Six Hurt In Two Wrecks With International Flavor

Six persons were injured in two vehicle accidents in Lynn County during the last week, and the investigating highway patrolman had some communications problems as two of the victims spoke only German and two in another wreck spoke mostly Spanish.

On Thursday morning at West Point Gin, intersection of U.S. 380 and FM 179 about 15 miles west of Tahoka, a 1989 Chevrolet driven by Bradley Harris, 28, of Lamesa and a 1992 Chevrolet rental car driven by Karl-Heinz Montag, 53, of Offenbach, Germany, collided, injuring both drivers and their wives. Burgheld Montag, 50, was treated and released at Lynn County Hospital, where all were taken at first. Bradley and Cindi Harris, 21, were moved to Lubbock Methodist Hospital and later released, and Montag was transferred to University Medical Center and later released.

The Montags speak no English and were in the U.S. on a five-day tourist visit. A Wilson man who speaks fluent German was summoned to Tahoka to talk with the couple.

Members of Tahoka Volunteer Fire Dept. used the Jaws of Life to free Mrs. Harris from their car.

A second accident occurred Saturday morning 4.1 miles south of Tahoka on U.S. 87, where a 1982 Ford box van driven by Guillermo Gabaldon, 43, overturned after a front tire blew out. Gabaldon and a passenger, Humberto Medrano, 52, were treated and released at Lynn County Hospital. Both men are from Pecos; neither spoke much English, according to the investigating officer.

The van was owned by Geophysical Systems Corp. of Pasadena, CA and was loaded with electronic equipment, much of which was scattered over the scene after the van rolled over once.

Tahoka Hosts Spur In Football Opener

The Tahoka and Spur Bulldogs will square off in the opening game of the 1992 football season at Kelley Field starting at 8 p.m. Friday. With Spur ranked high among the state's Class A football teams, Tahoka fans should find out pretty fast how good this year's Blue and White Dogs will be.

Tahoka's new head coach, Chris Wigington, will throw I and Wing-T formations against Spur, with a backfield of sophomore quarterback Wes Solomon, running backs Brian Moore and René Luna and slot back Chris Montez operating behind a fairly large offensive line in which Wigington has high hopes.

Last week the Bulldogs came out 1-1 in a scrimmage against Hart at Hale Center, and Coach Wigington said Tahoka's youngsters did a good job.

"We're anxious to play Friday night and see how we're going to do," he said.

Bulldog Booster Club and the team are hoping for a good turnout of fans for the opening game here, and a tailgate party is planned to get fans out early.

Out of the Woods
The wayward thoughts of Juanell (Wood) Jones

It's time once again for my annual football column, which I know females have been waiting for with baited breath, and males have been dreading. What's "baited breath" anyway?

This column will be an educational endeavor, in that I will attempt to explain various phrases in "Football Referee Lingo" -- sort of like Pig Latin, only more confusing.

For those of you who understand even less about football than I do (hard to believe), a referee is a person forced to wear zebra striped shirts and make "calls" which induce varying degrees of anger and frustration from players, coaches and fans. These "calls" are always accompanied by a system of body motions that tell people other than me what was wrong with the play in the first place.

Some of these calls include:

• Touchdown - a word that everyone knows means a player has crossed the goal line carrying the ball, but the word actually makes no sense whatsoever. I think we should call it Cross-Over or Touchgoal.

• Illegal Use of Hands and Arms - I have no idea what this means, but would guess that players can't grab the ball and stuff it up a sleeve so that nobody can find it, which is a pity because it would make the game more interesting.

• Personal Foul - something a player does which, if the referee catches him doing it, makes the referee mad enough to blow his whistle and make some more confusing arm motions. I haven't a clue as to what this might be, but if an opponent makes a touchdown against my team then I would consider that "foul."

• Illegal Motion or Shift - something which a player can get thrown in jail for? Does he get a free call? Can he finish the game first?

• Pass Interference - Some idiot on the other team got in the way of our players trying to throw the ball to each other. I firmly believe in Pass Interference, as long as it's only called on the other team.

• Two-Minute Warning - Okay, I know this isn't actually a referee's call, but it is a very important part of the game. It means there are only two minutes left to buy popcorn before they close the concession stand, and you'd better hurry over there.

So, I'll see you at the game Friday night, right? If you sit next to me I'll explain the play-by-plays.

Hey, Elliott, in the press box -- you need any help announcing the game?

FRYING UP FISH - Members of the Tahoka Volunteer Fire Dept. worked Saturday evening frying up fish and fries for their annual fundraiser. A good crowd turned out for the event. (LYNN COUNTY NEWS PHOTO)

Booster Club To Paint Dog Paws; Host Tailgate Parties

Bulldog Booster held its first meeting of the season on August 26 and voted to paint paw prints on the streets and, for $5 per print, will paint paws in driveways. Painting will be done Saturday, Sept. 5 at 8 a.m. Anyone who would like to help, please meet at the corner of Lockwood and Avenue Q. Those wishing to have paw prints painted in their driveways, call JoElla Rash at 998-5425.

To boost game attendance and spirit, the Booster Club will host a tailgate party before each home game. The club will serve up "some Bulldog spirit" in the form of fajitas, hamburgers or desserts adjacent to the north ticket office before the game.

Bulldog fans who come dressed in school colors of blue and white will be able to buy food for $1; cost will be $2 for those not dressed in school colors. This is NOT intended as a fund-raiser but as a SPIRIT RAISER and the Booster Club invites everyone out before each home game to enjoy food and get "fired up" for the ballgame.

Tailgate parties will start at 6 p.m. each home game and end at kick-off time. Following the Band Boosters supper at September 11 and the NHS supper on October 2, the Booster Club will serve desserts at the tailgate parties.

Bulldog Boosters support student athletes with enthusiasm, pride, positive attitudes, respect, and material improvements to start a "change reaction."

Plans Underway For Tahoka's Annual Harvest Festival Oct. 3

The 17th annual Lynn County Harvest Festival, sponsored by Tahoka Chamberettes, Tahoka Chamber of Commerce, Tahoka Rotary Club and Lynn County Jaycees, has been scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 3.

The Harvest Festival Committee has met twice to discuss plans for the festival, and several chairmen have been appointed to different events.

Dustie Cook is booth chairman this year, and anyone interested in reserving a booth space for the all-day event should contact her at 998-5518 (work) or 998-4318 (home).

Mr. and Mrs. J.D. House are co-chairmen of the merchant drawings, and anyone who would like to volunteer to collect prizes from merchants is asked to contact them at 998-5150.

The annual queen and princess contests will again be sponsored by Tahoka Chamberettes, and all young ladies interested are encouraged to participate. Contest chairmen are Leah Taylor and Rebecca Ingel.

Winners in the princess contest are determined by ticket sales, and finalists in the queen contest are determined by ticket sales plus several other factors, including poise and personality in judges' interviews.

Queen and princess contestants will soon begin selling tickets for chances to win a trip for two to a Caribbean destination, a Texas Tech weekend with tickets to the Tech vs. Texas game and suite accommodations at the Holiday Inn Civic Center, and two bicycle drawings. All contestants will receive their tickets next week, and will sell them up through the day of the Harvest Festival.

Also selling tickets in conjunction with the Harvest Festival will be members of the Lynn County Jaycees, who are again sponsoring the Cow Patty Bingo contest.

The Harvest Festival Committee, in conjunction with the Tahoka High School Student Council, will conduct a bubblegum toss at the Homecoming football game Friday night before the festival, with a drawing to be held at the festival for those who find a number written on a slip of paper in with their bubblegum.

Also, special give-aways will be held for children under the age of five, who can register at the festival.

This year's Lynn County Fair will be held in a different location, in the former Balloons & Flowers building at 1644 Main Street. A chairman has not yet been named for the fair, but will be announced soon.

The festival committee will have several more meetings in the upcoming weeks. Suggestions for activities are welcome, and anyone interested may join the committee and attend the meetings.

Kelley Field Named After 1949 Classmate

Tahoka High School's Kelley Field will open its gates once again for the 1992 football season this Friday night. The field was named in honor of Delwyn Kelley, a sophomore student and football player at THS in 1949, who died late in the football season that year.

Kelley, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Vernon Kelley, died at 2 p.m. on a Friday afternoon in November following an emergency appendicitis operation in the Tahoka Hospital. He was a 147-pound guard on the Bulldog football team, and his grief-stricken teammates faced a football game that evening against a tough Seagraves team. The stunned Bulldog team lost 38-0 before a Seagraves homecoming crowd that night.

The team served as pallbearers at Kelley's funeral the next day, and in 1950 the school voted to name the new stadium, previously known for a couple of years as Foust Field, in his honor. The stadium seats about 2,500 people.

Kelley's father, Vernon, has since died, and his mother, Veda, still resides in Tahoka.

Lee Richard and Sherry Holden of Abernathy announce the birth of their son, Dylan Lee-Calyin Holden, on Aug. 27, 1992 at 3:55 p.m. at University Medical Center in Lubbock. He weighed 6 lbs., 12 oz. and was 21 inches long.

Grandparents are Lee and Judy Holden of Tahoka and Max and Betty Martin of Abernathy. Great-grandparents are Milt and Omega Uzzle of Tahoka.

Local Couple's Son-In-Law Is Gin Manager Where Bush Visited

Randy Kennedy, manager of the Shallowater Co-Op Gin where President George Bush was to visit Wednesday, is the son-in-law of Lester and Ann Adams. His wife, Jana, graduated from Tahoka High School.

A presidential advance team arrived in Lubbock last Sunday to prepare the Shallowater gin for the visit by the president, when Bush was expected to discuss disaster payment information with the region's cotton farmers.

Bush was expected to fly in at Reese Air Force Base between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. yesterday and then proceed to the nearby gin to make his speech.

Kennedy said he and other employees of the cotton gin were busy with their own preparations for the presidential visit, cleaning and making it presentable. "But we're not painting things or anything. It's a working gin, although it doesn't look like we're going to gin any cotton this year," he added.

The region's cotton crop has been devastated this year by inclement weather, and acreage losses across the High Plains stand at an all-time high.

Gov. Ann Richards has asked Bush to issue a disaster declaration that would make assistance available to workers and businesses hurt by the losses in 12 counties.

Kennedy said co-op members are predicting they will harvest only about 3,000 bales from their 1992 acreage, and that opening the gin may not be feasible this year. Last year, 16,800 bales of cotton were ginned at the Shallowater Co-Op Gin.

Concession stand sign-up sheet is available at the Cotton Boll or contact Connie Donald. Another meeting was held on Sept. 1 at 7 p.m. for further discussion of the various projects.

Anyone interested in joining the Mustang Booster Club is invited to attend club meetings on Tuesday evenings at 7 p.m. in the school lunchroom. Membership dues are $10 per family. Everyone interested in the many different UIL activities the Wilson ISD students are involved in are encouraged to join the booster club.

As fund raising projects, the Mustang Booster Club will be selling Mustang caps, seat cushions and spirit frames. The Booster Club is also selling 6-Man Football Magazines. Contact Lester Gickhorn or Connie Donald if you are interested in purchasing any of these items.

The Mustang Booster Club would like to invite the public to attend "Meet the Mustangs" following the football game against Wellman on Sept. 4. Introduction of the Mustang football team, band, and cheerleaders will be made. Refreshments will follow.

District 4-A 6-Man officials have decided to give all senior citizens who attend 4-A football games a financial break. Beginning with the first home game all seniors citizens who request it, will be given a pass which will entitle them to enter any district 4-A football game "free of charge".

Monday, Sept. 7, will be a school holiday for all Wilson ISD students.

The Wilson 4-H club met on Aug. 31 at 7 p.m. in the school cafeteria. There were 34 members in attendance with two new members signing up. There were also 20 adults in attendance for the meeting. The highlight of the meeting was a pot-luck meal prepared by many of the adults in attendance. "Thank you to all the adults involved in cooking the meal."

Plans were made for several upcoming projects which include a float for the homecoming parade and a booth in the Fall festival.

Wilson 4-H decided to participate in the "Adopt-a-Highway" program for the next two years. This is a program whereby various groups of people sign up with the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation to maintain and keep clean a two mile stretch of public highway. In return for keeping the right-of-way clean for the two year period, the state puts up signs on either end of the two-miles giving credit to the group or organization that has volunteered to keep Texas clean.

The Wilson Mustangs begin this year's football season Friday, Sept. 4 at 7:30 p.m. when they meet the Wellman Wildcats in a non-district game.

The Wilson Mustangs, who are picked fourth in the district by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, will return 11 of 15 lettermen.

Of the 11 returning lettermen, nine are starters on either the offensive or defensive team. The A-J lists three Mustangs as possible All-state candidates. They are Adam Castillo, Ramon Valdez, and Albert Riojas.

The Mustangs got off to an excellent start last year but injuries plagued the team in the middle of the season, and they didn't do well after losing several important players to major injuries. This year, if they stay away from the injuries, they have a chance to become a district contender.

Wilson's annual homecoming will be held Sept. 11, when the Mustangs meet the Whitarral Panthers. There will be a parade and pep rally on Thursday, Sept. 10. Prior to the game, on Friday, the Wilson Lions Club will serve a bar-b-que meal in the school cafeteria.

For information on the various class reunions and for information on parade entries contact Mr. Wright, at the High School for all the details.

Monday, Sept. 4, has been designated as "All-School Open House" for the Wilson ISD. That evening all parents and their children are invited to come by the school and visit with the teachers and administrators.

This would be a perfect time to find out all about the new program that has Wilson ISD working together with Texas Tech University. This is the program wherein the Wilson School System a "Professional Development School."

Wilson ISD is your school and this is one of the ways that you can see what is going on and how your tax dollars are being spent.

Letter To The Editor

Editor,
"You have muscular dystrophy." What a tragic diagnosis. When you realize that there is no known cure and the prognosis is bleak, you feel helpless. But there is hope.

Thank God for Jerry Lewis and the MDA (Muscular Dystrophy Association). The MDA provides money for research and patient services for individuals with any one of 40 neuromuscular diseases. A person doesn't realize what the MDA means to "Jerry's Kids" until they or someone in their family has a disease that is covered by the MDA.

Be sure to watch the upcoming telethon.

RC&D Council Offers Opportunities For Grants On Variety Of Projects

by JUANELL JONES

In the last three months, the Lynn County News has reported on meetings of the newly organized Lynn County Committee of the Wes-Tex Resource Conservation and Development (RC&D) Council, from the organizational stages through the regular monthly meetings, reporting on projects in progress and proposed projects throughout the county. Yet, ask anyone in the area (with the exception of the 16 sponsors) what RC&D is, and most likely the response will be a blank expression and a shrug of the shoulders.

The bottom line, for most citizens, is not what the RC&D is, but rather what it can do for them. The answer is: Lots of things. For instance, other Texas RC&D Councils, through funding obtained through various grant sources, are involved in current projects such as:

- Tulia Tree Planting Project - The city of Tulia in the High Plains RC&D Area is involved in a tree planting project. Involved in the project are the RC&D Council, Soil Conservation Service, Tule Creek SWCD and the Tulia Public Schools. Over 100 cottonwood trees were planted along the main street to beautify the city of Tulia.

- School Beautification Project - In the Wes-Tex RC&D, assistance is being sought by the Hale County City Council with a grant search for a school beautification program.

- Firefighting Communications Equipment - The Sweetwater Creek Fire Fighters Assn. recently received communications equipment from Chevron worth approximately $90,000, benefiting the 18 fire departments in the association. This gift and a $10,000 grant from the Texas Forest Service will improve communications among the 18 fire departments. The North Rolling Plains RC&D Council helped organize the association.

- City of Spur Park Development - The RC&D Coordinator has provided assistance in renovating the Spur City Park. Improvements will include the renovation of the bath house, showers, rest rooms, storage area, water treatment plant, and an old swimming pool. Other improvements will include walking paths, picnic areas, recreation equipment and park landscaping. Private funds along with Texas Parks and Wildlife Dept. funds are being applied to the renovation project.

- Showbarn Arena Area Improvement - County officials and an RC&D coordinator are working on plans to construct a new arena, picnic area, and playground area adjacent to the King County livestock show barn. The project will require land acquisition and private and public funds are anticipated to be used in the project.

- RV Park and Lions Club Park - The City of Refugio recently learned they will receive almost $500,000 in funding to assist with construction of an RV park and improvements to the Lions Club Park. The funding is being provided by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Dept.

- Dry Hydrants - Many fire departments throughout Texas are receiving funding from the Texas Forest Service through the RC&D to install dry hydrants for fire department use. Tahoka Fire Dept. is seeking funding for adaptation measures for four irrigation well sites throughout Lynn County for use by area fire departments.

- Anson Baseball Field Completed - Roger Huber, Superintendent of the Anson I.S.D., requested assistance in developing a baseball field for the school. Through RC&D assistance, the SCS staff made the initial survey, did the field layout and supervised construction based on an architect's design. This is the second baseball field completed with Big Country RC&D assistance — the baseball field for the Loraine School was completed last fall.

- Agri-Business Park - The RC&D Council is working closely with the Bexar County Local Development Corp. to develop an agri-business park. The park would serve as a business incubator in south Bexar County and surrounding counties. This will be a focal point for ag-related businesses to develop markets and focus on value added products.

RC&D Objectives

Each RC&D area has its own goals and objectives but most aim to:

- Place greater emphasis on creating jobs, providing community services, and community facilities to improve the quality of life in rural areas.

- Promote expansion of existing industries and promoting new industries to locate in the area.

- Promote improved rural standards of living through economic and rural development.

- Improve local and extended marketing of crops, livestock and forest products.

- Improve existing facilities and bring to the area needed community facilities such as schools, hospitals, waste treatment facilities, roads and other needed facilities.

- Develop land and water resources for agricultural, municipal, recreational, wildlife and industrial land use.

- Improve and expand recreational facilities, promote and protect historic sites and scenic attractions.

- Install measures for critical area treatment and flood prevention.

How Does It Work?

USDA agencies cooperate to help local sponsors plan and carry out the RC&D Area program with assistance from other federal, state, and local agencies. To participate, local sponsors (joining with an annual fee of $25) meet to determine worthwhile projects, and begin grant-seeking procedures.

The Soil Conservation Service provides an RC&D Coordinator, who is Dan Henson, District Conservationist with the Morton SCS, for the Wes-Tex RC&D. Henson works with each county committee and the 16-member Wes-Tex Board of Directors (one representative from each county) to assist in the grant-search process.

Grants may come from federal, state and local agencies, private corporations and individuals, and may require matching funds through money, equipment or labor. Once the initial paperwork is completed, engineering specifications, cost projections and other technical information may be required by various funding sources.

Who Are Lynn County Sponsors?

Any person, business or organization in Lynn County may become a sponsor of the Wes-Tex RC&D by paying a $25 annual fee and attending monthly meetings. A newsletter will keep sponsors updated on current projects.

At present, there are 16 sponsors in Lynn County representing the county and communities of Tahoka and O'Donnell. As yet, there are no representatives from New Home or Wilson, but it is hoped that sponsors will be forthcoming from these communities.

Current sponsors are: Lynn County SWCD, Lynn County Commissioners Court, Lynn County Jaycees, City of Tahoka, Huffaker, Green & Huffaker, Poka-Lambro Rural Telephone Cooperative, Lyntegar Electric Co-Op, Lynn County News, Tahoka Rotary Club, First National Bank of O'Donnell, Brewer Fertilizer of O'Donnell, Moore-Rains Insurance of O'Donnell, City of O'Donnell, O'Donnell Volunteer EMS, Inc., O'Donnell Rotary Club and First National Bank of Tahoka.

How Did It Start?

The RC&D program, Public Law 97-98, was approved by Congress in 1962. The Soil Conservation Service is responsible for administration of the program. By Spring 1992, the current number of active RC&D areas in the United States totaled 236. At that time, only Big Country RC&D was approved in Texas, with many other organizational meetings taking place for other RC&Ds in the state.

The Wes-Tex RC&D is comprised of 16 counties, of which Lynn County is a member along with Bailey, Lamb, Hale, Floyd, Cochran, Hockley, Lubbock, Crosby, Yoakum, Terry, Gaines, Dawson, Andrews, Martin and Midland counties. Organizational meetings in Lynn County began in May. Monthly meetings are scheduled for the third Tuesday of each month at 8:30 a.m., at Lyntegar meeting room if available, or another designated site. However, due to scheduling conflicts, the next RC&D meeting will be held at 8:30 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 24 (instead of Tuesday) at Lyntegar.

Officers for the Wes-Tex Area are: L.J. Sanders, Jr., President (Yoakum County); Billy Carter, Vice-President (Cochran County); and Bennie Claunch, Secretary/Treasurer (Bailey County). The Lynn County representative to the Wes-Tex Board of Directors is Cal Huffaker. Lynn County Committee officers are H.G. Franklin, President; Barry Pittman, Vice-President; and Burly Brewer, Secretary.

Information for U.S. Cotton Leaders About Cotton Incorporated From The Cotton Board

President Bush "Picks" Cotton

Recently, while campaigning in New York City, George Bush "picked" cotton, but not how you may think. According to The New York Times, "Using one of the homespun lines crafted for him by his new speech writer, Steven Provost, Bush offered a calculated sound bite that not only presented Clinton as less morally worthy, but also echoed Republican charges that Clinton was 'slick.'" The President said "If you are looking to restore America's moral fiber, why buy a synthetic when you can get real cotton?" J. Nicholas Hahn, president and CEO of Cotton Incorporated, said he was delighted with the President's remark. "We are glad he feels the way he does. This remark reflects the mood of the nation as it pertains to textiles. Cotton is 'the fabric of our lives,' including the President's."

Work Of

Barky Cotton Task Force Nears Completion

During the past six years, the Barky Cotton Task Force developed and compiled data used to successfully produce changes in the way barkly cotton is viewed in classing and marketing systems. The net result of this work will be significant savings for growers in areas subject to barkly cotton discounts. Recently, a summary of the Barky Cotton Task Force data was presented to the International Cotton Standards Conference in Memphis, TN. The final phase of a study to minimize bark by ensuring proper cleaning of stripper-harvested cotton has been initiated for the 1992 harvesting and ginning season. Organized in 1986 by Plains Cotton Growers, Cotton Incorporated,

Industry Addresses Cotton Knits

A PERSISTENT FEVER CAN BE A WARNING

When a raging fever fails to cool down after 24 hours — beware. This could mean that your body may have a serious problem that it cannot handle without medical help.

If, despite your self-treatments, a continuous low grade fever persists for several days or weeks, this may be your body's warning of a chronic infection, such as rheumatic fever, mononucleosis, etc. You would be wise to let your physician find out what may be wrong.

Weed Control May Be Needed On CRP Contracts

Participants with land in the Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) should be thinking about weed controls for their contracts. With the above average rainfall Lynn County has received this year, weeds could become a serious problem. Those contracts with a good stand of grass, probably will not need a weed control. Contracts that have a weak stand of grass or had a weed problem last year will probably need weed controls this year to aid in the establishment of the grass.

Participants with land in the CRP are responsible for controlling the weeds. When participants signed their contracts they agreed to maintain their CRP acreage (including needed weed controls) for the length of the contract. Participants should inspect their land and use good judgement in the maintenance of the contract.

Weeds compete with grass for nutrients and water, which retards the growth of the grass. Weeds not controlled during the growing season are killed by frost and can blow into adjoining fields causing economic damage to crops. Weeds increase the amount of time and labor required to harvest these crops, as well as, reducing the amount and quality of the crops harvested. Also, friendly relations with your neighbors could be lost if their crops are damaged by your lack of timely weed control.

Weed controls can be done by chemical or mechanical methods. Chemical control can be the most effective method, if the proper chemical is applied in accordance with label requirements under favorable climatic conditions. The best results with chemical control are achieved when weeds are 2- to 4-inches in height. This same principle applies to shredding. If you shred when weeds are 3- to 4-feet tall, it is too late. Timing is crucial no matter which method of control is used.

Producers who have questions about weed control or the CRP, should come by the SCS office located at 1647 Ave. J in Tahoka or call 998-4507.

Programs and services of the Soil Conservation Service are offered on a nondiscriminatory basis without regard for race, color, national origin, age, sex, religion, marital status or handicap.

Senior Companions Attend In-Service

The Senior Companions from Bailey, Cochran, Garza, Hockley, Lamb, Lynn, Terry and Yoakum counties met in Levelland at St. Michael's Parish Hall for their monthly in-service meeting. All companions are required to attend the monthly in-service as a continuation of training.

A short business meeting was held and then the guest speaker, Lt. Tony Cowan from the Levelland Police Department, spoke to the 81 attendees concerning safety. He showed three separate slide presentations concerning home security measures, the neighborhood watch program and fraud awareness.

Lt. Cowan also spoke about Operation Identification. Most police departments and sheriff's departments in this area have electric engraving tools that can be borrowed by the public to mark their belongings for identification if stolen. People are encouraged to use their Texas driver's license number as the identifying mark. If a senior citizen (or any citizen) does not have a driver's license, they may apply for an identification card through the local Driver's License Bureau. This ID card resembles a license, the number is kept on file and can be accessed by computer through local law enforcement departments within minutes just like a license number. Using a social security number can take up to a month or longer to trace and return recovered property.

Scholars believe the first wallpaper was made in Europe during the 1500's.

WHERE TO GO

We are often asked the question, "How does my medicine know where to go?" With the few exceptions where it is injected into or administered locally to a certain area of the body, your medications simply "ride" the blood stream until they come upon the situation they were designed to treat. Thus, for example, antibiotics end up at the site of an infection, heart rate medications find the little pace control center located in the heart, and anti-inflammatory drugs search out the sore, swollen tissues of arthritis or injury.

DAV Service Officer To Visit Lamesa

Lamesa area veterans and their families aren't alone if they're concerned about the effects of Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) benefit changes on their lives. But they'll get straight answers — free of charge — when a national service officer of the Disabled American Veterans (DAV) visits Lamesa. The DAV van will be parked from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Chapter Home, South 8th and Bryan streets in Lamesa on September 25.

The DAV veterans' benefits expert on board is fully qualified to help veterans and their families file new and reopened claims for the full range of veterans' benefits. Veterans need not be DAV members to take advantage of these free services.

"For several years," said DAV National Service Director Arthur H. Wilson, "veterans have heard many news reports on changes in veterans' programs and services, cutbacks in veterans' health care, and proposals to slash disability compensation payments. Also causing concern are changes in Social Security disability programs."

"The DAV can explain what all these changes mean to disabled veterans in the area," said Wilson.
