One candidate files for sheriff's job; county now has Democratic Chair

by JUANELL JONES

One candidate has filed for the position of Lynn County Sheriff since the filing period opened on Nov. 14. Also, since last week, Heather Jester is the new Democratic County Chairman for Lynn County, which opens the field for locals who may want to file on the Democratic party ticket.

Abraham Vega, Chief Deputy with the Lynn County Sheriff's Office, filed for a place on the ballot for Lynn County Sheriff on the Republican ticket, County Republican Chairman John Baker reported.

No other filings, on either party ticket, were reported as of noon Tuesday this week, but the filing period remains open through Dec. 14.

Since last week, when The News reported that the county had no local Democratic chairman, Tahoka resident Heather Jester volunteered to serve as the Democratic County Chair, with the Texas Democratic Party officially notifying Lynn County's Election Administrator Susan Tipton on Nov. 13 of the new chairman.

"I just wanted everyone to have an opportunity to file with the party they preferred," Jester told The News this week. "Basically, I just wanted to make sure everyone is equally represented," she added.

There are five county positions that are up for election, as well as the District Attorney seat for the 106th Judicial District, which includes Lynn, Garza, Dawson and Gaines counties. According to the official Republican Party of Texas filing website, Philip Mack Furlow is the only candidate as of Nov. 16 to have filed on the Republican ticket for the DA seat. However, two other candidates, through advertising, have indicated they plan to file for the seat.

Local offices up for election include the County Sheriff, County Attorney, County Tax Assessor-Collector, and Pct. 1 and Pct. 3 County Commissioners. All are four-year terms that will begin Jan. 1, 2017.

Anyone interested in filing must first contact the Lynn County Clerk's Office (561-4750) to obtain a campaign treasurer form, to present to the County Party Chairman when filing for candidacy. To file for a place on the Republican Primary Ballot, contact John Baker at 806-561-5566. To file on the Democratic ticket, contact Heather Jester at 806-777-5176 or by email at hvester35@gmail.com.

The Republican and Democratic Primary elections will be held in March 2016, with the winners from the primaries having a place on the ballot in the Nov. 2016 General Election.

Theft, attempted burglary reported during past week

Theft of an air compressor and an attempted burglary of a rural home topped reports to law enforcement officials this week.

Lynn County Sheriff's Office had a report of an attempted burglary on Nov. 9, when a man taking care of a residence at FM 400 and County Road 18 told officers he noticed an interior light go on and off inside the home while he had stopped outside to feed the dog. Officers investigated but found no signs of forced entry, and the homeowners reported nothing was missing from the home.

On Tuesday, County Commissioner Keith Wied reported someone had stolen an air compressor valued at $800 from the bed of his pickup parked just west of Wilson, while he was stripping cotton.

Tahoka Police investigated reports of public intoxication, criminal mischief and domestic violence during the week. One man was arrested for public intoxication while he was at another person's home on Nov. 13, and a woman was arrested on charges of "intoxicated pedestrian" after she was observed outside the front door of the local funeral home early Tuesday afternoon.

The criminal mischief case involved a broken pole for a satellite dish at a location on South 1st Street. A woman in the 2100 block noticed her TV was not receiving a satellite signal and discovered that her satellite cable dish was facing down to the ground after someone apparently broke the pole, and a neighbor who shared the same satellite feed also said her TV was not working, on Monday night. No suspects were named, and the satellite dish company was notified.

Tahoka Police officers met with a woman being treated at Lynn County Hospital late Wednesday evening, who told police that she had been assaulted by her son. Officers located the son and arrested him on charges of assault domestic violence.

Lynn County Jail held 45 inmates last week, including 3 for Dawson County, 25 for Ector, and 17 for Lynn.

Community Thanksgiving DINNER

Community Thanksgiving dinner set here Sunday

The annual Tahoka Community Thanksgiving Dinner will be held Sunday, Nov. 22, at the Tahoka School Cafeteria. Meals will be served from 6:00-7:30 p.m. A traditional meal of turkey, dressing and all the trimmings, plus pumpkin and pecan pie, will be served.

The churches of Tahoka are providing all the food and volunteers to help serve the meals. Volunteers will also deliver take-out meals to shut-ins in the community, residents and staff at Lynnwood and patients and staff at Lynn County Hospital.

There will be prayers of Thanksgiving before and periodically during the meal plus music provided by volunteers from the local churches. Participating churches include: Tahoka Church of Christ, First Baptist Church, First Methodist, Gethsemane Baptist, Pleasant Grove Baptist Church, St. Jude Catholic Church, Sweet Street Baptist Church and Tahoka Trinity Church.

"It will be a wonderful opportunity for great food and fellowship, and we hope to see you there," said a spokesperson for the event.

Any shut-in who would like to receive a meal and wants to make sure their name is on the list should contact the Methodist pastor, Billy Everett, at 561-4503 or 215-6496.

Brit Lockaby named Newcomer of Year on All-District list

Tahoka High School football players named to the 2015 District 2-2A All District Football Team included quarterback Brit Lockaby as the District Newcomer of the Year, according to information released this week by Brandon Hopper, Head Coach and Athletic Director. Lockaby, a 5'11" junior, is the son of Todd and Kristi Lockaby.

"I am proud of all of our boys who made the all district teams. Brit was a dual threat that each coach had to prepare to defend each week along with his ability in the defensive secondary," said Hopper.

Also named to the All-District list were: 1st Team Utility Player and 2nd Team Punter - Hadley Reynolds; 2nd Team Wide Receiver - Juwan Hamilton; 2nd Team Inside Linebacker - Kevin White; and 2nd Team Outside Linebacker - Andrew Alvarez.

"Hadley was a true testament to being named utility player. He played wide receiver, quarterback, linebacker, corner and safety, along with kicking and punting. His versatility really helped us out down the stretch when we started having a lot of injuries," said Hopper.

Honorable Mention went to Luke Fleenor-Running Back; Ruben Quinonez- Offensive Line; Julian Rodriguez-Offensive Line; Colbe Perez-Wide Receiver; Nick Garcia-Wide Receiver; Tony Garcia-Defensive Line; Michael Farrell-Defensive Line; Jared Green-Defensive Line; and John Quinonez-Linebacker.

"Everyone's hard work and dedication this season paid off," said Hopper. "I always tell them that if they are putting the team before themselves, the individual accolades will take care of themselves."

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:
 Today, November 19, Lynn County Hospital District is celebrating National Rural Health Day. We celebrate this day along with other rural health-care providers throughout the nation who have made it their life's work caring for their rural friends and neighbors.

Americans living in rural areas depend upon their hospital as an important and often only source of care in their communities. Approximately 62 million people - nearly one in five Americans - live in rural and frontier communities throughout the United States.

Rural areas like Lynn County provide the rest of the country with a wealth of services and commodities. Rural hospitals like ours are perhaps the most critical resource utilized by citizens to meet their healthcare needs. We serve as the health and human service "anchor" or "hub" of our community, offering residents an array of services and providers in one location.

The hospitals and health-care providers serving rural communities not only provide quality patient care, but they also help keep good jobs in rural America.

We are one of the largest employers in the community and our financial stability has a tremendous impact on the community's economic health. It is interesting to note that Critical Access Hospitals like Lynn County Hospital make up 30% of acute care hospitals but receive less than 5% of total Medicare payments to hospitals. Today we use National Rural Health Day as an opportunity to bring attention to our local hospital, clinics, pharmacy, assisted living, EMS, and the health professionals who serve you.

Proclamation ... Pictured here are John Baker, Mayor and LCHD-EMS Director, Jannis Childress, LCHD Board President, and Jeff Barnhart, LCHD CEO, with a signed proclamation that declares Thursday, Nov. 19, as National Rural Health Day. The Senate and House of Representatives of the USA in Congress designated that Nov. 19, and the third Thursday of every November henceforth, be designated as National Rural Health Day. The proclamation notes that "being a rural healthcare provider provides tremendous opportunities to offer more comprehensive, compassionate, patient-centered and holistic care to patients. Ambulatory and EMS are especially critical in rural America, where 20 percent of the nation's population lives but nearly 60 percent of all trauma deaths occur." Lynn County Hospital and all of their other facilities are an important part of Tahoka and Lynn County, in providing health care.

Respectfully,

A look back at ... Woodwork

(Reprinted from the past) Dalton Wood

I REALLY LIKE submarine sandwiches, but the periscopes keep messing up my fillings. Wait a minute: What I meant to say was that while I was in Lubbock the other day, I decided to go into Mazio's for a submarine sandwich, because I really like the way they fix them. And I had one of those embarrassing moments.

The girl who took my order gave me a number and handed me a medium sized drink. I took drink and number to one of those little two-person booths they have a couple of rows of and sipped my drink while waiting for the sandwich. Gestation period on a ham and cheese sub sandwich is less than 10 minutes, and when they announced my number, I had drank about half of that Coke. I went up to the counter, got my sandwich, returned to the table and had eaten two or three bites before I noticed my drink was missing. It just wasn't there any more. I had seen the manager out busing tables, so I figured that when I got up to get my order, he thought someone had finished and picked up the remainder of the drink and cleaned the table.

So I went back up front and explained to the girl what had happened. She apologized and gave me another drink. I went back to the table and my sandwich was gone. But the drink I had originally was back on the table. "Your sandwich is over here," the girl said, pointing to another table in the same position in another row. Yeah. The first time I had gone back to the wrong table.

Anyway, I now had two drinks, a sandwich and a red face. I finished and left in a hurry before some of the employees came and volunteered to help me find the door.

A GIANT SPIDER is prowling the neighborhood in the north part of Tahoka. This monster, estimated by those who have seen its web, must be at least a foot or two tall. Nobody has seen this creature, so it apparently is invisible. His web also is invisible, except to a privileged few who have viewed it under just the right circumstances.

I am one of those who have seen a web, covering my entire front yard. But it can only be seen at 6 p.m. in the evening, looking west into the setting sun. Then you can see this fine web all over the grass. If the sun isn't shining, you can't see it. Even then you can see it better standing on your head looking west, or at least from a ground-level view.

I called a couple of my neighbors and asked if they had seen any webs covering their grass. None had, and one remarked (tactily, I thought) that she couldn't see any on my grass, either. Another said he hadn't noticed any webs because he's afraid to get too close to the grass, especially in his back yard, which he said has grown up so high there may be lions and tigers and possibly giant spiders in it.

Actually I got the impression that all of them were questioning whether there was a thread of truth in my web story. But the webs are there, honest. It's just that they are invisible, you see...

TMS OAP wins 1st in District, cast wins 7 acting awards

The Tahoka Middle School One Act Play had a great performance Saturday, Nov. 14, winning first Place in District at the OAP (One Act Play) competition in Sudan. They won seven of the 18 possible acting awards, more than any other school in the competition.

Eula Tomamao and Bryson Stone won Best Actress and Best Actor, respectively. Molly Broun, Bryan Barnett, and Nick Ayala were named to the All Star Cast; and Rachel Fleenor and Rogelio Garcia were named to the Honorable Mention All Star Cast.

"It is very rare that one school receives both the best actor and actress award - that is quite an accomplishment for those two," said Zachery Kocurek, theatre teacher at TISD. "Not only did they win many awards, but, for the second year in a row, took first place. The judge had many positive things to say and praised our kids on the level of commitment and teamwork they showed. Tanis (Blount, OAP assistant) and I could not ask for a better group of kids this year; we have been blessed with a lot of talent and it truly showed on Saturday."

Other students in OAP included Aaron Olivan, Nicodemus Ayala, Aubrey Clark, Sean Reed, Caleb Erickson, Ryan Olivan, Madison Rose, Jaclynn Moore, Ragan Whitley, Jody Nevill, Joey Herrera, Alexander Herevia, Karlie Swinford, Maribel Garcia, and Amy Tew.

Art Exhibit

Young artists were beaming with excitement to show their artistic creations at the City County Fall Art Exhibit Friday, November 13. A total, 50 drawings were displayed by artists ranging from 4th to 12th grade. Many from the community were enchanted by their work. Some of the drawings displayed a sense of humor, others great attention to detail, still others burst with imagination. The artists demonstrated a willingness to attempt something new, something out of their comfort zone, thereby expanding their vision.

The City-County Library was especially pleased to see so many guests come to the Fall Art Exhibit and support the young budding artists of Lynn County.

Special thanks to Paris N Bloom for donating the lovely flowers for each of our Artist.

Gobble, Gobble, Gobble

At the City-County Library there was lots of gobbling going on, that is the way it goes around this time of year. The children heard "10 Turkeys in the Road" by Brenda Reeves Sturgis and "Fancy Nancy, Our Thanksgiving Banquet" by Jane O'Connor among other favorites. After stories and silly songs, the children created their own little turkeys at craft time.

Preschool children are welcome to join in the fun at Story Time this week on November 25 at 10:30. The theme will be Cooking up Characters. The children will see what they can cook up for the holidays.

Adult bow making class

The City-County Library is having a Bow Making Class for adults Monday, December 7 from 5-6 pm and each attendee is asked to bring your own ribbon. The library is displaying examples of the types of ribbon that will make your bow tying experience much easier. There will also be a gift-wrapping demonstration.

Contact the Library to sign-up for this class.

Library Christmas Open House

Christmas Open House at the City-County Library will be held on Thursday, December 10, from 5-7 pm with Santa Claus making an appearance. Santa's elves will be hard at work creating Santa's Workshop. The Library would like to invite Lynn County families to bring their children to see Santa in his Workshop. Take

Trustees still considering bond issue for district facility renovation project

Tahoka Independent School District Board of Trustees are still considering possibilities for renovating school facilities and a possible bond issue, with both issues prominent in last Thursday's board meeting. Prior to the regular session at 6:30, trustees met in special session at 5 p.m. on school grounds to see for themselves the problem issues they have heard reported to them through various presentations in recent months.

Board President Dr. Cathy Box and trustees Scott Dimak, Brenda Dotson, and Clay Taylor toured the district's facilities in the special session. The tour was led by campus principals, along with representatives from Parkhill, Smith, and Cooper who performed the district's facilities Needs Assessment, and Joey Barrientes, TISD Maintenance Director. The tour adjourned at 6:15 p.m. in order to begin the regular board meeting.

For the regular session, trustee Matt Woodley had joined the meeting, but trustees Jim Bingham and Abraham Vega remained absent.

The board heard a presentation from Dr. Gene Sheets, former Muleshoe ISD Superintendent and current LCU professor, regarding his research findings on successful bond programs.

Trustees also heard a report from Terry and King, CPAs, P.C., regarding the Annual Financial Audit which they conducted for the district's 2014-15 fiscal year.

The board heard reports from campus principals, the Athletic Director and Family Consumer Science Teachers Whitney Wilson and Amy Izzard. Principals recognized outstanding employees for the month of October and those teachers/paraprofessionals recognized students they had selected as follows: Elementary—teacher Nancy Greenhill and student Mikey Duran; Middle School—Teacher Kristi Lockaby and student Riley Cook; and High School—Teacher assistant Tilda Carrasco and student Elizabeth Calzoncit.

The board met in closed session for an hour, under Texas Government Code 551.071 for the purpose of seeking and receiving legal counsel regarding the interpretation and application of certain District complaint policies. Consultation was provided by David Backus, district legal counsel. No action regarding complaint policies was taken after trustees returned to open session for the remainder of the meeting.

Trustees approved minutes from the previous board meeting, and approved the Texas Association of School Boards' Policy Update 103, affecting a number of local policies.

Dr. George McFarland, Superintendent, presented a report showing that Tahoka ISD has 100% highly qualified teachers as required by NCLB legislation.

Amendments to the 2015-

Walls going up ... Concrete block walls were being erected last week on the addition to the Lynn County Animal Shelter, located on the southeast corner of the square in Tahoka. The new addition will connect to the current facility, and will include laundry/restroom facilities, as well as space for medical supplies, a small office, cat facilities, storage, and medical treatment area. The work is being done by Eddie & Ruddy Masonry. (LCN PHOTO by Juanel Jones)

16 school calendar were approved, which gives more holidays for students. The newly adopted calendar applies the new instructional requirements imposed by House Bill 2610 as adopted during the 84th legislative session which require 75,600 minutes of instruction instead of 180 days of instruction. With that adjustment, there will be additional student holidays/teacher workdays included in the second semester of this school year. The newly adopted calendar can be found on TISD's website home page. Also, copies will be sent home with students to their parents.

The board approved local policy changes as a result of a recent policy audit (July 2015) conducted by the Texas Association of School Boards with district administrators and the TISD school board. The policy audit was conducted because it had been since 1995 that the last policy audit was done on TISD. Suggested practice is to have local policies audited and adjusted to remain current about every seven years, according to Dr. McFarland.

The next board meeting was set for Dec. 10 at 6:30 p.m. Prior to that meeting, at 6:00 p.m., the board will hold a Public Hearing to distribute information regarding its final financial ratings as presented in the district's Financial Integrity Rating System of Texas (FIRST) rating.

Commissioners approve 2014-15 County Auditor

Commissioner John Hawthorne moved to approve the proposal from Gary, Bowers and Miller to conduct the 2014-2015 audit in the amount of $29,400. Commissioner Blair seconded the motion with Commissioner's Wied and Durham voting in favor. Meeting was adjourned at 8 a.m.
