Officers Check Theft Reports, Two Wrecks, Suspected Arson

Thefts, two wrecks and an apparent arson case involving the burning of a 1994 Chevrolet Suburban headed the list of reports investigated by county, city and state officers here during the last week.

David Gomez, 28, of Jayton was arrested in that city and charged with unauthorized use of a motor vehicle after the red Suburban owned by the Jayton-Girard Independent School District was found burned on a Lynn County road 1.5 south of FM 1317 and north of Tahoka last Friday. Sheriff Jake Diggs said arson charges also may be filed in the case.

On July 17 deputies recovered a

Alley Cleanup Scheduled Here

Tahoka City Administrator Jerry Webster said this week that city crews are scheduled to begin cleaning alleys of debris, picking up tree limbs and debris which will not go in dumpsters.

Webster also said city crews will start trimming trees which hang too far into the alleys to allow passage of waste trucks, as well as trees which block views of stop signs within the city. "Residents can trim their own trees, but if they don't, we are going to have to make sure stop signs are within easy view," he said.

trailer in Wilson which had been reported stolen in Lubbock County. The trailer was turned over to the owners.

On Monday, seven letters were reported stolen off the Tahoka Elementary School building.

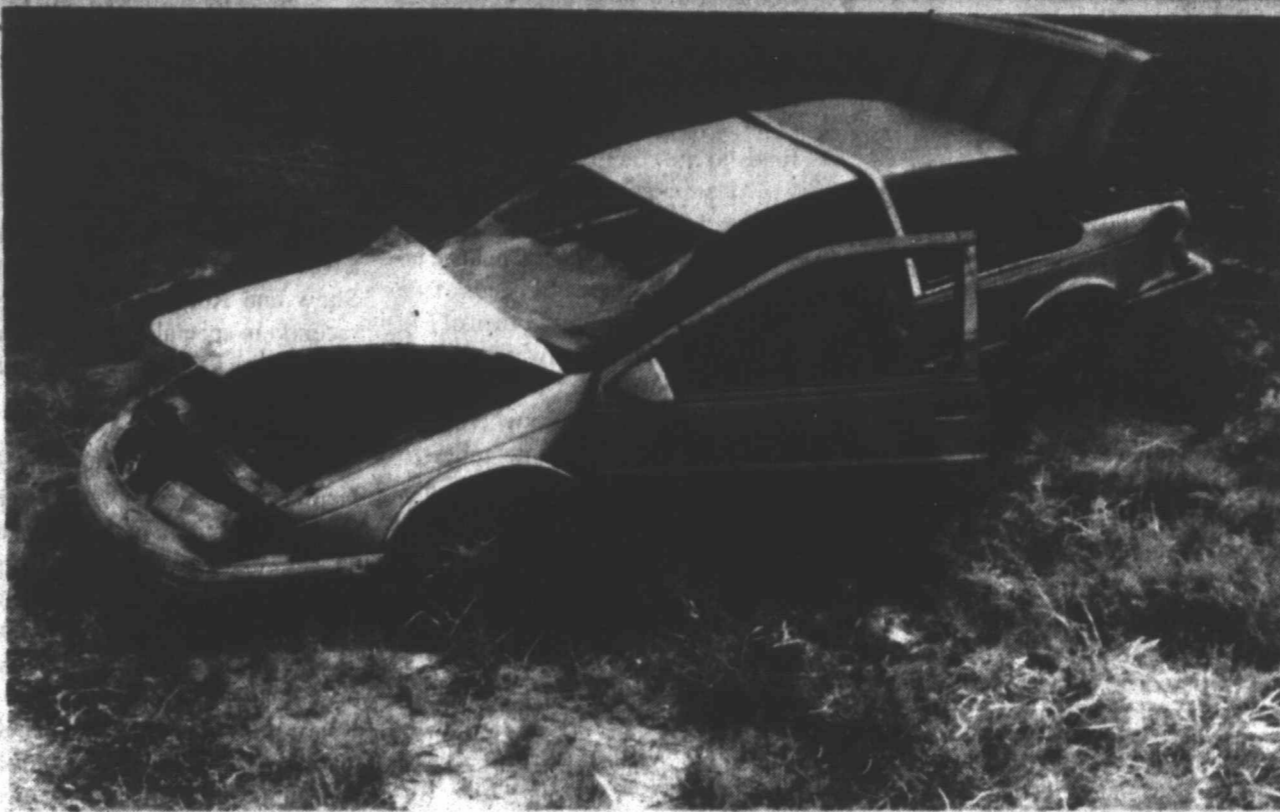

A 17-year-old Tahoka male was arrested Sunday on an outstanding warrant for possession of marijuana under two ounces.

A Tahoka man was accused of threatening to kill two men who came to his home Tuesday to repossess furniture for delinquent payments.

Another Tahoka man reported that a neighbor shot his dog in the leg with an air rifle. The neighbor said he was tired of the dog coming over to his house and laying in his garden and tearing up his plants.

A Mercury Cougar driven by Raul Quintana, 24, of Post, overturned three miles north of Draw on FM 1054 July 11. The driver was not injured. And a 1983 Chevrolet pickup driven by Steve Ramirez rolled over on FM 179 south of FM 211 last Thursday. The driver and two passengers were treated at University Medical Center in Lubbock.

In jail during the week were four persons, on charges of public intoxication, fleeing, harassment/stalking and possession of marijuana.

VEHICLES OVERTURN—Two separate one-vehicle accidents were reported in the county during the last two weeks. In the top photo is a 1983 Chevrolet pickup which overturned near New Home, injuring three persons, apparently none seriously. The lower photo is of a Mercury Cougar driven by a Post resident when it overturned on FM 1054 near Draw July 11. (Photos by Lynncro Wrecker Service)

Elementary Registration Set Aug. 5

Tahoka Elementary School will register students for the 1996-97 school year on Monday, Aug. 5. In order to minimize the time required for parents and students to spend in the process, the following scheduled should be followed if possible. "If not, come when you can," said Elementary Principal Ronald Roberts.

1st Grade: 8-9 a.m.

2nd Grade: 9-10 a.m.

3rd Grade: 10-11 a.m.

4th Grade: 11 a.m.-12 noon

Closed for Lunch: noon-1 p.m.

5th Grade: 1-2 p.m.

6th Grade: 2-3 p.m.

All children living within the boundaries of Tahoka Independent School District are to be registered if they are at least six years of age at the beginning of the school year, or have been enrolled in first grade, or completed kindergarten in another state prior to moving into the district.

A minor student enrolling in the district whose parent or guardian does not live in the district must present a power of attorney assigning responsibility for the student to an adult living in the district.

Parents should bring a copy of the child's immunization record. Parents of students registering for the first time in this district should also bring a copy of the child's birth certificate.

Commissioners Court Begins Budget Work

Lynn County Commissioners met in regular session Monday morning for a routine session, including a budget discussion for 1997. County Treasurer Janet Porterfield presented estimated budgets from department heads during the meeting, and more budget talks will be considered at the next meeting on July 29.

In other business, a list of names were approved as presented for election judges and alternates for the general and special elections, and the Road and Bridge fee for Lynn County was set at $10 for 1997. Monthly bills were approved as presented.

Present at the meeting were commissioners Jacky Henry, Margaret Stone, J.T. Miller and Sandra Cox, with Judge J.F. Brandon presiding.

Wilson ISD Board Meets, Initiates Work On Library

The Wilson Independent School District Board of Trustees met in regular session on Thursday, July 18, at 8 p.m. in the Homemaking Building, discussing repair work on the elementary building and approving a bid to begin work on the library addition and renovation, and accepting one teacher resignation and hiring a secondary teacher.

The board accepted the resignation of Virginia Hohertz and approved the appointment of Rachel Lehman as a secondary teacher. Joe Grimes of Grimes and Associates Engineering reported on the progress of the structural repair work at the elementary building. The work on the foundation and reinforcement of the walls at the elementary building is progressing well. The work on the inside of the elementary building should be completed before school starts. Work in the elementary gym and on the outside walls is scheduled to be completed by November 15, 1996.

The board accepted the bid from Pharr Construction for the library addition and renovation. The library addition will approximately double the size of the existing library. Work on the library should begin in approximately two weeks. The board approved a resolution to participate in a collaborative proposal submitted by Region 17 Education Service Center as fiscal agent for rural schools in Regio 17 to the Texas Education Agency for funding from the Academics 2000: First Things First Reading Initiative. The grant, if approved, will allow WISD additional opportunities for staff development, technology, and funds for reading supplies for early elementary grades. The student and employee handbooks for 1996-97 were approved, as well as the supplemental pay scheduled for coaches and the band director. The board also approved a pay schedule for custodians, cafeteria workers, secretaries, and aides. Kelley Hirt was appointed the district's representative to Region 17 Advisory Board. Trustees approved the student insurance for the 1996-97 school year. The 1996-97 school year will begin Aug. 9, with teacher inservice and workday on Aug. 12. The first day of class for students will be Aug. 13.

Cliff Laws Seeks Precinct 2 Commissioner Seat

Cliff Laws is announcing his candidacy for Lynn County Commissioner, Precinct 2, as an Independent Party Candidate in the November 5, 1996 general election.

In announcing his candidacy, Laws stated:

"I have been a resident of Lynn County for 38 years. I graduated from Tahoka High School in 1973. I served in the United States Air Force from 1974 to 1978. I attended college at West Texas State University and Texas Tech University. I have worked in the Lynn and Garza County Sheriff's Departments for 17 years.

"I feel that 17 years experience in the Sheriff's Department gives me a good working knowledge of county government. I have experience in running a county office as Sheriff of Lynn County for 2-1/2 years.

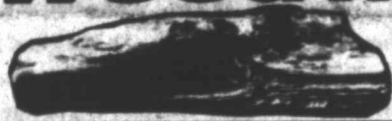

"I feel that the taxpayers of Lynn County are not getting their money's worth of services for the taxes they have to pay. We can not continue to operate the county the way it is now. We must look for ways of getting every Federal grant dollar we can. We need to address several legal issues and make sure these issues don't occur again. I can correct these legal and financial issues.

"Your vote and support will be for a positive change in Lynn County government," concluded Laws.

YARD OF THE MONTH—Tahoka Garden Club has named this yard at the home of Truett and Lucille Smith, 1825 N. 4th, as Yard of the Month. (LCN PHOTO)

MAYO CLINIC has put me on their mailing list, possibly because over the years I have had so many things wrong with me that they figure I'm a good prospect to go up there (Rochester, Minn.) and spend all my money plus whatever my descendants will make.

They claim, however, that their purpose is to get me on a "health letter" mailing list so that I can cure some of my own problems and not have to go to Mayo. They call it the mayo clinic because that's where they try to wean people off sandwiches and salads with high-fat mayonnaise.

Okay, so that's not true. What is true is that they want to send me "six free gifts," according to the letter I received last week.

Those six free gifts will cost me $24. See, they want me to subscribe for six months to their health letter, and if I do that, they'll send me "six free gifts." Come on, people. Even us folks down here in Texas know the difference between free and 24 dollars.

The letter tantalizes the recipients (like me) with questions they say will be answered in the health letter. Here are some of the questions and some of my own answers, since they don't supply any until you pay your $24:

There's one way women can reduce their risk of osteoporosis without necessarily changing their diets or taking supplements. (Don't ever grow old).

How to decode a restaurant menu; seven red-flag words that signal high-fat content. (Like whale-blubber steak smothered in gordo sauce and topped with delicious seven-layer cookies).

Common causes of knee pain. (Such as blocking below the waist, getting in and out of small cars and praying on the sidewalk).

Six easy ways to curb an overactive appetite. (Skip six meals in a row, eat once, then skip the next six, etc.).

Six things you should know before buying a hearing aid. (Howzat again?)

What can I do about the stiffness in my neck? (Change churches).

Now that I know my cholesterol number, what does it really mean? (Don't start any continued stories).

Can regular exercise reduce atherosclerosis? (Try to pronounce the word at least 10 minutes every day. You'll be exhausted in no time).

There are some other teasers, including one which reads, "Can exercise reduce your risk of a stroke? One study now suggests walking as little as one mile once a month provides some protection." (This may be my kind of publication after all. I wonder it it's okay to get your mile a month in by walking 176 feet a day?)

Brown-Reno Vows Exchanged In Double-Ring Ceremony

Chanda Lynn Brown and Larry Wayne Reno, Jr., both of Lubbock, exchanged wedding vows Saturday, July 20, 1996 in a 4 p.m. ceremony at Westview Baptist Church in Slaton. Bud Goodwin officiated the double-ring ceremony.

Mother of the bride is Connie Beasley of Lubbock, and the groom's parents are Larry and Paula Reno, Sr., also of Lubbock. Grandparents of the bride are Charles and Charlene Moore of Shallowater and Ernest Goforth of Spring Lake. The groom's grandparents are Bob and Peggy Beasley of Lubbock and D.S. and Helen Reno of Tahoka.

The bride, escorted by Danny Trotter, wore a white satin fitted gown featuring a lace and pearl neckline, puffed sleeves tapering to a point on the wrists, and a train of lace, pearls and white satin. She wore a sheer veil adorned with a pearl tiara.

She carried a bouquet of white and burgandy roses with pearls, and an antique handkerchief which belonged to her great-grandmother, Mildred Goforth.

Centered on the altar was a double heart candelabra with novelty candles, flanked on each side by brass stands with brass containers holding white tiger lilies and marigolds. The unity candle was centered in front.

Brigitte Rice, cousin of the bride, of Shallowater, served as Maid of Honor. Bridesmaids were Amber Reno, sister of the groom, and Britani Jackson, both of Lubbock. They wore black straight formal-length dresses, with the maid of honor's dress featuring white off-shoulder sleeves and the bridesmaids dresses featuring bows in the back of their sleeveless dresses.

Larry Reno Sr. of Lubbock served his son as Best Man, and groomsmen were Chris Brown, brother of the bride, and Jay Stovall, both of Lubbock.

Britney Rice, cousin of the bride, of Shallowater, served as flower girl, wearing a dress featuring a white lace bodice and black skirt.

Tracy Byrd sang "Keeper of the Stars" during the lighting of the unity candle.

Organist was Judy Goodwin of Slaton.

Baby pictures of the bride and groom were featured at the registration table.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall following the ceremony. The bride's table featured a three-tiered cake decorated with white roses and topped with white lace with crystal doves trimmed in gold.

Serving at the bride's table were Dee Dee Baker, aunt of the bride, of Gainsville, and Shannon Walker.

The groom's cake was chocolate, adorned with the bride and groom's name and the wedding date. Tracey Beasley, aunt of the groom, served at that table.

Following a honeymoon, the couple will reside in Lubbock.

The groom graduated from Frenship High School in Wolfforth in 1995 and is employed at J.R.'s Lawn Care Service.

The bride will be a senior at Frenship High School in Wolfforth.

Your HEALTH TIP

Many Women Take Birth Control Pills Improperly

Almost half of the women who take the pill take it incorrectly. This is according to a recent study by Dr. Michael Rosenberg. Forty-seven percent of the women in the study missed at least one pill and 22% missed at least two pills a month. Women were most likely to miss pills if they had no regular routine. Every missed pill increases the risk that a woman will become pregnant.

Library Begins Planning For Harvest Festival

The City-County Library Board met Monday, July 15, to begin planning for the library's Silent Auction at the Harvest Festival, scheduled on Saturday, Sept. 14. The library board expressed appreciation for all donations for this project, which helps in the purchase of new books for the library. Anyone who would like to donate an auction item may contact any board member.

For the months of January through June of this year, 2,791 books were checked out.

"We are grateful to everyone for the memorial and private donations to the library during this month," said a board representative.

The library has purchased a new set of The Handbook of Texas, which contains six books. The last one published was in 1952.

Erica Handley is doing volunteer work in the library, entering books on the computer, and the board expressed their appreciation for the work she is doing for the library.

We would like to thank the ladies from the Methodist Church for hosting the monthly birthday party last Wednesday. Thanks to Janice Dube for donating house shoes, Mary Elrod and Dee Dee Harper for donating Bingo prizes, and Mary McKibben for donating cokes for Bingo prizes. We appreciate these items very much.

We wish Danny Alvarado a happy birthday on Thursday the 25th and Pearl Payton on Monday the 29th.

We are having family night on July 25 at 6 p.m. with homemade ice cream.

We are having a Bag Sale on Aug. 5 at 9 a.m. at Thriftway. Anyone wanting to donate a baked good should please call us at 998-5018.

Resident of the month of July is Jim Elrod. Jim and Mary Elrod were married in Idaho in 1956. They moved to Tahoka in February, 1963. They have three children, Allen of Tahoka, Wanda of Lubbock, and Leslie of Lubbock, and seven grandchildren. Jim worked at the delimiting plant and Tahoka Country Club until he retired in 1987. He is a member of the Sweet Street Baptist Church. He has been here at Tahoka Care Center since February 12, 1994, and is well-liked by all.

Martina Luviano is Employee of the Month of July. She has been employed here since July 11, 1994. She works all three shifts, whenever needed as a Nurse Aide. Martina is a very outgoing person, and a dependable and loyal employee. We are glad she is on our team.

SMART ENERGY CHOICES

What impression will you leave on our environment?

The first step in learning how to protect our environment is to learn to appreciate what we have.

Take a close look at the environment around you. It's very special and it takes special attention and care to keep it that way. That's why, since 1961, we've utilized recycled effluent, or waste water, rather than fresh drinking water in our cooling towers.

You, too, can help preserve our environment and natural resources by cleaning up litter, recycling, and by making Smart Energy Choices. Consider energy efficiency when purchasing a new electric appliance. Weatherize your home. Conserve energy where you can.

And never forget where you live. The impression you leave will be a lasting one.

Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church will be holding their annual Jamaica on Sunday, July 28. The afternoon of fun, food and entertainment will begin at 12 noon and continue until 8 p.m. Tentative plans call for live music from several local Tejano and contemporary bands, and a live radio remote. Donations are currently being accepted and with each $1 donation the donor will receive ticket which will be placed in a hopper from which winning tickets will be drawn for three cash prize items. This event is open to anyone who wishes to attend. Blessed Sacrament Church is located at the corner of 15th and Lumsden Ave. in Wilson.

The recent spotty rains and the resulting hot, humid weather seems to have brought out the rattlesnakes again. Several reports have been heard of the critters being seen crossing the roads or lying in amongst the cotton plants. Shorty Moore killed one recently in her garage, that was about 3 to 3-1/2 feet long with six rattles and a button. The snake had the coloring and markings of a Western Diamondback. People working in the fields and especially around rocky outcroppings are urged to be on the lookout for sleeping and sunning snakes.

Wilson students, who have been involved in the band program, should have received a notice from the band director, Mr. Munoz, concerning the band's rehearsal and practice schedule, which is set to begin for certain groups on July 29. If the student is planning to be involved in the Wilson band program, and he or she has not received this schedule, they should contact Mr. Munoz as soon as possible. Also, students who will be new to the Wilson schools and the Wilson band program are urged to contact Mr. Munoz about the rehearsal program.

Information concerning athletic physicals for the upcoming school year has been sent to Wilson students by Coach Janssen. Students are urged to review these, and to follow the suggested schedules and guidelines. For more information, contact Coach Janssen at the school.

Several individuals have wondered about an elementary school supplies list for Wilson ISD. Elementary Principal Mrs. Hirt has supplied the list, which is in this week's edition of the paper.

Wilson schools will start the 1996-97 school year on Tuesday, Aug. 13. Buses will run the regular routes, breakfast will be served at the regular time, from 7:45 til 8:00, and classes are scheduled to begin with the tardy bell ringing at 8:05 a.m., for both elementary and high school. Please note the time change for junior high and high school from last year.

Cody and Casey Donald recently attended a basketball camp at Tarleton State University at Stephenville. Cody was awarded one of the "Camper of the Day" awards and his 3 on 3 team won their championship. Casey was awarded the Free Throw Championship and his 3 on 3 group also won their championship. The camp stressed the importance of the game fundamentals and some of the newest techniques of the game.

The Wilson Lions Club met last Thursday with a larger than normal turnout. After the evening meal, a representative from the Farmer Stockman Show presented an update on the 1996 Farmer Stockman Show will be held in Lubbock during October.

Club President Dr. Donald Freitag and his wife Tonda, along with club member Donald Klaus and club secretary Robert Abbe attended the first District 2-72 Lions cabinet meeting, held in Idalou this past Sunday.

Small Business Enterprise Is Focus Of Meeting

A meeting for small business owners is scheduled for Tuesday, July 30 at 7 p.m. at the Conference Room of South Plains Community Action Association, located at 411 Austin St. in Levelland. Resources for small businesses will be the focus of the meeting.

This meeting is one of a series of meetings facilitated by South Plains Community Action Assn. Additional information is available by calling Luis Perez at 806-894-3800 or 1-800-462-8747, or by contacting the local Neighborhood Center staff in Tahoka at 998-4521.
