Criminal Mischief, Accident Reports Investigated Here

Two incidents of criminal mischief in which vehicles were damaged by eggs, a traffic accident and domestic violence were among reports investigated by Tahoka Police Dept. during the last week.

On Friday in the 1900-block of N. 1st St. a 1982 GMC pickup driven by Ronnie Van Long, 45, of Tahoka and a 1995 Pontiac driven by Silva Lopez Salinas, 40, of Tahoka were involved in a collision. There were no injuries to the drivers or to either of two teenage passengers in the Pontiac, according to the police report.

Joe Calvillo of Tahoka reported that someone Sunday night had thrown eggs at two of his vehicles and garage doors. No estimate of damage to a 2004 Hummer and a 2004 Honda was made, but paint on both vehicles reportedly was damaged.

Lesley Ann Chapa of Tahoka reported to police that she saw a female teenager throw an egg which struck Chapa's 1995 Ford Explorer on the back glass while it was parked near Tahoka High School field house.

Felicia Davis of Tahoka advised police that someone had stolen her purse containing cards and papers from her car while it was parked in her driveway Monday.

Police arrested a 24-year-old Tahoka man on a domestic violence charge after a woman complained that he had bitten her on the wrist and punched her Saturday.

SNOW BRINGS LYNTEGAR TO THE RESCUE - Employees in these two Lyntegar trucks were heading in to Tahoka from U.S. Hwy. 87 north to help repair poles that were down in the Lyntegar service area, due to the snow and ice accumulations on Tuesday. Lines were down in extreme northern portions of the county including the New Home area, for most of Tuesday, and crews worked late into the night to repair poles and restore power. Some areas still had no power on Wednesday morning and repair crews continued their work. This photo was taken early Tuesday afternoon at the crossover leading to Poka Lambro, and road conditions were beginning to be affected by the mix of snow and ice. (LCN PHOTO)

Lynn Voters Carry Bush; Okay County Sales Tax

Lynn County voters joined the rest of Texas in supporting President George W. Bush in Tuesday's election, voting 1745 for Bush and 465 for Democratic candidate John Kerry in the county tally. About midmorning on Wednesday, President Bush was officially declared as the winner of the nationwide election, for another four-year term of office.

County voters were strongly in favor of the referendum on the ballot that will allow adoption of a one-half percent sales and use tax within the county to be used to reduce the county property tax rate. Voters marked 1482 votes for the issue, with 309 against. The sales tax will come into effect next October (2005) and the revenue generated from the sales tax collections will be figured into next year's calculations for effective and rollback tax rates for the county. County officials estimate that the sales tax will bring in an estimated $70,000 annually to county revenues.

More than 50 percent of Lynn County's 4,322 registered voters turned out for the election, with record numbers voting during the early voting period (865) and a total of 2,333 voters marking ballots, according to the Lynn County Clerk's Office.

In District 19, the hotly-contested U.S. Representative race between Republican Randy Neugebauer and Charles W. Stenholm ended with Neugebauer carrying the election. In Lynn County, voters gave Neugebauer 1111 votes to Stenholm's 1024. County voters also carried Pete Laney in the District 85 State Representative election, with 1217 votes to 811 for Republican Kent Sharp.

Locally, the District Attorney's race pitched incumbent Ricky B. Smith, a Democrat, against Republican challenger Brian L. Kingston, with election tallies on the plus side for Smith by a mere 49 votes in the four-county area, with 6119 votes for Smith and 6070 votes for Kingston. The close race prompted Kingston to request a recount, according to the Lynn County Clerk's Office.

with the earliest possible date for a recount being Nov. 15 as set by election codes. Kingston carried Lynn County voters by 1254 to Smith's 865, and he also carried Gaines County with 2221 votes to Smith's 1750. But Smith carried the other two counties, with 2572 votes in Dawson County compared to 1844 for Kingston, and 932 votes for Smith in Garza County while Kingston had 751.

Lynn County Pct. 1 Commissioner Don Morton was reelected, carrying 350 voters to write-in challenger Gary Daniell's 36 votes.

Uncontested candidates declared elected locally include Jerry D. Franklin as Sheriff (who will officially take office in January 2005), and incumbents James Napper (County Attorney), Sherry Pearce (Tax Assessor-Collector), and Pct. 3 Commissioner Don Blair.

ACCORDING to a story filed out of Geneva, Switzerland by the Associated Press about two weeks ago, the use of robots around the home to do chores will increase sevenfold within the next two years.

The story quotes an official from a company in Burlington, MA which makes robots for commercial use (mainly vacuum cleaning) and also for the U.S. Army.

I finally figured out that the story was datelined in Geneva because that's where some kind of worldwide robotic commission met and issued the new prediction of increased use of robots in homes to mow lawns, vacuum floors, pull guard duty and perform other chores.

One guy said the reasons robots will be more popular is because they work better than they used to and because prices have come down. Down to what, he didn't say. Nowhere in the story did it suggest a ballpark price for the most popular robots, vacuum cleaners. It did say that 570,000 vacuum cleaning robots were sold last year. And 37,000 robots which mow lawns were sold, along with 12,760 sold for "education and teaching," with no elaboration on that category.

Shucks, I had a teacher way back in the 50s who I'm pretty sure was a robot. He certainly didn't fit any definition of human I could think of.

Sales of window-washing and pool-cleaning robots also are expected to boom, according to the commission report. And "entertainment robots," such as a dog-like thing made by Sony, already have increased, with an estimated 692,000 now out there somewhere. I guess this allows you to have a dog which you don't have to feed or clean up after. You just program it to bite the mailman and it works like a real dog.

I guess these home helper robots don't look like the one most of us remember from "Lost in Space," with arms legs and a head. The vacuum cleaning robot probably is just a vacuum cleaner with remote control (it probably doesn't have legs and wear a skirt and fuss at you).

The most successful lawn mowing robot, though, would be one that sort of looks like a person, guides the lawn mower around the yard and says "yes, dear," periodically.

THE KID on Ave. K was asked by his teacher one day "How can you delay milk turning sour?" His reply: "Keep it in the cow."

TRICK OR TREAT? - Tahoka pharmacist Haney Wells had a surprise visit at his home on Halloween from President and Mrs. George W. Bush, who urged Wells outside to pose for a flag-waving photo opportunity. Wells doesn't look like he quite knows what to do with the Republican couple at his home - and possibly he was trying to figure out who the masked couple really were.

November Is Home Care, Hospice Month

Lynn County Commissioners join the Texas Association for Home Care and the Hospice Association of America in designating November as "Home Care and Hospice Month."

Commissioners signed a proclamation in support of the designation recently, which noted that understanding that dealing with a terminal illness is frightening and difficult for patients and families as they deal with emotional, physical and financial stress. They recognized that Hospice programs provide a caring environment to treat these needs, and noted Home Care is the preferred method of health care delivery among a growing number of people who are disabled, elderly and chronically ill.

The proclamation promotes recognition of the hard work and dedication of Home Care providers and Hospice programs.

Fall has been very busy for us. We went to the apple orchard at Idalou. We had a nice lunch there and came home with a lot of apples. So, we were busy making apple pies, apple dumplings, apple crisp and apple cakes. We were kinda sad when they were all gone as we sure enjoyed all the good eating.

We are also enjoying Donna Stone's class coming on Thursdays to play games with us. Last Thursday they served us refreshments for Halloween which we really enjoyed.

Our residents have been doing the Bible Study "40 Days of Purpose" and we thank Jerry Ford, Barry and Retha Pittman for coming on Monday nights.

We had a music group "Silver Thread" from Post to come play for us and they will be coming once a month. Dan and Frances Thomas and their group of ladies come once a month also and we really enjoy singing with them.

For Halloween we had the 1st grade, 3rd grade and Kindergarten kids from school to come out and show off their costumes and perform for us. And also, Angie Hall brought her day care children. We had fun making treats for all these kids and appreciate them coming to see us as we always enjoy them.

We enjoy having company anytime and feel free to come visit us anytime or come play games with us.

Lynn County Seniors Could Benefit From Treating High Blood Pressure

If you are a Lynn County senior citizen, it is important to check your blood pressure regularly and to ask your doctor if medications might be needed. In Lynn County alone, some 68 of all ages died from diseases of the heart between 1999 and 2002 according to Texas Department of State Health Services statistics. Many of these deaths can be traced back to hypertension, or high blood pressure.

A new study shows that seniors, the age group most likely to have hypertension, could benefit considerably from prescription medicines. The study, conducted by actuaries and clinicians from the independent actuarial firm, Milliman, Inc. found that using prescription medicines to treat hypertension among untreated and under treated Medicare beneficiaries would save 77,000 lives a year nationally by avoiding heart attacks and strokes.

"Even one preventable death is too much. Hypertension puts the lives of Lynn County seniors and millions of U.S. seniors and other ages at risk," said Alan F. Holmer, President and CEO, Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America (PhRMA), which commissioned the study. "This study shows how important the appropriate use of prescription medicines could be in saving over 77,000 lives a year. By avoiding heart attacks and strokes, fewer Medicare beneficiaries would be admitted to hospitals and nursing homes, and more could live longer, more independent lives," added Holmer.

The Milliman study finds that, beginning in 2006 with the initiation of the Medicare prescription drug benefit, active and continuous drug treatment of 19 million untreated and under treated beneficiaries suffering from hypertension would result annually in:

- No additional health care costs
- 115,000 fewer cases of stroke
- 106,000 fewer cases of coronary artery disease (heart attack)
- 77,000 fewer deaths
- 46,000 fewer skilled-nursing facility admissions
- 4,000 fewer long-term care facility placements

"This study demonstrates how spending on medicines can have a large and favorable impact on seniors' health, while achieving savings on Medicare's hospital and other costs. Our estimates of benefits to patients and savings are conservative, in part because we focused only on avoiding stroke and cardiac events. Efforts to get more people to treat their hypertension would also help avoid other expensive conditions linked to high blood pressure, such as kidney failure and blindness," said Bruce Pyenson, co-author of the Milliman study.

The Milliman study joins a growing list of reports—including last year's RAND Health study—showing that hypertension is under treated with medicines. This under treatment even among insured patients emphasizes the need to build aggressive outreach strategies.

Hypertension puts millions of seniors at risk annually. One in four Americans now has hypertension. Currently, two-thirds of Medicare beneficiaries have hypertension. Thirty percent are unaware of their condition and 37 percent are aware but not treated. Among ethnic groups, African-Americans have the highest prevalence of hypertension, followed by non-Hispanic white and Mexican-American populations.

This analysis illustrates the importance of taking a broad, integrated view of the Medicare drug benefit that accounts for how the benefit impacts the overall health of patients and overall Medicare spending. To reduce the number of people suffering from hypertension and its effects, outreach and patient education are essential.

Additionally, the new Medicare prescription drug benefit provides an important opportunity to help address under treatment of hypertension. Other aspects of the Medicare prescription drug law that also can help are the Chronic Care Initiative's requirements that encourage insurers, as part of the drug benefit itself, to address under use of medicines.

More information is available at: <http://www.phrma.org/publications/policy/23.08.2005.1042.cfm>.

The Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America represents the country's leading pharmaceutical research and biotechnology companies, which are devoted to inventing medicines that allow patients to live longer, healthier, and more productive lives. PhRMA members invested an estimated $33.2 billion in 2003 in discovering and developing new medicines. PhRMA companies are leading the way in the search for new cures.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Tahoka Ex Writes

Dear Editor:

Earlier in July I received quite a shock as I was reading my Lynn County News. There on the next page was my picture (Beth Shepherd Chapman), my school buddy Ruby Greer McClendon (deceased 02-94); and my sister Margie Shepherd (Conway) who lives in Littlefield. We thought Miss Amy Hinkle was the best girl's basketball coach ever. We (Grassland) had a winning team that year - 1939. Two years later I played for Tahoka High School where I graduated in 1943.

After college at McMurry University I entered public school teaching at Midland, Texas. This was my "calling" and after forty-four years, I retired in Brownfield, Texas, (1994) where I had taught thirty-seven years.

Recently I attended the brunch for the 50th Reunion of the Class of '54 in Tahoka. I taught them High School English, and my sister, Jane (Shepherd) Williams was in that class. What fond memories!

I did not ever know Randall Hinkle, but I'm so glad he attended the Draw-Redwine Memorial Ceremony and wrote to your paper. I saw that Memorial and it is great! We all owe gratitude to our Veterans and Service men.

Sincerely,
Beth Chapman

TAHOKA EX IS STATE TROOPER—Trooper Jason McMillan graduated from the Texas State Highway Patrol Academy August 5, 2004 in Austin. Jason, a graduate of Tahoka High School, started in law enforcement shortly after graduation. He was a jailer for the Lynn County Jail while attending college at South Plains College in Levelland. Upon graduation from college he worked as an officer in O'Donnell for about two years when he transferred to the police force in Snyder. He received the prestigious award of "Officer of the Year" his first year of service there. He and his wife Amanda are stationed in Matador for the present time. His parents are Terry and Ricky Stahl of Snyder, and his grandmother is Doris McMillan, and great-grandmother is Jewell McMillan, both of Tahoka. All of his family were in attendance for his graduation.

SNOW-CAPPED PEAKS – Okay, so they are little peaks, but they are Lynn County's only "mountains" – gravel piled beside Hwy. 87 north of Tahoka for future road construction use, looking rather striped with the snow that fell Tuesday in the area. During the day Tuesday, most of the snow melted as quickly as it fell in the Tahoka area, but further north, past Poka Lambro on Hwy. 87, the snow was beginning to pile up and roads were becoming hazardous as temperatures began to fall in the evening. Amherst Beats Leopards 34-13

New Home QB Ryan Wied passed 20 yards for one touchdown and ran 26 yards for another, but it was not enough as Amherst won 34-13 at Amherst last Friday.

The loss dropped New Home to 2-7 for the season and 2-4 in district.

Eagles Lose To Sundown In Overtime

Tied at 21 in regulation, Sundown and O'Donnell went into overtime in a District 6-A struggle at O'Donnell last Friday, but the Eagles lost a heartbreaker 28-27 when the home team had an extra point try blocked in overtime.

QB O.J. Hunter ran 22 yards and passed 8 yards to Josh Ramirez for another touchdown as the Eagles took a 14-7 first quarter lead. Ramirez scored two other touchdowns in the game, one on a 25-yard run in the fourth quarter and the last one on a 2-yard plunge in overtime after Sundown already had scored 7 points in overtime.

The loss put O'Donnell at 4-5 for the year and 1-3 in district.

METHUSELAH? – This huge turtle, looking to be about 1000 years old, was found at the home of Jerry and Sandra Brown, at 2114 N. 8th St. in Tahoka, a week ago. Wildcats Pounce On Bulldogs

by CADE MILLER

The Idalou Wildcats pulled away with a 52-15 victory over the Tahoka Bulldogs after an exciting, close first quarter. The Bulldog boost came just minutes after Idalou scored their first touchdown of the night when Ja-Vaen Tillman caused a fumble, then scooped it up and ran a quick ten yards for a Bulldog touchdown.

The Dogs once again had a scoring opportunity to tie the game at 14-all, when a Wildcat defender picked off Patrick Dotson's pass in the end-zone. The Wildcats would score 45 straight points en route to a District 5-2A victory.

Ja-Vaen Tillman led the Bulldogs on the ground with 149 yards on 22 carries and two touchdowns, while Patrick Dotson scrambled for 35 yards.

Colby Gardner was perfect on receptions with 10 yards on two catches. Dotson, who had 16 passing yards on 7 attempts, also completed a pass to Zach Gutierrez for 9 yards. The Dogs had a total of 222 yards on 38 plays and gave up 232 yards to the "Cat offense."

Larry Murphy was the outstanding defensive standout of the night, recording 12 tackles and 3 tackles for a loss of yards.

The Dogs will end their season at home against the Slaton Tigers on Friday night, with a kickoff time of 7:30 p.m.

Coach's Comments:

"The Bulldogs played a very tough Idalou team and we didn't even play well ourselves. We are looking forward to playing at home this week and honoring our seniors that will be leaving us. We look to have a good game and a win against the Slaton Tigers. This week we did manage to get a 1000 yd rusher on the team with Ja-Vaen Tillman. He is just a sophomore and will be a big asset next year along with all of the rest of the juniors, sophomores and freshmen that will be returning with lots of experience. The boys would like to have everyone's support this Friday night at 7:30."

The Offensive player of the week was Ja-Vaen Tillman,

The Defensive player of the game once again was Larry Murphy,

The Big Hit of the Game came from Damon Moore.

Thanks for all of the support for these guys.
