Couple's Breakup Not Too Friendly

A Lynn County young couple's apparent breakup was not a friendly one, as each said they wanted to file assault charges against the other following an altercation which caused minor injuries to both the man and woman, sheriff's officers reported this week.

After the fight in the early morning hours of Nov. 12 at a residence in the southwest part of Lynn County, the 20-year-old man involved told officers the next day he wished to file assault charges against the 22-year-old woman. About a day later, she also reported the incident to the sheriff's department and said she wished to file charges against him. Deputies talked to each, then turned the case over to the county attorney for possible filing of charges.

Jail population early this week totaled 39, with 13 of these held for Garza County, two for Gaines and five for Lubbock. Seven persons were added to the list during the last week, on these charges: seven Collin County warrants on unauthorized use of a motor vehicle, burglary of a vehicle plus unauthorized use of motor vehicle, unlawfully carrying a weapon plus driving while intoxicated, Dawson County warrant on theft by check, warrant of driving while license invalid, warrant on possession of controlled substance with intent to deliver, and warrant on resisting arrest.

SO TODAY is Thanksgiving. Tomorrow, actually, since we are publishing this edition of the newspaper a day early, so that those who work here (and also us semi-retired types who just show up once in awhile) can have a holiday Thursday.

Of course, there are at least two groups who have little to be thankful for this year: turkeys and Republicans. One lady reader in Austin thinks there is no difference between the two. I'd better not get too far into that discussion, though.

Another lady who stopped by my table in a local restaurant the other day with her husband, said she appreciates what I write because I rarely get too deep into politics or world affairs. "If I want to read about politics, or hear about it, I can go to my TV or daily newspaper," she said. I took that to mean that if she wanted to read something that really has little or no meaning, she reads my column.

Naw, she's too nice to have meant that. So I personally am thankful at this time (and all times) for people who read what I write.

What I am the most thankful for are those things money won't buy, like good friends, good health and a family I love.

Along the lines of being thankful and getting our priorities straight, I am repeating here something written by the late humorist Erma Bombeck, who died of cancer, and who wrote this after she learned she had cancer:

IF I HAD MY LIFE TO LIVE OVER - by Erma Bombeck
(written after she found out she was dying from cancer)
I would have gone to bed when I was sick instead of pretending the earth would go into a holding pattern if I weren't there for the day.
I would have burned the pink candle sculpted like a rose before it melted in storage.
I would have talked less and listened more.
I would have invited friends over to dinner even if the carpet was stained, or the sofa faded.

I would have eaten the popcorn in the 'good' living room and worried much less about the dirt when someone wanted to light a fire in the fireplace.
I would have taken the time to listen to my grandfather ramble about his youth.

I would have shared more of the responsibility carried by my husband. I would never have insisted the car windows be rolled up on a summer day because my hair had just been teased and sprayed.

I would have sat on the lawn with my grass stains.
I would have cried and laughed less while watching television and more while watching life.

I would never have bought anything just because it was practical, wouldn't show soil, or was guaranteed to last a lifetime.

Instead of wishing away nine months of pregnancy, I'd have cherished every moment and realized that the wonderment growing inside me was the only chance in life to assist God in a miracle.

When my kids kissed me impetuously, I would never have said, "Later. Now go get washed up for dinner." There would have been more "I love you's." More "I'm sorry's."

But mostly, given another shot at life, I would seize every minute... look at it and really see it... live it and never give it back.
STOP SWEATING THE SMALL STUFF!!!

Don't worry about who doesn't like you, who has more, or who's doing what. Instead, let's cherish the relationships we have with those who do love us. Let's think about what God HAS blessed us with, and what we are doing each day to promote ourselves mentally, physically, emotionally.

I hope you have a blessed day.

COUPLE OF REDNECKS are sitting in a boat on a lake in East Texas drinking beer. Very quietly, so as to not disturb the fish, Bill remarks, "I think I'm going to divorce my wife. She hasn't spoken to me in two months."
Earl sips his beer for a few moments, then says softly, "Better think that over. A woman like that is hard to find."

Care TO BE Aware

HEALTH NEWS FROM LYNN COUNTY HOSPITAL DISTRICT
by Monica Brown, RN, DON and Jeanie Stone, ENT-3, EMS Director

Last week we introduced you to pandemic influenza. As you may recall, pandemic influenza is different from seasonal influenza in that it is a world wide outbreak of a NEW strain of influenza that spreads easily from person to person. And since pandemics generally involve a new strain of virus, humans have little to no immunity to it. Health officials at the Centers for Disease Control (CDC), and the World Health Organization (WHO) are cautioning health care providers and American citizens that the Avian/Bird Flu is currently a pandemic threat. Although officials are expecting a pandemic to occur, they cannot predict when it will occur or how severe it will be.

So, should a pandemic occur, how would it affect life in Lynn County? Officials advise that due to wide spread illness, we could experience a shortage of workers across the land, which in turn would likely lead to a temporary breakdown of our society's infrastructure. For example we might experience a shortage or lack of utilities like electricity, natural gas, water, groceries, gasoline, etc. We might experience a temporary closure of schools and other public gatherings to prevent the spread of illness. Although a different set of circumstances, we saw a similar infrastructure breakdown in Louisiana and surrounding areas caused by the natural/National disaster "hurricane Katrina".

Since we are aware that health authorities believe there is a threat of a pandemic, we have the luxury of being able to prepare ahead of time. Our intention is not to frighten you, but to share knowledge, and as we all know, knowledge is an essential component of effective preparation.

There are a number of things each of us can begin doing now to get ready and to protect ourselves and our families in the case of a pandemic or any other disaster:

- Become educated - reliable information is available through many sources.
- Stay healthy - Prevent the spread of respiratory illness.
- Stock up - on essentials to prepare for an extended stay at home.

We'll cover these suggestions more thoroughly in next week's column.

Phebe K. Warner Club Now Accepting Contributions For Christmas Greetings

The Phebe K. Warner Club is now accepting contributions for the Community Christmas Greeting, the club's annual scholarship fundraiser, which will be printed in the Dec. 21 Christmas issue of The Lynn County News. This annual fundraiser lets community members send Christmas Greeting to friends, while contributing to the Lady Dobbins Stewart or Maurice Bray Scholarship funds. This money is often donated in lieu of sending local Christmas cards. Members wish to thank you for your wonderful response in past years, and invite participation of every family in this project," said one club member. Contributions may be taken to the First National Bank of Tahoka, along with the name of the donor, as it is to appear in the ad. Deadline for donation is Dec. 12. "Anyone unable to make the trip to the bank may call 561-5070 or any Phebe K. Warner Club member to take your contribution to the bank," added a club representative.

Having fun at the Relay For Life ... The Lynn County Relay For Life raised more than $15,000 for cancer research and services for the American Cancer Society, held all night Friday, Nov. 17 and ending at 7 a.m. Saturday at the Tahoka High School football field. There was fun for all ages, as well as emotional moments during the fundraising event that focused on giving hope to those with cancer and honoring those who have succumbed to the disease. These photos show just some of the fun that night, including some interesting "campsites" that featured TVs and video games, live entertainment from musicians like Clair Dunn (far right photo), and some impromptu dancing by the Tahoka Elementary Teachers relay team (lower left photo) on the track. Relay members walked on the track throughout the night, and luminarias were lit in special ceremonies at 9 p.m., including the word "HOPE" spelled out in luminarias in the stadium. The event was well-organized by Tahoka High School students, with junior Amy Barrera heading up the Relay. (LCN PHOTOS by Juanell Jones)

TDA To Mail Ballots For Regional Boll Weevil Vote

Cotton farmers and landowners with cotton production are eligible to vote in a Dec. 12 referendum that will determine whether to continue a boll weevil eradication program in the Western High Plains Boll Weevil Eradication Zone.

Eligible voters in the zone should receive an official ballot by mail after Nov. 20. A postage-paid return envelope will be included. Completed ballots must be postmarked on or before Dec. 12 to be counted. Producers who planted cotton in 2006 but do not receive a ballot should contact TDA at (512) 936-2450 or 800-TELL-TDA (800-835-5832).

In addition to deciding if an eradication program should be continued in the zone, voters will elect a board member to serve on the statewide board of directors for the Texas Boll Weevil Eradication Foundation Inc.

TDA received one nomination for this position before the filing deadline. The name of Don Parrish of Yoakum County will appear on the ballot as a board nominee. Parrish has been farming since 1979.

The Western High Plains Zone includes all of Andrews, Gaines and Yoakum counties and portions of Terry and Lynn counties.

Letter To The Editor

Job Well Done

Dear Editor,

Congratulations and thanks to all the wonderful THS students who planned and executed the recent Relay For Life activities in Tahoka. This event was highly successful in raising money and highly successful in bringing together the county residents in an effort to help alleviate the suffering and sorrow associated with cancer. These young people worked long and hard to make this event a reality.

Our hats are off to you guys!
JOB WELL DONE!

Sincerely,
Joe and Glo Hays
