Truck Mishap Blocks Highway

No one was injured last Thursday morning when a 1998 White/ Volvo truck went out of control after it struck a puddle of water on U.S. 87 near the north overpass in Tahoka. The truck and trailer, headed north, skidded into the southbound lanes, blocking them briefly.

It was raining at the time, according to the Tahoka Police report. Driver was Richard E. Bradshaw, 43, of Zanesville, Ohio.

In jail during the last week were three persons for public intoxication, one for contempt of court in failure to pay child support, and five others on these charges: Gaines County warrant for driving while license suspended, no liability insurance, traffic warrants for Dept. of Public Safety plus driving while license suspended, possession of a controlled substance and DWI third offense or

Saturday's Harvest Festival To Offer Fun, Food, Prizes

There will be two diamonds hidden in the sand worth approximately $2,000, and plenty of other entertainment to lure county residents to the 24th annual Lynn County Harvest Festival this Saturday. The annual event offers food, crafts and game booths as well as live entertainment at the courthouse square in downtown Tahoka. Festival goers are invited to bring lawn chairs for seating on the courthouse lawn during the allday affair.

The festival begins at 10 a.m. when the booths open. Children may bring their frogs and turtles for the races at 10:30 a.m., sponsored by Lynn County 4-H. Additionally, there are plenty of other activities in game booths to entertain children throughout the day.

One of the newer booths, sponsored by the Harvest Festival Committee, will feature a small sandbox in which several cubic zirconias and two real diamonds, appraised at approximately $2,000, will be buried in the sand. For $3 a handful, or two handfuls for $5, a participant will be able to put their hand in the sand and whatever they pick up is theirs to keep. To determine if one has picked up one of the real diamonds or cubic zirconias, the jewels must be taken to a jeweler for appraisal. All proceeds from the booth are used to help defray costs of the festival.

Many other games, crafts, food and entertainment will be offered from other booths. A complete list of booths, and a schedule of particular events, can be found inside this edition. Area merchants have donated many prizes for the hourly merchant drawings throughout the day.

Bandgora, a popular country dance band who has played for the past several festivals, will perform on the Street Dance from 8 p.m. until midnight. The dance is a family event, free and open to all ages. Tahoka Rotary Club, who contributes annually to the cost of hiring the band, will continue to sell their popular sausage on a stick during the street dance, but other booths will close at Several organizations are selling raffle tickets for chances to win a variety of prizes. Harvest Festival Queen and Princess candidates are selling chances to win a trip for two to Mexico, two bicycles, and Texas Tech vs. A&M game tickets with a night in a Lubbock hotel. Lynn County Child Welfare Board is again selling chances to win a go-cart, and Lynn County Pioneers have a handmade quilt to raffle.

Lynn County Storm Spotters are raffling a barbecue cooker on a trailer, and the Tahoka High School Junior Class is sponsoring the popuchances to win $250 or $100 cash.

Cash giveaways will also be conducted from the stage by emcee Cal Huffaker, with some "Let's Make A Deal" type questions.

have their Silent Auction booth to raise funds for the library. Slips of paper will be placed beside each auction item for bidding, with the item going to the highest bidder at the close of the auction, usually around

The Princess contest will begin at 1:30 p.m., with 21 elementary-age girls competing through ticket sales to be named 1999 Harvest Festival Princess. The girl selling the most raffle tickets will be named Princess. Candidates include Kelee Harcrow, Kerri Cowley, Krista Cloe, Samantha stage during the day, as well as for Santos, Jennifer Salazar, Sarah Blaylock, Erica Villegas, Marci Morales, Brandi Merryman, Brittany Mathis, Wacie Barnett, Whitlee Anderson, Chelsea Terry, Valerie Sosa, Kourtney Sodd, Kayla Quintero, Samantha Pridmore, Toni Murillo, Brittney Hair, Crystal Flores, and Sarah Calvillo.

All princess candidates receive $50 cash for every 400 tickets they sell, and the winner will receive a $100 savings bond, with first and second runners-up receiving $75-and $50 savings bonds, respectively.

The Harvest Festival Queen contest will be held immediately following the princess contest, at approximately 2:30 p.m. There are seven queen candidates, including Brandi Tekell, Kelia Graves, Kalah Bartley, La'Shea Pridmore, Klyssa Kelln, Lana Cloe and Aimie Lopez. The candidates will be judged by Angie Clark, a former Miss Lubbock and Miss San Angelo, and Mike and lar Cow Patty Bingo event, with Kristen Carver, Texas Tech cheerleading and pompom squad

This year's queen will receive a $500 college scholarship from the Harvest Festival Committee as well The City/County Library will as a $100 scholarship from Tahoka Chamberettes. Finalists will also receive $25 gift certificates from local businesses, and all queen candidates who sell at least 300 raffle tickets will receive $100 cash from the Harvest Festival Committee.

The Harvest Festival Committee will give several presentations during the day, of donations to various organizations within Lynn County.

Drawings will be held for all ticket raffles sometime Saturday afternoon, with the winners announced from the stage. Tickets for all raffles will be available throughout most of the day.

IN MY MAIL came the following, described as actual notes taken by doctors, a designation which I seriously question, but they are amusing anyway.

- 1. Patient has chest pain if she lies on her left side for over a year
- 2. On the 2nd day the knee was better and on the 3rd day it disappeared completely. 3. The patient has been depressed ever since she began
- seeing me in 1993.
- 5. The patient is tearful and crying constantly. She also appears to be depressed.
- 6. Discharge status: Alive but without permission.
- 7. Healthy appearing decrepit 69-year-old male, mentally
- alert but forgetful. 8. The patient refused an autopsy. .
- 9. The patient has no past history of suicides.
- 10. Patient has left his white blood cells at another hospital
- 11. Patient's past medical history has been remarkably insignificant with only a 40 pound weight gain in the past three days.
- 12. Patient had waffles for breakfast and anorexia for lunch.
- 13. Between you and me, we ought to be able to get this
- lady pregnant. She is numb from her toes down.
- 16. While in the ER, she was examined, X-rated and sent home
- 17. The skin was moist and dry.
- Occasional, constant, infrequent headaches. Patient was alert and unresponsive.
- Rectal exam revealed a normal size thyroid. 21. She stated that she had been constipated for most of - her life, until she got a divorce.
- 22. I saw your patient today, who is still under our car for physical therapy.
- 23. The lab test indicated abnormal lover function. 24. The patient was to have a bowel resection. However,
- he took a job as a stockbroker instead.
- 25. Skin: Somewhat pale but present. The pelvic examination will be done later on the - floor
- 27. Patient was seen in consultation by Dr. Blank, who felt we should sit on the abdomen and I agree.
- 28. Large brown stool ambulating in the hall.
- 29. Patient has two teenage children, but no other abnormalities.

MOST DOCTORS are smarter than all that, but a few, in a hurry, might jot down notes which read like some of the above.

Even if they did, nobody could ever read them, since one of the first courses in medical school is Illegibility 101, where they are trained to write totally unreadable material.

Early Voting Now Underway For Beer/Wine Election In Wilson

Early voting for the Local Option Election regarding the legal sale of beer and wine inside the city limits of Wilson began Wednesday, Sept. 22 and continues through Oct. 6, at Wilson City Hall. Registered voters residing within Wilson city limits may vote, with early voting conducted during normal business hours weekdays at Wilson City Hall from 8 a.m. until 3 p.m. The polls will be open on election day, Oct. 9, from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m., also at Wilson City Hall.

If approved by voters, the election will allow the legal sale of beer and wine within city limits by anyone with the proper licensing permits, both by-the-drink to be consumed on premises and packaged for consumption off premises.

An election held last August for the same purposes was defeated 101-66. Both last year's and this year's elections were prompted by petitions

> BAKE SALE TO BENEFIT SENIOR CITIZENS 9:30 a.m Today at Thriftway and at Saturday's from Wilson resident Conner Parrish, who fulfilled legal requirements in requesting the election.

Last week, The News mistakenly reported the number of registered voters residing in the city of Wilson as 200, which was the official count at last August's Local Option Election which voters defeated. According to county officials, there are now 367 registered voters within the city who may vote in this year's Local Option Election. A majority vote will determine the election, which means the count must be only ahead by one vote (either for or against) to determine the legalization of beer/wine sales in Wilson.

An order of prohibition was passed in Lynn County in 1915 which prohibited the sale of intoxicating liquor within the county, and last year's election in Wilson was the first to challenge that decision.

To request this year's election, Parrish obtained 131 signatures on a petition, of which the county voter registrar's office confirmed 128 as qualified signatures. That number, 128, was exactly 35 percent of 367 registered voters, the minimum percentage required by Texas Alcoholic Beverage Code (TABC) for legally requesting such elections.

New Computer Lab At Elementary
Funded Through TIF Grant

Tahoka Elementary School has ies and branches, 300 public and not-

Tahoka Elementary School has received a Non-Competitive Grant for Texas Public Schools in the amount of $45,000 from the Telecommunications Infrastructure Fund Board, a state agency in Austin, which will be used to equip a new computer lab.

This Public School Technology Advancement Grant will allow Tahoka Elementary to purchase the necessary equipment to enhance Internet access capabilities. Non-competitive grants for up to $600,000 will fund workstations, networking hardware, ISP costs, video conferencing equipment and other related telecommunications costs in order for the qualified public schools to expand upon their existing network. The grant project began Sept. 1.

The public school applicants were required to complete a detailed application. These public school districts and campuses were also required to provide, in matching funds, a minimum of 10% of the funds requested from the TIF Board.

Tahoka Elementary will purchase 30 computer workstations, two laser printers, one digital camera, and two scanners with the grant funding.

"We are very pleased to receive this award," said Angela Ehlers, Technology Coordinator for Tahoka ISD. "We will use TIF Board funds, along with the matching funds we have committed to the project, to enhance our current infrastructure. This grant will give us the opportunity to purchase equipment for expanded Internet access and the means to move towards using distance learning as an advanced teaching tool."

Since its creation by the 74th Legislature in 1995, the TIF Board has awarded approximately $202 million in telecommunications grants to 1018 school districts and charter schools, 57 community colleges, 69 public and private institutions of higher education, 592 public libraries and branches, 300 public and notfor-profit healthcare facilities, 11 collaboratives of model projects, and 13 collaboratives of rural school districts. The agency receives approximately $150 million per year in revenues from telecommunications assessments to disburse over a ten-year period.

Tahoka ISD Superintendent Jimmy Parker stated, "Our district is fortunate to receive this grant. This is the second grant we have applied for and received. The first grant was used to fund a new computer lab at the high school. Every dollar we can receive in grant funds allows our district to upgrade our technology without significant cost to the taxpayers."

School officials expect the new computer lab to be ready for student use by the end of October.

Free Adult Education Classes Available For GED Preparation

Although the GED test is offered in Tahoka, adult education classes to prepare for the GED are no longer available here. Classes are offered in Lubbock and Lamesa, free of charge to anyone interested in obtaining their GED.

Free adult education classes are offered in Lubbock at the Region 17 Adult Learning Center, located in the Matthews Building, 417 N. Akron, room 208. Enrollment and orientation will be held Sept. 27-39 at 8:30 a.m. or 6:30 p.m. Students must attend four three-hour sessions. Enrollment for classes will not be open again until January. Classes will be offered in adult basic education, literacy, and English as a second language.

For information on classes in Lubbock, call 766-1540.

Classes will also be offered in Lamesa two nights per week. For information on night classes, call 872-5461; for information on day classes, call 872-2134.

The Tahoka High School class of 1989 will host their ten year reunion this Friday and Saturday.

Events will kick off at 5:30 Friday with the group eating at the NHS supper in the school cafeteria. Classmates will attend the game and will meet afterward for a party at the Tahoka Activity Center, 1121 Ave. L.

On Saturday, the group will meet at the Tahoka Mini Park at 11 a.m. for hot dogs and hamburgers.

For more information on the reunion, contact Rochelle Reid Ford at 998-5424.

Sr. Citizen Bake Sale Set Today

The Lynn County Pioneers (senior citizens) will have a bake sale at beginning 9:30 a.m. today (Thursday) at the Thriftway in Tahoka. Anyone wishing to donate baked goods may bring them to the sale table at 9:30 a.m.

Also on sale will be raffle tickets for the quilt to be given away at the Harvest Festival on Saturday. Tickets are $1 each.

The Pioneers are also seeking baked goods for a bake sale to be held at the Harvest Festival on Saturday. Anyone wishing to donate goodies may contact Rebecca Ingle at 998-5264 or bring them to the senior citizen booth at by 10 a.m. Saturday.

Library Still Accepting Items For Auction

The City/County Library is still accepting items this week for their annual fundraiser at the Lynn County Harvest Festival this Saturday. A Silent Auction will be held at the courthouse square, with items ranging from hand-crafted items, to baked goods, to art works and more. Anyone with items to be donated to the auction may bring them to the library this week, or to the Harvest Festival between 9-10 a.m. as the Silent Auction booth is being set up.

Written bids will be accepted at the booth until the auction closes, usually at around 3 p.m. All proceeds benefit the library.

Moore Wins Football Contest With One Miss

Danny Moore claims the $10 prize money this week for the Lynn County News Football Contest, missing only one game in last week's entry. Hot on his heels were five other participants who missed only two games in the contest, including Roy Jolly, Shane McMinn, and one entered merely as "Mom." Moore did not guess one of the Secret Sponsors to double his prize money from The Secret Sponsors for the week included Fenton Insurance, Delia's Hairstyling, Thriftway Grocery, and Walker & Solomon Agency, Inc.

All contest entries are entered in the grand prize drawing which will be held at the end of football season for a new color television from Entries are due each week by 4 p.m. Fridays at the Lynn County News office, 1617 Main, P.O. Box 1170, Tahoka 79373.

and Community Action, with about 90 citizens in attendance.

Ron Fant, minister of the Tahoka Church of Christ, opened the community session. "This meeting has been prefaced by several weeks of prayer by many here," Fant said. "We in the Tahoka Ministers' Fellowship know that the problems facing citizens here are too complex for humanity, and that it is going to be the Lord we must look to," he added.

"Our community is no worse than any other in our nation, but let's stop this downward spiral: Instead of just talking about this downward spiral, let's do something ... our underlying principle here is to turn our hearts and minds back to the Lord, but there has to be some action too. Hopefully you [at the meeting] are just the beginning of this movement," Fant told the group.

After Fant's initial words, the group was split into three sessions, with cifizens invited to attend the session which most interested them. The community pride/abandoned buildings session was led by Doris Collins, a session led by Mingo Chapa addressed youth self esteem issues and drug/alcohol prevention, and Emilia Garcia led a session on issues concerning sexual/physical abuse of children and adults.

Group discussions of ideas and suggestions closed at around 8:30 p.m., and group leaders spoke briefly to the crowd. The community session closed with a song and prayer.

Anyone interested in joining the group is encouraged to contact session leaders or any of the pastors in the Tahoka Ministers' Fellowship.

WORD IN SEASON

Sponsored by Tahoka Ministers' Fellowship

Where The Water Flows

While vacationing in California recently, we were traveling from Bakersfield to Merced. Along the way we saw several billboards obviously promoting some legislation concerning the agricultural industry which read, "Food grows where the water flows." I don't know the story behind that sign. I can only suppose that it has something to do with the fact that the farmers of that region of the state are dependent upon the public canal system built many years ago to provide water for irrigation purposes. The water that flows from those massive reservoirs in the mountains turns an otherwise arid land into lush green fields and orchards producing all kinds of fruits and vegetables. As a matter of fact, California farmers produce a major portion of the food consumed in the entire United States. A little water makes a lot of difference.

Here, the drought may be over. Today, the fields are wet. The reservoirs again contain water. But there is always a need for spiritual water. The evidence of spiritual drought can be seen in the lives of many people. Jesus said, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink" (John 7:37). He went on to say, "He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water" (John 7:38). A little water makes a lot of difference.

Like every other community in our world, we need that living water. Lately, we have been reminded of the consequences of spiritual drought. Especially have we seen its effect in the lives of our youth and children. But it doesn't end there. Adults, too, are affected.

Living water comes from only One source. Its impact, however, is universal. We need that Water in our lives and community today. A little Water makes a lot of difference.

BUS DEDICATION - Officials from Lynn County, City of Tahoka, South Plains Community Action Associa tion, and SPARTAN were on hand last Thursday for the dedication of a new SPARTAN Public Transportation bus in Tahoka. W.D. Powell, Executive Director of Community Action, said, "We are proud to be here today in celebration of this new bus - we're not always lucky enough to get new vehicles and getting a new bus in a community such as Tahoka is a big deal." He noted that Lynn County received one of five new SPARTAN buses. Shown here in front of the new bus, from left, are Powell, Lionel Gonzales, a Community Action board member from Brownfield, Tahoka City Administrator Jerry Webster, Manuel Lechuga, Community Action board member from Tahoka, Lynn County Judge J.F. Brandon, County Commissioner Don Morton, Doneta Newton, board member from Tahoka, John Martin, board member from Brownfield, and Ann Polk, from the Texas Department of Transportation. Also on hand (not shown) was Irma Guerra, Program Director for SPARTAN. SPARTAN Public Transportation is located at 1629 Ave. J in Tahoka, and now has two buses for daily transportation in Tahoka and Lubbock, for anyone needing transportation for any reason. A fee is assessed for the ride. Local SPARTAN officials estimate approximately 100 people per month here use SPAR-(LCN PHOTO) TAN transportation.

Dog Agility Trials

The South Plains Obedience Training Club of Lubbock will be hosting three days of American Kennel Club All Breed Dog Agility Trials Oct. 9-11 in the Livestock Pavillion at the South Plains Fairgrounds. Trials will start at 9:30 a.m. each day and end around 3 p.m. Approximately 100 pure bred dogs from surrounding states will be judged at this event, many of which are the top agility trained dogs in the area.

To Be Held In Lubbock

Agility is one of the newest AKC events and is open to every breed. Dogs must be at least one year old to compete. In an agility trail, a dog demonstrates the ability to negotiate a complex course which will include a walk over a bridge, jumping through objects, going through tunnels, weaving through a line of poles, and pausing on command. There are different height categories so each dog is tested fairly on the course. Each exhibitor and dog team will be judged at one of three different levels of competition: Novice, Open, or Excellent. The dogs competing in these classes are working toward AKC Agility titles.

There will be free canine educational material available at these trials and there is no admission fee. For more information, call 794-1256.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor,

Once again we are faced with the possibility of the sale of beer and wine in Lynn County, specifically in the city of Wilson. I have a few questions for those who want to sell alcohol from their business. Will the next alcohol related death in Lynn County be traceable to Wilson, Texas? Will beer and wine sold at The Country Store help fuel the fires of child and spousal abuse that already rage in our communities? Will those responsible for this election also be responsible for the death, violence, poverty and misery that alcohol brings into a community?

I say to the residents of Wilson, you don't need this! For the rest of Lynn County, we don't need this! Please say no to the sale of beer and wine in Wilson. One man's profit from alcohol sales is not worth the misery that will come to the rest of the community.

> Sincerely, Lynn Long

To the editor, Lynn County News:

Thank you for the opportunity to express my opinion on the legalization of beer and wine within the city of Wilson, which will be determined in the October 9 Local Option Elec-

I'm reminded of something my father used to say when I got excited about a particular venture: "There is no such thing as a free lunch." This saying could be applied to the legalization of beer and wine in any community - you end up paying far more than you receive! You will pay additional taxes for law enforcement and your community will change...into a community much different than the community you want

My family owned and operated a motel just outside of my home town - but just inside a precinct that voted for local option. When I go back to my home town, I see the seediness of "the strip" just outside of town and wish people in 1961 would have considered the cost before they voted in local option. Don't fall for the empty promises of financial gain -"local option" is an option that's not worth having!

> Sincerely, Rev. Marvin Gregory Pastor, First United Methodist Church, Tahoka

Take-Home" Defensive

I left Lynn County in 1947 at the age of 17 but lessons I learned there have served me well, for over half a century. As I look back I am reminded of a couple from my Edith school days. If you think them worthy of print, I hope they bring a smile to those bright and happy classmates I remember across the years.

If there was ever any doubt in my mind that girls can hold their own in this world, I learned the truth about their capabilities at age 10 in Edith school. Edith was a 2 room school with a windmill for water, outhouses for toilets, and pot bellied stoves in the corner for heat. It was located 6 miles east and 1 mile south of Tahoka. I walked the 3 miles to school after milking chores and tending horses, cattle, chickens, and pigs - all to be done again after walking home at the end of the day.

In 1940, I was promoted from the little kids' room (grades 1-4) to the upper class room (grades 5-7). My main goal in the 5th grade was to make the softball team. It was the major sport in school, games were played away, and the players were much admired by everyone in the community. Mr. Smith, our 5th, 6th, and 7th grade teacher, principal and coach, asked each of us what position we wanted to play. Figuring I might as well go for the glory, I said, "pitcher." It was between a girl, Ruth Fenton, and me. Ruth whizzed the ball by the batter but she wasn't always accurate. This kept the batters nervous because if the ball didn't go over the plate, it might be coming at them - and very fast. Batters rarely got a good hit off her. My pitches were slower but generally over the plate, so I figured I had a chance even if batters did hit my pitches a lot. My job was to put the ball over the plate. If the batter hit it, it was the fielder's job to catch it.

Mr. Smith took me aside and he said, "Now Randall, you can get the ball over the plate and that is good. But the pitcher bats second and we need someone who can hit the ball batting early. You know, Ruth is one of our best hitters." I couldn't argue with that logic because we all called her "Babe Ruth" - not because she was a good looking blonde, which she was, but because she could hit the ball like the New York Yankees Babe Ruth. He never mentioned all the hits the batters were getting when

So I tried out for first base. I lost to Jane Boswell. Mr. Smith took me aside once again and said, "Now Randall, the first baseman has to reach out to get the ball. Being tall and having long arms is a real advantage. You know, Jane is much taller and has longer arms than you." I had to agree because Jane could certainly catch anything thrown in the general vicinity of first base. If the other players had been more accurate with their throws. I am sure I would have been a fine first baseman.

Mr. Smith then took me aside and said, "Now Randall, the team needs you for a tough assignment. It is difficult because you have to learn 3 positions and be ready to go in at a moment's notice." So, I became a reserve utility outfielder and happily shagged flies from left, right, and center field for the season. I don't remember if I ever actually played in a game but I was ready if needed and felt very important to be filling such a vital role for the school.

So, by the time I was 10, I knew that girls were not only equals but strong competitors and more than able to hold their own anywhere. And that is why in 1973 when my wife Muriel and I founded Sonalysts, Inc., a high-tech engineering services firm, we were quick to hire well-educated, motivated women. We are one of the few engineering companies in the world with a significant percentage of women in leadership positions.

Thanks to Mr. Smith, I also learned valuable lessons about keeping people happy and motivated. He was a wonderful educator, leader, and a fine human being. Truly, most of the really important lessons in my life were learned at an early age in Lynn County.

David Randall Hinkle P.S. Sylvia Banks scored 100% in the County meet "art appreciation" competition and I missed one. So our team got the Red Ribbon instead of the Blue - but she never held it against me. I think people used to be kinder than they are today.

Early voting for the upcoming beer/ wine election began on Sept. 22 and will continue through Oct. 6 at the City Hall. Early voting hours are from 8 a.m. to noon and 1-3 p.m. Monday through Friday. City Secretary Susann Follis will be the early voting clerk. Voters are reminded that they need to bring their voter registration card or other identification (such as drivers license) with them when they come to vote.

Voters are also reminded that this election is for City of Wilson residents only and that state law requires the election clerks and judge to ask if the voter has moved from the address shown on the identification. A voter must reside in the city and not just have a permanent address in the city. People such as college students living on school campuses are classed as being away for a temporary stay and qualify as a resident for voting. Other persons with a city permanent address, but residing in another area may or may not be qualified to vote. Election clerks and the election judge have the duty, by law, to challenge voters who they feel are not qualified voters. These voters may be allowed to vote, but they will use separate ballots and that ballot number will be recorded, by the voter, and placed in a sealed envelope which can be opened only by court order in case of a contest of the election. Election officials are requesting that voters entering the voting area and seeing a large number of voters waiting to vote have a little patience as a large turnout is expected.

New Fully Digital Hearing Aid

Now Available in Tahoka

Digital hearing aid prescriptions are precisely matched to your hearing loss. Once inside your ear, it is hardly noticeable

"The new Direct Digital Hearing Aid has been released. It samples sound one million times per second with more processing power than many desktop computers," said Arthur Bickel, hearing aid specialist with Livingston Hearing Aid

Center. "Sound is pre-processed and fed 32,000 times per second through the digital sound processor for statistical analysis and over 100 parameters are adjusted automatically."

The Fully Digital hearing aid automatically and continuously analyzes the sound in the wearer's environment.

This new technology is capable of fitting mild to severe hearing losses and because of the ability to program this hearing aid, it can be modified to meet the needs of the user for many years. Livingston Hearing Aid Center offers a 60-day money back satisfaction guarantee.

Tahoka Care Center has had a wonderful week. Thank you to all the volunteers who donated their baked goods, time, and money. TCC collected a grand total of $701.65 from the bake sale and donations. These proceeds will go to the purchase of a popcorn machine ($517) and Christmas gifts for the residents. We are proud to be in a community that displays such immeasurable support of the facility. Come and eat popcorn with us. Thank you again for your appreciated succor.

Shuffleboard has been a big hit here at TCC. Dan Curry is our champion winner this week followed by Estelle Cook and Maryl Mathis. Mr. Curry competed standing up to keep his competitive edge over the other contenders. Congratulations Mr. Curry Donations this week were blackeye peas from Gus Sherrill, cups from Allsups, and bingo prizes from Villa Craig. Thank you for your continuous support.

Homecoming is this week, and the ballots are in for the King and Queen of TCC. It was a tough decision on account of the many wonderful nominees. This year's crowns are presented to Mr. Warren Hardt and Ms. Beulah Hubbard. Congratulations on your appointment. Our royalty will be riding in the Homecoming Parade. Hope to see you there.

Emergency Farm Loan Applications Accepted Now For Fire Hazard Losses

Applications for emergency farm loans for losses caused by extreme fire hazzards that occurred on Aug. 1 and are now being accepted at the Farm Service Agency (FSA) office in Tahoka, according to FSA Ag Credit Manager Curtis Barlow.

Lynn County is one of 227 counties recently named by President Clinton eligible for loans to cover part of actual production losses resulting from the fire hazards. Barlow said farmers may be eligible for loans of up to 80 percent of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business, whichever is less. For farmers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest is 3.75 percent.

"As a general rule, a farmer must have suffered at least a 30 percent loss of production to be eligible for an FSA emergency loan," Barlow said. Farmers participating in the Federal Crop Insurance program will have to figure in proceeds from this program in determining their loss.

"Applications for loans under this emergency designation will be accepted until May 24, but farmers should apply as soon as possible. Delays in applying could create backlogs in processing and possibly over into the new farming season," Barlow

FSA is a credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It is authorized to provide disaster emergency loans to recognized farmers who work at and rely on farming for a substantial part of their living. Eligibility is extended to individual farmers who are U.S. citizens and to farming partnerships, corporations or cooperatives in which U.S. citizens hold a majority interest.

The FSA office in Tahoka is located at 2002 South 2nd and is open Monday through Friday, 8:00 to 4:30

RURAL DEVELOPMEN SEALED BID SALE

Property Address: 1004 S Ave K Tahoka, TX

The subject property has been extensively damaged and requires major renovation or demolition. The lot contains 42000 square feet, hookups to public water and sewage, and is suitable for reconstruction. Sealed bids will be accepted until Thursday, September 23, 1999 at 2:30 p.m. at which time all bids will be opened. A 10% bid deposit in the form of a certified check must accompany all bids. This is a cash sale only. The government reserves the right to reject any or all offers.

The property has been determined by RHS to be inadequate for residential occupancy. The Quitclaim Deed by which the property will be conveyed will contain a covenant restricting the residential occupancy until the dwelling is repaired, renovated, or razed. Restrictions are: Replace roof, provide potable water supply, provide functionally heating, plumbing and electrical system, repair all broken windows, install storm windows, on all windows, install insulated door at all exterior doors, replace all broken sheetrock and replace all floor covering. This restriction is imposed pursuant to section 510(e) of the Housing Act of 1949, as amended 42 U.S.C. 1480. The structure must be razed or reconstructed and a Certificate of Occupancy issued before the deed restriction can be removed.

For a bid package or further information, contact RHS at (806) 785-5644, Ext. 4 or visit our office at 6113 43rd St., Suite B, Lubbock, Texas.
