Youth Center's Fund Drive Set

With a youth and an adult teamed together, finance committee members Monday will start canvassing the Muleshoe business area for funds for the West Plains Recreation Center here. This was announced Wednesday by Tootie Middlebrooks, president of the adult board, and Mrs. Cliff Griffiths, adult chairman of the fund drive following a Tuesday night meeting of the group.

Mrs. Boyd Landers is co-chairman of the finance committee. On the fund drive will be Joe Putman, Jane Bruner, Linda Griffiths, Don Williams, Stanley Black and Charlene Lindsey.

Adult finance committee members who are to accompany the youth on their fund drive will be Mr. and Mrs. Alex Williams, Mrs. Boyd Landers, Mrs. J. H. Ewins, Mrs. Eugene Black and Cliff Griffiths.

The fund drive, it is hoped, will raise $600 with which to carry on the youth recreation program for the summer months, Middlebrooks explained.

Already the center is providing a varied program for scores of youngsters whose funtime activities are being carried on with adult supervision.

The center, located at West 2nd and American Blvd., is open to the youth five nights a week. A definite program has been set up for each of the five nights. On Monday nights, the youth play games. Tuesday night is given over to square dancing and again on Thursday nights, games are played. Friday's program varies from week to week, and Saturday night usually is devoted to a dance, either with a band or with records. The center is not open on Sunday and Wednesday nights.

This Saturday night the center is putting the big pot in the little one with music provided by Kados Orchestra. Then on June 22, a swim party is planned.

CONTEST PRACTICING — Bobbie Fender strikes up a few tunes in practice for her appearance July 4 on the big talent show at Benny Douglass stadium here. She will play "Deep in My Heart," and "Keep on The Firing Line" as her part of the program. Mrs. Fender, who has lived here since 1943, has been playing the accordion since 1949. She was a 1961 entrant.

DRYLAND COTTON OUTLOOK DARK AS RAINS BYPASS BAILEY COUNTY

Grain Sorghum Seen as Substitute Crop If No Rain Before June 20

While much of Texas, including large chunks of the South Plains, sloshed around in pleasant mud, Muleshoe area continued high and dry as June neared the midway mark with much of the 1962 planting cotton seed still in the bin.

Farmers, as a result, were looking down their noses as the summer days piled up on the calendar pushing nearer the unofficial cotton-planting deadline, June 20.

"If it doesn't rain by June 20, in sufficiently plentiful supply to permit planting of cotton, then dryland farmers might as well forget all about cotton for 1962," County Agent J. K. Adams opines. He adds that through the years, June 20 has been found to be practically the latest date cotton can be planted in time to produce ahead of the first killing frost. In a few instances cotton planted as irrigated cotton, on the other hand was described as "making fair progress," although even the artificially-watered cotton was later than usual, and one farmer told the Journal that his row system of irrigation had fizzled before the water "got halfway down the field."

Still another hurdle which late-planted cotton faces is the possibility of a wet September, which would delay maturing of the bolls probably resulting in a failure.

Anyway you look at it, cotton for the dryland farmer is on the critical list.

What to do if the rains still don't come? That's the question which farmers are pondering these days as they view the dry skies and the galloping calendar.

The county agent suggests grain sorghum. This West Texas standby crop still can produce if the season is half-way decent, experts pointed out. Charles Daniel, ASC supervisor for Bailey County, agrees that grain sorghum might be the alternative.

"Of course," he points out, grain sorghum planted in the place of cotton could not receive government support, and would have to be sold on the open market.

Support prices for grain sorghums have not been announced for the 1962 crop, but last year's support level was approximately $1.79 per cwt.

The open market price probably would range between $1.50 and $1.60. At least that was last year's open market price and somewhere in that range probably will be the 1962 level.

The county's cotton allotment for this year was 105,000 acres. Daniel estimates that 60 percent of this acreage is on irrigated land, and that of this amount, only 55 percent of the seed is in the ground.

Rains have moved close to Muleshoe, but much of Bailey County has been left dry. One good rain, for instance, has fallen in the Needmore area, almost at Muleshoe's south door. Rain there was estimated at 2 inches, accompanied by a small amount of hail.

IT MAKES A DIFFERENCE — Wylie Baker and son are shown standing at right in Baker's wheat field west of Muleshoe that has been fertilized with 100 pounds per acre of Nitrogen and 70 pounds phosphate. On the left the pair are in a field that had been fertilized with 80 pounds per acre of nitrogen only.

IT'S STILL DRY!

A tour through Bailey County Wednesday by County Agent J. K. Adams revealed there still is not enough moisture to permit cotton planting.

He said that Needmore area "could probably plant some of their dryland," and the area immediately south of the sandhills, especially in the area of Coyote Lake, had enough rain to plant, he said his check revealed.

He sums up with: "Less than 10 percent of the dryland acreage of the county has a planting season from the recent rains. Some farmers are dry-planting cotton in hopes of enough light rains to get a stand."

Chamber officials pointed out that the entire program, including the elaborate fireworks finale will be free. Posters are going out this week to nearby towns, advertising the event and urging entertainers to take part in the contest. Bumper stickers also are appearing on many automobiles, advertising the celebration.

Additional entrants in the talent contest were being sought Thursday, and officials asked that anyone who knows of an area entertainer be asked to take part. Gil Lamb will be master of ceremonies.

Talent Contest Draws More Entries for July 4 Celebration

Entries for Muleshoe's talent contest to be held in connection with the second annual Fourth of July celebration here, have begun to pour in, and possibly as many entries as last year seem likely. Roger Albertson, chairman of the talent contest, said Thursday.

Forty-two persons or groups took part in last year's two-hour show, branded as one of the best events of its kind ever staged in west Texas.

Meantime, $500 worth of fireworks, which will climax the evening entertainment, arrived at the Chamber of Commerce this week. The fireworks display will be staged by Earl Ladd, fire chief and his assistants as the final feature of the day which opens at 5 o'clock with an old-fashioned, bringing your own lunch picnic at 5:00 p.m.

The entire event is sponsored by the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and will be presented at Benny Douglass stadium.

Among entrants in the talent contest are several who participated in last year's event. Many of these are expected to send their names to the committee between now and July 4.

Albertson pointed out that the cash prizes being offered are exceptionally high with the top amateur receiving $150 for his evening's work. Second place winner in this division will get $100.00 third place winner will receive $75; fourth winner gets $50; fifth place, $25; and sixth place, $15.

As last year, the contest will be divided into two classes, one for amateurs and one for professionals. The latter contestants are described as any person or group who has received money for a performance. Only two cash prizes are offered the professionals: $50 for first place and $25 for second.

Chamber officials pointed out that the entire program, including the elaborate fireworks finale will be free. Posters are going out this week to nearby towns, advertising the event and urging entertainers to take part in the contest. Bumper stickers also are appearing on many automobiles, advertising the celebration.

Architect To Study Courthouse Problem

Bailey County commissioners today were meeting with architects to discuss critical housing problems facing the county officials, and one of the architects will be hired on a contingency basis to draft building proposals for the board to consider later.

High on the priority list of "musts" for the county is a new jail or radical revamping of the present county prison.

County Judge Glen Williams said several possibilities for solution of the housing problem will be considered by the architect picked. These include:

1. Remodeling and modernizing the present jail.

2. A complete new courthouse with a modern jail.

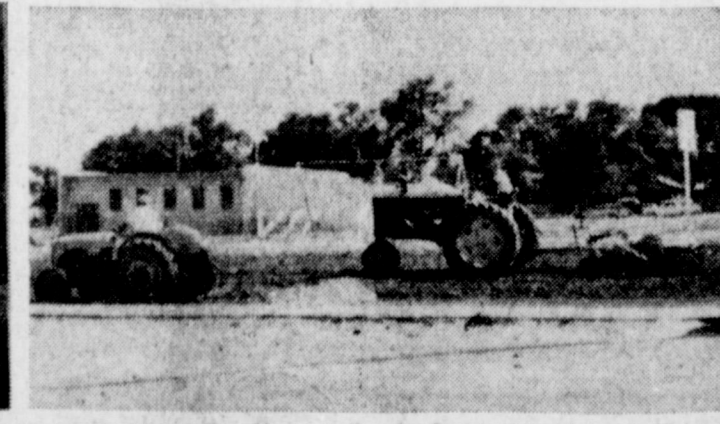

3. Construction of a wing on the present building.

Need for better housing of the county's official family long has been felt. "We are very crowded and need more room badly," Judge Williams said. "But before making any move, a thorough study needs to be made to determine just what solution is best. That's the reason we are picking an architect on a contingency basis to make this study for us."

Construction funds would have to come from bonds, Judge Williams summed up.

FACE-LIFTING — Muleshoe school grounds are getting a summer face-lifting. At left workmen are shown putting a badly needed blacktop surface on the high school parking area, while at right, a grading project is under way at Mary De Shazo school. ## 'Memorial To A Mule' Given Lift As Former Residents Send $100

Memorial to Maud, the lowly and often-cussed mule, moved a notch nearer realization this week when a former Muleshoe resident now living in California, sent a check for $100 to be applied to the fund to eternalize the mule in bronze.

Chamber of Commerce Manager, Carroll Pouncey, said Keith Gaede, a former Muleshoe resident, read of Muleshoe's drive to immortalize the lowly mule, and decided to do something about it. He contacted a group of his California friends who also were former west Texas residents, and took up a collection. When the fund in the hat was counted, it totaled $100.

The fact that Gaede read about the Memorial to a Mule campaign in a western paper—the Oregonian, to be exact—is nothing unusual; the Chamber here has received clippings from more than 40 newspapers throughout the nation.

Approximately $2,000 has been raised so far for the memorial to Maud and Chamber officials estimate this is approximately half the amount needed to put Maud into bronze. They have no way of knowing exactly what a life-sized bronze mule will cost, since nobody has ever made a bronze mule, so far as known. However, $4,000 to $5,000 is believed to be about the amount such a statue would cost.

Meantime the American Institute of Commemorative Art in New York is preparing sketches of the proposed mule memorial; chamber officials hope the drawings will be on hand when Muleshoe celebrates the Fourth of July with a program at Benny Douglass stadium. If the sketches are received in time, they will be put on display that evening.

A finance drive is under way in the business area, headed by Harmon Elliott, when business men will be asked to kick in toward the Memorial to a Mule Campaign.

If the fund drive is successful, actual work on the project might be started before fall. Plans now call for the memorial to be located just off U. S. 70 and 84, and the highway department will be asked to erect highway markers on each side of town, telling of the memorial.

Another fund-raising event is planned for July 3, when Cox's Drive-in theater will present a benefit showing. Appropriately seventh grade science; Mrs. Rosie Hurd, home-making department in the high school; Mrs. Maxine Harris, third grade in Richard Hills school, and Mrs. Betty Jennings who is taking a year's leave (See SCHOOL BOARD, page 4)

Post office officials have assured Spencer Beavers, postmaster here, they will "do something soon" to correct night mailing problems at the brand new Muleshoe postoffice. He said he was given that promise at a recent post-masters' school he attended in Dallas.

Since the new post office here is provided with two lobbies, the letter drops area is closed off at night when the service counter portion is locked. Boxes are in another lobby which is left open all night for convenience of boxholders.

The only letter drops available at night are the two street boxes on Ave. C at the rear of office.

He said many patrons like to post their letters at the same time they pick up their incoming mail, and thus object to having to go outside the office to find a mailbox for that purpose.

He explained that many of the new offices are built along the lines of the new office here, letters in the outside mailboxes being picked up by night trucks and taken to another all-night office for post-marking. No such trucks serve Muleshoe, however; thus the system is of no value here.

"We would like to ask the public to bear with us for a short time until we can get this situation corrected," Beavers asked.

West received a $75 award, and James B. Zetzsche, Jr., Bowie (far right) was given a $50 award. The three students submitted the best sets of plans for a machinery building to house equipment needed to operate a 640-acre West Texas cotton and grain farm. (Tech Photo)

Helene Bekeart Concludes Year As Belgium Exchange Student

HELENE BEKEART

Amid an exciting whirl of last minute social events given in her honor, Miss Helene Bekeart prepares for departure for her native home in Ghent, Belgium.

Since her arrival here last August as an exchange student, Helene has spent a happy year in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lenderson and a busy one with her studies and other activities as a senior student at Muleshoe High School. Much of her time has been consumed with speaking engagements for civic clubs, women's clubs and many special events.

During these speaking engagements, Helene has given the people of this community an insight of the people who dwell in the country of Belgium, their customs, means of livelihood, religion and ideal of life. She has described the massive structure of ancient Ghent such as St. Bavon Cathedral, a fine Gothic building magnificently furnished and housing numerous masterpieces: The Royal Flemish Theatre, The Belfry, a symbol of the city's freedom with the carillon containing 52 bells and many other interesting places in the city that has been her home.

Helene will have as many things of interest to tell her people upon her return as she did when she came to our comparatively small city. The Belgians will be intrigued with Helene's stories of the things that impressed her here. The football games, pep squad and the school band, of which there is only clubs for such sports there; the wide open spaces compared to the crowded situation there; the flow of the irrigation wells and how the cotton grows.

Most of the cotton used in Belgium comes from America, however none is grown there. For the first time only last month, one of the leading cotton distributors of Ghent toured in the Lubbock vicinity to see how the crop was raised, processed and changed to the finished material that comes through its establishment.

Other things she will be telling her people will concern the wages earned here and that American people seldom walk to their business places or for pleasure as they do in Belgium. Most of all, she will tell her people that she did not find the cowboys and ghost towns that she expected to find in Texas, a vision her people get seeing movies, nor did she find that all Americans were either millionaires, cowboys or gangsters as is the general opinion in Belgium.

Mr. and Mrs. Lenderson will accompany Helene to Tulsa on June 20 where she will board a chartered bus with approximately 30 other exchange students in this district for a two weeks bus tour of the states. The itinerary is not known with the exception of a three day visit to Washington where they will meet President Kennedy, Congressmen, and other officials, then on to New York for three days tours of that city.

From New York, the group will fly to Montreal, Canada and on July 15 they will board the ship, Seven Seas, which will dock at Amsterdam where she will be met by her parents.

Helene states that she is thankful that she was granted the privilege of spending a year in America and that she was especially glad that she came to Muleshoe as she learned of real friendship shown by people who live in the smaller towns and has acquired a multitude of knowledge while here.

Mrs. David Anderson and daughter Davy Jean, were hostesses to a salad luncheon honoring Helene and Benni McDaniel, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. B. O. McDaniel in their home Friday, June 1 to start the social events prior to her departure.

Mrs. Williams, mother of another Belgium exchange student, and Minica Williams in Redland, California was a guest in the Lenderson home last week.

Leaving Sunday, the Lendersons, Helene, Dr. and Mrs. T. M. Stiemmons and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Bolo left for Cloudercroft for several days in the mountains for an outing and painting scenes.

A reception for Helene will be given in the home of Mrs. W. Q. Casey, 305 E. Date, between the hours of 3:30 and 7 p.m. on Monday, June 18.

Special presentations will be made by local clubs at 3:30 p.m. Assisting with the hostess duties will be Mmes. A. R. McGuire, Clarence Thomas, J. G. Arnn, Horace Blackburn and Morris Childers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lenderson and Helene will form the receiving line.

No formal invitations are being sent and all friends, classmates and acquaintances are invited to come by and wish Helene "Bon Voyage."

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:
This is it. . . This may be the last chance for farmers and ranchers to prevent complete regimentation of their business.

The last barrier, before the final step to secure passage of the Administration supply management bill was taken by the Rules Committee when it passed out the bill for consideration on the House floor.

This is being written to be doubly sure that all citizens are aware of the critical point that agriculture has been brought to. If we lose one single vote because of lack of effective action, it could mean the difference between victory and defeat. The reversal of 3 votes in the Senate would have changed the verdict in that chamber last week. Your Congressman is under terrific pressure from the Administration. We can counteract this pressure with the only tool that we have, and that is public opinion, expressed by volumes of letters, telegrams, telephone calls, etc., to convince him that the people who elect him expect him to vote their interest.

Token action is not enough—this is all-out action. Get a letter writing campaign going immediately in order that they might be received by your Congressman. Telegrams, night letters, and telephone calls should not be overlooked.

We can win if we work at it!
Mrs. Morris McKillip

Dear Editor:
We have received a letter from the Jesse Stalker family of Ravenna, New York. I wrote them in sympathy with their plight of being penalized almost $21,000 for violating a ruling that they did not know existed.

When will the same thing happen to a farmer in the Muleshoe area?

The Jesse Stalker family's fight is every farmer's fight. Following is a copy of their letter:

Ravenna, New York
June 2, 1962

Dear Mr. McKillip,
On behalf of the Stalker family, I wish to thank you for your sympathy and good wishes. Your letter is a big boost to our morale.

I don't know what you have read or heard about us. The whole issue of the case is the size of the package. Because we bought a 20 quart package of cream instead of (10) 2 quart packages, we owe the Federal government almost $21,000. We received the definition of package one year after we committed the error.

Any letter writing that you and your friends do to Texas Congressmen to protect the in justice of our plight, we would deeply appreciate. We have so much at stake. There is scattered help from all over the country. But if enough support will come in time is our biggest worry.

This aid for us has become a bi-partisan effort not only in New York state but across the country, a notice of his intention to consider termination of certain provisions of the New York-New Jersey Milk Marketing Order under which we were accused. Secretary Freeman also stated any change would not be retroactive.

The Department of Agriculture asked for a 30 day extension which our lawyer granted. As far as we know now, our case will be heard in 3rd District Federal Court, the latter part of this month.

To learn that so many good people in this country will take time from their own busy lives to phone or write us has been a heart-warming experience. We shall never forget this as long as we live.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Jesse R. Stalker

Can you use this letter in your paper to help the Jesse Stalker family?
Very Truly yours,
Mrs. Morris McKillip

Scott Oliver Gets League's First Homer

By BOBBY EASON

A home run! Scott Oliver hit the first home run of the season. Scott hit the homer while playing against the Cats. But the homer was hit for a lost cause because the Cats won the game. The win placed the Cats in second place, and the Colts are looking for their first win.

Parker started his first game against the Cats. The young Duster was wild throughout the game. His second game was pitched against the Eagles, but with no wildness. He held the Eagles for two hits. Joe Adams, the first batter up, hit a single. Sam Johnson, in the fourth, slammed a double. Jerry Childs, the Eagle pitcher, did equally as well and stopped the Cats' attack at three hits.

When the smoke cleared the Cats won 5-2. The other two games were canceled.

Player of the Week: Scott Oliver.

Horizontal Silos May Be Answer To Storage Problem, Agent Says

COLLEGE STATION — Farmers who plan to expand their silage feeding program may want to investigate the use of horizontal silos, says W. S. Allen, agricultural engineer.

These silos are classified into three types—stack, trench, and bunker. The type that can be used most economically will depend on the situation on each farm.

Of the three, the stack type is the least expensive in first cost. This type has generally been used for emergency silage storage but some farmers have success with them and continue to use them for several years, points out Allen.

The stack is made by piling the silage on the ground at a convenient and well drained site to a height of 4 to 7 feet. Usually the stack is from 20 to 30 feet wide. The plastic cover must be anchored securely around the edges and over the top to prevent the entrance of air. Many farmers place a concrete slab on the ground to provide for better feeding and storage conditions. For more information on stack type silos write for MP-525, "Handling Silage in Aboveground Silos on the Coast Prairie."

The trench silo is made on the side of a hill. "The sides and bottom may be of earth or of concrete for permanent use," says Allen. For self-feeding and removing silage with a tractor scoop, the depth is usually 6 to 8 feet.

The bunker silo is built above ground and can be more conveniently located than the trench silo. For durability, it should be constructed of treated poles and planks or with tilt-up concrete panels and buttresses. A 4-inch thick concrete floor is recommended for all permanent horizontal silos. "Treated poles and 2-inch tongue and groove oak board sides will be useful for 20 to 30 years with a minimum of maintenance," says Allen.

For plans for horizontal silos, visit your county agent, J. K. Adams, or write the Agricultural Information Office, College Station.

Good Paint Has Twofold Effect

A good paint job on exterior woodwork improves the building's appearance and protects it from the weather. Bill Smith, extension forester, says a good coat of paint can greatly increase the service life of wood used above ground.

Two of the more common types of paint are the pigmented oil type and the waterbase coatings. The water-base type, for use outdoors, is a fairly recent development. It is designed to have increased moisture permeability, and when applied over special oil type primer it will give good protection to wood.

A successful paint job depends on the purchase of a good grade of paint and careful adherence to instructions of the manufacturer, points out Smith. Preparation of the paint surface, mixing, prime coat application and method of application are steps that require special attention.

When painting new wood, the best wood protection and longest paint life is obtained by applying three coats, says Smith. This would call for one prime coat and two finish coats. For previously painted surfaces which are in good condition, a single application may be sufficient.

The Forest Products Department of the Texas Forest Service recommends that you select a good quality paint of the proper type for each job and paint when the temperature is between 40 and 90 degrees. You should repaint before the old coating has worn enough to expose the wood, and you should make sure the surface is completely clean and dry before painting.

Exterior woodwork pretreated with a good water repellent preservative may also be effectively painted, explains Smith. One good

Home Grown Garden Items Number 1 Buy

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Shoppers should watch markets for liberal supplies of home-grown garden items these days. They're increasing as spring advances. Shipments of strawberries dwindled rapidly as heat and dry weather took their toll. Blackberries are being harvested from Southwest hedges. First shipments of California peaches and cherries have arrived.

Florida grapefruit and oranges avocados and bananas still retain best-buy labels, although grapefruit is priced higher in some markets. Cantaloups are becoming more abundant and prices are lower. Look for more watermelons this week-end.

Vegetable best buys this week include sweet corn, greens and green onions potatoes and yellow squash.

Celery and lettuce wholesale prices are some higher than a week ago, says the Agricultural Marketing Service.

Lower price tags are on green beans, cucumbers, corn, okra, blackeye and purple-hull peas, and tomatoes.

Look for special buys on frozen orange juice. The supply is large. Canned freestone peaches remain plentiful.

preservative, penta with the water repellent additive, may actually increase the efficiency of some paints. The penta should be mixed with mineral spirits and not an oil solvent, however. If pressure treating is done, the treating plant should be informed that the wood is to be paintable.

Motorists Urged To Share The Road

By C. A. DEMPSEY
District Safety Officer of Lubbock
Every few years, the average American motorist buys a new automobile. He may not realize it then, but at that time he is either buying for the first time or is renewing his stake in the great American Road. He assumes a certain amount of responsibility for its upkeep and his claim to a portion of its benefits.

The American Road is a 3 1/2 million-mile network of cross-country turnpikes and quiet country lanes. Its trunk lines stretch between our big cities from coast to coast, and its branches wind into our little hamlets. It ties our small isolated farms and ranches to their urban markets. It links our huge industrial complexes to their sources of raw materials. It radiates outward from our nearly 200 metropolitan areas, providing commuter routes for millions of suburban Americans.

In the thousands of cities and towns it runs through, the American Road is "Main Street". Thanks to this vast network from here to everywhere, "Mr. Motorist" has tremendous mobility; the Sunday afternoon, the week-end trip to the beach, the fishing trip, and the two week vacation touring the states and national institutions. Highways are truly a vital part of this so-called "Way of life".

When Mr. Motorist shares this 3 1/2 million mile highway network with 75 million other vehicles, his portion is 244 feet. Traveling at 55 miles per hour, he would cross his portion in about three seconds.

If all the public roads in Texas were divided up among the Texas motor vehicle owners, each would have a portion of 135 feet. Traveling at the rate of 50 miles per hour he would cross his portion in a fraction less than two seconds.

TODAY'S MEDITATION

But he said, "What is impossible with men is possible with God."
—Luke 18:27

All things are possible with God and those who put their trust in Him.

The big question was asked of Jesus by a ruler: "What shall I do to inherit eternal life?" The Master reminded him of the commandments, which the ruler said he had kept. However, this man was rich. There is no sin in possessing money, but evidently this man's money was possessing him. Jesus told him, "One thing you still lack. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in Heaven; and come, follow me."

The man declined. Here follow the disturbing words of Jesus, "For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of God."

Those who heard these words asked, "Then who can be saved?"

They knew, as we know, that though we are not all wealthy, we have areas of our lives not yet 100 per cent surrendered to the will of the Father. Our works are not good enough to assure us entrance into the Kingdom; nor will they ever be. At this point Jesus says, "What is impossible with men is possible with God." Here is our only Salvation!

Man's need is great. God's love is greater still. The grace of God, which forgives the penitent, is his love in action. This is always poured out upon us, not according to our merit, but according to our need. God's grace is sufficient. But even this will not be forced upon us. Those who let Christ in and seek his forgiveness will be saved, not because of the good they do, but because of the eternal goodness and perfect love of the Father.

Prayer: God, our Father, grant us that deep assurance of Thy strength that makes us more than we are. Enable us to visualize the greatness as spirit with spirit is linked together.

HUMANS NEED HUMANE SOCIETY

BOSTON (AP) — Ever wonder why horses don't kill themselves in the falls they take in western movies?

They fall on mattresses, says Kenneth B. McGovern Jr., 37, Humane Society inspector in Hollywood.

He says the horses are first trained to fall at a walk and gradually learn to pick up speed and fall on concealed mattresses. It's usually the rider that winds up in the cactus, McGovern says.

Possom Kingdom Building Boom Beckons Variety of Interests

There's lots to do and lots to see on that granddaddy of all, Brazos River watershed lakes, Possum Kingdom, and that is the reason for the fabulous building boom that's happening along its 310 mile shoreline.

There's plenty to interest everyone...fisherman...camper...skin diver...hunter...or someone who's only looking for a nice comfortable and interesting place to sit down and spend the rest of his life.

Fishing experts like Andy Anderson of Fort Worth say PK is on its way back to becoming the top black bass and catfish lake of the Central Texas area.

Skin divers say Possum Kingdom ranks third in their books as having the most ideal conditions for underwater activities.

Hunters in the surrounding area have been bringing in some top notch antlers and say dove and quail populations are growing by leaps and bounds. Hunting deer by bow and arrow only is allowed on Brazos River Authority property. No rifle hunting of any type is allowed on the lake or the adjoining Authority land.

Swimmers find the deep sandy beaches and the clear water with its shallow shoals and deep coves ideal for their pastime.

And for the kids, there is a special treat.

Just a short drive from the lake there is one of the few natural prairie dog towns left in that part of the state. The village of the small and entertaining rodents is protected by the BRA and lies just off farm-to-market Road 2333 at Deep Elm Creek. It is easily accessible by car and youngsters can be entertained by the hour watching the prairie dogs eat and quarrel and dive in their holes at the slightest strange sound.

And the people who just like to sit and look at the scenery say Possum Kingdom, with its Hell's Gate open water clefted canyon, its huge brownstone cliffs where eagles' nests cling, its deep blue waters and the wilderness look, is like something out of a travel guide.

Despite the fact that millions of dollars worth of lake side homes, ranging from modest fish in g camps to residences in the $50,000 class, have been built on the long lake shore, the lake because of its surrounding terrain remains an outdoorsman's lake.

Lots are being leased almost daily and new homes and camp sites are being snapped up almost as fast as the owner-operator Brazos River Authority can plot them.

At least two major commercial ventures are now abuilding. Owners of Harmar Boats, Inc. and Wichita Falls interests are building Vila Marina Lodge with 64 apartments at Jack's Point across from Scenic Point to cost $350,000. The apartments will be leased to weekenders or year-rounders and there will be a modern cafe-club to suit the style of the Brazos River Authority. Sand Bar, Inc. headed by Guy Meacham of Graham, Texas is investing $250,000 in a motel, bathing beach and golf course on the western tip of the peninsula bordering on that section of the lake known as "Broadway".

The Palo Pinto county tax collector (most of the lake lies in this county) recently estimated that the assessed valuation of improvements around the lake, the homes and commercial camps, would be in excess of $1 million by the end of this year. This figure is only a minor portion of the real estate value of the properties.

When the lake was constructed by the Brazos River Authority in 1941 it was estimated that the land purchased by the authority for the lake was bringing about $1,300 a year in tax money to the county.

In 1958 the tax valuation on the homes and commercial camps was $395,490. On January 1, 1961 this had increased to $536,425 and the tax assessor said the value now is well upwards of $600,000 and should reach the $1 million mark by the end of this year.

A 10-ACRE POPPING

FLORIDA, Ohio (AP) — Popcorn, popcorn everywhere, but not a kernel to eat.

Firemen arrived to fight a grass fire at a farm near here recently and found it had spread to a 10-acre field on which popcorn was grown last year.

Kernels still scattered around the field from the harvest sure had things popping.

Commented one of the firemen: "The popped corn looked like snow and sounded a bit like a Fourth of July celebration."

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex.—For the first time since 1872, Texas Republicans are presenting a strong threat to capture statewide and legislative offices from the Democrats.

Following his nomination for the Governorship in the Democratic ticket, John Connally took immediate steps to meet the challenge with a united front.

Connally invited all Democratic nominees for state and legislative office to a barbecue to be held on June 16 at his family ranch near Floresville. Purpose: to make some campaign medicine.

Saturday's outing will launch the campaign for the November 6 general election.

Jack Cox of Breckenridge, the Republican nominee for governor, is backed by a slate of 20 nominees for the 23 seats in Congress; 15 candidates for the 31 state senate seats, and 86 candidates for the 150 house seats.

Also there are candidates for county and precinct offices in many counties.

Lined up with Connally will be Waggoner Carr of Lubbock for attorney general, opposed by T. Everett Kennerly of Houston; Preston Smith of Lubbock for lieutenant governor, opposed by O. W. (Bill) Hayes of Temple; Jerry Sadler of Palestine for land commissioner, opposed by Albert Fay of Houston; John C. White of Wichita Falls for agriculture commissioner, opposed by Harry Hubbard of Marfa; Ben Ramsey of San Augustine for railroad commissioner, opposed by Bernard M. Hanson of Midland; Jesse James of Austin for state treasurer, opposed by Allen Lacy of Abilene and Robert S. Calvert of Sweetwater for comptroller, opposed by Mrs. Hargrove Smith of Houston.

Republicans are not contesting judicial seats.

The Constitution Party also has fielded a slate of candidates for state office, all but one of them from Houston.

More important offices in state government is the speakership of the house. Unlike the Senate, however, the people have no voice in the selection.

The speaker is elected by the 150 members of the house. Rep. Byron Tunnell of Tyler laid out the names of 95 Democratic nominees who have pledged to support him, and called on his opponents for the speakership to withdraw.

Rep. C. W. Pearce, Jr. of Temple did. Another opponent, Rep. Ben Glusing of Kingsville, was defeated in the runoff primary, so he no longer is eligible. Rep. Alonzo Jamison of Denton remained in the race. He had claimed 61 pledges.

FACULTY FIRING — Dr. Rupert C. Koeninger's firing as professor of sociology at Sam Houston State College may cause Texas to be "blacklisted" by the American Association.

No reasons were given when the board of regents for state teachers colleges fired Dr. Koeninger. Also no criticism of his teaching ability was brought out at the hearing.

The college professors association do not employ a strike or a picket line when it feels a professor has been done wrong. It merely "blacklists" the school by giving notice to other college teachers that it is not the best place to accept employment. Gradually, over the years, faculty members who feel Koeninger was done wrong will accept jobs at other schools which are not on the "blacklist."

IN THE RED AGAIN—Heavy payments of state aid to the schools in May pulled the state's main checking account — the general revenue fund — into the red again.

When May started, the deficit was $73,934,636. But heavy collections of corporation and insurance taxes wiped out the deficit, which has been present for nearly four years. This put the fund into the black by the middle of the month.

But when the school payments came due, it pulled the fund $9,391,468 into the red at the end of May. Early June expenditures made the deficit $28,015,980. It will go back into the black when sales tax payments reach the treasury in July.

CROOKED HOLES—Stet investigators from the Railroad Commission report that of the first eight oil wells in the East Texas Field tested, seven were "deviated" beyond the three per cent allowed by commission rules.

The work is slow, so it may be months, or even years, before the extent of the crooked-hole drilling program in that giant field is known.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson has filed one civil lawsuit, contending that a group of operators drilled four wells on a slant so the bottoms of the holes were on someone else's property, and that they plugged two more wells with cement before they could be tested.

Civil suits are being filed by oil companies against owners of nearby leases, contending that crooked holes have drained away oil which belonged to them. So far, eight such suits have been filed.

If court-type evidence is found by the commission's engineers and Texas Rangers, evidence will be turned over to U. S. Dist. Atty. Wayne Justice for possible prosecutions under the federal law — usually called the Connally hot oil act — which makes it a federal offense to move oil in interstate commerce after it has been produced in violation of state laws or regulations of the Railroad Commission.

It call for doctor of philosophy business and industrial psychology, chemistry, physics, and chemical engineering.

Dr. Philip Hoffman, University of Houston president, appeared pleased. He said the Commission adoption of a large portion of a "role and scope" plan was a "satisfactory recognition of the needs of Houston and the State."

Commission also agreed to consider at its July meeting the merger of the law and pharmacy schools at Texas Southern University with similar schools at the University of Houston. A commission member said he didn't think the state could afford two schools of law and pharmacy so close together.

NAMED — Gov. Price Daniel announced these appointments: Sol Parks and Mrs. Sally G. Pettus of Goliad as members of the Fannin State Park Commission. Parks succeeds Mrs. Louise Donaghue of Goliad for a term expiring September 5, 1967. Mrs. Pettus succeeds Walter Blunzer of Goliad, resigned, for a term expiring September 5, 1963.

Jack Hightower of Vernon, O. L. Bell of Quanah, Ralph O. Harvey Jr. of Wichita Falls, Tom Craddock of Seymour and Dr. E. N. Jones of Dallas as members of the Board of Regents of Midwestern University, for six-year terms. Hightower and Bell are new appointees. Harvey was reappointed. Craddock and Jones are filling vacancies. Jones, secretary of the Christian Education Commission of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, is a former president of Texas Tech College.

Russell D. Aulin of Andrews as judge of the 109th Judicial District, which includes Winkler, Crane and Andrews counties. He succeeds the late G. C. Olsen. A graduate of the University of Texas Law School and former county attorney of Andrews County, Aulin won the Democratic nomination for the district judgeship on June 2.

Rev. Edward H. (Whitey) Campbell of Denton as a member of the Governor's Committee on Children and Youth. Rev. Campbell is rector of St. David's Episcopal Church in Denton. He also has served Houston, Rockdale and El Paso churches.

Station Studies Recharge Effect

A new observation well for the artificial groundwater recharge program will soon be added at the High Plains Research Foundation.

James Valliant, Associate Water Engineer, said the new observation well was being added to better study the effect of recharge upon the underground formation. The well will be used to study ground water movement, the effect of suspended solids in recharge water upon the formation, and the effect of acids and detergents on these solids.

The well will be cased with 6 1/2 by 0.188 inch casing down to the red beds with perforations beginning approximately 10 feet above the static water level. The observation well will be located 206 ft. southeast of the recharge well.

Casing for the new observation well was presented to the Foundation by four Lubbock pipe firms interested in the development of the recharge program. Two four-inch observation wells now located 50 and 100 feet northwest of the recharge well are being moved to the southeast for additional testing of underground water activity in connection with the new observation well.

The research on recharge wells has been conducted since the Foundation was first organized in January, 1957. The Foundation is part of the national leaders in this field of research, and the work will be continued as a major part of the overall research program at Halfway.

Weight-watchers who use buttermilk and skim milk should be sure they eat foods that supply vitamin A—dark green lettuce leaves are a good source of this nutrient. These two forms of milk provide the food values of whole milk with the exception of vitamin A.

When you have a small amount of cooked carrots and green peas leftover, force them through a small strainer or food mill and add to cream of celery soup. Good flavor combination!

Short on Sunday-morning breakfast bacon? Cook whatever's on hand, crumble coarsely and add to scrambled eggs just before they are set as you like them.

Strange Ability of Russians to Worry About Their Well-Fed Bosses

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm take a look at Russian agriculture this week. We guess that's what he's doing.

Dear Editor:
As everybody knows, if American space scientists were as far ahead of Russian space scientists as American farmers are of Russian farmers we probably would already have conquered the moon and been eyeing Mars or Venice. In fact, we might have been to those places too and come back saying there's nothing worth conquering.

I don't know why this is, unless it's just that farmers are smarter than scientists, although maybe not as well paid.

But what brought this up was an announcement last week by Mr. Khrushchev that he was raising the price of meat and butter in Russia by 30 per cent, and what interested me was the little speech the dictator gave following the increase.

"I wouldn't say this is pleasant for the people," he said, "but the people understand that this is far more unpleasant for the Central Committee and for the rest of the government."

Now this type of "understanding" baffles me. If the Russian people can understand how it's more painful and unpleasant to the Communist bosses who already have all the cars, all the best apartments, and all the best food, to raise prices on food because there's not enough to go around, then they're far more sensitive than the rest of us.

I can see an ordinary Russian walking past a Communist official's house and imagining him inside eating a steak and buttering his bread and feeling downright sorry for him because he's eating with the memory still fresh in his mind of having to vote to raise the price of meat and butter by 30 percent. It's enough to take away his own appetite for the cabbage soup waiting for him in his one-room apartment.

With this type of understanding there's no limit to what the Russian bosses can pull off. In time though the Russian may learn that it's easier to order up a space craft than a crop of wheat.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

The following is a letter to the people of the Muleshoe area from Helene Bekeart, Belgium exchange student, who has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lenderson for the past year and attended Muleshoe High School.

Dear Friends:
The end of this school year, ended for me one of the most beautiful years I ever had. This has been an extra year, but I sure did learn a lot of things I never would have learned if I had stayed home. I'm particularly thankful for this year, because I learned to understand American people with the result being that I love American people now. All of you have given me so much. I hope that I have given you something, too. I have tried to make you understand Belgium and it's people who are a little bit different.

I have had a lot of funny experiences that perhaps embarrassed me in the beginning because I was not used to your customs. But I learned fast and I really do think that I could spend the rest of my life here.

I want to recognize Mr. and Mrs. Lenderson who both have been wonderful "foster" parents. I love them so much and I never will forget them.

I love Muleshoe and all of it's people and I will never forget you and this year will remain as one of the brightest happiness, experience and understanding.

I will soon be leaving and I hope that I can see all of you again sometime. If any of you come to Belgium, please, don't forget to look me up.

Thank you again,
Helene Bekeart

JFK And Grain

President John F. Kennedy, in appealing to Congress and the American people to support the Administration farm bill, touched on a dilemma that must be eventually faced by Congress and all the people of the country.

President Kennedy warned that if the farm bill he is pushing isn't enacted it will cost the taxpayers four billion dollars in the next four years. That is probably true, a right, if one judges only from the record of events in recent years.

And it would certainly seem that wheat and much of our corn should now be put under the same tight production controls for many years.

In recent years the government has been forced to spend large sums of money to buy corn and wheat — these crops not being under really tight production control — while costs of supporting the price could have been reduced considerably had production, or price-supported production, been held to a lower figure.

Congress cannot and should not evade the responsibility for taking such preventative action, an action which will save billions of dollars in the next few years and end on of the illogical phases of the price support program.

TIPS...

FROM THE OFFICE OF HOME DEMONSTRATION AGENT

By ANN GRAHAM

The job of keeping lawns neatly trimmed and mowed will become more time consuming with the advent of warm weather. Power tools for doing the job are readily available and power mowers are regular equipment a round most homes. These mowers, improperly used, can run up the cost of lawn mowing, cautions the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, by being accident hazards.

The rotary type mower can become a lethal machine, warns the Council, if it is used to mow lawns or weeds where rocks, bones, pieces of wire, nails or other debris can be found. The cutting blade can be broken by striking a hard object and hurled through the air. Wire can be cut into short pieces and hurled at bullet speed. Be sure, advises the Council, that the area being mowed is free of such objects being hurled toward the operator.

Furthermore, the Council suggests a few additional rules of safety which, if followed, could prevent many accidents involving lawn mowers or other power tools. "Never," they warn, "try to make adjustments to a mower with the engine running. It's just good business to remove the wire tempting to repair or adjust the cutting blade or remove accumulations of grass or weed from under the mower."

Children should not be allowed to operate a mower nor should a person who is barefooted or wearing open toed shoes. The engine should be cool when refueling is done and if an electric mower is used be sure the extension cord is in perfect shape or you may be in for a shock, warns the Council.

It's a good idea, say the Councilmen, to once again read the operator's manual which came with the mower or other tools before taking them out for another season. The folks who made the equipment are concerned about the user's safety and have made recommendations to insure a long and useful life for the machine and operator, concludes the Safety group.

SIMPLE RULES IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Vacation time is here. Soon millions of people will be driving about the country, and automobile accidents will occur with increasing frequency. What should a person do when involved in an accident?

At such times it is hard to keep your wits about you and know just what to do. It is therefore a good idea to plan in advance just what you would do in event of a smash-up. Here are a few simple rules that every driver should commit to memory:

1. STOP! Failure to stop can result in serious criminal consequences.

2. RENDER AID. If anyone is injured: (1) Render first aid. (2) Stop bleeding. (3) Call a doctor or an ambulance or both. (4) DO NOT move an injured person in any way that could possibly add to his injury.

3. PROTECT THE SCENE FROM FURTHER DAMAGE You may be liable for damages to approaching drivers, unless they are properly warned. If the highway is obstructed at night, have someone turn his headlights beams on the wrecked vehicles.

4. CALL AN OFFICER. Police-men, Highway Patrolmen, Sheriffs and their deputies are trained accident investigators whose testimony may be invaluable in establishing your civil claim for damages.

5. GATHER INFORMATION. WRITE IT DOWN. Don't trust your memory. Don't guess—be specific. Measure skid marks. Step off distances. Be sure to obtain names and addresses of witnesses. You are required by law to exhibit your driver's license to the other driver—and he must do the same.

6. BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU SAY. Even if you feel you probably are to blame, it is best to make no admission. You may learn that the other driver was equally at fault, or more so. Emotional comments can be misconstrued by others, or may be misquoted. Whatever you say, make it factual.

7. SEE YOUR DOCTOR if there is the slightest chance you may be injured. Serious injuries do not always result in immediate pain or bloodshed.

8. CONSULT YOUR LAWYER IMMEDIATELY. The sooner your lawyer is brought into the matter, the better he can advise you and protect your rights. He can obtain statements from the witnesses while their memories are fresh, and do many other things to insure that the true facts are preserved. Get your lawyer's advice before giving any interviews or statements to investigators or adjusters for the other side.

9. INFORM YOUR INSURANCE COMPANY PROMPTLY. Failure to do so may void your policy.

10. REPORT THE ACCIDENT to the Department of Public Safety. This is required by law if there is any injury, death, or total damages exceed $25.00.

An official accident report form may be procured from the Police Sheriff's Dept., Highway Patrol, or State Dept. of Public Safety.

(This news feature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

Next time you are candying sweet potatoes, try adding some cooked carrots to them.
