

Lure of Foreign Lands Continue to Beckon Worker

Imogene Sloan, a colorful woman from Muleshoe and many other places is completing a month's visit here with her mother, Mrs. Nell Sloan and a sister, Mrs. Clarence Cope-land.

The life Imogene has led for the past eight years is what puts the 'colorful' tones to her personality and conversation.

She is employed by the State Department as a Foreign Service Staff officer.

One quirk in the job, although one which would not be called such to just anyone . . . is the fact that there are no such things as concerts in dark Africa. She is a lover of concerts and wherever she goes, she takes them on tapes and recordings.

Her work takes her many places. It is generally classed as office work, however it allows her to meet many people from many lands.

She arrived here from Paramaribo, Surinam, South America on February 25, where she had spent the past two years. Each two years, a staff officer is required to spend 20 working days, or approximately 6 weeks in their homeland . . . then it's back to work.

"You would really be surprised at what a change takes place in the supermarkets in the United States in that length of time . . . while here, there is never time to really become orientated and learn all the new things, and the changes which take place in everything from government to the downtown store is astounding." "Government housing is supplied at the post's where we work," Imogene said, "and we have everything we need . . . sometimes not all we desire, but certainly our needs."

"Each change we made on overseas's post is likely a major one . . . getting used to the customs of the country and perhaps the biggest problem is adjusting to the foods of that particular land."

"For instance, the beef in Paramaribo is horrible, but the pork can't be beaten anywhere.

It is not required of us that we mix with the people of these countries, but we find friends among them and enjoy ourselves. If we just lived within our small few at these posts, life would be boring instead of eventful. At the Paramaribo post, there were only six of us, so we would have become quite bored without outside participation in the custom entertainment of that country.

Imogene was stationed in Bonn, Germany for three and one-half years; in Dusseldorf for one-and-one-half years and in South America for two years.

On March 31 she flies from Washington to her next assignment in London which will cover a five-year period.

"Some of the places we are sent are war zones and rated as 'danger assignments' and according to the rating of the danger, pay is increased up to 50 percent. Some is increased 25 percent where living conditions are not good.

"Even though some of the countries are not at war among themselves or another country, the natives are sometimes anti-American, thus unfriendly and this also is considered by the United States Government as a more or less 'stress assignment' and pay is increased in these cases'.

Since she is a professional musician, along with her other accomplishments, she expects to enjoy the sights of London and will have enough holidays to visit Switzerland, Venice and other places of interest.

The State Department workers celebrate all the holidays of the United States as well as those of the countries where they are stationed.

Asked how she became associated with the State Department, she replied "I really don't remember . . . seems a friend of mine told me about it. Anyway, I took the Civil Service tests required, went on assignment and enjoyed every minute of it."

Following the examining of the petition and the order of request of the Board of Trustees of the South Plains Junior College District, the election date was set for Saturday, April 20.

Polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. that day at Muleshoe Junior High School, Precinct 1 with Ernest Kerr as election judge; West Camp Baptist Church, precinct two with Lonnie Wilhite election judge; Three Way Church, precinct three with George Tyson, election judge and Bula school in precinct four with J. After it has been determined that at least five percent of the property tax paying voters of Bailey County have signed the petition, and before the petition is presented to the County Board of Education, an order should be passed by the Board of Trustees of the South Plains Junior College District approving the proposed annexation. The petition then should be dated and presented along with a certified copy of the order of the Board of Trustees of South Plains Junior College District, approving said annexation to the County Board of Education.

3. - The County Board of Education then should issue an order for an election to be held in Bailey County, not less than twenty nor more than thirty days from the date of said order, and give notice of the date of such election by posting notices of such election in three public places within Bailey County.

4. - Only legally qualified voters residing in Bailey County should vote in said election.

5. - The County Board of Education should meet not more than five days after said election, and canvass the election returns and if the vote cast therein show a majority in favor of such annexation, the Board should declare said territory annexed to the South Plains Junior College District for June.

"You and the Other Generation" will be the topic of the Sunday night MYF meeting at the First Methodist Church.

The meeting is to start at 5:45 and will be Parent's Night with a salad supper being served.

Mrs. Dee Clements is in Methodist Hospital, Room 202, after being injured in an accident on the Bobby McGee farm Saturday morning. Mrs. Clements suffered a broken ankle with serious damage to the ankle bones. Surgery was performed on repairable bones and pins were placed during the operation.

Sheriff Dee Clements said doctors indicated that Mrs. Clements might be released the latter part of the week, however convalescence could take six months or more.

Mrs. Clements was struck by a swinging gate and when she stepped backward in an attempt to avoid being hit, her ankle turned and was broken.

Rev. and Mrs. Philip Berry of Littlefield were guests in the home of Mrs. Vera Engleking and her mother, Mrs. Matthesen, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Jessie Lewis, making her home at Muleshoe Nursing Home, is ready to begin her sewing and putting dolls together for gifts for unfortunate children at Christmas time, 1969. Those who have repairable dolls and material which can be used for making wardrobes are asked to take them to the Nursing Home to Mrs. Lewis. Each year for several years, she has supplied many dolls for children through her handiwork.

In law enforcement activities this week, Deputy Sheriff Bobby Henderson returned one from Shamrock on charges of auto theft and one was arrested by the Highway Patrol for driving without license, DWI and driving on the wrong side of the road.

City officers have arrested two persons for driving without a license, one for drunk and one for DWI.

Opposition Candidates on Ballot

An opposition group for the Earth-Springlake Hospital District has announced their intentions of making clear to the public and the residents of the district that they oppose new and higher taxes for the proposed Earth - Springlake Hospital District.

"We would like to make known who is on the ballot for directors of the opposition group, Kenneth Cowley said.

They are Don Bryant, Pleasant Valley; Jim Bridges, Earth, Pat McCord, Earth, Fred Smith, Springlake - Circle and Kenneth Cowley.

Pounds and J. D. Chesney.

Cotton Increase 4,600 Acres

More than 66,500 acres will be planted in cotton in 1968, according to Charles Daniels of the ASCS office. This represents an increase of more than 4,600 over 1967 when 62,000 acres were planted.

In 1967, diverted acreage amounted to 32,000 acres, which is down this year to 27,685 diverted acres.

Under the federal cotton program, farmers this year are required to idle five percent of their allotments in order to qualify for direct government payments and price support allotment.

Surplus stocks of cotton have been eliminated and the carry-over at the start of the new marketing year Aug. 1 is expected to be slightly below a normal reserve of seven million bales, cotton officials point out.

They believe it possible for the South Plains to produce another crop comparable to the 1965 record yield of 519 pounds of lint per acre across the area.

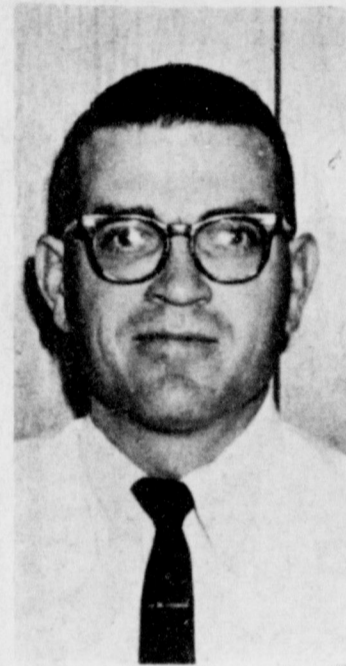

Many Plains cotton farmers have begun concentrating more on quality than on quantity, which could hold the average yield below '65 figures.

Absentee voting for directors will close Tuesday, April 2. Those wishing to vote absentee may do so at the Earth City Office during regular City Office hours. Election day is Saturday, April 6.

Other candidates for directors are Marshall Kelley, Her shall Belew, Doug Parish, Neil Doug Parish is secretary of directors serving now. Election judges will be Roger Haberer with Leon Dent serving as assistant judge. Four clerks named are Mrs. Jimmy Skipworth, S. K. Flatt, Don Clayton and Mrs. W. E. Hucks.

Weldon Barton has been named alternate judge and Tommy Sanders appointed as assistant alternate judge.

Stoneham Reviews Water, Soil

Henry Stoneham, work unit of the Soil Conservation Service, was guest speaker at the noon meeting of the Rotary Club.

His topic was "Water-1968." Stoneham said "For the present time, there is ample water for the need. Annual rainfall amounts to 18 inches, however it is rarely equally distributed.

"Demand is expected to increase by 1975 to 750 billion gallons per day."

Concerning control of water pollution and water waste, Stoneham said "Irrigation land should be bordered and the land leveled for more even distribution."

This can also be accomplished by installing sprinkler-type

TAX COLLECTION ★★★★★★★★★★★★★★ And It Isn't Just 'April Fool'!

At the stroke of midnight, March 31, a new day begins in Muleshoe.

For some, especially among the younger generation, it will be 'April Fool Day'. But, perhaps the most significant thing to happen won't be an 'April Fool' joke.

Monday, April 1, will be the first day of collection of the one-cent city sales tax. Saturday, December 16, despite adverse weather conditions, 384 voters trekked through the ice and snow to vote the sales tax in by a margin of almost four to one, 307 for and 77 against. Muleshoe joined numerous other Texas cities and towns who passed the tax by elections held.

Mayor W. B. LeVeque said from $40,000 to $50,000 annually would be realized from the tax.

Alex Williams explains why the tax is needed to keep up with the continued development of Muleshoe.

Williams highlighted the growth of a city and the need to plan economically ahead of time. He explained that a sales tax could trim the increases that will otherwise be necessary in property tax.

Needs of Muleshoe have been pointed out. A water system improvement program is needed. Ground storage facilities plus the replacement of old water lines that have rotted out, corroded and do not allow sufficient water pressure. Sewer systems needs reworking in old lines and collection lines and new and more facilities are needed at the treatment plant, he explained.

"Storm sewers will soon be needed and city parks and recreational facilities are badly needed for a city such as Muleshoe.

"A city hall such as ours is almost a disgrace to the community and the need for a community center has been stressed many times and is needed badly and would be an asset to the community.

"A fire station and additional equipment is also on the list of items which could be obtained by a sales tax and something which is needed for the safety of the community," he related. The police station, Chamber of Commerce building and public library were also discussed in explaining the need for a sales tax.

At least 50 percent of the sales tax collected will go into capital improvement which will not only benefit the actual residents of the city, but county residents as well.

Farm Labor Housing Almost Dead!!!!

A total of $6,400 has been placed in escrow by interested farmers and merchants in the county toward the $20,000 goal which has to be reached before Bailey County can obtain a Federal Housing Administration appropriation of $550,000 to construct a 100-family housing project for farm laborers.

April 1 is the deadline for raising this money within the territory for the complex and that is only three days away.

Of this needed $20,000, approximately $6,400 has already been placed in escrow. Both banks are acting as depositories for this project and those wishing to make contributions may authorize their bank to place the money in escrow for them or make a deposit toward the fund or deposit toward the fund at either Muleshoe State Bank or First National Bank.

BULLETIN

Irvin St. Clair has announced that the final meeting concerning the Farm Labor Housing Project will be held at 7:30 p.m. Friday, March 29, in the District Courtroom located in Bailey County courthouse.

The committee urges all persons who are interested and those who feel they might be interested to attend this final meeting.

"This will be a night of decision for this important project as the outcome will mean life or death to the project," St. Clair said.

Bookmobile Grant Approved

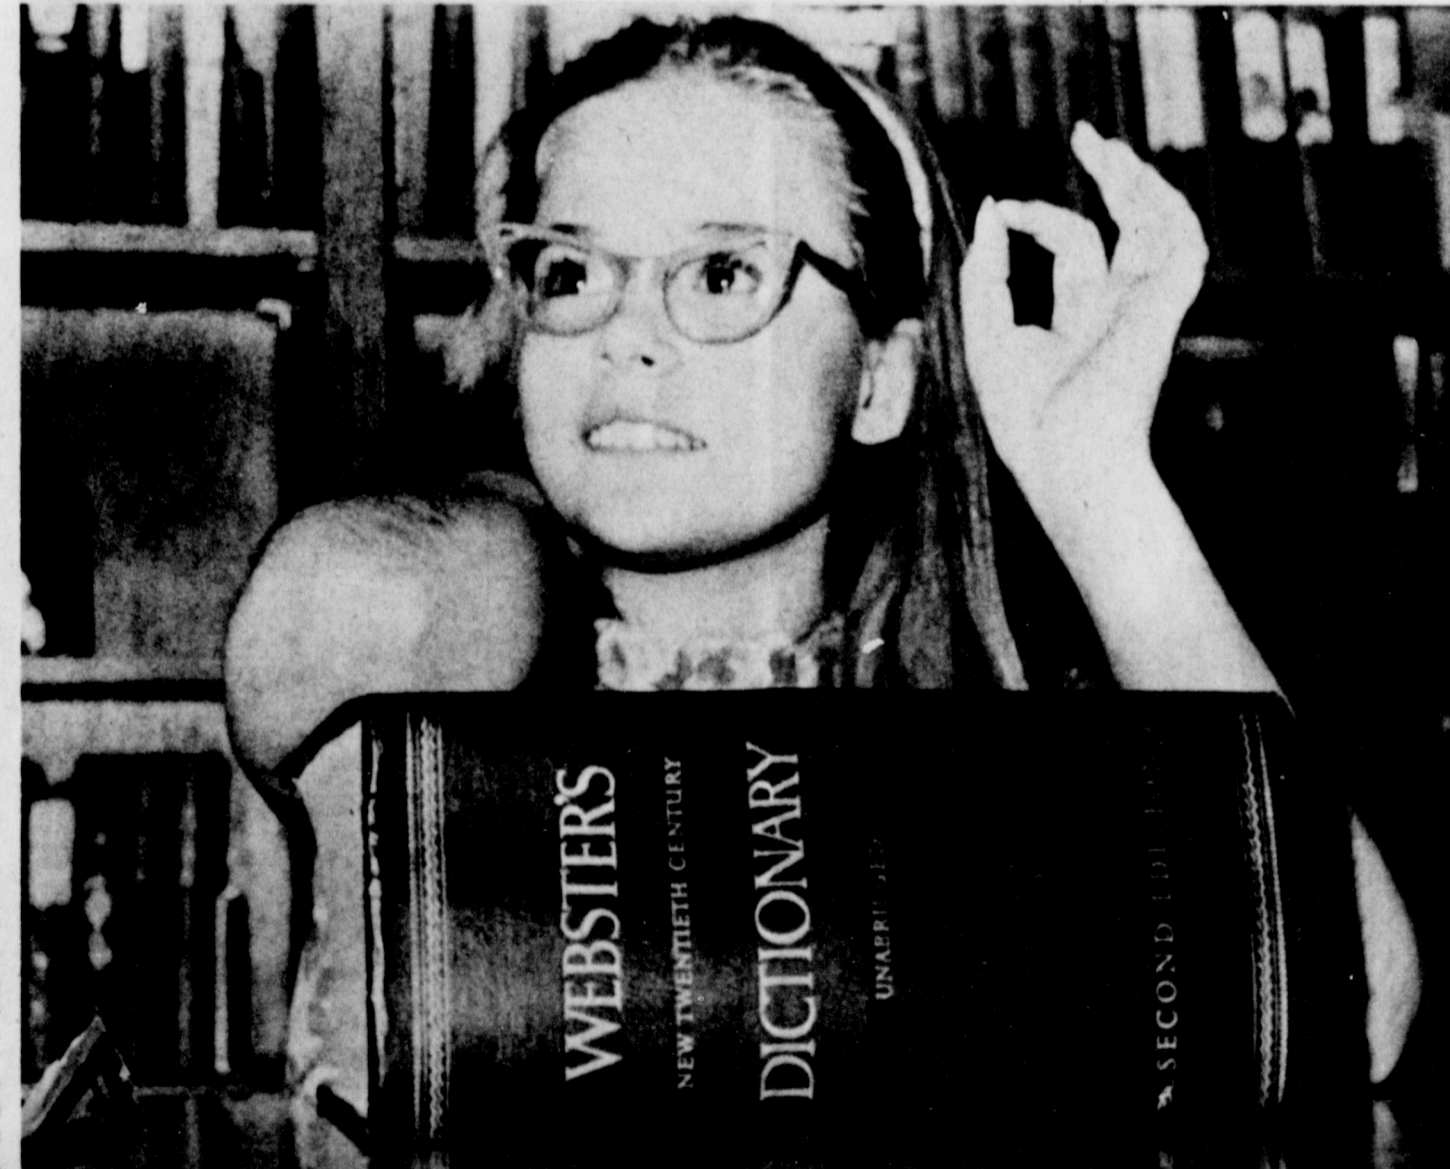

The High Plains Library Bookmobile has received notice from the Texas State Library that the bookmobile will receive a grant of $2,000 (two thousand) for books and book rebinding.

The County Judges from Bailey, Farmer, Cochran and Lamb counties are required to sign an agreement which will be returned to the Texas State Library. Then the grant money will be sent to the Muleshoe City Manager, Albert Field, to be used accordingly.

So far this year, the bookmobile library checked out 3,862 books in January and 4,735 books in February. "Since there is such a large demand for new books, we are indeed fortunate to receive this grant, Lorene Sooter, Bookmobile Librarian said.

In the event that enough money is not available for Bailey County to take the money loan to complete the project, the money will be returned to each person who has placed any amount in escrow. This complex will be used for farm laborers and the

Warning Sounded on Mail Order Insurance

The general public should become aware of misleading and deceptive practices being used in the mail order insurance industry to solicit sales.

The Plainview Association of Life Underwriters called attention to results of an investigation of deceptive insurance selling practices recently completed by the Federal Trade Commission. It revealed a number of abuses in which insurance is sold through advertising and other printed promotional material sent by mail to residents in Texas and other states.

"Public awareness of such promotional practices can save the consumer money, future embarrassment, and provide more adequate protection for his family," said Joe Ed Sullivan, president of the Plainview life underwriter organization. He said, "When buying insurance, a person should fully understand what he is paying for and the provisions of the policy. This understanding can be accomplished through an ethical agent who represents a reputable company."

Joe Ed said abuses were primarily found in the selling of accident and health insurance, but included some life insurance. He pointed out that the

EARLY FERTILIZATION FOR PASTURES
Neal Pratt, Extension agronomist, advises early fertilization for pastures. He says the abundance of soil moisture will be better utilized by pasture plants if they are fertilized early and that moisture will be conserved. To say nothing of increased production and improved forage quality.

FTC Investigations revealed the following primary practices used which appear to be misleading and deceptive:

1. Offering life insurance policies to the parents of servicemen with the implication that the insurance is being made available by the United States Government.

2. Offering life insurance to veterans under circumstances indicating that such insurance has been endorsed or approved by the United States Government and is being offered at Government rates.

3. Representing that policies are "Guaranteed Renewable" or can be cancelled only by the insured, whereas the company may cancel or rescind the policy because of alleged misstatements in the application form or because of "pre-existing" health conditions.

4. Using such terms as "Medi-Care" or otherwise falsely representing that the policies are in some way connected with the Government's Medicare program.

5. Misrepresenting the coverage of the policy or failing to disclose limitations or restrictions in the policy which pre-

6. - In the next meeting of the Board of Trustees of the South Plains Junior College District, an order should be entered by said Board of Trustees concurring in the order of the Board of Education of Bailey County, and said order should re-define the boundary lines of the South Plains Junior College District as enlarged and extended.

The bond issue needed to qualify for acceptance will call for a tax of 46 cents per $100 property value.

The assessed value will be one-fifth of the present Bailey County appraised value. All the groups present were very enthusiastic about Dr. Baker's proposal and petitions are presently being circulated

On the other side of the picture, however, producers are optimistic about the excellent planting patterns.

Area farmers speak of the subsoil moisture resulting from a "wet" winter, and point with pleasure to removal this year of penalties against skip-row planting.

The practice of planting "two-rows in, two-rows out" is expected to be more widely utilized, now that penalties have been lifted.

"Deep moisture" content is considered to be better at this time than it has been in many years by old-timers in the community.

vent the insured from recovering losses sustained under the policy.

6. Failing to disclose that the premium rate may be substantially increased when the insured reaches a certain age or at some other period of time.

7. Misrepresenting the business status through the use of such terms as "Foundation Plan" or well-known names in the insurance industry.

8. Using such terms as "Certified" and "Seal of Approval" without disclosing the true nature thereof.

Some protection for the public was provided by a new insurance law which was passed by the 60th Legislature and sponsored by the Texas Association of Life Underwriters, a 6,300 member association of agents dedicated to ethical principles and practices of insurance selling. The law has been in effect since May 12, 1967, when it was signed by Gov. John Connally.

The Unlicensed Insurers Regulatory Act (H.B. 1080) allows the State Board of Insurance to regulate unlicensed out-of-state insurers and prohibits them from doing the business of insurance by mail in Texas. However, it has no effect on the practices used by insurers licensed to operate in Texas.

A Senate Investigating Committee under the chairmanship of Sen. Doc Blanchard of Lubbock is currently conducting an investigation in accident and health insurance procedures in Texas, similar to the FTC study.

Many complaints received by FTC dealt with improper claim settlement, alleged unfair cancellation of policies after long periods of premium payments, and alleged unfair premium increases. "These can be avoided," Joe Ed Sullivan said, "if the consumer carefully examines the agent, the company, and the policy before purchasing insurance."

He further pointed out that complaints should be brought to the attention of the Plainview Life Underwriter Association which can provide guidance in channeling such complaints to the proper authority.

On the other side of the picture, however, producers are optimistic about the excellent planting patterns.

Area farmers speak of the subsoil moisture resulting from a "wet" winter, and point with pleasure to removal this year of penalties against skip-row planting.

The practice of planting "two-rows in, two-rows out" is expected to be more widely utilized, now that penalties have been lifted.

"Deep moisture" content is considered to be better at this time than it has been in many years by old-timers in the community.

ford has worked with the team this year without the services of one of the top competitors in track in the last two years. Bobby Julian, has been unable to compete this year due to a severely strained muscle.

Coach Stafford said Tuesday morning that it is doubtful at this time that Bobby would be able to enter any competition as the district meet is only two weeks away.

According to Coach Stafford, in Bobby's sophomore year, he was considered one of the top runners in the district.

At the Levelland meet on Saturday, March 16, Charles Beamon, was third in the 440 yard dash; Johnny St. Clair, second, 120 yard high hurdles;

John Elliott, sixth, 120 yard high hurdles; Danny McNiell, third, high jump; Joe Pat Riley, fifth, discus and Charles Beamon, fourth, 220 yard dash.

Last Friday, the evening before the Plainview meet, Charles Beamon became suddenly ill and was hospitalized. Thus, the Mules were deprived of their strong runner for the Plainview meet.

Danny McNiell was second in the high hurdles and John Elliott was third in the 120 yard high hurdles, Don Huff placed fourth in discus and Joe Pat Riley was fifth in discus.

The Mules will travel to Seminole for a meet on Saturday, March 30 and on the following Saturday, April 6, will go to Hereford for a district meet.

Growers bought every pound of Planavin® Herbicide they could get their hands on last season. Read why.

Planavin is the cotton-soybean herbicide that gives you more than your money's worth.

Shell's Planavin® Herbicide gives you more than just excellent preemergence control. Nothing on the market does a better job.

It had to be more than just another good weed killer in order to break in against established competition. Growers found out how good last season. Planavin proved itself under the worst weather conditions in years. It held the fort against most annual grasses and many broadleaf weeds—right through the early period when control really counts. Growers got what they paid for—freedom from weed problems during the time when weeds can strangle young cotton and soybeans. Plus a sound control base that makes season-long control programs simpler and more economical.

Planavin also gives you a bonus. It frees you from immediate incorporation. Takes the pressure off. And it can save you hours of application time.

With Planavin you can spray by ground or air. You can use large rigs, wide booms. Covering large acreage fast saves you hours. There's no waiting for incorporation equipment to catch up. No downtime for custom applicators. The reason? Planavin doesn't require immediate incorporation. You can take your time. Even a few hours of exposure to air and sun won't wipe out your weed control when you use Planavin. Note: When you do incorporate, keep it shallow—no deeper than 1 to 1½ inches. Don't bury your Planavin below the sprouting weeds.

Get Shell's Planavin® Herbicide early—to keep the pressure on weeds and off you.
