Indians End Season In Game Tonight; Throckmorton Wins

It will be the swan song for Coach Jiggs Hudson's Indians tonight when the local eleven takes the field against the Seymour gridders in the season's final game. The Indians will be after their second victory in the conference race, having defeated only Albany, 20 to 7.

Striking twice in the second period last Friday night, the Throckmorton team staved off an Indian rally in the fourth quarter in the second after a series of passes and bucks had moved the ball deep in Haskell territory. A pass accounted for the score. A hidden-ball play brought the visitors their second touchdown shortly afterward. From their own 20-yard line, Throckmorton backs faked the defense out of position while one of them hovered over the ball. When the path was clear, he skittered the 80 yards without trouble. The play clinched the ball game.

Governor Gives Thanksgiving Proclamation

Now that the war is over, Texans should observe Thanksgiving wholeheartedly on Nov. 22, Gov. Coke Stevenson said in an official proclamation from Austin.

"Since the earliest days of our country, it has been customary to set aside in the harvest season of the year a day of thanksgiving for the blessing and bounty of Almighty God. The observance of a day of thanksgiving is the oldest and one of the best of our American traditions.

"Thanksgiving Day, 1945, offers an opportunity for public expressions of gratitude because our country is no longer at war. For the last three years the day has been observed in a limited sense; our prayers of thankfulness have been mingled with prayers of supplication for peace. The day of victory has dawned and our hearts are humbly grateful that the onslaught of war is at an end. The long awaited day for many has arrived, the day when absent loved ones can return to families and friends, to a land filled with peace and plenty.

"Parts of the world recently devastated by war will see no harvest season. Our own people are thrice blessed in a land of bounteous harvest, where freedom abounds and liberty of conscience holds sway.

"The fourth Thursday of November in each year has been set aside by our National Congress as Thanksgiving Day and is a legal public holiday throughout the country.

"Now, I therefore, Coke Stevenson, Governor of Texas, do hereby proclaim Thursday, Nov. 22, 1945, as Thanksgiving Day and a legal holiday in Texas. I invite the citizens of Texas to observe this holiday in such manner as will show our appreciation for the blessings which are ours. I urge that the United States and Texas flags be displayed in public places and on public buildings to signify our gratefulness for the privilege of living in this land of freedom and opportunity."

"IS THAT IN THE RULE BOOK?"

Whether it's football or business, Americans expect fair play all down the line. In football, the referee is there to see that the game is played according to the rules. But he's not supposed to run with the ball. In business, the referee is the government, which establishes regulations and fair practices. But when government goes into business and competes with its own citizens, the American tradition of fair play is set aside. The referee then becomes a player, and he enjoys advantages that are denied to all the other players in the game. Government-owned electric power systems, for example, pay no taxes. When they need capital, they get your tax money at little or no interest from the U. S. Treasury. To cover operating losses—an accepted political condition—you, as a taxpayer, will take care of that. Business-managed power systems—unlike tax subsidized political methods—do not have these special privileges. They are not tax dodgers, they pay their full share of taxes, pay fair interest on public loans. Fortunately for you and your tax bill, over 80 per cent of all the electric power in this country is produced by tax-paying, self-supporting electric companies, owned and operated by several million folks like you.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

CARDUI, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like aches and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Take a CARDUI, it should stimulate appetite, like a tonic, and thus help build resistance for the "times" to come. Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try it!

ANNUAL PICTURES TAKEN
Annual pictures were taken last Wednesday for our 1946 Annual.
Gee whiz, everyone sure looked swell; the boys with their cute little ties, especially. We are all counting on having an Annual to beat all we have ever had in the years past.

FOOTBALL SWEETHEART ELECTED
The football sweetheart, Elaine Pennington, was elected last week.
Elaine is also the Editor-in-Chief of the Warwhoop and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curt Pennington.
Congratulations, Elaine, and we are proud of you.

JUNIOR NEWS
Those drum majorettes and that drum major are really slinging those batons around and it is rumored that the band will play for the Seymour game.

If you see the students of HHS
going around with a cheesy grin, you'll know the photographer has been here for the Annual pictures.

The Junior Class wishes to extend their sincerest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pierson on the death of their son, Alfred Carrol Farmer.

Nell King was elected Sweetheart of the Junior Class to represent it Friday night. Wow!

Eddie Bess, don't be one.

Junior girls be good to your "men." The football banquet is just two weeks off.

Congratulations to Elaine Pennington from the Junior class on being elected Football Sweetheart.
Aren't Haskell boys just too manly looking in their ties. Why couldn't they always look that way? Swoon!

"SOPHOMORE SOUP"
Attention, girls! Better be good to your boy friends. The banquet is just around the corner!

Congratulations! To You Sweetheart and Hero! You're swell!

The Sophomore theme writing

We wonder how the Annual pictures will look? We wonder?

FRESHMAN FABRIC
Well, those Freshmen know their goods cause this morning they elected the super chick, Elizabeth Grissom as the Freshman princess. Boy, Abe sure must be lucky to have a girl like that.

If you are wondering how those detention slips are coming out just ask Mayme and Gayla as they seem to be keeping Mrs. Weaver company this week.

A number of few books have been ordered so watch this space for book reviews.

BAND NEWS
Plans are still being made for the Band to play at the game Friday night. High School Band members are to be dressed in black and gold since the uniform are to be issued.

HOME EC NEWS
The Homemaking Club met for the first time on September 20 and elected the following officers:
President, Ernestine Bird; Vice-President, Nelle King; Secretary,
Bonnie Faye Edwards; Treasurer,
Minnie Lee Holloway; Reporter,
Ruth Greene; Parliamentarian, Raynell Godfrey; Pianist, Anita
Jo Pitman; Song Leader, Genele
Bailey; and Sponsor, Arlene Birdwell.

On October 4 we had a business meeting and elected our honorary sponsors who are: Mrs. Bill Richey, Mrs. Tom Davis, Mrs. S. M.
Royall, and Mrs. J. U. Fields. We also selected a name for our club and it is called the "Florence

Fields Chapter of the Future
Homemakers of America".

Our next meeting was on Oct.
18. We elected candidates from each class for the Favorite Future Farmer race. Also, we decided on a gift for the winner.

November 7, we had an interesting style show. Mrs. Merchant spoke to us on the English style of the days of Queen Victoria.
Girls modeled dresses brought with her to America that she had worn in girlhood. She told us several interesting experiences, and the program was enjoyed by all.

The year books have been made and are now being sold for ten cents each.

We have our meetings planned for the entire year, and we feel that our club will be a success.

STUDENT COUNCIL MEETING
The student council of Haskell
High School had their first meeting for this school term Oct. 12.
They decided to put two hall monitors in the hall, from two of the classes, each week. The purpose of the monitors is to help keep order in the halls between classes.

The council also discussed organizing the Annual and elected the Annual staff for this year.

The council has big plans for the school and we know it will be a success.

FFA NEWS
The FFA Chapter is planning a party and inviting all Homemaking girls. The party is planned for Nov. 19. All arrangements will be made at the next officers meeting.

Greenhand initiation has had no certain date set, but will be in the next week or so.

Mr. Stone and Ervin Frierson have taken their calves to the show at Dallas. They will be back next Monday or Tuesday.

STARDUST
How good were you last week with your guessing? Well, here are the answers: Freshman, Evelyn Linville; Sophomore, Glynn Marugg; Junior, Dorothy Toliver;
and Senior, Earl Ross. This week we have four more charming pupils of Haskell High School.

First comes the Senior. She is brown eyed, brown hair, and a figure to go with it. She has a beautiful complexion and a pug nose. She works at Berry's and runs around with an ex-Senior.
Who is it?

A black-headed, brown eyed Junior boy is next. He is tall and has lettered in football one year.
He was President of his class last year and this year. This year he is treasurer of the Student Council. Who is it?

Our Sophomore is a very popular girl from the country. Her Freshman and Sophomore years she was put up for FFA Sweetheart. She is known as one of the "Simple Six." She is brown headed with green eyes and a charming personality. Who is it?

The Freshman is a blond headed, blue eyed boy. He has just enough freckles to be cute. He plays football, and he is in the FFA. The strongest hint I can give you is that he is up for F. F. F. Who is it?

NEWS NOTES
The Executive Committee of the Boy Scouts of America for Haskell County met in the lunchroom of Haskell High School Thursday night Nov. 8 at 7 for a feed and to make organization plans for the year.

The Haskell County Committee
is very enthusiastic about the work for the year as outlined by Paul Ireland, Boy Scout Executive from Abilene. The new Field Executive for Haskell and Jones Counties, Mr. Harrison, was present and presented a very fine film on Scouting. We are looking forward to a very successful year.

The patrons of Haskell schools and all people of Haskell are cordially invited to see Elorene the Glean on the HHS stage Monday night Nov. 19. This young girl is a World War II honorably discharged service man and an excellent entertainer. Don't miss his performance.

The faculty of Haskell schools is looking forward to parents visiting the school Friday Nov. 16.
We shall try to make you feel welcome. We desire to organize a High School Parent-Teacher Association if it is the desire of the patrons of the school. At least we can become better acquainted with you and you with your child's teacher.

The Seymour game Friday night at 7:30 on Indian Field is the last of the season. Let's see if we can fill the stadium and show the boys we are behind them all the way. Come on, fans, show your spirit!

Weekly Health Letter

AUSTIN, Nov. 14—With the approach of cold weather, Dr. Geo.
W. Cox, state health officer, has issued some timely advice concerning room temperature and its relation to health.

"It is very important that inside temperature be maintained at around 68 to 70 degrees," Dr. Cox said. "Thousands of homes are continually overheated in the winter, and a degree of heat is often demanded that would not be tolerated in the summertime."

In a room that is overheated, the body pores are open, and the moment that the outside temperature is encountered, much harm may result. Colds, influenza, bronchial troubles and even pneumonia may take advantage of this bodily abuse, and take a serious toll in sickness and even death.

"An inside temperature of from 68 to 70 degrees is not only more healthful, but actually more comfortable," Dr. Cox said. "When, cause it goes right to the seat of the flamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

CREOMULSION

added to these factors, the resulting economy is considered, it might be well to check up and see what your thermometer reads. A room temperature within the range suggested, plus the careful maintenance of proper humidity, will help to prevent needless sickness and protect the good health of your family."

Boys, if you're tired running around with holes in your socks, get married. The wife will soon teach you how to darn them.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Medford Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Medford celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at the home of their daughter, Mrs. William Thane, Route 3, Stamford.

Mrs. Medford, the former Minnie Ola Green, was born in Marshall, Texas, and Jack Medford was born in Rusk, Texas.

The couple was married Nov. 3, 1895, at De Leon, Texas, with the Rev. John Strickland reading the ceremony. They moved to Haskell County Nov. 14, 1901, where they lived until they recently moved to Stamford to make their home with their daughter.

Their three sons are: Marvin, Harvie, and Guinn Medford, of Haskell; two daughters, Mrs. Frank Underwood of Haskell, and Mrs. William Thane of Stamford. They have twelve grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Friends and relatives were invited to attend in the afternoon from 2 p. m. until 4 p. m. Chrysanthemums and various flowers decorated the living room and dining room.

Mrs. Medford and her daughters wore black dresses with corsages of gold chrysanthemums.

Mrs. William Thane and Mrs. Guinn Medford greeted the guests at the door. Mrs. Frank Underwood registered the guests in the pretty golden anniversary book. Gifts were received by Pansy Nell Hammer, a great-granddaughter.

After registration, favors were pinned on at the dining room door by Flossie Laverne Medford, a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Medford.

A large cake with "50th Wedding Anniversary" inscribed on top was used as a centerpiece on the dining room table. Punch, mints, cookies and sandwiches were served. Mrs. Jack Tidwell, Mrs. Harvie Medford and Mrs. Marvin Medford were in charge of the dining room.

After returning to the living room a short program was given with Mrs. Colen Hammer and Mrs. Charles Hansen in charge. A short talk was given by Rev. H. G. Hammer of Haskell. Two songs were sung by a duet, followed with a piano solo by Norman Lee Thane, then "Where We'll Never Grow Old" was sung by Mr. and Mrs. Medford's five children, accompanied by Mrs. Colen Hammer on piano. "Home Sweet Home" was sung with everyone joining in on the chorus.

Many lovely and useful gifts were then displayed. The remainder of the afternoon was spent talking with old acquaintances.

The children present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Underwood and son Medford Underwood, Mr. and Mrs. Colen Hammer and children Pansy Nell, Jackie; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Medford and children, Joel Jack, Leroy, Buster; Mr. and Mrs. Harvie Medford and children Johnny, William, Austin; Mr. and Mrs. Guinn Medford and children Flossie Laverne, Bobby, all of Haskell; Mr. and Mrs. William Thane and son Norman Lee; Mrs. Mrs. Charles Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tidwell, all of Stamford. The only one unable to attend was Charles Hansen, S. 1-c who is with the Seabees on Saipan.

If the earth did not rotate on its axis the sun would rise and set but once during the year.

You can always tell a single man because he has no buttons on his shirt. And a married man because he has no shirt.

ATOMIC BOMB PRAYER BY SENATE CHAPLAIN The Rev. Frederick Brown Harris, Senate chaplain, topped all members of Congress in earnest eloquence when he got around to the atom bomb. "We tremble," he prayed, "at the possibilities for evil that lurk in our own hearts."

Repentance Repentance is taught through the Bible, even the Jews were told many times to repent. In Luke 13:35 Jesus said to some of them except ye repent ye shall likewise perish, in Luke 24, Jesus said repentance and remission of sins should be taught in his NAME, beginning at Jerusalem so on the first pentecost after the resurrection of Christ from the dead and after Peter had preached that great sermon and when the group many of at least were cut to the heart and ask Men and Brethren, what shall we do? Peter replied, saying, REPENT and be Baptised for the remission of your SINS.

Men can not hope to go to Heaven unless they repent or turn from their sins. Our Lord has promised to thus forgive our sins when we have turned from them. In Acts 11:18, we read concerning the Gentile repentance unto Life. In Acts 17:30, Paul to the people of Athens said, God has commanded men every where to repent. So that is why we can and do teach repentance and can do so by faith, for faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the Word of God, Rom. 10:17, and God's Word does tell us to repent. A. F. Waller Minister, Church of Christ

Gives Formula For Making 'Dry Suds' "Dry suds" for cleaning upholstered furniture may be made and used at home, according to Louise Newman, County Home Demonstration Agent. To make the suds, dissolve one-half cup of neutral soap flakes, beads, chips or bar soap which has been shaved in small pieces, in one quart of hot water. The test for neutral soap is to place a bit of it on your tongue. If it is neutral it will not bite or sting. Let the soap solution cool to a jelly-like consistency, beat it with a rotary egg beater until it looks like a beautiful icing. When the suds break down they should be re-beaten. Remove the dust from the upholstered furniture with a whisk broom or a vacuum cleaner before applying any suds. It is also wise to test the fabric in an inconspicuous place to see if it is washable. If so, then apply the dry suds to a small area with a brush, cloth, or sponge by using a light circular motion. Scrape off the soiled suds with a spatula or the back of a thin bladed knife. Rinse with a sponge or cloth that has been wrung from clear lukewarm water until all the soap has been removed. Take care to use as little water as possible so that the foundation will not become wet. Work quickly and clean only a small area at a time. Let each new area overlap the last one. Place the furniture in an airy but shaded place to dry. If the fabric has a nap finish, brush it after it is thoroughly dry so that the threads will be in the right direction. The army doesn't like to admit it, not after fighting so hard to keep the draft, but truth is that voluntary enlistment is running unexpectedly high. — Pathfinder Magazine. Let's Finish Our Job! During "Raise the Quota Week"—November 16 to November 22 Any fair minded citizen knows the war expense could not be stopped the day the war ended. When it took five years to scatter ten million men all over the world we will do a good job if we get them back within one year and it will take gobs of money to do that. When Japan was whipped there were Forty Five billion in outstanding war contracts. These were promptly canceled, mostly. But even so it took about twenty billion to pay what had been earned or accrued. The six months following World War I took more money than the six months just before victory. A study will very readily prove this possible. The year ending June, 1945, took 21 Billion to pay the expense, in every way, of all the men in the service, not counting planes, guns and munitions contracts. For the year ending June 1946, it is estimated that it will require 18 billion for the same purpose due to the fact that most of the men in the service during the last year will be in most of this year, hence this enormous sum will be to pay again. The Congress is planning a reduction of income taxes to the extent of about 5 billion. This, you will readily see, will be impossible without the 8th War Loan. We should be happy to go our full limit in buying if we get our income taxes reduced. In one, our money will come back when we need it more than we do now. The other never comes back in dollar form. The fact that this horrible war is passing into history should fill America full of grateful hearts who should respond in every way possible to make this last and final effort a big success. No let down feeling to begin with. Let's start out to win! County War Finance Committee

Mexican Laborers Good Spenders

Businessmen of this city are genuinely appreciative of the increased purchasing power brought to this area each year by Mexican cotton pickers. Seasonal workers to a large extent, the Mexicans have a higher percentage of their income available in the fall of the year, and buy a big part of their yearly clothes supply with money earned by picking cotton.

Farmers and merchants have high praise for the Mexicans. Industrious workers and good spenders, they contribute a great deal to the economic life of Haskell County each year. Without their help, farmers would have been in a serious plight in gathering their crops during the war years when labor has been so scarce.

There has been much criticism of the "wet-backs" who swim the Rio Grande River to gain entrance to Texas, and it is true that illegal entry into another country is a serious matter, but there is no question that Mexican labor has been a great help to this state in the last few years.

With the present rate of money exchange between the United States and Mexico, those laborers who return to Mexico with their earnings are able to live much longer on their wages than would be the case if they remained in this country.

But there are many who never return to their native land. Many of them remain in Texas. Many thousands of them fought in the great war just ended and at least two Texans of Mexican parentage won this nation's highest award, the Congressional Medal of Honor.

You Make The Town

During the past few years, many people—perhaps some of your own friends and neighbors—left their home communities for other places where their services were needed in war work. Many of these people will return to their own towns with very pleasant memories of the places where they've been working and living; some may be critical of their temporarily adopted communities. Whether the appraisal is good or bad is usually determined by the individual's own mental attitude toward his fellowmen.

No matter where you live, your community will be whatever kind of place you choose to make it.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Higgins Points A Way of Settlement

Andrew J. Higgins, boat builder and rugged individualist, has pointed a new precedent in shutting down his New Orleans plants as a result of labor strikes. That one went off when labor did not know it was loaded. He tired of the constant bickering forced on him in war time when his patriotism forced him to indulge the oppression of labor.

His popularity must have rocketed when he refused to sign a contract that contained a clause providing that returning servicemen must pay an enormous fee for the right to work in his plant. Higgins might have successfully negotiated the contract. He might have settled his problems with labor, and he most certainly would have made more money for himself. But he was willing to sacrifice his investment for a principle that meant more to him than money. So labor is now in the position of not only failing to get what they wanted, but of being deprived of the possibility of getting any sort of job in his plant.

If other representatives of management would have the courage to do likewise, labor might wake up to the fact that it cannot handle both ends of a working agreement. It must be some sort of social phenomenon that labor has been allowed to commit so many sins in the name of earning a living. There is no group in America, nor has there ever been a group, that has flouted laws, twisted laws, and otherwise imposed indignities on the public and an economic equal to the extent that labor has done. It is time for management to get tough. It is time that labor woke up. And it is time that the public demand some laws with teeth that will stop labor from forcing their gangster methods on the public.

Cheerfulness is health; its opposite, melancholy, is disease.—Haliburton.

Tomorrow's NEW SCIENCE OF SOIL BUILDING

WITH THE ALLIS-CHALMERS POWER LINE

Build your own terraces with an A-C Tractor Disc Plow (or moldboard). Sizes—1, 2 or 3 disc. Hydraulic lift or lever control.

Heavy-Duty Tandem Disc Harrow slice through thick hybrid corn stalks, renovate pastures. All sizes.

15-foot Single Disc Harrow angles by tractor power. Pull on pin and left gang automatically folds behind right for transport.

Organic matter in soil is consumed steadily by growing crops. Continuous heavy cropping during wartime burns this organic matter at an accelerated rate. An acre of corn on a July day may use the heat energy of a 40 horsepower engine.

To rebuild organic matter and guard it from erosion is the greatest single challenge to mechanized agriculture. It forecasts a system of soil-building cultivation, incorporating more roots and humus in soil to absorb rainfall and stop washing.

The Allis-Chalmers Power Line of implements lays a foundation of sound engineering for this system of farming.

Quick-Hitch Implements which instantly respond to finger-tip hydraulic control will make conservation farming easy and practical with your own equipment.

The Allis-Chalmers Power Line of implements will help increase the fertility, moisture reserve and productive power of your farm.

1st. Find out if the brand you are considering is standard.
2nd. Find out how many units of this merchandise is in use in your locality now.
3rd. Find out what arrangements your dealer has made for servicing the equipment when it breaks down.

Texas Tech Would Use Idle War Plant

Directors of Texas Technological College have voted to ask the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for use of the now-idle $35,000,000 Pantex ordnance plant which is located 17 miles northeast of Amarillo. The idea which prompted the request envisions use of the vast 1600-acre property as an adjunct of the college.

Texas Tech's president, Dr. William M. Whyburn, in conference with various college officials, has been busy preparing a brief which will show to the RFC the various uses to which the property could be put by the college. These plans would include vocational short course training for veterans and provide a "proving ground" for agricultural and research projects on a long-range basis.

Request for the property was made with the understanding that no money was to be paid for the project and that there would be "no strings" attached to its operation, according to President Whyburn. The entire matter, he pointed out, is in a very preliminary stage but, he added, "if the project is something with which Tech can do a better job for the student seeking educational training, the college is definitely interested."

The Amarillo Chamber of Commerce through a Tech board member, Chanslor Weymouth of Amarillo, presented the proposition to the Tech directorate. On the expansive project there are 424 buildings with housing facilities available to accommodate 800 persons. The project is served by 36 miles of railroad spur track from the Santa Fe and Rock Island railroads.

RETURNS TO HASKELL

Miss Jane Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Howard, has returned to Haskell following a period of employment as book-keeper for an Abilene wholesale company. She is a 1945 graduate of Mattson High School.

Hotel Facilities
Crowded At Navy
Discharge Points

New Orleans, La.—A warning that an acute shortage of hotel accommodations and housing facilities exists at all Navy Separation Centers was issued to relatives of servicemen who are contemplating joining their Navy husbands, sweethearts, and sons and daughters at these discharge points. Already overcrowded conditions in the localities of the Separation Centers has made it necessary or Navy Housing Officials to issue an appeal to the relatives of servicemen and women to avoid further confusion by delaying their planned reunions with their loved ones until the veterans are discharged and return to their homes.

The influx of the World War II veterans to the Separation Centers, already swarming with Navy personnel stationed at these facilities, has created a critical shortage of rooms.

Housing authorities explained that the appeal to the relatives and friends of the service people is made in hope of avoiding further hardships. Hundreds of families and friends of the veterans are arriving daily at the Separation Centers only to find it impossible to find housing accommodations. Compliance with this request, it was pointed out, also will help relieve the rail and bus transportation problem and thus make it possible for more servicemen to be transferred to the Separation Centers for discharges.

Teacher Shortage Shown In Survey

In October the Texas State Teachers Association conducted a survey among city and county school superintendents to determine the supply of qualified teachers and to secure information as to the number of teachers entering the public schools who have returned from military service and war work.

A study of the replies to the questionnaire, which represents approximately 80 per cent of all the teachers of the schools of the state, discloses the fact that there remains in Texas an acute shortage of teachers for the school year 1945-46. A comparison with returns from a similar survey made in October, 1944, would indicate that the shortage of teachers is quite as acute this year as it was for the last school term.

It is estimated that 8,500 Texas teachers entered the armed forces and industry from September 1, 1941, through May, 1945. Only 676 of these teachers has returned to the teaching profession. Although it may be expected that many others still in the armed forces will return to teaching by 1947, this assumption is offset by the fact that many superintendents made the comment that wives of service men now teaching in their systems would resign just as soon as their husbands are released from service.
