Mexico Trip Is Offered In Drawing

The 12th annual Lynn County Harvest Festival will feature a new prize drawing this year. In years past, Harvest Festival Queen candidates have sold tickets for chances to win a weekend trip to Dallas, but this year have opted to sell $1 tickets for a chance to win a trip for two to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico. The trip includes four nights lodging (meals not included) and air fare, with the winner setting the departure dates.

The drawing will be held the day of the Festival, on Saturday, Oct. 3. Tickets may be purchased from any Queen candidate. They are: Kathy Davis, J.J. Wiseman, Lendi Jordan, Autumn Martin, Denise Brazil, Candice Bailey, Melissa Ramirez, Kim Ingle, Connie Parker, Mary Roberts, Rochelle Reid, Marie Garcia and Lacye Jolly. To qualify for the finals in the Queen competition, each candidate must sell at least 100 tickets.

Harvest Festival Princess contestants are selling tickets for chances to win a Texas Tech weekend, which includes tickets for the Tech-TCU game and hotel lodging in Lubbock. Two bicycles will also be given away from drawings from the Princess tickets. Both the Tech and bicycle tickets are being sold for 50-cents each. Candidates are Amy Chandler, Michelle Quisenberry, Susan Draper, Jill Jaquess, Miranda Martin, Marisa Martin, Darla Willis, Kathy Greer and Kellie Greer. Winner is determined by the number of tickets sold.

In addition to the hourly merchants drawings this year, a bubble gum toss at the Friday night Homecoming football game will offer the winner a cash prize.

The festival will once again feature the Arts and Crafts Fair from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. Saturday. Entries will be accepted from 8 a.m. until 1 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 1, at the former Heritage Furniture building on the west side of the square. Judging will be that afternoon. For more information, contact Myrna Weaver, 998-4347, after 4 p.m. weekdays.

A country and western band, the Rex Thomas Band from Acuff, will entertain throughout the day and play for the street

Bulldogs Suffer From Re-Runs

BY DALTON WOOD

The Tahoka Bulldogs again fumbled away their best chances and lost the second straight football game of the season at Hale Center Friday, going down 21-6.

This week, Tahoka will go to Wilson, which also is winless in two starts this year against two good teams. Last week, Sudan beat Wilson 13-0.

Bulldog fullback Rusty Jennings gained 133 yards in 18 carries against Hale Center, with 103 of these in the first half. John Aldous gained 39 yards in 9 carries, QB Ramiro Rodriguez gained 35 in 10 trips and James Antu 18 in 8 efforts.

Tahoka lost the ball four times on fumbles, a practice started in the opener against Plains when the Dogs lost five fumbles.

In the first quarter, Tahoka mounted a drive which featured a 23-yard run by Jennings and which ended in a keeper by Rodriguez who went 3 yards to score. A kick was no good and Tahoka led 6-0 at the end of the first.

Hale Center tied the game early in the second with a 9-yard touchdown pass to end Robert Rodriguez. Antu led a charge which blocked the extra point. Later in the period, Jennings broke free for 53 yards to the Hale Center 12. But the Owls held on downs at the 3. Another Tahoka fumble late in the quarter set the Owls up in business again, but defensive back Thomas Glisson intercepted a pass to stop that threat.

The third quarter was scoreless, although Tahoka twice lost the ball on downs in Hale Center territory. But early in the fourth, after a Tahoka fumble at the Bulldog 25, Hale Center broke the tie as Tim Silva ran 10 yards to score. A pass for two points made it 14-6 with 9:47 left.

Another fumble stopped a Tahoka drive at the Hale Center 27 and the Owls scored after QB Jamie Garibay broke for 43 yards to the Tahoka 3. The Bulldogs held for three downs, but on fourth, Garibay barely made it in. The extra points made it 21-6 and it ended that way.

Shannon Clift, Cory McCleskey and George Morin did some good work on defense for Tahoka.

parents Day, according to my calendar, but so far as I know, there was no special notice or even mention of it anywhere around here. I didn't know it myself until after Sunday, so I didn't feel neglected. This country has too many special days designated anyway.

PIANIST Arthur Rubinstein was suffering from a severe case of hoarseness. He consulted a throat specialist who examined him for about 30 minutes, then, without volunteering any diagnosis, suggested Rubinstein come back the next day.

The next day, after another long examination, the doctor was silent again. Rubinstein could bear it no longer. "Tell me," he said, "I can stand the truth. What's wrong with me?"

"You talk too much," said the physician.

WOODWORK

GENIUS has been stifled again. Well, maybe not genius, and maybe not stifled, but just protected from ridicule and outrage. Anyway, I had written a column on a subject first brought to my attention by the Texas Medical Assn. in a release, but when I finished it and read it over, I was little doubtful about how it would be received.

The subject was one which everyone is familiar with, but nobody talks about, so guess about that one for awhile. I mentioned the subject to my wife, who helps me keep things in perspective, and she wasn't a bit doubtful. She was certain, in fact, that I should write about something else.

Since she is mostly right about such things, I am not printing it, but I still have my copy and will show it to selected persons who are not easily offended by unpleasant topics.

Nance Named To Vacant Seat On School Board

Former school board member J.E. Nance Jr. was appointed to an interim term on the board last week as school board members voted to fill the spot left by resignation of Mike Huffaker.

Nance will serve until the next regular election in May, 1988. The appointment still leaves the board short one member, since Terry Harvick recently resigned.

In other action at the regular monthly meeting of the board last Thursday the board heard a financial report from business manager Loretta Tekell that the total balance in all funds on Aug. 31 was $1,686,531, and that the 1986 tax collection had reached 95.5 per cent completion, amounting to $607,814 collected, minus $9,802 discounts.

Items discussed with no action taken included a report on a proposed professional dress code and the deterioration of mortar between bricks on the south and west sides of the high school building. The group decided to consult an architect on that problem.

The board agreed to change the meeting date for October to Oct. 6.

Action was taken on several other routine matters and it was voted to add the following names to the substitute teacher list: Sylvia Chapa, Vickie Diggs, Retha Dunn, Cheryl Garvin, Marci Gandy, Marion Klafka, Pamela Miller, Brenda Norwood and Gilda Taylor.

Joe Hays presided and all board members were present, including Thalia Burks, Billy Davis, Robert Smith and Nedra Young.

ing cities," the city manager added.

The total minimum on a residential "water bill" from the city has been $15.75 and now will be $17.06.

Proposed expenditures for the city for the coming year have been budgeted the same as last year, allowing the city to operate at the same tax rate, officials said.

The council discussed amendments to a Community Development program and a possible timetable for opening the new cemetery, and then approved an ordinance allowing Energas to continue operations here, contingent on the company's approval of specified changes in the franchise agreement.

Police Chief Ray Woodall gave a monthly report of activities of his department.

Sewer, Garbage Fees Going Up

Residents of the City of Tahoka will have another $1.31 added to their monthly bills if they use a minimum amount of water starting Oct. 1. A dollar of this will go to the city and the 31 cents will go to the state.

City council members Monday night approved a new budget for the coming year, with no increases in tax rates planned. The tax rate will remain at 45 cents per $100 valuation.

However, the council voted to increase fees for garbage collection and sewer service, items which are included on what most citizens simply call their "water bill." Water rates are not being raised, according to City Manager Barry Pittman.

The city is putting a 50-cent increase on residential garbage collection and also on residential sewer rates. Meanwhile the Texas Legislature has mandated that the state tax will be assessed on garbage collection fees, so that fee for residential users will go up from the present $5.50 per month to $6.00 per month, plus state tax. The state tax is not added to the sewer rates or water rates, Pittman said.

Commercial users also will get an increase of about 10 per cent in garbage collection fees, Pittman said. Businesses pay a higher rate than residences.

"The increases still leave Tahoka's rates lower than those charged by any of our neighbor-

Car Hits Horse; Burglaries Listed

Two new burglaries, an accident in which a car struck a horse, and a case of criminal mischief were among items investigated by city and county officers during the last week.

A 1972 Chevrolet driven by Mary Ruth Denning of San Antonio struck a horse owned by Jack Miller of Tahoka on U.S. 87 in the south part of Tahoka just north of the cemetery overpass last Thursday. The driver was treated and kept overnight, then released from Lynn County Hospital. The horse was not killed, but was taken to a veterinarian for treatment of serious injuries.

A window was broken and a door kicked off the hinges at Mt. Zion Baptist Church, a mile north and a mile east of New Home on Sept. 11. Crime Line, 998-5145, is offering a $300 reward in this case, and is offering a $500 reward in the burglary of a home near Southland.

The home of Donald Basinger, 1.5 miles south of U.S. 84 and a mile east on FM 212, was burglarized last Sunday. Stolen were a combination TV-radio, a Skil saw and other tools, with the total value of the missing articles set at $325.

Antonio Gutierrez of Tahoka reported a pickup parked at his residence, 1165 Ave. E, was burglarized early Saturday. A stereo, speakers and tapes stolen were valued at $282.

Police also investigated an assault incident and arrested one person for public intoxication.

In jail during the week were one person each for no drivers license and speeding, public intoxication, theft by check, traffic, and one person for driving while intoxicated, plus fleeing from a police officer, plus reckless driving and two counts of running stop signs.

Phebe K. Warner Club News

The Phebe K. Warner Club of Tahoka, a member of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, began its 1987-88 year with a meeting in the home of Mrs. Bennie Lou Carter on Sept. 8. Mrs. Nan Adams served as co-hostess with 16 members and four guests present.

For the benefit of prospective members, Mrs. Bettye Green presented a program on the background and history of the Federation of Women's Clubs at the national, state, and local levels. Since the first decade of this century, women's clubs have been considerably involved in civic affairs and have influenced the passage of various laws. (Mrs. Green, the G.F.W.C. Legislation Chairman and T.F.W.C. Past President, attended the General Federation of Women's Clubs board meeting in Anchorage, Alaska this Sept. 10-14.)

Mrs. Edna White is serving the second year of her term as president of the club with this theme: "Sharing and Serving Through Unified Action". Club projects for this year include a book shower for the City-County Library, the Lady Dobbins Stewart and Maurice Bray Scholarships, an Easter program for the Tahoka Care Center, participation in the Harvest Festival and the Hospital Auxiliary's Fun and Food Fest and Auction, sponsoring a sophomore student to the Hugh O'Brien Leadership Institute, and collecting items for the M.D. Anderson Hospital.

Although Girlstown, U.S.A. in Whiteface has consolidated with Cal Farley Boys' Ranch, dictating some changes in the manner in which T.F.W.C. clubs will be able to lend support, the Phebe K. Warner Club will continue to seek ways in which to join with other T.F.W.C. clubs to provide needed materials and improvements at the Whiteface campus. The possibility of building a chapel at Girlstown, U.S.A. is being considered at this time.

The club has 22 members and in the Sept. 8 meeting, the names of seven women were presented for membership.

NEWS FROM ...

Lynn County Pioneer Museum

The Tahoka Pioneer Museum will be open for Homecoming and Fall Festival on Oct. 2-3. Annie Belle Stice, hostess, and members of the Board of Directors will be on hand to welcome guests.

The Board of Directors met Monday, Sept. 14. Winston Wharton and Bill Craig reported that the outside of the building on the east side had been painted and the lot north of the building had been graded and prepared for gravel. When weather conditions permit, the gravel will be put down by Melvin Edwards.

Mabel Gurley and Auda Norman, beautification committee, reported that the garden on the east side is doing very well, also their efforts to secure male mannequins to display military uniforms proved to be ineffective and suggestions for alternative methods of displaying complete outfits were discussed.

Jim Solomon reported that the 1936 Ford fire truck could be moved to the equipment display area just as soon as it was ready for use and that restoration and repairs could begin immediately. The fire truck was used by the Tahoka Volunteer Fire Dept. for many years. The restoration and repairs on this piece of equipment will be costly and time consuming, but, in time, will be a prized item for the museum.

Members attending the meeting were Harold Green, Lottie Jo Walker, Mabel Gurley, Auda Norman, Madeline Hegi, Mary Louder, Winston Wharton, K.R.

Durham, Jim Solomon, Bill Cragi, Weesie Carroll, and Mil-dred Abbe. Not attending were Mel Leslie, Sonny Roberts and Maurice Huffaker.

National Hispanic Heritage Week Set

The week of Sept. 14-18 has been proclaimed as National Hispanic Heritage Week by President Ronald Reagan.

Eual Davis, district conservationist for the USDA Soil Conservation Service, Tahoka, said his agency recognizes the many Hispanic Americans, especially those involved in agriculture.

"The Hispanic culture made many contributions to agriculture," Davis said. "Early laws required every Spanish ship that traveled to the New World to carry a supply of seeds and livestock." Wheat, rye barley and sugar cane are among the major crops which were brought to America by the Spanish. In the 1660s the Spanish introduced irrigation in Mexico and Texas.

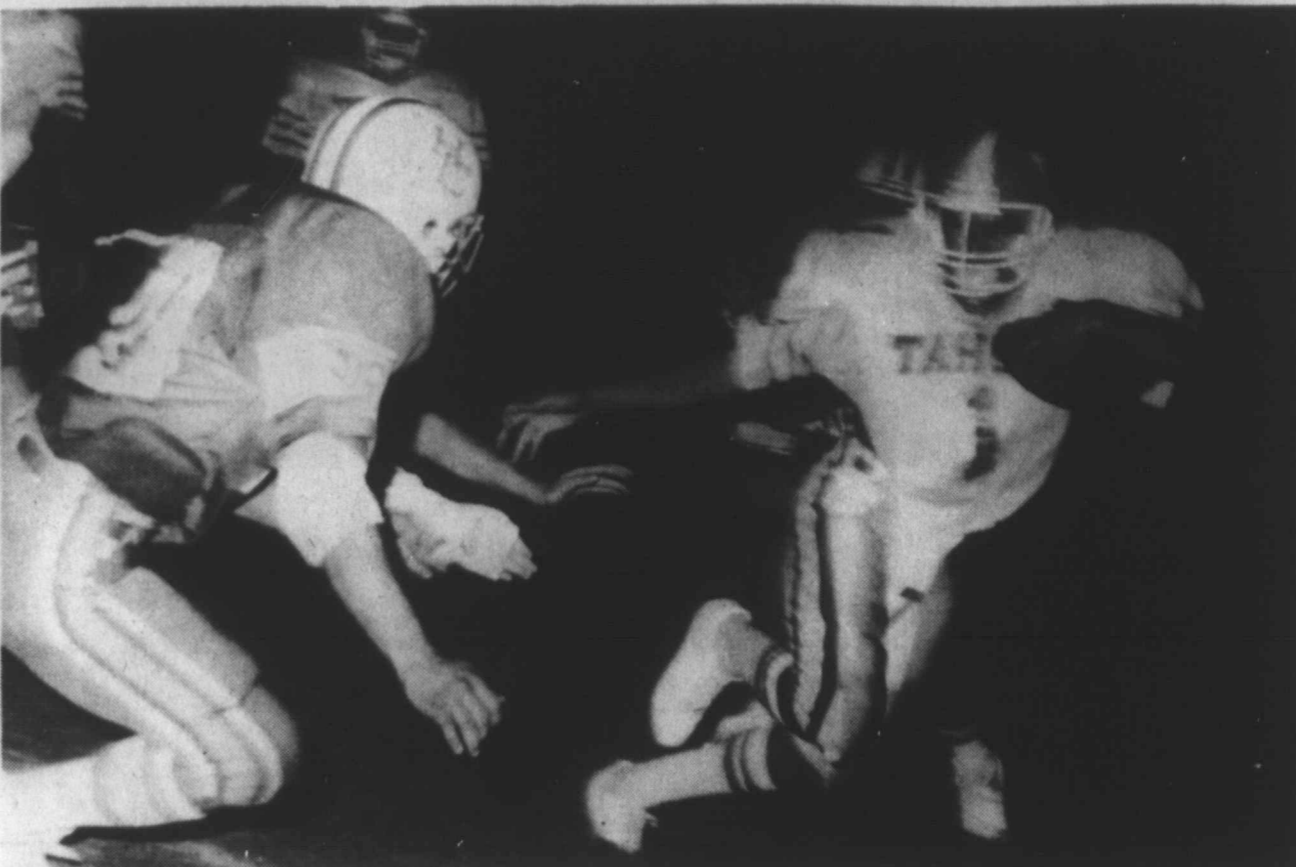

SCS has several Hispanic employees, most of whom are involved this year in helping landowners and operators prepare conservation plans on highly erodible land to stay in compliance with the Food Security Act of 1985.

Conservation planning and other technical assistance is provided by SCS through locally operated soil and water conservation districts.

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 104 proposes a constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to provide a guarantee for the Texas grain warehouse self-insurance fund. The guarantee of the fund may not exceed $5 million, and when the fund reaches $5 million, the guarantee will cease.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to provide for the surety of a grain warehouse fund to be established by the grain industry for the protection of farmers and depositors of grain in public warehouse facilities."

"The constitutional amendment authorizing agreements between the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation and the Texas Turnpike Authority and the governing bodies of counties with a population of more than 400,000, adjoining counties, and cities and districts located in those counties to aid turnpikes, toll roads, and toll bridges by guaranteeing bonds issued by the Texas Turnpike Authority."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 4 proposes a constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to establish three separate development funds. A Texas small business incubator fund could be established to foster and stimulate the development of small businesses in the state. Small businesses operating under the program would be exempt from ad valorem taxation. The amendment would authorize the issuance of up to $10 million in general obligation bonds to provide initial funding for the program. A Texas agricultural fund could be established to promote the production, processing and marketing of agricultural products produced primarily in Texas by small Texas agricultural businesses. The amendment would authorize the issuance of general obligation bonds in the amount of $100 million outstanding at one time to carry out the agricultural fund program. The legislature could require review and approval of the issuance of bonds and the use of bond proceeds.

The amendment would also permit the issuance of revenue bonds for the same purposes to be repaid from excess revenue from repayments of loans made under the amendment and from other revenues pledged to the retirement of revenue bonds. The amendment also authorizes the legislature to provide for review and approval of the issuance of the bonds and the use of the bond proceeds.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds to finance certain local public facilities."

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 9 proposes a constitutional amendment to provide that a state legislator is eligible to serve in another state office even if the compensation of the office was increased during his legislative term or even if the appointment is made in whole or in part (including Senate confirmation) by the legislature. The legislator could not, however, receive the increased compensation approved during his legislative term.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to provide that a member of the legislature is eligible to be elected or appointed and to serve in a different state office but may not receive an increase in compensation granted to that office during the legislative term to which he was elected."

This exemption would be in addition to the personal property homestead exemption already established by the constitution. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to exempt from ad valorem taxation certain personal property not held or used for the production of income."

PROPOSITION NO. 11 ON THE BALLOT

Section 1, Subsections (f) and (g) of Senate Joint Resolution 12 propose a constitutional amendment to exempt from ad valorem taxation goods, wares, merchandise, and ores other than oil, gas and petroleum products. These items would be exempt from taxation only if they originated outside the state and were located in the state for a period of 175 days or less for purposes of assembly, storage, manufacture, processing, or fabrication. Such property could be taxed by a county, school district, or municipality if the governing body of the political subdivision took official action to provide for the taxation of the items while they were located in the political subdivision. If the governing body of a political subdivision took official action to tax the items before January 1, 1988, the tax would be effective for the 1988 tax year. If the action were taken after January 1, 1988, and before April 1, 1988, the tax would become effective January 1, 1989.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to allow for the creation and establishment, by law, of special districts to provide emergency services."

PROPOSITION NO. 14 ON THE BALLOT

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment giving the state a limited right to appeal in criminal cases."

PROPOSITION NO. 15 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 35 proposes a constitutional amendment to abolish the office of county treasurer in Gregg County and transfer the duties of that office to the county auditor or an elected official designated by the commissioners court. The amendment would also abolish the office of county treasurer in Fayette and Nueces counties if a majority of the voters in those counties vote in favor of the amendment. In Fayette County, the functions of the treasurer would be transferred to the county auditor or the officer succeeding to the auditor's functions. In Nueces County, the powers, duties, and functions of the treasurer would be transferred to the county clerk.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to provide for the abolition of the office of county treasurer in Gregg, Fayette, and Nueces counties."

This authorization would apply to laws passed by the 70th Legislature, 1987, and by future legislatures in regular or special session. Senate Joint Resolution 17 proposes a constitutional amendment to provide for legislative involvement in the executive branch of government by permitting the legislature to include the speaker of the house of representatives in the membership of an agency or committee that includes officers of the executive branch of government and performs executive functions. Under current law, the legislature is not allowed to exercise any powers in executive matters under Article II of the Texas Constitution, which provides for the "separation of powers" into three distinct departments.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment permitting the legislature to include the speaker of the house of representatives or the speaker's appointee in the membership of an executive agency or committee."

PROPOSITION NO. 22 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 53 proposes a constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to limit the term of office of a gubernatorial appointee to a vacancy in a state or district office to a partial, temporary term if the appointment is made on or after November 1 of the last year of the governor's term and the governor is not reelected. Of the $400 million authorized, $200 million would be designated for conservation and development of water resources, $150 million would be designated for water quality enhancement, and $50 million would be designated for flood control. The amendment also authorizes the legislature to provide for review and approval of the issuance of the bonds and the use of the bond proceeds.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the issuance of an additional $400 million of Texas Water Development Bonds for water supply, water quality, and flood control purposes."

PROPOSITION NO. 24 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 83 proposes a constitutional amendment to allow a county to use county equipment and personnel to perform work, without compensation, for another governmental entity if the commissioners court finds that the work will not interfere with the performance of county work and approves performance of the work. The governmental entity must be located wholly or partly in the county, and the governing body of the governmental entity must file a written work request with the commissioners court.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to permit a county to perform work, without compensation, for another governmental entity."

PROPOSITION NO. 25 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 5 proposes a constitutional amendment to allow the Legislature to authorize Randall County to levy a tax for the benefit of the Amarillo Hospital District. Any such tax could be levied only on property located outside the City of Amarillo and outside the South Randall County Hospital District. The tax could not be more than 75¢ per $100 property valuation and would be effective only upon approval by the voters in the area to be taxed. If the tax is authorized by the Legislature and approved by voters, the Amarillo Hospital District is to serve residents of part of Randall County. If a tax is levied under this provision, Randall County must repay the State for the cost of publication of this amendment.

The proposed amendment also permits the legislature to authorize a hospital district to change its boundaries or jurisdiction if the district was created or authorized by a constitutional provision that includes a description of the boundaries or jurisdiction of the district. Any change in the boundaries or jurisdiction of such a hospital district would become effective only upon approval of the voters in the district.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to permit the Amarillo Hospital District to serve certain residents of Randall County, to authorize Randall County to provide financial assistance to the district, and to authorize certain hospital districts to change their boundaries or jurisdiction with voter approval."

Senate Bill 86 submits to the voters the question of whether the 15 members of the State Board of Education should be appointed instead of elected. If the proposition fails, the members will be elected from these districts.

The referendum will appear on the ballot as follows: "The State Board of Education shall be composed of members who are appointed from districts instead of elected, with equal representation throughout the State of Texas."

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT FOR STATEWIDE REFERENDUM NO. 2

The Texas Racing Act submits to the voters the question of whether pari-mutuel wagering should be legal in Texas on a county-by-county local option basis. The referendum will appear on the ballot as follows: "The legalization of pari-mutuel wagering under the Texas Racing Act on a county-by-county local option basis."

TOP PLAYERS MEET — Sudan running back Anthony Williams (25) and Wilson defensive back Ruben Garcia are about to meet here. Garcia also was the leading rusher for the Mustangs in the game won by Sudan 13-0. (LYNN COUNTY NEWS PHOTO)

WILSON NEWS

PAM WILLIAMS 628-6330

Wilson schools opened Sept. 1 with a first day enrollment of 239, an increase of six over the close of 1986-87. Principal Randy Moczygemba reported 105 students in grades 7-12. Ted Dockery, elementary principal, reported 134 students.

The Booster Club had its first regular meeting Tuesday, Sept. 8. Plans were made to enter a float in the homecoming parade. On Thursday, Sept. 3, the club hosted "Meet the Mustangs" night with homemade ice cream served to the football team, coaches and fans. The members voted to run the concession stand at all the Friday night home games. The homecoming game ball was won by Leroy Mueller, who donated it to Brent Brieger, a Wilson Mustang who had been hospitalized for some time. The Tahoka game ball will be raffled at Friday's game. Next project for the Booster Club will be to make signs for the yards of new players.

Cub Scout Pack 755, Den 1, had its first meeting Tuesday, Sept. 8, in the home economics building. The group marched in the homecoming parade and performed the flag raising during the pre-game ceremonies of the homecoming game. The Scouts also helped serve tea and clean tables at the Lions Club barbecue before the homecoming game. Anyone interested in Scouting who missed the enlistment meeting can contact Den Leaders Lonnie Paul and Connie Donald or Sherri Gicklhorn. Their next project will be the "Pushmobile Derby".

The Lions Club hosted a barbecue for the fans and exes on Friday, Sept. 11. The broom sale will be held Friday, Sept. 18, on the Wilson school parking lot. The sale will be held from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. to sell brooms and other household cleaning supplies.

Wilson Elementary students observed Constitution Day on Wednesday, Sept. 16. All classes did something special to celebrate by learning about the U.S. Constitution, the Bill of Rights, and the freedoms we enjoy in America. President Ronald Reagan led the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag at 1 p.m. that day and Wilson students joined him via television and radio.

The children's group from the First Baptist Church recently went on an outing to Pistol Pete's Pizza and the PuttPutt miniature golf course. About 12 children were accompanied by Rev. Philip Sams, DeDe Dickson, and Nan Wied. The adults as well as the children enjoyed a watermelon feast following Sunday night services. The leadership banquet for adult workers and teachers will be Thursday night, Sept. 24.

Tuesday was designated "Coconut Day". On this day none of the high school boys could talk except to teachers without forfeiting one of their paper coconuts to the girl who caught him talking. The girl with the most coconuts was Liza Zamora, and the guy who kept most of his coconuts was Paul Ehlers. Wednesday was "Twin Day". Each student found a partner to dress alike. Wes Earwood and Chad Joy were the winners. Then the students went to the beach on "Beach Bum Day". Friday students dressed in blue and white and had "Whistle Day."

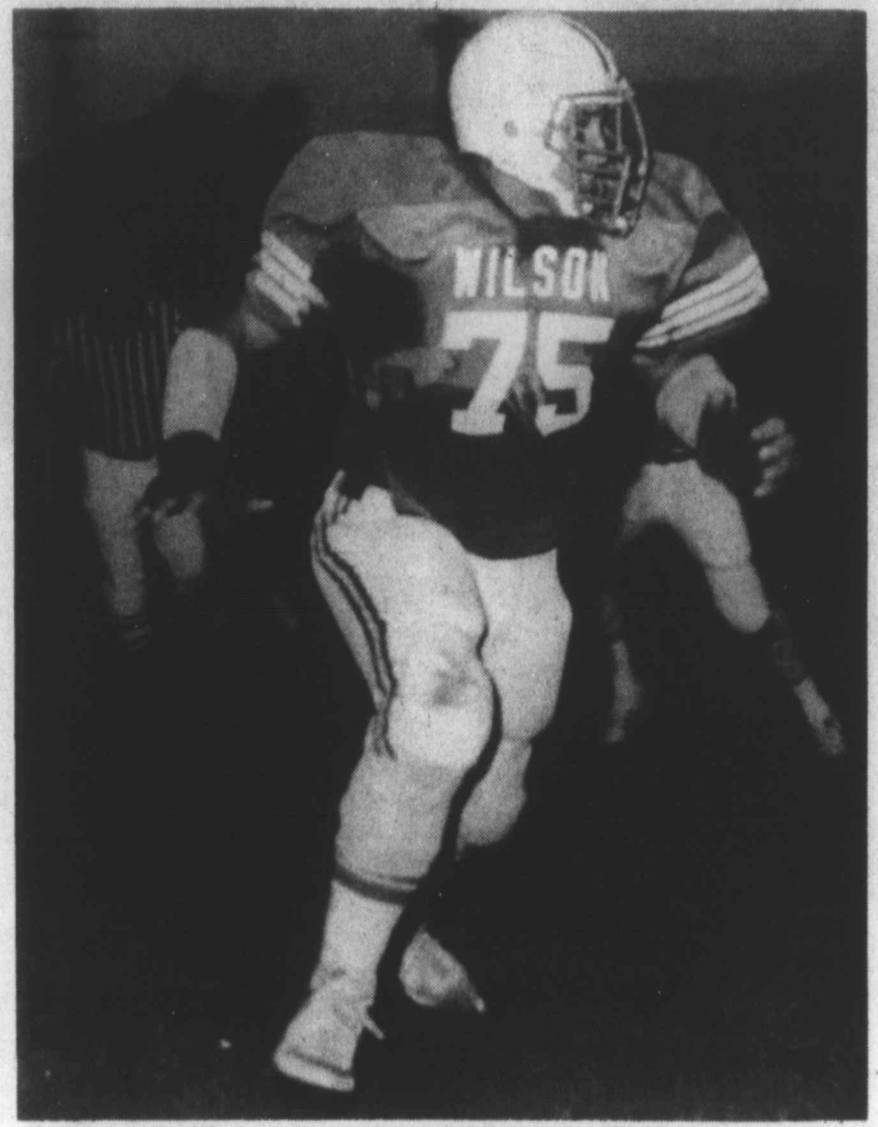

Participants in the parade were the homecoming queen candidates, high school cheerleaders, high school football boys, WHS band, Cub Scouts, Booster Club, Lions Club, high school pep squad, 4-H Club, and some seventh grade bicyclers. These led fans to the high school gym, which was filled to capacity, for the pep rally. The cheerleaders had a hula dance contest between Steffen Such, Wes Earwood, Chad Joy, and Jon Stone. Steffen won the "bikini" poster. The pep squad won the Spirit Box and the football team won the show of spirit.

Coach Gary Lewis and team captains, Greg Spears, Paul Ehlers, Johnny Guzman and Craig Wuensche made speeches. The lighting of the bonfire was the highlight of the evening.

Pre-game ceremonies included the homecoming coronation. Candidates for queen were Michelle Mendez, sophomore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mendez; Lori Duenez, junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Somingo Duenez; and Rachel Arellano, senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Arellano. King candidates were Craig Morton, senior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Morton; Paul Ehlers, senior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ehlers and Craig Wuensche, senior, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wuensche.

The Homecoming King and Queen were crowned by last year's homecoming royalty, Ruben Garcia and Lora Schneider. 1987 King and Queen were Craig Wuensche and Rachel Arellano.

To report community news each week, please call Pam Williams, 628-6330.

Pioneer Wilson Grigger To Be At Tahoka Game

John T. Williams of Florida, who played on the first Wilson football team ever organized, in 1922, will be present at Friday night's Wilson-Tahoka football game in Wilson.

Writing to friends in Wilson, Williams noted that it had been 65 years since the first Wilson team that he played on won 9 games and lost 2. He said the victories included two wins over Tahoka that year.

Now in his 80s, Williams will be given special recognition at the game, probably at halftime.

A "baby crawl" contest will be a new attraction this year, and a popular children's contest of turtle and frog races will again be held.

Judy Sanders is secretary of the Harvest Festival, and she and Juanell Jones are in charge publicity.

Healthy Couple Relationships

Lack of communication skills is a problem common to many couples -- even those married for a number of years. Yet a healthy couple relationship requires sharing feelings as well as words.

Couples who communicate on a feeling level as well as a verbal level use many non-threatening techniques to get in touch with their own and their partner's feelings.

Talking about feelings is always a risk. Partners risk confrontation, accusations about being unfeeling, or intruding into one's privacy. Yet intimacy is built upon risk, and the rewards of taking that risk can be enormous.

Intimacy is an aspect of relationships that may be learned and shared. In our culture however, many men have not been encouraged to develop this side of themselves. Many wives will say, "He's a wonderful provider, a good father and always faithful, but..." Then she indicates he cannot talk or show feelings.

Humor is another sign of good couple communication. There can be a right and a wrong time to use humor and a spouse may not always be receptive to it. However, a few good laughs together can break a lot of tension.

Couples who share their feelings begin to become friends, not just spouses. Because marriages often begin with a sexual attraction rather than friendship, some couples never become good friends.

Being a good friend means being able to share ideas, activities and feelings without being owned or judged. Even couples who develop friendship find that life is not always smooth, but communication skills help.

When marriage partners open up and let the other into their lives, intimate relationships develop. Intimacy through communication is one of the most important aspects of the relationship that couples develop throughout their married lives.

Salt Substitutes Can Be Lively

Patients placed on a low-sodium diet or people who are cutting back on salt as a health precaution often complain that foods aren't as tasty as they used to be and salt substitutes taste terrible.

If you're in that predicament, try retraining your taste buds. It isn't really so difficult. Your gustatory system has resources that you may have overlooked up to now.

There are only four main taste sensations -- sweet, sour, salty and bitter -- which seems like a small repertoire until you consider the possible combinations. These four basic tastes can be combined and other senses can be brought into play as well.

Expert cooks have known for centuries that taste, aroma, texture, visual appeal and temperature are all important parts of the sensation we call flavor. By selecting interesting foods, serving them attractively and using alternate methods of adding tang to your foods, you can often compensate for the lack of salt.

A few drops of lemon juice, for example, not only perk up flavor but also seem to give small amounts of salt more bounce. Just why a sour taste should enhance or substitute for a salty taste when they are so different has never been explained.

And don't forget herbs and spices, particularly the various forms of pepper. Many cuisines use vinegar and pepper in combination to take the place of salt.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,

I feel that the school grounds should be secured with gates for the safety of the children. Many times, while at recess, the children run after their balls as they roll out on the streets without thinking they might run out in front of a car. I realize that there are speed limit signs but when did a sign ever stop a Leadfoot!

Another reason for a gate is that there is a big chance that someone could kidnap a child. There are lots of children for a few teachers watching over all of them. Someone could easily take a child.

Some people think that just because Tahoka is a small town, things like this won't occur. Not until it happens to a child will people think different.

Please give this suggestion a thought.

A concerned Parent,
 Frances DeLeon

Dear Editor:

The Iran-Contra investigation of Ollie North brought Congress across all state lines into our living rooms - even here in Oregon. It threw a spotlight on Congress as a "leaky sieve", and the shocking Democratic foreign policy scandal involving House Speaker Jim Wright of Texas came to light.

With just a little digging we discover that Jim Wright showed his true colors, his strange sympathy for Communist causes, on three glaring occasions.

First, on his official Congressional stationery, he, Rep. Lee Hamilton, Rep. Ed Boland and seven other Congressmen were illegally conducting their own private foreign policy with a Communist dictator in 1984. That year they wrote a cozy letter to Dictator Ortega of Nicaragua, the "Dear Commandante" letter. They expressed their continuing respect and friendship, assuring him they were opposed to military action against him. Thus they promised Ortega and the Soviet Union priceless time to put down deeper communist roots in our hemisphere uncontested.

Since Texas is only 1,200 miles or so from Nicaragua, if this continues, five million refugees could be walking north to Texas. Will Jim Wright be at the border to welcome them?

By 1984 when their letter was sent, Dictator Ortega had already grabbed the police and the military, taken over the radio station, seized both the information and foreign ministries; squeezed out all non-communists from power, filling their posts with Communists. In addition, they had persecuted the church, especially the evangelicals, wiped out the Jewish religion, attacked the Indian tribes, eventually murdering 25,000 Miskitos; closed down the trade unions, suppressed the newspapers, and started filling 11 political prisons with thousands of Nicaragua's finest people to be tortured and brutalized.

In the face of all that, Speaker of the House Jim Wright still addressed the bloody tyrant "with goodwill" and promised private discussions "at any time", violating both the Logan Act and our Constitution.

Second, this group rammed the Boland Amendment through Congress by trickery and deceit, intending to leave the Freedom Fighters twisting in the wind, democracy forever dead. That's where Ollie North came in.

Third, when making himself at home in Moscow recently, Wright, representing the Congress, of the United States, passed out lapel pins showing crossed flags: the hammer and sickle flag of the Soviet Union crossed with our Old Glory. He told newsmen he was passing them out at home, too.

It is a solar plexus blow to us in Oregon that the third official in line for the Presidency, should the next helicopter "near miss" be a collision, is the man apparently dreaming of the hammer and sickle flying over Washington, D.C.

For goodness sakes, can't you red-blooded Texas Democrats fill Jim Wright's post in 1988 with a real American? Or are you wearing Wright's hammer-and-sickle pin, too? We hope not. We hope for a Texas House cleaning in 1988!

Yours for a free America,
 John Schmidt

CHAMPION BODYBUILDER — Manuel Bermudez of Los Lunas, N.M. won the teenage division of the Western Hemisphere bodybuilder competition held in Taos recently. The 19 year old is the grandson of Faustino Bermudez of Tahoka, and he also won third place in the novice division at the competition. He will train to compete in the Mr. Albuquerque competition sometime in March.

Local's Grandson Is Champion Bodybuilder

Manuel Bermudez, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Bermudez of Peralta, N.M. and grandson of Manuel Chapa and the late Silia Chapa of Los Lunas, N.M. and Manuela Bermudez of Los Lunas and Faustino Bermudez of Tahoka, won the teenage division of the Western Hemisphere competition bodybuilding held in Taos, N.M. on Aug. 23. He also placed third in the novice division.

Bermudez has been in serious weight training with Los Lunas wrestling coach Tom Torres for the past two seasons, and is also trained by his older brother, Faustino.

He and Faustino first became interested in bodybuilding while Manuel was in the seventh grade. The two looked at a lot of bodybuilder magazines and then worked-out with their homemade weights. They made their weights out of two-by-fours and bricks.

Aside from training with Torres, Bermudez will spend 14 hours a week in the weight room after work, does aerobics for eight hours a week and runs on the average of four miles.

Bermudez is 5' 7" and weighs 180 pounds. His diet allows him only 2,000 calories a day during competition. After that, he only eats 2,500 calories a day.

His wife, Sonja, and their son, Joe Raymond, along with the rest of the family, can be seen in the crowd cheering him on at competitions.

Bermudez is determined to keep up his training and possibly make it as a professional in the future. "I'd like to do it for a living," he said.

Cotton Today

Cotton Council Asks Tropical Oil Labeling: National Cotton Council President Aven Whittington, appearing with soybean and sunflower industry representatives at a joint hearing by two House Agriculture subcommittees this week, urged passage of a tropical oils labeling bill.

The Greenwood, Miss., producer said the bill is vital because consumers need to know nutritional properties of edible oils used in food products. He said cottonseed oil is healthful for consumers, having a 3-to-1 ratio of unsaturated to saturated fatty acids. Whittington also pointed out that cottonseed oil has been used as a cooking oil in the United States for almost a century, and ranks third (behind soybean and corn oil) in cooking oil consumption.

Whittington was testifying in support of a bill introduced earlier this year by Rep. Dan Glickman (D-Kans.) which would require that foods containing palm, palm kernel, or coconut oils carry labels indicating specifically which tropical oil is used and stating that it is a "saturated fat." At the present time, these imported oils are simply designated as "vegetable oil" -- leaving the impression they are non-saturated fats like cottonseed, soybean, sunflower, safflower, and other oils.

"Grown-And-Made" Campaign Gets Boost: Campaign goals and plans for the "Grown and Made in the USA" campaign during the coming year were made by regional directors of the National Cotton Women's Committee regional directors in a meeting at National Cotton Council's headquarters this week in Memphis.

Among its goals, the group plans to expand the number of participating organizations from 28 to 40, and insure that each actively carries out campaign activities. Directors also will make an effort to conduct a promotion at each of the three major apparel markets, and initiate a pilot program to encourage retailers to stock more U.S. Made cotton apparel.

They agreed to support a "Grown and Made" campaign for cottonseed oil in cooperation with the National Cottonseed Products Assn.

Cotton Orientation Tour Finalized: A Cotton Belt orientation tour for 30 European textile representatives will begin Sept. 28 in Memphis. The tour, sponsored by Cotton Council International and USDA's Foreign Agricultural Service, opens with a visit to USDA's cotton classing office, a briefing at National Cotton Council headquarters, and a seminar by American Cotton Shippers Assn.

The group travels to Cotton Incorporated's research headquarters in Raleigh, N.C., the following day and then goes to Greenville, Miss., Sept. 30 for an AMCOT seminar. Scheduled for Oct. 1 are a tour of the Stoneville, Miss., Experiment Station and a seminar that night with the Texas Cotton Assn. in Dallas. On Oct. 2, the group will meet with Corpus Christi cotton industry representatives and then spend the weekend in the area. The itinerary for Oct. 4-5 includes visits to the Texas Tech Textile Research Center, the Littlefield Denim Mill, and the Lubbock Cotton Exchange. The tour concludes with a Supima seminar Oct. 6 in Phoenix; a Western Cotton Shippers Assn. seminar in Fresno, Oct. 7; and a farm tour and AMCOT seminar Oct. 8-9, in Bakersfield.

EMS Seminar Set Saturday

In an effort to generate information on current treatment of trauma and on emergency medical care, an Emergency Medicine Symposium for regional emergency medical personnel will be held Saturday, Sept. 19, from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center, 3601 Fourth St., Lubbock. Registration fee is $35, which includes lunch.

For more information contact Vicki Hollander, Office of Continuing Medical Education, TTUHSC, 743-2929.

Dear John:

John Deere Answers Your Lawn and Garden Woes

Crabgrass Aweigh

Dear John: Last year my lawn was taken over by crabgrass that spread from a neighbor's lawn. Like pirates boarding a ship, this weed ran wild. Should I move to an island or what?

Dear Lawn-lubber: You'll have smoother sailing if you set a course now. Crabgrass seeds left over from last year are already planning a mutiny—to sprout again when soil surface temperatures reach 65 to 70°F for four or five consecutive days.

To prevent crabgrass from harboring in your lawn, apply a pre-emergence herbicide before the seeds germinate. If it doesn't rain within 24 hours, water in the herbicide so it reaches weed seeds deep in the soil. To shipwreck crabgrass permanently, you can apply the herbicide a second time six weeks after the first, using one-half the original rate.

Dear John: We just moved into a new house with more land. So I'd like to try my hand at vegetable gardening. How do I start?

Dear Newly Moved: No doubt you've worked hard to fix up your home before moving in. Well, that seedbed will be home to your vegetables, and it's only fair that you prepare the soil first.

Vegetables reside most comfortably in soil that contains equal amounts of silt, clay and sand particles. If your soil is short one of these, add organic matter such as ground leaves, grass clippings or well-rotted compost. A soil analysis, available from your county extension agent, will tell you what else the living quarters lack. If the soil is too acidic, add lime. If it's too alkaline, add sulfur. Never add either unless the analysis indicates you need to.

Since the plants will be eating breakfast, lunch and dinner there, you'll want to stock the soil with peat moss or other organic matter. That'll help keep nutrients in the house.

Next, air the place out by tilling the soil to a depth of 8 to 10 inches. Just before planting seeds, apply fertilizer according to the soil analysis. As a general rule, till in 20 pounds of a 10-20-10 fertilizer per 1,000 square feet.

Dear John: I know it's too early to do anything in my outdoor flower garden, but I'm getting a March itch to do something. What do you recommend?

Dear Waiting Patiently: This is a good time to start sowing seeds indoors, especially for annuals. They need about four to eight weeks to grow before they're ready for the garden.
