Wreck, Theft, Arrest For Drugs Reported In County This Week

A 54-year-old Tahoka man arrested Tuesday night for driving while intoxicated, second offense and possession of cocaine possibly will be deported as an illegal alien living in the U.S. without a visa, according to the arresting officer.

Dept. of Public Safety Trooper Joel Callaway said he stopped the man for speeding about 10 miles north of Tahoka on U.S. 87 and discovered that he had been driving under the influence, had no valid Texas drivers license and had a quantity of cocaine. Callaway also said the Immigration and Naturalization Service had indicated the man would be deported to Greece once the charges of drug possession and DWI second offense have been resolved.

Tahoka Police Dept. Tuesday investigated a traffic accident in the 2000-block of N. 1st St., where a 2002 Oldsmobile driven by Danielle Hernandez, 17, of Tahoka and a 1994 Cadillac driven by Misty L. James, 26, also of Tahoka, were involved in a collision. No injuries were reported.

Police also were advised by Arnold Acosta Gonzales Friday that some vehicle parts valued at $122 had been stolen from a travel trailer.

On Tuesday police arrested a Tahoka teenager who appeared to be suicidal and seized a 12-gauge shotgun. The young man was placed in a Lubbock medical facility.

Early this week there were 45 inmates in Lynn County jail, including nine for Lubbock County, six for Gaines County and one for Garza. The latest four persons jailed all were arrested for driving while license was invalid.

Four More File In Local Elections

Four more people have filed as of Wednesday morning for Lynn County elected offices, during the second week of the filing period, which opened Dec. 5 and continues through Jan. 2, 2006. One incumbent who filed the first week has withdrawn from the election, making a total of seven candidates who are seeking election.

J.T. Miller, Commissioner of Precinct 4 who had filed during the first week, has officially withdrawn his name from the election, according to information from the County Clerk's office, where filing is conducted.

Two of those filing during the last week are newcomers for local offices, including Pam Miller, who filed for County Treasurer, and Brad Hammonds, who filed for Commissioner of Precinct 4. Incumbents who filed for reelection during the week were County Judge H.G. Franklin and County Clerk Susan Tipton.

Those who filed the previous week include Ginger Henry, who filed for the office of Justice of Peace, Precinct 1; Sandra Laws filed for re-election as District Clerk, and Pct. 2 Commissioner Mike Braddock also filed for re-election.

All candidates to date have filed on the Democratic ticket.

There are eight county offices up for election this year, all four-year terms, including County Judge, County Treasurer, District Clerk, County Clerk, Commissioner Precincts 2 and 4, and both Justice of Peace Precincts, 1 and 4.

MS Principal Glo Hays To Retire Dec. 31st

Glo Hays, Middle School Principal at Tahoka Independent School District for the past 11 years, has announced her retirement effective Dec. 31, 2005, ending a 16-year career with the school district. Prior to her administrative position, Mrs. Hays was a Marketing Education teacher for five years.

Superintendent Jimmy Parker informed trustees of Mrs. Hays' letter of resignation during the monthly board meeting held Monday, Dec. 8.

"For now, Robert Webb will be high/middle school principal and Troy Hinds will be high/middle school assistant principal and still be athletic director. We will continue to evaluate the situation and make a permanent decision later this spring regarding administrative staffing for the district. I feel very confident in Mr. Webb and Mr. Hinds being able to handle those duties in an exceptional manner," Supt. Parker told The News this week.

"Of course, there will be a period of adjustment that naturally occurs when you lose a campus principal that has been here as long as Mrs. Hays has been here. We wish her the best in her retirement. We hope the middle school parents will get to know Mr. Webb and Mr. Hinds if they do not already know them. They both have experience working with middle school students so there should be a smooth transition," added Parker.

When contacted by The News this week, Mrs. Hays wanted to express her appreciation for her years of service in the school district. "Thank you very much, Tahoka, for allowing me the opportunity to work with your children for the past 16 years. I have been so blessed to have been allowed to interact with intelligent, personable, physically-gifted, spiritual adolescents as they grew into adulthood. Working with high school seniors as they rode the roller coaster associated with a senior year, working with seventh grade students as they 'crossed the street' to middle school, and working with the best staff imaginable are the wonderful memories I take with me as I leave this position," said Mrs. Hays.

"Some of my fondest memories at TISD include Jammin' January, successful DECA state officers and projects, building middle school 'miniature golf courses,' and finding John in Palo Duro Canyon. Some of my sad memories include being surrounded by students and staff when my dad died, when I broke my ankle, and when I experienced knee replacement surgery. But nothing can compare to the support my family and I received when my grandson, Ira, was born in April 2005. This whole community wrapped their loving arms around me and my family in prayer and followed faithfully Ira's struggle for life. Ira's birth and illness taught me that a peace that passes understanding is God's gift to me while in the midst of turmoil here on this earth. So I'm smiling through the tears as I approach this peaceful retirement," added Mrs. Hays.

Trustees met in closed session for just over two hours to conduct their annual performance evaluation of the superintendent, from 9 p.m. until 11:22 p.m.

Public hearings were held for the First Day of Instruction Waiver for the 2006-07 school year, and for the district's Academic Excellent Indicator System (AEIS) report, which no citizens attended. An annual WADA agreement with Klondike schools was approved, and a district Textbook Committee was appointed.

The next board meeting was scheduled for Jan. 12 at 7 p.m. in the Harvick Center. All seven trustees were present for the meeting, including Math Bartley, Joe Calvillo, Carmen Chapa, Jimmy Dorman, Valton Stephens, Frank McLelland and Kent Kahl.

LAST WEEK I copied a recipe for Swiss steak from a cookbook in San Saba, because I had a vague memory that Swiss steak tastes pretty good, plus I was intrigued by some of the instructions. I doubt that I will ever try to cook Swiss steak, though, for a couple of reasons, one of which is that I have always been better at eating than cooking.

I don't remember ever having Swiss steak at our house, although a lot of really good things have been on the tables there. But once in a great while (about every five years?) I am at some function where Swiss steak is served, and I like it.

We have been to Switzerland three times, but I don't recall ever having Swiss steak, so I really don't know if it originated there.

The people of Switzerland are called Swiss, singular or plural, I think. Swizzlanders would be too big a mouthful. Maybe they could be called Swizzlers. (No, that's what a person with a speech problem uses to cut out dress patterns).

Anyway, here's the recipe, not guaranteed by me, but which sounds like it might be good:

Ingredients: one pkg round steak, one lg onion, sliced in rings, one lg bell pepper, sliced in rings, tomato juice.

Season steaks. Spray baking dish with Pam. Place steaks in baking dish, salt and pepper. Place rings of onions and peppers over steak. Pour tomato juice over steaks until they are nearly covered. Bake at 325 degrees covered 2 hours 15 minutes. Bake uncovered another 15 minutes. Be sure to use tomato juice, not tomato sauce.

Well, gee, that sounds pretty easy, except for that first part, "Spray baking dish with Pam." I know five different women named Pam right here in Tahoka, and while they are all nice folks, I'm not sure any of them would be ready to drop what they are doing and rush over to our house to help me spray a pan. I've got some spray we could use, like Lysol and bug spray, but I doubt either of them would add much good taste to the steak.

Sounds like I would need help, though, so maybe I will just call Mrs. Elrod, Miller, Womack, Parker and Lehman. With that much help, we could spray every dish in our kitchen in minutes.

THE AVERAGE pencil can draw a line 35 miles long, according to something I read recently. But it didn't say who figured this out, or why anyone would need a pencil line that long.

Which reminds me of the guy who went to the lumber yard and announced that he wanted to buy a 2x4. "Yes sir," said the attendant. "How long do you want it?"

"Quite a while," the man replied. "I'm building a garage."

Salvation Army Donations Assist Needy In Tahoka

The Salvation Army in Tahoka will be observing Christmas again by raising more money this year in order to meet the pressing needs of hurting people in your town and they are asking for the community's help. The Salvation Army is so closely associated with the Christmas season. Many people don't know that in reality the work of the Salvation Army continues year round. In more than 115 countries, in all 50 US states, in every county in Texas, The Salvation Army continues its mission of service to those in need. Even in the smaller towns, such as Tahoka, The Salvation Army often has a presence. In Tahoka, there is a Salvation Army Unit through the First United Methodist Church assisting with services such as care of transients, and local needy, including food and shelter. There is also limited assistance with rent, prescriptions and utilities. The service unit also has access to the larger programs in the metro areas, such as the drug and alcohol rehabilitation centers, to which they can refer people. In this week's Lynn County News there is an envelope in which a donation can be sent to support the Tahoka Salvation Army Service Unit. The Tahoka service unit chairman is Jeff Bayley and the treasurer is Marcy Whitley. If you do not have one of the pre-addressed envelopes, your donation supporting The Salvation Army can be mailed to The Salvation Army of Tahoka, Jeff Bayley, Chairman, and Marcy Whitley, Treasurer, P.O. Box 500, Tahoka, TX 79373-0500; or donations can be made online by visiting www.salvationarmyusa.org

County Orders Ban On Fireworks Sales and Use

Lynn County Commissioners ordered a ban on the sale and/or use of fireworks in Lynn County during the upcoming holidays and until further notice, approved unanimously in Monday morning's regular meeting at the County Courthouse. An increase in grass fires and cotton module fires precipitated the discussion, as well as the extremely dry conditions on certain uncultivated acreage in the county creating a high fire danger that commissioners deemed hazardous enough to restrict the use of fireworks in all areas of Lynn County.

County Judge H. G. Franklin signed an order prohibiting the sale or use of restricted fireworks, which also notes that "a person commits an offense if the person knowingly or intentionally violates a prohibition established by this order." An offense of the order is a Class C Misdemeanor.

In other business, commissioners approved a list of holidays for county employees for 2006, including Monday, Jan. 2 for New Year's; Feb. 20 for President's Day; April 14 for Good Friday; May 29 for Memorial Day; July 4 for Independence Day; Sept. 4 for Labor Day; Oct. 9 for Columbus Day; Nov. 23-24 for Thanksgiving; and Dec. 25-26 for Christmas.

Vince Vialle representing First Southwest Company was present to discuss with commissioners the possibility of refinancing bonds that were bought to build the county law enforcement center. Vialle will return to the Dec. 27 commissioners' meeting with the paperwork for the transaction.

A retirement waiver requiring all part-time workers to be a part of the county's retirement system starting in January 2007 was approved. Joe Patterson was appointed as the county's representative for the Lynn County Appraisal District board, and monthly bills were approved as presented.

Present at the meeting led by Judge Franklin were all four commissioners, including J.T. Miller, Don Morton, Mike Braddock and Don Blair.

Local City-County Library Collecting "Food For Fines"

The City-County Library in Tahoka has launched a program called "Food for Fines" to benefit the hungry this holiday season. All proceeds from the program will be donated to the community food pantry.

According to Library Director Claudia Guin, the program is a way for library patrons to erase the fines they have built up for overdue materials. "We have approximately 150 patrons that have fines on the books right now, and we thought this would be a charitable way to erase those fines and give to the needy at the same time."

For each ounce of food donated,

10¢ will be subtracted from the total fine amount owed by a patron. "At current prices, you could buy a 24 oz. bag of rice for 79¢ and get $2.40 taken off your fine amount," said Guin. "That's a bargain for the patron and it's beneficial to those in our community that are disadvantaged."

Guin points out that donors don't have to have fines, or even be a patron of the library to participate in the program. "We will be happy to take donations from anyone who wants to give, regardless of how much their fines are or whether or not a person even has fines."

Interested parties can drop off non-perishable items at the library during regular business hours, Mon/Wed 9:30 am-5:30 pm (closed 12:30 pm-1:30 pm for lunch); Tue/Thur 2 pm-7 pm; and Fri/Sat 10 am-1 pm, until December 22.

Questions and Answers of the Day

Matthew 7:21, Matthew 6:24, Matthew 15:7-9

Question: Are we free in Christ or are we in fear and bondage?

Are we paralyzed with fear, and horrified of being different? You know, Jesus was so different from everyone else. He stated his principles and beliefs and didn't waver from His Father's will. He had mean, fearsome enemies. His enemies literally hated Him because He didn't measure up to their standards and beliefs. They literally wanted Him dead. They made fun of Him, harassed Him, tortured Him, and eventually killed Him. All this because he was a threat to their beliefs. Sometimes things are taught from the Bible, but they get changed and molded to fit the desires or ideas of the individuals. Sometimes these teachings last for centuries. When we find out some of these things exist, we sweep them under our little rug and pretend we never knew it. This produces distance between ourselves and God. This then develops into worry, doubts and fears. It quite literally takes away a person's rest that God so freely offers and we so badly need. This, then becomes bondage. It is my prayer that God's people may have His sight, truth and hearing, and have His strength and courage to teach it, walk it, talk it and may we know true freedom as we do. GOD BLESS YOU.

Message From: Rev. Richard Harbison, Pastor, First Baptist Church, Tahoka
Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows. The one who sows to please his sinful nature, from that nature will reap destruction; the one who sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life.
 Galatians 6:7-8
 Alice Pike was arrested for trying to pay for her Wal-Mart purchases with a $1 million bill. Alice went to the register with $1,675 worth of stuff. What is really amazing is that she expected change. That's $998,325.00 in change!
 Alice Pike's story reminds us of just how irrational sin is. Most sin doesn't make sense. We lie and expect good results. We overindulge and expect to feel better. We take what isn't ours and expect satisfaction. We act selfishly and expect stronger relationships. We hand over a fake and expect change.

Approximately 12,238 center pivot systems are currently in operation within the 15-county High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 service area, according to a 2005 inventory just completed by the district. This represents an additional 1,349 center pivots in operation since the previous 1998 inventory.

Center pivot totals by county are as follows: Parmer, 1,788; Lamb, 1,737; Hale, 1,631; Castro, 1,378; Hockley, 931; Deaf Smith, 845; Bailey, 768; Lubbock, 743; Cochran, 615; Crosby, 551; Floyd, 541; Lynn, 497; Randall, 131; Armstrong, 51; and Potter, 31.

LANDTROOP OFFICIALLY FILES FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE

Jim Landtroop officially filing for State Representative

On Tuesday, December 6, businessman Jim Landtroop officially filed on the Republican ticket for Texas House of Representatives, District 85. The district covers 16 counties in West Texas including Reagan, Irion, Sterling, Glasscock, Howard, Borden, Terry, Lynn, Garza, Crosby, Kent, Stonewall, Fisher, Jones, Hale and Floyd counties.

The current representative for District 85 is Democrat Pete Laney. Laney announced on Friday, December 2, that he would not be seeking re-election.

"I am grateful to Mr. Laney for his years of public service, and I appreciate the sacrifice he and his family made for the State of Texas and House District 85," Landtroop said.

Landtroop began his grassroots campaign in early spring and has traveled more than 17,000 miles meeting the constituents of District 85. He announced his intentions to run in late October and has acquired more than 350 supporters.

"I am honored and humbled at the support I have received for my campaign throughout the district," said Landtroop. "I look forward to being an effective voice for the future of our communities, and I am ready to provide bi-partisan leadership and represent the needs and issues of each and every person of my district."

A fifth generation Texan, Landtroop owns a small insurance agency in Plainview. He graduated from Texas A&M University with Tuesday, December 7.

"Jim Landtroop is an easy endorsement for Texans for Lawsuit Reform. His common sense values include a strong commitment to a fair and balanced civil justice system," said TLR PAC Director Matt Welch. "Landtroop is an obvious choice for the Texas House of Representatives because he will work to ensure that our judiciary, and justice system are consistently reasonable and fair to all parties," Welch said.

Other conservatives supporting Landtroop include Cathie Adams with Texas Eagle Forum, Joe Grimes with Texas Right to Life, Kenda Bartlett with Conservative Women for America and Tim Lambert with Texas Home School Coalition.

"Jim is an outstanding candidate with a great background in business and terrific people skills," said Joe Grimes with Texas Right to Life. "Jim's desire to represent the constituents of the district will make him an outstanding legislator for the people of District 85."

Several elected officials have also endorsed Landtroop including Victor Carrillo, Texas Railroad Commissioner. "I am proud to wholeheartedly endorse Jim, a fellow West Texan, in his bid for House District 85. I've come to know Jim over the last several years as he and Cathy worked diligently to elect conservative Republicans like Congressman Randy Neugebauer and President George W. Bush," said Mr. Carrillo. "Now it's our time to help elect Jim - a principled conservative who will endorsement of various elected officials in the district.

"Jim impressed me by his willingness to fight for the seat a year before filing," said Isaac Castro, Jones County Republican Chair & Hamlin City Attorney. "This shows his commitment to the constituents of the district that no other candidate can match."

"Now it's our time to help elect Jim -- a principled conservative who will bring common-sense, West Texas values to the Texas Legislature."

-Victor Carrillo, Texas Railroad Commissioner

Leldon Clifton, City Councilman from Stamford also supports Jim's candidacy. "Having had the pleasure of knowing Jim and Cathy and spending time with their family, I had the opportunity to discuss political views and I'm happy to state that I'm in agreement with Jim's political concerns and values for the citizens of West Texas," Clifton said. "My wife is a teacher and he shares our concerns for education, water, economic development and other unique West Texas issues. I know he will be the conservative voice for West Texas."

Floyd County Tax Assessor-Collector Penny Golightly agrees. "Jim is a great conservative and a strong candidate. He will work hard for the constituents of the district and represent the interests of West Texas."

"Change is the word, leadership is the way, conservative West Texas values are the goal and Jim Landtroop is the man that will best represent us," added Irene Howell, Garza County Republican Chair.

Other elected officials supporting Jim's candidacy include: Denise McNamara, National Committeewoman - Republican Party of Texas; Joe Driver, State Representative, District 113; Jane Cansino, SREC District 28; Suzanna Gratia Hupp, State Representative, District 54; David Barton, Vice Chairman - Republican Party of Texas; John Anders, Mayor - Stamford, Texas; Kelvin Tipton, City Councilman - Plainview, Texas.

Gary Koelder, County Commissioner - Hale County, Texas; Bill Crooker, County Commissioner - Howard Co., Texas; Lenny Gilroy, County Commissioner - Floyd Co., Texas; Jo Ann Staulcup, City Councilwoman - Big Spring, Texas; Jim Plummer, District & County Clerk - Post, Texas.

Many constituents of the district have supported Jim including Johnny Peck, longtime Plainview businessman and former administrator of schools for 35 years.

"I have been in support of Jim since the first time he told me he was going to run for public office. I know and believe Jim has the high morals and convictions that will be needed for this office," said Peck. "I believe he is a candidate that will represent the district in the best way and he will be open to ideas and comments from his constituents."

Bill Crooker, Howard County Commissioner, and his wife Joyce Crooker, Big Spring Moore Development Board member have agreed to chair the growing team of grassroots supporters in Big Spring. They agreed to jump on board because they admire Jim's strong family values and fiscal conservative policy. The fact that Jim started campaigning a year ago because of his strong desire to represent House District 85 also played a factor in their involvement.

"We support Jim Landtroop for State Representative. He will serve the best interest, values and beliefs of Howard County and the district," said Crooker.

Respected Plainview businessman J. B. Roberts said "because of Jim's long time support of tort reform, I feel he would do an excellent job in the legislature."

Scott McLaughlin, respected Big Spring businessman, noted that he was supporting Jim Landtroop because "he is a strong leader and a man of integrity and vision. Jim and Cathy make a great team and will represent us well."

Landtroop has also garnered the support of longtime Plainview residents Frank and Pat Gabriel. "We are proud to support Jim Landtroop because we think he will be a positive force for our district. He has a good work ethic, high morals, excellent credentials and a burning desire to do a good job for our district and our state."

Farmer Bryan Bishop of Plainview also endorsed Landtroop. "This area has a tradition of outstanding representation. We should continue that tradition. A good leader understands and embraces the responsibilities of leadership. Jim Landtroop is that kind of leader. I am confident that the 85th District will be in good hands with Jim in office. I gladly give my support to Jim Landtroop."

Mike Niklasch, Big Spring Moore Development Board member said of Landtroop, "Jim is a man of integrity who will represent the entire district well. Jeanne and I are supporting Jim because of his strong West Texas values and his good common business sense. Jim has taken the time to get to know Big Spring, listen to our issues and concerns, and we are confident that he is the man who will fight for us down in Austin."

Other supporters include longtime Brownfield residents Mike and Janice Timmons. "I was impressed with Jim's sincerity and honesty from the first time I met him," Mike said. "His grassroots focus on meeting people at the local level and listening to their needs is the reason I support his candidacy."

Kerry Pratt, farmer and Floyd County Republican Chair added "Jim Landtroop is a solid conservative and he will represent this district in the conservative manner it is accustomed to. There is no question Jim will be able to work with the majority in the Texas Legislature."

Tahoka Volunteer Fire Department Awarded $72,917 Grant For Equipment

U.S. Congressman Randy Neugebauer announced Wednesday, Dec. 7 that the Tahoka Volunteer Fire Department has been awarded a $72,917 Assistance to Firefighters Grant.

The grant program, which is administered by the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), awards one-year grants directly to local fire departments, enhancing their abilities to respond to fire and fire-related hazards in their communities.

Retha Pittman, Assistant to the City Administrator of Tahoka, wrote the grant in April with input from Jack Jaquess and Chad Ford. "We are very pleased that our local fire department was awarded this grant," said Mrs. Pittman, adding that the city matched it with a five percent contribution.

The Tahoka VFD will use the grant funds to purchase equipment and personal safety gear, including a couple of pieces of equipment which no fire department in the county has ever had before - an airbag system for rescuing victims trapped underneath debris, and a thermal imaging camera that will enable firefighters to more exactly locate the "hot spots" of a fire within a building.

The airbag system expedites rescue of a victim who may be trapped underneath fallen debris, such as a collapsed building, or other rescue necessitating lifting of heavy equipment where the airbag can be inflated. This also helps maintain safety for the firefighters involved in rescuing trapped victims.

The thermal imaging camera would be used in building/warehouse fires where smoke may prohibit visual sighting of the exact location of the fire. "With so much cotton being warehoused in Lynn County, this could be used in a warehouse full of smoke to enable firefighters to best know where to concentrate firefighting efforts, and may help with unnecessary property damage," said Mrs. Pittman. She also said that since the Tahoka VFD will be the only system in the county with the equipment, that it would be available for emergency use elsewhere in the county if needed.

A new Jaws of Life system will also be purchased to replace the current system, which is more than 25 years old. The Tahoka VFD serves 1800 combined miles of rural roads and U.S. highways in Lynn County, and the Jaws tool is necessary in working some vehicle accidents. Stabilizing struts for vehicles will also be purchased.

Additionally, the grant funds will purchase 20 complete new sets of personal protective equipment for the Tahoka VFD, including jackets, pants, boots, gloves, helmets and gear bags.

Mrs. Pittman expressed appreciation to Congressman Neugebauer and U.S. Senator Kay Bailey Hutchison for assistance in securing the grant for the Tahoka Fire Dept.

"Firefighters are an essential part of keeping our hometowns safe and the homeland secure," Neugebauer said. "This grant program is vital because it provides fire departments with the tools and resources necessary to protect the health and safety of the public and the firefighters themselves. Firefighters act with an unwavering commitment to the safety and protection of their fellow citizens and are willing to sacrifice their own lives to provide safe and reliable emergency services to their communities," he added.

Jimmy Woodard, Chief of the Tahoka VFD, said, "We hope each citizen will be as excited and proud of this updating of equipment as we are. This will help the volunteer firefighters do a better job assisting our friends and neighbors in an emergency."

"This is a 90% grant, meaning that for every $1 of department money that is spent we get $10 in return. I hope everyone realizes that our $1 part comes from the $3 per meter donations that are received when citizens pay their city water bills," explained Woodard. "This will be the third major project to be funded in the last year from the $3 donations. The first was the new fire truck to be delivered in the next few weeks, the improvements to the civil defense alarms, and now this grant. I encourage citizens to continue or start making this donation. They are getting $30 by donating only $3. We appreciate everyone that donates," Woodard added.

Pesticide License Holders Can Earn CEUs Here Tuesday

Pesticide License holders have an opportunity to receive 3 CEU's on Tuesday, Dec. 20 from 8:30-11:30 a.m. at The Center For Housing and Community Development, located at 1400 Avenue K, Tahoka.

One hour in the general category, one hour in IPM, and one hour in laws and regs will be given. Private license holders must obtain 15 CEU's every 5 years with at least 2 hours in IPM and Laws.

"There are a large number of licenses whose license will expire on February 28, 2006, so this is a good opportunity for them to receive 3 hours credit," stated Bryan Reynolds, County Extension Agent for Lynn County.

Contact the Lynn County Extension Office for more information, at 561-4562.

Lynn 4-H Members Win Honors at Consumer Decision Making Event

Eleven Lynn County 4-H members competed recently in the 2005-06 South Plains District 4-H Consumer Decision Making Contest in Tahoka, with local youth in the junior, intermediate and senior divisions earning honors, and three local 4-H'ers advancing to the State 4-H Roundup. 4-H'ers from the 20 county area around Lubbock competed in the Consumer Decision Making Contest.

"The consumer decision making project is one the 4-H members can use as they start making decisions and purchasing these products or services," stated Bryan Reynolds, County Extension Agent. "It is extremely useful and something they can use from now on."

In consumer decision making projects, 4-H members study guidelines for products or services such as DVD players, sunscreen, insect repellents, cell phone plans, automobiles or computers. Members then must place the products based on guidelines and a specific situation and be able to defend their placing with oral reasoning to a judge.

Lynn County won the Junior division for the fifth consecutive year. Also, Lynn County had all four team members in the top 5 individuals. Junior members were Lindsey Burenheide, who was First High Individual Overall, Colton Taylor - 3rd Individual, Jesse Terry - 4th Individual, and Kohl Angeley was 5th Individual.

In the Intermediate division, Lynn County won First Place Overall

Team, First in team placings, and First in team reasons. Harley Reynolds was 2nd High Individual Overall, Allison Burenheide was 5th Individual Overall, and Kenzie Angeley and Gretchen Henley were also members of the Intermediate Team.

In the Senior division, Lynn County won First Place Overall Team, First in team placings, and fourth in team reasons. Kaleb Collins was High Individual Overall and Jacob Bingham was Second Individual Overall. Also, Trevor Gicklhorn competed on the Senior Team. "Those three 4-H'ers will compete at State 4-H Roundup in June at College Station," said Reynolds.

DLT Grant To Serve Region 17

Bryan Daniel, State Director of Texas USDA Rural Development, announces the selection of Region 17 Education Service Center as a recipient of a $291,918-Distance Learning and Telemedicine (DLT) Grant Program. Region 17 Service Center serves Tahoka, O'Donnell, Wilson and New Home school districts.

The DLT funds will be used to provide real-time interactive distance learning studio equipment, connectivity to educational resources outside the project area, and provide training opportunities for teachers and technicians. The project will serve 5,252 students in 19 rural sites in Northwestern Texas.

"Distance learning and telemedicine systems are powerful tools for rural Texas," said Daniel. "Through technology, students and families can participate in classes not previously available to them, and people who live in rural areas can access expanded health care options."

In Fiscal Year 2004, Texas was awarded $1.4 million to be distributed through the Distance Learning and Telemedicine Grant Program. The education projects helped schools provide students with advanced educational tools. Distance learning projects provide funding for computers and internet connections in schools and libraries.
