. But, remember, Christians, the Lord God our Father knows us, and even in terrible situations, He cares for us and is with us in our suffering.

So it is not always right to attribute human suffering to sin; for all of us know too well how the innocent and the bad both suffer in this world. But it is always safe to say that the nation who rebels against God is on the way to disaster in the end. So a person is not an isolated unit, and innocent persons, as you know, often are caught in a situation which is not of their making—so Christians watch and pray!

Jesus was mainly telling the Jews and those listening of His second coming, telling how He, who had no sins, was to pass through some grim and terrible experience. He said, "I have a baptism to be baptized with..." And He said that life is full of tension, until He would pass through it and then come through it triumphantly! The cross was ever before His eyes, for He knew why He was sent by the Father, and He knew that He would endure the pain and the shame of the cross willingly in order to save us all from sin and death.

Jesus came, not like the avenging king as the Jews thought He would be, and not with armies and flying banners, but to give His life a ransom for many—for all who will believe!

"There was a man of Bethlehem whose wealth was tears and sorrows, His men-at-arms were little lambs, His trumpeters were sparrows, His castle as a wooden cross on which He hung so high;

His helmet was a crown of thorns whose crest did touch the sky..."

(Copied from Wm. Barclay)
Jesus was saying that His coming would inevitably mean divisions and it did. That was one of the great reasons why the Romans hated Christianity so much, because it tore families apart, they said. For over and over again persons had to decide whether they would stay with their families at their home or go with Jesus and follow Him as what He claimed to be, the Christ, the Savior of the world who had power to give never-ending life, as He said; to follow Him as "the way, the truth and the life."

The heart the very essence of Christianity is that loyalty to Christ has to be first, and above all other, even dear, loyalties on this earth. A Christian must be prepared to count all things but loss for the excellence of Jesus Christ!

Because He came and gave up His life for you and me; He loves us and He says to us each day, "Come, follow me." Do you love Jesus? Then can we praise Him enough and be thankful?

WHAT YOU SEED IS WHAT YOU GET!

WE GET BETTER COTTON,
YOU GET A BETTER PRICE.

YOU PLANT You want a good cotton variety that sticks well in the boll, isn't easily wiped out by disease and fruits high off the ground. And when it comes time for stripping, you want a cotton that grades well, has good staple length and uniformity, and provides good turnout at the gin. Certified and Generation One Deltapine SR-383, both from Terra Seed Company, are just what you're looking for in stripper cotton. Generation One, from Terra Seed, is one year away from certified, yet has all the same properties of the SR-383 parent plant. For the past 3 years, farmers who planted our Deltapine SR-383, and sold it through an astute marketing program, have realized premiums of up to $25 per bale, based on premium micronaire and strength. And for those of you who want a more economical seed, new Generation One helps take the hassle out of catching your own seed for replanting next season. No longer do you have to go through all the headaches of catching and delinting your seed when Terra Seed's Generation One is already done for you, and will be available at select seed prices in 1986.

YOU GET. When you plant Certified or Generation One Deltapine SR-383 from Terra Seed, you get the combination of superior fiber properties and high yield potential! You get an erect, compact plant with short-fruited branches and large to very large boll size, excellent tolerance to verticillium wilt and good tolerance to the fusarium wilt-rootknot nematode complex. Five year records show an average strength of 28 grams/tex, average staple of 33, average uniformity of 81.8, and premium micronaire. Plus you get a cotton with built-in marketing advantages that has consistently sold well above the loan.

TERRA SEED COMPANY
FOR PLANTING SEED,
CALL YOUR TERRA SEED DEALER.

WE WANT. Texas Cotton Marketing Corporation (TCMC) wants to buy your Deltapine SR-383 lint cotton produced from Certified and Generation One cottonseed. TCMC has provided textile mills the Texas Tech Research Center spinning results for several years in order to generate a premium market for SR-383. By sending HVI information and supplying sample loads for mill trials, mill buyers have discovered SR-383's benefits of high strength, high uniformity, and good mic. We need your SR-383 lint to supply the market TCMC has helped to develop. TCMC encourages you to block gin your SR-383 production thus assuring pure SR-383 lint cotton. You should contact your ginner concerning harvest and ginning arrangements needed for the 1985 crop. If you planted SR-383 this year, call your ginner or Texas Cotton Marketing Corporation for more information on premium markets for your 1985 production.

WE GET. When we buy your blocked Certified or Generation One SR-383 cotton, we get one of the finest stripper cotton fibers on the market today. We also get pure SR-383 which is of more value in our market, so in turn we are able to offer you the best price possible.

WE ALL WIN! You'll win with the high yield and storm resistant qualities of SR-383, plus you get the added benefit of having established markets through Texas Cotton Marketing Corporation. Pure and simple, premium markets demand premium quality.

Cotton Today

Export Credit Urged For Egypt: Cotton organization leaders have sent a joint letter to USDA under Secretary Daniel Amstutz urging support of three-year credit terms for $85 million in GSM-102 credit now being considered for Egypt's purchase of U.S. cotton.

Joining in the letter were National Council President Samuel B. Hollis, AMCOT Board Chairman G.L. Seitz, and American Cotton Shippers Association President Eduardo C. Esteve. They state that three-year credit terms would allow the U.S. to become the dominant cotton supplier to Egypt in 1985-86 and build a foundation for holding that position in the future.

Egypt's declining cotton production and increased mill consumption have created an immediate import need for 200,000 to 300,000 bales, with the possibility of a steady increase in the future.

Expansion Asked For Arizona Eradication: National Cotton Council President Samuel B. Hollis has sent a letter to Assistant Agriculture Secretary Ray Lett urging APHIS to develop a plan by mid-December for expanding the present boll weevil eradication program in Arizona to all affected areas.

Hollis explained that the weevil in recent months has emerged as a serious threat to cotton in the central part of the state. This area was not included in the original eradication effort begun earlier this year in western Arizona, the southern desert valleys of California, and northwestern Mexico.

NCC Objects to EPA Policy: The National Cotton Council has registered a strong objection to the Environmental Protection Agency's proposal to prohibit the use of cottonseed oil and other vegetable oils in spray tank mixes of low volume and ultra-low volume application of pesticides.

Council President Samuel B. Hollis said the policy would have an adverse economic impact on U.S. agriculture. He urged EPA to have a detailed cost-benefit study and environmental impact assessment done by an outside agency before proceeding with the policy.

A Council analysis shows that cottonseed oil and other vegetable oils have been used with millions of spray-acre pesticide applications on cotton during the last five years with no adverse effects on humans or the environment.

Strong Effort Urged Against Pink Bollworm: The National Cotton Council's Pink Bollworm Action Committee this week recommended strong actions aimed at suppression and elimination of both the pink bollworm and the boll weevil. The committee called for a multi-discipline effort to develop areawide programs to manage and eliminate the pink bollworm.

Frank Meyers, APHIS regional director, told the group USDA will take the lead role in the operational program only when it has proved workable. Regarding required expansion of the boll weevil eradication program to additional infested acreage in Arizona, he said the cotton industry must obtain a federal share of the funding and also make a commitment for its share if USDA is to be involved. The committee also recommended that the Council explore ways to integrate its pink bollworm and boll weevil committees for maximum efficiency in finding solutions to control and eradication of the pests.

Foreign Textile Executives Offer Opinions: American Cotton Shippers Association officials expressed appreciation for a "frank exchange of views" after hearing textile representatives of 10 Far East countries give reports at a seminar in Memphis.

The stop was part of a Cotton Council International orientation tour which began Oct. 6 in Washington and winds up Oct. 19 in California.

Most of the comments at the seminar centered on the strong U.S. dollar, non-competitive world prices of U.S. cotton, and occasional poor quality of U.S. cotton shipments to the Far East. All members of the Far East contingent, however, expressed confidence that any problems with U.S. cotton industry eventually will be solved because of mutual interests of the U.S. and the Far East.

Countries represented on the CCI tour are: Korea, Japan, Indonesia, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Thailand, Philippines, Malaysia, Bangladesh, and Singapore. The orientation is sponsored by CCI and USDA's Foreign Agricultural Service and is partially funded by a grant to the Cotton Foundation from ICI Americas, Inc.

U.S. Cotton Producers View Russian Crop: A special U.S. team just back from a tour of Russia's cotton production area reports that an "average" crop is in the making there.

The team included Sykes Martin, Producer Steering Committee chairman, from Courtland, Ala.; Jake Stephens, Cotton Incorporated board chairman, from Litchfield Park, Ariz.; and two USDA officials.

They report indications of the 1985 USSR crop totaling 12.5 million 480-lb. bales, up from last year's 11.7 million but below 1980's record 13.5 million. The team said weather in October and November will be critical in determining the quantity and quality of the USSR crop since harvest was only 15 to 20 percent complete by the end of September. The group, which also met with Soviet minister of agriculture, said Russia's goals are to develop high yielding, high quality short-season varieties and to increase the efficiency of machine harvesting.

Farm Credit System To Be Studied: The National Cotton Council Credit Task Force Chairman Lloyd Cline will head a cotton industry group at a meeting next week in Washington with Under Secretary Frank Naylor Jr., and Credit Subcommittee Chairman Ed Jones (D-Tenn.) House and Senate committees will begin hearings this week to review plans for a possible bailout of the troubled Farm Credit System.

Drying Conditions Improve, Harvest Expands In Area

Clear days allowed drying conditions to improve across the Texas Plains this week. Harvesting expanded. Modules appeared where harvesting exceeded ginning capacity. Several gins operated 12 hour days and a few went on 24 hour days, according to Mack Bennett, Area Director for USDA's Marketing Services Office at Lubbock.

USDA's Lubbock office classed 32,400 samples during the week ended Thursday, Nov. 7. This brought the season's total to 40,000 and compares with 41,000 classed by the same date last year. The accumulated backlog of unclassified samples increased to 17,500 by Wednesday and made a second shift necessary. The second shift started Thursday, Bennett continued.

The week's predominant grades were grade 52 at 48 percent followed by grade 42 with 38 percent. About 27 percent was reduced one grade because of bark. Predominant staples were staple 31 at 31 percent, staple 32 was 28 percent and staple 33 accounted for 19 percent. The average was 32.0 thirty-seconds of an inch. (Last year's average by the same date was 33.)

Micronaire 35-49 amounted to 77 percent, 33-34 was 12 percent and 30-32 accounted for 9 percent. The average was 37. (Last year's average was 33.)

HVI breaking strength averaged 24.8 grams per tex at Lubbock during the week ended Thursday. This compares with 25.2 last year during the corresponding week.

Fiber length uniformity averaged 78.5 compared with 78.3 a year earlier.

Growers sold some 1984 crop Commodity Credit loan equities at $5 to $10 per bale, mostly $5. Not enough new crop had traded to establish a market.

Gins paid growers $46 to $80 per ton for cottonseed, mostly $55 to $56. The higher prices were paid by cattle feeders. Most cotton traded across the cotton belt last week was loan ineligible at prices 100 to 300 points below loan rate. Most eligible bales entered Commodity Credits' loan program.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,
 A little over two weeks ago, the Tahoka High School Band went to the U.I.L. Marching Contest at Tech where they received a Second Division rating. This is a good rating and one of which they, as well as Tahoka, can be proud, especially when the fact is considered that over 80 percent of the band is made up of 8th and 9th graders. Besides that, less than 10 days before contest, 11 members (a sixth of the band) were declared ineligible due to academics.

The band has improved considerably from the start of school and it is due to the hard work of the students and the hard work and leadership of director Russell Fuller. We as a community need to express our appreciation, support and pride to the band and Mr. Fuller. With their continued hard work and Mr. Fuller's leadership, the future looks bright with First Divisions and Sweepstakes.

Sincerely,
 Carroll Rhodes
 P.S. As far as the half times at football games, the Battlin' Blue Band of Bulldog Land has had a winning season.

A pencil equipped with an eraser, the first of its kind, was patented by Hyman L. Lipman of Philadelphia in 1858.

All American Buckle Up Set Nov. 24-30

The first national All American Buckle-Up is set for Nov. 24-30, announced Mel Pope, District Engineer of the Lubbock District of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

Using the theme, "Start a Habit for Life," this national effort will coincide with the Thanksgiving holiday season, a time when many people are on the roads as they head toward family celebrations. Traditionally these are the celebrations of health, happiness and prosperity.

"One of the best ways to ensure the success of Thanksgiving celebrations is the use of safety belts," Pope said. "Unfortunately, during the 1984 Thanksgiving holiday season, 603 people in the United States lost their lives in traffic accidents. However, if everyone in the country were to accept the challenge offered by this year's All-American Buckle-Up, we could save hundreds of holiday gatherings from being held in hospitals."

To win a bet for $40, Thomas Garson of Chicago ate 22 hamburgers and two quarts of ice cream in 25 minutes back in 1938.

I recommended the Heat Pump

... and this is the kind of thanks I get

Air conditioning and heating contractors are making a lot of friends by recommending a heat pump. People who take their advice appreciate the heat pumps economy, comfort, and cleanliness. And, considering the heat pumps long life and low maintenance, the contractors and the customer's friendship will be a lasting one.

Contact your heating and air conditioning dealer or call 741-7200 in Lubbock for a FREE HEAT PUMP BUYER'S GUIDE

A few "quit tips"

Hide all ashtrays, matches, etc.
 Lay in a supply of sugarless gum, carrot sticks, etc.
 Drink lots of liquids, but pass up coffee & alcohol.
 Tell everyone you're quitting for the day.
 When the urge to smoke hits, take a deep breath, hold it for 10 seconds, & release it slowly.
 Exercise to relieve the tension. Try the "buddy system," and ask a friend to quit too.

TAKE A DAY OFF...

... from smoking. Join the Great American Smokeout on Thursday, November 21. Millions of Americans across the country will make a fresh start and try not to smoke for 24 hours. How about you? Or, if you don't smoke, adopt a smoker for the day and promise to help that friend get through the 24 hours without a cigarette!

Dear Friend In Christ:
Perhaps you sang a lovely song or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent some beautiful flowers,
If so, we saw them there.
Perhaps you sent or spoke some kind words,
As only a friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all,
You just thought of us that day.
Perhaps you prepared some tasty food,
Or maybe breathed a prayer,
Perhaps you called to offer help—All evidence that you care.
