Theft, Harassing Calls Reported

A 31-year-old Tahoka woman reported obscene and harassing telephone calls from two persons in Brownfield, and Tahoka Police indicated in a report Sunday that the case would be presented for prosecution.

Tahoka Police also were advised during the last week that a cell phone had been stolen from a church hall where it was left while the owner, Virginia Lee of Tahoka, was helping with Vacation Bible School. The Upstate II Sprint phone was valued at $300.

Lynn County jail was home to just 35 inmates this week, with only four persons brought in during the last several days. Those four were jailed for execution of a court order regarding deadly conduct, parole violation, driving while license invalid and driving while intoxicated third offense or more.

Fourteen of those in jail were being held for Lubbock County, and seven others for Gaines County.

City To Add Late Penalty For Past-Due Water Bills

Tahoka residents who wait to pay their city utility bills after the 15th of the month will find a new late penalty fee attached to their past-due notices, starting in the August billing cycle. Tahoka City Council members unanimously approved the new fee in their regular monthly meeting held Monday night.

"The city sends out water/sewer/garbage bills on the 25th of each month, with payments due on the 1st," explained City Administrator Jerry Webster. "If payments are not received by the 15th of the month, past due notices are sent out. Starting in our August billing cycle, those past due notices will have an extra 10 percent late fee penalty added to the bill."

The late-fee penalty is being added to encourage residents to pay their bills by the 15th, not only because it would save the city from having to send out hundreds of past-due notices each month, but also to bring those funds to city coffers earlier in the monthly cycle.

In other business, council members approved a request from the Lynn County Commissioners Court to allow the placement of a container at the city landfill site for county residents to put burn barrels in. The request was approved contingent upon county commissioner approval for the following fee schedule: a one-time $2500 fee to modify the city landfill permit would be required, as well as a $200/month container rental fee and $100/month to subsidize the salary for the city employee to oversee the container. These fees would be paid by the county, if approved by county commissioners.

City officials approved a resolution suspending the effective date for a rate increase by Xcel, joining a coalition of other cities seeking to reduce the rate increase.

IT WAS IN JULY of the year 1981 B.C. (before computers) when I first wrote the column you are about to read unless you find something better to do. I repeated the column in 1998, but when I ran across it in the files last week I still didn't remember writing it, so I'm pretty sure nobody will remember reading it, even if this is the third time around.

It was all about how I used to compose all of my columns on a typewriter, but looking back at the files of the Lynn County News, I saw this column I wrote at that time about typing on pink paper and about other pink things.

Nowadays, I type all this stuff on a computer, hit a button which is supposed to "save" it, and then wonder where in heck it went to.

Here is most of what I said then:
The paper on which I write my stories, including this one, is pink. I was sitting by my typewriter, more or less thinking, when a man came in and asked why I was using pink paper.

I told him the truth: we have several boxes of it in stock, and nobody wants to buy the stuff. Anyway, I asked him, what of it? And he suggested that pink is not a good color for real men to be associated with because of the connotations of the color. A lot of men don't want pink shirts or pants or pink cars or tractors because many people relate this color to activities unmanly.

Pink also has been used as a label for persons considered not quite Communist (red), but leaning that way, like many members of Congress. It even has been labeled a no-no for toothbrushes.

Of course, those men with pink things need not rush out and destroy or repaint them, if they're tough enough that nobody dares say anything ugly to them.

The man who came into the office said he personally didn't want a pink car, and I told him that was good, because if everybody in this country drove pink cars, this would be a pink car-nation. He left very soon after that.

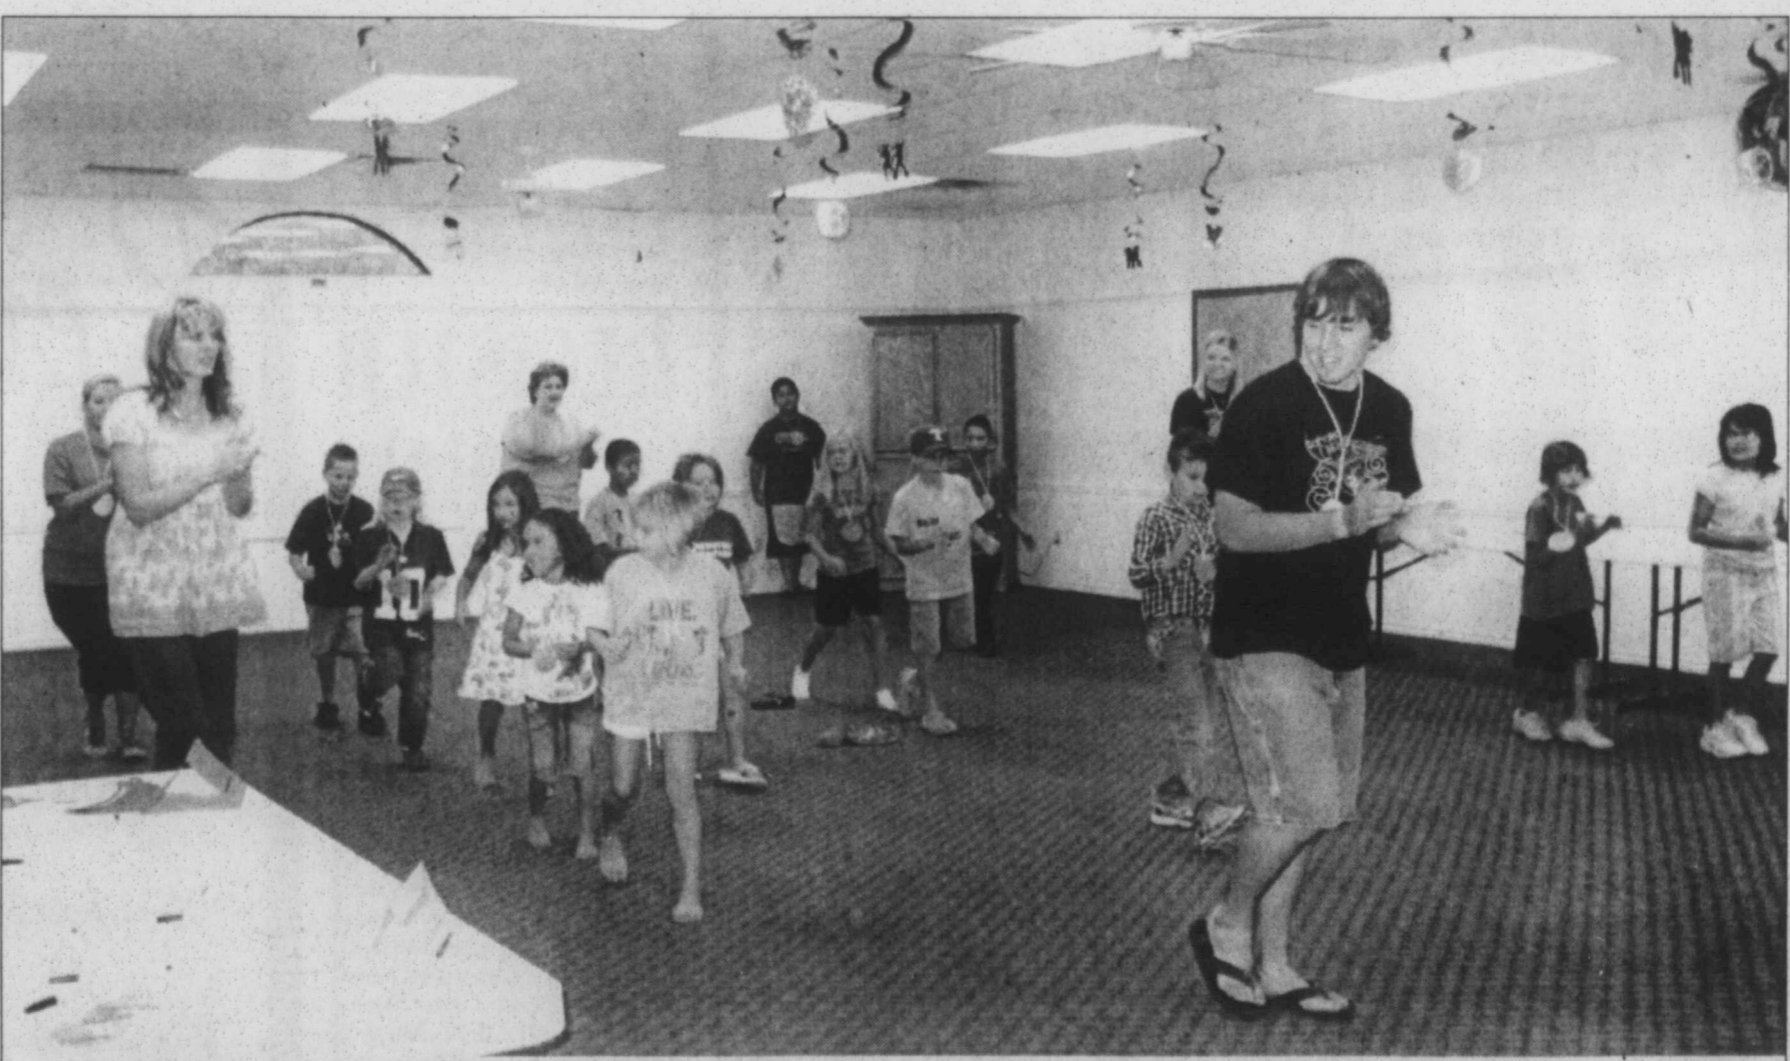

Please understand that I'm not saying that all pink things are bad. Pink dresses look great on little girls (and big ones). Also, it's good for a person to feel "in the pink".

History and my mother told me that years ago, nearly all of women's lingerie was pink. This was after flour sacks and before white and other colors of unmentionables became popular. This guy in the office, a bachelor, said he didn't know anything about the colors of female undergarments. I guess he doesn't have HBO.

Anyway, about the only pink slips around today are the ones which come in envelopes, and nobody wants one of those.

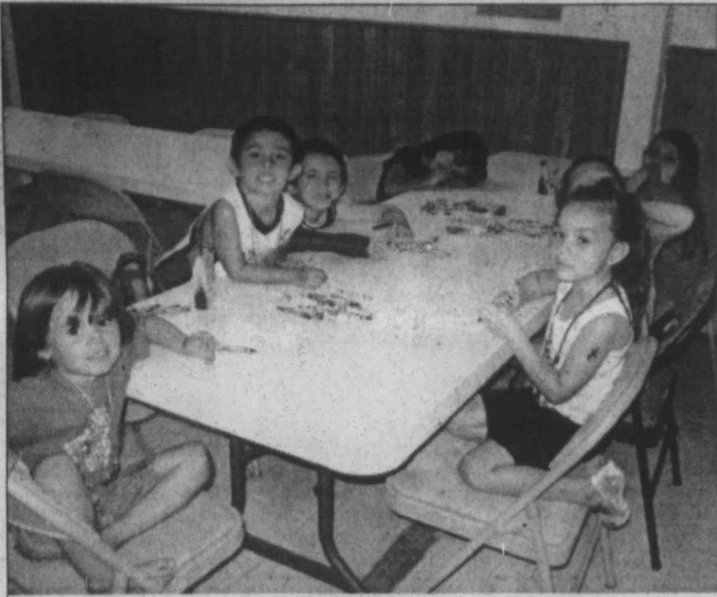

Other pink things considered bad are pink elephants and pinkeye. And drippy faucets which keep you awake at night going "pink....pink....pink."

I really don't believe all this stuff, but it provides some mental exercise. And typing it on pink paper makes it one of my more colorful bits of writing. Or rather, typink.

Do the Hustle ... Local youth had fun learning a little 70s culture Monday morning at the City-County Library's Summer Reading Program, shown here learning the dance steps to the Hustle, a popular dance-craze in that era. Teaching the youngsters were Tina Wuensche, Maritia Hall and Tonda Freitag, with a little help from Tahoka High School National Honor Society teens, including David Spruiell (in foreground). The Summer Reading program continues on Mondays from 10 a.m. until noon during the month of July.

NCPA Celebrates Tahoka Drug Anniversary

This month, the National Community Pharmacists Association is proud to join Tahoka Drug in celebrating 85 years as a community pharmacy.

"NCPA applauds and appreciates pharmacies like Tahoka Drug for their dedication to the practice of community pharmacy," said NCPA President Stephen L. Giroux, R.Ph. "More importantly, they continue to be a vital healthcare provider, offering exceptional service to their patients and bringing dynamic leadership to their communities."

There are over 23,000 community pharmacies in the United States, according to the 2007 NCPA Digest—an annual comprehensive financial and demographic survey of the nation's independent community pharmacies. Despite the challenges they face regarding cuts in Medicare and Medicaid, community pharmacies continue to expand their services, including such things as nutrition counseling, delivery services and compounding. The 2008 Digest is scheduled for release later this year.

"Community pharmacies like Tahoka Drug continue to thrive over the years because they are constantly adapting to satisfy the needs of their patients," said Giroux. A recent Consumer Reports article agrees, citing that in each of its drugstore satisfaction surveys since 1998, its readers have ranked independents above other types of stores, with high scores for service, knowledge, products in stock and customer satisfaction.

The National Community Pharmacists Association, founded in 1898, represents the nation's community pharmacists, including the owners of more than 23,000 pharmacies. The nation's independent pharmacies, independent pharmacy franchises, and independent chains dispense nearly half of the nation's retail prescription medicines.

This article was taken from the Forbes.com website: <http://www.forbes.com/businesswire/feeds/businesswire/2008/06/16/businesswire20080616006373r1.html>

Editor's Note: Tahoka Drug has been in operation since 1923, under the same family ownership. L.C. (Lum) Haney, a Registered Pharmacist, opened the family business in 1923 at the same Main Street location it now operates from. His daughter, Frances Marion Haney (better known as Bitsie), joined her father as a Registered Pharmacist in 1952, operating the store with her husband, Johnny Wells after Lum died in 1968.

Their son, Clark Haney Wells, joined the family business as a Registered Pharmacist in 1985, with his wife, Tanya, and they continue to operate Tahoka Drug. Johnny died in 1987 and Bitsie died in 1997.

Today, Haney and Tanya Wells and their son Patrick, 15, continue the family tradition, celebrating the store's 85th anniversary.

The Lynn County News encourages you to attend church this Sunday!

Buy-In Waiver For Supplemental Agricultural Disaster Assistance Programs Underway in New Farm Bill

WASHINGTON, July 11, 2008 - USDA's Farm Service Agency (FSA) will allow producers who would otherwise be ineligible for the new disaster assistance programs to become eligible by paying a fee as required by the Food, Conservation and Energy Act of 2008 (the 2008 Act).

The 2008 Act requires producers who wish to participate in the new disaster programs to have crop insurance or non-insured crop disaster assistance (NAP) coverage for the land for which assistance is being requested, and for all farms in all counties in which they have an interest. Since the 2008 Act was enacted after the application periods had closed for those programs, producers who did not have such coverage could not comply with this requirement in order to be eligible for the new disaster programs. However, the 2008 Act authorizes a waiver that allows producers to pay a fee, called a "buy-in" fee, to be eligible for this new disaster assistance.

Every producer whose crops, including grazing lands, are not fully covered by crop insurance or NAP may take advantage of this one-time opportunity. The buy-in fee is due no later than Sept. 16, 2008, 90 days after the date of enactment, as required by the 2008 Act. Those who miss this opportunity will not be eligible for disaster assistance. Producers are also reminded that the payment of the applicable buy-in fee does not afford the producer crop insurance or NAP coverage; it only affords eligibility for the 2008 disaster programs.

The crop insurance and NAP coverage requirements will be waived in 2008 for producers who did not obtain crop insurance or NAP coverage by the applicable sales closing date, if the producer files an application for waiver and pays a buy-in fee in an amount equal to the 2008 applicable NAP coverage or catastrophic risk protection plan fee for the crop or grazing lands.

Producers who meet the definition of "Socially Disadvantaged, Limited Resource," or "Beginning Farmer or Rancher," do not have to meet the Risk Management Purchase Requirement, and, therefore, are not required to pay the buy-in fee.

The buy-in fee for 2008 eligibility only for either the catastrophic risk protection insurance (CAT) or NAP is $100 per crop, but not more than $300 per producer per administrative county, or $900 total per producer for all counties less any previously paid fees for CAT and/or NAP.

Producers can contact their local administrative FSA County Office to file the application for waiver and pay the applicable fees.

The applicable buy-in form must be completed and applicable fees paid by Sept. 16, 2008. Payment of the applicable fees will allow the producer to be eligible for benefits for losses under Supplemental Revenue Assistance Payments (SURE) Program, Livestock Forage Disaster Program (LFP), Tree Assistance Program (TAP), and Emergency Assistance Livestock, Honeybees and Farm-Raised Fish Program (ELAP).

The 2008 Act authorizes funds to be used to make payments to farmers and ranchers incurring eligible crop production/quality losses under the SURE Program, grazing losses under LFP, livestock death losses under LIP, and losses suffered by producers of livestock, honeybees, and farm-raised fish under ELAP. The 2008 Act also authorizes TAP.

To be eligible for SURE, TAP, and ELAP, producers must meet the Risk Management Purchase Requirement by purchasing at least the CAT level of crop insurance for all insurable crops and/or NAP coverage for non-insurable crops. To be eligible for LFP, producers must meet the Risk Management Purchase Requirement by purchasing or obtaining for the grazing land incurring the losses where assistance is being requested, a policy or plan of insurance under the Federal Crop Insurance Act, including pilot programs such as the Pasture, Rangeland, Forage Program (PRF) or NAP coverage by filing the required paperwork and paying the administrative fee by the applicable State filing deadline. The Risk Management Purchase Requirement does not apply to LIP. The SURE program will be available to eligible producers on farms in disaster counties, designated by the Secretary, including contiguous counties that have incurred crop production losses and/or crop quality losses during the crop year. However, Congress determined that payments would not occur until the calculation at the end of the marketing year.

It also will be available to any farm where, during the calendar year, the total loss of production on the farm, because of weather, is greater than 50 percent of the normal production of the farm.

The LFP program will be available to eligible livestock producers who suffered grazing losses for eligible livestock, because of drought on land that is either native or improved pastureland with permanent vegetative cover or planted to a crop specifically for providing grazing. The LFP program will also be available to eligible livestock producers who suffered grazing losses for eligible livestock, because of fire on rangeland managed by a Federal agency, if the eligible livestock producer is prohibited from grazing the normal permitted livestock on the managed rangeland.

The LIP program will be available to eligible livestock producers on farms that have incurred livestock death losses in excess of normal mortality, because of adverse weather, as determined by the Secretary during the calendar year, including losses because of hurricanes, floods, blizzards, disease, wildfires, extreme heat and extreme cold.

The TAP program provides as-

Rabies Clinic Set in Wilson

A rabies clinic for dogs and cats will be held in Wilson this Saturday, July 19, from 1-2 p.m. at Wilson City Hall (Green Building/Museum).

Dr. Bud Farr, DVM from Slaton Vet Clinic, will provide rabies vaccines for $6, and other shots/meds will also be available.

istance to orchardists and eligible nursery tree growers who produce nursery, ornamental, fruit, nut or Christmas trees for commercial sale that lost trees, bushes, or vines, because of a natural disaster, as determined by the Secretary.

The ELAP program will provide emergency relief to producers of livestock, honey bees and farm-raised fish, because of losses from adverse weather or other conditions, such as blizzards and wildfires, as determined by the Secretary.

Because Congress did not provide a rulemaking exception for these programs, FSA must first publish a proposed rule seeking public comment, followed by a final rule. FSA is working to develop detailed regulations and software for these programs. Sign up for these programs is not expected to be held until this winter.

Emergency Farm Loan Applications Accepted

Applications for emergency farm loan for losses caused by drought on January 1, 2008 or by fire on March 31, 2008, are being accepted at the Farm Service Agency (FSA) office located in Tahoka, FSA Acting Farm Loan Manager Linda Turner said recently.

Turner said farmers may be eligible for loans of up to 80 percent of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business, whichever is less. For farmers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest is 3.75 percent.

"As a general rule, a farmer must have suffered at least a 30 percent loss of production to be eligible for an FSA emergency loan," Turner said. Farmers participating in the Federal Crop Insurance program will have to figure in proceeds from this program in determining their loss. "Applications for loans under this emergency designation will be accepted until February 27, 2009, but farmers should apply as soon as possible. Delays in applying could create backlogs in processing and possibly over into the new farming season," said Turner.

FSA is a credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It is authorized to provide disaster Emergency loans to recognized farmers who work at and rely on farming for a substantial part of their living. Eligibility is extended to individual farmers who are U.S. citizens and to farming partnerships, corporations or cooperatives in which U.S. citizens hold a majority interest.

The FSA office in Tahoka is open from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

High Plains Water District Sets August Public Hearings

Residents within the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District will have an opportunity to comment on proposed administrative changes to the district's rules at two public hearings in early August.

The first hearing is set for Aug. 5 at the Hereford Community Center, 100 Avenue C, in Hereford. A second hearing is set for Aug. 7 at the High Plains Water District office, 2930 Avenue Q, in Lubbock. Both meetings begin at 7 p.m.

This proposed revision to the Water District's rules includes introduction of a new printed format and addition of new procedural rules resulting from passage of House Bill 1763, now codified as Chapter 36.108 of the Texas Water Code.

"The Water District has operated under these procedural rules since the legislation was passed; however, they have not been specifically referenced in the district's rules. This revision to the district rules will correct that," said General Manager Jim Conkwright.

He added that the new procedural rules deal with citizens' lawsuits pertaining to illegal water wells drilled without a permit from the district, water well permit hearing procedures, and rulemaking hearing procedures.

"Each proposed addition is now State Law. We are simply incorporating them into our district rule booklet for the convenience of our constituents," Conkwright said.

Also, the district rule booklet has been reorganized so that rules on a given subject are grouped in one location rather than being scattered throughout the publication. "We hope that the new printed presentation of our rules makes them more user-friendly. There are now 11 section headings and the district's 23 rules have been placed under the appropriate headers for easier reference," he said.

Copies of the draft revised rules are available for public viewing during business hours at the High Plains Water District office, 2930 Avenue Q, in Lubbock. A link to the rules is found on the district's web site at www.hpwd.com. In addition, the rules are available for viewing at the district's offices in Bailey, Castro, Cochran, Deaf Smith, Floyd, Hale, Hockley, Lamb, Parmer, Potter, and Randall Counties.

Written comments regarding the proposed rule changes will be accepted until 5:00 p.m., August 11, and should be directed to General Manager Jim Conkwright, High Plains Water District, 2930 Avenue Q, Lubbock TX 79411-2499.

The five-member High Plains Water District Board of Directors will consider public comments from the hearings and take action concerning the proposed rule revisions at their regularly scheduled Aug. 12 meeting.

Additional information is available by contacting Jim Conkwright or Sherry Stevens at (806) 762-0181.

Card of Thanks
I would like to first thank my Lord for sending me help when I could not respond to anyone. I would like to thank Dr. Freitag, the nurses and aides that helped me during my stay in the hospital.
A very special thank you to Joey and Lisha, my pastor Richard Harbison, and to all the people that are praying for me, The First Baptist Church, Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt Moore and church, and the Getsemane Church and Hrño Aleman and special thanks to my brother, Marco A. Fuentes and family from Houston, Rachel Corona from Austin, Lucy and Anita Rodriguez, and Rudy with the police department that helped get me to the hospital.
Thanks to everyone and may God bless them all.
