Vandalism, burglary reports investigated

Two incidents of vandalism and a burglary of a Tahoka apartment were reported to Tahoka Police during the last week, while a convicted arsonist pleaded guilty of setting a fire in Tahoka and drew a prison sentence.

Jerry Wayne Adams, 68, pleaded guilty Friday in 106th District Court in Tahoka on an arson charge stemming from a brush fire at the south edge of Tahoka on Feb. 20. He agreed to 10 years in prison plus a $1,000 fine just before he was scheduled to go on trial.

Adams previously had been convicted of setting fires in Lubbock and Hale County, mostly in 1997. He had confessed to setting more than 200 fires in Lubbock County that year, and previously had been assessed a 10-year probated sentence and ordered to pay more than $430,000 in restitution.

He has been held in jail in Lynn County since February in lieu of a $500,000 bond.

Police were advised this week that on Sept. 30 someone entered the apartment of Audrey Holden and took her Acer laptop computer, a cell phone and 20 music CDs. Value of all the stolen articles was estimated at $1,000.

Words suggestive of youth gangs were spray-painted on a cinder block fence at the home of Joe Hays in Tahoka over the weekend. Also, Terry Ceniseros of Tahoka told police that someone had broken the left rear tail light cover on her Ford Contour while it was parked in her driveway.

Twelve persons were jailed during the week, leaving the total jail population at 42, with three of those held for Lubbock and one for Garza County. Charges bringing the most recent arrests included failure to appear on motion for enforcement, operating a vehicle without financial responsibility plus driving while license invalid, warrant on fraudulent possession of a prescription for a controlled substance, failure to report an accident plus unsafe speed, misdemeanor warrants, driving while intoxicated plus possession of marijuana, warrants on violation of promise to appear plus minor in possession of alcohol, DWI, evading arrest, possession of marijuana, warrant on theft by check.

IN PASADENA, TX last week, a man called police and told them his former common-law wife, who had moved out after a dispute, had stolen seven pet goldfish from his home. Police went to the woman's home and found that the woman, upset with the man, had fried their pet goldfish and ate some of them.

The goldfish had been purchased together by the couple in happier times.

When officers arrived at her home, they found four fried goldfish on a plate. The woman said she had already eaten the other three. No charges were filed.

Unless she ate something else, I'd consider three fried goldfish a really light meal.

I guess it's a good thing they hadn't bought a dog or cat when they were together.

SPEAKING of meals, the Lynn County senior citizens menu one day last week called for "Cornflake chicken," and I wasn't sure just what that was, although it turned out to be pretty tasty. Before I went there, someone asked me what it was, and I said I had no idea except that maybe it was cooked in a cornflake batter. Or maybe the chickens were slain by a cereal killer.

DURING a recent password audit, it was found that a blonde was using the following password:

MickeyMinniePlutoHueyLouieDeweyDonaldGoofy

When asked why she chose such a long password, she explained that the rules required her to choose something with at least seven or more characters.

ONE OF THE recent "Maxine" cartoons has her making this seasonal comment: "In the fall, I start running. Not all of me; just my nose."

Firemen's fish fry

The city park in Tahoka was the place to be Friday night, with a terrific crowd coming out to support the annual Tahoka VFD Firemen's Fish Fry. Fire Chief Steve Sanders said they served nearly 600 plates, and that this year's event was one of the best turnouts they had ever seen. "We couldn't serve that many people in an hour, and we really appreciate those who had to wait for the food to be prepared," Sanders told The News. "Next year, we may try to start a little earlier," he added. (LCN PHOTO by Vendell Elliott)

LETTERS to the EDITOR

Senior Citizens Raffle and Bake Sale a success!

The generosity and community shown throughout the day at our bake sale and quilt raffle held at this year's Harvest Festival was incredible.

I want to thank all of you who answered Barbara Morton's call for baked goods. I am tempted to list each and every one of you, but I am afraid I will leave someone's name out. Suffice to say, that I think you are among the most wonderful people I have the privilege of knowing in my life.

I also want to thank those of you who purchased all of the yummy delectables we offered for sale. And I also want to thank those of you who made cash donations. Your unbelievable generosity humbles me.

Together with the bake sale, we sold chances to win not one, but two of our beautiful quilts - quilted at our Center by the gifted hands of Lois Roberts, Mary Belle Owen and Dortha Flynn.

Thank you to everyone who purchased raffle tickets. This year's winners of our coveted quilts were Lilia Saldana of Lubbock, and Nancy Guilliams. Congratulations to both of them!

Lastly, but by no means least,

I want to give a special thank you to Jim and Barbara Morton, David Hale, Betty Harston, Pat Hogg and Trudy Schuknecht. The grand success of our bake sale and raffle was due in large measure to their hard work and effort on the Center's behalf. I want to extend a very special thank you to each of them.

Sincerely, Bianca Baker
Center Director

Pray for our country

Dear Ms. Editor,

I love my country. I love the state of Texas. I love my hometown and its people. Because I love everything this country and its people stand for, I find myself praying more than ever for her. We are living in dangerous and historic times. If you are a Christian, then you believe as I do that our L-rd and Saviour, Yeshua Hamashiach (Jesus Christ) is about to make His second appearance on this earth. Before our very eyes, we see the fruits of what we have sown. Remove G-d from every aspect of our lives through the godless society produces immoral, corrupt, cold-hearted, lawless human beings who have no trouble shutting water off to farmers and families in order to save a fish; who have no trouble defending the rape of a 13-year old female at the hands of a rich and powerful Hollywood director; who have no trouble beating a 16-year old honor student to death with a railroad tie while others watch; who have no trouble passing legislation that will forever change our way of life and our children's lives and finally, who have trouble calling what is true a lie and what is a lie the truth. We have seen the media, the Congress, the judicial system and the Executive Branch of our Government, trample and utterly ignore our U.S. Constitution. Our future... our children's future is being threatened and we, as a free people are in danger of losing our freedom, our liberty. This is a call to pray. Put on the armor of G-d and earnestly pray that our G-d forgive us and that we repent for allowing the godless to rule over us! My prayer is that we wake up from our slumber and get on our knees and earnestly seek the L-rd for our good, the good of our children, and the good of this country. May the L-rd bless you and protect you; may the L-rd make His face shine upon you and be gracious unto you; and may the L-rd lift up His countenance toward you and give you His peace - the peace surpasses all understanding.

Thank You,
Olga D. Gonzales

(Editor's Note: Spelling of the words Lord and God with L-rd and G-d were at the writer's request, due to her beliefs.)

Tahoka woman serves with Texas Silver-Haired Legislature in Amarillo session

The 12th Texas Silver-Haired Legislature (TSHL) General Session was held in Amarillo September 14-17. It was led by the Speaker, Walter Graham of Cisco. The meeting was opened with the Posting of the Colors and the National Anthem, followed by a welcome by Mayor Debra McCartt. Texas Representative Smith of Amarillo lauded the TSHL members for 20 years of fine work and dedication.

Three new members to TSHL were introduced and welcomed: Larry Day of Amarillo (Panhhandle area), Betty Green of Tahoka, and Jerry Stamps of Lubbock, (both in the South Plains area). Also attending from the South Plains was Jane Blay of Brownfield. Don Avery of Morton also represents this area.

The Texas Silver-Haired Legislature is composed of volunteers, age 60 and above, elected by their peers, who go to Austin as advocates for Senior issues by holding a Legislative session prior to the Texas Legislature's session and developing resolutions to present to the State Legislature that address common needs of senior Texans across the state. Members are non-partisan and non-political, but are interested in improving the lives of the senior population of Texas on issues of health care, income, transportation, housing, education, employment, and other problems identified by peers.

The formation of a Texas Legislative Committee on Aging was the TSHL number one resolution to the 81st Texas Legislative Session. As a result, during the 2009 Texas Legislative Session, House Bill 610 was passed authorizing the formation of the Texas Legislative Committee on Ageing. Governor Perry appointed two TSHL members to the committee. They are Homer Lear of San Antonio and Betty Streckfuss of Spring.

The Legislature also passed Silver Alert, which is a companion to the Amber Alert. It does not cost the state any money because it just duplicates the same signs and procedures used for alerting the population when a child is lost. The Silver Alert just alerts the population of a lost senior.

An amendment to the TSHL Bylaws was passed which changes the terms of its members to coincide with those of the Texas State Legislature. The next election will be 2011.

Breast Cancer Awareness

October is National Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Today we tackle some of the myths and facts associated with a lump in one finds during your monthly self breast exam.

Myth 1: A breast lump is almost always Cancer. False. The lump is more likely to be a cyst, or a non-cancerous growth such as a fibroadenoma, much less often a blood clot that causes lumpiness. It could also be a "pseudo lump," caused by hormonal changes that isn't a lump at all, according to Dr. Susan Love, professor of surgery and author of Dr. Susan Love's Breast Book.

Myth 2: Breast Cancer is Always accompanied by a lump you can feel. False. Most cancers are picked up on a screening mammogram BEFORE a lump is detected by the patient.

Myth 3: A Cancerous lump feels different from a non-cancerous (benign) lump. False. You cannot always tell by how it feels. The best advice here is... if anything feels different then usual in your breast, get it checked out.

Myth 4: A small lump is usually nothing to worry about. False. Cancer can be very small when it first presents, size is never a good way to decide whether a lump is something to worry about. When a woman feels a mass, it is usually less than an inch in diameter states Laura Kruper, M.D., breast cancer surgeon at City of Hope Comprehensive Cancer Center.

Myth 5: It's OK to watch a lump and call the Doctor later. False. It's not OK. You should always be evaluated by a health care practitioner and you should take care of this within 2 to 4 weeks. Call a doctor within a day or two of identifying the lump and get advice about what to do.

Myth 6: A lump can be cancer even in women with no family history. True. Only 5% of 10% of breast cancer is from heredity. The majority of women who get cancer have NO risk factors.

Myth 7: A lump can't be cancer in with a history of Cysts. False. Women who have a history of cysts still need to get lumps checked out. You should never assume that a new lump is just a cyst. Your doctor needs to know about it.

The bottom line of these "mythbusters" is that you do need to get any lump checked out. Do not ignore it and hope it will go away. You may just save your life or you may find out that it is not cancer and that will relieve your fears.

Volunteers, leaders sought for "Friends of the Library"

The "Friends of the City-County Library" in Tahoka was formed about a year ago, but the group is in need of leadership and focus. A meeting will be held on Monday, October 12 at 6:00 in the meeting room of the Life Enrichment Center to decide the future of the group. Anyone interested in serving with the "Friends" group is invited to the meeting.

"Friends of the City-County Library" is a volunteer-run, non-profit organization dedicated to promoting and supporting the services, resources and needs of the library. They may choose how to support the library, including serving the community by assisting with library programs for children, teens, adults and seniors citizens, such as story time, summer reading programs, home-bound book delivery, etc. Volunteers may also serve the library as clerical help, processing books, shelving, decorating for holidays and housekeeping issues. Additionally, the "Friends" may spearhead fundraising efforts and encourage gifts, endowments and memorials, and are advocates on behalf of the library in regards to policy, budget and materials/services provided at the library.

"I would love for the Friends to continue and grow. If the group was more organized, the potential is there for much more funding that the library greatly needs. In addition to funding, the library could benefit from the skills that Friends members could bring to the table, such as help with staffing, marketing, advising, etc.," said Claudia Guin, Library Director.

"As library director, ideally I should work with the group but have no leadership role," explained Guin. "The purpose of the group is to act as an outside source to benefit the library. What the group needs most is a couple of very strong, motivated, organized leaders to take charge of the organization," said Guin.

"Life Cycles" ... On Wednesday, September 30, the Tahoka Elementary 2nd grade class performed "Life Cycles", a musical program that included dialogue about various aspects of life cycles. The children have been rehearsing for six weeks during music class taught by Vivian McAfee.

Ag waste pesticide collection sites available in Oct.

The Texas Commission on Environmental Quality has announced upcoming collections of Agricultural Waste Pesticides. The TCEQ organizes free, regional collections of unwanted or unused (waste) pesticides throughout the state as part of the Agricultural Waste Pesticide Collection program.

The free collections, conducted rain or shine, give agricultural producers who use pesticides in Texas an opportunity to dispose of unwanted products that may pose a hazard to them, their families, and their surrounding farming and ranching communities. The program is strictly voluntary and no one is required to participate. All this is done at no expense to them.

The participants do not have to identify themselves. However, there is a short survey in which the participants are asked a few questions.

The next collection event will be Monday, Oct. 12 from 8 a.m. until 1 p.m. at Crop Production Services, 880 Industrial Drive in Slaton (contact Mark Brown, County Extension Agent, 806-775-1680), and on Wednesday, Oct. 14 at Agriliance, 101 Loop Hwy (US 83) in Seagraves (contact Terry Millican, County Extension Agent, 432-758-4006).

Read about safely rinsing and recycling agricultural chemical containers through the links found at www.tceq.state.tx.us.
