A MAN I KNOW recently was ticketed for speeding and took a defensive driving course in order to pay less than the maximum fine and in order to keep the insurance company from getting what little money he has left. In effect, this amounted to a sentence of eight hours in a classroom (probably fastened to a chair with seatbelts).

He said there was one interesting comment made by the instructor/jailer about driving while intoxicated. The guy reported that in El Salvador the penalty for drunk driving, first offense, is death by firing squad. There are no second offenses. (He's not sure the guy said El Salvador, but it was one of those countries.)

This may be a little extreme, and I wouldn't want to live in any country other than the U.S., but there certainly is some merit to this kind of law enforcement. For example, it sounds like a reasonable punishment for the guy who drove his vehicle through a house and killed a woman (who happened to be active in Mothers Against Drunk Driving) who was sleeping on the divan in the front room.

Democracy is great, but sometimes I wish we had a dictatorship (with me as dictator, of course). If someone is sentenced to death for murder, for example, the sentence would then be carried out that day, instead of dragging it out for 15 years of court hearing and then finally turning the murderer loose, when the courts decided he wasn't such a bad guy even if he did chop up his neighbor's little girl with an ax, because his welfare check was late that month and he was under a lot of strain, and besides, there was a typographical error in the transcript of the first trial.

Our Criminal Injustice system protects the monsters and perverts and does little for the victims or their families.

Another example of legal wrongdoing was in the recent Supreme Court decision to allow flag-burning as "free speech." Sen. Phil Gramm of Texas, incidentally, is co-sponsoring a constitutional amendment to prohibit flag burning—one way to get around the Supreme Court. "I reject the ridiculous notion that burning the American flag is somehow protected by the Constitution," Gramm said.

So when I am dictator, here are just a few of the changes that will be made in this nation:

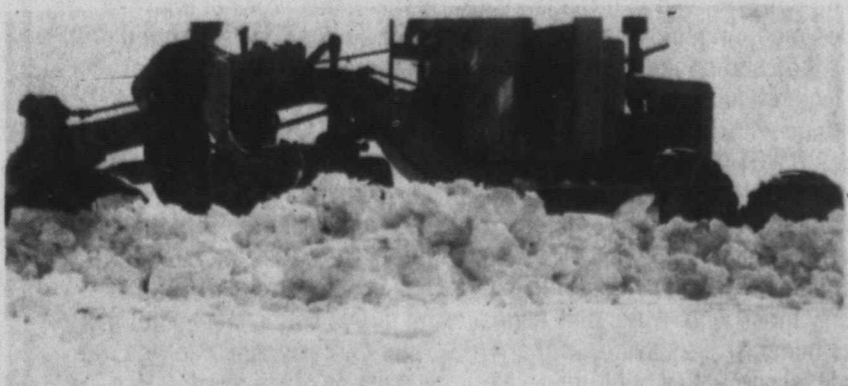

First-time DWI offenders will be required to watch two hours of soap operas and wrestling every day for a year. Second offenders will be shot. Flag-burners will lose their citizenship and be deported to Libya, never to be allowed to return. Animal rights demonstrators will be imprisoned forever in Los Angeles coliseum with all the stray dogs and cats which can be rounded up in this hemisphere.

Income tax will be 10 per cent of what you make, regardless of expenses and regardless of whether you earn $1 a year or $47 zillion.

No one under 18 who plays baseball, football, tennis, basketball, or is in FFA, Little Dribblers, 4-H, band, Little Miss pageants, tumbling or any other organized activity will be allowed to have parents.

No one will be allowed to advertise phone numbers which spell out the name of their product, company or cause. A phone number should be a number, not a bunch of garbage.

Anyone guilty of telephone soliciting for insurance, stock sales or aluminum siding will have their tongues cut out. All homosexuals and Gloria Steinem will be sent to the moon to start a new colony of strange beings in outer space.

Annual Old Settlers Reunion Set Saturday

The annual reunion of Lynn County Old Settlers—persons who lived in the county 25 or more years ago—is scheduled for this Saturday at Tahoka High School cafeteria.

Something new is being tried this year, as the event has been opened to the general public, not just for the pioneers, although they are in the spotlight as honored participants. "We want everybody to come out to the celebration," said publicity chairman Cal Huffaker.

Registration for the old settlers will begin at 10 a.m., and the barbecue meal, for everyone, will be at noon at a price of $3 per plate.

Gerald Huffaker will be master of ceremonies for the program following the meal, when the person traveling the longest distance to the event, the oldest person not previously so honored, and others will be recognized.

Following the recognitions of special persons and other matters on the program will be informal visiting by those who each year take part, both from out of town and those who still live here.

10-Year-Member Of Tahoka School Board Resigns

Joe Hays, president of the Tahoka School Board, resigned from the school board at the beginning of the regular meeting of the board last Thursday, explaining that he was doing so because his wife had applied for a teaching job in Tahoka schools. Hays, who has been a school board member for 10 years, indicated in his letter of resignation that he is on the best of terms with the board and that being on the board has been a good experience.

Vice President Delbert McCleskey took over leadership of the board meetings. There was no indication as to whether the vacancy on the board would be filled before the next scheduled election.

Resignation of Mary Goldston as elementary special education teacher was also accepted by the board. Following an executive session, the board voted to hire Donna Carter to replace her, and to hire the following:

Mrs. Joe (Glo) Hays as DECA teacher, Vicki Steinhauser as elementary teacher, Frank Stone for high school mathematics, Kelli Cullen as high school English teacher and assistant coach for girls athletics, Esmeralda Longoria as Chapter I regular teaching assistant, and school secretaries and assistants.

Dr. Duane Carter, superintendent, advised the board that under the legislature-approved school funding plan, Tahoka Schools would receive more than $300,000 above the current state funding level, but only if school taxes were increased.

Business manager Loretta Tekell said that 94.8 per cent of the 1989 tax roll had been collected. She also noted that for those who have not paid their taxes, an additional 15 per cent penalty will be added effective July 1.

Officials at the Lynn County Appraisal District office in Tahoka pointed out that the additional 15 per cent penalty will be on all school, city and county taxes not paid by that time, and that when the new penalty is added to those already accruing since taxes were due by Jan. 1, the total penalty on unpaid taxes for 1989 will be 33 per cent in July.

All members of the school board were present Thursday night as the group also voted to participate in a Texas Tech Ford Foundation Project, which will involve the high school vocational agriculture teacher in a program to train young farmers in computer-assisted bookkeeping. The project also will involve teachers Patti Rambo and Barbara Jaquess in some computer work with young homemakers. The Ford Foundation project will pay all expenses involved.

Minnie Lou Ash, assistant to the superintendent, reviewed a Chapter I Regular improvement plan, which was approved by the board.

The board also appointed local representatives to various organizations, such as the Texas Assn. of School Boards.

Red Raider Day All Set

The Tahoka Red Raider Day barbecue and golf tournament for supporters of Texas Tech athletics will begin at noon Friday, with registration for the golf tournament which begins at 1 p.m.

Those who plan to play in the tournament at T-Bar Country Club should register at noon at the club so pairings for the 18-hole scramble tournament can be made in time to get started at 1 p.m., said Jimmy Bragg, tournament chairman and secretary of the Tahoka Red Raider Club.

"Non-members who want to join the Red Raider Club may play in the tournament," Bragg said. "Any non-members planning to play should also sign up at noon and pay their fee, which will make them members of the Tahoka Red Raider Club, and also will pay for their meal which follows the tournament."

Entertainment Sought For July 4th Celebration Here

Entertainment acts are being sought by the Chamberette July 4th Committee to perform at the Tahoka July 4th "Great American Blowout" celebration. "We urge anyone who wants to perform by singing, skits, or whatever to contact the Chamberettes," said Chloe Jan Wells, co-chairman of the celebration committee. "We are planning to have a fun-filled day with entertainment on stage, games for the children, ice cream and hot dogs, and a dance to finish off the day," she added.

Anyone who wants to entertain should contact Mrs. Wells at 998-4373 or Beth Huffaker at 998-4847. This year's theme is "The Great American Blowout" and there will be a bubblegum blowing contest for all ages to participate in. Area citizens are invited to bring their lawn chairs

District Judge Sentences Three Here

Three persons were sentenced after appearing before 106th District Judge George Hansard in Tahoka this week.

Pedro Rodriguez Jr., 24, of O'Donnell, was fined $650 and given a 60-day jail term on a hearing for revocation of his probation on a previous conviction.

Armandina Rodriguez, 40, of Tahoka, was sentenced to 60 days in state prison on a charge of delivering an alcoholic beverage to a penal institution. She was accused of bringing beer for a prisoner in Lynn County jail recently.

Juan Jose Vasquez, 39, of Wilson, was sentenced to 42 months in prison and fined $1000 on a charge of felony driving while intoxicated.

Among new incidents investigated this week by law enforcement officers was a report from Bennie Middleton, 10 miles west of O'Donnell on FM 2053 that someone had stolen a 3 hp Homelite motor and a Homelite pump from a water trailer at that location last Wednesday. The stolen items were valued at a total of $400.

Tahoka Police Dept. had a report from Santos B. Garza of Tahoka that someone had broken a window on a 1984 Oldsmobile Delta 88 which was parked on the west side of Thriftway Supermarket Sunday. Damage was estimated at $250.

In jail during the week were two persons for public intoxication, two for DWI, one for judgement and sentencing on aggravated assault, one for application to revoke probation on a DWI charge, two more for judgement and sentencing on DWI, and one for application to revoke probation for delivering alcoholic beverage to a penal institution and tampering with government records.

Jaycees Plan 'Tahoka Cares' Program Tuesday

The Lynn County Jaycees will have a "Tahoka Cares" program Tuesday, June 26, at 7:30 p.m. in the SPS Reddy Room. All interested persons are invited to attend and organizations are urged to send representatives to the meeting.

and enjoy an evening of visiting and entertainment. There will be an Ice Cream Freeze-Off for ladies (and men) to participate in by bringing their best home-made ice cream, which Chamberettes will then sell by the cup to help raise funds. Also, Chamberettes will run a concession stand to sell hot dogs, popcorn and cold drinks.

Children's games will be offered during the evening, and a volleyball net will be set up for use by anyone. A 400-tournament is in the planning stages, and other activities are still being planned. Celebration events are planned from 6 until 10 p.m.

A dance will be held on the tennis courts from 10 p.m. until midnight, open to anyone, but dancers must wear tennis shoes to participate, to prevent damage to the courts.

Public Notice

TO ALL FORMER AND CURRENT INTRASTATE WIDE AREA TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICE (WATS/800) SUBSCRIBERS:

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company has instituted a Class Action Lawsuit seeking judicial approval of a settlement reached in Docket No. 7297, an inquiry of General Counsel of the Public Utility Commission of Texas into possible overcharges which occurred between September, 1976, and February, 1987, due to rounding practices, on-bills of intrastate WATS/800 customers sent by Southwestern Bell and other telephone companies which concur in Southwestern Bell's tariff. The suit is styled "Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Plaintiff, vs. MCI Telecommunications Corporation, A Member of the Class of Texas Intrastate WATS and 800 Service Customers Who Paid Overtime Charges From September 1976 Through February 1987, Defendant," and identified as Cause No. 471,460 in the 126th Judicial District Court of Travis County, Texas.

Pursuant to the settlement, while not admitting liability, Southwestern Bell, the other local exchange telephone companies in Texas, and AT&T Communications of the Southwest, Inc. have agreed to pay refunds to those WATS/800 customers who paid overtime charges attributable to the rounding practices for intrastate WATS/800 services at any time between September, 1976, and February, 1987. The refunds will be based upon either the actual or estimated amount of overtime charges attributable to such rounding practices. An exact refund will be determined for customers able to produce copies of their WATS/800 service bills. For customers who do not have copies of their WATS/800 service bills to establish actual overtime charges paid, an average refund of $4.53 to $5.95 per WATS/800 service line per month will be applied. All claims will be subject to verification. The refunds will also include interest at the rate of 7.80% per annum.

Claim Forms And Additional Information

Those customers who think they may be entitled to a refund or who desire more information must call 1-800-782-3026, 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, or write to WATS Refund Pool Administrator, One Bell Plaza, Room 670, P.O. Box 650376, Dallas, Texas 75265-0376, to request a WATS Refund Information Package. The WATS Refund Information Package will contain further information regarding the lawsuit and eligibility for a refund, a description of documentation required to support a customer's claim for refund, and a refund claim form to be filled out and submitted requesting a refund. REQUESTING A WATS REFUND INFORMATION PACKAGE DOES NOT OBLIGATE YOU IN ANY WAY.

All claims for a refund must be received by the Refund Pool Administrator by Friday, October 5, 1990, and all rejections of the settlement (that is, requests for exclusion from the class action lawsuit) must be received by the Court by Wednesday, September 5, 1990. Only those who respond by filing a claim or by filing a rejection of the settlement, as explained in the WATS Refund Information Package, will receive notice of future developments in this proceeding.

Persons who wish to obtain further information may also contact the Public Utility Commission, Public Information Division, at (512) 458-0257 or (512) 458-1221, teletypewriter for the deaf.

etc. without realizing that they are being charged an extra fee for the call. The 900 number creates problems only when the consumer is not informed in a prominent manner that there is a charge for the call. That cost can range from 50 cents to $50 a minute. Several questionable 900 promotions are appearing in the South Plains. For example:

GOLD CARD: Local television stations are running ads that practically guarantee the caller that they will receive a Visa or Mastercard even if they have poor credit. If the viewer does not catch the fast scrolling disclaimer in small print, he will not realize that the call to apply for the card will cost him $49.95 on his phone bill.

TRIVIA CONTEST: One commercial on the Discovery Channel informs consumers that they can call a 900 number if they answer six questions they get $500. Small print on the screen states that the caller will be billed for $3 per minute. No telling how long it takes to try and answer the questions. The problem is, again, the near hidden disclaimer about the cost.

PRIZEWINNER FROM DME LTD: A post card to consumers informs them that they have won one of three prizes. All they have to do is call a 900 number to claim it. The small print on the card shows that the prize is a .24 point diamond dinner ring which is worth about $1. A .25 point diamond is 1/400 of a carat. Thusly, the consumer is making a $4.97 call to claim a $1 ring.

The most bizarre case with 900 numbers comes out of Seattle, Washington. Seems an enterprising host for a pre-schooler television show asked his audience if mom and dad were around. If not, they were told to pick up the telephone receiver. Following those instructions, the television emitted touch tone notes which were picked up by the telephone receiver. Presto, a 900 number is called and the parents never suspect their pre-schooler who cannot even dial a number.

BABIES THRIVE

Premature infants gently massaged for 15 minutes three times daily, gained weight 47% faster than other infants left alone in their incubator. The massaged infants seemed to mature more rapidly - they became more active, more responsive, and were released from the hospital 6 days earlier than the unmassaged infants. Fouching is so critical - its absence retards growth among infants deprived of it. Those hugs of affection that are good for emotional health, also neurologically stimulate physical growth.

Wilson News

Wilson's three majorettes recently competed in the state twirling competition in Austin. Stephanie Martin, Angela Young, and Michelle Young performed to "We Connect" and came home with a Division III for their efforts. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Woody and Mr. and Mrs. Lowen Young accompanied the twirlers to Austin.

Robin Woody performed a baritone solo at state accompanied on the piano by Onita Steinhauser and received a Division III rating. Just qualifying for state is an honor. Our congratulations go to these four young ladies for their hard work this year.

Eva Gickhorn, daughter of Lester and Sheri Gickhorn, competed at the state 4-H Roundup at Texas A&M University recently. Eva received 5th place in the Safety and Accident Prevention category with a method demonstration on food safety.

The high school honor roll for the 6th six weeks was announced this week by David Williams, superintendent. No one qualified for the "A" honor roll, but on the A-B Honor Roll were Daniel Ancira, Adrienne Caballero, Daniel Jones, Cody Means, Robin Wheeler, Jason Marshall, Jamie Raley, Gale Schneider, Loretta Abbe, Malinda Isham and Robin McCoy.

The 4-H Club has a busy summer ahead with lots of youth activities planned by the Extension office. The first is a tour of several small businesses in Slaton on June 21 where handmade articles are sold. Visits will be made at In The Pink, Hearts of Wood, Denim and Lace, Country Sampler and the Packing Plant. 4-H'ers need to bring $5 for lunch.

"Kids Week" will be a week of workshops and recreation. It is set for July 9-13 from 10 to 12 each morning at the First United Methodist Church in Tahoka. On Monday the topic will be First Aid; Tuesday is leather crafts (fee $12); Wednesday- T-shirts; Thursday- Kids cooking school (at Lyntegar); Friday- electric project ($8). Refreshments will be provided and reservations need to be made by Monday, July 2.

Each year the 4-H assistant leader moves up and a new assistant is named, Connie Donald will move up to club manager for the Wilson 4-H and Susan Wied will be the assistant. Thanks to Sheri Gickhorn for the time and effort she has put in this past year as club manager.

Cody and Casey Donald competed this weekend in Plainview at the Panhandle Parade of Breeds. They exhibited their registered Blonde d'Aquitaine heifers. Casey received Grand Champion while Cody received Reserve Grand Champion. Both received prize money, ribbons and plaques. They both plan to compete with their heifers this weekend in Amarillo at the Golden Spread classic.

The Wilson Board of Trustees met in regular session Thursday, June 14. The board approved an increase in the home economics travel allowance and made a decision concerning a teacher's 87-88 career ladder appeal. A retreat to Lake Brownwood was approved for the FFA/FHA officers for June 18-20. Summer maintenance was approved which includes carpeting the migrant room, painting the little gym, repairing some football bleachers, building lockers in the field house, and painting and repairing vacated school houses.

A contract with W.D. Wesley Company was approved for an energy management system for the school which is predicted to save $8,000 per year. Career ladder assignments were approved for 1989-90 school year. Qualifications for the high school principal were discussed and a salary set. A salary increase for aides, secretaries, administrators, custodians, maintenance personnel, bus drivers, and cafeteria workers was approved. Four new teachers were employed: Mary Anna Goldston, elementary special ed; Virginia Hohertz, high school special ed; Judith Carpenter, secondary math; and Alan Bryant Gregory, band director.
