County Holidays Set; Court Discusses Show Barn Here

Lynn County Commissioners in regular session Monday discussed county holidays, a Grievance Committee, auditing firm for county records, various dues, and governance of the Lynn County Livestock Show Barn. Commissioners Jacky Henry, Sandy Cox and J.T. Miller were present for the meeting, with County Judge J.F. Brandon presiding. Commissioner T.A. Stone was absent.

A list of ten county holidays for county employees was approved by the three commissioners present, including Martin Luther King's Birthday, Good Friday, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, New Year's Day, and two days at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

A list of Grand Jury members who served in 1993 was presented to the court by the District Clerk, from which a total of nine names were drawn to serve on the Grievance Committee. The committee will be composed of Danny Gregg, Wilma Gerner, Mary Liseby, Fredrick Chesley, Sanjuana Lucra, Consolicio Hallmark, Woody Follis, Carlos Vega III, and Gilbert Steinhauer.

Commissioners approved dues for several county associations, and selected Love Hays & Co., CPA, to serve as auditors for the 1993 county records. Some discussion was held about a copy machine for county use in the sheriff's office, but no action was taken.

A motion was passed in December by commissioners allowing Sheriff Jake Diggs to contract with the Regional Organized Crime Information Center which was supposedly to help with long-distance telephone costs and other areas, but County Judge J.F. Brandon notified commissioners that Sheriff Diggs opted not to pursue that contract.

Mike Braddock met with commissioners to discuss the Lynn County Livestock Show Barn about some livestock scales which needed to be disposed of, and the court approved a bid notice for such sale. Also, Braddock discussed guidelines for the stock barn, and after some discussion commissioners voted that the Lynn County Livestock Board of Directors be the governing body of the showbarn.

The Lynn County Livestock Board of Directors will be responsible for care of the barn, scheduling use of the barn, setting rates for use of facilities and collection of fees, deposits and maintenance of funds. General rules include: no alcoholic beverages; no gambling; no private parties, such as weddings or family reunions; organizations and groups using facilities will be responsible for upkeep; facilities are limited to residents or organizations of Lynn County; public dances will be required to have off-duty law officers present, with fees paid by sponsoring organization; and four sponsors must be present at all times for a public dance if sponsored by high school age organizations.

Mike Braddock is president of the Lynn County Livestock Board of Directors. Other board members are Randy Erickson, Wesley Boone, Gates Compton, Woody Follis, Nelson Hogg, Mark Clem, Andy Fillingim, Leland Zant, David Wied, Renn Dorman and Freddie James.

Lynn County EMS Receives $3,000 For New Equipment

by JUANELL JONES
Lynn County EMS received a $3,000 check recently from the CH Foundation in Lubbock, to be put toward the $8200 cost of new radio repeater communications equipment for EMS personnel. The funds were available through a grant search conducted by the Lynn County Committee of the Wes-Tex RC&D (Resource Conservation and Development). Lynn County Hospital will fund the remaining $5200 expense, according to Hospital Administrator Louise Landers.

The equipment will be installed some time in the near future on an existing tower owned by the City of Tahoka and Lynn County, who have approved the venture. The new communications equipment will allow for better communication between EMS personnel and the hospital, and O'Donnell EMS may also have access to the hospital through the repeater station.

Currently, Lynn County EMS radio communications are through repeater tower locations in Post or Brownfield, making for "spotty" communications at best. "We're right between, but just a little too far away, from those two towers for our radio communications," said Billy Tomlinson with Lynn County EMS. "This new equipment is really going to simplify our radio communications, and is something which we really needed. People need to be able to depend on emergency medical service, and we're grateful to the hospital and the RC&D, and to the CH Foundation, for bringing this about," he added.

The need for the equipment was brought to the attention of the Lynn County RC&D group, and volunteer RC&D member Thalia Burks wrote the grant request which was then submitted through RC&D channels for a grant search. That search brought Mrs. Burks in contact with the CH Foundation in Lubbock, who approved a $3000 grant for the communications equipment.

"We're proud of Mrs. Burks for volunteering her time and efforts in writing this grant request," said H.G. Franklin, Chairman of the Lynn County Committee of the Wes-Tex RC&D. "We're all volunteers in this group, but our grant writers have taken the time to attend grant-writing seminars, and then they volunteer even more valuable time in getting the information together which is needed in writing each grant request. It's not an easy thing to do," he explained.

The CH Foundation in Lubbock is a general purpose foundation, usually limiting grants to organizations whose services benefit the South Plains area of Texas. The Foundation was set up by the Mallet Ranch, located in Cochran and Bailey Counties, for the purpose of funding agricultural and ranching programs, community and neighborhood improvement and development, cultural needs, education, health and social services, research, and youth services.

Dan Henson of Morton, the Wes-Tex RC&D Coordinator, extended his congratulations to the Lynn County RC&D group in the venture, noting that Lynn County was one of the most active members of the 16-county Wes-Tex RC&D. The group has several projects in mind for which grant searches may be conducted, and meets once a month.

Radio, Stereo Are Stolen Off Tractors

A radio and a stereo cassette player were stolen off tractors on farms south of Tahoka Saturday afternoon, Lynn County sheriff's officers were advised. Todd Lockaby of Tahoka reported a stereo taken from his John Deere tractor parked in a field about 9 miles southwest of Tahoka.

The radio was stolen off another John Deere tractor owned by Jackie Stidham of O'Donnell on the Stidham farm five miles south of Tahoka and 3/4 of a mile west on a county dirt road.

Police talked with a Tahoka woman who named two persons, a female and male, whom she said assaulted her in her home on N. 7th St. Thursday. No charges had been filed.

Police also recovered a bicycle stolen from Perry's by a juvenile last Thursday. The boy, who took a new bicycle from in front of the store and left his own, was turned over to juvenile officers.

A complaint of harassment also was investigated by Tahoka Police Dept.

Two persons pleaded guilty of felony charges and were sentenced this week by District Judge George Hansard. Jerry Meeks, 38, of Tahoka, was assessed three years in prison for driving while intoxicated, subsequent offense. George Munoz, 25, of Wilson, was sentenced to five years in prison on revocation of his probation on a prior conviction for burglary.

One person was jailed last week, for DWI.

2,909 Calls Made To Police Dept. In 1993

Tahoka Police Dept. received 2,909 phone calls during 1993, about 150 more than in the previous year, Chief Jerry Webster said last week, after compiling figures on the last year's activities by the Police Dept.

Most categories of activities by the officers increased from the previous year. There were 99 arrests, compared to 86 in 1992; 202 tickets and 259 warning tickets were issued, compared to 164 and 248. The 12 burglaries investigated in 1993, six of which were cleared, was two less than in 1992. But the biggest increase was the number of thefts reported, 33 during the last year compared to 15 the previous year. Twenty-two of the thefts were cleared.

Tahoka Cub Scouts Initiate Flag Membership Program

Tahoka Cub Scouts have initiated a new patriotic service in Tahoka called the Flag Membership Program, and are asking area residents and business owners to show their patriotic spirit by displaying a U.S. Flag during six holidays a year.

For an annual fee of $25, the U.S. Flag will be displayed in front of a home or business in Tahoka on six holidays a year, beginning with Flag Day in February. For that fee, the Scouts will place a 10-foot flag pole in the front yards of homes or in the concrete walks in front of businesses, and will place a 3'x5' U.S. Flag in the stand on Flag Day, President's Day, Labor Day, Independence Day, Veterans' Day and Memorial Day.

"You won't have to remember to put the flag out. The scouts will do that for you," said Scoutmaster Todd Henry. "They also pick up the flag and will keep it until the next holiday, when they will come around early in the morning to put your flag out for you," he added.

In effect, the program involves leasing a flag from the scouts and allowing them to display and store the flag for participants. "Anyone interested in participating in the program should contact the scouts as soon as possible, since we will begin displaying the flags in February," said Henry.

According to Henry, the Tahoka scouts have a goal of selling 300 flag memberships, and the money raised will be used for scout camps, awards, uniforms and other needs.

To enlist in the Flag Membership Program, contact Scoutmaster Henry at 998-5488, or write to Tahoka Cub Scouts, P.O. Box 1281, Tahoka, Texas 79373 and include the $25 fee, along with your name, street address and phone number.

Softer Oil Better for your Heart

Margarine and other artificial fats are often made by treating vegetable oils with hydrogen. Processing oils into a harder form changes the chemical structure. Several studies indicate that the rearranged fatty acids seem to raise LDL cholesterol linked with heart disease. Watch out for "partially hydrogenated" vegetable oils on food labels.

HOME IS WHERE THE HEART IS!

The above statement is oft quoted by homesick people. There is a lot of truth in it. Many young people leave Tahoka only to find themselves sighing at the thought of "Bulldogs," Mom and cotton. Home is the place that we long for with the heart.

To the child of God, heaven is our home. Living in Tahoka is nice but it will be better when we get home. Paul said, "For our citizenship is in heaven, from which also we eagerly wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ ... (Philippians 3:20)." We are only aliens here.

At home -- heaven -- there is no reason for mourning, weeping, pain or sorrow. They simply do not exist there. Our Lord has provided for all his children a dwelling place where we can be with Him forever.

If all this sounds good to you, wonderful. For it truly is. The really good news is that the Lord wants you to be there, at home with Him.

We invite you to come worship with us. We are a bunch of homesick children of God. Come let us share our hope and home with you.

Measurements To Determine Change In Water Levels

High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 Technical Division staff are making annual depth-to-water measurements to determine the effect of 1993 pumpage on ground water levels of the Ogallala Aquifer within the 15-county Water District service area.

Measurements are taken in more than 1,100 privately-owned wells in the District's observation well network. These wells are spaced at a density of about one well per nine square miles throughout the District.

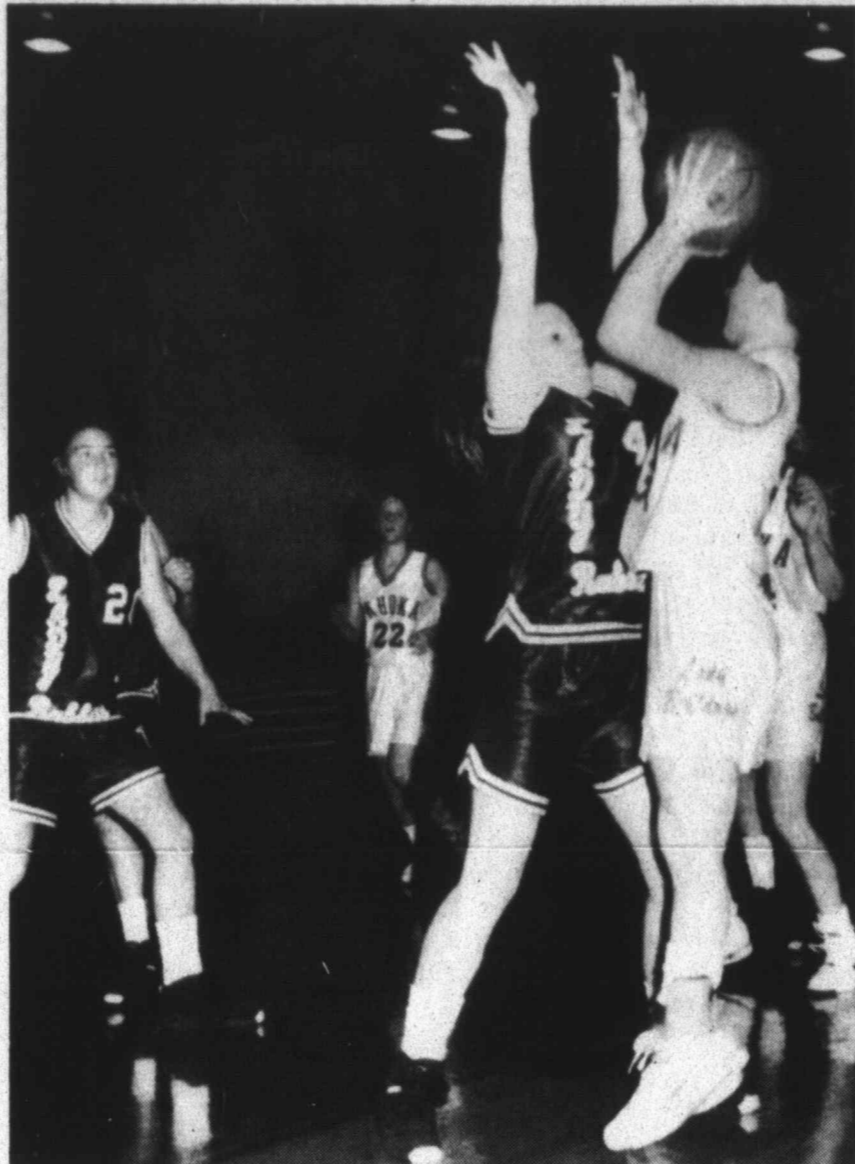

"We have established observation well sites for the newly-annexed portions of Cochran and Lynn Counties," says Don McReynolds, Technical Division Director. "In the portion of Hale County added to the Water District in August, we plan to measure depths-to-water in wells currently included in the State of Texas ground water monitoring program."

After the depth-to-water level measurement is taken, the data is recorded and a vinyl sticker showing the well number, the depth-to-water measurement, and the date the well was measured is affixed to equipment at the well site.

Water District staff will begin making water level measurements in the northern portion of the District and will work their way south. Blue and white District vehicles are easily identified, and personnel will be glad to discuss the water level measurement with landowners and/or operators.

Maps showing the location and well number of observation wells in each county or portion of a county served by the District are traditionally published in the April issue of the Water District's monthly newsletter, The Cross Section. Along with the maps, tables listing the observation wells in each county and the depth-to-water measurements for one year (1993-1994), five year (1989-1994) and ten year intervals (1984-1994) will also be printed.

Direct Broadcast TV Satellite Launched

The nation's first high powered direct broadcast satellite (DBS-1) was successfully rocketed into space recently from the South American nation of French Guiana.

"The successful launch of this satellite will put rural America on the cutting edge of the information age," said Ronny Puckett, Manager-Digital Satellite Television. According to Puckett, "The signal is a compressed digital format, so customers will enjoy CD quality sound and a picture that is 30% sharper than standard television signals."

The new satellite, DBS-1, will begin delivering approximately 70 channels of digital television service, called DirecTv, to viewers across the country in the spring of 1994 using an innovative 18-inch satellite dish receiving system. The Digital Satellite System (DSS) equipment is being manufactured by Thomson Consumer Electronics, makers of RCA-brand products. The DSS includes the 18-inch satellite dish, a digital receiver box and a remote control.

The service will expand to approximately 150 channels when the DBS-1 satellite is joined by a sister satellite in the summer of 1994.

DirecTv, a unit of GM Hughes Electronics, will offer the new service to viewers throughout the United States and Canada. Distribution in many rural areas is being handled for DirecTv through an agreement with the rural electric, rural telephone and affiliate members of the National Rural Telecommunications Cooperative (NRTC).

Locally, the service will be provided by Digital Satellite Television in Lynn County and in Andrews, Bailey, Borden, Cochran, Crosby, Dawson, Dickens, Floyd, Gaines, Garza, Hale, Hall, Hockley, Howard, Keft, Lamb, Lubbock, Martin, Motley, Terry and Yoakum counties. Digital Satellite Television is being managed by Poca-Lambro Telecommunications, Inc. System owners are Poca-Lambro, South Plains Telephone Cooperative, Inc., Lubbock; South Plains Electric Cooperative, Inc., Lubbock; Lyntegar Electric Cooperative, Inc., Tahoka; and Lamb County Electric Cooperative, Inc., Littlefield.

The programming signed to the system so far includes many of the most popular cable networks, including CNN, The Disney Channel, The Discovery Channel, The Sci-Fi Channel, The Learning Channel, The Discovery Channel, Country Music Television and many more. In addition, DirecTv will offer more than 50 channels of pay-per-view programming including hit movies, sporting events and specials from companies such as Sony Pictures, Paramount Pictures, Universal Pictures and the Turner/MGM Library - all at the touch of a button.

Little Dribblers Signups Slated

Tahoka Little Dribblers signups will be held during three time periods in the next two weeks, for Tahoka youngsters in grades 3-6 only. Parents should bring their child's birth certificate, and a $15 per person registration fee to sign up for the Little Dribblers program.

Signups will be held in the Lyntegar meeting room on Monday, Jan. 17, from 6:30-8:30 p.m.; on Sunday, Jan. 23, from 3-6 p.m.; and on Monday, Jan. 24, from 6-8 p.m.

Last year, Tahoka did not participate in Little Dribblers, instead involving children in grades K-6 in Tahoka Youth Basketball. This year, Tahoka will once again participate in the Little Dribblers program, with teams for 3rd-4th grade, and 5th-6th grade. Little Dribblers will begin practicing sometime in late February. More details will be available at a later date.

WATCH FEET AND LEGS IN YOUR YOUNG CHILD

If a young child has any irregular growth pattern such as bowlegs, knock-knees, feet turning in or out, etc., be sure to mention it on the next visit to your family doctor or pediatrician. If he thinks there may be a problem he may suggest that an orthopedic specialist take a look.

Bowlegs and knock-knees are usually normal growth patterns and treatment is not necessary. Sometimes though they could be associated with club feet, obesity or a nervous condition. Feet turning in or out can usually be corrected by means of special shoes with a correcting bar.

Wilson High School Offers New Programs For Spring Semester

Wilson High School students will be able to take advantage of two new programs in which they can possibly earn college credit. These new programs are the College Board's Advanced Placement Program and Tech-Prep Microcomputer Applications.

The Advanced Placement Program is nationally recognized by colleges and universities as one in which high school students may enroll in courses that are the equivalent in content and academic rigor to college courses. The Texas Education Agency automatically designates AP courses as having "honor" status, while all other courses must be approved individually by the Commissioner of Education.

The first AP course to be offered at Wilson will be AP Macroeconomics which will be taught by Bob Williams, high school principal. Students in grades 10-12 that have completed two years of math credits may enroll. Plans for additional AP courses for next year are currently being developed.

Tech-Prep Microcomputer Applications is one set of business occupations courses where students learn business computer applications including the use of popular software programs such as WordPerfect, Lotus 1-2-3, and dBase IV. Students will utilize a laboratory with new computers equipped with the latest versions of the previously mentioned software, Microsoft Windows, CD-ROM, modems, and inkjet printers. Business and computer instructor Peggy McCoy will teach the course which is available to juniors and seniors.

Students completing Tech Prep courses may obtain college credit through South Plains College if they complete an additional twelve semester hours of course work there. Wilson ISD is a member of the South Plains Tech-Prep Consortium which administers Tech-Prep initiatives in the region.

The WILSON News by Buster Abbe 628-6368

Wilson Livestock Association will be holding their annual BBQ and Silent Auction this Sunday, 11-1:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria. Tickets are $5 for adults and $2.50 for children 12 and under. Carryout plates will be available.

Proceeds from the meal and the auction will be used to benefit the associations' activities at the Lynn County Stock Show premium sale to be held Saturday, Jan. 29 at the conclusion of the Lynn County Stock Show.

Auction items have been donated by various individuals, businesses, and representatives from several of the major agricultural supply companies in the area. There are many nice, useable, and quality items in the sale. Those who would like to have some of these items need to be sure to attend. For further information as to some of the items available contact Keith Wied or Gates Compton.

Wilson ISD students will have a holiday this Friday, Jan. 14. Teachers will use this day as a preparation day to wrap up their work for the first semester and to begin the second semester.

The Wilson Lions Club met Thursday, Jan. 6. After the meal, the program was presented by a representative from the women's protective services organization, which is based in Lubbock, but which serves area counties, including Lynn.

DONATION TO FIRE DEPARTMENT - Vink Miller (right), President of Wilson State Bank, presented J.A. Evans (left), Mayor of New Home, with a generous donation from the bank to upgrade New Home's Volunteer Fire Department. Freddie Kieth is New Home VFD Chief.

A special thanks to the crew of the Wilson Coop Gin who spent several days cleaning the cotton burs and other loose locks of cotton from the yards and the gutters along Highway 211. Wilson is fortunate to have a business like the Coop, who tries to act like a good neighbor, and who does a pretty good job of it.

Wilson students involved in FFA and 4-H are also involved with preparations for the upcoming Lynn County Stock Show. The most noticeable parts of the show are the shows involving the cattle, hogs, and sheep, but another group also gets to "strut their stuff" and this group can get pushed out of the limelight, but to them, their part of the show is just as important. These are the kids that participate in the baked goods division. These participants can easily turn out some high quality pies, cakes, breads, and rolls. Also, this division is the only one where the buyer at the auction actually gets what he buys.

The City Council met Monday and as part of its activity, accepted a generous contribution from the Wilson State Bank. The council has discussed where this money will do the most good and four areas are being considered:

1. Use in completing the walking track at the park;
2. Funding additional suits of "bunker gear" for the fire department. This will enable the department to suit out of all of the 10 active, rostered, members of the department;
3. Modification and replacement of the drive-out door at the rear of the fire station;
4. Maintenance of the exterior of the water tower, including a much needed paint job.

With the receipt of this much appreciated contribution, the city will be able to provide increased use of the park by the public, more and better fire protection, and additional maintenance of the water distribution system.

From the calendar:
Thursday, Jan. 13: School board meets in elementary board room, 7 p.m.

Friday, Jan. 14: Student holiday and teacher preparation day; varsity basketball vs. Union in Wilson, 6:30 p.m.
