Paint Splashed On Cars, Thefts Are Reported

Tahoka police investigated criminal mischief reported by at least three North 7th street residents on Saturday night that someone had thrown brown and white paint on their vehicles while parked at their residences.

Bill Chancy reported to police on Nov. 1 that his Exxon station, located at 1028 Ave. J, had been broken into as entry was gained through a back door and reported stolen was a 25 caliber automatic pistol and cash totaling $25 in value. Crime Line, 998-5145, has offered $500 reward in this case.

Police returned $5300 worth of tools to McCord Motor Company during the past week which was previously reported stolen in September. The tools were located outside of the city in the country.

Stewart Rice, who lives two miles west of U.S. 87 on FM 211, reported two bicycles had been stolen recently from his carport. One was a ladies blue 26-inch bike, the other a red 26-in men's bicycle. They were valued at a total of $285. Crime Line has offered a $300 reward in the case.

In jail during the week were three persons for public intoxication, one for revocation of probation, one for application to revoke probation (two counts), one for speeding and failure to appear, and one for DWI and failure to appear.

Lynn County Votes No On Race Betting

Lynn County residents voted state right to appeal in criminal against the referendum to legalize pari-mutuel wagering on horse and dog races in the state, as a good turnout of 1196 persons voted Tuesday in the county.

The vote on gambling on the races was 643 against and 519 for. On the other referendum issue, whether to have state board of education members appointed or elected, the county voted 732 to 391 in favor of elected officials. Presently they are appointed.

Lynn County voted for 13 of the proposed amendments and against 12. Those getting the heaviest margin of approval in the county were No. 3 (to limit school tax increases on homes of surviving elderly spouses) 877 to 299 in the county; No. 12 (allowing surviving spouses to hold community property) 856-239; and No. 19 (super collider in Texas) 746-366.

SPS Seeking To Decrease Electric Rates

Southwestern Public Service Co. (SPS) has announced it is preparing to file for an annual rate decrease of approximately $13 million, or 2.8 percent, for its residential, commercial, industrial and other retail customers in Texas, primarily due to savings resulting from federal tax reform.

In addition, SPS is requesting to credit to its Texas retail customers $11 million in fuel-cost savings and interest.

The lower rates and the onetime credit could be effective by December, said Sam Hunter, SPS vice president of rates and economic research.

Currently, SPS is conferring with the cities it serves in Texas and with the Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUCT) on the

THE COTTON GINS have started doing their thing, the crops are looking pretty good (except for those unfortunate few hard hit by hail), and businesses in this area are perking up and looking for better things as the agriculture situation brightens.

People who had stocks and lost money on them are somewhat disheartened, but overall things are looking pretty good in this area. It's the frame of mind that makes a lot of good things--or bad ones-come true.

This thought is illustrated by the following story which was handed to me sometime ago by someone I have since forgotten. Also, I don't know where it came from originally, but it has some pretty good points in

There was a man who lived by the side of the road, and he sold hot dogs.

He was hard of hearing, so he had no radio

He had trouble with his eyes, so he rarely read a newspaper or looked at television

But he sold good hot dogs. He put signs up on the highway, telling people how good they were and where his stand was. And people bought.

He increased his meat and bun order. He bought a bigger stove to take care of his trade. Finally his son came home from college to help him.

Then, something happened. His son said, "Father, haven't you been reading the newspapers or watching television? There's a recession on. European affairs are terrible. The domestic situation is worse. Everything's going to pot."

Whereupon the father reasoned. 'Well, my son's been to college, he reads the newspapers and he listens to the radio and television...he's an expert...he ought to know.

So, the father cut down on his meat and bun orders...took down his advertising signs...and he was so worried about the future that he didn't try very hard to sell his hot dogs. His business fell off almost overnight.

'Son, you're right', said the father. "We certainly are in the middle of a terrible business slump. Americans are great rumor spreaders. We can talk ourselves into a depression by taking the "experts" too seriously. "Experts" believe they know everything...very often they don't bother to study the facts.

Think it over!

So it pays to stay optimistic, even in the face of apparently bad news. Look for the good news part of all situations.

I can do that. The stock market crash didn't bother me, I was a failure during the boom.

Chiefs Kick Board chairman Tommy Funk. "These gins, and the growers they serve, have done a tremen-Bulldogs, 20-13

The Tahoka Bulldogs' rushing defense couldn't do the job for most of the game here against Crosbyton last Friday and the Chiefs mounted a ball-control offense which led them to a 20-13 district win.

Crosbyton used two slashing running backs to top advantage with their quick-hitters into the line and the Bulldogs couldn't seem to stop them for less than 4 or 5 yards per carry. Tahoka had the ball only briefly in the second and third periods and while the offense did well, they just didn't have enough chances. Crosbyton ran 61 plays from scrimmage to 47 for Tahoka.

This week the Bulldogs will close out the season against the potent New Deal Lions, unbeaten, untied and unworried in nine games so far. New Deal has only given up 8 points all year, a touchdown to Seagraves and a safety last week to Spur. Tahoka, with a very good wishbone running game, could score, and a super effort by the Bulldogs could pull off the upset. Running back Rusty Jennings had a great night, gaining 185 yards on just 15 carries and scoring one touchdown. John Aldous also had a good game, with 59 yards and a TD on just 4 carries, and Kevin Hood gained 64 yards in 10 efforts.

Crosbyton scored first in the first period on an easy 15-yard touchdown pass to End Marlon Greenhaw, and the big Chief caught another one for 67 yards and another TD later in the quarter to put Crosbyton up 14-0.

Still in the first, Jennings broke through for 48 yards to the Crosbyton 26 before he was overhauled. From there, QB Ramiro Rodriguez ran 12 yards and then Aldous scampered 14 for the first Tahoka score. George Morin kicked the point and it was 14-7 at the end of the first.

Crosbyton kept the ball most of the second quarter and with Greg Williams and Billy Wiley knifing through the Tahoka line for repeated gains. The Chiefs scored on a 4-yard pass to Williams, missed the kick, and it was 20-7 at halftime.

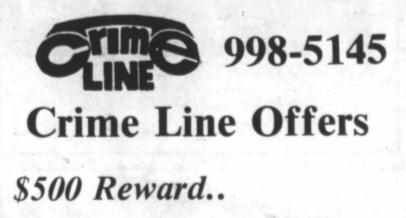

Tahoka mounted a good drive in the third, with Jennings and Aldous running well. Hood then ran to a first and goal at the 7, but on the next play Tahoka fumbled and Crosbyton recovered at the 6.

In the fourth, Jennings burst loose for 21 yards to score with 7:05 left. Tahoka got the ball back on its own 20 with 4:07 left

Blue, red, yellow, or green - of these four colors, which do you most often choose for your wardrobe? The answer to this question reveals your clothing personality says Mrs. Lynne Griffith, a Color Me Beautiful image consultant from Lubbock. Women who are classic dressers, town and country, and who stay with the tried-and-true choose blue. They exhibit energetic personalities. Those women who choose yellow are often quite beautiful - they are romantics. The "natural" woman chooses green. She likes her clothing to be comfortable and easily cared for and cleaned. Mrs. Griffith brought this "Color Me Beautiful" program at the October 27 meeting of the Phebe K. Warner Club. Having seen a preview of spring fashions, she assured that shorter skirts are definitely in and the Empire waistline is coming back. Mrs. Griffith demonstrated the creative use of accessories (especially scarves of all shapes and sizes) and jewelry for the enhancing of one's wardrobe. She is a former Tech cheerleader and the image consultant for several local television personalities. She operates her business out of Diana's House of Fashions in Lubbock. ### Five Local Seniors To Attend NYLC In Washington, D.C.

Five Tahoka High School seniors have been nominated to represent Texas as Congressional Scholars at the National Young Leaders Conference (NYLC) to be held Dec. 1-6 in Washington, D.C.

The seniors, Reginia Ingle, Jordan, Gary Daniell, Lendi Luke Dunlap, and Amber McNeely, must pay their own travel expenses to Washington, D.C., but the week-long conference, lodging, and meals are provided by the Congressional Youth Leadership Council, who sponsors the event. The students are currently seeking fund-raising activities and donations to pay those fees. Interested persons or organizations should contact one of these seniors for more information.

The Congressional Youth Leadership Council is a nonprofit, non-political educational organization guided by a bipartisan advisory board of over 250 members of the United States Senate and House of Representatives.

The purpose of the NYLC is to allow a select group of exceptional high school students the opportunity to witness history in the making; to meet the leaders who fundamentally affect the workings of the executive, legislative and judicial branches of the federal government; and to bring to life the American constitutional process.

Congressional Scholars are nominated by the Council based on the student's academic achievement and leadership potential. Scholars attending are from public, private and religious schools in all 50 states.

Tahoka Woman Leader Of Panel In Alaska

Bettye Green of Tahoka recently attended the Board of Directors Meeting of the General Federation of Women's Clubs in Anchorage, Alaska. As part of the program, she moderated a panel of three oil industry representatives and and three environmentalists on the issue of opening the Coastal Plain of the Artic National Wildlife Refuge (ANWR) to environmentally sound oil and gas exploration and development, which is one of the most controversial issues before Congress.

the board voted unanimously to support the issue and authorized Mrs. Green as national Legislation Chairman, to communicate with the members of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee who would be considering the issue.

Green and three other clubwomen toured the Prudhoe Bay area with six geologists from the

4-H

U.S. Department of Interior, as guests of ARCO Alaska, Inc. They were able to observe the oil installations in action, as well as the abundance of wildlife in the area.

Prudhoe Bay is 650 miles north of Anchorage on the shore of the Artic Ocean, and is the largest oil field yet discovered on the North American continent. Every day, the Prudhoe Bay field produces 1.5 million barrels of oil for U.S. energy needs, nearly 20 percent of total U.S. oil production. Since startup of the field in June 1977, crude oil from the Prudhoe Bay reservior has been flowing south through the 800-mile Trans Alaska Pipeline System to Valdez, where tankers load the oil for delivery to refineries in the lower 48 states. One of the most exciting prospects in North America for oil and gas lies approximately 65 miles east of Prudhoe Bay, on the Coastal Plain of the 19-million acre Artic National Wildlife refuge. Only drilling exploratory wells will prove or disprove the speculation that it could be as #### large as the massive Prudhole Bay field. Congress must decide whether

No prior experience is required, however an ability to meet people and organize your activities combined with a farm or rural background will improve your success potential.

The income potential for a membership director is excellent. Many of our representatives-some 2,000 across America-have doubled their income within two years.

4-H is as American as baseball or apple pie--or the U.S. Constitution, now 200 years old. 4-H. an American educational program for youth began around the turn of the century, points out Annis Brown, county 4-H program leader with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System. In fact, it followed on the heels of a Corn Club organized in Jack County, Texas, in 1908 and has flourished ever since.

The nation boasts a total of some 4.5 million 4-H youth between the ages of 9 and 19. More than 305,000 of these are Texans.

More and more 4-H'ers are coming from urban areas, notes Brown. In Texas, about 66 percent of the 4-H youth now come from larger urban and suburban areas. The remainder of Texas 4-H'ers live on farms or ranches or in towns of under 10,000 population.

Adult volunteer leaders are a valuable asset to 4-H as they give freely of their time and talents in assisting in the educational efforts of the 4-H program. There are 620,000 4-H volunteer leaders across the country, and 30,000 of these are in Texas.

The 4-H program also receives widespread financial support from various businesses, corporations and foundations all over the nation. The Texas 4-H Youth Development Foundation garners support from the private sector, both individual and business, to support many 4-H activities, Brown points out.

The 4-H program has enjoyed much success in the past, but the groundwork must be laid now to face the challenges that lay ahead. Challenges are plenty as 4-H strives to assist youth along the road of life and to prepare them to be the leaders of tomorrow's America.

How can I know if my employer is sending money to Social Security

ASK MR. BERKO

Dear Mr. Berko: How do I know that my employer has really sent Social Security the amount he deducted plus his share? I know he owes the IRS a lot of money and assume he is also behind in sending in SS deductions. John S., Kailua, HI

Dear John: It doesn't matter whether or not your employer actually sent the money to SSA. As long as it was reported by the employer or can be proved by your pay stubs or envelopes, these amounts will be credited to your account. So save every record of deductions. If you want reassurance, you can get a form at any SS office to request your complete Social Security account. You may not get up to-date information but you can get plenty of the forms and ask for your records every year

Dear Mr. Berko: I am 65 and still working. I am self-employed and paying Social Security taxes. I don't want to start collecting retirement benefits but I would like to go on Medicare since I now have private insurance which I pay myself and it's very expensive.

-Sadik M., Calexico, CA

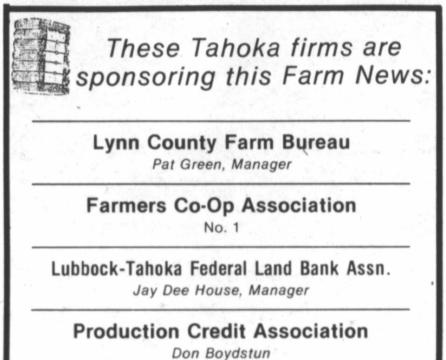

Dear Sadik: You must apply before three months prior to your 65th birthday unless you are covered under some other plan. If you don't you can only apply during the first three months of any year and you will be subject to a penalty for late application.

Arthritis Affects Clothing Choices

For people with arthritis and other conditions that affect movement, good clothing choices can mean the difference between needing assistance and independence in dressing.

With the variety of fabric and clothing styles available, most people who have special requirements for ease in dressing need to select carefully when they shop.

Light weight clothes are easier to put on and take off without tiring the wearer. Many light weight fabrics are available in winter and summer colors, and . can be worn more comfortably in two light layers than one heavy layer when warmth is needed.

Fabrics with give or elasticity complete routine tasks may cause people with arthritis to perspire more heavily, choose absorbent fabrics and those which wick moisture away from the skin. Cotton, linen, ramie, rayon and blends containing these fibers are among the best choices.

wear and easier to put on. Good choices are single and double jersey knits, fabrics containing spandex and fabrics made of tex-

Texture is important, since it can cause skin irritation, especially if the clothing is difficult to put on. Stiff, unyeilding fabrics, such as sailcloth or denim that has not been prewashed, are generally not good choices.

Look for clothing designs that are becoming but also allow for ease of body movement and are easy to manipulate.

Check for the following features that allow for minimum difficulty in dressing and greatest freedom of movement:

Front opening clothes, including wrap style skirts and dresses amd front-opening lingerie.

Wide V-neck or U-neck shaped openings.

Short sleeves or long sleeves with elastic at wrists.

Back fullness, such as action pleats, gathers, or gussets in shirts and bodices.

Elastic waistbands, beltless styles or belts attached to clothing.

Permanent clothing decorations, such as pre-tied bows, ribbons and ties.

Pressure tape fasteners, large snaps and zippers rather than buttons.

These guidelines can be helpful when you're shopping for an elderly friend or relative, as well as those who may have arthritis or other physical limitations.

Few people who have arthritis will ever require specially designed clothing, although many may need to make simple adaptions that will make dressing easier.

A number of books and catalogs provide information about clothing and products for people with arthritis and other physical limitations. These resources can be located through local libraries, the county Extension office and the Arthritis Foundation.

Most rabbits are nocturnal creatures, preferring to eat and play from dusk until dawn. During the day they rest and sleep.
