Methodist Church Christmas Eve Service Planned

First United Methodist Church will be celebrating the birth of Jesus Christ with a Service of Carols and Candlelight, Tuesday, Dec. 24, at 6:00 pm in the church sanctuary.

The worship service will include the singing of Christmas carols, the telling of the Christmas story, and the singing of "Silent Night" and "Joy to the World" in a large circle as candles are lit.

"We invite anyone who desires to enrich their Christmas celebration to join us," Marvin Gregory, pastor, stated. "We encourage you to dress casually and come to celebrate Jesus' birth with us as a beginning to your own Christmas traditions."

Shorty Moore To Be Honored At Open House

Naoma (Shorty) Moore will be honored Tuesday, Dec. 31, for her 25 years as Wilson City Secretary. An Open House will be held from 8 a.m. until 3 p.m. at the Wilson Mercantile

A DALMATIAN CHRISTMAS—Santa looks like he is seeing lots of spots at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Gardner, 2525 N. 3rd in Tahoka. The Gardner's home featured this scene as well as lots of lights, and was named first place overall in the Christmas Lighting Contest sponsored by the Tahoka Garden Club. Second place was the home of Cathy Ross at 2101 N. Main. (LCN PHOTO) building.

Mrs. Moore is retiring as city secretary, and Susann Follis is filling that position for the City of Wilson.

Everyone is invited to attend the Open House on Tuesday and visit with Mrs. Moore.

Rotary News

The Tahoka Rotary Club met for their weekly meeting Thursday, Dec. 19, at the First United Methodist Church. Pastor of the church, Marvin Gregory, introduced the Joy Ringers, the handbell ministry of the church.

Founded in 1977, the group of ladies have travelled all over the area to conventions, programs, worship services, festivals and clinics to play and entertain for many audiences, as well as being a regular staple of the Sunday morning worship service at the Tahoka United Methodist Church. The group consists of Tina Wuensche, Juanel Jones, Beth Huffaker, Margaret Carter, Chloe Wells, Jonama Allen, Betty Owens, Macky Turner, Sandra Brown, Vondell Elliott, Janie Isbell, Judy Holden, and director Bettye Green.

The women entertained the Rotarians with several holiday Christmas selections. The ringers played an assortment of the 4-octave handbells and 3-octave choir chimes for their music. Narration was provided by Mrs. Green.

A report from the Rotary nominations committee was received and voted on by the club. Officers for 1997-98 at the local club will be Clint Gardner, President; Amy Preston, Vice-President; Steve Sanders, Secretary; Ray Box, Treasurer; and Directors David Midkiff, David Hutton, Danny Preston and Louise Landers. Sweetheart will be Miss Abby Gill. These officers will assume their duties on July 1, 1997.

Visiting the club were Mike Landress, Kent Coffee, and Sterling Allen. Ron Fant, local Church of Christ minister, visited and told the club about many local residents needing coats for the cold weather, which can be dropped off at the Church of Christ.

STORK REPORT

Chris and Jennie Ford of New Home announce the birth of a daughter, Paige Ashleigh Ford, born Monday, Dec. 9, 1996 at 2:15 a.m. at Lubbock's Methodist Hospital. She weighed 7 pounds 3 ounces and was 19-1/4 inches long.

Grandparents are Tom and Jan Page of New Home, Kathy Novak of Lubbock, and Mike Ford of Wichita Falls.

Great-grandparents are Roger and Wanda Adams, the late C.C. Novak and Carolyn Novak, and Macie Mathis, all of Lubbock.

We would like to thank the following groups that have brought Christmas gifts to the residents and spent time with them. The R.A.'s from the First Baptist Church came to sing carols and bring gifts; Lynn County Home School brought gifts and Christmas caroled; St. Paul Lutheran Church came to Christmas carol. Gloria Moore was here for entertainment at the residents Christmas Party; and Peggy and Phil Jennings brought gifts to all residents. The First Methodist Church was here on Sunday to Christmas carol. The fourth graders from Tahoka Elementary were also here to sing Christmas carols. Thanks again to all of you.

Mary McKibben had a birthday on Dec. 15, and Belva Whittington had a birthday on Dec. 18. Happy Birthday to both of you.

Thanks to Patricia Hogg, Jean Curry and Boyd and Fern Barnes for donating bingo prizes. We here at Tahoka Care Center wish you a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Resident of the year is Hazel Hogg.

Employee of the year is Sylvia Hernandez.

LONGTIME READERS of this column (there are about seven of you now) will be surprised to learn that I do like some of the things I see on television. There is so much bad stuff on TV that I usually view with alarm. But around Christmas there are lots of good things worth watching.

Nearly all the Christmas specials and Christmas movies have the word "Christmas" in the title, so we'll know they are about Christmas. There are things like Christmas in Connecticut, White Christmas, Home for Christmas, The Christmas Story, The Christmas Wife, The Christmas Journey, The Christmas Christmas (okay, I made that up) and so forth.

Mostly the stories are pretty good, although in the past I have ridiculed "It's A Wonderful Life" because it was on every channel every other hour one year, and I have previously bragged on the "Miracle on 34th St." (the very first one, with John Payne, Natalie Wood, etc.).

A week or so ago, I started watching "Ebbie," a female version of Dickens' A Christmas Carol. Like most other folks, I have seen about 35 versions of the famous story about Ebenezer Scrooge and Bob Cratchit and Tiny Tim and all the ghosts of Christmases past, present and future. And some of them are very good, including, in my opinion, the female version starring Susan Lucci as Ms. Scrooge, who mistreats her assistant, Roberta Cratchit, and others.

When Ms. Scrooge begins to change, I found myself getting all choked up, watching the show all alone at night after the rest of the family was in bed dreaming of sugar plums or whatever.

"This is really stupid, getting all emotional," I told myself. "I've seen this story eleventy-nine times and I know what's going to happen. Besides, grown men don't cry. Whine and complain, maybe, but they shouldn't cry."

Regardless of that, I did get something in my eye over that corny old story, even after observing that Tiny Tim needed a haircut worse than he needed an operation.

So I guess the story, written a long time ago, still is effective, because after it was all over, I felt like going out and doing something nice for somebody.

Lane Jackson Named New Wilson ISD Superintendent

Lane Jackson, a veteran educator from Robert Lee, was named Wilson Independent School District Superintendent by the Board of Trustees in a meeting held Thursday, Dec. 12. Jackson will begin work in Wilson full time on Jan. 16. In his first superintendency position, Jackson comes to Wilson after 10 years as a junior high school principal in the Robert Lee school system near San Angelo. He originally came to Robert Lee as an assistant coach after a number of years as head coach and athletic director in the six-man Highland school system. While at Highland, he coached three teams to the state six-man championship game, winning two titles, he said. As a coach, teacher and administrator, he has been in the education system for 23 years. He is a graduate of the Blackwell school system and Sul Ross University in Alpine. He also earned his masters of education degree, mid-management and superintendents certification from Sul Ross. His wife of 26 years, Donna, is a graduate of the Winters school and attended Sul Ross. She will join the Wilson education staff as a teacher's aide. The Jackson's have two sons, Lenny, 23, a teacher and coach in the Cross Plains school system, and Danny, a junior at Texas Tech University. Wilson board members interviewed three finalists for the top position - Jackson, Max Thompson of the 2-A Rosebud-Lott school system south of Waco and David Pierce of the Seagraves school system. The superintendent position has been filled on a temporary basis since Nancy Templeton resigned at the beginning of the school year to take a position in an education cooperative in the Marble Falls area.

How are you doing Santa Claus? I want three things so much this year.

The first thing I want is a Barbie that can talk and because it is what I always wanted.

The second thing I want is a computer I never had a computer because I can write my Spelling list.

The third thing I want is a T.V. because my T.V. is broken.

The forththing I want is a big bear that is brown because my others are little.

Thank you Santa. Sincley

Cindy Marquez
