PLAINS FOLKS WILL BE THERE

Beet Growers Confidently Look Forward To Congress Hearing

When Congressional hearings on the sugar beet situation are held in May, Plains farmers and business men will be represented there.

And spokesmen for the Muleshoe Sugar Beet Growers Ass'n. will tell you confidently that we will have sugar beets growing here eventually, perhaps in 1962. It all depends upon what Congress does about a sugar beet law after the hearings.

At the meeting held here Tuesday night, James Glaze, president of the local group, and Carl Bamert reported on their recent trip to Washington, where they with other area representatives prevailed upon the Senate finance committee to propose an amendment to the pending bill that would have granted local growers an allotment. The amendment was defeated in conference, but the growers did secure an agreement for further hearings.

Messrs Witherspoon and Benefield, of Hereford, addressed the crowd here Tuesday night. Mr. Witherspoon thinks it possible that enough sugar quota can be taken from other sources to give an interested area running from Pecos to Amarillo, into Oklahoma and New Mexico to support four sugar mills, one of which could be located on the Plains.

No stone will be left unturned for Plains farmers who want it. The Plains can certainly use an additional money crop.

Meantime, Mr. Bamert agreed to plant some special seed that County Agent J. K. Adams had secured as a test project. After the crop is produced sugar content analysis will be made as evidence to present to prospective sugar mill builders.

The local association needs additional members, both businessmen and farmers in order to carry its part of the fight.

Heart Fund Drive Slated Thursday

Members of the JayCeos, sponsoring the drive for funds for the Heart Foundation, will stage a door to door drive here Thursday night, beginning about dark.

They ask that everyone who can and will give to the fund leave their porch lights on that night so that solicitors will know to call.

Muleshoe and Bailey County folks always have given generously to the heart fund.

620 lb. Meteorite Found Here

MYSTERY STONE weighing 620 pounds and about four feet in diameter was discovered west of Muleshoe. If a meteorite it is one of the largest of its kind known to exist on earth. Many questions concerning this mysterious object are yet to be answered before it can conclusively be declared a "visitor from outer space." (Journal Photo)

A grotesque chunk of matter thought by many to be a meteorite is in display on the showroom floor of Fry & Cox Bros.

The 620-pound object is presumed by some geologic authorities to have plummeted to earth perhaps a million years ago. The principal basis for this estimated date is due to the fact that there is no evidence of a crater where the object was discovered.

A Muleshoe farmer, Clayton Sanders, stumbled across the hard stone while deep breaking farm land about 24 miles west of Muleshoe. The object was about 20-inches below the surface of a red clay topsoil near the Texas-New Mexico state line.

Samples of the object were sent to the Laboratory at Texas Tech in Lubbock for analysis and were discovered to contain considerable olivine and pyroxene. Both of these contain silicates of iron and magnesium.

There is still another possibility of explanation for the origin of this huge irregular stone. Geologists call them concretions. Following is an excerpt from "Physical Geology" by Longwell et al.:

"Concretions. Some sedimentary rocks contain nodular bodies called concretions. These objects differ in composition from the enclosing rock and are remarkably diversified in form:

Iron and magnesium silicates are also common to red clay, the type of bedrock in which the stone was located.

Volcanic origin of the object cannot be conclusively ignored either. Both olivine and pyroxene are common in rocks of volcanic origin.

some are spherical or ellipsoidal (see smaller picture taken near Harve, Montana), others are flat and ring-shaped, and still others are extraordinarily odd and fantastic shapes. They range from a fraction of an inch to many feet in diameter."

Many concretions will contain a fossil at its center which acted as a nucleus about which the concretions formed.

If the object is not a concretion it is definitely "out of place" and must be explained as of volcanic or meteoric origin.

Possibility of Heavy Rains In Week Ahead

A turbulent cold front blasted through Muleshoe last Friday borne on 60 mph winds and accompanied by rain-robbing dust.

The temperature stood at a nippy 29 degrees Saturday and Sunday mornings and then climbed to 90 degrees on Wednesday, our highest temperature this year. This is no record for Muleshoe for the mercury has heated to a 93 degree on both April 19 of 1938 and 1948. It has been to 95 degrees as early as April 17, this was also in 1948.

Cosmic looked into the week ahead and is calling for shifting winds Friday and cooler late in the day. Scattered showers should dot the High Plains on Friday. Saturday will be fair and cooler becoming only slightly warmer on Sunday.

Rains may break out Monday as moist gulf air streams aloft over a thin layer of cool air perched on the High Plains. Some areas of the Panhandle and South Plains may pick up as much as two inches of moisture early in the week.

Skies should clear on Tuesday. Warmer and windy conditions Wednesday will precede another cool front from the northwest which is due through Muleshoe next Thursday, April 27.

Precipitation held fast last week at 19 for April. The total for 1961 is still 3.05.

Although we are moving into our dry spell on the long range outlook, the first week of May promises cool and wet weather. We'll look at that closer later.

WATCH FOR MOTHS AND CARPET BEETLES

Now that we keep our houses warm all year, the pests that damage our wool rugs and carpets can thrive at any season.

Thorough cleaning and correct carpets and rugs from clothes moths and carpet beetles.

Regular care with vacuum cleaner is the first step. It prevents dust, lint and hair from accumulating and offering extra food for the pests. It can remove the insects themselves and their eggs. Thorough vacuuming means going back and forth with the vacuum cleaner seven times in the same place. Beetles usually feed under heavy furniture where it is difficult to clean. Rotate rugs and carpets occasionally to make sure all areas are exposed to regular cleaning, light and air.

Entomologists advise a five percent DDT oil solution on rugs and carpets every 12 to 18 months for a 9x12 foot rug of average weight, you will need 1 1/2 to 2 quarts of spray. Rug pads of animal hair or wool will need spraying on both sides unless they have been treated previously.

When spraying wall-to-wall carpeting give special attention to edges and points.

Call on the expert help of a carpet cleaning or pest control if you have qualms about doing expensive rugs.

LANCERS AUTO SAFETY CLUB

Kenneth Stevens was elected president of the Lancers Auto Safety Club which met Monday, April 17.

Other officers elected were Don Taylor, vice-president; Jerry Harp, secretary; Jim Galyon, treasurer and reporter; Dean Myrick, parliamentarian.

Eight of the members attended the revival at the First Baptist church Tuesday, April 18, as a group. They enjoyed this very much.

Those present for the meeting other than those mentioned were: Glen Stevens, Pete Smith, Fred Horn, Johnny Bruton, and Kenneth LaRue.

Much of this discoloration is due to one of three factors.

First, is the static electricity produced by some of the newer fibers. This attracts soil and dirt from the floor and surroundings. Ordinary washing will remove this type of soil.

The water is used for a second factor. White garments, especially, will absorb the soil from the water and become grey looking. Be sure that the wash water is clean and that a good detergent is used. Curds formed by hard water and soap will also discolor setic fabrics. If soap is used, be sure to use a nonprecipitating water softener with it.

A third type of discoloration comes from washing synthetic fabrics along with a tie dyed. Avoid this by sorting carefully before washing.

For best results, rinse garments several times using same temperature of water used for washing.

Always check labels for washing instructions.

Parmer County Farm Bureau

Here is something we think is vitally important to Texas and United States Citizens: There is a Senate Resolution No. 39 being promoted by some members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and others. This resolution, if adopted by the Congress, would deprive the United States of her present right under the Connally Amendment to decide what cases concerning United States Citizens would be tried under the World Court.

Citizens interested in maintaining the freedom of the United States should write J. W. Fulbright, Chairman of the above committee, at the Senate Office Building, Washington 25, D. C. Remember that if the Connally amendment is repealed, U. S. cases would, at the discretion of the United Nations world Court be tried under that court.

America could never have more than one judge on the court and Russia could many because of the communist Sat-elite U. N. members. Urge the committee to retain the Connally amendment!

Texas Farm Bureau membership is 102.29 per cent of the same period a year ago. Why don't you join in Parmer County?

Did you know that if you earned $5,000 in 1946 you must now earn at least $7,844, or an increase of 57 per cent to stay even on pay you get to keep? This is the effect that inflation and taxation are having on you. Are you for or against inflation and increased taxation?

We believe most of you farmers are interested in having HB 59 become law. All it lacks is the Governor's signature. He has a lot of pressure to get him to veto it. You can get him to sign it by writing him and asking him to. It is the law exempting season farm trailers up to a gross weight of 12,000 pounds from registration and brake requirements when not used for hire.

Just write and say, "I believe you should sign HB 59 to exempt farm trailers from registration and brake requirements because they are used for seasonal short hauls. Since the House and Senate have both approved the bill I believe it is reasonable." (Of course you can write what ever you want to, either urging him to sign or veto) Governor Price Daniels, Austin, Tex. You may also want to urge the Senate Affairs Committee in Austin to pass on SCR 27 which would suspend merit rating for insurance in Texas. Rhea Farm Bureau had a good regular meeting last Friday night. Prentice Mills and Joe Jones were there to discuss the Administration Farm Bill for feed grains.

I almost didn't make the deadline for publication this week as the manager and I returned late Tuesday night from a Finance School in Austin. This school, sponsored by the University of Texas, covered such subjects as employee supervision, internal fiscal controls and capital improvements planning. While we were in Austin, we visited with George Hawley, Chief Engineer for the Fire Prevention Bureau of Texas (who sets our insurance rates), and he had some very kind words to say about Muleshoe.

During the past week the city staff has been busy preparing the City Park which has been fertilized and weed killer applied. You might have noticed the coat of fresh green paint on the furniture at the park. This work was arranged through the service of Mr. Redwine, who donated his services free.

The city dump is being relocated for the summer to the caliche pit near the Co-op Gins. Persons wishing to dispose of trash are urged to use this facility.

April 30 will be the deadline for obtaining dog tags and vaccination certificates for dogs in Muleshoe. After that time, the tags may still be obtained but you are running the risk of having your dog impounded. The City will definitely enforce the dog ordinance this year.

*Lifeline

America*

A child touches a switch and produces the miracle of light... his mother takes food from the coolness of a refrigerator and prepares breakfast on an electric range. Through out the day, electricity works for this family, silently, cheaply. At night, there is hot water for a shower, TV for entertainment.

This is the modern rural America. This is life in the same homes which a few years ago were filled with darkness and drudgery. That was before rural people joined together to form their own electric distribution systems, borrowed funds from REA, and built their own power lines.

Today, these rural electric lines are lifelines to about one tenth of America's people. Last year these rural Americans bought one billion dollars worth of electric appliances and equipment from local merchants—equipment built by the people of our great cities.

This is why we can rural electrification is good for all Americans.

Announcing . . .

Establishment in Muleshoe of DEPENDABLE SERVICE for repair and maintenance of typewriter and common-use office machines by a mechanic with 32 years experience and training on the better-known American makes.

For many years the people of Muleshoe have depended somewhat on itinerant fixer-uppers, fly-by-nighters, untrained "route" men and lawn mower mechanics to maintain their office machines.

Out of this situation I feel that I can earn the respect of office machine owners by giving them dependable and efficient service such as they may not have enjoyed before.

I am aware that the publisher of this newspaper has, on several occasions undertaken to cooperate with various sources in an effort to provide this service for Muleshoe residents. In view of some of his experiences with office machine men, Mr. Forbes should have a special permit for shooting them. Permit or not, I suspect that if I let him down, I'll be his first target! I won't.

Seriously, when you are in need of office machine repairs call The Muleshoe Journal, who will relay your call to me. Or, if it's an emergency, call me direct.

Presley Stars In Moeller Movie

Few entertainers have known the glittering success that belongs to Elvis Presley at the ripe age of 25. Presley has shot from humble beginnings as a Tennessee truck driver to the role of national idol for millions of teen-agers.

Probably the most successful recording star who ever spun a disc, he zooms to new heights in a rip-roaring pioneer drama "Flaming Star", a 20th Century-Fox release in CinemaScope and DeLuxe Color opening Sunday at the Moeller Theatre.

Following his recent hitch in Uncle Sam's armed forces, Elvis has made a dramatic return to the screen, demonstrating his maturing acting and singing talents as Pacer Burton, half-breed Indian boy whose mother is a beautiful Kiowa maiden (Dolores Di Rio, and his father a white man.

Reared on the Texas prairies, his keen awareness and knife-edge tension burst into focus when hostile Indians swarm in massacre on the neighboring settlers.

"Flaming Star" is a new kind of role for Presley, with a dramatic range outstanding in its intensity and in its plea for understanding between races. The departure marks a new achievement in his ever broadening career and wins fresh laurels for the singing star as a serious actor of compassion and perception.

Elvis was born in Mississippi, the survivor of identical twins. His parents moved him to Memphis at the age of 13, where he learned to play the guitar and sing ballads in the typical style of many Southern folks.

First Baptist Church Houseparty Is Termed Success By 156 Girls

A very interesting talk by Mrs. J. A. Lunsford, a missionary who has spent 28 years in Brazil, was enjoyed by 156 Intermediate GA girls who attended the Houseparty in the First Baptist church in Muleshoe Friday and Saturday, April 14-15. Twenty-one churches in the Llanos Altos district were represented. The girls ages were 13-15.

South American Tour, which was enjoyed by all. Susan Blair sang "Teach Me To Pray". Registration started at 5 p.m., Friday afternoon with the night meal following, then snack time at 9 p.m. The girls then rolled out their bedding for the night to arise at 7 a.m. They then enjoyed breakfast, programs, Coke time and lunch. They were then dismissed.

Mrs. Verney Towns, Association WMU president, gave the welcome address. Mrs. P. A. Adams of Bovina introduced the council officers. Jan Holland of Amherst, council president, was in charge of the programs. Mrs. Wayne Bristow discussed "Missions in the Northwest". Mrs. Franklin E. Swanner showed a very interesting film on a

The chairman of the night meal was Mrs. I. L. Kitchens of Longview. Mrs. Walter Verner of Oklahoma Lane was in charge of snack time. Mrs. Melvin Seymore of Muleshoe was in charge of the breakfast and Mrs. Troy Blackburn of Sunnyside was in charge of the lunch. Mothers from all the other churches in this area helped.

DOWPON controls cattails and problem grasses along ditches

A regular spraying program with DOWPON* puts an end to the continual expense and hard work of burning, chopping or cultivating Johnson or Bermuda grass out of crop lands and cattails out of ditches. In headlands and along fence lines, too, Dowpon eliminates grass—for it kills the deep roots as well as tops. Through cumulative action, this program becomes less costly each year. You'll find Dowpon cheaper than chlorates or borates, less messy than oiling. Simply mix Dowpon with water, and spray.

KNOW YOUR INSECT ENEMY THE PINK BOLLWORM

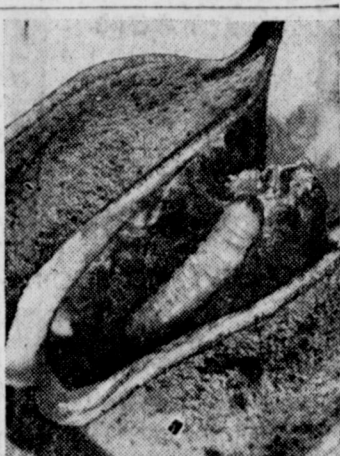

Trademark of this pink pest is a rosetted cotton bloom (lower photo). In more than 60 countries around the world, cotton growers have been battling the pink bollworm for many years.

The first attack in the United States was on Texas cotton in 1917. Pink bollworms hurt cotton yields in several ways. In severe infestations, damaged squares and small bolls are shed. Larvae penetrate bolls and tunnel into the cotton seed, their preferred food. Thus, cotton seed is ruined and the oil is lost. Grade and staple of lint also is lowered by the tunneling worms.

Adult moths are brown and almost an inch across from tip to tip of the wings. Because they are inactive by day, moths are seldom seen. Female moths lay about 200 small white eggs, generally well-concealed on smaller bolls under the calyx. The pupal stage is distinctive; white when first formed, turning to dark brown before emergence. The hind end is short, stout and hooklike.

Careful quarantine efforts have succeeded in limiting the range of this pest to seven cotton states: Texas, Arizona, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Arkansas and Florida. Spot infestations in Florida and Georgia have been successfully eradicated. Regulated planting and stalk destruction dates have been important factors in preventing more serious pink bollworm problems.

In 1960, a new carbamate pesticide was widely applied both as a dust and in spray formulations. According to growers, Sevin insecticide controlled pink bollworms and knocked out other major cotton pests as well. Pest control experts emphasize that the combination of sound culture practices and planned insecticide applications can minimize the pink bollworm threat.

Lone Star Agriculture

Eligibility For Farm Operating Loans Broadened

A revision by the U. S. Department of Agriculture of its eligibility requirements for operating loans so as to better serve the credit needs of small farmers will aid many Texas farmers.

Farmers who can profitably use operating loans to increase their farm income and have the ability to repay their debts are now eligible even though they cannot presently obtain all the resources needed for family-type farm operations, and lack opportunity at this time to adequately supplement their farm income with off-farm employment.

Previously, operating loans were made only to farmers who could obtain the resources needed for family-type farm operations, or who could supplement their farm income with off-farm employment to the extent that their total income was equal to that from a family-type farm.

Included in the group of small farmers not previously eligible are (1) young farmers who in the near future will be able to obtain additional land and other resources, (2) young and middle aged farmers who may be able to obtain off-farm income in the near future, and (3) some farmers who are nearing retirement.

Operating loans are made for the purchase of livestock and equipment, for fertilizer, tractor fuel, feed and other essential farm and home operating needs, and to refinance chattel debts. The loans are scheduled for repayment in accordance with the borrowers' abilities to repay, over periods not exceeding seven years. The interest rate is five percent.

Other eligibility requirements remain unchanged. Applicants to be eligible must be unable to obtain adequate credit from other sources, and with the aid of the loan be able to earn an income sufficient to pay necessary farm operating and family living expenses and meet the required payments on their debts.

Babson Discusses When This Bull Market Will End

Babson Park, Mass., April 20—After fifty years of study of the stock market, I tender a list of signs for the culmination of a bull market, and offer an important final conclusion.

Watch Wall Street Statistics

1. I like to notice the number of shareholders of the larger corporations. When the number of shareholders begins to decline, it means to me that we are nearing the end of the bull market, that the insiders are selling out.
2. I watch the level of brokers' loans and the degree of market activity. There is a steady rise in both of these preceding the culmination of a bull market.
3. I like to watch the publishing percentage of total borrowing by members of the New York Stock Exchange. When it is 6% or more, the stock market is in a vulnerable position.
4. A prolonged period of tight money with low bond prices and large stock transactions usually points to the termination of a bull market. Of course now, with President Kennedy attempting to control the money market, this situation is not so significant.
5. Although the Dow-Jones Averages may continue to go up for some time before the bull market culminates, this does not mean that the stocks you hold will go up any further. Therefore, the table of New Lows which appear in the daily newspapers should be watched and compared with the general averages.
6. Never wait until the movement in the stock market ap-

Stock Prices and Money Rates

8. All the talk about mergers, consolidations, etc., should be read. Naturally, the directors of a company are in the best position to get earnings news; as long as the company is earning good money and its prospects are good, directors are not interested in consolidations or mergers. Hence, these news items about consolidations may be good signals that a bull market is culminating. In the case of the death of a large stockholder, this is usually a signal that the stock will sell off.

When you make up your mind that the bull market is culminating, you should not be too anxious to get out at the top. When deciding to sell, enter an order to sell "at a fair market", rather than at a fixed price. Remember that the large brokerage houses always balance the relative number of orders to buy or sell and the prices at which the orders are to be executed. As these brokers compare notes, when they go out to lunch, the game is stacked against those who are depending on "fixed" selling orders.

Conclusion: In the long run, we must not forget Sir Isaac Newton's "Law of Action and Reaction" pronounced in 1687 and translated into English in

Driving Tips

"Driving Responsibility"

Since there are such a large number of traffic accidents, surveys have been made to find out the main causes.

One main cause of traffic accidents is improper turning. Accidents are caused when a turn is made from the wrong traffic lane and also, when the driver fails to signal when intending to turn.

A great many accidents are caused when drivers fail to stop at "stop" signs. Only a small fraction of the people come to a complete stop at a "stop" sign. More than half of the people fail to even slow down to 15 m.p.h. and some disregard the sign completely.

The survey also showed that drivers fail to show responsibility at traffic light signals. Some pass through red lights, proceed before the light turns green; some even over-run the "stop" lines. A large number of drivers fail to reduce speed at dangerous locations.

Many other causes of tragic accidents are: Passing on the wrong side. Cutting in. Failure to give way to a passing car. Driving in the wrong lane.

You may come to the conclusion that accidents are heavy because too many drivers do not fully accept their responsibilities.

1729. Since the beginning of time, every period of prosperity has gone too far and has been followed by a period of reaction. When we were on the gold basis, the investor could forecast this change; but now we are on a political basis instead. President Kennedy, the Federal Reserve, and Congress can extend the present bull market but they are simply delaying the final evil day by so doing.

Finally, always be prepared for some unexpected event. Such an event usually marks the immediate culmination of a bull market.

SANDHILLS PHILOSOPHER SAYS Space Travel, Like Riding On A Bicycle, May Lose Its Novelty

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm calms his concern about the Russians' space flight, in his letter this week.

Dear editor:

I was out here on this Johnson grass farm the other afternoon looking up at the sky and a neighbor stopped and asked: "What're you doing, looking for a Russian traveling through space?"

I told him nope, just looking for clouds.

Everybody I know has been excited, and a little concerned, about the Russians' getting the first man into space, and it is an achievement, but I have a notion that the Russians, who threw their hats in the air when they were first in space, spent the next few minutes looking for them on the ground, as hats spring from the products of the earth, not from space.

You will notice that man, when he goes into space, has to carry his own earth-produced oxygen with him, whereas I've already got all the oxygen I need completely free any place I want to go on this farm.

My point is, outer space may be interesting to look at the first trip or two out, but it could get mighty boring in the long run.

And as for our being behind the Russians in space, it's true, but I'll tell you, I believe we can catch up and I believe we will. In the final analysis, a new scientific feat is impossible to get a monopoly on. You can't keep a secret very long. Everybody's got laboratories these days. It's sort of like the secret of the bicycle. One country at one time no doubt had the bicycle first, but once the idea was discovered, bicycles turned up all over.

The United States sooner or later will be sending men through space too, and this generation will be over before we start having traffic collisions up there too, but I have a notion the novelty will wear off and traveling through space may wind up like a man I know who saved up his money and traveled around the world. He said the trip was interesting, but the best sight he saw was the look of home when he got back. And you've got to remember this man was on the earth's surface, not going

Readings from the Bible in the Lesson-Sermon "Probation after Death" will include this passage from Romans (15): "For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written

A correlative passage to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states (p. 446): "To understand God strengthens hope, enthrones faith in Truth, and verifies Jesus' word: 'Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.'" The Golden Text is from Revelation (3): "He that over-
