Robin Davis Signs with A & M

Robin Davis, Sudan High School tackle who calls Muleshoe his home, signed with Texas A & M University at 8 a.m. Tuesday, February 13. The actual signing took place in the school superintendent's office with Coach Don Watson, South Plains Panhandle recruiter for Texas A & M. Also on hand for the big day in his life was his mother, Mary Porter Davis, Muleshoe, and Dr. Jerry Gleason, who has acted as Davis' 'Aggie Daddy' for the past year or more. The group left Sudan for Lubbock where they met Coach Gene Stallings, head of the athletic department of A & M, other football players over the area who have signed with the University and their representatives. Davis spent Monday here with Gleason before the actual signing took place Tuesday. He has been a star player on the Sudan Hornet team during the four years of high school and has played both offensive and defensive tackle. He is to graduate on Tuesday.

FB Drive Launched

A lively challenge was given to some 20 members of the Bailey County Farm Bureau at a membership drive kick-off breakfast held at 7 a.m. Monday at L. B.'s Restaurant.

The challenge was delivered by guest speaker Joe Ed Sullivan, agency manager of the Hale County Farm Bureau, to those who will give of their time and money this week to sign new members into the Farm Bureau group.

Sullivan said "For travel, a motorist uses a road map, which gave him a sound direction of travel and the membership teams had a sound program behind them in Farm Bureau and this gave them a definite road to travel in enlisting new members."

In his talk, Sullivan highlighted the tax situation and in a portion of the talk, gave this summary: On one-half section of his land, located near Morton, he told of how taxes had risen from $170 on the half-section in 1959 to more than $600 in 1967. The figure stayed the same until 1962 when it jumped from $170 to $381. In 1963 he said they were $479.88 and the trend has bounced upward since that time.

In comment, Sullivan said it looked as if it will not be long until there will be only three questions asked . . . they will be, "How much money do you have? Where is it? How long will it take you to get it?" He also touched on the plight of the farmers and the large amount of farm sales noted over the country and pointed out that a farmer today had to be much more than just a farmer.

COUNCIL MEETS

Purchases Fire Truck

Muleshoe City Council met Monday afternoon.

During the disposition of business at hand, councilmen accepted a bid from Ready Mix Concrete for the sale of a fire truck damaged in an accident recently and agreed to sell it for $435 to Ready Mix. The truck was six years old and estimates on repairs were high enough that the council did not think it worthwhile to repair for their purpose.

Bids on a new vehicle were reviewed and the purchase of a GMC pickup with power steering was agreed upon and will be used as a small fire truck to replace the wrecked vehicle. By-laws of the Muleshoe Area Public Library were discussed as some changes in them have been requested.

City manager Albert Field spoke to the councilmen briefly on some of the various factors concerning the pending bond issue and the Comprehensive Plan for the City of Muleshoe which will be taken up with Ken Larsen at a meeting of the City Planning Commission Tuesday night.

Some of the facts were also discussed concerning the annexation of the Morrison Addition to the City of Muleshoe.

Other items of discussion included a letter which is to be drafted to Pioneer Natural Gas Company requesting a closer check of gas lines and City manager Field was instructed to request that city attorney Norman Bays investigate and give a report on legal procedure to condemn unsanitary buildings.

A city election will be held April 6 to fill two vacancies of the terms of Matt Dudley and Alex Williams. Deadline for filing is 30 days prior to election date.

Alex Williams, who is filling the unexpired term of Rudolph Wiedebush, has filed as a candidate.

Area Receives Snow

Snow began falling, slowly and intermittently, around noon Monday, then gained momentum as the day passed and by Tuesday morning, the immediate area, along with much of Texas and other states wore a white blanket.

The snowfall resumed around 7 p.m. Tuesday and total amount measures approximately four inches.

Highways and city streets remain hazardous. Workmen have salted intersections on downtown streets and highway crews have been working long hours salting the most hazardous portions on the highways in order to cut down the possibility of accidents.

At press time, no accidents had been reported due to driving conditions, although motorists are warned to continue to drive with extreme caution.

Weather forecasters say there will not be a quick warming trend for the area and additional flurries, which could amount to at least another inch

Team Holds Unsurpassed Record

Except for the intramural tournament which is slated for this weekend, the season of basketball play is over for the eighth grade basketball team which has had a victorious season of 17 wins and 1 loss. From the beginning of the basketball season, the eighth grade massed an accumulative record unsurpassed by an eighth grade in Muleshoe in past years. From the first victory over the Dimmitt eighth grade with a score of 54-30; to the last game of the season of the year, also with Dimmitt, with a score of 42-36, it was the eighth grade almost all the way.

In between, the young cagers won three first place trophies in 'A' team games and one trophy in a 'B' team tournament.

Randy Field was the year's high pointer for the team, as he racked up an overall total of 228 points scored during the year. He was also high rebounder with 201 rebounds to his credit. Lee Clodfelter was second high pointer with 161 points total for the year and 196 rebounds. Johnny Hayes followed in third place with

Jaycee-Faculty Basketball Crowd Small

Cold weather and hazardous roads kept the crowd small at Muleshoe Junior High School gym Tuesday night for the Jaycee-Faculty basketball game.

The basketball fans who braved the ice and snow to attend the game saw a fun-filled game which was full of laughter.

Although one or two of the players took the game seriously, for the most part, it was filled with home-spun comedy as the cagers raced up and down the court . . . or at least until the first half they raced, after that, some of them walked.

From the tip-off by Coach Raymond Schroeder and Chamber of Commerce Manager Darrell Oliver, it was Faculty all the way as they racked up a grand total of 95 points over the Jaycees, who did put a good 52 points on the scoreboard.

For the Faculty, Hoot "Tubby Tennis Shoes" Gibson was high pointer with 20 points; Coach Raymond Schroeder added another 17; Coach Ronnie Jones better known to some as "Jumping Jack" added 14 points to the score; Dick Stafford had 10 points; George Washington, Kerry Moore and Fate Harris each had 8; Royce Barnes 6 and Bob Graves 4 points.

For the Jaycees, Curtis Smith hit 11 points; Marlin Mills, Darrell Oliver, Jerry Hutton, and Jim Berry each had 6 points; Pete White and Jerry Gleason each had 4 points; Curtis Walker, Ronnie Spies, Bob Stovall and Kenneth Henry each had 2 points and Gary Ratliff had 1 point. Not to be forgotten is Joe Bob Stevenson, who, although didn't score, did his share on defense for the Jaycee team.

The test, conducted by Loyd Langford, Associate Agronomist, was planted May 18 at a five pound per acre seeding rate and was harvested on October 12, 1967. Each variety received 125 pounds of Ammonium Phosphate (11-48-0) at planting time and 50 pounds of Nitrogen from an application of Anhydrous Ammonia when the plants were approximately 18 inches tall. A pre-plant irrigation and a summer irrigation of 4.83 inches on July 26th were applied to all varieties. Protein percentage of the grain ranged from 8.91 to 11 per cent.

The later maturing hybrids performed better in the 1967 test, but in the two previous years the early maturing varieties were superior. It is thought that the difference in rainfall was responsible for this reaction.

This test should be of particular interest to those farmers who have limited underground water or who might be interested in water conservation practices on their farm. The complete results will be reported in the annual Research Report of the Research Foundation for 1967, which will be mailed to all supporting members in March.

Everyone's assistance was sincerely appreciated.

Dear Editor

As general committee chairman of the Chamber of Commerce banquet held January 13, I wish to express my appreciation to everyone who helped to make it the success that it was.

I was personally very pleased with the attendance at this year's Chamber banquet and also that the banquet was self-supporting without financial aid from the Chamber's general fund.

Everyone's assistance was sincerely appreciated.

Washington Report

From Congressman BOB PRICE 18TH DISTRICT, TEXAS

1323 LIGHWORTH OFFICE BUILDING, WASHINGTON, D. C. • 205-3706

Panhandle Congressman Bob Price continued his weekend itinerary of Town Hall meetings at Plainview Friday afternoon. The House of Representatives recessed Thursday for Lincoln Day observance.

Price, who will be running for the first time in Hale County, said the big issues in this year's elections are the war in Vietnam, crime and riots, inflation and lagging farm income.

Generally a supporter of the President's war policies, Price took issue with those who would halt bombing or ease the pressure in any way in Vietnam. "There already is a great cry in Washington for a Vietnam pull-out or a de-escalation of the war. This is exactly what the Communists had hoped for when they planned their massive suicidal attacks during the Tet truce," the Panhandle Congressman said.

"We've been fighting the war on their terms and escalating only in response to their escalating," he said. "We should long ago have been utilizing our air and naval superiority in hitting prime targets recommended by the Joint Chiefs of Staff rather than allowing the enemy to disperse his fuel storage and install SAM missiles to protect Hanoi and Haiphong military installations."

Price termed the nation's rising crime rate as a national disgrace. "Our Federal courts have gone so far in protecting the rights of criminals that they have lost sight of the rights of the victims of criminals. When a confessed murderer can go scot-free because of a Supreme Court ruling on a technicality of 'unnecessary delay' in arrest and arraignment, it is time we did something about it," Price warned.

Drunks Top Arrest List

Seven persons have been arrested on charges of being drunk by the three divisions of law offices here. Three were arrested by the Sheriff's department and four by the police department.

Two persons were arrested by the Sheriff's department for Lamb County on charges of strong arm robbery in that county and three were arrested for Driving While Intoxicated, one of which was also charged with possession.

One has been arrested by the Highway Patrol for Driving While Intoxicated and another for operating a vehicle without proper registration.

mer. . . he had to be a producer, a salesman and a manager.

Price warned. "This happened last week in Washington because a suspect was not arrested for four hours after failing a lie-detector test even though he had signed a written confession to the murder. I believe it is obvious even to the President now," Price said, "that while welfare programs for the poor and deprived are undoubtedly needed, there must be an end to this false assumption that there would be no crime or riots or disorder if everybody had a good job, a good house and good health."

"The only way to move against crime and violence is to move -- not simply wait until all the so-called social or racial inequities are removed."

Friday night at Panhandle, Price addressed the annual Chamber of Commerce installation banquet. In reviewing his first term in Congress, Price told the group that he thought Congress was finally aware of the need of fiscal restraint. "And it is long past time," Price said, "for Congress to apply the brakes to Federal spending before we go the way of Great Britain. Even if we win the war in Vietnam -- which we can and must -- and win the war against crime, it won't mean much if the U. S. collapses from a financial crisis."

"Such a collapse would drag the rest of the free world down with us," Price warned. "And that would be the end of the U. S. fighting against Communism. That, in fact, is the strategy of the Communists. Theirs is a completely controlled economy and if we can't control ours to the extent of stabilizing the U. S. dollar, then we have lost the coexistence or cold war poker game."

The jury failed to find Locker negligent in the case and ruled in his favor.

Those serving on the jury were Leo Holt, C. P. Price, George Tyson, Mrs. Roger Albertson, Mrs. Owen Jones, E. W. Gray, W. E. Chisholm, Mrs. Don Seales, Mrs. Paul G. Young, Fred Clements, Kenneth Hanks and Richard Black.

Another trial was held with Socorro Rodriguez as plaintiff and Alva Eugene Moore as defendant, another suit for damages which was deemed 'no suit' just prior to the jury going into session.

The suit was filed after an accident involving the Rodriguez and Moore vehicles occurring approximately five miles west of Muleshoe.

Jury members were Eugene Huff, Don Damron, Darrell Patte, James A. Robertson, George Gross, Marshall Head, I. N. Wilcox, A. R. McGuire, Houston Hart, Charles Bratcher, A. P. Childers and S. M. Ethridge.

After approximately three hours of deliberation, a jury ruled in favor of the defendant in a trial held Friday styled Jose Martinez vs. Texas Em-

Three Cases Tried in District Court

Three cases were tried here last week in 154th District Court with Judge Pat Boone, Jr. presiding.

A jury ruled in favor of the defendant in a damage suit styled Vernie Hobbs against Fred Locker. Hobbs sought $10,000 in damages which grew out of the explosion of a tractor which Hobbs was refueling on January 18, 1967 on the Locker farm near Bula.

The jury awarded him $105 per week for five weeks.

Those serving on the jury were G. A. Beddingfield, Mrs. L. J. Mills, Lewis Scoggin, John Inman, Mrs. Clarence E. Mason, James Gore, W. D. Lackey, E. T. Ford, Robert Kelton, Virgil Nowell, N. A. Dunlap and T. B. Hicks.

ger. He encouraged Bailey Farm Bureau members to assist with uniting a front for agriculture, pointing out that each year a bill, although thus far rejected, was presented to Congress to require a farmer to purchase a license to farm.

James Warren, president of the Bailey County Farm Bureau, presided at the meeting. The invocation was given by Ed Little.

Joe Holmes, Tulsa, field representative, was a special guest.

Ben Roring, chairman of the membership drive, distributed packets to be used by the men who are working in teams to enlist new Farm Bureau members.

Roring will present pocket knives to two men who enroll the top number of new members during this five-day period allotted for the membership drive.

Jimmie Crawford Heads Easter Seal Appeal

Jimmie Crawford will serve as Easter Seal Representative and Treasurer for the 1968 Easter Seal Appeal in Bailey County. It was announced by Robert W. Milam, M. D. of McAllen, President of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas.

Residents of Bailey County will receive the annual Easter Seal Appeal letters in the mail beginning March 1. The Easter Seal Appeal, conducted yearly to provide disabled persons and their families treatment and service adapted to specific community needs, will be conducted until Easter Sunday, April 14.

Crawford is one of 169 men and women throughout Texas who are serving in this capacity. The cost of the state-wide program is over one million dollars, financed mainly by the Easter Seal Appeal. Almost 90 percent of all funds raised by the Easter Seal Appeal remain in Texas to support the growing needs of the disabled in the state.

Special emphasis is being given in the 1968 Easter Seal Appeal to the disabled citizen or his family in Bailey County who may need assistance and not know where to obtain it. Any disabled person can contact Crawford at Muleshoe State Bank, who will refer the request for services to the Easter Seal Society. A determination of the extent and type of assistance needed and the most efficient means of obtaining that assistance will be made. Arrangements for needed treatment or service will be made by the Easter Seal Society.

Three Way F.H.A. Banquet Held

Three Way FHA sponsored a "Sweetheart Banquet" in the Cafeteria at the school on February 10, 1968. The guests of honor were the chapter parents; Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Julian and Mr. and Mrs. Gib Dupler; Prince Charming, Johnny Ferguson and Best Beau, Charles Abbe. Treva Kelley presented each with a red rose as Marilyn Lewis, chapter president, introduced them. There were forty-four other guests at the banquet, including the high school faculty, the FHA members and their dates. The Valentine theme was carried out by the red and pink decorations on the tables and on the front wall.

Following the meal, Mrs. Bobby Joe Lusk sang "As Long as He Needs Me" and "I Enjoy Being a Girl," accompanied by Kathy Hicks at the piano.

Miss Joy Eubanks, a senior at Three Way, was presented the Betty Crocker Best Home-maker Award by the FHA Advisor, Mrs. Darell Corkery. Her achievement has made her eligible for state and national scholarship awards for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow's program.

Dr. Milam stated that funds received as a result of the annual Easter Seal Appeal now aid 17,622 disabled Texans but that there are many more not currently being aided. These disabled citizens and especially those in Bailey County who contact Crawford can now be guided to the proper sources of assistance. They or their families are urged to contact him or the Texas Easter Seal Society in Dallas, regardless of age, race, cause of disability or financial status.

Dr. Milam added that the Texas Easter Seal Society annually spends more money on direct services than it raises in the Easter Seal Appeal.

LIBRARY News

Storyhour was held Wednesday morning at the library, as it is every first and third Wednesday of each month. There were 25 present this time.

Master King and Miss Stevens raised the flag, and led the pledge of allegiance. Scott Baker and Brenda Dodd dressed Windy and Willie the weather boy and girl. Happy birthday was sung to Christina Isaac who has a birthday this month, and Miss Michele Ballew, daughter of the Jolen Ballews was welcomed as this was her first time to come to storyhour.

The group sang "February" and talked of Groundhog Day, Washington and Lincoln's birthdays and Valentine day. They also sang "Oh What a Beautiful Morning" and played an action game. The story was the all-time favorite of the Little Red Hen and the grain of wheat, using hand puppets for the characters, and at the end when the little red hen baked the bread, each child received a miniature loaf of bread, compliments of the Rainco Bread Co., as a remembrance of this storyhour. Then they all checked out a book to take home with them. Our storyhour program seems to be appreciated by the community, and we are grateful that we can have this time to introduce the wonderful world of books to these children. We are grateful to the Progressive Home Club of Muleshoe for a donation of $10 which they gave to the library to be used for the Children's Storyhour program. Material will be carefully selected and the items chosen will be marked as a gift from this club.

A new six-volume set of Bedtime Stories for Children has been donated to the library by Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Lackey, Route Five, Muleshoe. This gift was given in memory of Charlotte Diane Ross, granddaughter of the Lackeys.

A donation of $5 was received this week from Mrs. Horace Hutton, to be used for books or material needed.

THE WORLD OF ENTERTAINMENT

"The Crazy World of Laurel and Hardy" includes some fine moments from the films of these two great comedians, and is first-rate stuff for those who have never seen them in action.

Strangely enough, as with Charlie Chaplain and W.C. Fields and others, appreciation of talent such as Laurel and Hardy offered is greater today, when contrasted with our New York night club-type, or television types, than ever before.

One pained look from Oliver is better than two minutes of constant shouting by the moderns. One of the few of today's comedians to get the maximum out of silence and expression is Jack Benny, who himself dates back to the Laurel-Hardy era.

Overseas Service Men Express Appreciation

In November, 1967, 102 'ditty bags' were mailed to approximately 27 area servicemen serving overseas at Christmas time. The packages each contained 10 'ditty bags' to be distributed among men in their units.

Several letters have been received from these servicemen thanking the groups which prepared the "ditty bags." Portions of these letters from area servicemen and from boys from other areas of the United States with whom the bags were shared are as follows:

Thanking you for taking time out to make Christmas a little more realistic for myself and some of the men I work with. The gifts you sent were ideal because we were able to use everything in them.

Once again thank you and may God bless each and everyone of you.

I am not from Texas, but we have four Texans in our Platoon. I am from Vermont, and have never been to Texas, but if I do I will stop by to see you and thank you personally for your gift.

I want to thank you again for your gift, and wish you all a wonderful Holiday Season.

To all of the people responsible in sending the gift bags I would like to express my thanks and also thank you for the men who shared them with me.

We all appreciated your kindness and consideration during their holiday season. Although we can't be at home, it is really nice knowing that there are people concerned and thinking about us.

We will continue to serve our country to the best of our ability and think of your kindness. May God bless each and everyone of you and we wish each of you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

(Signed by 10 servicemen)

I wish to express my gratitude in receiving your gift that was sent to PFC, Shipman and distributed among the men in his platoon.

It's a wonderful thing to receive gifts at this time of year from the folks back home and an even greater gift to know that all that we are doing over here isn't in vain and that we do have someone behind us that cares enough to send us presents knowing that all we have to return is our thanks.

We'll continue our fight over here to insure that you doesn't reach our land and jeopardize our friends and loved ones. I'm due to rotate home in February and if I ever get a chance to visit Texas I'll make it a point to stop and see those of you that I can while I'm in your city.

I'm sure that your presents were greatly appreciated by the other members of the Platoon that received them and you will be receiving more letters from us.

I want to thank you all very much and may God Bless you one and all for your unselfishness that you have showed in sending us your gifts.

I received the ditty bags a few days after Christmas, but they were in good shape. The items contained in them are very useful, and in general, hard-to-get items over here. I took one of the bags for myself, and gave the others to some of the troopers with the local village security forces. These marines are located in fairly remote and insecure areas, and they don't enjoy many of the comforts that I have here. They face a wet bedroll and canned food almost every day. Since I visit the villages once a week as part of the dental care program for the Vietnamese, I decided this would be a worthy place to deliver the bags. I gave them to a hospital corpsman who said he would deliver them to those most in need. I'm sure these bags were appreciated as much or more than I did mine.

Please forward this letter on to the Progress Home Demonstration Club. They are certainly thoughtful to carry on an activity such as this one. I recognized many acquaintances in the list on my card.

Thanks again to the Red Cross and the Progress Club.

HOME

Everyone would like to get the most of furnace consumption. The best way to do this is to reduce the demand for heat put upon your furnace.

Much heat is lost through the roof in an uninsulated house. Insulating the floor or unused attic space results in considerable fuel savings.

Doors and windows are also areas where losses of heat sometimes occur. In warm sections of the country a good weatherstripping job, easily done by the man of the house, will be sufficient.

Hub?

Visitor—I do hope you keep your cows in a pasture.

Milkman—Yes, Madam, of course we keep them in a pasture.

Visitor—I'm so glad to hear that. I have been told that pasteurized milk is much the safest.

I want to thank you for sending the gift package to Nelson Shipman. Knowing that people back home take the time out to do a project like this is great. It's a good way of showing that people care, and we appreciate it. Whether it's to us personally, or to other units doesn't matter, just knowing that people are thinking of us counts.

I've got to close now. Thanks again, and again it was appreciated.

I am writing this to thank you for the package I was given by Nelson Shipman. He had received it in a larger package. It is nice to know that someone is thinking of us over here at this time of the year. This is going to be my first Christmas away from home and probably my hardest. I have a wife and daughter at home, I would love to be with but there is a job to do over here so I guess I can miss this one. I only have four months left over here so it isn't really that bad.

I want to thank you again for the package. I also want you to have a Merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

I am one of the men in C. Co. 3/47 Inf. to whom you sent your box full of bags to. All the bags were given to the 4th platoon in our company. Boy am I glad that I am in Bill's platoon, and am his platoon medic and the senior medic for the company. I can't express my thanks enough for the kind act you people have performed. Everything and I mean everything in the bag, even the bag itself, is very useful. If everyone in the states thought half as much as you people do of us the war would come to a quicker and more definite end. I am from Texas, I live in Houston. I hope you can read my hurried writing. Again I wish to express my thanks for your early Christmas. Thank you.

P. S.

As Bill's medic I will do my very best to get him home safe and sound. Although I pray he want, or far that matter anyone, need my help.

I want to thank you for the parcel, that you sent Nelson Shipman. Nelson gave one of them to me. I did appreciate the things inside the bag. Some of the things you sent are hard to get, and we are in need of them. I am happy to know that you all are supporting us over here. I have heard about the demonstrations they are having, and can't believe that there are people who think our men are fighting for nothing.

An American Veterans and the Red Cross

Several people who served in World War II have related that they consider the aid to military personnel by the American Red Cross to have been unsatisfactory, for the reason that charges were made for services rendered by the Red Cross during this period.

Bailey County Judge Don Cihak said "This office received recently a copy of a letter which should shed some light upon this facet of the service."

The letter is quoted as follows: By Harold Anthony Gregory There is a generation of Red Cross defamers in existence in the U. S. whose hard core center is the returned World War II overseas veteran.

Not all of them mind you, but enough of them in each community to cost the American Red Cross perhaps hundreds of thousands of dollars annually in withheld contributions.

For regardless of the millions that the Red Cross has given on behalf of the people to disaster victims and for emergency needs, regardless of the homes it has built and repaired and people it has brought together, lives it has saved, the returned veteran remembers only, with branded, dyed-in-the-mind anger, the fact that he had to pay for Red Cross coffee and doughnuts while overseas.

The real tragedy here is not that it isn't true that the Red Cross sold coffee and doughnuts overseas, but that the veteran does not know that the Red Cross was forced, against its wishes, by the then War Department to require American soldiers to pay for meals and lodging.

It seems to me that the Department of the Army has today the precious opportunity and indeed the moral obligation to perform an outstanding service to the nation by using its excellent communication system and extensive personnel records to acquaint each individual soldier and veteran with the truth of this matter which is doing so much damage to the strength and the well-being of our nation.

And I don't mean by posting another piece of paper on the bulletin board.

That's what happened in the first place.

A copy of the War Department letter asking the Red Cross to make the changes was posted on many overseas Red Cross club bulletin boards, but I haven't found a veteran yet who said he had read it.

President Eisenhower, when he was Chief of Staff, issued the following statement to the press on April 10, 1946.

"During the current Red Cross fund campaign vast numbers of patriotic Americans have responded generously to the cause. Already the majority of chapters have reached or exceeded their local goals. In some communities, however, I understand the campaign is lagging, and I am surprised to learn that one of the reasons given is that complaints are being levelled at the organization's overseas operation by returning servicemen. For the most part these criticisms have grown out of a Red Cross policy of making nominal charges to our forces for food and lodgings in fixed Red Cross installations abroad. The complaints are distressing to me since this particular Red Cross policy was adopted at the request of the Army, so as to insure an equitable distribution among all service personnel of Red Cross resources."

And this is the War Department letter as reproduced in that Red Cross pamphlet.

May 20, 1942
Mr. Norman H. Davis, Chairman
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Davis:
United States military authorities in Great Britain have requested the Red Cross to establish clubs in certain cities in that area with a view to providing, a circumstances dictate, sleeping accommodations and meals in addition to the usual recreational facilities. The provision of food and lodging for enlisted personnel while on furlough, and at prices within their means, is a most important recreational facility, as many soldiers cannot otherwise avail themselves of leave privileges. The Red Cross officials appear to be reluctant to provide these accommodations, except on a basis of no charge to servicemen . . .

The War Department appreciates the motive of the Red Cross with respect to this matter and its established policy of free service, but under the circumstances it is believed impractical, unnecessary and undesirable that food and lodging be furnished free. . . It is believed advisable that American Soldiers be required to pay, at least the actual costs of meals and lodging furnished for their convenience and benefits while on furlough. Such procedure is considered a sound business arrangement and conforms to local practice. It is therefore believed that such procedure should be adopted because of its merit rather than because the local military commander requests that charges be made for the proposed services.

The War Department recommends that the Red Cross

authorities in the British Isles be authorized to provide these services at such cost as they deem appropriate.

Sincerely yours,
HENRY L. STIMSON
Secretary of War

Connally said the liquor proposal he made in 1967, which was killed by the Legislature, may well be part of his program for raising the $150,000,000 to $190,000,000 which will be needed to operate state government next year.

In other recent opinions, Martin held that:

"State depository board may accept both guaranteed 'preliminary loan notes issued by public housing authorities' and 'participation certificates' of Federal National Mortgage Association as collateral for state deposits."

Second or alternate retirement program may be established for state-supported college and university employees.

AUSTIN--Eleven democratic and three Republican candidates for governor squared off for an action-packed May 4 primary election as filing deadline closed last week.

Most of the interest centers in the gubernatorial contest. Only one Democratic incumbent in statewide office, Comptroller Robert S. Calvert, has primary opposition. The lieutenant governor's office and two Supreme Court places being vacated by incumbents are contested by Democrats.

While Republicans provided candidates for all statewide offices except judicial, only in the governor's column is there a GOP primary race. The rest are unopposed.

FILLED MILK SUIT FILED

Wholesome Dairy Inc. of El Paso filed suit in the 53rd District Court against the State of Texas in an attempt to keep the State Health Department from blocking the sale of "Farmer's Daughter High Protein Drink," a mixture of dry and powdered milk, vegetable oils and other materials.

State law prohibits the manufacture or sale of "filled milk," any milk or milk product mixed with fat or oil other than milk fat.

L.C.B. MAKES NEW RULES
Texas Liquor Control Board issued new rules for its agents, including a bar against LCB agents bidding for purchase of confiscated cars or trucks. A Dallas LCB agent's purchase of a confiscated truck was one of the incidents that kicked off the Board's current self-examination.

New rules warn agents against revealing any details of investigations, and tighten accounting procedures for keeping track of illicit alcohol that has been seized.

VISITORS TO AUSTIN--Tourists from all over the state and from every area of the nation visit the State Capitol in Austin. Its doors are open day and night.

Something new has been added for the visitors' pleasure. It's a beautiful 170-page, 7x10 book in gorgeous colors entitled "The Texas Capitol -- Symbol of Accomplishment."

If you're contemplating a trip to Austin, write the Texas State Highway Department for a copy of this $2 book. You'll double the pleasures of your visit by having background information on what you're going to see.

RETARDED CHILDREN WORK FOR HANDICAPPED-- Retarded children (some as old as 60) at Travis State School in Austin are having the time of their lives potting and planting more than 9,000 flower, shrub and tree cuttings which will be raised for transplanting at other state schools and state hospitals all over the state.

The idea of a beautification project for the grounds of state institutions for the mentally ill and mentally retarded was sparked by MH-MR Commissioner John Kinross-Wright who donated and potted some of the first plants. Since then, others have been donated by gardeners who heard about the landscape program by word of mouth.

SHORT SNORTS
Governor Connally appointed Jerome Jones of Texas City judge of County Court No. 2 in Galveston County to succeed Judge Hugh Gibson.

Nine state senators of the 15 up for re-election this year have no opponents but at least four incumbents face hard primary races.

Texas Aeronautics Commission set final oral arguments for February 20, climaxing the long hearing on application of Air Southwest Company to offer economy, four-engine flight service linking San Antonio, Houston and Dallas.

Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company has filed application with Texas Railroad Commission to discontinue six Texas passenger trains -- serving Gainesville, Dallas, Fort Worth, Brownwood, Houston and Farwell.

Railroad Commission ordered draining and filling in of salt water disposal pits on Micon oil-gas lease in Jasper County.

John Tower

Once again this week the problems and needs of Vietnam have overshadowed all other matters here in Washington and, indeed, all around the country.

I believe it is very important that Americans not overreact to the enemy's activities of the last week or so. While it is true the enemy has chosen to mount some large, terror attacks; it is equally true that those attacks have cost the enemy a tremendous price in lives and equipment.

This series of Viet Cong and North Vietnamese attacks has been in the planning process for a year or more. It took the enemy months to gradually infiltrate into the South the thousands of men, tons of ammunition and heavy weapons he needed to terrorize South Vietnamese cities. Yet, so effective was the allied response to his ultimate effort that within less than a week he lost at least half of the men and material he had labored so long to build up.

It is now clear that the enemy in Vietnam has suffered more than 20-thousand combat deaths in his city attacks. It is substantially more deaths than have been suffered by United States forces in the entire Vietnam war.

It is my belief that losses of this magnitude can constitute nothing else than a major military defeat for our enemy.

In considering these enemy losses we must also remember that as a second prong to his desperate effort he has massed some 50-thousand regular North Vietnamese troops around the Khe Sanh area. We are prepared to meet his assault there. Our officers and men on the scene expect to deal the enemy another massive defeat in that battle just as we have in every main force engagement since the Ia Drang valley in 1965. We have the men, weapons, firepower and mobility to do just that.

It is particularly important for us to note that the thousands and thousands of enemy casualties in recent days have been hard-core guerrilla forces which he simply cannot easily or quickly replace -- if, indeed, he can ever replace them at all. For months these guerrilla forces have avoided battle and refused to risk themselves in combat with the allies. Now they have taken the risk. And they have been more than decimated.

All this is not to say that the end is nearly at hand in Vietnam. The enemy still has sizeable forces in South Vietnam and his invasion toward the Khe Sanh continues. But, the blow we have dealt him in this combat is one of the most significant military victories of the war.

It is not without the realm of possibility that these staggering losses may finally convince the enemy that he cannot take over South Vietnam by force and that he must come to the peace table on reasonable terms.

So far the enemy has refused to talk peace.

He indicated a few weeks ago that if bombing of North Vietnam was curtailed he would talk peace. For weeks after that indication our bombers refrained from attacks around Hanoi and Haiphong in a calculated risk that the enemy might, just possibly, mean business.

We found out how anxious he was for peace.

In response to our bombing restraint he terrorized the cities and civilian population on the South and continued to build up his forces near the so-called De-Militarized Zone. That was his reply to our continuing efforts to achieve peace.

I can only conclude that the enemy was not interested in peace talks on any terms whatsoever until he had mounted his terror and invasion campaigns. Whether he will come reasonably to the conference table after the defeats he has suffered and continues to suffer only time can tell.

I doubt, as I have long doubted, that we can expect a solution in Vietnam until the enemy is convinced by unrelenting military pressure that he cannot succeed in his objectives. It, therefore, is incumbent on us to continue to match his brutality with firmness and to turn his terror into defeat.

In the face of this enemy drive and enemy defeat I would hope that Texans would not fall prey to the enemy's psychological objectives.

It's clear that his vicious attacks were mainly designed to convince the allies that they can never beat him. He hopes that our strength advantage will be short-circuited by our moral resolve. He hopes, in short, that we will just quit and let him take over all of Southeast Asia. Then, the enemy reasons, he can methodically build up to attack the Free World again someplace else.

All of this he cannot accomplish if we stand firm. His aggression cannot be victorious if we refuse to allow it. Conversely, if he is defeated, it will be possible to launch a new era of peace and stability in a vast Pacific area.

Peace is our objective. With firmness we will attain it.

VETERANS

Q's and A's

Q -- I know that a veteran's former wife received his G. I. life insurance payment after he died recently, while his widow and children received nothing. How can this happen?

A -- The veteran evidently named his first wife as the beneficiary when he applied for his G. I. insurance. Possibly he wanted his first wife to receive the proceeds of the life insurance, but more likely he neglected to change the designation of his beneficiary. Veterans Administration is required by law to pay insurance benefits to the beneficiaries named by the insured. Responsibility for naming the correct beneficiary rests with the policyholder.

Q -- Is a certificate of attendance needed each month for veterans who are training under Public Law 89-358, if the training is below the college level?

A -- Yes, Payment may not be made to veterans in training below college level for any month until a certificate of attendance has been received.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Quinn Weaver Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hinson and son, Jeff, from Levelland.

Mrs. Charlie Glover returned from Amarillo Sunday after being by the bedside of her sister, Elzie Hukabee, the past several days. Mrs. Hukabee, from Houston, had been visiting Mrs. Glover in this area, and a sister, Mrs. Jack Garrett in Amarillo when she became sick, requiring surgery.

Mrs. John Agee was first place runner-up in the fashion show with Study Club members participating. She fashioned a double knit suit she had made. Mrs. T. R. White was first place winner on her mint suit. Mrs. Agee entertained during the show with piano selections and singing selections suitable to each contestant as they showed their entries.

Carrie Withroe is a new resident of the Muleshoe Nursing Home in Muleshoe. Mildred Redwine visited Mrs. Withroe Sunday and reports she is doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Layman from Big Square visited Sunday with Mrs. T. D. Reed.

Gail Ivy was home from Texas Tech to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olen Ivy.

Congratulations to Cora Bell Jennings, Lavonne Hinkson and Clarence Mason of this area on winning door prizes at the REA Co-op meeting in Muleshoe Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Pugh from Amherst visited Sunday with the Jack Templar family. The two women are sisters. Nancy Gleason returned Wednesday from Dallas where she attended the All-Texas Beauty School showing. She brought back several new styled hair pieces including the new mini-style.

A one-car accident in the Lazbuddie area between the Jack Templar and the McGuire homes resulted in the car being damaged badly, but the driver and only occupant, a girl from Friona, received only a scratch on the hand. The car turned over after a tire blew out on the vehicle.

ROMNEY AND KOSYGIN

Moscow - Governor George Romney of Michigan reported that his meeting with Premier Alexei N. Kosygin resulted in "very interesting conversation." Romney told reporters, after his two hour and ten minute meeting, that Kosygin was "generous with his time and views."

The criteria of a successful chamber of commerce is a membership that supports its program of work with ample funds and suitable physical assistance. The support that a business or professional firm subscribes as its fair share of the total costs of sustaining the chamber of commerce cannot be measured accurately by the number of memberships it maintains. A more accurate yardstick is the actual amount of time and money invested.

The development of a sound financing plan for a chamber of commerce is a challenging problem for business leaders in any community. Business men are accustomed to dealing with financial problems. In their own companies, they must constantly analyze costs of products or services, price them and market them. Each businessman must be skilled in these basic operations if his firm is to make a profit and stay in business.

The skills of business leaders in financing the operations of their firms can be readily applied to the development of sound financing plans for a chamber of commerce. There are, of course, some fundamental differences between business and chamber operations, but none that cannot be readily identified, analyzed and understood by those with business-management experience.

It is natural that business leaders who accept responsibility for developing or carrying out a financing plan for the chamber want, as a "starting point," a clear picture of the basic principles of chamber organization and operation. The following questions and comments will provide a useful review of some of these principles:

1. What does a chamber have to sell? What is its product?
2. What are the costs of production?
3. Who can be expected to support the chamber of commerce? Who are its participants?
4. What is each participant's fair share of the total amount needed to sustain the program of work of a chamber of commerce in a community?
5. What is the best method of selling the "product"?

The question, "What is the product of a chamber?" points up one of the marked distinctions between a business firm and a chamber of commerce. The basic product of a chamber of commerce is: Organized efforts to promote, stimulate, increase and improve business and build a better community. The product of a chamber is unique, quite unlike the product or service of any firm or any private or public organization or agency.

To get a perspective of the chamber product or what the chamber in any community has to sell, one must consider all of the various products and activities that make up the chamber's current program of work. What the chamber has to sell this year may be different than what it had to sell last year. And what your chamber has to sell may vary considerably from what chambers in other communities have to sell.

Regardless of these variations, however, the important concept to those responsible for developing a sound financing plan for a chamber is that the chamber's principal product is its program of organized activity.

The basic costs of "production" of a chamber can be related to its principal product - its program of organized activities. The more extensive the program of activities, of course, the greater the costs will be. And conversely, the smaller the chamber's income, the smaller its program of activities must be.

Major expenditures in a chamber are for administrative costs. These include: staff salaries, officer rent, light, heat, telephone, insurance and supplies. Other possible items may include contribution to a retirement plan, provision for contingencies and a reserve fund.

An analysis of the income and expenditures of hundreds of chambers of commerce, over a period of years, reveals a number of interesting and significant facts about basic costs of chamber operations. For example, chambers that rent space for their office headquarters spend, on the average, about 7.1 percent of their income for rent. While some chambers spend a slightly smaller or slightly larger percent of their income for rent, experience shows that regardless of the size of the program of chamber activities, there is a fairly constant percent-of-income cost for space-rental expenditures.

Similarly, the percent of income expenditures for staff salaries remains fairly constant regardless of the size of chamber activity programs. Many nationwide surveys of chamber expenditures indicate, generally speaking, that increases in the activity programs of a chamber require comparable increases in expenditures for staff salaries. This relationship points out the fact that while the amount of staff service required for different types of chamber activities varies greatly, staff salaries constitute an important cost-of-production factor in chamber of commerce work. Surveys indicate that the percentage of income expended for staff salaries varies between 50 to 62 percent.

While a clear concept of the chamber product and some of its basic costs are important background in this market analysis, we should also know who are the investors in the chamber's "product."

Every business enterprise has a stake in the progress of the community and should share in the financing of organized effort to advance its growth and development.

The fact that the success of many chamber activities depend upon widespread support in the community adds to the importance and desirability of seeking a broad base of business participation in the financing of the chamber.

The logic and desirability of having the broadest possible base of financial support for a chamber is only part of the market analysis needed by those responsible for developing a sound financing plan for their chamber. Experience has demonstrated many times that a chamber, like a business firm, can fight a losing battle if its financing is geared to incomplete or misleading surveys of potential sources of income.

FHA Emergency Loans Made

Emergency loans totaling $326,630 have been made by the Bailey County Office of the Farmers Home Administration since July 1, 1967, to help local farmers and ranchers recover from natural disasters, John C. Kennedy, County Supervisor reported today.

Kennedy said Bailey County was designated by Secretary of Agriculture Freeman as an area in which emergency loans could be made by the Farmers Home Administration to eligible farmers and ranchers because of adverse weather the past three years.

One hundred and ninety-three counties have been designated by Secretary Freeman as areas needing an emergency credit source. As of December 31, 1967, over 2,300 emergency loans for nearly $14.25 million have been made in Texas.

In fiscal year 1967 over 4,100 emergency loans for around $27 million were made in Texas.

The program provides a standby source of credit for farmers and ranchers who cannot obtain emergency credit elsewhere. Repayment schedules vary according to purposes for which funds were advanced.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Of Tips and Taxes

To the cab driver, the tips he collected were just friendly gestures by his grateful passengers. When the government tried to impose an income tax on this money, he protested:

"Tips are not income in that sense. They are merely gifts. After all, my passengers don't have to tip me if they don't want to. It is purely voluntary."

But a court held that the tips, even though voluntary, were indeed taxable income. The court pointed out that the tips were paid not as a matter of charity or personal affection but as an extra reward for work done.

How does the government decide whether money that you receive is a gift, hence non-taxable, or income, hence taxable? The main test is the intent with which it is given. It will not qualify as a gift if it is really a form of compensation for value received or expected.

This, a company's "wedding gift" to an employee was held to be taxable income. Reason: the surrounding circumstances showed that the money was actually a bonus for his long and loyal service to the firm.

This rule applies not only to money but also to merchandise. An executive had to pay income tax on an automobile given to him by a business friend for whom he had done valuable favors—and might again.

On the other hand, even though money is paid by a company to its own employee, it may still qualify as a gift, not income, if that is the company's true intent. For example:

A company gave checks to a number of its employees who had suffered personal losses in a tornado. Because these payments were geared to individual needs rather than to services rendered, they were held to be "gratuitous and spontaneous"—thus, true gifts.

In another case, after a pastor had retired because of ill health, his former congregation found out he was having financial difficulties. So they voted to send an annual contribution to help him out.

Later the government tried to collect income tax on this money. But a court declared it a non-taxable gift. The court said it was made "not to repay another what is his due but only because of personal regard."

VETERANS

Q's and A's

Q -- Because I am being transferred, I must sell my G.I. loan financed home. I find it is advantageous to let my G. I. loan be assumed by the purchaser. Is there any way I can be released from my liability to the Government on the G. I. loan?

A -- Yes. You may be released from liability to the Veterans Administration if your G. I. loan is current, if the purchaser obligates himself by contract to assume all of the liabilities on your loan and satisfies the VA that he is an acceptable credit risk.
