Tahoka 3-D Band marches in Area contest, narrowly missing chance for State berth

The Tahoka 3-D Band competed last Saturday in Amarillo at Dick Bivins Stadium at the Area A 2A Marching Contest against 23 2A bands from the Lubbock, Amarillo, Midland-Odessa, and El Paso regions, making the Area finals and narrowly missing an opportunity to advance to the UIL State Marching Contest in San Antonio at the Alamo Dome, November 6.

"Tahoka had a great draw and was the last band to perform in the prelims at 5:00 p.m. They placed 9th and were in the final ten in the finals where again they were blessed with a great draw and marched last at 9:00 p.m. The ten finalists were competing for the top four spots to advance to state. The Tahoka 3-D Band came in at 5th at Area, missing by one advancing to State. Panhandle, who marched just prior to Tahoka, came in fourth. If there had been just two more bands competing in the prelims, than Tahoka would have advanced to State," said Director Carroll Rhodes.

"We are so proud of these young people and how they stepped up in the finals. They have overcome a lot this year and that is why we refer to them as inventive and resilient. Forty percent of the band were first time marchers, flags were added for the first time in 22 years, and they had to overcome all the construction distractions and a band hall with little storage and plywood for a back wall. To come this close to the State tournament is amazing," stated directors Rhodes and Burse.

$600 field goal attempt missed

The prize money continues to build and will be up to $700 for the 20-yard field goal kicking contest at the final Tahoka home game on Nov. 9. Johnna McNeely had the winning program to try for the kick at last week's game, and she asked Paxtyn Gwin to kick for her. While his practice kicks on the sidelines were making more than 30 yards just prior to his attempt, his actual kick missed the mark in the Tahoka Area Chamber of Commerce kicking contest for the $600 prize money.

Look for a bright yellow sticker on an ad inside the Nov. 9 football program for a chance to kick and win the cash prize! Come early for a program, because the kicking contest will take place BEFORE the 7 pm kickoff of the final game.

A look back at ... Woodwork

by Dalton Wood

SPOOK NOW or forever hold your peace. Well, maybe not forever, but for another year, because Friday night is Halloween.

It's a holiday I could do without, but not because I think it's satanic. The celebration has much to do with warding off evil spirits, but it's mainly for kids, and for them it's just a fun thing, and therefore worth having.

Halloween, a word derived from "Hallowed Evening" or the night before All Saints Day, is celebrated in the Western world, mostly in the U.S., Canada, Ireland, Puerto Rico, Japan, New Zealand, United Kingdom and parts of Australia, according to the encyclopedia Wikipedia.

It is not celebrated in Iran, Iraq and the other Arab nations where they wear goofy costumes all the time and sit around thinking up evil things to do to Americans every day of the year.

Halloween supposedly comes from an ancient Celtic festival which marked the end of the harvest season in Gaelic culture. "The ancient Gaels believed that on October 31, now known as Halloween, the boundary between the living and the deceased dissolved, and the dead became dangerous for the living by causing problems such as sickness or damaged crops... costumes and masks were also worn at the ancient festivals in an attempt to mimic the evil spirits or placate them."

So that's where the masks and costumes and beliefs in the living dead come from. I know a lady named Gail (Gael?), but she's never told me any of that stuff.

The carved pumpkin, lit by a candle inside, called a jack-o'-lantern, originated in Europe, where the lanterns were first carved from a turnip or rutabaga. Believing the head was the most powerful part of the body containing the spirit and the knowledge, the Celts used the "head" of the vegetable to frighten off any superstitions. The Irish have a legend of "Stingy Jack," a hard-drinking old farmer who tricked the devil into climbing a tree and trapped him by carving a cross in the trunk. In revenge, the devil placed a curse of Jack, condemning him to forever wander the earth at night with the only light he had, a candle inside a hollowed turnip.

That's the best use I ever heard of for a turnip, although some people actually eat them. Anyway, in America, pumpkins are a lot easier to carve out than turnips, so many families carve a pumpkin into a frightening or comical face and place it on their doorstep after dark. The light inside keeps burglars from tripping over the step.

from illness more quickly, but it won't prevent you from getting or spreading the flu virus. Even healthy people can be infected and spread the flu virus without showing symptoms.

Myth: The flu vaccine is only necessary for the old and very young.

Fact: The CDC recommends flu shots for everyone six months and older, ideally by the end of October. Getting vaccinated later in the flu season - through January or even after - can still be beneficial. It is important to start early in the season for children, as two doses of the vaccine may be necessary, with the shots given at least four weeks apart.

Myth: Getting the flu is not that serious.

Fact: The CDC reports that more than 200,000 people are hospitalized from flu complications each year, while 36,000 die from it. Reducing the risk of flu is especially important for people who have certain medical conditions, such as asthma, diabetes or chronic lung disease; and for pregnant women, young children and people 65 and older. Even for people without those complications, flu symptoms can disrupt work, school or social life for several weeks or more.

Standard or High Dose Flu Shots now available at LCHD facilities

Fall has arrived, and so has the annual flu season. While flu - or influenza - is most serious for older Americans and people with certain chronic conditions, influenza can affect people of all ages and lead to hospitalizations, significant health complications and even death. The flu vaccine is recommended for patients that are 6 months and older.

Lynn County Hospital District, and its clinics, now have both the Standard and High Dose flu shots available.

"We have had a delay in receiving flu shots partially due to the hurricane situation," explained Mandy Graves, MSN, RN, Chief Nursing Officer at Lynn County Hospital District. "Our allotted shipments have been sent to the East coast and to Florida and we have been bumped to the back of the line. This week we received the last of our flu vaccine order."

"Another reason for the delay is that we opt for the Quadrivalent flu vaccines. This shot has protection against four different flu viruses. It covers two Flu A strands and two Flu B strands. This allows our patients to have a broader protection," Graves said.

In the past LCHD has offered what is considered the standard flu shot (or Trivalent) flu vaccines.

"This vaccine is still available and is part of the reason you have seen that other facilities have had flu shots available and we have not. This vaccine only covers three different viruses, H1N1, influenza A and influenza B. There is commonly more than one strand of influenza B that circulates and this vaccine only gives you coverage against one," Graves explained.

High dose flu shots are available for patients that are 65 or older.

"We recommend the high dose vaccine for ages 65 or older because it contains four times the antigen. This shot helps the population that may be at higher risk build immunity to the virus faster," she said.

Flu circulates from October to May. It has a sudden onset and can last for several days. As many as 35 million flu cases are expected this year, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). The peak months are December through February.

"The Flu Vaccine can help prevent you from contracting the virus, make the virus less severe, or keep you from spreading it to other members of the community," Graves said. "There is no live virus in the vaccine and it will not cause you to have the virus. It takes two weeks for your body to build up protection but it will last you through the flu season," she added.

Most people have likely had the flu at some point - with symptoms such as a constant cough, sore throat, a runny or stuffy nose, body aches, headaches and fatigue - yet many myths and misperceptions remain. Following are five myths and facts about the flu vaccine:
Myth: Flu shots don't really work.

Fact: The flu vaccine reduces the risk of contracting and spreading the disease by up to 60 percent, according to the CDC. The vaccine's effectiveness depends on multiple factors - including the amount of time between vaccination and exposure to the disease, your age and health status - yet studies show that the flu vaccination benefits public health, especially when the vaccine is well matched to that year's circulating viruses.

Myth: I got vaccinated last year, so I should be good for this year, too.

Fact: The flu virus changes each year, so flu vaccines change to keep pace. Plus, the body's immune response to a flu vaccine declines over time, which means a yearly vaccination is the best option.

Myth: I exercise and eat healthy, so I don't need to get vaccinated.

Fact: It is true being healthy may help you recover

Cows on US 87 cause accidents

by JUANELL JONES

In Lynn County Sheriff's Office reports this week, one traffic accident was caused by cows on the highway, and another caller claimed she hit a mountain lion on US 380.

At 9:11 p.m. last Friday, a woman called in a request for motorist assistance east of FM 179 on US 380, but when the deputy arrived on the scene she claimed she had hit a mountain lion with her vehicle about a mile east of where she was parked. She advised the animal had damaged the bottom of her vehicle, causing it to break down. DPS was notified to work the accident. No injuries were reported, and the driver was not identified in the call sheet report.

At 1:05 a.m. Sunday, a caller advised he had hit a cow less than 4 miles south of Tahoka in the northbound lanes of US 87. He said multiple cows were out on the road but he believed he had only hit one with his 2007 white Dodge one-ton dually pickup. Blaine Bills of Dayton, TX, driver of the vehicle, said he was not injured but a passenger had hit her head and was bleeding. Lynn County EMS and Tahoka VFD were called for the injury and to assist with traffic control. Upon arrival, a deputy also reportedly hit a cow with his vehicle, but the only damage was a flat tire.

At 5:27 p.m. Saturday, a caller reported a silver Chevy pickup weaving on the road on US 87 near CR 28. A Sheriff's deputy located the vehicle, and the driver was arrested for driving while license invalid.

Tahoka VFD was paged out at 5:14 p.m. last Friday for a small grass fire in the bar ditch at CR 26 and US 87, reportedly caused by a blown out tire.

Lynn County Jail held 43 inmates during the past week, including 26 held for Ector County, 7 Lynn, 7 Dawson, 2 Cochran, and 1 for Crosby County. Local charges included two for possession of drugs or drug paraphernalia.

Getting a late start after recent rains created soggy fields, Lynn County area gins are kicking into gear this week processing the 2018 cotton crop. More than 8 inches of rain in October, and 7 inches in September, caused delays in harvesting this year's crop, and many area producers are just now beginning their harvest.

Texas Star Gin in Wilson actually began ginning on Oct. 6, with Junior Carlton bringing in the first bale for processing, but rain delays created a pause before picking up again this week. The gin has processed 720 bales as of Tuesday morning this week.

Ralls hands loss to Bulldogs 42-35

The Ralls Jackrabbits handed a tough loss to the Tahoka Bulldogs last Friday, winning 42-35 in the district clash at Tahoka's Kelley Field. The Dogs will travel to Lockney this week, and then will host Smyer in the final district game on Nov. 9.

Ralls scored the first TD of the night, at 6 minutes left in the first period, on a 33-yard run. Four minutes later, Tahoka answered with a TD on a 2-yard run by Malik Hamilton, and PAT by Javier Zuniga. The Jackrabbits scored the only TD in the second quarter, to lead 14-17 at the half. In the third, Ralls added another TD and led 21-7 going in to the final period.

The Bulldogs answered with four touchdowns in the fourth period, but Ralls added three TDs as well. Tahoka TDs were scored by Braden Stone completing a pass to Hamilton for 26-yards, a 43-yard run by Soul Moore, and Braden Stone completing another TD pass to John Stone for 45 yards. In the last minute, Hamilton ran for a 1-yard TD.

"It felt like we played a really tough game and battled until the very end," said Coach Stephen Overstreet. "We were able to come away with big stops and get key turnovers when we needed to and our offense hadn't found its stride yet. Our offense goes off in the 4th quarter and then our defense couldn't get the key stop that we needed."

"By far this was the best atmosphere and most physical game we have played all year. Obviously coming up short is very disappointing but we still have goals of making the playoffs and winning a playoff game this season. Thanks for all the support and we hope to see everyone in Lockney this Friday," Overstreet added.

Pass attack ... Braden Stone (9) looks for a receiver in the Ralls-Tahoka game Friday night, with some good blocking from Bryson Resendez (51), Alexander Herévia (34), Manuel Soto (55), and Cameron Tekell (54).
