HAZ-MAT SCENE

Three Teen "Victims" Survive Bio-Terrorism Training Drill

by JUANELL JONES

Three local teenagers survived a horrific auto collision with an 18-wheeler carrying hazardous materials last Thursday - but fortunately it was all a bio-terrorism training drill sponsored by the local hospital involving several emergency-response organizations here, and no one was actually injured or in danger from a hazardous chemical spill.

Lynn County Hospital District sponsored the Thursday morning event, enlisting the assistance of several other emergency-response organizations in the county including the Lynn County EMS Service, Tahoka Volunteer Fire Department, Tahoka Police Dept., the Sheriff's Dept. and the local DPS officers. Hospital staff members were also involved in the training. Lynn County Emergency Management Coordinator Bill Schoemann organized the training event.

The aftermath of the "collision" was staged at the T-Bar Airport grounds west of Tahoka at 10 a.m., with a vehicle containing the three teenage victims - Allen Henderson, Ja-Vaen Tillman and Jacob Bingham - crushed against the wheel of an 18-wheeler truck carrying "bio-hazardous materials."

Law enforcement personnel, EMS and fire department members arrived at the scene following a 9-1-1 call from passing motorist Julia Allen (an employee of the hospital, who was also a "victim" that was "exposed" to the hazardous chemicals). Firemen used the Jaws of Life equipment to gain access to the trapped passengers, and all were carried by ambulance to the hospital where a decontamination site had been set up outside.

Two hospital employees in full containment bio-hazard suits (Doris Collins and Pat Barrientez) stood outside the decontamination site, and assisted victim Julia Allen into the decontamination shower where she was "decontaminated" with a 10-minute deluge of water before she was assisted into the hospital for emergency "treatment."

Two firemen - Shi Dotson and Bill Schoemann - were also "exposed" to hazardous chemicals during the rescue drill, and they were "decontaminated" at the wreck site with water from fire hoses before being transported to the hospital for "treatment."

Treatment of the "victims" of the drill involved many hospital departments, including the x-ray lab, emergency room, isolating a victim in the patient area, and other medical areas.

Allen Henderson, one of the teen victims, said the training drill reinforced his views of safe driving. "I don't ever want to be in an accident for real," he said. "The neck brace the ambulance crew put on me was very uncomfortable, and so was the spine board, and the ride in the ambulance was not much fun either," he admitted.

IN THE NEWS several days ago was a story about a dog which jumped into his owner's car, put it in drive and stayed in it while it went downhill into a river as the owner of the car and dog watched in dismay and astonishment.

Just before the car sank out of sight the black lab jumped out and swam to safety. Obviously the owner must have left the car running and in park; surely the dog wasn't smart enough to insert a key and start the motor.

Anyway, the incident reminded me of an old story I heard years ago about two guys who were good friends, but were very competitive in everything they did, each one trying to out-do the other. They liked to hunt and fish together, and each one was always buying a better boat, fancier shotgun, fish-finding equipment, new pickup or whatever.

Finally one of the guys located and purchased at great expense a hunting dog which could walk on top of the water. He called his friend and suggested they go duck hunting the next morning and told him to "just leave your dog at home; I've got a new retriever that will put yours to shame, anyway."

When they went hunting, they finally shot a duck over the lake next to their blind, and the duck fell into the water, floating. "Now watch this," said the dog owner.

The dog walked out on top of the water and retrieved the duck and then walked back with it in his mouth, dropping it in front of the two men. Neither of the men said a word for several minutes. Finally the dog owner said, "Well? Didn't you notice anything unusual there?" His buddy replied:

"Yeah, I did. That stupid dog can't swim."

MORE DOG STUFF: Our own family dog, named Cleo, died a couple of weeks ago, and it was, of course, a rather sad thing for us, as she was a good dog we had owned for many years. Two of our younger grandchildren happened to be visiting when the dog died, and they took part in a little burial ceremony. The dog's body was scooped up into a wheel barrow and a hole dug. It was a solemn occasion (for awhile, anyway). Just before the dog's body was placed in a grave, one of the adults told the children (age 11 and 6) not to worry, because "Cleo has gone to dog heaven."

It was hard to keep a straight face, though, when the youngest, a girl, pointed and said solemnly, "No she hasn't. She's right over there."

O'Donnell Rodeo Queen candidates ... Shown here are three candidates for O'Donnell Rodeo Queen, and the 2006 Rodeo Queen, Portia Grant (far right). The candidates for this year are, from left, Macy Mires, Bailey Brewer, and Shae Arnett. Macy is the daughter of Travis and Kay Mires and is sponsored by the Rotary Club. Bailey is the daughter of Randy and Lindy Brewer and is sponsored by O'Donnell FFA. Shae is the daughter of Lisa Crutcher Arnett and is sponsored by the O'Donnell Fire Dept. The O'Donnell Rodeo will be held July 12-14, beginning at 8 p.m. nightly at the rodeo grounds located just west of Hwy. 87. Wall Clock Stolen In Burglary Here

A wooden wall clock was the only item determined to be missing in a burglary reported at the home of Karen Sue Littrel on S. 7th St. in Tahoka Saturday. No estimate of the value of the clock was given, and investigation was continuing.

As police were arresting a 29-year-old Tahoka man Saturday on child support warrants from Kerr County, a second man, age 28, at the scene, also with outstanding warrants, tried to run away and also was charged with evading arrest, resisting arrest and public intoxication.

Lynn County jail population totaled 53 early this week, with 14 of these held for Garza County, three each for Lubbock and Gaines counties and one for Dawson County. Most recent arrests were for warrant on theft by check from Hale County, warrant on evading arrest plus grand jury indictment for failure to appear, driving while license invalid, application to revoke probation on conviction of theft by check, and Lubbock and Kerr County warrants.

Dispatchers at the sheriff's department processed 268 phone calls during June, including 120 for the county, 113 for Tahoka Police, one fire, 18 ambulance calls, and 16 calls for O'Donnell Police.

KNOW YOUR FIREWORKS!

- Fireworks can be great fun when used in a safe manner. Every year over 11,000 people go to the emergency room as a result of fireworks accidents. Here is some information that we hope will help your 4th of July celebration be a safe one.
- Always read and FOLLOW directions on the label.
- Always have an adult present to supervise.
- Always buy from a reliable fireworks dealer.
- Alcohol and fireworks do not mix.
- Always use fireworks outdoors, away from homes, dry grass and trees.
- Always have water handy. A water hose close by is excellent.
- Always store your fireworks safely, preferably in a closed box, away from any source of accidental ignition and in a cool, dry place.
- Always only light one item at a time.
- Never try to re-light malfunctioning fireworks.
- Pay special attention to children using sparklers. Sparklers reach temperatures up to 1800 degrees Fahrenheit and can easily ignite clothing.

- Never throw or point fireworks at another person.
 - Never carry fireworks in your pocket.
 - Never shoot (fire) fireworks from metal or glass containers.
 - Never experiment with, modify or attempt to make your own fireworks.
 - PETS can be frightened by loud noises and bright flashes. Keep your pets indoors while enjoying your fireworks.
- Hopefully, with these safety tips, you'll have a safe 4th of July. But should you experience a burn from fireworks, Lynn County Hospital District would like to provide you with information on treating burns before you arrive at the hospital or before the ambulance arrives.
- First, stop the burning process. Use clean, cold water, if available, to cool the burn and help reduce the pain. You can also wet a clean towel with cold water and put it on superficial burns. After the burned area is cooled, cover it with a dry, sterile dressing. If blisters are present, be very careful not to break the blisters. Intact skin, even if blistered, provides an excellent barrier against infections. Never apply burn ointments, butter or grease or cream to any burn.

Have a happy and safe Independence Day!

HAZ-MAT ...

Hospital Administrator Jim Morris, Jim Waters of the South Plains EMS and Regional Advisory Council for EMS Services, and hospital employee Tim Pledger, who was the Decontamination Team Leader, observed the drill. The other participating emergency-response organizations will have their own follow-up meetings detailing their organization's participation in the training drill.
Jeanie Stone, Director of Lynn County EMS, said the drill was good training for the local EMS. "A drill is good to show areas that you need to work on, and we did find areas that we will be concentrating on for some additional training," said Mrs. Stone. The Lynn County EMS is staffed with 13 volunteer members, eight of whom participated in the biohazard drill. "This bio-terrorism training drill was required by federal authorities for the hospital's Health Resource and Services Administration funds, and it also fulfilled a requirement as a training drill for our trauma-level designation at the hospital," said Morris. "Everything went smoothly, and I want to express my appreciation to all of the other agencies who participated. We wanted to keep the training local, and Bill Schoemann did an excellent job of organizing the agencies involved," he added.

CITY OF WILSON
PUBLIC WATER SUPPLY SYSTEM
PWS#1530003
P.O. BOX 22, WILSON, TEXAS 79381

SUBJECT: QUARTERLY FLUORIDE NOTIFICATION

The Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ) has notified the City of Wilson water system that the drinking water being supplied to customers had exceeded the Maximum Contaminant Level (MCL) for FLUO-RIDE. The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (U.S. EPA) has established the MCL for Fluoride at 4mg/L, and has determined that it is a health concern at levels above the MCL. Analysis of drinking water in your community for FLUORIDE indicates a level of 3.8 MG/L.

This is not an emergency. However, some people who drink water containing FLUORIDE in excess of the MCL over many years could get bone disease, including pain and tenderness of the bones. Fluoride in drinking water at half the MCL or more may cause mottling of children's teeth, usually in children less than nine years old. Mottling, also known as dental fluorosis, may include brown staining and/or pitting of the teeth, and occurs only in the developing teeth before they erupt from the gums.

You do not need to use an alternative water supply. However, if you have health concerns you may want to talk to your doctor to get more information about how this may affect you.

The City of Wilson has inquired about getting a Reverse Osmosis plant to deal with this problem and without the help from grants this system has been too costly to put in at this time. The City is also looking for alternative water supply sources.

For further information contact the City Office at 628-6221.

Water Conservation Meetings Scheduled For July 10, 12

Public hearings are set for July 10 in Hereford and July 12 in Lubbock to receive public comment on revisions to the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District rules relating to its County Committee structure.

The July 10 hearing is set for 7 p.m. at the Hereford Community Center, 100 Avenue C. in Hereford, and the July 12 hearing is set for 7 p.m. at the High Plains Water District office, 2930 Avenue Q. in Lubbock.

Currently, a five-member County Committee is elected from each county within the water district service area. County Committees make recommendations for approval or denial of water well permits to the district's board of directors. District officials hope to revise the rules to allow County Committee members to be appointed, rather than elected. The County Committee's role in the water well permit application process would also be revised.

"One or more contested races for County Committee member, especially in the Amarillo and Lubbock area, would dramatically increase district election costs especially with required use of electronic voting machines. Changing the County Committee from an elected position to an appointed one would keep us from having to raise taxes to cover election expenses," said Manager Jim Conkwright. He emphasized that members of the Water District's Board of Directors would continue to be elected by area residents.

In addition, the proposed rule change removes mention of County Committees from district rules and relocates them in district by-laws; changes the name to County Advisory Committees; moves recommendation for approval or denial of water well permits from the County Committee to the District Manager; retains current qualifications and terms of office; and requires County Advisory Committees to attend an annual meeting.

Public comments received at the hearings will be discussed when the board considers the proposed rule change at its July 17 meeting.

A complete copy of the current Rules of the District and proposed rule changes are available at the High Plains Water District office, 2930 Avenue Q, Lubbock, Texas 79411-2499, or by calling (806) 762-0181.

The proposed rule revisions are also available on-line at www.hpwd.com. Written comments regarding the proposed rule revisions will be accepted until 5:00 p.m. July 13, 2007 and should be directed to Jim Conkwright, General Manager.
