Ten Persons Indicted By Grand Jury Here

Ten persons were named in indictments by a district grand jury here last week. Two of those pleaded guilty before Judge George Hansard and were assessed penalties. Jimmy Austin, Richard Lee Johnson and James Cooks, all of Lubbock, were indicted in connection with house burglaries north of Wilson. Austin pleaded guilty and was given a 10-year prison term, probated, plus a $2500 fine.

Samuel Dale Nava of Wilson and Roland Ybarra of Lubbock were indicted on charges of possession of marijuana and Ybarra pleaded guilty and was sentenced to five years in prison. Kerry Smith of O'Donnell was indicted on a charge of aggravated assault.

Angel Ortiz and Roy Rogers Rodriguez, both of Lubbock, were indicted on charges of burglary of a habitation.

Olga Escamilla Rodriguez of O'Donnell was indicted on a charge of criminal mischief.

Early Monday a barn owned Danny Lockaby 5.5 miles south of Tahoka was burglarized. Nothing was reported missing. Crime Line, 998-5145, has offered a $200 reward in the case.

In jail during the week were one person each for public intoxication, traffic warrant and driving while intoxicated.

Tahoka police arrested a Pontiac, Michigan man for public intoxication and he was placed in jail at the Lynn County Sheriff's Office.

Three tickets were given for minors in possession of alcoholic beverages.

Rains Keep On; Farmers Anxious To Plant Cotton

Lynn County's mini-monsoon season continued through Monday and there were still some forecasts of rain chances in the area through midweek, but the sun broke through starting Tuesday, and farmers were eager to get into the fields and plant as soon as it was dry enough.

Heaviest totals of rainfall were reported in the eastern part of Lynn County over the period of several days of rains. Some places east of Tahoka reportedly had 8 or 9 inches over the last week or 10 days. Totals were less than that north and west of Tahoka, but everybody reportedly received enough rain to plant on. However, farmers were anxious

City Okays Paving At New Cemetery

Tahoka City Council Monday approved the low bid of $22,325 to get paving completed in the first section of the new cemetery which may be open for use by the first of next year.

Of four companies submitting bids on the paving, the bid of Strong Paving Co. of Lubbock was accepted. The bids were opened by consulting engineer A.C. Bowden, on hand to make sure all requirements were met. The paving, without curb and gutter, is to be finished around Aug. 1, and will be paid for by donated funds already received by the city for the cemetery project.

With all council members present, the group also approved several housing rehabilitation projects under the Community Development Block Program, approved an ordinance exempting the city from a new vehicle storage facility act passed by the legislature, authorized a consulting firm to submit a new application for community development project funds for the city, and authorized City Administrator Carl Reynolds to seek bids on a new track loader to replace two older tractors now in service at the sanitary landfill.

The council will meet in special session June 16 to look at the bids.

In discussion of the landfill operations, Reynolds explained to a councilman who questioned the dumpground's closing on Sunday that state law now prohibits opening the dumpground on Sunday unless an exemption could be obtained. The dumpground presently is open from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Friday, and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturdays. It is closed on Sundays and holidays.

Police Chief Gary Morrison reported that the police department had handled the following cases during the month: four assault cases, six public intoxication, five traffic accidents, three minor in possession, two felony thefts, one possession of marijuana and several other single offenses.

to get it done because of the late date; cotton planted after June 1 sometimes doesn't reach maturity before the first freeze of the year.

Some farmers had planted on irrigated land and a few on dry land even before the rains, and some cotton is up, but most had not been planted by midweek.

WOODWORK

BY DALTON

YEARS AGO when we used to live in Indiana, we occasionally would see the Delta Queen going up and down the Ohio River, as we lived in a town right on the river. I always thought it would be nice to ride on the vessel, and a year or so ago, I filled out a coupon in a travel magazine and had them send me a brochure on trips they sell on the Delta Queen and the Mississippi Queen.

The other day I looked at it, with the vague notion of maybe doing it this year. I read about the different cabins, the things on board, where they stop and all that, and then I read that they expect you to dress up each evening for dinner. The brochure said "daytime dress is usually casual and evening attire is more formal. Men usually wear a coat and tie and women wear a dress, a dressy skirt or a pantsuit to dinner."

When I'm vacationing I don't want to put on any dumb tie or jacket, especially just to eat dinner. So I'm not going until I find some cruise that has a special "slob table" for people who like to wear jeans and T-shirts, or big loose jumpsuits so you can eat more and it not be so noticeable where you pooch out.

Instead of suits made by Jas. K. Wilson, I'm generally more comfortable in my jumpsuits made by A.E. Quest & Sons.

ALL WEEKLY newspapers that I know about, including this one, are printed by a process called "offset", which refers to a method of transferring the printed image from an aluminum plate to a cylinder which is covered with a rubberized blanket, which in turn transfers the image to the paper.

In other words the paper never touches the plate carrying the original image; the pictures and words are "offset" from the original source to the final printed page.

That's confusing, so I won't talk about it any more, but we will gladly show what it means if you are curious enough to come by our office and ask.

Up to about 1960, most small town newspapers were printed from type set on linotypes, with each line of type cast in hot metal and then put together to more or less make sense, and the surface was inked and the paper pressed against it to make the image, rather like a rubber stamp works.

In my desk drawer I have a makeup rule, a flat piece of steel two inches wide and about an inch and a half deep. This little tool was used for many things, but primarily to dig out pieces of metal type as the printer "made up" the pages. Some printers still use them, because some commercial printing still is done by that method. Anyway, these little makeup rules had a way of getting lost and never being found again.

When we had that newspaper mentioned earlier in this column in Newburgh, Indiana, we must have lost hundreds of makeup rules. I remember saying once that someday in the future when that building was torn down, a hidden room would be found filled with makeup rules, line gauges (a printer's measuring device about a foot long), and copy which people brought or mailed in to be published but which somehow vanished before they ever got into print.

Recently I visited that Indiana town and discovered that sure enough, the old building which housed our newspaper has been demolished and the basement under it (actually it was more of a dungeon, with rats and fallen beams and old metal things) has been filled up. Now the site is just level ground. I walked over it and wondered what they did with all the makeup rules and line gauges they must have found.

I couldn't find out, but I'll bet some de-construction worker has a bunch of those things at his home someplace, probably still wondering what they are.

MRS. BLAKE COX nee HEIDI LAURIE BRUEGEL

Heidi Bruegel-Blake Cox Exchange Wedding Vows May 24

Wedding vows were exchanged by Heidi Laurie Bruegel and Blake Cox in the First United Methodist Church in Lubbock Saturday morning, May 24, with Dr. Sam Nader of Lubbock and Dist. Judge Jack R. Miller of Dimmitt officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bruegel Jr. of Dimmitt. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby C. Cox of O'Donnell.

The wedding vows were recited before an altar flanked by standing candelabrum trees holding cathedral tapers and baskets of assorted white flowers and English ivy. The bridal aisle was marked with white and midnight blue satin wedding bows.

The bride, escorted by her father, and presented in marriage by her parents, wore a formal-length gown of white tissue taffeta enhanced by Belgium Allencro lace with a V-neckline that ended in a deep V in the back. The gown featured short puffed sleeves and bodice with dropped waist held in with taffeta bows attached with Allencro lace appliques. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from an antique tiara of lace, pearls, and tulle, belonging to the groom's mother. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias, stephanotis, white roses, orchids and cascading English ivy. The traditional something old was a six-pence, something new was the dress, something borrowed was her veil and something blue was her garter.

Amy Harren of Sinton was maid of honor. Katerina Bruegel of Dimmitt, Wendy Jo Bruegel of Corpus Christi, sisters of the bride, Carroll Cole of Fort Worth and Carol Snipes of Sherman were bridesmaids. They wore tea-length dresses of iridescent midnight blue taffeta featuring a V neckline with the front yoked waist accented with bows in the back. They wore strands of white ivory beads given by the bride and carried bouquets of white gardenias, stephanotis and English ivy.

The groom wore a traditional morning cutaway of dove gray with gray stripe trousers.

Brent Cox of O'Donnell, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsman were Robert Brown of Irving, Jim Winslow of Lafayette, Calif., Mark Taylor of Dallas, Brooks Sherman of Dallas. Ushers were Mark and Jon Bruegel of Dimmitt, brothers of the bride, Kern Lewis of Oklahoma City, Okla., and Mike Eady of Lubbock.

Candlelighters were Tori Baker of Dimmitt, cousin of the bride, and Gorey Gass of O'Donnell.

Guests were registered by Jamie Baker of Dimmitt, cousin of the bride, and Holli Calhoun of Lubbock, aunt of the groom. Following the ceremony the couple were honored with a reception at the Lubbock Club.

After a trip to Santa Fe and Taos, N.M. the couple will reside in Fort Worth.

A rehearsal dinner for the bridal party and their guests was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Cox at the County Line Restaurant in Lubbock.

School's Out, Vacations To Begin

School's out and families all over the State will be making trips on the Texas highway system. Major V.J. Cawthon, Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety Region V, 60 counties, said, "Long trips can make children restless. Be sure to bring along something to keep them occupied."

"All motorists should remember that state law requires all persons in the front seat of passenger cars to be buckled up at all times the vehicle is being operated upon a public highway," said Cawthon.

"Also, don't forget, that children under two years of age must be in an infant seat and children from two to four years of age must be buckled up no matter where the child is seated," he continued.

The leading cause of death of children under six years of age is automobile accidents!

Children will be out playing at all hours of the day and into the evening hours. Sometimes they forget where they are and run into the streets and highways while playing. The Texas motorist is asked to be especially alert for these situations, so these children can return to school next fall safe and healthy.

LACK OF COMMUNICATION ABOUT MONEY CAUSES FAMILY PROBLEMS--One of the major causes of family problems is failure to communicate about family finances. "Couples who didn't bother to discuss family finances when times were good find themselves at odds when the situation changes," says a family economics specialist. For example, a person may tolerate a free-spending spouse until one of them becomes unemployed. Then it's easy to blame the spouse for spending instead of saving and emotions can build until the problem affects their basic relationship.

A Visit With Your County Agent

By Stanley Young

Time To Treat Cattle For Grubs
Cattle grubs are internal parasites and their damage is largely unseen, yet they cause greater economic losses to the U.S. beef cattle industry than any other insect pest.

While grubs are usually found on the backs of infested animals during the winter months, that's not the time for control measures since the pests have already done their damage.

Grubs are the larvae or worm stage of heel flies, and adult heel flies are active over most of the state from March through May.

The time to control grubs is during the period of May through August when grubs are small and before infested animals suffer stress, weight loss and decreased feed efficiency.

Heel flies cannot sting, have no functional mouth parts and cause no pain to cattle. Yet, they frighten animals, making them difficult to manage.

Heel flies lay their eggs on an animal's hairs in the lower leg region, glued in position. Tiny larvae hatch in a few days, crawl down to the base of the hair and burrow into the animal's skin.

Then they begin a migratory course through the animal's body, congregating in the throat after a few months, and after six to eight months, appear in the grub stage in the animal's back.

If a producer has a history of grubs in his cattle herd, Young recommends treating each animal over three months of age with one application of an approved systemic insecticide or injectible treatment during the May through August period.

Systemic insecticides are absorbed directly through the animal's skin, circulate throughout the body, and kill grubs while they are small. Injectable treatments are circulated in the animal's body fluids to kill the invading pests.

These insecticides come in various forms, dips, sprays, pour-ons, injections and spot-on treatments. A listing of approved insecticides and methods for controlling cattle grubs is available at the County Extension office.

FmHA Announces Operation Assist For Farm Financing

The Farmers Home Administration office in Lynn County will begin immediately to participate in "Operation Assist", Curtis Barlow, County Supervisor, announced.

Operation Assist is a new effort by FmHA to help farmers obtain guaranteed operating loans. County Supervisors for FmHA will take completed farm credit applications to local banks or other lenders, along with the farmer wishing to apply for a guaranteed loan.

"We will handcarry the applications, and personally introduce the applicants to our local lenders," said Barlow. "We will present a complete loan package, including cash flows, financial statements, and appraisals. If necessary, we will make a commitment to work with the lender to do an interest buydown. We will do everything we can to help the lender, and the borrower, by committing to guarantee the loan at our maximum 90 percent."

Borrowers and lenders interested in an FmHA guaranteed loan should contact the FmHA county office.

At the second day's session, Joseph T. Wyrick of the Council will describe plans for a pilot cotton communications computer network to begin in September in five Cotton Belt counties. Reports on computer crop simulation will be given by Dr. Andrew Jordan of the Council and Dr. George Mullendore, Mississippi Extension agronomist. Concluding the conference will be a producer panel discussion on new technology and crop management. U.S. Mills Using More Cotton: During the month of April, U.S. textile mills used cotton at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 6.6 million bales. This was 2.8

percent above March usage, and 18.8 percent higher than in April 1985, according to National Cotton Council market researchers.

Cotton's share of total fiber use was 27.3 percent, up 2.5 percent from the same month a year ago.

SODIUM LABELS TAKE EFFECT IN JULY--Consumers should find it a little easier to cut back on sodium in their diets, thanks to a new Food and Drug Administration (FDA) regulation, says a nutritionist. Beginning July 1, 1986, the FDA will require that the sodium content be shown on any food that provides nutrition information on the label, reports Mary K. Sweeten. "The regulation should be of real help to people who are concerned about the hidden sources of sodium in processed foods," she says. According to the nutritionist, sodium content will be listed in milligrams per serving. Consumers can use that information to see if they are staying within the recommended sodium intake of 1,100 to 3,300 milligrams a day.

Farmers Invited To Run For County Committee Office

Eligible farmers in Lynn and Garza counties are invited to become nominees for the Farmers Home Administration Lynn Area Committee, FmHA County Supervisor Curtis Barlow announced recently.

As a result of the 1985 farm bill, two of the three members of FmHA county committees must be elected. The third member is appointed by FmHA. The Lynn Chris Burch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Rogers, also a junior, will attend Boys' State at the University of Texas at Austin June 7-13.

The students are chosen by the faculty on the basis of character, grades and citizenship.

Mr. and Mrs. L.G. Phillips of Mesquite visited over the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Clara Phillips, his sister, Mrs. Lorain Crowson, and his brother, William Phillips. On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. W.W. Stansberry of Hereford visited with the Phillips family.

CARBON MONOXIDE
Lethal carbon monoxide is produced during the incomplete burning of fuels like wood, gasoline, oil, natural gas, coal or charcoal when they are burned in air that lacks enough oxygen for complete combustion. When no flame is produced, as with charcoal, large amounts of carbon monoxide are produced. Never burn charcoal in an enclosed trailer, tent or room. All fires should be thoroughly vented to provide ample oxygen and to carry off lethal fumes.

ATTENTION: GTE CUSTOMERS IN WILSON

General Telephone will offer an optional customer exchange program to all Wilson customers. This exchange program will be in effect Thursday, June 5, through Friday, September 5, 1986.

The exchange program is being offered to single line residential and business customers with leased equipment who wish to exchange their present rotary dial for touch dial equipment. These customers may do so by bringing their telephones to the Tahoka Local Service office, located at Murray's Florist, 1537 Avenue J, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. The equipment exchange is on a voluntary basis, and any customer who wishes to continue with current rotary equipment may do so.

The current rate for single line residential service is $8.55 plus Extended Area Service (EAS) $1.35 and $2.00 access charge. For single business line service, the rate is $22.15 plus EAS $3.55 and $2.00 access charge. Depending on the style of equipment the customer selects, the monthly customer rental rate may vary. Regulated customers (those customers who have not changed any service since January 1, 1982) who turn in their equipment will change automatically to a deregulated rate base, since all regulated equipment stocks have been depleted. Deregulated customers see a slightly higher monthly rental charge. During this special 90 day period, between June 5 and September 5, 1986, the usual handling fee for touch call service of $8.00 for residential customers or $13.50 for business customers has been waived. The monthly rate for touch call dialing is $2.00 for residential customers and $2.50 for business customers.

This exchange program is being offered in conjunction with the May conversion of the Wilson central office to computerized switching. The switch, which is designed to process touch call dialing, requires rotary dialing to be converted into touch call dialing signals, with the result that rotary dialing is much slower and more expensive than touch call dialing. General Telephone would like to offer the opportunity to Wilson customers to upgrade their telephones with as little inconvenience and cost as possible.

Customers with questions may contact the local business office at (806) 637-8531 for residential customers or (806) 637-7641 for business customers.

OUT OF THE WOODS

By Juanell (Wood) Jones

I DON'T KNOW why things smell the way they do. Why do flowers smell so good and dogs smell so bad? It would be so much easier if it was the other way around. I mean, I have a terrible time keeping my flower bed going, but our dog just keeps getting bigger and smellier day by day, without any help from me at all.

Now if dogs smelled like flowers, and flowers smelled like dogs, why then all the homeless little doggies would be in great demand, and those of us with less-than-green thumbs could pitch our garden hoes over the fence, along with all those dumb little packets of flower seed whose leaves never see the light of day.

I inherited my un-green thumb from my Dad. I remember once he planted a young pecan tree in our backyard for Mom in honor of Mother's Day. Well, the tree didn't die, but it just looked like a big stick stuck in the ground, never branching out like most of the other pecan trees we had seen. Finally, on Mother's Day a couple of years later, Dad called us all out into the back yard, grinning smugly, and showed Mom how the wonderful little tree was coming along. He had sneaked out earlier that morning and taped pecans all over that dumb little tree. We were really impressed.

Mom, on the other hand, can coax nearly anything to grow — except one time she planted some rose bushes in her back yard that didn't do too well. She planted them one morning, but when she came out to check on them that evening she discovered her dogs having a high old time with those rose bushes.

Those two mutts had dug up every one of those roses, and seemed pretty pleased with themselves for it. Now my Mom is not usually a violent person, but she chased those dogs all over the back yard, beating them with those poor ragged rose bushes until she had both dogs backed into the far corner of their dog house.

For the next several days, those dogs headed for that dog house every time Mom stepped into the yard.

Now all of this could have been avoided if dogs smelled like flowers, because there

Devotional

By Rev. Hazel House

SCRIPTURE:

Hebrews 2:1-3; St. John 10:7-11; 14:6; 13:34-35; 6:33-37, 53-58

It seems to grow increasingly difficult to get the attention of mankind away from the things that are material and perishable. This is a warning signal! Watch out! For you and I are created in God's image, we are not merely animal creatures.

We cannot serve both God and Satan, but we will serve one or the other! By our own personal choice we will listen, O man, woman, or child?

In order to listen to God, you must give Him your attention. God gave His Son — Christ died for you.

Let's turn away from our own thoughts, schemes and planning. Turn away from even our money, our farms, our businesses, our teaching, our sports, our work, our schools, our besetting sins, our clubs, our illnesses, our busy-ness — turn away from yourself and give your attention to God and His way. For only in His way can you and I find eternal life.

Now that I have eternal life, I want you to have it, too! I don't want you to die eternally in hell. I don't want you to miss the narrow way that leads into eternal joy and peace and love and light and abundant life! We are members of one human family, and my heart is burdened for those who are lost — who do not know Jesus as their Lord; for those who are deaf and blind and indifferent to God's call to "come, and live forever." Jesus was man, too, and He intercedes at the throne of mercy. The Spirit of God calls you today.

But, in order to help us, God must get our attention. How? How will God be able to get your attention? Will you not stop and look and listen now? The call of this material world and the trap of sin which holds you fast will keep you, unless you turn away to God. For Christ is the way of life.

What is this narrow way into eternal life and how may we find it? We find it right where we are, when we seek, for Jesus said, "Seek, and ye shall find;" and He said, "I am the door: by me, if any man enter in, he shall be saved." Those are strong words. Jesus is the way. Will you "enter in" and follow Him? Will you turn from your own way and seek to learn who Jesus is and how He made the way for us to live eternally? Will you give God your attention? Then do it now, for today is the day you have to make your choice of Satan and eternal death, or Christ and eternal life.

You and I need a Saviour — are you aware of your need? Read the Scriptures, and give God your attention. But hear Him call you today, and come!

The teenage camps will be held June 29-July 5 and July 13-July 19; and the camps for younger students will be held June 8-14, July 6-12 and Aug. 3-9.

Housing and meals will be provided through Texas A&M University at Galveston. Students will reside in the dorms of the Texas A&M campus at Pelican Island. A full-time counselor and recreation director will be in attendance 24 hours a day. The cost of the program is $425 per student.

GTE Customers To Pay Monthly $2 Subscriber Line Charge Soon

Single line business and all residential telephone customers across the nation, including those served by General Telephone, will begin paying June 1, a monthly $2 subscriber line charge.

This $2 charge represents a $1 increase to the subscriber line charge and is the second phase of a federally mandated process that is intended to gradually eliminate the practice of charging customers more for long-distance service in order to keep residential rates artificially low. An initial $1 subscriber line charge became effective June 1, 1985.

Business customers with more than one line have been paying a $6 subscriber line charge since May 1984. This subscriber line charge will not change.

Under the Federal Communications Commission plan for implementation of subscriber line charges, the total revenues of the local telephone companies will not increase since the FCC in turn will reduce by an equivalent amount charges to long-distance carriers for use of local facilities and equipment. It is the intent of the FCC that this decrease in long-distance carriers' expense will be passed through to consumers in the form of reduced interstate long-distance rates. AT&T has already announced plans to reduce its interstate rates.

General Telephone officials said the subscriber line charges are designed to shift from long-distance users to local customers, a larger portion of the actual costs of providing the line from their residence or business to the telephone switching equipment. It was pointed out that long-distance rates have been artificially high to pay a portion of these costs, thus keeping local rates artificially low.

Depending on the amount of interstate long-distance calling, the proposed reduced interstate rates could offset the $2 fee for many customers, especially high volume users.

The $2 subscriber line charge applies to all residential and single line business customers of all exchange telephone companies providing local exchange service.
