

Three Planter Units Stolen

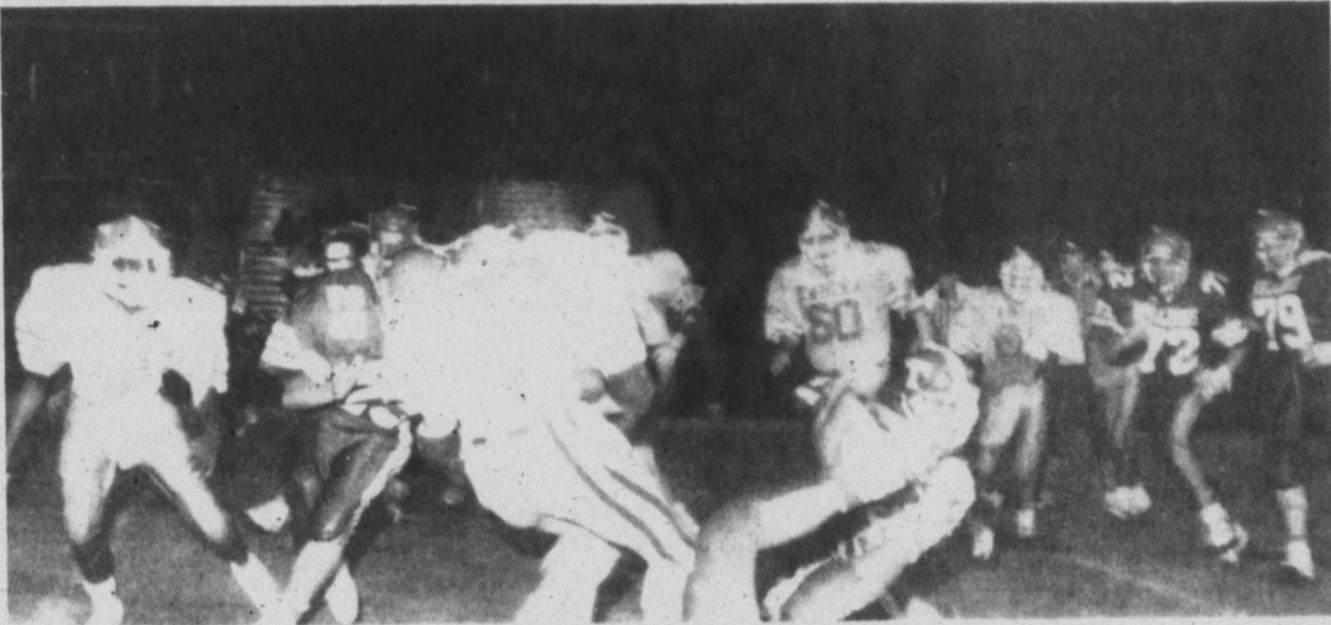

Three Bridger planter units were reported stolen last weekend from a farm about 14 miles northwest of Tahoka, according to owner Jimmy McCullough, who valued the stolen equipment at approximately $1500 in a report to the Lynn County Sheriff's Dept.

In jail during the week were six persons, on the following charges: public intoxication, driving while intoxicated, DWI second offense, criminal trespass, disorderly conduct and driving while license suspended plus failure to surrender suspended drivers license.

Tahoka police investigated a burglary of a motor vehicle reported Sunday by Mary Lou Aguilar who said someone had stolen two purses from her 1978 Oldsmobile which was parked at 1717 N. 5th. Reported missing was two purses, one tan leather with personal items belonging to Mary Aguilar and one black cloth purse with personal items belonging to Rosinda Alvarado. Police noted they have two suspects and charges were expected to be filed.

Bulldogs Lose 21-0, Face Ralls In District Opener

The Tahoka Bulldogs are hoping the Jackrabbits will be easier pickings this week than another bunch of Bulldogs were last Friday, as the Coahoma Bulldogs blanked Tahoka 21-0 on a rainy night in Coahoma.

The rain was a factor in the failure of the Tahoka offense, which has been mostly passing in the first three games of the year, and it didn't help when Coahoma's Mike Mendez returned the opening kickoff 90 yards for a touchdown. Mendez scored from the 1 later in the first quarter, and after that, the teams battled on even defensive terms until Coahoma scored again in the last period.

This week Tahoka will return to the friendlier setting of Kelley Field, hosting Ralls in the first district game of the season, for what should be a close game. Ralls found a lot of firepower in winning its first game of the year last week, bombing Roosevelt 38-14 on four touchdown passes by QB Juan Vasquez. Ralls earlier had lost to Spur 40-6 and Spur beat Tahoka 55-21.

Coach Joe Paradis said this week that Michael Jackson, injured in a pre-season scrimmage, has returned to the team and may see limited action against Ralls. Jackson is a junior running back, and linebacker who transferred to Tahoka from Lubbock Coronado and was being counted on as a starter before injuring an elbow in a scrimmage. He had not been expected to return to duty for two or three more weeks.

Tahoka's offense apparently missed the bus to Coahoma, as the Blue Dogs had just 12 yards rushing and completed one pass for 7 yards in the game, with only three first downs. Coahoma had only 9 first downs, but gained 269 yards.

Defensively the Bulldogs did better, led by Joey Stone, who had 5 solo tackles and 11 assists. Cruz Rivas was in on 10 tackles and Trey Nance and Jay Forsythe 9 each, with Michael Tipton and Daniel Garvin in on 8 tackles each.

Booth Spaces Still Available For Festival

by JUANELL JONES

Booth rental space is still available for the 15th Annual Lynn County Harvest Festival, slated Saturday, Oct. 13, according to booth chairmen Ann Roberts and Nadine Dunlap. "We have several booths rented already, but there is still plenty of space for more. We encourage anyone who is considering renting a booth space to contact us as soon as possible," they said.

Booths are rented on a first-come basis, at $15 per space. Contact Mrs. Roberts at 998-4938 or Mrs. Dunlap at 998-5135 for more information.

Entries are also needed for the Lynn County Fair which will be held in the former Heritage Furniture building on the square in downtown Tahoka. Charlsie Tekell, 998-5336, and Carol Botkin, 998-5300, are co-chairmen of the fair.

Tickets are being sold by Harvest Festival Queen and Princess contestants for a chance to win free bicycles, a Texas Tech weekend, and a trip for two to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico. Members of the Lynn County Unit of The American Cancer Society are selling tickets for chances to win a shotgun and a snake charmer, and the VFW Post 4336 in Tahoka is also selling tickets for a shotgun. All of these drawings will be held on the day of the festival.

The Lynn County Jaycees are sponsoring Cow Patty Bingo this year, with prizes of $500 and $100 cash to be given to the designated winner.

Area merchants will soon be visited by members of the Harvest Festival Committee to gather donations for the hourly merchants drawings. "The merchants in Lynn County have always, in the past, donated generously for the festival's hourly merchant drawings, and we appreciate their generosity very much," said Jay Dee House, chairman of the committee.

Children's games will be offered throughout the day of the festival, with ribbons awarded to all participants, and there will be a story-telling event where several local individuals will tell stories to children who gather under the tent. For the older but young-at-heart crowd, there will be a slipper kicking contest for women, and men are encouraged to enter the hairy leg contest. Booths will offer food, games and crafts, and the Arts and Crafts Fair will have home-crafted items and school art on display from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Booths which have already been rented include: CYO - candied apples, and a game; Sophomore Class - Dart Throw, Bake Sale, and Dance Contest; DECA - sell paintings by Tony Pena, and Sandhill Ski competition; Merý's - Flour Tacos; Junior Class - Dunking Booth; Senior Class - Ice Cream; and Bulldog Brew; Emma Jean Adamson - Ceramics; VFW - Pepsi and Frito Pie; Phebe K. Warner Club - Dr. Pepper, Coke and Iced Tea; Red Brown - Wood Crafts; and Rotary Club - Sausage on a Stick.

The day's activities will break at 5 p.m. so booths may be dismantled, and then a street dance will be held on the square from 8 p.m. until midnight. The Rotary Club booth will still be open during the street dance, as the club sponsors the dance and pays for the band.

The Queen and Princess contest will be held during the afternoon at the festival, and sponsors of the contest are seeking art work for the cover of the program which will be used during the ceremonies. Anyone may enter artwork by bringing their entry to Juanell Jones at the Lynn County News. All art work should be black and white (pen and ink, dark pencil, or charcoal) on a white sheet of paper, size 8-1/2 inches tall by 5-1/2 inches wide. All entries will be judged, and the winning entry will receive a gift from Chamberettes, who sponsor the Queen and Princess contests.

Entries are due by noon Friday, Oct. 5. This is the 15th anniversary of the Harvest Festival, and this theme should be kept in mind for the program covers.

Woodwork...

by Dalton

ALONG ABOUT the age of 14 or 15, a male person's voice changes, and he frequently is embarrassed because part of a sentence comes out in a deeper voice and part in a higher child-like voice. But soon the puberty change is complete and boys sound more man-like.

That's the way it is for most males, but for some reason it never did work that way for me. My voice never changed that much, and my humiliation has lasted a lifetime.

It happened again the other day when I placed a call to a government agency in Brownfield. I asked for a certain person, and the woman on the other end of the line said, "No, m'am, she is not here just now. May I take a message?"

I sighed resignedly because this happens to me all the time. I deliberately tried to lower my tone to a macho-type growl, and said "Tell her Dalton Wood called and please have her call me when she returns."

"Yes, m'am," she said sweetly. I should have said "Thank you, sir," but I didn't think of it until later.

Actually I hate my voice. I remember the first time I ever heard myself on tape, I considered not ever speaking again. It's squeaky, and I mumble, and it's so high I sound like a female, or some kind of fag.

Sometimes I wish I sounded like Frog Millhouse, and anybody who recognizes that name has been around a long time since puberty.

IF YOU HAVE $200,000 or so laying around unneeded, you may want to bid on a 1937 Rolls-Royce which will be one of many antique vehicles auctioned off at the Dallas Market Hall Nov. 17-18 when two days of sales will be conducted by Kruse International of Auburn, Ind., the world's largest collector car auction company.

Some of the cars to be sold are not really antiques; for example, there is a 1965 Chevrolet Impala Super Sport convertible. There also will be a 1926 Model T and 1930 Ford Model A and a 1957 Chevrolet Bel Air two-door hardtop among the 500 cars expected for the auction.

The vehicles will be on display to the public in the Market Hall throughout the weekend.

About four years ago we visited the antique cars on display by the Kruse firm in Auburn, Indiana. We saw some really nice old vehicles, including a Stanley Steamer.

Americans have a love affair with old cars (and new ones); there should be plenty of lookers in Dallas that weekend.

Casandra Tillman Wins Contest By Tiebreaker

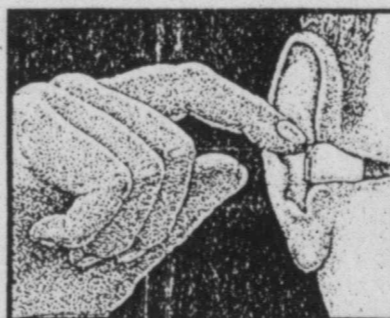

Casandra Tillman of Tahoka won the Lynn County News football contest by the tie-breaker score between Indianapolis and Houston to win the $5 prize in last week's entry. She missed three games, as did Devon Peasley, but was closer in guessing the score for the Oilers game than was Peasley. Houston won by a 14-point margin, and Ms. Tillman had picked Houston to win with a 13-point margin. Peasley had picked Houston with an 8-point margin.

The secret sponsor for the week was Lynn County Abstract, which would have given Ms. Tillman an extra $10 if she had named that sponsor.

Football contest entries are due by 5 p.m. Friday. Winners can pick up their $5 prize at the News Office.

R YOUR PHYSICIAN KNOWS BEST

Because you know a physician has to spend so many years at a medical school and internship in a hospital that he has knowledge about diseases and their treatment that you could not know. Because, when everyone but a physician selects a medicine to take, they usually do not treat the cause of the trouble but only try to stop the pain or discomfort.

Similar symptoms are often present in differing medical problems. A physician, aided by new diagnostic techniques, x-rays, urinalysis, etc., can find out what is causing your trouble and prescribe the one particular medicine he decides is best for you. That is why, if self-treatments do not help immediately, it is wise to go to a physician before a possible serious disease can develop.

Last Year's Winners At Harvest Festival Askews Enjoy Mexico Trip From Queen Ticket Drawing

by JUANELL JONES
 Contestants for this year's Harvest Festival Queen Contest are busy selling tickets for a chance to win a trip to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, which will be given away at a drawing at the 15th Annual Harvest Festival on Oct. 13 this year. Last year's winner of the trip was Arlys Askew of Tahoka, and he and his wife Christine traveled to the coastal resort spot during January of this year. The package deal included air fare and four nights hotel accommodations for two.

"We met some nice people and had a good time," said Mrs. Askew. On their first day, the couple boarded the Sarape Yacht for a Sunset Disco Cruise, although Mrs. Askew said they spent most of their time on deck as they did not care for disco music. They also enjoyed deep sea fishing, golfing and shopping while they were there.

"The day we went deep sea fishing, it was my birthday, and I told everybody that I wanted the first fish of the day," recalled Mrs. Askew. "I didn't even catch a fish. But there was a man from California who caught the first fish, and he insisted on giving it to me." Mrs. Askew and her husband had their picture made with the fish, and then Mrs. Askew gave it back to him. "I could tell he really wanted to keep that fish, and it was so nice of him, but what was I going to do with it anyway?" she laughed.

"Our hotel was nice. We had a room on the third floor and left our balcony doors open during the night. We were right on the beach, and could hear the waves breaking as the tide came in. It was very peaceful," she said.

"Arlys wore his Texas Tech cap, and one of the bellboys at the hotel was really impressed with it. He wanted to know if he could buy it from Arlys," said Mrs. Askew. "Of course, he would have given it to him, but the cap was already a little bit dirty, and we hated to give him a dirty cap, so we got his address and when we got home, Arlys mailed him a new cap," she said.

The Askews decided to stay a day longer in Puerto Vallarta than their package deal, and then traveled by plane to Guadalajara for a couple of days. "We traveled by Mexico Airlines, and that was a really nice airplane," said Mrs. Askew.

Mrs. Askew commented that one of the first things anyone traveling to Mexico should know is to have a passport and proof of U.S. citizenship. "You can't get back in (to the U.S.) without it!" she said. Also, she said she wished they had known a little more about the currency there. "We didn't know how to make change, or whether we were getting the correct change," she laughed.

The couple enjoyed their trip, "which nobody could believe cost us only $1!" Mrs. Askew said.

There are 13 Tahoka High School girls vying for the title of Harvest Festival Queen this year, and all are currently selling $1 tickets for another Puerto Vallarta trip. The winner of the trip can set a travel date.

Queen contestants are Darla Willis, Amy Wright, Christy Huffaker, Marla Wright, Cheryl Isbell, Terri Solomon, Jay Jay Wiseman, Jennie Wells, Joann Saldana, Misti Lobbon, Carrie Taylor, Mandy Duke and Misti Norwood. Mrs. Leah Taylor is chairman of the Queen committee.

The Queen contest is sponsored by Tahoka Chamberettes, who give a $100 check to the Harvest Festival Queen when she begins her college education. Last year's queen was Connie Parker, and Carrie Taylor was first runnerup.

Military Personnel From Area Listed

Several more names have been added to a growing list of names of military personnel who have families in Tahoka. These military personnel are in all branches of the armed forces, and most are on standby status for deployment to Saudi Arabia.

Added this week are Ed Wiseman, in the Marines; Davia Summers, in the Army; and Bryan Dean Warren and Roy L. Smith, both in the Navy. The list is being kept by Mrs. Janie Isbell, who began the ribbon program in Tahoka to remember the American military. Farm Loan Mediation Available

The Texas Agricultural Loan Mediation Program at Texas Tech University recently was recertified by the U.S. Department of Agriculture to assist agricultural borrowers and creditors in reaching mutually agreeable solutions to distressed loan situations.

Gary Condra, project leader for the program, said that since the establishment of the Agricultural Loan Mediation Program in December 1988, the program has handled more than 200 cases.

"Nearly two-thirds of these cases have resulted in voluntary agreements, avoiding foreclosure, bankruptcy or other litigation," he said.

Condra said any farm or ranch borrower or creditor can initiate a request for the services of the program by contacting the Agricultural Loan Mediation Program offices at (806) 742-1949.

With the recertification, Condra announced a reorganization of the program staff. Carter Snodgrass was promoted to the position of director of the program.

Commercial Drivers License Project Starts

The Department of Public Safety is making preparations to license approximately one million commercial drivers in Texas. On Sept. 17, DPS began uniform testing for all currently licensed commercial and bus drivers.

All commercial motorists who drive vehicles in excess of 26,000 pounds or transport hazardous materials that require the vehicle to be placarded are required to have a commercial drivers license (CDL) by April 1, 1992. Bus drivers, including school bus and church bus drivers, who drive buses designed to carry 16 or more passengers, including the driver, will also be required to obtain a CDL by the same date.

Exempt from the CDL requirements are farmers, when they are driving within 150 miles of their farm, military personnel, recreational vehicle operators, and fire fighters when operating fire fighting vehicles or equipment.

Commercial drivers who must carry the new CDL's cannot renew their current licenses due to expire between Sept. 17, 1990 and April 1, 1992. They should plan to visit the DPS Driver License offices for CDL testing at least one month before the expiration date.

To ensure that all commercial drivers in Texas who must have the CDLs obtain them in time to avoid penalties, the DPS troopers are urging them to visit the Driver License offices as soon as they have studied the CDL handbook. CDL license fee is $40, less $4 for each year of validity remaining on current Texas driver license. Free CDL handbooks are available at all of the offices.

Cushman Scooter Enthusiasts Set For Area Rally

Cushman scooter enthusiasts will meet for a two-day rally at Draw Saturday and Sunday, with about 50 visitors from out of the area expected, according to local rally sponsors, including Dan Taylor, Joe Bryan and Curtis Whitley of Tahoka. A large number of restored Cushman scooters will be ridden and displayed during the rally, which actually begins Friday evening with an "early bird cookout" and ride from the rally headquarters at Draw. There will be other cookouts and rides over the weekend, and also a dove hunt.

Some of the visitors will stay in campers, others will stay in a farm house, according to the sponsors. There also will be scooter games, horseshoes, volleyball and other entertainment.

Letter To Editor

On behalf of the Tahoka High School football team, I would like to take this time to thank you, the community, for your support and words of encouragement, win or lose. Driving three hours to sit and watch a game while being soaking wet from continuous rain, really shows the support of the Tahoka Bulldogs. Not only from parents and members of the community, but kids in grade school who take time to adopt a player and cheerleader and provide special recognition and treats weekly. Most people don't think their support at the games is noticed or appreciated, but every player knows who is in the stands during every ball game.

Thanks and please continue the support for the Tahoka Bulldogs in their defeat over the Ralls Jackrabbits Friday the 28 in the district opener here at Kelly Field at 7:30 p.m.

DIRECTORS ELECTION

The Lynn County Soil & Water Conservation District will hold its ANNUAL DIRECTORS ELECTION on Thursday, October 4, 1990 at the Lions Club meeting at Wilson, Texas.

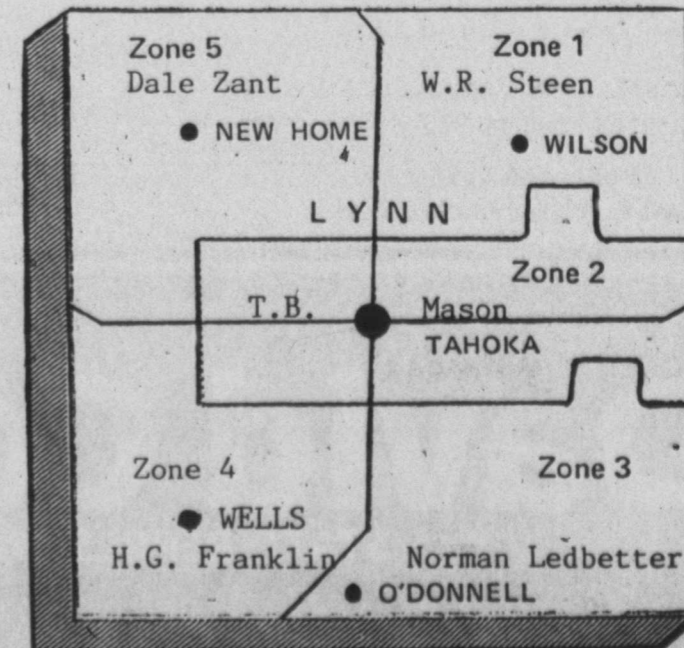

The meeting, which will start at 7:00 p.m. with the election held immediately after the meal and program, will be at the Wilson School Cafeteria.

State law decrees that to be eligible to vote in a soil and water conservation district directors election, a person must own agricultural land within the district where the election is being held. The person must also live in a county all or any part of which is in the district, and the voter must be 18 years old. Both husband and wife are eligible to vote, so we invite the ladies to attend this meeting and vote.

Legal qualifications state that a candidate for the office of a soil and water conservation district must own land in the zone he represents, be 18 years of age, and be actively engaged in farming or ranching. He must also live in a county all or part of which is in the district. Soil & Water Conservation District Directors serve four year terms of office.

The sketch below shows the zones or subdivisions within Lynn County. A director will be elected from Zone 1 and Zone 2. Presently serving for Zone 1 is W.R. Steen of Wilson and T.B. Mason of Tahoka for Zone 2.

If you have any questions, please call Helen Saldana at 998-4622.

Klondike Turns Back New Home

The New Home Leopards fell to 0-3 Friday night as visiting Klondike romped to a 38-6 triumph in six-man action. Klondike opened scoring with a one-yard touchdown run by Andy Guerry in the first quarter and a 50 yard TD pas from Serrato to Guerra made it 12-0. New Home made the game closer in the second quarter on a 15-yard pass from Blaine Fillingim to Lanny Zant to make it 12-6 at halftime. The Leopards had trouble in stopping the Cougar offense in the second half as Klondike scored 15 points in the third quarter and added another score in the final period. The Leopards will try and bounce back this Friday at Sands.

Out of the Woods

The wayward thoughts of Juanell (Wood) Jones

As promised, here it is: the complete guide to cleaning your kitchen (or if you're lucky, somebody else's kitchen who is tidier than you). First of all, go buy some shelf contact paper to line all your cabinets. Toss these rolls casually around the kitchen in inconvenient places, where you have to move them everytime you want something. Make sure your husband asks what they are for - this will ensure him asking every few days if you are really going to use them.

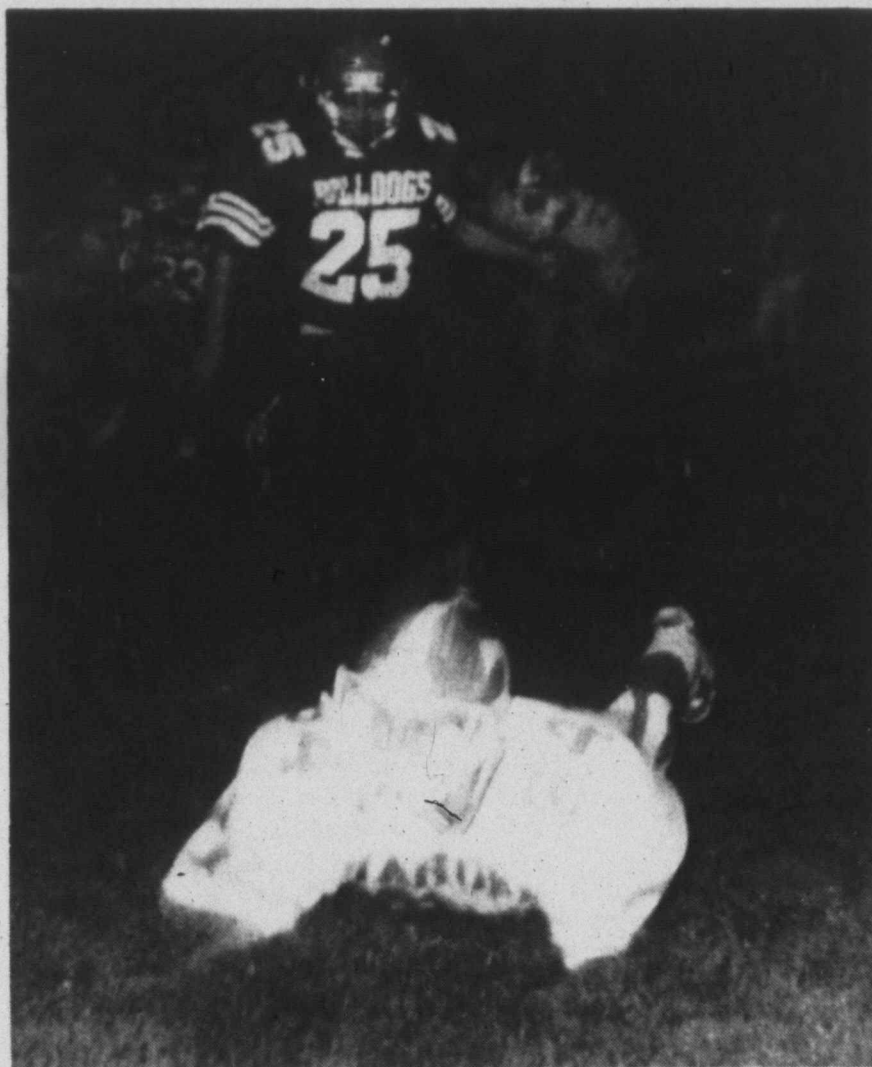

My rolls of contact paper have been in my kitchen for three weeks now. My husband and I take turns moving them from one spot to another, and I think my children are wondering what kind of game this is. Today, one roll is near the toaster, a couple have rolled over next to the telephone, and one keeps interfering with the kids reaching for the cookie jar.

I keep hoping that one day these rolls will get tired of being in the way and will jump up into my cabinets and drawers out of sheer boredom. I'll let you know if I see any signs of movement.

You see, the problem is, you can't start lining shelves and drawers until the rest of the kitchen is clean. It's just not feasible to empty drawers and shelves when there is no cabinet space to set things on. I keep trying to clear things away, but I think utensils and dirty dishes are reproducing back in the corner where I can't see them. They have a nasty habit of doing this when the woman of the house is away for an evening. She comes in after several hours (or even minutes) away from home, and asks why the kitchen is such a mess. The husband looks around in surprise and says, "Beats the heck out of me. I didn't mess up anything."

The children, naturally, didn't do anything either. The first words they learned, I think, was "I didn't do it." So, I have irrefutable scientific proof that one kitchen mess can beget another. Remember the "begets" in the Bible? It was an extremely long process, where the "beget" family takes over an entire chapter, or something like that, wasn't it?

GROUNDING—Cody Bailey (84) of Tahoka is down, but not out, in the game last week against Coahoma.

Anyway, now we got your contact paper cluttering up the cabinets, and your dirty forks begetting dirty spoons, your dirty plates begetting little saucers, and big ugly frying pans begetting pots and pans by the minute. It's a dirty battle to keep up with this reproduction system, but somebody's got to do it. I wonder who that is? Oh yeah. That's my job.

At about this point, your refrigerator may start making ugly noises. Sometimes this is due to the "green mildew" syndrome which can strike leftover food at any time, usually just before you are ready to serve it again. Anytime you hear any rumbling noises from your refrigerator, check the leftover tuna fish - this is notorious for coming to life when you least expect it. "Green mildew" syndrome can spread quite rapidly, so please run, not walk, to the nearest dumpster for a speedy solution. One hand should carry the offensive little bowl of leftovers, while the other hand should be at face level, grasping the nostrils so as to prevent any mildew molecules from finding their way into your nose. Mildew is not known for its pleasant olfactory sensations.

Our refrigerator made a new noise the other night - one of these noises that brings you and your husband running to find out who did what. After a short consultation in the kitchen, we determined the noise was indeed coming from the refrigerator. We stood, united, in front of the refrigerator and agreed we couldn't afford to buy another refrigerator at this point in our lives, and we'd better do something pronto about this noise. My husband and I, by the way, are not known as handy-men around the house. That's why we have my mother - she can fix anything.

So anyway, we stood there worrying and clasping our hands, and decided to do "something" about it ourselves. So my husband... now, don't laugh... he opens the door to the refrigerator and we gaze into it, seeking wisdom. We take turns peering into the freezer section and refrigerator section, and nothing seems amiss. The noise, however, is still occurring. So he starts tapping lightly on the back wall of the refrigerator. I am smiling encouragingly, should he happen to glance back (that's my job). He continues the tapping, both in the refrigerator and freezer sections, and then for good measure, he closes the doors and puts both arms around the refrigerator and jiggles it.

By now, the noise has stopped. We smile gleefully at each other, proud of our repair job. This was four days ago, and since then we have heard that noise once. It quit, however, when we ran into the kitchen and glared menacingly at the refrigerator and made threatening noises at it.

At this point, I am tired of spending any time in the kitchen, and decide that it looks clean enough to me. So I pop some popcorn, my husband turns on

Girls Volleyball Team Travels To Lubbock

Lady Bulldog volleyball team members traveled to Lubbock to participate in the Lubbock Christian Tournament, Saturday, Sept. 22.

After losing the first game of match one against Three Way 6-15, the Lady Bulldogs came charging back to take the next two games.

Chasity Hood led all scores with 14 service points. Jennie Wells and Lana Parker each had 7.

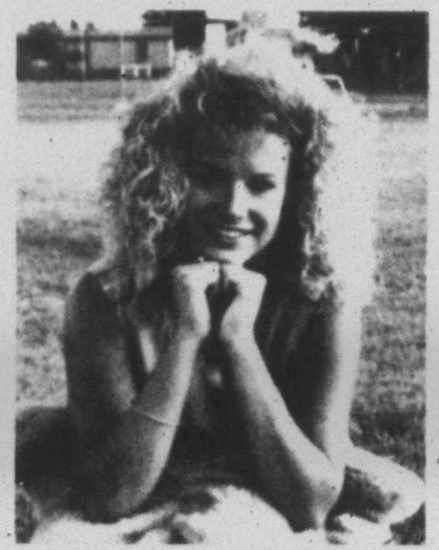

In the second match Lubbock Christian came out on top 4-15. The second LCHS game was over before it started and ended 0-15.

"After suffering such a let down, I was really impressed with our ability to overcome the shock of not scoring a point, to playing such a great third match and having a chance to win," said Coach Qualls.

In the third match, Tahoka took on Trinity Christian of Lubbock. Trinity won two games, 12-15 and the VCR, and we settle down for a good movie. If somebody else wants to clean the kitchen, that's fine with me.

This cleaning technique, by the way, has worked well for me for over 12 years. I don't see why it shouldn't work for you as well.

CHRISTY HUFFAKER
Volleyball
Player of the Week

11-15.

"As well as playing smart, the girls were really aggressive throughout the whole tournament. These two things are an improvement over what we have done in the past."

Christy Huffaker was named Most Valuable Lady Bulldog Player of the tournament by Coach Qualls, who pointed out that her spirit and show of leadership were keys to her award.

Card Of Thanks

We would like to thank everyone for the love and concern shown us during Dub's recent hospital stay and the death of his mother.

Special thanks to Rev. Danny Jackson and the gracious members of Sweet Street Baptist Church and Dr. Wright, the hospital staff and staff at Tahoka Care Center. Many thanks for the prayers, calls, visits, flowers, food and cards.

May God bless each of you!
Dub and Darlene Gurley

Thanks friends, for visits, cards, flowers, food, calls and prayers while I was in the hospital and since I have been home.

Our thanks to Dr. Wright and the staff of nurses who so willingly attended to my every need. To the EMS team who so promptly answered our call, we thank you so much.

Thanks to everyone who had anything to do with the blood drive given in my name last week. To those who gave, also those who signed but for different reasons, could not give, I thank you from the bottom of my heart. It is such a humbling experience and is a kindness that can hardly be repaid only maybe by remembering the efforts and compassion felt by each of you.

Thanks so very much.
Clyde and Winnie Spruiell and family

CLIP OUT & BRING TO LYNN COUNTY NEWS BY 5 P.M. THIS FRIDAY

Here's How To Win ...

OFFICIAL RULES

- Using a pen or pencil, place an X in the box nearest the teams you pick to win the games. Then, pick an actual score for the game designated as the tie-breaker.
- Choose one sponsor's name from among the businesses listed, and write it in the designated blank. Each week, the Lynn County News will draw the name of a sponsor to determine the Secret Sponsor.
- Mail or bring your entries to The Lynn County News, at 1617 Main Street in Tahoka, or P.O. Box 1170, Tahoka, TX 79373. Mailed-in entries must be postmarked by Thursday to be eligible, and entries brought in to the News Office must be received by 5 p.m. Friday preceding the games listed on the ballot. Acceptable football contest entries are those that are actually clipped from the Lynn County News. Copies of the entry ballot will not be accepted.
- Each week's winner will be determined by the number of winning teams correctly picked. If more than one person picks the largest number of winners, the person who picks closest to the actual score on the tie-breaker will be the winner.
- The winner will receive $5.00 from The Lynn County News. If the winner has also chosen the correct Secret Sponsor, he/she will be awarded an additional $10.00.
- Winners will be announced ONLY through the Tahoka football full-page advertisement in this newspaper. Do not call the Lynn County News to inquire about the outcome. Winners' names will not be given out over the telephone.
- To receive your prize money, the winner should personally come by The Lynn County News. Do not send someone to collect your prize money for you.
- Employees and immediate families of The Lynn County News are not eligible to win. The News reserves the right to disqualify, for cause, any or all entries, and maintains the right to cancel the contest at any time without prior notice or announcement. Judges' decisions are final.
