Haskell, Rule and Weinert Football Teams Each Win District Titles

Three Haskell county high schools—Haskell, Rule and Weinert—can proudly claim championship football teams, all District winners in Class A, B, and 6-man brackets during the current season. And football fans believe this is a record unequalled by any county in Texas.

Haskell High School Indians won the District 6-A title Friday night in defeating Rotan. In District 9-B, the Rule Bobcats won the title in an easy victory over the Woodson Cowboys from

Rural Phone Co-Op Meeting Will Be Held Here Dec. 1

Farmers and residents of rural sections in all parts of Haskell county have expressed themselves as vitally interested in plans now being considered for establishing a Rural Co-Op Telephone System. C. G. Burson, chairman of a committee backing the proposal, said today.

Mr. Burson and his committee, joined by the County Farm Bureau, have called a meeting of Haskell county farmers to be held at the American Legion Hall by Thursday night, Dec. 1, at 7:30 p. m. for the purpose of taking definite steps toward perfecting the Co-Op organization.

Check Forgers Hit Haskell During The Week-End

Check forgers renewed their activities in Haskell during the week end, taking advantage of the rush business hours to pass worthless checks in at least seven local business houses, according to reports made to the Sheriff's department.

The checks, ranging in amounts from $38 to $61, bore forged names of farmers living in the Haskell area, indicating that the forgers had familiarized themselves with names of people in this section. All the checks were on the Haskell National Bank, and were presented after small purchases had been made. Officers believe that at least two men were involved in passing the spurious checks.

Gin At Weinert Burns With Loss Of $60,000

Causing loss estimated at between $55,000 and $60,000, fire completely destroyed the Herren & Terry Gin at Weinert Friday night, together with a cotton house, seed warehouse, around 150 bales of cotton and 50 tons of cottonseed.

The fire broke out about 7 p. m. and spread quickly through the entire plant, which burned to the ground in less than an hour. Fire trucks from Haskell, Stamford and Munday were rushed to Weinert, but the flames had gained such headway that firemen were unable to save the plant. Firemen were able to prevent spread of the flames to several nearby homes, which were in danger for a time.

Gin employees, aided by Weinert residents, worked in almost blistering heat and smoke from the fire to remove approximately 100 bales of seed cotton in trucks and trailers to safety from the gin yard.

The gin, owned by Bob Herren of Haskell, and R. W. Terry of Hamlin, was built in 1923. The plant had been in continuous operation since beginning of the ginning season and had turned out more than 1,600 bales of cotton from this year's crop.

Loss of the plant will put an even heavier burden on Weinert's two remaining gins and plants in nearby towns of Rochester, Haskell and Munday. It is estimated that about half of the cotton in the Weinert territory has been gathered.

played before the largest crowd ever to watch an Indian team play, which was estimated at 6,000, the game will probably go down in local history as the best ever turned in by an Indian team.

The victory placed the Indians in the State Class A play-off and their next game will be with Wink, a consistent winner in the Western section of Texas. The last Haskell district winner was in 1938 when they lost the bi-district playoff to Crowell.

To name an individual star of the game would not be possible as every Warrior gave a full account of himself, turning in a creditable performance. Tension was high on the bench with every Haskell player ready for service. The team was physically and mentally ready in ousting a determined and worthy foe.

Miss Betty Jo Herren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. (Bob) Herren, and a freshman in Haskell High School, has been elected FFA Sweetheart of the high school chapter, Future Farmers of America. This title is conferred annually by the FFA chapter, with the "Sweetheart" being elected from nominees representing each class in High School.

Jim Turner, Long-Time Rochester Resident, Dies

Jim Turner, prominent pioneer resident of the Rochester section, died Wednesday morning in that city. He had lived in that area for 45 years, and was among the first group of early day farmers in Haskell county. He had retired from active farming in recent years due to advancing age.

Funeral services for Mr. Turner will be held at the First Methodist church in Rochester Thursday afternoon, with funeral arrangements in charge of Mansell-Smith Funeral Home.

Mr. Turner is survived by his wife and four children, Mrs. Allen Bell of Rochester, Mrs. Walter Moody of Goree, Mrs. Ed Howard of Odessa, and T. J. Turner of El Paso.

VOTERS ENDORSE BOND ISSUE FOR SCHOOL BUILDINGS, 405 TO 109

Haskell Independent School District voters Saturday gave overwhelming endorsement of a $200,000 bond issue for the construction of a modern new, elementary grade school building, and a combination Band Hall and Health Education building.

Both proposed new structures creased load on Haskell school are badly needed to meet the facilities, now sorely overtaxed by enrollment which has shown rapid increase during the past few years.

Vote on the bond issue proposal was 495 for and 109 against. Also approved were two other propositions, a maintenance tax rate of $1.25 on the $100 valuation of property in the 100-square mile district, which was endorsed by a vote of 391 to 101; and assumption of indebtedness in the levy of taxes, in which the vote was 395 for and 106 against.

Cotton Ginnings Here Total 14,840 Bales Wednesday

Cotton ginned in Haskell from the 1949 crop had climbed to a total of 14,840 bales up to Wednesday morning, reports from the city's five gin plants showed, and gin operators reported their trucks literally jammed with yards and trailers loaded with the staple waiting to be ginned.

Wednesday morning's report represents a turn-out of 1,921 bales by Haskell's five gins since last Thursday morning, when 12,919 bales had been processed. Minor delays caused by breakdowns and small fires in some of the local plants have caused loss of several hours ginning time during the past week.

INDIANS DEFEAT ROTAN FOR DISTRICT TITLE

One point spelled the difference in the Haskell Indians hard-earned 13-12 victory over the favored Rotan Yellowhammers on Stamford school field Friday evening to earn for the Indians the championship of District 6-A.

The dependable toe of Bobby Jack Price, Indian senior end, sent the ball high and true over the uprights to break a 12-12 deadlock and end the scoring for the game. The deciding kick came in the third period after Billy Davis had carried over from the Rotan five. The crowd watched breathlessly as Price calmly made the conversion with Lusk holding.

Played before the largest crowd ever to watch an Indian team play, which was estimated at 6,000, the game will probably go down in local history as the best ever turned in by an Indian team.

The victory placed the Indians in the State Class A play-off and their next game will be with Wink, a consistent winner in the Western section of Texas. The last Haskell district winner was in 1938 when they lost the bi-district playoff to Crowell.

ately $140,000. The band hall and health education building for junior and senior high school will cost $40,000. The remaining $200,000 of the bond issue will be used to acquire a site for the elementary building, build a school bus shed, make repairs of other buildings and buy equipment.

Construction of the new buildings is expected to be started soon after the first of the year, school officials said.

Dr. T. M. Prideaux Is New Physician Locating Here

Dr. Thomas M. Prideaux, formerly connected with Scott and White hospital in Temple, Texas, has located in Haskell and will be associated with Dr. T. W. Williams in the Williams Clinic in this city for the general practice of medicine and surgery.

Dr. Prideaux, reared in West Texas, is a Navy veteran. Following his graduation from Texas Technological College, Lubbock, he attended Tulane Medical University in New Orleans and after his graduation served his internship in Scott & White hospital during World War II he spent two years in the Navy, returning to the staff of the Temple hospital where he has been for the past 18 months.

Dr. Prideaux and wife, the former Miss Jean Spencer of Dallas, have two children, a daughter five years old, and a son three months old. They plan to make their permanent home in Haskell, and are living at 900 North 8th Street at the present.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Simmons and J. J. Jones from Amarillo visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Frierson the past week end.

Haskell bounced back immediately following the kick-off when Ammons chased over from the enemy six. This series of play began on the Rotan 47, and was spearheaded by Ammons, Lusk, Miller and Davis. Haskell's attempt at conversion failed, and the score was deadlocked at 8-all at intermission.

Rotan took the lead in the third period when Clark again on a brilliant run raced 76 yards to score. The line play attempt for the extra point again failed and Rotan's scoring was completed.

Rotan drew first blood in the opening quarter when Clark, a midway in the period raced 45 yards to score following a recovered Indian fumble at that point. An attempted rushing play failed to add the extra point.

Haskell's decisive score came in the third period when Davis went over from the five following a downfield drive from the Rotan 45 after Davis had returned a Rotan punt to that point. Then came the point-after-touchdown that spelled a district championship for the Warriors.

No scores were made in the second period with Haskell turning back a determined Yellowhammer drive that had carried to the 21. Haskell was in possession of the ball as the half ended.

The fourth period was also scoreless with the Indians again stalling a drive for the losers that had carried to the 20. Haskell took over as the Yellowhammers last desperate attempt to score failed.

Santa Claus Will Make Annual Visit to Haskell December 1st

Legion Will Sponsor Project To Keep City Streets Clean

The Rogers-Cox Post of the American Legion has launched a project to place metal trash receptacles in the business section around the square in an effort to prevent streets and sidewalks being littered with paper and trash.

Legionnaires are asking other civic organizations and groups to donate one or more receptacles, which cost around $30 each, in order that at least 12 may be secured.

Santa Claus will be in Haskell Thursday afternoon, Dec. 1, to pay his annual visit to the kiddies of this area, and to wish each of them a very merry Christmas. Arrangements have been completed for the arrival, and plans from former years have been altered to allow each youngster the opportunity to visit with him personally.

The traditional Christmas program sponsored by Haskell civic and service clubs, and Haskell merchants is to be a gala affair this year. Santa Claus will make his appearance at 4:30 on that afternoon, coming down a chimney in a huge fireplace erected on the courthouse lawn. He will be enthroned on a platform and the youngsters are to file by for their visit with him, and as has been the custom in the past years he will have gifts of candy for each one.

The plan this year will allow the mothers the opportunity of bringing the smallest child. Other phases of the program include a concert by the Haskell High School Indian band at 4 o'clock that will continue through out the rest of the afternoon. Special Christmas music is being arranged, and groups of school students are planning a serenade later in the evening.

Highlight of the afternoon and evening will be the playing of organ music, chimes and carols from Haskell churches, and at dusk, members of the Haskell Harmony Club will present a program of special Christmas carols and music. Mrs. O. E. Patterson is president of this organization and will have charge of this phase of the day's activities.

Another highlight of the day's program, and one much anticipated by Haskellites and neighboring citizens, will be the unveiling of the store windows in the city's business district. Advance information reveals that the decorations in the windows will be more elaborate and beautiful than ever and will carry out the theme of the holiday season.

The judging of these windows will be done by qualified judges from out of town, and the winners in each of the five classifications will be announced by ribbons. Haskell merchants will hold open house until 9 p. m. on this evening in order that they and their personnel might have the opportunity of extending Christmas greetings to their friends throughout the area.

For the first time since the war, world markets afford complete lines of holiday merchandise and gifts, and local merchants have spared no efforts in bringing to the buying public of this area the very latest in seasonal merchandise and complete lines of gifts. Many of these items and gifts will be on display for the first time December 1 in the beautiful decorated store interiors, giving the shoppers of this territory the advantages of larger selections.

The city will be completely blacked out from 6 to 6:30 p. m. and at the sound of the siren, all stores will turn on their lights. Lighted for the first time this year at the sound of the siren will be the multi-colored lights that will adorn the courthouse and city streets.

Atop the courthouse will be four brilliantly lighted stars facing the four directions, and lighted for the first time will be the Community Christmas Tree on the southwest corner of the public plaza.

Evergreen Christmas trees will be placed at regular intervals throughout the business section to add their green color to the spirit of the holiday season. This phase is under the sponsorship of the Lion's Club and the Haskell Volunteer Fire Department.

Other phases of the city-wide program include the decorating of Haskell's churches and public buildings under the supervision of the local Ministerial Alliance, and at a later date the Progressive Study Club and Magazine Club will announce plans for the annual home and yard decoration contest. Suitable prizes are to be awarded winners in these divisions. Mrs. Jack Roten and Mrs. Robert Wheatley are presidents of these organizations.

Other planned activities that are to be announced later will truly make this the most enjoyable Yule Tide season in many years, and the sponsors of the opening programs on December 1 extend their personal invitations for all to join in with them in formally opening this joyous season in Haskell.

Mexican Is Killed In Highway Mishap Near Rochester

Jesus Alfaro, Mexican "bracero" working in the cotton harvest, was killed instantly Tuesday night when he was struck by an automobile about four miles east of Rochester on farm-to-market road 617.

Highway Patrolman C. A. Cockrell, who investigated the accident, said that Alfaro, about 23, was struck by an auto driven by Herman Hearn of Rochester. The accident occurred about 8:30 p. m. Hearn said lights of an oncoming truck blinded him and that he did not see the Mexican who was walking along the highway.

A second Mexican, whose name was not learned, said Alfaro had been picking cotton on the O. D. Poole farm near Rochester.

Alfaro was said to be a resident of Carrillo Valle, San Diego, Mexico. He is survived by his wife and seven children.

Body of the accident victim was taken to Mansell-Smith Funeral Home in Rochester, where funeral arrangements were pending Wednesday morning.

Planting of Cover Crops Increasing In Soil District

The planting of soil improving crops is continuing in the Wichita-Brazos Soil Conservation District. Thirty-eight cooperators with the district here have used the new fertilizer grain drills to plant peas, vetch, rye, and alfalfa. There is a continuing demand for these drills that put out phosphate fertilizer with the cover crops, and the demand will continue until around the first of December. Many cooperators have stated that it pays for many reasons to plant these crops. It holds the soil from blowing, it keeps the soil from being eroded, improves the soil content of the soil which is getting badly depleted, improves the tilth of the soil; does away with winter plowing; and increases the yield of the crop following.

The demand for terrace lines on maize and cotton land is expected to increase as those crops are gathered. There was much evidence of erosion during this summer of above average rainfall, and now is the time to start thinking about those gullies in your cotton and maize fields. Next year may be less than average rainfall and the conservation of every drop of water would be needed. Consult the technicians of the Soil Conservation Service assisting the district about your conservation needs.

Anita Jo Pitman and Wilda Medford Recite Wedding Vows Sunday In First Methodist Church

Anita Jo Pitman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pitman, and Wilda Medford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Medford, were married Sunday evening in a candlelight ceremony at the First Methodist church. The vows were said before a green and yellow arch. Flanking the arch were baskets of white and yellow chrysanthemums and tapers in tiered candelabra.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an ivory satin gown fashioned with high neckline and collar embroidered with seed pearls. The gown featured a fitted basque and full flowing skirt, with an insert embroidered with seed pearls, and ending in a chapel length train. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses. She wore a cameo necklace that belonged to her grandmother.

Gerrilene Childress of Brownwood, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Anne Rike and Mrs. Allen Overton of Odessa. Miss Childress wore a gown of moss green taffeta with fitted bodice and full skirt, and a matching color hat of shirred taffeta. She carried a colonial bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums tied with green. The bridesmaids' dress, fashioned like that worn by the maid of honor was yellow.

Janice Pittman, sister of the bride served as junior bridesmaid. Her dress was of yellow taffeta, areplica of the bridesmaid's.

The best man was the bridegroom's cousin, Dugyne Medford. Ushers were Curtis Cox and Allen Overton of Odessa.

Mrs. O. E. Patterson played as pre-nuptial selection, "Claire de Lune" (Debussy) and "Traumerel" (Schumann). Mrs. Bill Williams of Abilene sang, "I Love Thee" (Greig), preceding the ceremony. During the ceremony strains of Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata" were heard. At the end of the ceremony Mrs. Williams sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's parents were hosts for the wedding reception at their home.

The bride's table was laid with a cutwork Irish linen cloth. Centering the table was the traditional three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, flanked with the bridesmaids' bouquets and tapers in crystal candelabra.

Mrs. R. W. Herren and Mrs. W. E. Woodson served the wedding cake. Bobby Lewis and Gayla Holland ladeled punch. Claudia Hall registered the guests. Other members of the houseparty were Mrs. J. A. Byrd, Mrs. W. E. Payne, Mrs. W. O. Holden, Mrs. R. I. Overton, Mrs. Bob Smith, Barbara Holt and Frankie Sego.

For traveling the bride wore a gray suit with a white blouse and navy accessories. Her corsage was of pink camellias.

The bride is a graduate of Haskell High School and is a sophomore at Hardin-Simmons University.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Paint Creek High School and is also attending Hardin-Simmons. They plan to remain in school.

Fowler-Cartwright Wedding Solemnized In Candlelight Ceremony Tuesday Evening

In a candlelight service, Nov. 22, at 6:30 p. m., Mary Faye Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fowler, became the bride of Alonzo S. Cartwright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cartwright of Munday. D. L. Ashley, minister of the Church of Christ in Munday, officiated for the single ring ceremony which was read in the home of the bride before an improvised arch, complemented by baskets of white gladioli and fern.

Miss Betty Sue Thompson of Lubbock was maid of honor and Keith Cartwright of Knox City served his brother as best man.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of champagne satin with navy accessories, carrying a purple orchid atop a white Bible.

After the ceremony, the brides' parents were hosts to a reception at which Mrs. C. G. Covey and Mrs. Keith Cartwright presided at the serving table which was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake.

Mrs. Cartwright is a graduate of Haskell High School and has been employed at a paper company at Lubbock and a news agency in Albuquerque, New Mexico. The groom is a graduate of Benjamin High School and Texas A. and M.

After a honeymoon on the Gulf Coast, the couple will live in Munday where Mr. Cartwright is agricultural instructor at the Knox County Vocational School.

More Federal Aid Now Available For Building Hospitals
More money is now available for building hospitals and health centers in Texas. State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox has announced.

Federal money channeled to the states for hospital construction has been increased from $75 million to $150 million, and the program of federal assistance to hospital construction has been extended through the fiscal year ending June 30, 1955. The increase in time and money is contained in an amendment to the Hospital Survey and Construction Act.

Under provisions of the act, the various states, to which the federal money is appropriated, makes the money available to local areas for hospital or public health center construction, if a survey shows the area is in need of such facilities.

As of October, when the amendment became effective, the states will put up half the money for new construction, and the local area, in which the hospital or public health center is to be built, must provide the other half.

total construction costs. Prior to October, the states put up one-third, and the local area was held responsible for raising two-thirds of the total construction costs. On new projects which had been approved prior to October, the local area must still put up two-thirds of the entire cost.

Several hospitals have been completed in Texas under the program. Other projects are currently under construction through out the state.

Outlook Bright For Good Farm Income During 1950

The net income of Texas farmers and ranchmen, on the average, should be good again next year, says Tyrus R. Timm, extension economist of Texas A. and M. College.

In the first place, he says, net farm income is expected to be good in terms of most previous years even if the decline expected in 1950 materializes. This will make the third straight year that farm prices have dropped from the postwar high of 1947. Net farm incomes for 1950 may be down as much as 10 to 12 per cent under 1949 if yields are average. Secondly, he continues, incomes of persons not living on farms are receiving their earnings from business profits, wages, dividends and rents may find their net income dropping less than those of farmers—maybe only 5 per cent. The expectation that exports will hold up, that business inventories will continue in good shape, that a large volume of savings is still waiting for prices of many postwar products to drop more and the cashing-in of the insurance payment to veterans amounting to some 2.8 billions of dollars are the dominant factors in the general outlook.

A third consideration, says Timm, is that the level of farm profits in 1950 likely would be much lower were it not for the strong government assistance in providing dollars for foreign countries to buy our products. And to a lesser extent by supporting the prices of some farm products sold in this country. Timm points out that part of the profits at least for 1950 have a risky foundation and much depends upon the continuation of government assistance.

The cost of farming is likely to decrease less than total farm income, says Timm, and that means lower farm profits. Total farm production is expected to continue at or near record level and this means it will be between 35 and 40 per cent above the pre-war level.

Profit opportunities for livestock look better than those for crops, generally speaking, says Timm. The supply-demand ratio for livestock is more favorable to the producer. Yet, prices of livestock could drop more than those of major crops since some current livestock prices are considerably above parity and for cattle, as an example, presently no government support prices have been established at any level. By comparison, prices of commodities such as cotton and grain sorghums are hovering near the government support prices.

Although incomes look good again for 1950, farmers and ranchmen should not lose sight of the fact that American agriculture has never come out winner from wartime inflationary periods, says Timm. It has been the same story—after the war of 1812, Civil War, World War I and so far, after World War II—the prices paid farmers have gone down faster and lower and stayed longer than the prices for things the farmers had to buy.

Cooking With Gas Takes Drudgery Out of Kitchen

When grandma was a young cooking housewife, her culinary chores were done over a red-hot stove and she had to like it. Today her daughter-successor in the kitchen has replaced drudgery with comfort by using a modern gas range with automatic features which conserve food, fuel, time and energy in meal preparation. These automatic requirements actually accomplish the cooking of a complete meal while the housewife is "miles away."

These advantages are available on ranges being sold in the gas industry's current nation-wide "Old Stove Round-Up." The Lone Star Gas Company and many gas appliance dealers in this territory are offering special down payments and monthly terms and liberal trade-in allowances on old stoves during the "round-up" inducements for householders to modernize their cooking.

To assure homemakers full value when purchasing gas ranges, the gas industry has established "seals of quality" which are readily recognized on standard equipment. Every approved gas range bears a visible blue seal authorized by the American Gas Association. This seal means that expert technicians have checked the range and it meets with the severest requirements for safety, performance, durability, cleanliness and economy of operation. Further, because gas ranges are designed in a wide variety of styles to give every homemaker "just what she wants" in a cooking appliance, an additional seal is provided for de luxe gas ranges. This is the "CP" seal which represents Cooking Perfection.

An expert in the art of gas cookery describes gas ranges as "Economic to buy, to install and to operate." She is Miss Julia Hunter, Lone Star Gas Company home economic director, who points out that "gas ranges never lose their efficiency. There is no substitute for flame cooking—absolutely none."

"Gas ranges operate on one-fourth the cost of non-flame artificial cooking methods," Miss Hunter said. "Gas ranges are ultra modern in construction and appearance and more beautiful ranges cannot be bought. They are dependable as gas service itself; gas is your most reliable domestic servant, providing instant heat when you need it. Gas cooking begins with the twist of the wrist"
