STATE-BOUND BAND!

Making History ... The Tahoka High School 3-D Band made history last Saturday, advancing for the first time ever to the State UIL Marching Contest, after marching in the finals at Area UIL in Lubbock. Under the direction of Carroll Rhodes, the THS Band has set a standard of winning in the past several years, as this was their third consecutive time to advance to the Area marching competition, and second consecutive time to advance to the finals competition in Area. But this time, the third time was the charm, as the Tahoka Band was one of only four 2-A bands to qualify (out of 22 bands) for the state contest. The band will march in the State UIL Marching Contest at 4:15 p.m. Monday, Nov. 5 at the Alamodome in San Antonio. Class 2-A finals competition begins at 8:50 p.m. that night. Tahoka fans who want to help send the band off are invited to a pep rally honoring the band this Saturday, Nov. 3 at 7:30 p.m. at the Tahoka football field (or possibly in the gym).

Tahoka 3-D Band To March at State Contest

The Tahoka High School Band set a landmark in school history last weekend, qualifying for the first time ever to compete in the UIL State Marching Contest. The announcement came at the end of a day of marching competition at the Area A UIL Marching Contest in Lubbock last Saturday, when the Tahoka 3-D Band placed in the top four to advance to the prestigious state contest this coming Monday, in the Alamodome in San Antonio.

After competing against 22 2A bands from four regions in the preliminaries, Tahoka was ranked fifth and qualified for the finals at the Area competition. Marching again that night against the nine other finalists, the 3-D Band moved up to 4th place behind Panhandle, Crane, and Reagan County. Tahoka is the only 2A band from Region 16 to qualify for state this year. Sundown and Sudan also qualified in 1A for the State contest.

"Needless to say, we were overjoyed and overwhelmed by being selected," stated directors Carroll Rhodes and Johnathan Smith. "This is a huge honor and opportunity, which many outstanding bands never get to enjoy. Our kids came through in a big way this year and especially in the finals at Area."

"The 3-D Band appreciates the tremendous support from Tahoka as there were around 200 people at the preliminaries and 100+ at the finals that night. There are no better fans than what we have in Tahoka. In addition, the reception that our kids received when they came into town was something they will remember for the rest of their lives," said Rhodes.

The Tahoka 3-D Band will be leaving this Sunday morning at 8:00 a.m. for San Antonio and the UIL State 2A Marching Contest. They will stop and practice on the way down and arrive in San Antonio that evening, where they

Wreck Sends Truck Driver To Hospital

An 18-wheeler went out of control and overturned about 13 miles north of Tahoka on U.S. 87 Wednesday morning, sending the 37-year-old driver to the hospital with undetermined injuries.

Henry Sanders of Lubbock was taken by EMS ambulance to Lynn County Hospital for treatment after the truck rolled over into a field. No information on his condition was immediately available.

Lynn County sheriff's officers this week recovered a John Deere tractor with front loader and shredder which had been stolen from the Texas Tech ag research farm earlier.

Tahoka Police last Friday arrested two 19-year-old male suspects for burglary of a habitation shortly after the burglary was reported at the home of Sandra Jean Harper on Ave. L.

Alley Pickup Starts Next Week ... Really

Tahoka citizens who cleaned property and stacked limbs and other items in their alleys for the late-September alley pickup by city workers may have noticed that those items are still there. City Administrator Jerry Webster told The News this week that the scheduled pickup has been delayed, but that city workers expect to begin clearing debris from alleys starting Monday of next week.

I REMEMBER when I was a kid, my mother sometimes would tell me I was "in a peck of trouble," and although I didn't know exactly how much trouble that was, I did understand it was quite a bit. Now, all these years later, I realized just last week that I still wasn't sure how much a peck is. Or was, since I don't think that's a unit of measurement that is used any more.

The conversation came up at lunch time at the Lynn County senior citizens center, where conversations frequently tend to center on such important things, so we started asking around, "just how much is a peck anyway?"

A couple of folks immediately thought of the song which says "I love you, a bushel and a peck," and one lady thought of the tongue-twister, "Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers," etc. Nobody seemed to know for sure, but most figured it must be less than a bushel, or the peck would have been mentioned first in the song. And the lady thinking about Peter Piper figured it was less, too, her logic being "a bushel would be an awful lot of peppers to pick."

I pointed out that if it weren't for bushel baskets, we probably would have no idea how large a bushel is. But they weren't quite ready to get into that; they just wanted to know about a peck, and I promised I would look it up. So here's what I found, using Google:

A peck is a dry measurement of 8 quarts, or 537.6 cubic inches. There are four pecks to a bushel, so the peck is smaller, of course. Therefore a bushel is 32 quarts of material, something else I didn't know.

I remember people joking that "he (or she) eats like a bird—by the peck." And of course I remember my mom telling me I was in a peck of trouble. I doubt that I would have been as impressed if she had said, "young man, you're in 537.6 cubic inches of trouble!"

THE WISE woman at Wilson says a grudge is a really heavy thing to carry.

Mr. and Mrs. Marty Lynn Cooper (nee Amy Colleen Drake)

Drake-Cooper Vows Exchanged

Amy Colleen Drake of Golden, Co. and Marty Lynn Cooper, formerly of Tahoka, were united in marriage September 16, 2007.

The double ring ceremony took place aboard the Carnival Conquest Cruise Ship at Galveston, before embarking on a seven day Caribbean Cruise.

The bride is the daughter of the late Gail Nye of Red Oak. The groom is the son of John and Wanda Smith of Tahoka and James Cooper of Dewey Rose, GA, and is the grandson of Bert and Virgie Bryant of Lubbock.

Escorted by John Smith, the bride wore an A-Line, ivory satin wedding gown featuring a French bustle with a chapel train. The strapless bodice was adorned with pearls and Sevarowski crystals. The wedding veil attached to a diamond embellished headband to complete the ensemble. She carried a bouquet of roses with baby's breath, pearls and ribbon.

Jennifer Nye of Commerce City, CO., sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. James Cooper served as best man.

A reception followed the ceremony featuring live music, wedding cake, hors d'oeuvres and champagne. The wedding party of friends and family were invited by the bride and groom to join them on the Caribbean Cruise to Jamaica, Grand Cayman and Cozumel, Mexico.

The bride is a Guidance Counselor for the State of Colorado. The groom is a CPA and owns a consulting firm.

Following the honeymoon cruise, the couple will reside in the Denver, CO area.

Flu Shots Available At Local Health Fair

Flu shots and a variety of health tests and information will be offered Thursday, Nov. 8 at a County-Wide Adult Health Fair at The Center for Housing and Community Development, located at 1400 Ave. K in Tahoka. The event is sponsored by Lynn County Hospital District, and healthcare officials will be on hand to answer questions and visit with attendees.

The Health Fair will begin at 9 a.m. and continue until 3 p.m., and admission is free. Flu shots will be available at a cost of $15 (free for Medicare beneficiaries who bring their cards). All other health testing will be offered at no charge, including bone density tests, hemoglobin, blood pressure and oxygen saturation level tests, and glucose and cholesterol tests.

Hearing and vision testing will also be offered, although the vision tests will not begin until 11:30 a.m.

A blood drive is also being held in conjunction with the health fair, with the mobile unit outside the building during the event.

Take a few minutes to fill out lifesaver cards to carry critical medical information with you at all times. Get information about long-term health care, oxygen and medical equipment, and cardiac health. There will also be information available about fire prevention, smoke detector use, and electrical safety.

Lynn County Hospital District previously offered a Children's Health Fair at Tahoka ISD in October.

Children's Car Seat Checkup Offered Here Wednesday, Nov. 7

A children's car seat checkup will be offered on Wednesday, Nov. 7 at the Lynn County Law Enforcement Center on Hwy. 380 for anyone who would like to have their child's car seat tested for safety.

Nationally, at least 85% of all children traveling in a car are not secured safely or properly according to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA). Locally those statistics are much higher.

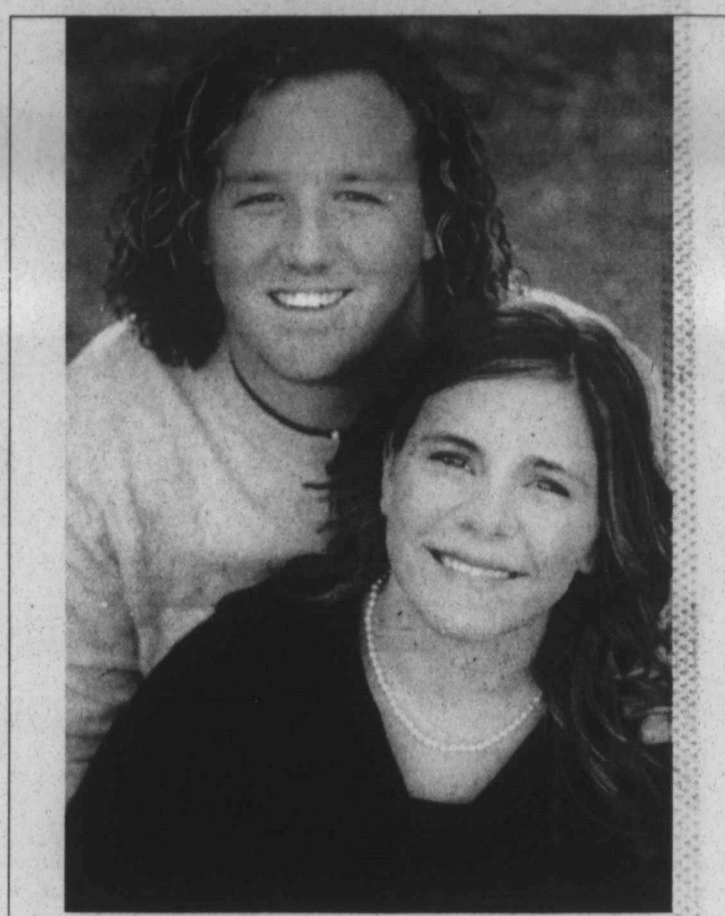

The Trauma Service Area-B, Lynn County Hospital District EMS, and Texas Department of Transportation are sponsoring a Child Passenger Safety Seat Event on Wednesday, Nov. 7 from 12:30-2 p.m. at the Lynn County Sheriff's Office to have your child's seat evaluated. During this time there will be certified technicians who have completed a 32-hour course to help install car seats correctly and to educate parents about safety issues.

NHTSA officials say that 4 out of 5 car seats are used incorrectly, but that correctly-installed child safety seats are 71% effective in preventing fatalities and 67% effective in preventing serious injuries.

Does your car seat:
 • Move when you stop or turn?
 • Seem too small for your child?
 • Allow your child to get out?
 • Just not fit right?

Learn how to:
 • Choose the right safety seat for your child
 • Properly secure your safety seat in your vehicle
 • Properly secure your child in their safety seat
 • Understand the dangers of airbags
 • Graduate your child to a booster seat.

SERVING OUR COMMUNITY

Last week, on Wednesday October 24th, the Annual Lynn County Hospital District (LCHD) School Health Fair was held in the Elementary Gym. Members of LCHD, LCHD EMS, Tahoka Volunteer Fire Department, Tahoka Police Department, Lyntegar Electric, Susan D. Anthony and Staff, Department of Public Safety Officers, Poka Lambro and Juice Plus Nutritional Information were all on hand to discuss fire safety, electrical safety, do finger printing, 911 awareness and discuss other safety issues with the kids of Tahoka ISD. Managed Care of Lubbock and the VOICES Coalition provided drug awareness information.

Next week, LCHD has two opportunities to serve the citizens of Lynn County. First, on Wednesday, November 7th, LCHD EMS, along with The Trauma Service Area-B and Texas Department of Transportation are sponsoring a Child Passenger Safety Seat Event, located at the Lynn County Sheriff's Office at 810 Lockwood, between 12:30 and 2:00 p.m. This is a great opportunity to have your child's safety seat evaluated by a certified technician.

Our second opportunity will be Thursday, November 8th, at the Annual LCHD Adult Health Fair, held at The Center for Housing & Community Development at 1400 Avenue K in Tahoka, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Flu shots will be available for $15.00 or free with a current Medicare card. LCHD will also be offering bone density testing, hemoglobin testing, blood pressure and oxygen saturation levels, and glucose and cholesterol testing.

LCHD EMS will also be handing out Lifesaver Cards (cards with pertinent health information such as insurance information, medications, allergies to medications, doctor information and contact information). Just bring the above information with you, and EMS members will be on hand to offer assistance.

United Blood Services will also be present at the Adult Health Fair. To schedule a time to donate, contact Lynn Ortiz at Lynn County Hospital District at 998-4602, ext. 505.

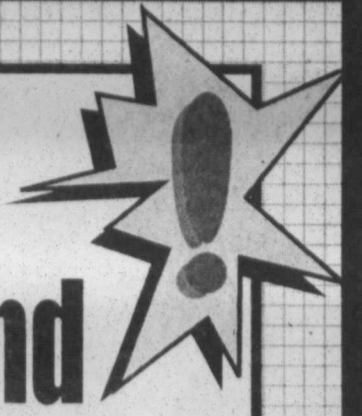

Representatives from the LCHD Swingbed Program and Lynnwood Assisted Living Center will also be available to answer questions.

Letter To The Editor

To Taxpayers of New Home ISD

On Nov. 6, 2007 the New Home School District is conducting a Rollback Election. The District's proposed tax rate is $1.25668 per $100 valuation. If approved by voters, this tax rate will result in $135,319 of additional revenue, bringing the District's total revenue to $1,844,033. If the Rollback measure does not pass, the New Home Independent School District's revenue will be $1,708,714.

Last year's tax rate was $1.459935 per $100 valuation, and the budget was $1,754,905. This year's budget is $1,844,033. The New Home Independent School District's current budget does not include new programs or expenses.

Please exercise your right to vote on November 6, 2007 at the New Home City Hall, 106 East Broadway, New Home, Texas. Or, voters may vote early between October 22 and November 2 at the Lynn County Courthouse, 1600 Main, Tahoka.

A YES vote will set the District tax rate at $1.25668 per $100 valuation (down from $1.459935 last year). A NO vote will result in a loss of revenue for New Home ISD of $135,000 ($50,000 local tax revenue plus $85,000 in state aid).

While the state legislature has promoted and mandated lower property tax relief, they have failed to maintain adequate funding for public education. The potential loss of local tax revenue will not be replaced by the state. Mandated increases in salaries, coupled with higher utilities cost, higher fuel and transportation costs, and increasing insurance rates, in conjunction with the loss of local tax revenue, will make financial decisions for all school districts extremely difficult. New Home ISD is not planning to add new programs or expenditures, we are simply striving to maintain a sound, fiscal district and provide a quality education for our students.

Leland Zant, Superintendent
New Home ISD

Hospital Personnel Changes Discussed

Resignations of the heads of two departments at Lynn County Hospital were reported to the hospital board last week by administrator Jim Morris.

The dietary manager and the lead person in the laboratory have resigned, but these jobs are being carried out by other personnel while replacements are sought. Morris advised, noting that interviews already have been conducted with some candidates.

Business manager Donna Raindl appeared before the group to explain hospital policies regarding bad debts.

Medical staff appointments were approved for Melanie Richburg, nurse practitioner, and for Doctors Jeff Paxton and Thomas Callahan.

Board President Jerry Ford presided. Other members present were Cal Huffaker, Regina Crutcher, Dalton Wood, Virginia Griffing and Jannis Horwood. Absent was board member Billy Tomlinson.

Veterans To Be Honored Nov. 10

Phebe K. Warner Club will have a program to honor all area veterans at the Tahoka cemetery on Saturday, Nov. 10 in a 10 a.m. ceremony. Flags will also be placed on veterans' gravesites at this time, honoring all deceased veterans. The community is invited to attend.

Anyone with information on area veterans is asked to contact Bettye Green at 998-4080 so Phebe K. Warner Club can contact them to invite them to the program.

Distribution of food boxes will be Saturday, Nov. 17, from 10:00-11:00 a.m. at the Tahoka Trinity Church, 1925 Lockwood. For more information, contact Polly Smullen at 561-4912 or Charlene Williams at 561-4565.

Hot Dogs Offered Halloween Night

A goody bag of surprises will also be offered to children, who may then go trick or treating on their own, or children are also invited to go to the NHS Spook House "Massacre On Main Street" with their families, at Fuzzy's Place on South Ave. J in Tahoka.

Voters To Mark Ballots Nov. 6

Registered voters in Lynn County may cast ballots on Tuesday, Nov. 6 in the Constitutional Amendment election at four polling locations, or early voting will continue this week through Friday, Nov. 2 at the Lynn County Courthouse. Early voting is conducted during regular business hours at the Lynn County Clerk's Office, from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Voters should bring their voter registration cards.

Polling locations on election day will be at the Life Enrichment Center in Tahoka (for Voting Boxes 1, 4, 5, 6, 7, 9, 12 and 14); the Green Museum in Wilson (Voting Boxes 2 and 8); O'Donnell High School (Voting Boxes 3 and 10); and New Home City Hall (Voting Boxes 4, 11 and 13). Polls will open 7 a.m. until 7 p.m.

There are 16 proposed amendments for voters to consider statewide, and in the New Home Independent School District voters also have a school tax rate to consider in a rollback election held in conjunction with the amendment election. New Home ISD voters have an opportunity to vote for or against a proposal setting the New Home ISD tax rate at $1.25668, which is a 20-cent reduction from the previous year's tax rate of $1.45668, but is higher than the rollback rate for 2007.

New Home ISD officials are asking voters to approve a tax rate that is 15-cents above the rollback rate of $1.10 in the school district. The $1.25668 tax rate includes a Maintenance & Operating (M&O) rate of $1.17 and an additional $.08668 rate for Interest & Sinking (I&S) to pay bonded indebtedness. If voters do not approve the tax rate, then the New Home ISD tax rate will automatically drop to the rollback rate of $1.106745 for both M&O and I&S.

Because the New Home ISD tax rate will not be determined until after the Nov. 6 election, property tax statements for New Home ISD will be mailed following the election results.

A brief explanation of the 16 proposed amendments was printed in the Sept. 13 and Sept. 20 issues of The Lynn County News, which are still available at the News Office.

The band previously had received the Silver Heart "Central USA Division Band of the Year" award in Bartlesville, Oklahoma in July, which advanced them to the International level. The CGMA International Award nominees were singers, instrumentalists, bands, comedians, reciters, signing interpreters, yodelers, and whistlers from the five CGMA divisions, including the Western USA, Central USA, Eastern USA, Canadian, and The Philippines Divisions.

In response to the comments from people about the talents of the band, members say, 'It's not that we're so good, it's that God is so good!'" said Stoker.

7th grade football

By Rebecca Pando
The Tahoka 7th grade Bulldogs played the Post Antelopes on Thursday, Oct. 25, 2007 for the second time this season. Although the Bulldogs were once again defeated 36-6, they played a better game and improved on some things from their first game.

During the first half the Bulldogs got control of the ball and took it down field scoring on a long drive primarily behind the running of Levi Hawthorne. The Bulldogs took an early lead of 6-0, but could not hold off the Antelopes and ended up losing the game.

"Despite the loss, the coaches were pleased with the effort the Bulldogs gave considering they faced a number of injuries this week", Coach Whitefield said.

8th grade football

By Samantha Pridmore
The 8th graders faced off against the Post Antelopes on Oct. 25. The score was Lopes 36 Bulldogs 0.

The Bulldogs started out with only 13 players because of injuries and sickness, so most of the boys had to play both sides of the ball.

Their opening drive lasted six minutes but ended on a 4th down in Post territory.

"We have two games left and hopefully everyone will be a full capacity so we can play with a few more subs," Coach Harris said.

Varsity Football

By Britt Wuensche
The Bulldogs suffered another tough loss 0-55 against the Post Antelopes.

The Bulldogs offense had a hard time putting drives together. Turnovers were not a big factor in the game as they had been earlier in the season. The only turnover for the Bulldogs was an interception. Tahoka's defense came up with the short end of the stick.

The Bulldogs have taken hits all season long with injury after injury, and they are just fall short on experience.

With a week of rest, Tahoka will host Denver City here on Friday, Nov. 2.
