

RIDE THE SANTA LAND EXPRESS TO SANTA'S LAND SATURDAY

Kids can wear their pajamas and coats, just like in the movie "The Polar Express," when they come to ride Tahoka's version of the train ride – the Santa Land Express Blue Weed Special – this Saturday to see the Christmas lights at Tahoka Santa's Land. All area children and adults are invited to ride the five-car train provided by Leighton and Joan Knox, Starr and Todd Holland at Wildcat Mfg.

The train will depart between 6:00-8:00 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 14 from the Lynn County Showbarn at South 9th and Ave. K, drive through Santa's Land, and return to the showbarn. Children must be accompanied by parents or guardians, and dress warmly for the ride as it is an open-air train. If weather is icy or bitter cold, the event may be canceled.

Tahoka Area Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring this year's Santa Land Express. Admission is free, but sponsors will be accepting donations of boxes of pop-tarts, jars of peanut butter or monetary donations for the Tahoka ISD Kids Snack Pack program.

Cookies and hot chocolate will be served inside the showbarn, and a showing of the movie "The Polar Express" will be ongoing, for children waiting their turn for the train ride. Santa's Land is located at South 11th and Ave. O in Tahoka, and Santa and Mrs. Claus will wave to the children on the train as they tour the drive-thru park. The train will not stop to disembark children at Santa's Land, in order to return as soon as possible to the showbarn, to accommodate all children waiting to ride. However, once the train returns to the showbarn, parents may drive to Santa's Land in their own vehicles if they want to provide an opportunity for children to visit with Santa and Mrs. Claus.

Round 2: Icy weather again causes accidents

Icy weather again caused hazardous driving and traffic accidents in Lynn County over the weekend, starting last Thursday, in the second winter storm to hit the area in two weeks. Records at the Lynn County Sheriff's Dept., where dispatchers take calls for all law enforcement agencies in the county, showed there were 12 traffic accidents and two motorist assists from Thursday through Monday.

Lynn County EMS ambulances were summoned on 8 wreck-related calls. Most accidents occurred on U.S. 87, with a couple on FM 211. Details on the accidents were not immediately available, but a sheriff's office spokesman said most of the wrecks were on Thursday when the ice storm first hit. He also noted that while there were some injuries, no fatalities were reported.

Seven persons were jailed during the last week, and early this week the jail was holding 39 inmates, including 19 held for Ector County and 4 each for Dawson and Andrews counties.

Charges bringing the latest arrests included possession of marijuana, possession of drug paraphernalia, parole violation, and an application to revoke probation on conviction of driving while intoxicated second offense or more.

Rollover ... Lynn County law enforcement and emergency services were out in full force last Thursday when a winter ice storm descended on the area, responding to several traffic accidents, including this Suburban rollover (barely visible between the ambulance and sheriff's vehicle) on U.S. 87 just inside the FM 400 overpass north of Tahoka. The roads were extremely slick with black ice on Thursday, with traffic slowing to a crawl throughout the morning.

UIL changes to put Tahoka in Class AA

The Texas University Interscholastic League (UIL) has announced its bi-annual conference cutoff numbers, indicating that Tahoka will be in Class AA in athletic events next year.

The designation does not mean that Tahoka is moving up to stronger competition, however, as the UIL is renumbering all its classifications, starting a new Class 6A, and moving all schools up one notch. Current six-man schools now become 1A, current 1A schools including Tahoka become 2A, present 2A schools become 3A, and so on.

The cutoff numbers are as follows (high school enrollment figures):
6A—2100 and above.
5A—1060 to 2099.
4A—465 to 1059 (Division I, 686-1059; Division II, 465-685).
3A—220 to 464 (Division I, 315-464; Division II, 220-314).
2A—105 to 219 (Division I, 158-219; Division II, 105-157).
1A—104.9 and below (Division I, 55-104.9; Division II, 54 and below).

According to figures listed on a UIL website and recently submitted by schools as of one day in October, Tahoka's enrollment was 187, which would put Tahoka in Class 2A, Division I. O'Donnell with 71 and New Home with 62 would be in Class 1A Division I. Wilson's enrollment was not listed, but the Mustangs should be in Class 1A, Division II.

All Class 1A schools will continue to play six-man football.

New district alignments will be announced in February. Numbers turned in for other schools now in Tahoka's district include New Deal 209 and Hale Center 189. No figures were listed for Sundown or Lockney, but both reportedly were around 150, which should put them in 2A Division II and not in the same district with Tahoka.

Tahoka Supt. Steve Burleson said Tahoka possibly will be in a district with New Deal and Hale Center, plus Abernathy, Olton and/or Floydada.

Area schools listed that should be in Class 2A include Abernathy 212, Olton 175, Seagraves 150, Sudan 137, Ralls 131, and Plains 123. Post with 222 would barely miss being Class 2A, and would be in Class 3A.

Mock trial here is postponed

A mock trial presentation originally scheduled for Monday, Dec. 16 at the Life Enrichment Center has been postponed due to conflicting schedules, according to Tahoka Municipal Judge Mandi Duncan. More information will be printed as it becomes available.

Five homes featured in Parade of Homes Sunday

Five Tahoka homes will be featured in the Parade of Homes, slated from 6-8 p.m. this Sunday, Dec. 15, sponsored by Tahoka High School National Honor Society. A one-time $5 admission will allow guests to visit all five homes on the list, and all proceeds will benefit the Lynn County Christmas For Kids program.

NOW THAT we're about knee deep into the Christmas season, there are lots of Christmas movies on television, including some of the traditional favorites like It's a Wonderful Life and Miracle on 34th St. (In Lubbock, that means you drove 10 blocks on 34th without hitting a yellow barrier) and some newer films. Some of those newer ones are so similar as to be rather boring, but at least they are free of profanity, machine gunfire and cars blowing up.

Charles Dickens' Christmas Carol and several more modern variations of the same story are fairly easy to find on TV these days. One of the most famous sayings from that story is when Ebenezer Scrooge cries out, "Bah! Humbug!", giving his opinion of Christmas early in the story. This caused me to wonder what "humbug" meant, so I looked it up on my computer, which knows many things, and thinks it knows everything.

It said humbug as a noun means deceptive or false talk or behavior, and as a verb, to deceive or trick. (It also gave a second meaning as a noun, in Great Britain, as "a hard candy, flavored with peppermint." I don't think that's what Scrooge meant.)

A Webster dictionary defines humbug as "language or behavior that is false, or meant to deceive people." Like Obama saying you can keep your health insurance if you like it.

It also said that a "humbugger" is a person who claims to be something other than what he or she is. But I know better. A humbugger is a popular food item that often comes with French fries.

Four more file for election, making three county races in March primary

Three contested races for county offices will be on the ballots in the March Republican Primary, after four additional candidates filed during the final week of filing which ended Monday, Dec. 9. All candidates filing during the past week are running on the Republican ticket, according to information from County Republican Party Chairman John Baker.

Larry Durham and Michael White both filed during the last week for Pct. 4 Commissioner, running against incumbent Danny Martin who is also seeking re-election, filing previously. James W. "Rooster" Schwartz filed for Pct. 2 Commissioner, running against incumbent John Hawthorne for the election. Lynn County Treasurer Amy Schuknecht also filed for re-election, filing on the Republican ticket during the final days of the filing period.

The other locally contested race is for Lynn County Judge, with incumbent Mike Braddock (appointed to serve as County Judge) and challenger Mandi Tejada Duncan filing for the seat.

The following county officials filed previously, seeking re-election, and remain unchallenged: Pct. 1 Justice of Peace Nancy Guilliams, Pct. 4 Justice of Peace Ed Follis; District Clerk Sandra Laws; and County Clerk Susan Tipton. District Judge Carter Schildknecht also filed for re-election in the 106th Judicial District, which includes Lynn County.

It is believed that all candidates for Lynn County offices are running on the Republican Primary ballot. No information has been available from RosaLinda Gutierrez, the Lynn County Democratic Party Chairman. All the local candidates paid a filing fee for a place on the ballot, with the exception of two candidates (Mandi Duncan and Amy Schuknecht) who chose to file by petitions containing signatures in lieu of paying the fee.

Thank You! Lynn County Hospital has a special place in our hearts

I know I am a little late with my thank you to the hospital. But... now I have a bigger thank you!! As many of you know, Friday after Thanksgiving Kent had a heart attack. I didn't think twice when I rushed him to Lynn County ER. They took excellent care of him. Once they realized yes, he is having a heart attack, they sucked up their emotions and did what they needed to do. Shannon bent over Kent and asked him what hospital he wanted to go to, he told her he was at "THE HOSPITAL"!! She told him he had to go to a bigger one, he was having a heart attack. But that is how we feel, it is a hospital and it is OUR hospital! They had him medicated, packaged and out the door in a little over an hour (and that was us waiting on the helicopter to get there). Kent thanked the cardiologist upon our discharge at Covenant and he told him, "I didn't save you, that Tahoka hospital did. They gave you exactly the right medications and then got you here in a timely manner and I just cleaned it up. They saved you."

For many years we have been frequent visitors to the Lynn County Hospital. They have always been here for us. We have had lots of ER visits... Kash had seizures when he was little, Kent had a fish hook stuck in his hand, he screwed his fingernail into his finger, and a dislocated shoulder, then add all the trips for parents and grandparents. We have worn out the ER door!

We have also had many hospital stays. My grandfather had a stroke a week before my mom's death. They took such excellent care of him, but also were there for my Meme when we couldn't be. Granddad was a frequent patient there the year after. Then dad was there every few months. They spoiled him rotten! Melanie had such a way with him. She could make him think it was his idea to be there and up to him for how long he stayed each time. When we lost granddad and dad there, they all were there for us - knowing just the right things to say, and when we just needed a hug.

We have utilized the lab for many years. W.J. had weekly blood draws there and Meme still gets her blood checked and they just call her Cardiologist with the results. So nice not to have to spend the day in Lubbock waiting to get labs done.

Least I not forget EMS. We have had many rides over the years. You guys are awesome!

Thank you doesn't seem like enough! Each and everyone of you hold a special place in our hearts!

Blessings,
Mistie Kahl

This annual fundraiser lets community members send Christmas greetings to friends while contributing to the Lady Dobbins Stewart or Maurice Bray Scholarship funds to be given to local graduating Lynn County Seniors. This money is often donated in lieu of sending local Christmas cards.

Contributions may be taken to the First National Bank of Tahoka, along with the name of the donor, as it is to appear in the ad.

"Anyone unable to make the trip to the bank may call any Phebe K. Warner Club member to pick up your contribution," said a club member.
