LYNN HISTORY DELIVERED--Co-author Pat Jacobs autographs Mrs. Clifford Tankersley's copy of "Grassroots Upside Down" as the long-awaited Lynn County history was delivered this week at the Museum in Tahoka to those who had pre-purchased copies. WOODWORK

BY DALTON

REMEMBER "Big Tex," the Texas Longhorn that has an almost perfect map of Texas on his forehead? We ran his picture in the paper earlier this year when it was sent to us as part of the Sesquicentennial hoopla.

Anyway, the owner of the Big Tex has written a children's storybook, a 24-page story about how Big Tex helped Santa Claus one Christmas when his sleigh got caught in a snow bank up in the Panhandle. It's in poetry form, 165 lines, and the author, Larry Smith, is donating all the proceeds from sale of the book to benefit abused and neglected children. Since those proceeds are going to the Ben Johnson-Bubba Berry Foundation based in Fort Worth, which operates a facility in Goldthwaite for child abuse victims called New Horizons Ranch and Center, I decided it was worth a free promotion.

Besides, it only costs $1.29 plus postage per copy, and like someone said, it would make a good Christmas stocking-stuffer. It is illustrated by Craig Nance, a Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary student, and by the fourth and fifth grade students of an elementary school in Fort Worth.

Copies may be ordered from the Johnson-Berry Foundation, Box 4120, Fort Worth 76106, or even faster by calling (817) 625-1178.

I HAVE JUST about run out of people who come by ask me to go for coffee. The last really regular coffee companion I had recently quit his job and took another position which he tells me requires that he work all day instead of taking time to run all over town drinking coffee. I have noticed some others who used to come by and invite me for coffee have been crossing over to the other side of the street at one end of this block and then coming back across at the other end after they pass our office.

I don't understand it. I did hear one tightwad complaining that he always had to buy the coffee. But that's a bunch of nonsense. I keep very close records. I try to pay for the coffee every fourth time I go out with someone. Those are the days I usually try to steer my friends to the bank, where you get coffee free, even when your account is no account.

Some places we go for coffee they have these cards stuck up on the counter with quarters in them, saying something about the Cancer Fund or Heart Fund. You can get real close to the card and everybody thinks you're putting a quarter in it when actually you're taking out

Christmas Decorations To Be Judged Saturday

The Tahoka Garden Club will judge the Christmas decorations contest Saturday night, Dec. 20, at 6 p.m. Please leave your lights on.

There will be six categories, overall, door, window, yard, outdoor, tree and business places.

Pictures of first place winners in each category will be in the Christmas edition of the Lynn County News.

It is not too late to enter, call 998-4254 or 998-4508.

enough for coffee.

We have a coffee pot in the office, but we rarely make up a pot. Who wants to drink coffee in the office? I enjoy getting out of the office more than I do the coffee.

Ex-Gridder Now Smashing Walls

BY PRESTON LEWIS
Texas Tech News Service
LUBBOCK--Brad White has gone from smashing offensive linemen to smashing cinder block walls.

The first brought him acclaim as one of Texas Tech University's standout defensive tackles in the early 1980s and the second will earn him a master's degree in civil engineering at the conclusion of the 1986 fall semester.

White is an example of the scholar-athlete who balances his classroom work with athletic workouts. He earned a bachelor's degree in civil engineering after accumulating a 3.3 grade-point average on a 4.0 scale.

"I didn't feel like it weighed on me much at all," White said.

"I felt I could combine academics with athletics because I felt I had a special aptitude toward engineering. I just wanted to do well on the field and in the classroom."

By the time he graduated, he had been drafted by the New York Jets and had been awarded a $2,000 NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship. When he was cut by the Jets, he accepted the scholarship and developed some practical advice he gives those who aspire to success in athletics.

"Don't let anyone tell you you can't do it," White said, "but remember you can't play football your whole life. Find some other interest to pursue so you can have a career when your football career is over. It just takes one knee injury to end an athlete's career."

After his training camp with the Jets, White returned to Texas Tech and began work with civil engineering Professor James R. McDonald on studying ways to prevent structural damage to walls by wind-borne debris such as is carried by a tornado. Using a "cannon" developed by the university's Institute for Disaster Research, White started smashing walls by firing 12-foot two-by-fours into them.

"I tested concrete masonry walls and their resistance to wind-blown debris," White said. "These tests were important because concrete masonry or cinder block walls, as they may be called, are used in many of the types of public buildings -- churches, schools -- that people might seek shelter in during a tornado.

The results of the studies can show builders how best to reinforce the walls to withstand impact by debris," White said.

"Our research has shown that if you want concrete masonry units you cannot guarantee they won't be perforated by debris unless you fill them with concrete," White said. "We were hoping to find a less expensive way to reinforce these types of walls."

With graduation, White's six-year career at Texas Tech will have encompassed everything from the roar of Jones Stadium to the quiet of the civil engineering lab. White, the son of Binie and Edna White of 2430 N. 4th St., Tahoka, said there was never a kid growing up in Tahoka who wanted to go to Texas Tech more than he did.

When he was offered an athletic scholarship to Texas Tech, it marked the culmination of a dream. And, he became a dream or impact player on the field, coming up with 172 tackles, four forced fumbles and four quarterback sacks his junior and senior seasons.

But since the tumult and the shouting ended, White has found another set of satisfactions in his graduate work.

"I really enjoyed the extra stimulation of the graduate classroom," he said. "I felt like I was doing something above and beyond just learning. I was learning some unique things, but I was also contributing to knowledge and this gave me a lot of confidence in my technical abilities."

Man Caught Inside Station Charged With Burglary

A 30-year-old Lubbock man was charged with burglary and drug possession after being captured by Tahoka Police officers inside the Texaco service station on U.S. 87 bypass intersecting with U.S. 380.

The suspect, identified as David Louis Holland, also known as David Louis Scott, was charged with burglary of a business, possession of methamphetamine, possession of narcotics paraphernalia and assault, according to Police Chief Gary Morrison. Morrison gave this account of the arrest:

"On Thursday, Dec. 11 at 5:01 a.m. Tahoka police officer Hippolito Zuniga, making a routine patrol, noticed a parked vehicle on the north side of the Texaco station and the officer had noticed that a panel of glass had been removed from a door and saw a person hiding inside the building.

"The officer asked the suspect to come out of the building, but the suspect wouldn't, so a backup was called and police chief Gary Morrison arrived at approximately 5:04 a.m. who again informed the suspect to come out." After getting no answer, Morrison went inside and found the subject hiding in the storage area. Morrison said he advised the subject to lie down but when the chief tried to apprehend the subject, "the man had a 22-inch screwdriver in his hand and attempted to stab Morrison and it was reported that the officer then kicked the suspect in the head."

The subject was taken to Lynn County Hospital for treatment of head injuries and then taken to Lynn County Sheriff's office where he was booked and jailed. The suspect, according to Lubbock County officials, had been released on parole from the state penitentiary in May of this year from previous burglary and weapons offenses. Police also took into custody a large amount of tools and assorted property believed to have been taken in other burglaries in the area. The suspect was released after posting bond set at $5,000.

Police investigated an incident on Thursday, Dec. 11 at a retired woman's residence who was concerned about some men from out of town who had told her that she needed to have her carport repaired and that she needed a new roof on her house that normally would cost $6000 "but since she was a senior citizen that it would only cost her $4500." Police were called to the scene and determined that the three men, reported to be operating out of Arkansas, were operating without a required city permit and when asked if they had heard of an offense called "deceptive business practices" or "fraud" the men decided there was no more work to be done in Lynn County.

Police investigated an accident on Dec. 8 at the 2300 block of N. 2nd that involved a 1978 Ford van driven by Olga Solorzano of Tahoka and a 1981 Ford driven by Debra Engle of Tahoka. No injuries were reported.

Police investigated an accident on Dec. 8 that involved a 1966 Chevrolet truck driven by Michael Scott Smith of New Home who reportedly lost control and struck a fire hydrant in the 1700 block of Lockwood. No injuries were reported.

Police are also investigating six forged checks given at Thriftway by the same juvenile. No arrest had been made as the investigation continues.

A 1976 Bonneville owned by Edwin Holloway of Rt. 4, Tahoka, was stolen near New Home Friday night and recovered Saturday night abandoned three miles north of O'Donnell on U.S. 87.

Terry Gatski, 13 miles north of Tahoka on U.S. 87, reported two lawn mowers stolen from that location on Dec. 6.

A sign at the home of Ruben Gandy, 1807 S. 2nd, was reported damaged by vandals Saturday night.

In jail during the week were the burglary suspect, one person for resisting arrest and bond forfeiture and one for theft by check.

WALL BUSTER -- After Texas Tech University defensive tackle Brad White finished his athletic eligibility in 1984, he began work on a master's degree in civil engineering. His research looked at how to design cinder block walls to withstand the impact of wind-borne debris. White, who graduates this month, holds a helmet and wears an academic gown beside one of his test walls. (TECH PHOTO)

Tahoka School Sets Classes For Saturday

Tahoka school students will attend classes this Saturday before being dismissed for Christmas holidays for two weeks, with classes to resume on Jan. 5.

The school board voted to have classes Saturday instead of requiring students to return to school on Friday, Jan. 2.

In other action at the board's meeting Dec. 11, the position of Head Teacher in elementary school was created and assigned to Minnie Lou Ash, who will be paid extra through the remainder of the school year to assist Dr. Duane Carter, who will serve as principal of all campuses through the current school year. Dr. Carter and assistant high school and junior high principal Charles Cate also will receive extra pay for added duties through the year. Elementary Principal Jim Jackson died in November.

Joan Gardner was also hired as a aide to Mrs. Ash.

Regular meeting date for January was changed to Jan. 13, a Tuesday. The board also approved the annual performance report, an amendment to the discipline management plan, an academic achievement plan and grading procedures.

Loretta Tekell reported a balance in all funds on Nov. 20 of $1,460,255 with 1986 tax roll collections at 46.7 per cent complete, with $297,314 of the roll less discounts of $8670 collected.

All board members were present.

Local Property Tax Levies Higher In 1985

AUSTIN--Local property tax levies in Texas totaled $8.9 billion for 1985, according to the State Property Tax Board's (SPTB) annual report for the 1985 tax year.

"Overall, property taxes grew at a slower rate in 1985 than the year before," said Ron Patterson, SPTB's executive director. "However," he added, "our figures show that homeowners were paying an increasingly larger share of property taxes

Hospital Worker Of The Week

(Lynn County Hospital opened its doors in January of 1971. The facility now employs 57 persons in a variety of departments, 49 fulltime and 8 part time, and has 24 beds available for patient care. Because of the importance of the hospital to the Tahoka and Lynn County economy and medical well-being, one employee or department per week will be spotlighted here.)

In the kitchen Patty Gandy is the Dietary Manager. Patty has worked for Lynn County Hospital for 15 years, and originally she started out as a cook. In addition to overseeing the kitchen and dining room, Patty also counsels with patients who are placed on special diets. Helping Patty are co-workers Dorothy Young, Dorothy Walker, Mimi Copeland, Reno Riddle, and Jackie Gutierrez.

for 1985 was 10.7 percent higher than in 1984, when the total levy was $8.1 billion. By comparison, 1984 property taxes were 12.1 percent higher than in 1983.

The report shows that the largest increases in property taxes occurred in school districts and cities, while business owners were paying less."

COTTON EXPORTS LOOK GOOD—Boosted by the government's marketing loan program and competitive prices, cotton exports are booming and should continue at a high level over the next few years, says a cotton marketing economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Lower interest rates and a weaker dollar abroad are giving the new cotton program a big boost. Exports should average 6 to 7 million bales a year provided the U.S. keeps a flexible cotton program with a marketing loan provision.

BUSINESS PROPERTY AND THE NEW TAX LAW—The new tax law repeals the 6 to 10 percent investment credit rate on many depreciable assets used in business, says an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Unused investment credit from previous years can be carried over an applied 100 percent in 1986 against income tax liability. Any remaining investment tax credit carryovers are reduced by 17.5 percent after 1986 and by 35 percent after 1987. The new law also eliminates the Accelerated Cost Recovery System at the 150 percent rate and replaces it with a new ACRS at 200 percent of the declining balance rate. Expensing the cost of depreciable business property also has changed.

OEA Decorates Hospital As Project

On Dec. 15 the Tahoka OEA girls, sponsored by Barbara Jaquess, decorated the Lynn County Hospital for Christmas as their service project. In addition to decorating the hospital, the girls made and sent the entire staff of Tahoka schools

Christmas cards and candy canes.

The committee, headed by Shun McGruder, included Lisa Lehman, Norma Hernandez, and Sandra Stice. They designed personalized stockings for each patient's door and hung a Christmas banner at the nurses' station.

Scheduled for Dec. 19 at the home of Barbara Jaquess will be the club's annual Christmas party. Activities will include tasting homemade Christmas treats prepared by each club member and sponsor, playing games and exchanging gifts.

Sales Tax Rebate Told

State Comptroller Bob Bullock sent checks totaling $54.3 million in local sales tax to 1,033 cities that levy the one-percent city tax. Bullock said 1986 payments to date were down almost 2 percent as compared to the payments to date in December of last year.

December checks represent taxes collected on sales in October and reported to the Comptroller by Nov. 20.

Tahoka's net payment this period—$3,292.77; comparable payment prior year—$3,229.88; 1986 payments to date—$60,026.80; 1985 payments to date—$63,665.39.

O'Donnell's net payment this period—$595.81; comparable payment prior year—$.00; 1986 payments to date—$11,955.33; 1985 payments to date—$12,342.24.

Wilson's net payment this period—$.00; comparable payment prior year—$.00; 1986 payments to date—$4,018.52; 1985 payments to date—$4,154.73.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Dalton:

Tahoka lost a faithful friend and supporter when Lady Stewart died two weeks ago.

People who were close associates and who had occasion to work with her over the years knew of her genuine interest and devotion to the "goings-on" in our little city.

In 1977, as editor of The Lynn County News, I was privileged to do a feature article on Mrs. Stewart and she told me as a preface to other remarks she made, "I've lived 82 uneventful years by plodding along day by day. I have never been a good leader, nor have I done anything that could be called great."

I said then and I say now that her estimation of the impact of her life is somewhat different from that of other folks.

The lady was a remarkable individual. Her memory was keen and she remembered the things important to all of us — the achievements of our children, what we had done over the years, etc., and she never failed to show her interest — a trait I would like to master in my own life.

She was what I call a "classy lady." In looking back at the story I wrote about her in 1977, I see that I closed it by saying, "As her name connotes, she is a lady in every way and Tahoka has been richly blessed by being able to claim her as its 'first Lady' — in every sense."

I apologize to Lady and to her many friends in Tahoka for having waited until after her death to "send flowers."

Sincerely,
Mary Draper Fleming

Dear Mr. Wood,

I am writing you in regard to a question I and several other people of Lynn County and Tahoka would like to have answered. Why is it that you cannot buy a hunting or fishing license at our county clerk's office in Tahoka?

We are asked to pay our taxes and we are all encouraged to trade in Tahoka, which should be done, but you cannot buy these licenses in Tahoka. All the other counties around us have this service in the county clerk's office as it should be. I called the office here in Tahoka and was told to go to Lubbock and get them. Our people over 65 who buy an exempt permit also have to go out of town for this service. I think this is wrong and should be corrected.

Yours truly,
Robert Harvick

SELECTING RUBY RED GRAPEFRUIT—After a three year absence due to the freeze of 1983, Texas Ruby Red Grapefruit are now back in the markets. When selecting grapefruit, specialists suggest looking for those with a smooth, thin skin, heavy weight and a rosy bloom. Some Ruby Reds may have a slight green tinge since the pink skin color is determined primarily by the coldness of the weather as the fruit matures. However, the flesh will still be pink and sweet. According to the nutritionists, grapefruit is an excellent source of vitamin C and a good source of fiber, vitamin A, and B-vitamins. It's also a low-calorie food with about 50 calories per half grapefruit, notes the nutritionist. If you stock up on Ruby Reds or receive a large gift package, she advises storing them in a well-ventilated area away from heat. They say grapefruit will keep about 10 days at room temperature and 2-3 weeks or longer in the vegetable crisper of the refrigerator.

RUBY RED GRAPEFRUIT IS BACK: If you've been longing for the taste of a Ruby Red grapefruit since the freeze of 1983 wiped out this unique Texas crop, now is your chance—but it may not last much past Christmas. "Agricultural economists estimate that the 1986 crop is just 15-20 percent of the pre-freeze crop," says Marilyn Haggard, nutrition specialist. With the smaller crop, producers are selling rather than storing the grapefruit, so supplies could drop off rapidly after Christmas, she adds. The Ruby Red grapefruit, with its characteristic pink blush, can be found in many supermarket produce sections, Haggard says. It's also featured in gift packs sold by commercial firms and by service organizations as fundraisers.

Death Valley, in southeast California, is 282 feet below sea level—the lowest point in the nation.

Texas Customers of SPS.*

Check your electric bill carefully this month.

It's your refund due to our fuel-cost savings.

At SPS, we are doing everything we can to keep the cost of your electricity as low as possible.

*SPS customers in New Mexico, Oklahoma and Kansas have already been enjoying reduced fuel costs through their automatic fuel-cost adjustments. This is a one-time credit. It reconciles the fuel revenue with the fuel cost since October 1985. We're returning this savings to you with interest at 11.70%. Basketball Roundup Tahoka varsity girls continued winning during the last week, and opened the district schedule with a 78-60 win at home against Seagraves Tuesday night. Shannon Lawson led scorers with 30 points and Tesha Hood had 29. Lawson also had 19 rebounds and Dawn Teaff 14. For Seagraves, Hobbs scored 25 points.

four new faces in the starting lineup, opened district play with a 70-44 loss to Seagraves here Tuesday night. With the sudden switch in personnel caused by dismissal of six players from the varsity during the last week, the game result was not considered too bad. Coach Charles Cate cut the six players, including four starters, from the squad after learning of their involvement in theft of some tennis shoes from Coahoma school when the team was there recently.

Against Seagraves, Mike McDonald scored 19 points and Jim Patterson 8. Chuck Cate had 14 rebounds and Thomas Glisson 8. For the Eagles, Cavazos scored 25 and Davila 10 points.

Both varsity teams play at Morton Friday night.

Tahoka girls again lost a close game to unbeaten O'Donnell in the finals of the O'Donnell tournament last week, going down 61-57. Hood scored 25 and Lawson 20 in that contest and Lawson had 24 rebounds, and Lacye Jolly 10.

Also in that tournament, the Tahoka girls, now 7-3 for the year, beat Seagraves 43-40 in overtime and Southland 55-50. In those games Lawson scored 23 and 14 points, Hood 16 and 11 and Tammi Hood 16.

"The girls played very well in that tournament," said Coach Elaine Shedd, who added that the Lady Bulldogs would like to thank Rhonda Reid and Alecia Hancock for refreshments last week, and D&H Tire for corsages at the game.

In the O'Donnell tournament, the varsity boys lost their first game 91-53 to Southland before going on to win two close contests over Plains and Sundown. In the Southland game, Anthony Justice scored 24 points for the Bulldogs, and four Southland players scored in double figures — Ormendariz 27, Arguello 24, McGehee 18, and Watson 14.

Justice again was top scorer in Tahoka's game with Plains, scoring 21 points, followed by Percy Rogers with 16. The Bulldogs squeaked past Plains 60-56 Friday night, assisted by Percy Rogers who had 13 rebounds, and Chuck Cate with 10. Plains players who scored in double figures were McMinn 19, Lowrey 15, and Stowe 10.

In the final game of the tournament, the Varsity Bulldogs again won by a narrow margin over Sundown, 57-53. Justice scored 26 points for Tahoka, followed by Rogers with 13. Cate had 14 rebounds. Sundown scorers included Canon 16, Morgan 13, and McDaniel 12.

Tahoka 7th grade girls played Lorenzo at home Monday, Dec. 15, losing by a narrow margin, 19-17. Lawson scored 11 points for Tahoka.

On Monday, Dec. 8, the 7th grade girls lost by only two points to Plains, 25-23, with Lawson scoring 13 points and Brown 5 for the Lady Bulldogs. The same night, Tahoka's 8th grade girls lost 25-9 to Plains, with Lawson scoring 4 points.

Wilson's varsity girls won the championship of the Sands tournament last weekend by beating Water Valley 35-30 after an astounding eight overtimes.

The two teams were tied at 22-all after the regulation 32 minutes, and it took eight 3-minute overtimes before Wilson could win it with Lora Schneider hitting a field goal and two free throws and Pam Bishop had a field goal in the final overtime period. It was a long game, but not a record, according to the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, which reported that Kerrville and San Antonio went 10 overtimes in a 1980 boys game, and two Tennessee girls teams played through 16 overtimes in 1969.

Miss Schneider was named the most valuable player in the tournament and also led scorers in the final game with 21 points.

Wilson girls, now 9-3, beat Plains 73-24 as Webb scored 42 points and Schneider 12.

Wilson boys raised their record to 6-2, beating Plains 72-55 Tuesday. Greg Spears scored 27, Mendez had 16, Burch 13 and Ehlers 12 points. Wilson boys also won the JV game, 44-42.

O'Donnell girls went 13-0 with a 55-37 win over Dawson Tuesday night. Stacy Bessire had 13 points and Pugh had 17. O'Donnell boys also won over Dawson, 86-69, as five players hit in double figures. Crouch had 30, Summers 14, Ortiz and Flemming 13 each and Sanders 11. The boys now are 11-2.

TDA Warns Farmers Of Possible PVP Act Violations

Some farmers may be violating a federal seed law by running newspaper advertisements offering to sell seed protected under the Plant Variety Protection Act, said Lynn Kemper, Lubbock district supervisor for the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Kemper said that seed protected under the PVP Act can only be sold by the breeder for an 18-year period. Provisions of the act do allow farmers to sell protected seed to each other, but it prohibits a third party from bringing the two farmers together for the sale, he said.

"The third party that the law refers to could be an elevator, farm supply or cotton gin operator, an acting agent or broker," Kemper said. "The exemption in the act that allows farmers to sell seed to each other does not allow them to use advertisements such as the ones that have been in some newspapers in this area to make the sales."

"Many of the farmers who are running these ads may not even know the PVP Act exists. As a state agency that works closely with farmers in Texas, we just wanted to warn them of the possible violations before they
