DRIVER INJURED—The driver of this 1990 Ford pickup, Rowdy Braddock, 18, was badly injured as the pickup overturned just east of Tahoka on County Rd. 24 Sunday evening. (LCN PHOTO)

Eight Persons Hurt In County Wrecks

Dept. of Public Safety officers investigated six traffic accidents in Lynn County in the last two weeks, including three this week.

About 6 p.m. Sunday a 1990 Ford pickup driven by Rowdy Braddock, 18, of Tahoka, overturned just east of Tahoka on Cemetery Rd., seriously injuring the driver. Braddock was taken to Lynn County Hospital by EMS ambulance and later transferred to St. Mary's in Lubbock with unspecified injuries.

Two accidents were reported on Wednesday, June 14, one at Wilson at 9:23 p.m. and one just north of O'Donnell on U.S. 87 at 3:48 a.m. Near O'Donnell James Robert Beam, 30, of Lamesa was driving a 1980 Ford Bronco which struck the rear of an unattended 1980 Buick which had been parked on the shoulder of the highway. Beam and a passenger, Jesse Rios, 36, of Lamesa, were injured and were taken to Lynn County Hospital by EMS ambulance.

Owner of the Buick is Catherine Weatherspoon of Midland.

On FM 211 in Wilson that same day, Andrea Rios, 16, of Wilson suffered minor injuries when the mirror on a 1986 Suburban driven by Robert Lloyd Williams, 38, of Wilson, struck her as she was walking. She was taken to Lynn County Hospital for treatment.

On June 11 in O'Donnell at the intersection of Baldrige and 5th St. about 7:45 p.m. a 1990 Ford driven by Angela D. Heathington, 16, of O'Donnell and a bicycle ridden by Casey Tony Martinez, 8, collided. The child, taken by EMS ambulance to Lynn County Hospital, reportedly suffered serious injury. Officers said the bicycle rider did not yield at a yield sign.

On June 9 at 10th and Doak in O'Donnell a 1989 Ford pickup driven by Bernie Vestal, 72, of O'Donnell and a 1994 Chevrolet driven by Teresa Gandy, 39, of O'Donnell, collided. Vestal, who was thrown from his pickup, was taken to Lynn County Hospital by EMS ambulance and Teresa Gandy and a passenger, Eric Gandy, 14, were taken to Lynn County Hospital by private vehicle.

Lynn County Sheriff's Dept. investigated a hit-and-run at O'Donnell on Wednesday, June 14. A Ford pickup owned by Jimmy Vaughn of Rt. 1, O'Donnell, was parked at a convenience store when it was struck by an unknown vehicle which left the scene, damaging the Ford.

In Wilson, Joe Hernandez of Wilson reported that a tire had blown up and damaged his pickup as he was trying to air up the tire in the back of the truck. It caused a dent in the bed and flew up into the air and came down on the cab, causing more damage. Hernandez also suffered an in-

Track Closed Until Monday

The final latex surface is being placed on the new track at Tahoka High School, and as a result the track will be closed to walkers until Monday, June 26.

According to Athletic Director Darrell Draper, the latex surface requires several coats, and should be finished for use by the public on Monday. However, the track will be closed to walkers one more time in the near future for striping the lanes, which should complete the new track.

NATIONAL Dog Bite Prevention Week was last week, June 12-17, so this comment is only a week late, and besides, I and my family members avoided getting bit last week. Still, the suggestions sent out by the U.S. Postal Service are worth consideration.

(The Postal Service is interested in the problem, because almost every letter carrier has been bitten...which is why Red Skelton once said the best-selling dog food was one that tasted like the mailman's leg).

To avoid being bitten, says the Postal Service and Humane Society:

1. Don't run past a dog. The dog's natural instinct is to chase and catch prey.
2. If a dog threatens you, don't scream. Avoid eye contact, try to remain motionless (as in petrified?) until the dog leaves. (There is another solution, which I can't propose because it would upset some irresponsible dog owner).
3. Don't approach a strange dog, especially one that is tied up or confined.
4. Always let a dog see and sniff you before you pet the animal. (No way, man; I've been sniffed before).

MAKING THE ROUNDS these days is a really funny paper on world history compiled by Richard Lederer, who prefaced the paper by saying "One of the fringe benefits of being an English or history teacher is receiving the occasional jewel of a student blooper in an essay. I have pasted together the following condensed 'history' of the world from certifiably genuine student bloopers collected by teachers throughout the U.S., from grade eight through college levels."

There is a section on the Bible, which I will mostly leave to my minister friends to repeat, except that "David was a Hebrew king skilled at playing the liar. He fought the Philatelists. Solomon, one of David's sons, had 500 wives and 500 porcupines."

Other historical (and hysterical) gems:

"When Queen Elizabeth exposed herself before her troops, they all shouted "hurrah." Then her navy went out and defeated the Spanish Armadillo."

"Precedent Lincoln was born in a log cabin he built with his own hands. He signed the Emasculation Proclamation, and was shot in his seat by an actor in a motion picture."

"William Shakespear wrote tragedies, comedies and errors. The next great author was John Milton. Milton wrote "Paradise Lost." Then his wife died and he wrote "Paradise Regained."

There were some other humorous bloopers, but I don't have room to list them all.

Ava Lichey just returned home from a month's vacation in southeast Texas. She flew into Houston May 15 and celebrated her 89th birthday there at the home of her daughter, Mary Lou Boggus.

After her birthday, Ava spent a week at her son's home in Beaumont where she attended the high school graduation exercises of her eldest great-grandchild, April McGhin. She also attended recitals and plays where her other great-granddaughters were performing.

Upon returning to Houston, Ava visited several places of interest in that area with her daughter and son-in-law, Don and Mary Lou Boggus. One of the places she enjoyed most was Bayou Wildlife Park near Alvin - 86 acres of woods and clearings that is home to many species of exotic animals from many countries.

Just before returning home June 18, Ava visited her grandson, Roddy Boggus, his wife, Mary, and great-grandson, Jonathan in Grand Prairie. She also visited her sister, Ruth Giles, and her husband Bill, her niece, Carrolle Sellers and others in Fort Worth. Ava reports that she had a very good time but is glad to be home.

MR. and MRS. AARON HEATH FURLOW

Couple Exchanges Vows In Lamesa

Jodi Roberts and Aaron Heath Furlow were married in an evening ceremony on April 29, 1995 in the First Baptist Church of Lamesa.

Dr. Bervin Caswell, a retired Methodist minister of Abilene who is a great-uncle of the groom, officiated the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Billy and Donna Roberts of Welch. Parents of the groom are Bobby Mack and Brenda Furlow of Draw. Grandparents of the bride are Mrs. Jewell Roberts of Lamesa and the late J.B. Roberts and Mrs. Kitty Boles of Lamesa and the late E.M. Boles. Furlow's grandparents are Alma Furlow of Lamesa, Sharlott Furlow of Lubbock and the late A.B. Furlow and Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Barnes of Draw.

Marla Goode of Welch was the pianist. Sarah Roberts, sister of the bride, sang "Till I Love You," as the parents were seated. David Masey of Tulsa, Okla., sang "I Swear" as the bride entered the church. Byron Norwood of Tahoka sang "The Lord's Prayer" during the lighting of the unity candle.

The sanctuary was decorated with two spiral candelabra accented with greenery and navy bows. The pews were decorated with navy bows and burgundy flowers.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a formal white satin gown with a fitted lace bodice featuring a scalloped V-neckline accented with seed pearls and iridescent beads. The long, fitted tulle sleeves were accented with lace and seed pearls forming a V at the wrist. The waistline was complemented with rosettes adorned with seed pearls and a bow. The cathedral length train was enhanced with lace motifs, iridescent beads and seed pearls.

The bride's headpiece was a pearl tiara featuring a fingertip-length tulle veil.

The bridal bouquet, designed and made by the bride, was an arrangement of burgundy and white silk roses.

In keeping with tradition the bride chose, as something borrowed, a necklace of cultured pearls belonging to Jan Gentry, cousin of the bride. Her gown was something new and her garter was something blue. Something old was a garter worn by the groom's mother at her wedding.

Tee Atkins and Pat Grimes of Dallas presented the couple with coins marking their birthdates.

The bride presented a long-stem white rose to her mother upon entering the sanctuary and another one to the groom's mother as she was leaving.

Gena Roberts of Tulsa, Okla., served her sister as maid of honor. Sara Roberts of Welch, sister of the bride; Jeanie McPherson of Houston; Marti Carswell of Dallas; and Vera McRae of Nacogdoches were the bridesmaids.

They wore navy floral, fitted tea length gowns with a contrasting yoke and shawl collar of polished burgundy. Their bouquets, designed and made by the bride, were of long-stemmed gladiolus accented with white satin ribbons and bows.

Jaclyn Roberts of Welch, niece of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a navy floral, tea-length dress with a white battenburg lace collar made by Doni Roberts. She carried a burgundy wicker basket adorned with white satin ribbon and bows.

Galen Roberts and Marlen Roberts of Welch, nephews of the bride, were the ring bearers.

Philip Mack Furlow of Dallas served his brother as best man. Scotty Isbell of Brownfield and Michael Isbell of Lubbock, cousins of the groom; Dia Thomas of Missouri; and Danny Bishop of McKinney were groomsmen.

Eric Roberts of Welch, brother of the bride; James Flemming of Arlington; and Ronnie Rios of San Antonio were ushers.

Mary Furlow of Dallas, sister-in-law of the groom, registered guests.

Lynn County Receives Funds From Bingo

"Nothing can make a Bingo player's day like shouting 'BINGO!' in a crowded hall, and players in Lynn County have done their share of shouting lately," Nora Linares, Executive Director of the Texas Lottery Commission, said.

Charitable Bingo players who patronized the Charitable Bingo organization in Lynn County won $30,713 in January, February, and March of this year, Linares reported.

The $30,713 won locally is part of the $104.8 million in prizes that Bingo halls across the state paid to winners. That includes $82.9 million for regular Bingo prizes and $21.9 million in prizes for instant Bingo, also known as pull tabs.

The local government in Lynn County received $526.01 in Charitable Bingo prize fees covering the first quarter of 1995, Linares said.

The payments cover prize fees collected from Charitable Bingo players in Lynn County for the first three months of the year. Cities and counties that imposed the gross receipts tax on a local-option basis receive quarterly payments equal to 2.5 percent of the prizes won by Bingo players in their jurisdictions.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH THIS PICTURE? - For reasons which no one here could ascertain, the flag in front of the News Office was flying in a direction directly opposite from all the other flags on the street on Flag Day last Wednesday, a day which boasted strong winds from the south. Like the people inside the News Office, however, our flag paid no attention whatsoever to the facts and did its own thing ... all day long ... sort of like entering the Twilight Zone. (LCN PHOTO) host VBS June 26-30 from 6-9 p.m. A meal will be provided each night. The church is located at 13th and Dickson Streets in Wilson.

STARS & STRIPES AROUND ON FLAG DAY - Tahoka residents appreciated local Boy Scouts who, early Wednesday morning, placed several hundred U.S. flags around town for Flag Day. Shown here are flags at the courthouse which people who live out of town have purchased as memorials. The Flag Program is offered by local Boy Scouts at an annual fee of $25, who place flags at area residences and businesses on six holidays a year.

Wilson First Baptist Church VBS will be June 26-30 from 9 a.m.-12 noon. The week's activities will conclude with family night on Sunday, July 2 beginning at 6 p.m.

The Wilson Chamber of Commerce has named their first Yard of the Month for the year. The home of Randy and Marsha Talkmitt was named for the month of June.

The Wilson Lions Club met Thursday and after a meal Dona Clark, representing SPAG, gave a program on many of the SPAG programs which can benefit senior citizens. A discussion of the "4th in the Park" celebration indicated that the fire department was interested in a food booth, and the Chamber of Commerce would like to have a Bingo booth. Groups interested in a food or game booth need to contact John Earl Fields.

A number of people have expressed dismay and a lack of factual information concerning the work being done on the railroad tracks around the grain elevator. Larry Wisener, who now owns the railroad from Slaton to Lamesa, which is known as the "South Plains and Lamesa Railroad," has indicated that the railroad is removing the old side tracks, some of which have not been used since the Santa Fe used them to store the old silver work cars several years ago. The main line from Slaton to Lamesa will continue service and repairs are being done to bring the main line up to the required standards.

Out of the Woods
The wayward thoughts of Juanell (Wood) Jones

Nostalgia is a dangerous thing. It makes you think you can do things you did 20 years ago. It makes you believe you aren't really as old as you are, because you don't feel that old. It makes you sore as all get out, when you add 20 years of living to any type of physical activity which even back then made you break out into a sweat after the first 30 minutes.

I broke into a sweat 30 seconds after picking up my tennis racquet last week, and attempting to play with my family. "I used to be good ... really ..." I tell my 13-year-old son, who just grins and says, OK Mom, whatever you say. He also cheerfully told me that whenever people get close to the age of 40 they all wish they were 18 again. He'll be lucky if he lives to see his 14th birthday.

All of this came about because I received an invitation in the mail to my 20th high school reunion, and my husband and I began talking about all the good times we had back then. We were on the high school tennis team, and also played as many summer tournaments as we could work into our schedules for several years after high school. It wasn't until about 10 years ago that we gradually, but quite unintentionally, left our racquets in the top of the closet more and more until, one day, we forgot they were up there.

Last week, however, we blew the dust off the strings and purchased a couple of cans of balls and headed with anticipation to the tennis courts. We opened a can of balls - there's nothing like the smell of a just-opened can of tennis balls (I was a tennis junkie) - and strolled to opposite ends of the court, and from there things went gradually downhill in a hurry.

My son and I played my husband and our 10-year-old daughter, and if the competition had been any tougher I don't think I would have lasted much longer than the hour we were there. Age is a pitiful thing which our children discovered quickly could humble poor old mom in a hurry.

"But I was good - really I was," I whined as we were tossing the racquets into the car. "Uh huh, sure," they said, watching me drag my aching feet into the car and collapsing in a heap.

Their daddy, on the other hand, is actually still pretty good with a tennis racquet. Where is it written, I'd like to know, that the male species can quit a sport for ten years and then pick it up again like he played the day before? Women can't do this. We have to work up to it for six months or so, and what's more, our body weight has shifted around so that the natural gracefulness (really!) we took for granted in high school is but a long-cherished memory bearing no resemblance to the pitiful creature stumbling around like a drunken pirate taking stabs at a ball which was there just a second ago.

Tennis is a humbling game. I strongly recommend you take it up. You can have my racquet. I've got a high school reunion to go to, which may prove to be even more humbling than my tennis game. (I was thin - really!)

Drug as Treatment For Sickle Cell Anemia

The cancer drug Hydroxyurea has proved to be the first effective treatment for Sickle Cell Anemia, a disabling blood disorder affecting 72,000 Black Americans. It means a significant improvement in the quality of life for many patients. In the study, Hydroxyurea reduced patients pain episodes, need for transfusions, hospitalizations and acute chest syndrome by 50%. Patients must understand Hydroxyurea is a treatment not a cure. The only significant short-term side effect found was mild suppression of the bone marrow. Long-term side effects are not known.

PHOTOS

The Lynn County News has been cleaning out old photo files and now has three boxes of photos dating back about 20-30 years.

These boxes are on display at the News office and anyone may come look through them and claim any photos they would like to have.

Hurry in and look through them, because September 1st they will all be thrown away.

(And next week we may run YOUR old photo if you haven't come in to claim it!)

Tahoka's Volunteer Firemen (from early 70's, we think) are, from left, Billy Miller, Jack Jaquess, Kim Byrd, unidentified man, Steve Miller, J.T. Miller and three unidentified firemen.
