FIRE IN THE MODULES - Tahoka Volunteer Firefighters responded to a call from Farmers Co-Op Gin Wednesday evening when several cotton modules caught on fire. Firefighters contained the fire quickly in the five modules. The Tahoka Volunteer Fire Department has responded to at least a half dozen calls on cotton module fires throughout the area in the last few weeks, which is an unfortunate aspect during ginning season. Vandals Damage Two Tractors

Tractors owned by Mike Huffaker and Mike Lankford of Tahoka were damaged by rocks, apparently thrown by juveniles, during the last week. Huffaker's tractor had a right side window glass broken, and Lankford's John Deere 4430 had a broken window glass, damaged wiper and broken antenna.

Two other cases of criminal mischief also were reported to Tahoka Police Dept. Frank Aleman reported that someone had shot the driver's door window glass on his pickup with a BB gun while it was parked on N. 4th St. And Don Boydston reported that a fence at Production Credit Assn. had been damaged when someone kicked planks of wood off it last weekend.

Three traffic accidents were investigated in Lynn County Saturday by the Dept. of Public Safety. On an unmarked county dirt road referred to as "Dixie Lane", west of Tahoka, a vehicle carrying some New Home teenagers overturned. A complete report on the accident was not available.

Shayla Brandon Places Sixth At State Meet

Tahoka High School freshman Shayla Brandon came home with a sixth place award from the State Cross Country Meet in Georgetown last Saturday. Shayla ran the two-mile event in 13:09, placing sixth in competition with 104 runners in Class AA schools from across the state.

"Shayla ran very well at the State meet, and beat the girl from Stratford who placed ahead of her in the regional competition," said Coach Cindy Gardner. Shayla placed third at regional competition with a time of 12:41.2, coming in behind the second place Stratford runner. "We're all very proud of Shayla," added her coach.

She is the daughter of Johnny and Kathy Brandon of Tahoka.

Filing Of Civil Rights Lawsuits Surprises City, School Officials

by JUANELL JONES

Tahoka city and school officials were surprised last week to learn of civil rights lawsuits filed in federal court in Lubbock naming Tahoka Independent School District and trustees in one action and City of Tahoka and council members in the other. Neither entity has been served any papers detailing the purpose of the suit.

Tahoka school officials learned of the lawsuit on a Lubbock news broadcast last Monday night, and city officials learned about the suit when the filing of both lawsuits was published in the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal last Thursday.

Listed as plaintiff in both suits was Tahoka resident Manuel Moya, who was not available for comment.

City Administrator Barry Pittman said that the City Council has not yet met to discuss the lawsuit, but that city officials believed the suit pertained to the method of electing council members. Currently, the five council members are elected at-large.

The civil rights suit filed against the Tahoka Independent School District may be dropped, according to information received by Dr. Duane Carter, Superintendent of TISD. It is believed that the suit is directed at the method of electing school trustees, which currently is seven at-large members. Eleven months ago, however, trustees initiated procedures in changing that election method to the single-member district process for the May 1994 election.

Just two days after learning of the suit, Dr. Carter received a fax from a San Antonio attorney representing Moya, stating that he had received some materials indicating that TISD is already in the process of adopting single member districts for the election of school trustees. The letter stated, "I am in a position of non-suiting this case once we review the final plan adopted by the school district."

TISD began the process last December of changing the trustee election method to single member districts, hiring a demographer to study ethnic populations in the district and naming an ad-hoc committee to review the plan. That committee met last week with Dr. Carter to discuss several options which the demogra-pher submitted in outlining five single-member districts for the school district area.

School trustees plan to submit a 5-2 single-member district plan to the Justice Department for approval in time for the next school trustee election in May 1994. If approved, the plan would allow five trustees to be elected from single member districts, and two to be elected at-large.

Only two places on the board will be open for the upcoming May election, with trustees Greg Henley and Mike Huffaker due to complete their three-year terms at that time. As the remaining trustees' terms are completed, the single-member district plan will be incorporated into the election process.

School trustees discussed the suit with Dr. Carter at their regularly scheduled board meeting last Thursday night, and also looked at two single-member district plans which are being reviewed by the ad-hoc committee. The board took no official action in the matter.

In other business, trustees approved a textbook committee of several district teachers who will be responsible for the review and selection of the textbooks which will be adopted for use in Tahoka ISD. Members of the committee will be assisted by other teachers who will use the new textbooks.

The only other agenda item which trustees acted on was approving monthly bills. Mrs. Loretta Tekell, bookkeeper, gave a financial report, noting that the district had an account balance as of Oct. 31 of $1,399,931.33.

The board discussed a proposed construction project of adding two classrooms to the elementary building, but took no action. They instructed Molly Helmlinger, elementary principal, to conduct Kindergarten pre-registration in January so that the district would have a better idea of the number of students expected for the next school year.

During the open forum, THS students Blanda Miller and Toy Childress addressed the board, explaining their responsibilities as regional officers for the FHA/HERO program and expressing gratitude to the board for allowing them to attend regional and national conferences in performing their duties.

High school science teacher Betty Stennett also addressed the board, expressing concern over the "lack of discipline in the district" and asking that teachers be consulted in the discipline process. "We are not doing our students any favors by being easy on them or feeling sorry for them," said Mrs. Stennett.

Teachers Carletta Renfro and Kathy Box concurred with Mrs. Stennett. "We (teachers) need an environment where we can all work and know the boundaries and penalties in the system," said Mrs. Renfro.

Administrative staff reports concluded the open meeting, with High School Principal Charles Cate expressing praise for freshman Shayla Brandon's accomplishments in qualifying for the State Cross-Country Meet on Saturday. He also showed trustees a state DECA newsletter with a full-page photograph of Tahoka student John Quintanilla on the cover. Quintanilla is serving as State DECA President this year, and is attending many functions in that capacity.

Miss Helmlinger expressed praise for 18 elementary students and sponsor Gwen Cate for their accomplishments in winning state media awards with projects promoting the prevention of substance abuse.

Middle School Principal Ronald Roberts said his staff was working closely with Region 17 Education Service Center and felt that the middle school concept was working well, but added that the concept will take some time to polish.

Following administrative reports, trustees went into executive session for two hours, returning to open session to adjourn at midnight. All seven trustees were present at the meeting.

sic City Tonight, hosted by Crook and Chase on TNN.

KLLL informed the Norwoods this week that Daron's single made his first single recording, "If It Wasn't For Her," released under the Giant label last week, an accomplishment which is "pretty much unheard of for a new artist's first record, especially in its first week out," according to a deejay there.

The single is available at Sound Warehouse, K-Mart and Wal-Mart stores in Lubbock, according to family members. Daron's brother, Byron, hopes to be able to sell the album from his shop in Tahoka, Mr. (See NORWOOD, page 8)

DPS Urges Care During Holiday

The Texas Department of Public Safety urges everyone to use extreme care this year so that everyone can live to have another Thanksgiving. Many Texas citizens will become a statistic during the upcoming holiday period and planned gatherings will be ruined by these tragedies. Plan ahead and allow plenty of travel time and plenty of rest stops. Remember to drive defensively and watch out for the other person at all times. Drive as if each driver will always do the unexpected.

Varsity Bulldogs Expecting Good Basketball Season

by Susan Osborne
The Tahoka High School varsity boys basketball team, led by Coach Hulon Kirkland, has already experienced play with a scrimmage against Lockney and lost their opening game Monday night to Midland's Crane, 35-64.

"Our press worked well, the defense looked good, but the offense just shot poorly," said Kirkland.

The boys team has 11 members and two managers. There are three returning players and eight boys off of the junior varsity team who finished with a record of 21-2 last year. Coach Kirkland plans to make a smooth transition with these younger players.

"The kids have high expectations, and their attitude is super," said the coach. Members of the boys team attended a basketball camp at Oklahoma Christian University in Edmonton, Oklahoma this summer, which increased the team's camaraderie and their ability to work with and focus on one another, Kirkland stated.

District play for the boys will begin on Jan. 4, with the Bulldogs playing in Seagraves. The boys will play in their first home game on December 20, against Roosevelt.

Managers are Doug Smith, Jeremy Brandon and Justin Pena.

"It's going to be a good year, and the potential is unlimited," said Kirkland.

Lady Bulldogs Determined, Despite Small Numbers

by Susan Osborne
The Tahoka High School varsity girls' basketball team will tip off their '93-'94 season in Roosevelt this Friday night. The team consists of seven girls who will be coached by Cindy Gardner.

The team has experience in five returnees, who are aggressive and quick, according to Gardner. "We will work on a lot of fundamentals. This will be a building year," she said. "We are evenly matched in district, but our weakness is not enough numbers," Gardner said. Only 17 girls are in the high school basketball program for junior varsity and varsity teams, according to the coach.

Coach Gardner will introduce a new offense and defense. The team will be running a "flex," which is a motion offense. For defense play, a full and half-court press will be run, with more effort to pressure the ball.

The district is experiencing all new coaches, except for Post. District play will begin on Dec. 14 when the Lady Bulldogs will travel to play in Post.

The varsity returnees include: Jill Deleon, sr.; Katy Huffaker, jr.; Miranda Martin, sr.; Stephanie Stennett, jr.; and Kelly Wells, sr. Micah Smith will be the only freshman on the varsity team, and the other varsity teammate is Angie Walker, a new player who moved to Tahoka from Hirschi High School near Fort Worth.

The girls will have their first home game on Dec. 17, playing Sundown.

"We will fight for the district title," said Coach Gardner.

Your Home: Free Of Carbon Monoxide?
Now there's early warning of carbon monoxide (CO), a silent, deadly killer. Non-lethal levels mimic the onset of flu.

(NAPS)—Carbon monoxide, a tasteless, colorless, odorless toxic gas, is the number one cause of poisoning deaths in the U.S. At lower levels it causes health problems, including flu-like symptoms and sexual dysfunctions. At high levels it can cause brain damage or death. If your home has a furnace, water heater, fireplace, space heater, or appliance that operates on a flammable fuel such as natural gas, oil, wood, coal or kerosene, it is a potential candidate for indoor air contamination from carbon monoxide.

Fortunately, early warning of a potential carbon monoxide hazard is now available with the recent introduction of carbon monoxide detectors that signal the presence of this toxic gas. First Alert®, the manufacturer of smoke detectors, has just released a patented "Biomimetic" sensing technology that simulates blood hemoglobin's response to the presence of carbon monoxide. Hemoglobin is the part of a red blood cell that carries life-giving oxygen to the tissues.

The Consumer Product Safety Commission recommends that consumers install at least one detector at home, located in the sleeping areas so warning is given in sufficient time to get out of the house.

Though carbon monoxide poses a major public health problem, it is preventable. Equipping your home with battery-operated CO detectors that sound audible UL approved warnings can be the first step to protecting yourself and your family from this insidious poison.

To find potential carbon monoxide hazards before they happen, follow this advice from the experts:

- Install a battery operated carbon monoxide detector.
- Conduct a thorough inspection of your furnace at least once a year. This includes cleaning and changing filters.
- Check furnace for cracked heat exchanger.
- Look for a clogged or blocked chimney opening.
- Replace corroded or disconnected water heater vent pipe.
- Check out your gas refrigerator and stove.
- Inspect a gas clothes dryer.
- Be careful about portable heaters.

The Wilson ISD Board of Trustees met in a regular meeting on Thursday, Nov. 11. The District's 1993-94 audit was approved. The 1993-94 Textbook committee, including Nancy Templeton, chairman; Bob Williams, Kelley Hirt, Virginia Hohertz, Peggy McCoy, Melinda Turner, and Patty Hamilton, was approved. The board also discussed a delinquent tax collection policy with no action taken on this item.

Who in Wilson likes to go to the doctor so much that they go 24 hours early?

In order to promote reading, increase the amount of time for reading, and to help the student become a successful reader, the teachers at Wilson elementary school will be assigning reading homework each night. The reading homework will include self-selected and assigned 150,000. Production on the Southern High Plains was lowered 50,000 bales, and Rolling Plains cotton output was cut by 40,000 bales. Oklahoma production was left unchanged from October at 270,000 bales.

The department left its forecast for mill use unchanged at 10.3 million bales and cut the export estimate from 6.0 million to 5.9 million bales. As a result, ending stocks now are forecast at 4.9 million bales, down from 5.4 million in October.

Sales on the TELCOT electronic marketing system responded to USDA's latest forecast by catapulting to a daily total of 67,184 bales, most of which were sold in the hours following release of the estimate. The day's sales volume accounted for a large portion of sales for the five-day trading period which totaled 182,881 bales, well ahead of the previous week.

USDA's sizable cut in estimated cotton output triggered discussion among the trade of whether the ARP set-aside rate would be affected. Earlier this month, USDA set a preliminary set-aside rate of 17.5 percent, up considerably from the 7.5 percent farmers were required to idle in 1993. USDA's 1994 set-aside rate was calculated using the October crop estimates, and industry members speculated that lower November figures could translate to a lower final ARP set-aside rate. But, earlier in the week, USDA Secretary Mike Espy said it would be unlikely he would change the 17.5 percent preliminary acreage set-aside rate.

Sources say USDA calculated the 17.5 percent ARP by assuming a stock carryover from 1993-94 of more than 5.0 million bales. USDA set the 17.5 percent ARP with a goal of arriving at a 1994-95 stocks-to-use ratio of around 30 percent, as mandated in the 1990 farm bill. But, sources say the new 4.9 million-bale ending stocks estimate combined with a 17.5 percent set-aside translates to a stocks-to-use ratio closer to 28 percent.

Will this affect the ARP by the time a final set-aside rate is announced Jan. 1? Only time will tell, but some trade sources believe it will.

Closer to home, the Texas cotton crop early in the week was 63 percent harvested, ahead of 40 percent a year ago and 39 percent as the five-year average. The state's crop was rated six percent excellent, 50 percent good, 36 percent fair, seven percent poor and one percent very poor.

The adjusted world price (AWP) through the week ending Nov. 18 is 40.66 cents per pound, down from last week and resulting in a producer option payment (POP) of 1169 points.

Book Signing Party Set Here

Janel Franklin of Tahoka, co-author of "Cross The Border" cookbook, will be at Tahoka Drug this Friday from 1-4 p.m. for a Book Signing Party. Mrs. Franklin, along with co-author Sue Vaughn, has written the new "Cross The Border" cookbook featuring southwest cuisine.

Everyone is invited to attend the book signing party, and enjoy free refreshments.

The two authors have written two previous cookbooks, "Calf Fries To Caviar" and "More Calf Fries To Caviar", which have been well-received in this area.

Wilson Chamber Makes Plans For "Country Christmas"

The Wilson Chamber of Commerce held its regular monthly meeting Nov. 13. The majority of the meeting was spent discussing the "Wilson Country Christmas" event planned for Dec. 4 at 6 p.m. in the old Mercantile or Green Building. Everyone is invited to attend at a cost of $2.50 per adult and $1 for children.

Funds for the walking track are coming in very slowly and numerous donations are needed to complete the paving of the track. Any donations can be left with Sharon Isham at the Wilson State Bank.

A ribbon cutting for Nanny's Attic, the first business opening since the organization of the Chamber of Commerce, was planned. The ribbon cutting will be held Saturday morning, Nov. 20, at 11 a.m. in the downtown area of the city.

The Chamber is concerned about the vandalism in the city and is encouraging all citizens to report any vandalism they witness or any that is done to their property. It can be reported to the Lynn County Sheriff's office.

The project of putting together a property guide is still open so if this is of interest to anyone, contact Sharon Isham and Carolyn Klaus.

Anyone wishing to donate cookies for refreshments for the Chamber of Commerce event on Dec. 4, needs to contact Mrs. Klaus or Mrs. Isham. The Chamber is also accepting donations of prizes to be used for the bingo games, such as handmade items, needle work or canned jellies or baked goods and any other bought items which individuals or businesses wish to donate.

The next meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be at 9 a.m. at the Green Building on Saturday, Dec. 11.

TELCOT Report
A WEEKLY SUMMARY OF COTTON MARKETING NEWS

For The Week Ending November 11

Sales on the TELCOT electronic marketing system skyrocketed early this week after USDA dramatically slashed its estimate of 1993-94 U.S. cotton production. The news left the bears reeling, resulting in sizable cotton futures gains the following day. USDA's surprising crop forecast also prompted many in the industry to wonder how the preliminary acreage reduction program (ARP) set-aside rate would be affected.

USDA on Tuesday, Nov. 9, pegged the 1993-94 U.S. cotton crop at 16,297 million bales, down 717,000 bales from USDA's October forecast of 17,014 million. The figure astonished many market watchers, as it was much lower than industry expectations. Analysts surveyed by Knight-Ridder Financial News (KRF) before the report pegged the crop at an average 16.675 million bales, with the estimates ranging from 16,300 to 16,950 million bales.

The largest cut came out of the Delta, with estimated production there reduced by 640,000 bales. The trade had expected dramatic losses in the Delta region, as one source prior to the report called the Delta cotton crop "an utter disaster."

USDA lowered its forecast for Texas production by 100,000 bales, pegging the state's crop at 5.2 million bales. The cut in Texas surprised some industry members, as talk of a 150,000 to 350,000 bale increase had circulated prior to the report. But, USDA's figures for Texas production confirmed trade ideas that cotton output in Central Texas and the Rolling Plains was generally disappointing. USDA reduced harvested acres in the state by

Strength/Resistance Training

People tend to lose muscle tissue after about age 35. Though aerobics makes you fit, strength training combined with aerobics offers the advantage of increasing muscle tissue. Even at rest, with more muscles, you burn more calories. Weight bearing exercise may also increase bone density, thus delaying or minimizing osteoporosis.

What's In A Name?

We used to give our children names that had a meaning, like Ron (king) or Mark (warrior). Or we gave them the same name as someone we honored or respected, like that of the father, grandfather, etc. However, we have come to give children names simply because of the sound, like Xanadu or Erkel. I think the old way was better.

In Isaiah 9:6 we are told, "For a child will be born to us, a son will be given to us; and the government will rest on His shoulders; and His name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace." Now there is a great name that describes exactly who and what Jesus was to be. He fulfilled every facet of His name.

As a result, we can call upon His name in order to receive salvation, eternal life and peace within. Jesus (salvation) Christ (Messiah) became the name at which all the world should bow because He lived up to the meaning of His name.

We invite you to come worship with us as we praise His Holy name.

Soil Moisture Survey Now In Progress

High Plains Water District and USDA-Soil Conservation Service (USDA-SCS) personnel are now collecting data for the annual pre-plant soil moisture survey.

The purpose of the survey is to determine the general soil moisture availability and deficit trends across the 15-county High Plains Water District service area.

Review of the pre-plant soil moisture survey information helps agricultural producers determine the amount of water they need to apply to bring their five-foot root zone soil profile to field capacity without over-irrigating or under-irrigating.

Historical data shows that there is a better likelihood of producing above-average crop yields when the plant root zone of the soil is at or near field capacity prior to planting.

Glenn Blackmon and Ken Carver started data collection in Floyd County and will continue in Crosby, Lubbock and Lynn Counties.

USDA-SCS soil scientist Wilfred E. "Willie" Crenwelge noted that 20 additional temporary soil moisture sites will be read in newly-annexed portions of Cochran and Hale Counties. Permanent sites have already been installed in the newly-annexed portion of Lynn County.

Soil moisture sites are selected based upon soil types, the local saturated thickness of the Ogallala Aquifer which indicates possible well yields, and crop water requirements in the area. Each site represents typical dryland or irrigated farming conditions in the area.

Water District and USDA-SCS personnel use neutron moisture meters to gather soil moisture data. Data collected during the pre-plant soil moisture survey is then used to construct maps illustrating the soil moisture available for plant use within the five-foot root zone soil profile and the amount of water needed to bring the soil profile to field capacity.

PINEWOOD DERBY WINNERS- Nov. 6 the Tahoka RAs participated in the annual Lubbock Baptist Association Pinewood Derby Race. Out of 123 boys four from Tahoka were in the finals. They are, from left, Eric Green, Bradley Paschal, Cody Buermann, and Chase Autry. Eric Green went on to win 1st place and 3rd place for best design.

High Plains Underground Water District Election Deadline Is December 1

Persons interested in being a candidate for Director or County Committee member for District Director's Precincts One, Two and Five of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 need to complete an application for a place on the ballot soon. The deadline for declaring candidacy for this election is 5 p.m. Dec. 1, 1993.

District Director's Precinct One consists of the portion of Crosby County above the escarpment and all of Lubbock and Lynn Counties.

Precinct Two includes most of Hockley and Lamb Counties and all of Cochran County.

Precinct Five consists of all of Hale County and the portions of Floyd County above the escarpment.

Voters in each Director's precinct will elect a Director, and residents of each county will elect five County Committee members to represent them in Water District matters during a special January 15, 1994 election. One Committee member represents each County Commissioners' precinct, and one is elected at-large.

Candidates for a Water District Board member or County Committee member must be at least 18 years old, a Texas resident, and a resident of the Precinct for which they are seeking office for at least six months, says Becca Williams, Water District Director of Administrations.

Additional election information is available by contacting Becca Williams, High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1, 2930 Ave. Q, Lubbock, TX 79405-1499, or by calling (806) 762-0181.

Keep Cars In Tune With The Environment

Every 10 days, motorists who drive with poorly maintained engines and under-inflated tires waste 70 million gallons of gasoline, almost 2.6 billion gallons a year.

Car and truck owners can help save their vehicles and help the environment by getting an "environmental tune-up."

Basic care and maintenance can help a vehicle run more efficiently and last up to 50 percent longer, while careless and improper care can severely damage the vehicle as well as the environment. Each year do-it-yourselfers improperly dump 20 times the amount of oil spilled by the Exxon Valdez into the American environment.

To deter such waste, the Texas Automobile Dealers Association suggests that car and truck owners follow basic maintenance guidelines developed by the National Institute for Automotive Service Excellence:

- Keep tires properly inflated. Under-inflation wastes fuel because the engine has to work harder to push the vehicle.

- Keep the air conditioner in good condition. One third of ozone-depleting chlorofluorocarbons released into the atmosphere come from car air conditioners, either through leaks or escape during servicing.

- Observe the speed limit. Gas mileage decreases significantly when driving above 55 miles per hour.

- To save gas usage and engine wear, drive gently without sudden accelerations and jerky stops and goes, and avoid excess idling.

- Remove excess items from your vehicle. Less weight equals better gas mileage.

- Keep your engine tuned up. A well-maintained engine lasts longer and operates more efficiently. A tune-up is strongly recommended at every 30,000 miles or 2 to 3 years.

A comprehensive performance check can also serve as an environmental check up. It should include an emissions test and the examination of the ignition, battery, filters, fluids, belts and hoses, safety devices, spark plugs and basic engine parts.

These simple steps can help extend the life of your car while keeping it environmentally in tune.

Marla Rudd Seeks State FB Honors

Scholarships will be awarded for winners in Texas Farm Bureau's Free Enterprise Speech, Miss Texas Farm Bureau and Talent Find competition at the 60th annual TFB Convention in San Antonio Nov. 28-Dec. 1.

Marla Kay Rudd of New Home is a contestant in both the Miss TFB and Talent Find events. She and the other participants qualified for the state competition by winning their District contests earlier this year. The finals will be held Nov. 28 at the Marriott Riverwalk in San Antonio.

The Miss TFB and Talent Find winners will each receive a $2,000 scholarship. The runner-up in each contest will be awarded a $1,500 scholarship. Other district winners in each contest have been assured a $600 scholarship.

Organization Helps Vets Find Lost Comrades

If you're a veteran of American military service, or currently on active duty, an old buddy may be looking for you. A new organization called Registry of American Veterans (ROAV) will be able to help you locate friends you served with in the Armed Forces.

ROAV is designed to be the largest private database of American veterans and military personnel in the United States. Its purpose is to alleviate the problems veterans encounter in searching for one another and putting former military friends back in touch with each other.

Veterans are encouraged to write to ROAV for information on how to get themselves registered. ROAV will then send them the proper form to complete and become part of the database. The address is Registry of American Veterans, PO Box 51148, Riverside, California 92517.

Texas Author To Visit Wilson, Tahoka Elementary Schools

ZENO ZEPLIN

Zeno Zeplin, Texas author of books for children, will visit Tahoka Elementary School Thursday, Nov. 18, and Wilson Elementary School on Friday.

At Tahoka Elementary, he will speak to students in informal sessions in the Learning Resource Center. Zeplin, a native Texas, has a BS degree from Texas A&M University and is retired from a professional career of 30 years in engineering and management.

A lifelong interest in traveling and history, and now his grandchildren, inspired his writing Christmas stories. His books are full of new activities and symbols born of the spirit, history and culture of the Southwest. He believes the annually repeated repertoire of Christmas literature and customs contains too little reference to traditions from the Southwest. The Texas Sesquicentennial Commission chose his first two books, Great Texas Christmas Legends and Secrets of Silver Valley, to be official commemoratives.

Zeplin will discuss his books and the writing story behind them at Tahoka Elementary. Friday, Zeplin will visit Wilson and on Monday he will be at Post Elementary. At each school he will explain his discovery of the simple five steps of the writing process. Zeplin's presentation is designed to encourage students to believe they too can write and learn to enjoy both reading and writing.

All Zeplin's books are classroom edited by students and teachers before publication. Editing students suggest names for his books, which include The Haunted Classroom, Secret Magic, The Cross-eyed Ghost, Apple Jack, Popcorn is Missing, Clowns to the Rescue and The Big Storm, and Snowflake the Ghost Kitten. His books are for children in grades 1-7, however, his Christmas stories are for the whole family and offer Texans Christmas traditions of their own.

The community is invited to meet Zeno Zeplin from 2:30-3 p.m. in the LRC. "Books selling from $4 to $10 make excellent Christmas gifts for any child," says Gwen Cate, Learning Resource Specialist at Tahoka Elementary. Zeplin will personalize books for children and adults.

All-District Volleyball Girls Named From THS

by GINGER MALONE

Seven Tahoka Lady Bulldogs were named to the All-District Volleyball Team. They are seniors Ginger Malone, Miranda Martin, Kelly Wells and juniors Katy Huffaker, Jill Jaquess, Delores Luna, and Lynna Rash.

Those named to the Honorable Mention list were sophomores Sally Lara and Carmella Placencia.

THEN & NOW!

Printing Through The Ages

(NAPS)—Since man first scratched letters on clay tablets and papyrus, the search has been on for a better way to bring the printed word to the people.

Then: While printing was first developed in China during the eighth century A.D., German entrepreneur Johann Gutenberg invented the first popular printing press around 1450. Made from an old wine press, the block printer took five years to print 200 copies of the famous Gutenberg Bible.

In 1814, Friedrich Koenig of Germany invented the first steam-powered printing press, an initial step toward automating the printing process. In 1846, American Richard Hoe invented the rotary press, which greatly decreased the time it took to produce printed copies. Another big leap forward in the world of printing came in 1977, when the first laser printer was introduced by Xerox. The price tag: $350,000!

In 1984, Hewlett-Packard introduced the first desktop laser and the first desktop inkjet printer, making top quality printers affordable enough for individual users.

Now: Today, this nation churns out about 600 million pages of computer printouts, 76 million letters and 24 million documents each day. The world's leading maker of printers, Hewlett-Packard Company, marked its 20 millionth desktop printer shipment in 1993.

The first popular printing press, invented in 1450, took five years to print 200 copies of the Bible.

Today's printing machines churn out about 600 million pages of computer printouts and 24 million documents each day.

Coming: In the near future color will become as common an attribute in desktop printing as bold and italics are today. Lightweight, compact printers will provide greater portability to workers on the move.

Bernie's, when the record album is released at a later date.

Norwood is the son of Margaret Norwood of Tahoka, a teacher in the Tahoka School system, and a brother of Byron and Misti Norwood of Tahoka. Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Miller of Tahoka are his grandparents.

Daron will be home in Tahoka for Christmas holidays and plans are being made for a reception, when he will have photos to be autographed and will perform his new songs.

Norwood, proud of his West Texas roots, currently is putting together a backup band which he has named "Tahoka" after his hometown.

The young singer/composer appears to be on the fringe of stardom. His eight-year progress to the current level started just after high school with a short period of time of appearances in Lubbock. He moved to Nashville to join the ranks of young performers on Music City Row, and in 1990 moved to Atlanta to become the featured performer at The Buckboard. He performed there for three years in the company of such performers as Garth Brooks, Travis Tritt, Trisha Yearwood, Mark Chestnut and others.

In the summer of 1990 Warner Bros. recognized his talent "and the dream began."

"Dreams do come true, but they sometimes take a long time," said Norwood, adding a note of "Thanks, to all who believed." He asked that everyone come by when the reception is given, so he can express his appreciation.
