$7 Million Being Mailed To Bailey Farmers

Bailey County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service began mailing out checks totaling more than $7 million in government payments to farmers within the county participating in the government's agriculture program.

Charles Daniel, manager, said payments would continue to be mailed from now until about September 15 when it is thought the process would be complete. The payment money is to farmers reporting their planting decisions up to the first day of August.

Most reports have been mailed into the regional office for payment and should be returned here by the middle of September for payment. Checks will be mailed as they come in.

Wheat payment checks total around $300,000,000 while cotton heads the list at $5 1/2 million followed by feed grain payments of about $1 1/2 million.

Daniel said payment this year would not total as much as that of last year, although the exact figure of last year's payments were not readily available.

Lamb County payments on the farm program is nearing the $10 million mark. Chief office clerk at the ASCS office said a breakdown on crops for the payments was not available.

Cochran County's payments, also in the process of being mailed is totaling near the $2 1/2 million figure. Breakdown figures from these two counties on each crop were not available as ASCS managers were out of the offices.

An estimated total of more than $9, has been paid in Parmer County. On 100,000 acres

Each principal, in turn, introduced each teacher, by grade level and other personnel of the school for which they serve as principal.

Guest speaker was Dr. Berlie Fallon, education Department of Texas Tech. Dr. Fallon used as his subject "Challenge of Change" or "Profile of a Master Teacher."

Generally speaking, Dr. Fallon expressed the need for a change in student-teacher relations. Times and the knowledge of the students flowing into the classrooms all but demand an improved teaching method in order not to impede the "traffic to higher education". Knowledge is doubling at a rapid pace, according to statistics, Dr. Fallon reported. The teaching of 1950 was not adequate for 1960 and that of 1960 will not meet the standard for 1970, he pointed out.

Some of the things which are coming which will demand that the updating challenge be met is the talking typewriter, used for teaching reading and writing and the library computer, enabling a student to pick, by computer, a subject which will be tape, film or printed matters, supply the needed data and television will also soon be used extensively in teaching.

Postal Service Day Planned

Postmaster Spencer Beavers reported today that Postal Service Day, September 18, will highlight those services offered to the community by the local post office.

On Postal Service Day, letter carriers will begin delivering to every household a kit of eight postal cards which can be mailed back to the post office to obtain the Zip codes for "zipless" addresses.

Each completed card will be sent to the post office which services the address needing a Zip code. There the proper five-digit number will be added before the form is returned to the sender.

No postage will be needed on the cards. Postal services day activities will be designed to point out that the Post office department is the one Federal Government agency that comes in closest contact with the public on a day in-day out basis.

The postal service is the prime artery of commerce and the tie that binds friends and loved ones across the miles. It is one of the biggest businesses in the world with interests ranging from swearing in Peace Corps volunteers, to watching out for forest fires, and it is the main shipping agency for everything from bees to baby chicks.

"Delivery of the Zip-a-List kit during the celebration of Postal Day is in keeping with the event," Beavers said. "Zip

"To me, we have three types of schools: the type cast in one mold with one way of doing things and if the student did not fit the pattern, he was out; the 19th Century school with the grade levels mixed and teachers teaching more than one class in the same room and the quality school where the teacher knows the student and the student is considered an individual.

Dr. Fallon gave five images of a Master Teacher. In the first example of such a teacher he told of the teacher understanding the attitudes, problems and emotions of the students they teach and stressed that anyone needed to feel approval and success in what they were doing to attain a goal. He pointed out that a person was emotional before rational.

In the second term, a master teacher will recognize the two-way process of communication. In explanation, he compared the situation to that of a radio not only having a transmitter but a receiver and if the teacher uses 90 percent of the classroom time then that leaves only ten percent of the time to be divided among the number of students in the class. The art of developing expression of the student was stressed in the communication phase of teaching.

Individualism was the third point on the subject. This can be accomplished by encouraging the student to be creative. In comparing individuals and their needs, Dr. Fallon used a Supermarket which contains the basic needs of each person, then the wide selection of each person, then the wide selection of other items desired by that individual which should not be suppressed. "Grass on the lawn is all alike and can be mowed all at the same time, however, working the flower beds is altogether different. Each plant must be cultivated and treated differently to thrive and attain its natural maturity.

The fourth point of the master teacher was the willingness to try new methods and develop a spirit of pride in newly launched efforts. Mistakes will be made, but can be used as a springboard for improvement. Older teachers are found to be more willing to

Mules' Work Cut Out With Manpower Short

With only 25 boys composing the roster of the Varsity and "B" team for the Mules this year, the outcome of the season could be classified as highly unpredictable in many respects.

"We have a few good athletes, but not nearly enough," Coach Dick Stafford said.

"Barring injuries, we feel like we can field 11 good players, however, key injuries could hurt us tremendously."

One of the problems is the lack of experienced quarterbacks and offensive team is highly important. With the few players in training, where teams usually run in at least eight new players on the team, most of our team will remain on the field through play. Mule offense has no depth.

Three possibilities in starting quarterback are Terry Field, Johnny Embry and Ronnie Barrett.

Two strong running backs are showing up in Bobby Julian and Charles Beamon. Prospective ends are Treavor Ford, Roy McCormick and David Dillman. Showing up good as starting full backs are Roger Swint or Alfred Bleeker with Doyle Linville close behind as a good prospect.

Those making up the interline prospect list are Larry Reasoner, Jerry Lumpkin, Joe Pat Riley, Stan Johnson, Steve Oliver and Cary Purdy.

In Saturday's scrimmage game with Quannah played at Floydada, Roger Swint made his impression with taking part in 90 percent of tackles made.

Defense player making a good showing to date have been Terry Field, Joe Pat Riley, Steve Oliver, Charles Beamon and Bobby Burge.

"If more boys do not come out for football, we will not be able to play "B" team football. I admire these boys who came out for football and have a tremendous respect for them for accepting this athletic challenge. There are many able-bodied boys strolling around the school campus and could be good football players.

These boys could still come out for football and play "B" string." Coach Stafford said.

Remember Jim Vaughn, Anyone?

Anyone remember Jim Vaughn? This guy came to the Journal this week from Richard Amandes, 3306-39th Street, Lubbock.

Amandes said: "Can you tell me what became of Jim Vaughn, baseball player of many years ago, who came from Muleshoe and showed promise in big leagues, then faded from the scene?"

The writer requested any information concerning Vaughn which could be gathered. Many of the baseball fans of several years ago have been contacted by the Journal staff and failed to turn up any information. Anyone knowing about Vaughn may call the Journal or send the information to Amandes.

POWERHOUSE TAKEOFF--- This is a glimpse of part of the Mule powerhouse. On take-off from the line here are Steve Oliver, Stan Johnson and Phillip Barron. They have been in training for the past two weeks getting ready for the first game to be played here at 8 p.m. September 8 with Dimmitt. The Mules will see a lot of action this year, both offense and defense and should be good at the game before the end of the season.

they will be handled essentially as ordinary postal cards, there will be no burden or dislocation of service. "The ultimate result will be an improvement in service." Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien has said about the project. "Zip Code is the base upon which the modern postal service is being built. But, it won't work and the modernization and efficiencies Zip Code will bring cannot go into effect until there is more widespread usage of the five-number code.

"The Zip-A-List project is the most dramatic aspect of our continuing campaign to make Zip Code ready and available to the public. Last year, approximately 17 percent of the nation's householders returned 96 million addresses for coding. The Postmaster General reported that many postmasters had informed the Department that the Zip-A-List project was an important aspect in making Christmas mailers aware of the importance of using the codes on their holiday mail and as an off-shoot, encouraged early mailing of their gifts and cards. This resulted in the most successful holiday season in recent postal history. Extra kits will be available at the post office.

Price Urges Grain Action

Rep. Bob Price was one of the six Republican members of the House Agriculture Committee's Subcommittee on Livestock and Grains who today urged Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman to raise the price at which the government sells feed grains and soybeans to 100 percent of parity. On wheat the release price should be set at full parity minus the value of domestic certificates paid for by wheat processors, the GOP group said. Price pointed out that the present policy of the Commodity Credit Corporation is to sell its stocks of wheat and feed grains back into the market at 115 percent of the loan level plus carrying charges. In the case of wheat, this is $1.44 per bushel, and in the case of corn it is $1.21 per bushel. In the case of grain sorghum it is $1.85 per cwt. Soybeans are released at 105 percent of the loan level, or $2.62 per bushel.

In the letter to Secretary Freeman, the Panhandle Con-adopt new methods and a new concept of teaching. The final master teacher image was found in the dedication to teaching as a career. Teachers are oft called the "mother of professions," as they educate all the forthcoming teachers, doctors, lawyers and persons of all professions. It is through illustration of this dedication that instills the desire in others to become teachers. Susie Tanner provided music for the luncheon.

gressman stated that clear legislative authority for such action exists, and in spite of his long-standing opposition to this method of improving grain market prices, they urged that he take this action immediately.

Under the proposal, government-owned wheat would be sold for not less than $1.87 per bushel, corn for not less than $1.63 per bushel, grain sorghum for not less than $2.58 per cwt., and soybeans for not less than $3.31 per bushel.

"I sincerely feel that the Secretary of Agriculture could materially improve the present grain price situation if he would take this action, and I certainly hope he will do so immediately," Price said.

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm comes up with an odd idea this week, but it's not the first time.

Dear editor:
I was looking over a three-weeks-old newspaper I found in some weeds out here on this Johnson grass farm yesterday--you know, there's a lot to be said for a paper that old, what was headlined as a major crisis then by now has turned into something you can hardly remember, and you can relax and read worry-free.

At any rate, over on an inside page I read about a murder trial where it already had taken five weeks to pick a jury and they were still three short. I presume they finally made it, but that's beside the point. I thought of something else.

I talked with a neighbor who got called to jury duty some time past and he said as he understood it, the job of lawyers on both sides was to find 12 people who didn't know anything about the case.

With newspapers, radio and television going 24 hours a day, not to mention women, this is getting harder and harder to do.

Therefore, I have a suggestion for the courts. Why not specialize? If you're going to send some men on a space flight, you don't go out on the street and pick up a few, do you? Of course not. You pick them carefully ahead of time and then keep them in training.

The same would work with juries. What the courts ought to do is pick 12 fair-minded, reputable men interested in a jury career and sign them up for say a four-year term. Lock them up in comfortable quarters pay them first-rate salary, feed and exercise them carefully, but don't let them find out anything. After all you never know what citizen, however prominent, may be involved next. No newspapers, no radio, and no newscasts on television, just Gunsmoke and sports and soap operas if they can take them.

With 12 men with fresh minds and completely out of touch with everything, every case could go to trial immediately, or as soon as the lawyers on both sides got through with their customary delays. Just get set, get the judge in place.

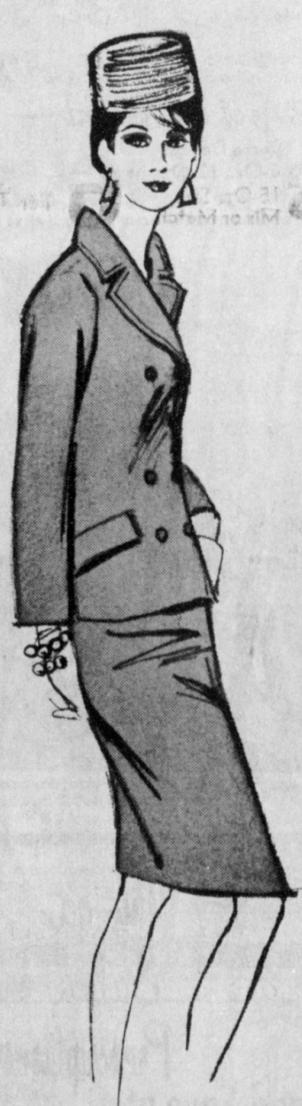

call for quiet, then open the door and let the 12 in and start the testimony.

In the long run I believe this would be cheaper than bringing in 75 to 150 people every time a trial comes up and spending a week getting down to the 12 who know the least.

I doubt if this would work, but if you've ever spent any time on a jury panel waiting

Vows Read in Lampasas Church

MRS. TRENT ALLISON LANCASTER

Miss Mona Faye Rucktashel and Trent Allison Lancaster of Lampasas were united in Marriage Saturday, Aug. 19 at First Street Church of Christ in Lampasas.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Rucktashel of Lampasas and is granddaughter of L.F. Rucktashel and the late Mr. and Mrs. M.F. Cooper of Littlefield. She is the niece of Mrs. Earl Dow, Mrs. Leo Barton and Mrs. O.G. Lunsford, all of Littlefield.

The groom is son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lancaster of Lampasas.

Clay Mims of First Street Church of Christ officiated for the double ring ceremony.

The bride, presneted in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk linen and clipped Chantilly lace. The empire lace bodice was designed with a scalloped bateau neckline and bell shaped elbow sleeves. The slim A-line skirt of silk linen was accented in back by a Chantilly lace train falling into a chapel sweep. Her veil of French illusion with bands of scalloped Alencon lace fell softly from a princess crown of lace medallions beaded with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of Frenched mums centered with a white Camellia and surrounded by greenery, and wore a strand of pearls.

Mrs. David Jackson of Lampasas served her sister as matron of honor; Miss Dyna Rucktashel of Lampasas, also sister of the bride, was maid of honor; and bridesmaids were Miss Linda Renick of Austin and Mrs. Tommy Ivy of Houston. Mary Beth Rutland of Lampasas was flower girl.

The attendants wore floor length aqua sarrenta silk-linen dresses with Chantilly lace bodices and elbow length scalloped lace sleeves with matching draped rose headpieces and circular tulle veils and carried bouquets of white spider mums outlined in greenery.

Ringbearer was Michiel De-ward Jackson of Lampasas, nephew of the bride. Candlelighters were Tom Lancaster and Zane Lancaster, both brothers of the groom, of Lampasas.

Best man was Dale Lancaster of Lampasas, also brother of the groom, and groomsmen were Jimmy Faubion of College Station, Lowell Murrah of Belton, cousin of the groom, and Johnny Cunningham of Winert.

Ushering guests to their seats were James Robbis Storm of Abilene, cousin of the groom; Gary Hobson of Kermit and Jack Dow of Littlefield, cousin of the bride.

A cappella wedding presentations of "Oh Promise Me," "Some Enchanted Evening" and "The Lord's Prayer" were presented by Miss Lynda Taylor of Abilene, a student at Abilene Christian College.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents, and hosted by them.

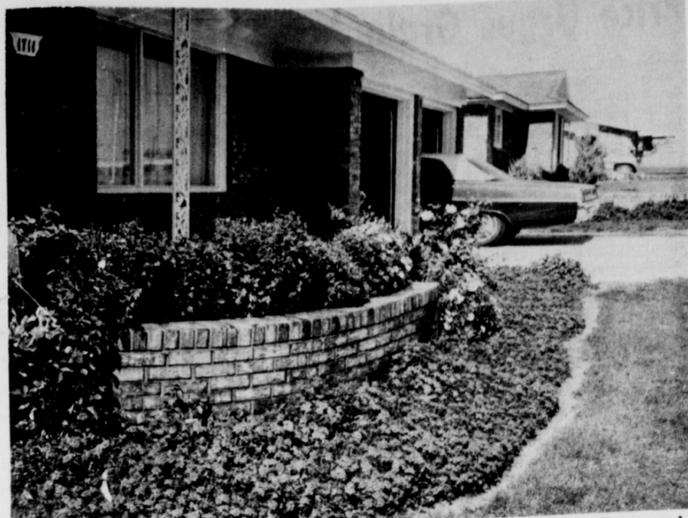

Members of the houseparty were Mrs. Houston Jackson, Mrs. Edward Lewis, Mrs. Earl Dow, Mrs. James Masten, Mrs. Ken Rutland, and Mrs. J.B. Parsons.

The reception table was covered with a hand-made lace cloth over pale aqua. The three-branched candelabra and bridesmaids' bouquets decorated the table. The three-tiered columned wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom, encircled with aqua roses. Servers were Connie Lancaster, sister of the groom and Lynda Taylor of Abilene.

For the wedding trip to Austin, the bride chose a mauve linen sleeveless sheath dress with bone accessories and the Camellia from the bridal bouquet.

The newlyweds will be at home at 542 E.N. 16th in Abilene.

The bride attended Muleshoe High School, Lake View High of San Angelo and graduated from Lampasas High School in 1964. She is a senior at Abilene Christian College at present.

'Unusual Watering System' Key to a Beautiful Garden

Mr. and Mrs. Buford Hunt who now reside at 1711 West Avenue G have one of the most beautiful lawns in our city. It is hard to believe that the Hunt's have been in their new home for only one year.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt have lived in the Muleshoe area for 34 years. They lived in the Circleback community and made their home in the Longview community for the past 25 years. Hunt farmed Southwest of Muleshoe and retired last year. The couple have three children, Cloyce working with the forestry service in Hamilton, Mont.; Joyce who is married to Bill Hunter, now in the service, Warner Robin, Georgia; and Robert Hunt engaged in farming in the Muleshoe area. The Hunt's have three of their grandchildren visiting in their home, Shelia Renee, Curtis and Rori. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt attend the Trinity Baptist Church. They have always had a flower garden and one of the most unusual features used, Hunt said,

"We use an underground watering system to get the full benefit of our water. Also we use some iron and sulphur." Hunt

UNDERGROUND WATER --Hunt installed an underground watering system in all of his flower beds.

Mr. and Mrs. Buford Hunt have several reasons to enjoy their beautiful yard, three reasons are their grandchildren, who frequently find time to visit. From L to R are Buford Hunt and Shelia Renee, Mrs. Hunt and Tori and Curtis.

Tour of Cities Enjoyed by Family

Mr. and Mrs. Harlon Redwine, Allen, Micheal and Mrs. Sallie Stigler, Tahoka spent a weeks vacation touring parts of the United States. From Muleshoe, they visited Oklahoma City and were given a tour of the city, by the Chamber of Commerce there. They went then to Fort Smith and on to Eureka Springs to view the seven story statue of Christ, overlooking the Ozark Mountains in Arkansas.

They also visited cities in Missouri and in Ozark, Missouri they were presented a handdrubbed Fruitwood Salad Bowl set courtesy of the Chamber of Commerce.

installed the watering system. The Hunt's garden consists of several different types of flowers. Some varieties as Dahlias, Roses, pink and white Canas, Verbenas, Cushion Mums, Bluebonnets and Crysanthemums. Growing among the flowers are some tomato plants and peach trees, all which contribute toward a lovely garden.

Enchanted Water

Unless you once hand pumped water from a well, you may never fully appreciate the contribution rural electrification has made in providing running water. Rural water systems are commonplace now. Electricity pumps the water to the storage tank. Electricity pressurizes the supply. Electricity summons the water instantly for your household needs.

The member-owned BAILEY COUNTY ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE furnishes low-cost electricity for an enchanted water supply while Helping Texas Grow.

Dedication Service Set For Sudan Methodist Church

Dedication of the new First Methodist Church facilities at Sudan is scheduled for Sept. 3, when Bishop O. Eugene Slater of San Antonio, who has jurisdiction over some 400 Methodist churches in the western half of the state, will dedicate the building and preach at the 11 a.m. service.

Other featured activities of the day will include lunch at the Sudan High School cafeteria from 12:45 to 2:30 p.m. and Open House in the church Fellowship Hall from 3 to 5 p.m.

More than 250 former members, pastors and friends of the church have been invited to participate in the dedication day event.

Construction on the new modern church plant began in 1958 and was completed in 1961. With only 250 members and active participation by approximately half that number, the $165,000 structure now has been paid for, according to Rev. Robert Brown, current pastor of the church.

Rev. Brown explained that Methodist Church rules preclude dedication of a church until it has been completely paid for.

Four pastors who served the church during the building program will be special guests for the dedication program. They include Rev. Ellis Todd of Wellington, pastor when the educational building--first part of a two-phase building program--was started. Erected in four units, it was completed in 1960.

Also to be special guests will be Rev. Grady Adcock of Lubbock, pastor in 1960-61; Rev. S. Frank Weir of Lubbock, pastor from 1961 to 1964; and Rev. Jack Riley of Amarillo, pastor from 1964 until succeeded this year by Rev. Brown.

The second phase of the building, which included the construction of the sanctuary, began in 1960 and was completed in 1961. A consecration service was held Oct. 22, 1961, with Bishop Paul V. Galloway of San Antonio in charge.

Mrs. C.M. Furneaux of Sudan is a charter member of the church still holding active membership in the church, and will be given special recognition in the dedication program.

Mrs. Furneaux traced the beginnings of the church to a small group which met and organized a union Sunday School in a two-room frame building in Sudan in 1920.

Tax Man Sam Sez:

Several thousand young men and women who graduated from college in June accepted jobs with the Internal Revenue Service. First the young graduates were sent back to school to learn all about taxes. Since early July these young people have been going to an Internal Revenue Service school. They are learning the fundamentals of how to do tax work and how to determine whether the taxpayer owes more tax or is entitled to an additional refund because he failed to take all his deductions. We can all wish these fine young Americans every success, but we hope that they always talk to our neighbor about his taxes instead of us.

AUSTIN, -- Texas Department of Public Safety has issued a grim warning that 45 people will die in state traffic accidents during the Labor Day weekend.

DPS will make an all-out effort to curb wrecks and to stop reckless and illegal driving on the highways, says Col. Homer Garrison Jr., veteran director of the law enforcement agency. Approximately 150 uniformed officers from other services will supplement the regular highway patrol force for the long holiday period -- Friday, September 1 through Monday, September 4.

In addition, a coordinated effort involving several state agencies and private organizations will be directed toward holding down the fatality and injury list.

Texas Safety Association will conduct a public information program stressing the need for courtesy and caution on the road and urging drivers to remain alert. TSA Vice-President W.F. Leonard will coordinate efforts of 12,000 Junior Chamber of Commerce members operating 200 rest stops which will serve free coffee to tired drivers.

DPS plans to carry on its educational program via newspapers, radio and television and will distribute maps showing highway construction sites.

A fleet of 35 to 40 cars to assist stranded motorists over the state will be operated by Texas Council of Safety Supervisors and Texas Motor Transportation Association. Purpose of the "holiday road patrol" is to relieve highway patrolmen for enforcement work.

"There is always the possibility that the estimate of 45 deaths for this period can be proved to be too high, but only if all drivers put forth every effort toward avoiding traffic accidents," Col. Garrison said. Meanwhile, DPS has announced radar sets will be placed pay raise from $1 to $1.25 an hour.

Voters in bond elections will be required to sign affidavits they own property and to identify the property.

Write-in votes will be outlawed in primaries except for party offices, like county chairman.

Only opposed candidates will have to file campaign expense statements.

Voters again must register between October 1 and January 31. All voters must sign up (including citizens over 60 in cities of less than 10,000 population).

MAIF Members Host Luncheon

Muleshoe Area Industrial Foundation members were hosts for a luncheon held at Amarillo Club Thursday, August 17. Special guests were representatives of Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, General Telephone Company, A-T and Santa Fe Railroad, Southwestern Public Service and Pioneer Natural Gas Company, industrial allies who assisted in supplying material for the MAIF Facts book compiled by Texas A & M.

Harmon Elliott, MAIF chairman, express appreciation to these companies for services rendered and the clinic they conducted here early in the Foundation endeavor in assisting the Muleshoe area group learn what was to be offered here as industrial sites and possibilities.

Each group was presented a copy of the Facts Book for their industrial reference file.

Attending from Muleshoe were Mayor W.B. LeVeque, Bob Jones, R.Q. Botkin, Creston Favor, Jim Berry, L.B. Hall, Jeff Peeler, Dr. Charles Lewis, Don Harmon, Harold King, Ralph Douglas, Harmon Elliott, Myron Pool, Sr., Horace Holt, Judge Don Cihak and M.D. Gunstream.

Representatives of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce were Don Hileman and Carroll Pouncey and Lee Resing, industrial development manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

Pioneer Natural Gas representatives were C.I. 'Stoney' Wall, president and M.D. Edquist, vice president, Amarillo.

From Southwestern Public Service were Roy Toke, president; Roger K. Owens, industrial development department; Sam Thomas, Jr., Agriculture development department manager; Frank Lee, photographer; Larry Milner, area development manager all of Amarillo and J.M. Collins, Plainview and Warren Douglas, Littlefield, both district managers.

Representing AT and Santa Fe Railways were Francis Stuppie, general manager and W.V. Cooknell, district freight manager, Amarillo.

General Telephone Company representatives were Jim Covell, San Angelo and J.H. Kehoe, district manager, Littlefield.

Television coverage of the meeting was carried over Amarillo channels as the meeting was considered unique in the fact that these companies supply such information for many cities and towns but this was the first time an appreciation luncheon had been hosted for them at their headquarters city, rather than the city industrial committees inviting the group to travel to their towns.

Just a note to thank you for allowing us to be a part of one of the finest gestures I have ever seen.

You did an outstanding job of running the meeting, and I heard many compliments on the luncheon and especially on your remarks. Thanks again. And please call on me if there is anything I can ever do.

Best personal regards,

Farm Bureau News...

IS IT BASED ON CHRISTIAN PRINCIPLES?
IS IT GOOD FOR OUR NATION?
CAN WE AFFORD IT?
DOES IT MEAN MORE FREEDOM?

At the District II Farm Bureau Policy Development Meeting held in Lubbock, Thursday, August 24, these were the basic rules which we were urged to use as a measure in developing 1967 policies. Mr. Warren Newberry, American Farm Bureau Fieldman, who spoke to approximately 200 people attending from 19 county Farm Bureaus, made this statement, "Don't we wish many of the un-American organizations which are active today would have used these rules as a guide in organizing?"

Other speakers scheduled on the program were Craig Thomas, new executive assistant to the Texas Farm Bureau president, and Ed McKay, Texas Farm Bureau legislative director. Those attending from Bailey county were: Policy Development Chairman, Jack Schuster, Ed Little, Morris McKillip, Lester Howard, Ben Cockrell, Agency Manager and Rowena Watson, Office Secretary. An office secretary conference was held in conjunction with the Policy Development Meeting.

President James Warren has announced that during the month of September, Bailey County Farm Bureau, under the leadership of Chairman Jack Schuster, will be formulating county resolutions which will be adopted at the Annual County Meeting. Final arrangements for the Annual Meeting will be made at the next Board of Director Meeting which will be held Thursday, September 7.

Veterans Q's and A's

Q -- I presently have a loan on my 30-Pay Life National Service Life Insurance policy. Is it possible to make an additional loan on this policy?
 A -- The amount you may borrow is limited to 94 percent of the present cash value of your policy. If your present loan is in an amount less than 94 percent of the cash value, you may make an additional loan up to that limit.

Q -- I was in service from October 1953 to September 1957 I plan to purchase a home with a GI loan. I have heard something about a funding fee. What is this?
 A -- This applies only to veterans who have eligibility for GI loan arising out of military service performed since January 31, 1955. These veterans must pay a fee of one-half of one percent of the amount of the loan to the lender. The lender then submits it to the VA. Since you had service during the Korean Conflict period, you will not be required to pay this fee.

Q -- My husband, a World War II veteran, died recently. I applied for the proceeds of his National Service Life Insurance, only to be informed by the Veterans Administration that I was not the beneficiary. I need this money badly as I have three children to support and educate. Is this money lost to me?
 A -- It may be. The VA must pay the proceeds of NSLI policies to the beneficiary last designated by the insured, even when this results in an obvious inequity. It is sad but true that many veterans neglect to keep this beneficiary designation up to date. In your case the situation can be resolved in your favor only if the named beneficiary recognizes the unfairness and can be persuaded to assign all or part of the proceeds to you.

Q -- I am enrolled at the University of Arkansas under the GI bill for the 1966-67 term. I plan to attend the University of Missouri for the 1967 summer session. What must I do to obtain VA educational assistance for the summer session?
 A -- Submit a request to the VA Regional Office for a change of program or school. This should be done early enough to permit the issuance of a Certificate of Eligibility prior to your enrollment in the new school.

Q -- I attend a business school under the provisions of the New GI Bill. Is it necessary that I continue to report my classroom attendance to the VA each month?
 A -- Yes, your certificate and that of an official of the business school is necessary each month to insure prompt delivery of your checks. Use the pre-punched IBM card mailed to you by the VA for this purpose.

WILDLIFE AID
 Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall has announced that federal aid to states for fish and wildlife restoration will total $20.6-million. The funds will be available at the beginning of the new fiscal year which is July 1.

DAIRYMEN AUTOMATE OPERATIONS--The labor situation, generally short for the last few years, has caused dairymen to use automated equipment wherever possible. This, says Shannon Carpenter, Extension area dairy specialist, has greatly increased the capital investment per farm but has made it possible for a single worker to care for more cows.

While the number of dairies has decreased, the number of cows per herd shows a sharp upturn, says Carpenter. But, he adds, despite the labor-saving revolution in agriculture, the dairy farm continues to require a lot of labor at milking time. Man-power is required to move the cows in and out of the milking area, to do the milking, feeding and clean-up.

Since a man who is qualified to operate a grade A dairy makes a good employee in industry, many dairymen have lost their help in this way. While many new industries are moving to Texas and creating new jobs and milk drinkers, the situation has made it more difficult to keep good dairy help on the farm, explains Carpenter.

Unfortunately, he adds, we haven't been able to close "old bossy" down on Friday night and start her up again on Monday morning. Labor is required on a regular schedule twice each day, and every day of the week. As dairies become larger in total number of cows milked and milk produced, they will be better prepared to give time off and perhaps use more than one shift in their operations.

Carpenter suggests to dairymen who are considering a change in their milking system, an investigation of the herringbone system. Such a layout, he says, provides for faster and more efficient milking; makes more efficient use of labor and a lower cost in building per cow.

Washington Report

From Congressman

BOB PRICE 18TH DISTRICT, TEXAS

1223 LONGWORTH OFFICE BUILDING, WASHINGTON, D. C. • 225-3706

Riots and near-anarchy over the nation in recent weeks have emphasized the crisis in law enforcement in this country. The very ability of government to maintain law and order and to provide personal safety has been challenged. There is an apparent need for assistance to and improvement of local law enforcement in many areas and the updating of criminal justice and the techniques of correction and rehabilitation.

In addition to an anti-riot bill recently passed by the House-- I was one of its co-sponsors -- and investigations already underway by both House and Senate Committees, The House is now debating the Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice Assistance Act of 1967.

I cannot agree with the contention that the Attorney General should have authority to promulgate regulations and Properly amended, this bill could be an important step in the establishment of a Federal program to provide assistance to local law enforcement agencies. Unfortunately, the Administration bill that was originally submitted contained the standard Great Society formula. It would stifle local initiative and direction and place maximum Federal control in the hands of the Attorney General.

In an effort to improve the bill, the Republican members of the Judiciary Committee were able to obtain several amendments including:

- a. An appropriate judicial review provided in cases where the Attorney General cuts off funds.
- b. Congressional oversight on the operation of the data bank.
- c. The direct Federal payment of regular police salaries was banned.

Another amendment I will support is one to provide essential state coordination and eliminate the Federal Government's power to dominate and make other determinations as to population size for participation.

The present emergency demands that meaningful and appropriate Federal assistance be given to state and local law enforcement agencies. However, this crisis must not be used as a vehicle to place Federal control over state and local police administration and to lay the foundation for a centralized Federal police force. Therefore, additional and essential safeguards on the broad powers of the Federal Administrator should be adopted.

Law enforcement and criminal justice administration are primarily local responsibilities. Crime is essentially a local problem that must be dealt with by state and local governments. Even the Attorney General has stated, "We would hope to have all the States really working for a fully comprehensive plan for the State." Any provision or measure that would upset or reverse this historic concept must be avoided. The recent riots have reemphasized the basic fact that the State and its designated agencies must have the primary responsibility for coordinating the law enforcement effort within a state. Certainly, experience under the "poverty" program has demonstrated that failure to coordinate Federal activities with state activities creates serious financial and administrative problems.

I also believe that the bill should provide for the establishment of a National Institute of Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice which in turn would be authorized to establish regional training institutes. Amarillo Air Force Base might well be considered for such a regional institute.

Improved training of local and state law enforcement officers in riot prevention, suppression and control as well as new techniques for combating organized crime are needed. Such institutes could also teach improved methods for crime detection, prevention, prosecution and rehabilitation and do so without dominance by the Federal government.

In the face of a crisis that threatens to undermine the confidence of Americans in their own government, this bill, if properly amended to eliminate Federal dominance, will be a first step in the restoration of effective law enforcement and respect for law and order.
