HE DID IT—With these two pieces of pipe held by Deputy Buddy Black, Raymond Diaz Rodriguez, broke two locks and escaped from Bailey County jail during the noon hour Tuesday. Black is holding a blanket rope he used to make his way to the ground from the jail atop the courthouse.

RAYMOND DIAZ RODRIGUEZ
BAILEY COUNTY JAIL ESCAPEE

Prisoner Escapes Antiquated Jail

A daring high noon jail break occurred Tuesday, leaving one less prisoner in Bailey County's one and only antiquated jail.

Seems Raymond Diaz Rodriguez preferred the 'wide open spaces, or another place of abode, at leastwise, to the free lodging he had had since February 20 when he was arrested on a charge of attempt breaking and entering after he and a companion attempted to force a window to gain entry to Bill's Drive In on West American Boulevard.

The slight-built 34 year-old, Latin is described as being 5 feet, 8 inches in height, weighs 130 pounds, black hair, brown eyes and was last seen in jail wearing dark grey trousers and a heavy ribbed sweater, grey in color with a brown strip trim around the neck and down the front. Rodriguez has a tattoo in his right thumb and another on his left hand. He was being held in lieu of $1,000 bond. Improvised tools used to break the two heavy locks on the doors leading from the jail run-around onto the roof consisted of a pipe unscrewed from the out-date radiator heating system in the jail and a short, square steel bar.

Rodriguez had torn bunk blankets into strips to fashion a rope tied it to an antenna atop the courthouse and went down over the north wall, and apparently vanished among the noon time crowd.

The break was discovered when Roy Bayless, custodian, returned from lunch shortly before 1 p.m., and noticed a piece of the blanket rope dangling from the roof. Bayless went to the Sheriff's office and asked Deputy Buddy Black "How many prisoners do you have up there?"

"Two, I hope," Deputy Black replied. "Better check," Bayless said, "there is a rope hanging on the north side of the building."

Deputy Black ran up the stairway and found, one gone... one remaining.

In questioning the remaining prisoner, Black asked him where Rodriguez had gone.

"I don't know... he just told me he was going AND he went!" Road blocks were hastily set up on all highways leading out of town as city and county officers and Highway Patrol combined efforts in attempt to apprehend the escapee.

Highway Patrolman Freddie Jack manned the block on west Highway 84 while City Patrolman David Cuppingham and Jim Kinsler set up on east Highway 84. Chief of Police Harold White worked Highway 214 near the south while Highway Patrolman Bill Angel took over duty on the Plainview highway. Deputies Buddy Black and Bobby Henderson crisscrossed the Friona high route and country roads in the area.

The search continued throughout the evening and night as officers searched every feasible place, empty buildings, box cars, cars and other places where the escapee might hole up here.

Seniors Present Play At Lazbuddie School

A western comedy "They Went Thataway" was presented Friday night at Lazbuddie high school auditorium, by the senior class.

The entertaining show cast and characters were Charlotte Pelham, portrayed by Marsha Adduddle, Charlotte was depicted as the owner of the Bar-B-Q, a ranch left to her by her uncle.

Lil Brown, played by Marquita Seaton was Charlotte's best friend and Mike Hinkson as Sheriff Jackson was "THE LAW"

The character Freddy Buck was played by Terry Perham and was a young master of ceremonies who was looking for a job. It is decided for him that he would become a cowboy. Kirby Birch played Joe Chuckwagon, a noble redman and Sherry Robinson carried the character title "Princess One Blossom" and played the part of Joe's wife.

Elmira Spring, a wealthy tourist from back East and Timmy Foster played "Waxy" described as a tired business man. Buster Steinbock played the part of "Slug", Waxy's right-hand man.

Sue Castle was played by Carolyn Morris, cast in the role of a movie star who liked to be incognito.

Barrie was really Barrie, a poodle who was Sue's little traveling companion.

The action of the entire play took place in the living room of the Bar-B-Q Ranch located somewhere in the Rockies. Charlotte was a girl of twenty-two a typical American girl... attractive, wholesome, with a great deal of winsome charm. She was optimistic, full of ideals and generous... the kind who finds it hard to believe bad of a person.

Lil was a girl of twenty-two, also. She was a contrast in type to Charlotte and more on the plain side. She was intensely practical, a little hard boiled and has a biting sardonic sense

Pastor Voices Opposition

"More than 24,000 new crimes will be committed each year in Texas if the saloon bill passes," Don Murray, pastor of the First Baptist Church said today in urging defeat of the law that would allow sales of liquor by the drink.

According to statistics released by Texas Alcohol Narcotics Education, the crimes per 100,000 population in open saloon states is 232.7 crimes a year higher than states with package sales only laws, such as Texas now has.

The proponents of the saloon bill claim it would be good because it would bring needed tax revenues. Now, for each $1 of liquor tax collected, alcohol costs $37 in law enforcement, welfare, lost jobs, courts, etc. according to the American Business Men's Research Foundation. The saloon bill would actually cost the state money to pay for the extra costs involved in the more than 7,000,000 additional gallons of liquor that would be consumed each year.

Chamber Production Coffers Boosted

Eight more Muleshoe business firms followed the example set last week by other businessmen by giving "extra" support to the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce.

Those investing with "extra" support for a more effective local chamber since last Saturday are: Weidubush and Childers $35.00, Brock Motor Co. $10.00, Fry and Cox $50.00, C. R. Anthony $15.00, Bass Appliance $20.00, Sam Fox $25.00, Mr. Journal $25.00 and Heathington Lumber $25.00.

Another new member was added to the Chamber by Ambassador Robert Hooten. The new member is Troy Atkinson of 1634 W. Ave D. Eight new members have been signed into the Chamber since the Ambassadors were organized on February 6th.

An official visit by the Ambassadors was made to Singleton's Funeral Home during their opening ceremonies. Several other visits are planned early in March.

Crop production guidelines related specifically to the conditions here in Bailey County and covering cotton production are being mailed to every cotton producer in the county this week.

This is the first time such thorough and complete guides have been prepared on a county basis, according to County Agent, J. K. Adams.

He believes that farmers who take time to study the recommendations will find them helpful in increasing yields and lowering production costs. Over 800 guidelines are being mailed to county farmers.

"These guidelines are the best combinations of thoroughness and brevity that those of us in the Texas Agricultural Extension Service could prepare," the agent said.

Suggestions are given for deciding the timing of the most important irrigation or irrigation under different moisture conditions that occur in any one year.

The guides are not elaborate publications, Adams said, and few farmers may ever look them

Farm Labor Series Beginning Monday

Texas Employment Commission announces the first in a series of Farm Labor Days. These will be held at the T. E. C. Office, 322 West Second, each Monday at 1 p.m., beginning March 6.

The purpose of Farm Labor Days is to help farmers find qualified workers for the coming year and also, to assist farm workers in obtaining satisfactory employment. Because T.E.C. calls in every available worker in the area, the farmers will find that they have a greater selection of qualified applicants and the opportunity to interview them privately. Also the workers are able to select the job more suited to their abilities and personal needs. Every effort will be made by the Texas Employment Commission to satisfy all parties concerned, however, the success of Farm Labor Days depends entirely upon the response and cooperation of the local farmers and workers.

 Joe was a young man who played the part of an Indian, but played his part as a straight American without any special accent or intonation.

 One Blossom was a young Indian woman, large, sloppy and very bashful with a high-pitched voice.

 Elmira played the part of a passively attractive blonde and dressed in high fashion. Her manner was strictly blase and artificial.

 Slug was large and powerful looking, slow-moving a morose and spoke with a Brooklyn accent.

 Sue was the typical Hollywood glamour girl, overdressed and over made-up with a fishing and insincere manner.

Plainview, has a lengthy burglary record in Arizona and others in Washington.

Deputy Black had let the two prisoners out in the run-around shortly before noon to take a shower. The tools were found later by Constable Arthur Bolton under the mattresses on bunks in the run around.

 "Well, guess I'll have to try to explain to another jury just how another jail break was made," mused Deputy Bobby Henderson. This is getting to be something like... to paraphrase "Sing song, second verse," for Henderson who only last month took the stand during District Court to try to explain the escape of Sixto DeLeon under the same circumstances.

It isn't the fact that the prisoners are turned out in the run around to take a shower that causes the trouble... prisoners do have the right to take showers... it is the inadequate facilities which our law enforcement officers are having to use to keep a prisoner confined once they get him up that dark narrow stairway to the aged jail atop the courthouse, and that the cunningness of men has progressed while the jail facilities have regressed.

 when they come in the mail. The localized guidelines are part of a state-wide Extension Service project to get the best known production information in the hands of farmers. "It is an effort to combine all of the modern practices into one source so that a farmer doesn't have to search through a number of publications to get the material," the agent said. Extensive preparation has gone into the guidelines to insure they would be highly accurate and useful. Information from local farmers and results of county cotton demonstrations were used as a basis for local revisions.

 A grain sorghum production guideline will be mailed soon.

Lakes, Highways, Rest Areas Appear On Map

AUSTIN--Six new public lakes, 819 miles of new highways and 18 new safety rest areas make their appearance for the first time on the Texas Highway Department's colorful 1967 Official State Highway Map.

 Before the year is out, about one million copies of the map will be distributed throughout the world, inviting Texan and out-of-state visitor alike to "Discover Texas, America's Fun-ter."

 All the new lakes are accessible to the public via the 67-thousand-mile Texas highway system. Largest of the new reservoirs is Lake Meredith on the Canadian River in the Panhandle. Others are Lake Arrowhead, Fin Creek Reservoir, White River Lake, Bardwell and Somerville Reservoirs.

 The new map shows 115 additional miles of Interstate highways, added since last year. More than 1,700 miles of these superb new highways are in service now.

 The 1967 Official State Highway Map also delineates approximately 704 miles of new farm to market roads. Many of these provide the visitor with access to recreational areas throughout the State, as well as serving agriculture and industry.

 Eighteen additional safety rest areas are shown on the map for the first time. More than 1,100 safety rest areas, scenic turnouts and roadside parks now enhance the safety and convenience of Texas highways.

 A message from Governor John Connally welcomes the visitor and extends a personal invitation to explore Texas. Further emphasizing the water resources of Texas, a scenic photograph of the Sam Rayburn Reservoir in East Texas graces the cover of the map. Padre Island centers a pictorial display, along with 12 other vivid color photographs of scenes and sights from every area of the State.

 For the convenience of the traveler, the face of the map contains a handy mileage table, inset maps showing principal streets in larger cities, and listings of State parks, Texas Highway Department Tourist Bureaus and highway patrol offices.

 The Official State Highway Map is but one of a variety of services provided for the convenience of the traveler by the Texas Highway Department.

 Through its Travel and Information Division, the Texas Highway Department assist nearly three-quarters of a million visitors each year in eight Tourist Information Bureaus located at key highway gateways and in the rotunda of the State Capitol in Austin.

 Additionally, the Department answers more than 261 thousand inquiries annually, furnishing information and descriptive literature about Texas.

 In performing these services, the Department distributes more than 3.5 million pieces of travel-oriented literature about Texas annually. Of this volume, more than two million pieces are produced as a part of the Highway Department's travel promotion program.

 Texas motorists may order the 1967 Official State Highway Map when registering motor vehicles during February and March. County tax officers have been provided with supplies of special order cards.

 Copies of the map also may be ordered directly, sending name, address and AIP code to: Texas Highway Department, Travel and Information Division Post Office Box 5064, Austin, Texas 78703.

Mr. and Mrs. Jody Mills

Miss Adcock, Mr. Mills Exchange Vows in Pampa

The wedding of Linda Sue Adcock, Pampa, and Leslie Jody Mills, Muleshoe, was solemnized Feb. 10 at 7 p.m. in the Pama Church of Christ with David Hutton performing the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.M. Adcock, Pampa, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L.J. Mills, Muleshoe. Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a three-piece off white wool suit with a shoulder length veil falling from a cluster of white flowers. The tri-angled Jesigned bridal bouquet composed of Frenched carnations, and silk pearl leaves intermingled net puffs centered with an orchid corsage nestled among tulle loops and streamers and tied with a woven crown ribbon supporting the lilly of the valley and love knots, was carried by the bride. Her blouse was sleeveless white with lace falling in tiers and the a-line skirt coat was high-lighted with antique gold buttons.

Linda Deatherage, Pampa, was maid of honor. She was attired in a light orchid satin empire waisted, a-line skirt featuring a scooped neckline. She carried an orchid with carnation clusters surrounding the orchid and was held together with lace. Lisa Watson, Pampa, was the flower girl. She wore a dark orchid empire waisted, a-line skirt with a hoard band of orchids and wore a small orchid corsage.

The couple are at home in Canyon. A rehearsal dinner was held Thursday in Pampa.

The thirty-fifth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman White was observed Saturday evening in Amarillo this weekend. Numerous Jaycees and their wives plan to attend. The anniversary table was laid with a white linen cloth edged with wide lace accented with a center lace inset. Jade napkins were inscribed "Marie and Thurman" above the date of their marriage. Other Jade accents were used to carry out the 35th anniversary tradition. A tiered bouquet of red roses was placed on the table in a sterling silver crystal vase surrounded by the silver and crystal service. Refreshments were served by Marjorie Platt, Mrs. J. G. Arnn, Mrs. Dudley Malone, Mrs. Sherman Sweatmon and Mrs. Clyde Holt.

This poem sent to the Whites was composed by former pastor of the First Christian Church of which they are members.

"Sweethearts Always"
Happy is he whose sweetheart
Is wife and sweetheart still
Whose voice, as of old, can charm:
Whose kiss, as of old, can thrill;

Who has plucked the rose to find eve,
Its beauty and fragrance increase,
As the flush of passion is mellowed
In love's unmeasured peace.
Our love sublime all nobler grows
as all along our way,
We seek to help the troubled ones
Who need us day by day.

GIRL SCOUTS SELL COOKIES—Kelly Chak, with Girl Scout Troop 136 under the leadership of Norene Stallings, and Cathy Cockrell, Brownie Troop 103, under the direction of Betty Hufford, will be 2 of the many Scouts who will be knocking at your door beginning today and will continue their drive for 2 weeks selling Girl Scout cookies. From Muleshoe Scouts, $870 will be the total sales from the 50 cent a box cookies. From this $765.60 will go to Council and $104.40 will go to Muleshoe Scouts, to be distributed among each troop according to their individual sales. This money will be used as the leader sees fit for her troop.

Girl Scouts Begin 2-Week City Wide Cookie Sale

Girl Scouts of the Caprock Council will begin their annual cookie sale today March 2 according to Mrs. Ben Cockrell, Muleshoe, cookie chairman and Mrs. J. B. Maxwell, Lubbock. Girl Scouts in the 18 county council will be selling the cookies through March 16. The price for the cookies will be 50 cents per box. The 100 or more Scouts in Muleshoe will be selling five kinds of cookies: chocolate mint, assorted sandwich, buttered cookies, peanut butter sandwiches and spice cookies.

Profits from the sales are divided between the troops and council. Council profits will be used for building and improving Camp Rio Blanco. The Camp is there for the entire Council. It is located northeast of Crosbyton and summer sessions begin in June. Each session will be based on the Girl Scout Program in the out-of-doors. Camp activities include crafts, hikes, swimming, songs, campfires, cook-outs, nature study and star gazing. Six sessions are scheduled for girls of various agegroups. While girls are selling cookies they will be wearing their Girl Scout or Brownie uniforms or pins. They will give each customer a window sticker indicating purchase and the scouts' name and address.

The best and easiest way to take care of the Girl Scout cookies is to eat them right out of the box, but for the ambitious housewife Muleshoe Girl Scouts have a few suggestions for you. The cookies are good if topped with a marshmallow and dot of butter and browned quickly under a broiler.

Running A Newspaper

"RUNNING A NEWSPAPER" as editorially defined by the Northwest Graphic in Oklahoma City:

A newspaper editor in Montana placed his tongue firmly in his cheek the other day and composed a list of answers to a questionnaire on what a weekly newspaper subscriber would like to read. Here are the responses to what the average reader desires to see:

1. My name.
2. A front page article showing how crooked the city government is most of the time.
3. My wife's name.
4. A feature article showing 25 ways on how to cheat on income tax forms.
5. My kid's name.
6. A local news item about the affair my neighbor is having.
7. A classified ad offering a new home for sale for $4,000.
8. More news about law-breakers.
9. Less news about law-breakers. I was picked up last night and I should not have to pay a fine.
10. An editorial condemning high school teachers for being too liberal with "F's."
11. A wedding picture of the groom instead of the bride when he is more handsome than she is pretty.
12. A sports picture of me when I bowled 183.
13. More advertisements on things that merchants are giving away.
14. A front page picture of my neighbor being hauled out of the bar by his wife.
15. A front page spread about the deadbeat who lives across the street from me who just had his car repossessed.
16. Forget the last one. I just got word from the finance company that they're coming after my car.
17. More letters to the editor naming the crooks we have in town.
18. A full page of local news, a full page of national news, 16 pages of sports, 26 pages of comics, one page on divorcees and three pages on all the domestic troubles we are having in town. 19. Less stuff about how cute anybody else's kids are. My kids are better looking than those you rave on about. 20. A complete biographical sketch about the "most important citizen in town," and be sure you spell my name right.

'Speeded Up' Lambing Program Works Well

McGREGOR -- Hopes are high for a "speeded up" lambing project here.

What amounts to, researchers at Texas A&M University's Livestock and Forage Research Center are getting more than the usual one lamb crop a year. They aren't necessarily getting 2 lamb crops a year, but have been getting about 3 crops in 2 years.

According to Dr. Maurice Shelton and Ed Huston, A&M researchers, sheep have only a 5 month gestation period. They say it is theoretically possible for sheep to lamb twice a year, and individual ewes have done this. But it is not possible or practical on a whole flock basis. They have worked out several schemes for speeded up lambing.

The first is continuous lambing. Here, they leave rams with the flock year - around. Using this method, the A&M researchers got a 156 percent lamb crop a year, compared to only a 100 percent lamb crop from ewes lambing once a year. (The figures mean the number of lambs raised in one year as a percent of the number of ewes). They say disadvantages of continuous lambing are that lambs will be irregular in age and size and it's impossible to manage ewes according to stage of pregnancy or lactation.

The second idea is rebreeding after weaning lambs early. With this method sheep raised a 140 percent lamb crop. One advantage this has over continuous lambing is that uniform lamb crops can be produced and ewes can be managed according to it also has the advantage that time of lambing can be controlled and where advisable, lambing at less favorable seasons can be avoided.

The third plan is the attempt to lamb twice a year. The

A&M researchers say this is probably not practical without using hormones at least once a year. These hormones are not generally available to ranchers now.

The researchers say the developments which have made speeded up lambing possible are: (1) control of screwworms, (2) widespread acceptance of early weaning and (3) increasing use of high concentrate rations in lamb feeding.

Open House Attended By 600 Persons

More than 600 persons called during open house Saturday and Sunday at Singleton Funeral Home, Inc. to see the new additions to the establishment and hear the dedication services at 3 p.m. Sunday in the Chapel of the Chimes.

A melody of chimes opened the dedication service in the new chapel which was filled to capacity. The organ prelude was played by Mrs. Elbert Hamilton and Rev. Troy Walker, pastor of the Trinity Baptist Church gave the opening prayer.

A scripture of dedication was read by Rev. J. W. Farmer, Assembly of God pastor before Walter Buice associate pastor and music director of the First Baptist Church sang, "How Great Thou Art."

Frank Ellis, local manager and co-owner, extended the initial welcome address, expressing appreciation to the townspeople for their assistance during the past years and to ministers who work closely with them in times of bereavements. C. V. Singleton, Seminole, president and co-owner of the Home also expressed his appreciation to the people for helping make the dedication and chapel possible as an addition and expanded facility for the people of the area.

Rev. J. Frank Peery, pastor of the First Methodist Church, gave the meditation while a melody of chime was played in the background. Rev. Peery, in his talk, told of the need for such a chapel here and of the ways it would benefit the families of deceased.

Rev. Don Murray delivered the dedication sermon and the prayer of benediction was given by Leroy Thompson, Muleshoe Church of Christ Minister.

"Bless This House" was the closing solo sang by Walter Buice, followed by the benediction given by Robert O'Leary, Immaculate Conception of Mary Catholic Church.

Father Clifton Corcoran, Vega, formerly priest for the Catholic Church here was a guest seated pastoral group on the rostrum.

Randy Beaty served as usher and guests were served by Mrs. Robert Hooten, Mrs. Horace Edwards, Mrs. Mervin Wilterding and Mrs. Ralph Douglas. Assisting with other hospitality were Mrs. Joe Gene Blackwell, Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Jerry Iley, Morton.

Once nematodes get at your cotton, yields go down and so do profits. But with FUMAZONE® 86 soil fumigant applied at only 1 to 2 gallons overall an acre, you can take care of root-knot, sting, meadow and other nematodes—those microscopic, worm-like soil pests that attack plant roots, suck away profits. FUMAZONE 86 soil fumigant increases yields up to 1/2 bale an acre. Many High Plains farmers just like yourself tell us that's exactly what happened to their yields after their soils were treated with FUMAZONE 86. It can be applied right from the drum. No mixing, no diluting, no nozzles clogged with foreign material. You can use the chisel method, the plowsole method or inject FUMAZONE 86 into your irrigation water. Could you ask for greater flexibility? Sure you could. So here it is. Apply FUMAZONE 86 before planting, at planting or after planting. It's the only type of soil fumigant that can be used on living plants. Ask your Dow farm chemical supplier about it. Farm Bureau News...

LEGISLATIVE REPRESENTATION

OBJECTIVES:

1. To represent farmers and ranchers at state and national level.
2. To execute policies adopted by membership at state and national level.
3. To keep membership informed of status of impending legislation affecting agriculture.
4. Coordinate activities of membership in executing policies.

In keeping with the Farm Bureau Objectives listed above, we bring the following issues to your attention. Governor John Connally addressed a joint session of the Texas Legislature on Thursday, February 2, to outline his recommendations on sources of new tax dollars to finance his budget recommendations for fiscal year 1968-69. One recommendation was repeal of the Colson-Briscoe Act which allocates $30 million each biennium to Farm-to-Market Roads. This would seriously deplete the available funds and almost completely eliminate the Farm-to-Market Road program.

The following bills of vital interest to farmers have been introduced to the legislature and referred to committees:

- I. S.B. 82 by Bernal, Wilson, Mauzy and others, a bill to establish a minimum wage of one dollar and twenty-five cents ($1.25) an hour for each hour and all hours worked during each work week is set for hearing before the Senate Committee on Labor and Management Relations on Wednesday, March 15, 7:00 p.m. in the Senate Chamber. This bill applies to farm labor.
- II. H.B. 457 by D. Jones, authorizing producers of any agricultural commodity to conduct a referendum for the purpose of determining whether or not to levy an assessment upon themselves by a vote of two-thirds of such producers to finance programs of research, education and promotion was introduced in the House of Representatives and referred to the House Committee on Agriculture. This bill further provides that the assessment shall not be more than one percent of the market value of each commodity; provides for collection of such assessments by processors, and a remittance by processors to the secretary-treasurer of each commodity producers' board; provides for a refund to producers on request if application is made within 60 days after date of payment; and provides that any assessment shall be terminated by a simple majority vote of producers in a referendum held upon the petition of 10 percent of the producers participating in the program.

May we remind you of your privilege and duty to contact your Senator and Representatives in regard to these issues which will directly effect the farmer. NOTHING LESS THAN TOTAL EFFORT WILL WIN.

Refresher Course For RN Planned

Announcement was made today of a special "Refresher Course" for Registered Nurses to be conducted at Methodist Hospital beginning April 3. This special "Refresher Course" for Registered nurses will be approximately six weeks in duration and will cover three hours per day, Monday thru Friday, for the six weeks period.

According to Miss Veima Heard, Director of nursing service for Methodist Hospital, the purpose in offering the "refresher course" is to make available up-to-date information for those registered nurses who for one reason or another have not practiced their profession in recent years and consequently have a reluctance to return to nursing because of the many changes that have occurred during their absence. The course which covers all phases of nursing, includes intensive care nursing and cardiac nursing, in particular will deal with new procedures and treatments, new equipment and drugs and in general cover those innovations introduced in the past few years.

The instructor for the course will be Mrs. Louise Linker, R. N., who is well known as a previous instructor in the Methodist Hospital school of Nursing and with the vocational nurses here in Lubbock.

The registration fee for the entire course will be $25.00. All registered nurses in the area presently unemployed who are interested in increasing and bringing up-to-date their skills are urged to attend. There is no obligation whatsoever in connection with attending the course. It is certainly hoped, however, that many registered nurses, upon completing the course, will choose once again to practice their profession in the South Plains area. Anyone desiring additional information concerning the "Refresher Course" should contact the Director of Nursing Service, Methodist Hospital, Lubbock, Texas.
