Opposition Group Takes Hospital District Reins

The reins of the Earth-Springlake Hospital District were handed over to a group calling themselves 'the opposition group' by voters in an election held at Earth - Springlake school Saturday.

Eighty percent of the qualified voters in the district turned out to take the directorship out of the hands of the five incumbents and place it in the hands of five new men on the ballot.

All incumbents were defeated and all new candidates were placed on the district board. Those elected on what is called the 'opposition platform' were Don Bryant, 422; Fred Smith, 418; Kenneth Cowley, 423; Pat McCord, 428 and John Bridges, 432. All votes cast for the opposition candidates were over the 400 mark.

Incumbents defeated were Marshall Kelley, 301; Hershall Belew, 292; Doug Parish, 219; Neil Pounds, 293 and J. D. Chesney, 283.

Since the establishment of the district several months ago, the 'political - law pot' has been boiling in Lamb and Bailey counties. Although the actual district is in Lamb county, it includes land owned by a number of Bailey County residents who are interested in the proposed building of the hospital within the bounds of the district which has been created. John Bridges, newly elected director, said "It is my opinion, as an individual, that the

Mrs. Kube Dies At Wheel of Automobile

OUT OF CONTROL---This is the 1962 Chevy II being driven by Mrs. Albert Kube when she suffered a heart attack at the wheel Monday about 4:30 p.m. The car traveled an errant path from U. S. Highway 84 west, crossed the median, a portion of U. S. 84 which is under construction and climbed the Santa Fe Railroad grade almost to the railroad tracks.

Mrs. Albert Kube died of an apparent heart attack while driving west along U. S. highway 84 about 4:30 p.m. Monday. The car which she was driving belonged to Mrs. Myrtle Williams, who was riding with her at the time. She was pronounced dead on arrival at West Plains Hospital. Mrs. Williams was treated for shock.

Mrs. Williams said, "We had been talking and suddenly I noticed the car veering to the right and heading toward the bar ditch. I looked over and saw that Mrs. Kube was slumped over the steering wheel."

The car crossed the ditch between the old U. S. Highway 84 and the north lane which is under construction and up the grade to the railroad track.

The 1962 Chevy II came to rest near the top of the railroad grade.

The top hinge of the front door next to Mrs. Kube broke, the door came open and Mrs. Kube fell from the vehicle. As the car rolled back down the grade after it stopped its forward movement, it ran over Mrs. Kube, pinning her beneath it.

Mrs. Kube, 61, had lived in the Oklahoma Lane and Progress community since 1925, moving there from Lee County, Texas. She was born July 23, 1906 in Lee County.

Services were held for Mrs. Kube at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Arnn have returned from Pack Medical Foundation in New York where Arnn underwent his semi-annual checkup and minor surgery. Mrs. Arnn told the Journal that the results of the test proved to be non-malignant. The Arnns left Muleshoe Sunday, March 31, and returned Sunday, April 7.

Two to Regional Meet in Odessa

Joe Pat Riley and Gary Strahan, by virtue of first place wins during the district meet at Hereford last Saturday, will compete in a regional meet at Odessa, Saturday, April 20.

Joe Pat, a Mule discus thrower, won first in the discus division with a 142'4". Pole vaulter Gary's 11' 6" won him a first at the district meet and a berth in regional competition.

With Muleshoe, Hereford, Tulla, Canyon, Dumas and Perryton in the meet, not only was the competition tough, but to really make things rough, the boys performed in the extraordinarily high winds and during a blinding sandstorm.

Don Huff, who had a 145' in discus, had to settle for fifth place in that field event as he toed off the mark only slightly, but enough to disqualify a first place win.

Scratching on 5' 10", Danny McNeill was in fourth place after clearing 5' 9" in the high jump.

Bobby Julian, troubled with a severely pulled muscle all season, ran sixth in the 100 yard dash and Charles Beamon was second in the 220 yard dash.

Coming in fifth in the mile relay was a team of Johnny St. Clair, John Woodard, Ronnie Barrett and Charles Beamon. Track coaches are Royce Barnes and Dick Stafford.

Coach Bob Graves' ninth graders came home with 21 points from the district meet at Hereford. Keith Turner won a third in the 220 yard dash, was fourth in the 440 yard dash and won sixth in shot put.

Ronnie Wolfe was second in pole vault with 10' 6". A relay team of Keith Turner, John Cole, Steve Black and Robert Gardner was sixth.

With more than 12 schools entering the track meet, the Muleshoe eighth grade team, coached by Ronnie Jones, was in fourth place with 35 points when the sandy, windy day was over.

In track events, Lee Wayne Clodfelter was second in the 100-yard dash; Mike Riley won fifth in 120 yard hurdles; a team of Sammy Parras, Randy Field, Lee Clodfelter and Mike Riley was second in 880 yard relays; Sammy Finch, Dewayne Williams, Randy Field and Lee Clodfelter won fourth in the 440 yard relay and in the 440 yard medley a team of Ronnie Meason, Sammy Parras, Bobby Hayes and Dewayne Williams finished in fourth place.

Field events had Bruce Bruns in sixth place in pole vault; Randy Field, second and Lee Clodfelter, fourth in shot put and Jimmie Steptoe, fourth in high jump.

Washington Report
 From Congressman BOB PRICE 18TH DISTRICT, TEXAS
 1323 LONGWORTH OFFICE BUILDING, WASHINGTON, D.C. • 205-3704

WASHINGTON --- The House Republican Task Force on Crime today called on Congress for "prompt consideration" of federal legislation designed to make it more difficult to hijack airplanes.

The GOP Crime Group noted that Congressman Louis C. Wyman (R-N.H.), a Task Force member, had introduced a bill (H.R. 1469) in January 1967, which would protect the cockpit and crew by requiring structural changes within the aircraft and would require declaration and permission before carrying firearms or explosives aboard any airplane.

"The bill lays the groundwork for Congressional action," the Task Force continued. "It ought to be brought up for hearings as soon as possible."

In commenting on the legislation, Congressman Bob Price, a member of the Task Force, said, "Hijacking of commercial aircraft is of growing concern to all air travelers. As far as Congress can do so, it should help restrict this type of activity. Action now is urgently necessary if the public interest is to be protected."

"The fact that the crime of sky-jacking is a capital offense has not deterred five sky-jackings of commercial planes in the last few weeks. For this reason our Crime Task Force believes a greater measure of protection is advisable for pilots and crew of commercial passenger-carrying aircraft.

"The legislation proposed would require bullet-proof construction for the door separating the pilot and passenger compartments; visibility of the passenger compartment from the cockpit; an improved warning system; and would prohibit the carrying of firearms or explosives aboard aircraft unless they are first declared."

Since the dawning of this fourth month, the weather has been largely unpleasant. March winds have carried over to April, the fury of which has increased over the so-called windy month of March. Few of the passing 11 days of the month have been calm. Light mist fell during the first calm day, Tuesday, April 9.

Street and business signs tell the tale of the gusts and steady winds which have whipped dirt about the country and kept the air filled with dust most of the time.

new board as a whole will try to abolish the hospital district. Basis for this belief is that the opinion of most of the opposition group is that Earth is too small to support such a hospital.

Parish, defeated in the election Saturday, said he believed that the new board of directors would try to kill the district, but commented that he did not know how they would do it. Concerning the defeat of the entire board, Parish said "the election was up to the people and I am not too upset by the results."

ANOTHER THING... April 15 is income tax deadline date.

April 27, 1822 is the birth date of another past president, Ulysses S. Grant, which just about rounds out the month... EXCEPT... for the second year of Daylight Saving Time.

Under the Uniform Time Act of 1966, as enacted by the U. S. Congress, all states that do not specifically exempt themselves from the act must go on Daylight Saving Time during a prescribed period.

This period extends from 2 a.m. the last Sunday of April, which is April 28, to the last Sunday in October which is October 27 at the 2 a.m. hour.

In case anyone wonders where -- and when, the idea of motion pictures was born, it too was an April seedling.

On April 2, 1902, the year dubbed as "great for barber-shop quartets" was the year that classics of close harmony, "In the Good Old Summertime" was first published. It was a good year for movies, too, although none realized it at the time.

This was the first motion picture, forerunner of an industry that would see more than

Two additional items have been added, also, with the 1967 legislature. They are wheels and rim inspection and steering inspection. The total list for being checked includes 17 items. REPORT FOR MONTH OF MARCH, 1968

CIRCULATION:
Books checked out, 1,601. This was an increase in circulation over February. We checked out 296 paper back books; magazines and pamphlets. Surprisingly, the most popular books of non-fiction have been on para-psychology. Many students are using these as term-theme material and adults are very interested in books of this nature. We made and received numerous loan requests from Lubbock Public Library and State Library.

Books added:
By purchase--30-(Memorial)
By donation--79
Total--109.

Also 148 paperback books and magazines were donated.

We had one storyhour for preschool children.

Lorene Sooter and I attended a one-day workshop in Lubbock on Library Systems in Texas. Mrs. Ruth Hammock worked in my place on this day.

We will be very busy ordering and processing books, after we receive the grant given us by the State Library.

The library has received a gift of money from the Half-Century club to buy a water-fountain for the library. This gift is appreciated so very much, as this has been a needed item ever since the library opened.

Rollie McNutt, Muleshoe Junior High Art teacher has a display of art work in the library done by his pupils, three of which won honorable mention at a recent art show at Amarillo. This show was sponsored in Amarillo by White and Kirk; and nationally by Scholastic magazine. The three who won certificates of Merit from Muleshoe were Dennis Parker, Renee Caldwell and Mark Long. These three and other art work done by McNutt's students will be on display at the library during the month of April.

We have the new book entitled "For Us, the Living" by Mrs. Medgar Evers, and also have Martin Luther King's book - "Why We Can't Wait" in view of recent events, either of both of these might be of interest.

Explained

Policeman-Excuse me, sir, but your lights are out.

Motorist-Thanks, but it does not really matter.

Policeman-By the way, do you have your license?

Motorist-No; I never had one.

Policeman-How are your brakes?

Motorist-Rotten.

Policeman-That's three violations. I'll have to arrest you.

Motorist's Wife-Oh, don't pay attention to what he says, officer. He always talks that way when he's drunk.

Selecting A Closing Era of Half Century Club Home Location

COLLEGE STATION -- The location of a home is just as important as the building itself. Extension specialist in housing and home furnishings, Bonny Lay, suggests some basic points to consider in selecting a home location.

Consider the type of neighbors present. Many prefer to live near people with about the same social, educational and occupational or economic background as themselves. Most people find that neighbors near their own age level and in approximately the same life cycle are more congenial which leads to a more pleasant neighborhood, according to the Texas A&M University specialist.

Consider the general appearance and attractiveness of the neighborhood. The development of the street system and lot patterns should be pleasing, convenient and safe. Most people prefer the other houses be about the same age and value as their own.

The adequacy of the community services should not be overlooked. Consider mail delivery, garbage pickup, fire and police protection, storm drainage system, sewage system and electric, gas and telephone services.

Don't forget to inquire about the tax levels in the location. Consider the tax level in relationship to the community services and facilities provided, says Miss Lay. One area may have a lower tax level, but adequate services and facilities may not be provided. Also investigate the possibility of special assessments for streets, sidewalks, etc., the specialist reminds.

A fifth factor to consider is the location in relation to community facilities such as schools, playgrounds, churches, shopping centers and place of employment. If a family has been accustomed to these conveniences, they might be unhappy without them.

Remember, when looking for a house, not to just look for a house but also for a neighborhood, reminds Miss Lay. It may be wise to choose the neighborhood first and then pick the house.

On Thursday noon, April 4, the Half Century Club members, with their daughters as guests, enjoyed a turkey dinner at L. B.'s cafe.

The long table in the private dining room, was covered with a white linen cloth centered with Easter eggs and miniature chickens and spring flowers. The atmosphere was one of extreme happiness and gaiety, despite the fact the members knew this was to be their last club meeting.

Mrs. Rachael Sterling gave the opening prayer. Mrs. Pearl Moore and Mrs. Mary Young served on the steering committee to plan the luncheon, welcomed the members and guests and expressed appreciation to those who had helped to make the luncheon such a delightful occasion.

Miss Mildred Davis gave the response, in behalf of the daughters of the club members, expressing their appreciation for the luncheon planning and the many thoughtful remembrances of their mothers by both individuals and organizations of the town these past years.

Mrs. Lois Schoenberger read the following poem and dedicated it to her fellow club members.

STEERING COMMITTEE--Mrs. Mary Young and Mrs. Pearl Moore, who served as a steering committee in making arrangements for the Half Century club luncheon. This was truly a labor of love.

DEDICATED TO THE HALF-CENTURY CLUB

When I was young my slippers were red; I could kick my slippers clear over my head.

As I grew older my slippers were blue Still I could dance the whole night through.

No I am old and my slippers are black; I walk to the corner and puff my way back.

The reason I know my youth has been spent -- My get-up - and - go has gotup and went.

I don't really mind when I think with a grin Of all the grand places my getup has been Since I retired from life's competition, I find every day an exact repetition.

I wake every morning, dust off my wits, Pick up the paper and read the obits.

If I find my name is missing then I know that I am not dead, So I eat a big breakfast and go back to bed.

Mrs. Pearl Moore conducted the brief business meeting; a report was given that the club had $252.65 left in the treasury. After paying $55.47 expenses for the luncheon and decorations, the balance of $197.18 was voted to be used by the Muleshoe Area Library for a drinking fountain and presentation plaque by the Half Century club members. The club then voted unanimously to disband as an organization.

The women were interviewed by a reporter from the local newspaper and radio. Back in 1937 Muleshoe offered few social clubs for the women of the town; As a result of this need, five of the women met together in the home of Mrs. Hattie Rockey, and on October 19, 1937 organized a club. They first named the club Fifty - Fifty club but later changed the name to Half Century, because one must have passed the half century mark before becoming eligible for membership. The charter members of the club were: Mrs. Hattie Rockey, Mrs. Gusie Mardis, Mrs. Beulah Carles, Mrs. Berdie Paul and Mrs. Eason.

The club continued to grow in membership and to meet the social needs of many otherwise lonely women of Muleshoe, particularly the ones who were widowed, the membership of the club was often among the happy memories of dinners, Christmas parties, afternoon sessions of visiting and playing games and trips, still bring a glow within the hearts of those remaining members. Most of these members are now in their mid and late 80's.

Twenty one members were present for the luncheon and a host of friends and relatives to enjoy the fellowship of getting together for the last time as an organization.

It was with mixed emotions that the remaining members of the Half Century club closed the curtains on this 31-year-old organization.

DINNER ROLLS

Separate refrigerator butter-flake dinner rolls into individual flakes. Spread each with butter mixed with chopped almonds and tarragon. Bake until golden and serve with luncheon fruit salads, suggests Extension foods and nutrition specialists at Texas A & M University.

CHARTER MEMBERS--Mrs. Birdie Paul and Mrs. Hattie Rockey were the only charter members present at the last meeting of the Half Century club when they met for the last time at a luncheon at L. B.'s cafe on April 4.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY

Some one has sustained an injury. The victim turns pale, gasps for breath and his pulse begins to weaken. He does not seem to be much concerned.

Crushing injuries are usually followed by shock. Fright is the first reaction to accidents, particularly where a number of people are involved and there are mangled bodies, crushed and splintered bones, torn and shattered nerves.

Severe burns, whether involving large areas or deep tissues of the body, are very apt to be followed by shock.

The temperature falls below normal. The breathing is uncertain, accompanied by gasps, yawns, and sighs. His face is as pale as death. If conscious, he keeps asking for water. He talks rationally, but remembers nothing about it afterwards.

As soon as the accident occurs send for the doctor or rush the patient to the hospital in an ambulance. If there is a delay, then you must know what to do in the meantime.

Keep the sufferer quiet. Do not allow people to rush in chattering excitedly about the patient. Put him on his back with his head lower than his feet.

Wrap him in blankets and put hot bricks, or hot water bottles, or any other method most convenient at the time for keeping the patient warm. When he asks for water, which he probably will do, if conscious, give him a little hot tea or coffee. A little cold water may also help.

Fainting, nausea and vomiting are frequently followed by unconsciousness. As a rule, the patient does not complain of pain. All the senses are deadened.

The layman can follow the above instructions and perhaps save a life.

JAUNTY JOURNALETTES

An average Muleshoe girl's idea of a sensible hat is one that permits her to see you with just one eye.

Another thing Muleshoe citizens will find worth remembering is that a man doesn't have to be a detective to find trouble.

Appearance of the first robin in Muleshoe is now generally considered a sign of Spring; but it used to be a signal for taking off heavy undies.

MRS. SNYDER ENTERTAINS HALF CENTURY CLUBBERS

Mrs. T. L. Snyder was hostess to members of the Half Century club at her home Thursday afternoon of last week.

A delightful session was enjoyed by all, the time being spent with needlework and visiting.

Among those attending were Mesdames: Mae Taylor, Neil Rockey, C. C. Mardis, Cora Givens, Clara Young, Lela Burton, Beulah Carles, Dora Riddle, John Kropff and W. M. Hough.

The club will not meet again until Thursday, April 21, due to the Methodist revival. Mrs. Beulah Carles will entertain members on that date.

Hints Offered On 'Mum' Production

COLLEGE STATION -- Proper planning now can assure a strong, sturdy plant to support the flower heads of blooming chrysanthemums this fall, says E. E. Janne, Extension horticulturist at Texas A&M University.

Large clumps of small green plants will soon appear where plants were carried over from last fall. Dividing these clumps and saving only the best one to replant is best. The entire clump should be removed from the perennial border with a spading fork or shovel and placed in the shade, out of the wind, while the beds are prepared for the coming season.

Fertilizer should be incorporated into the soil at a rate of two to three pounds per hundred square feet of bed area. Several inches of coarse sphagnum peat moss or well decomposed compost should also be added over the entire bed. Raking and leveling the bed after spading is important in order to assure removing all trash and debris. The selected plants from the clumps can be spaced about 15 inches apart. As each is set out, they should have the tops pinched off. After planting, the beds should be watered thoroughly. A mulch such as coarse peat moss, redwood bark, or pine bark will provide an attractive and effective mulch to aid in conserving moisture and eliminating weed growth.

Each time a new shoot produces about three sets of leaves, the top set should be pinched out to encourage side breaks from the leaf axils. This pinching out of the tip growth should continue until mid or late July and then no further pinching should be done so that flower buds can properly develop.

Fertilizing every three to four weeks and watering at regular intervals will produce strong stems and large leaves. These compact and bushy plants will have little tendency to fall over when the flower heads are produced.

For insect and disease control practices to use on chrysanthemums ask your county agricultural agent for a copy of MP-574 and L-199.

He Couldn't Say
 First Farmer: Pretty bad storm we had last night.
 Second Farmer: Yep, it was.
 First Farmer: Damage your barn any?
 Second Farmer: Don't know haven't found it yet.

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN--President Lyndon B. Johnson's decision to step aside is turning the May 4 Democratic precinct conventions from the previous label of "dull" to a new one of "hotly contested."

Gov. John Connally, who had been slated to be the Texas delegation chairman in support of President Johnson, with little objection from anyone, now has a fight on his hands.

Connally's forces launched a favorite son candidacy for Connally at a meeting of the State Democratic Executive Committee. Senator Ralph Yarborough objected, and appeared close to a decision to challenge Connally in the county conventions.

At first, the Connally candidacy seemed to be leaning toward Vice President Hubert Humphrey, but Connally wiped that out by saying he would not be a stand-in for anyone.

By contrast, Republican conventions on May 4 seem more peacefully inclined. The state Republican organization is united behind Senator John Tower's favorite son candidacy. However, a challenge may be posed by a group trying to win delegates for Gov. Ronald Reagan of California.

County conventions on May 11 and state conventions on June 11 will follow, but the grassroots decisions will be made in the more than 5,000 precincts in Texas on May 4.

"ONE-MAN, ONE-VOTE" EXTENDED LOCALLY--U. S. Supreme Court predictably has extended the one-man-one-vote theory to local governments.

Like legislative bodies, Court said, whenever city, county or other governmental units elect representatives from single-member districts, the districts must be substantially equal.

Ruling was on a case brought by Midland Mayor Hank Avery to force Midland County Commissioners Court to reapportion. Dissenting opinion warned of "avalanche of reapportionment cases."

Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin has predicted the ruling will not disturb local elections already in progress this year, and indicated he feels the problems of unequal representation will be worked out by Texas subdivisions without multiple court suits.

Prior studies have demonstrated, however, that the vast bulk of county commissioners' precincts would be affected by the new ruling. To assume that all will voluntarily correct deficiencies pointed up by the high court appears to be expecting too much of local officials, many of whom will have jobs at stake.

COURTS SPEAK--Texas Supreme Court reversed an Alice case in which a woman claimed doctors and a hospital were liable for assault and battery damages for operating on her without her consent. High court ordered a trial to determine if physicians were given adequate consent.

In other recent actions, state's highest court: Held that the legislature had authority to remove requirement of an election before major counties can make special, higher-level tax assessments on property in hospital districts to support medical school teaching hospitals.

Shook up lower court rulings in a case involving royalties on an oil and gas lease covering 1,500 acres in Zapata County.

Refused to review the case in which a man received $1,000 damage award after a Bellville surgeon left a sponge inside him after an operation.

Agreed with an intermediate court that Coca Cola company was not responsible for a woman's cutting her finger on a chipped Coke bottle.

NEW TAX BILL FORECAST Texas Research League, which has made detailed studies of state government problems, has come up with a new estimate that the 1968 tax bill must be in the $123-$130,000,000 range.

TRL noted that the comptroller's estimate of revenue available for next fiscal year has increased $93,000,000 since last April.

Sources indicate the league's estimate is close to that of Governor Connally's own budget staff. Connally already has tentatively okayed both a tax bill and a 1969 budget recommendation, aides indicate.

TORNADO SEASON NEARS--With the tornado season approaching, department of Public Safety has prepared a circular of tornado safety rules. In general, DPS advises: seek safety in a strongly-reinforced building--preferably in a basement; stay away from windows; if out doors when the twister hits, lie flat in the nearest depression, ditch or ravine. Last year Texas led the nation with an all time record of 232 reported twisters.

SPECIAL ELECTIONS CALLED--Governor Connally has set special legislative elections for May 14 in Harris County, Dallas County and Brooks, Cameron, Kenedy and Willacy counties.

Houston voters will pick a successor to Rep. Glenn Vickery who resigned. Brooks, Cameron, Kenedy and Willacy county voters will replace Rep. Bill Rapp of Raymondville who resigned to accept an appointment as Willacy County judge. Dallas voters must choose a successor to the late Rep. John Field.

LAW ENFORCEMENT PROGRAM PLANNED--Texas Research League has agreed to conduct and finance a study for law enforcement and criminal justice program designed for 10-county Dallas-Fort Worth region of North Central Texas.

North Central Texas Council of Governments is among 12 regional agencies in the nation which received a request from the Department of Housing and Urban Development and Department of Justice to undertake a pilot program design for comprehensive law enforcement planning.

One of first such studies in the U. S., it is expected to serve as a model for other areas. Design will show what a law enforcement plan should include, how it should be prepared and what it will cost.

Tax Man Sam Sez:

If we weren't modest, we would tell about 1/3 of the Northern Texas taxpayers, "Well, we told you so."

However, since we are modest, and the time has run out, we will simply tell you "Mail it now -- and sorry, you'll have to pay now too."

AFRAID TO DRIVE
Chicago--Having had a driver's license for 40 years, Mrs. Elsie Everson says she's afraid to drive. A friend got the license for her in 1927 (before tests were compulsory) and she renewed it because it was "good identification."

Great Tourist-Vacation Season to Be Experienced

By--Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN -- Greatest tourist-vacation season ever experienced in Texas is about to get under way. Austin will share in it, as will every other town in Texas.

Gov. John Connally has just opened the first of the 10 new Texas Travel Trails -- Mountain Trail in Trans-Pecos -- and dedicated improved Davis Mountains State Park.

Spending by out-of-state visitors in Texas last year totaled $1,200,000,000. Indications are 1968 will top that substantially.

Hemis Fair opens April 6 (granted some near-miraculous feats of speed in construction and cleanup activities) and will continue through October 6. Historic San Antonio's 250th birthday will be celebrated in connection with the grand opening.

By conservative estimate, 7,000,000 visitors will attend the fair during its six-months run. Twenty-six foreign governments will exhibit on the 92-acre site. Texas' own $10,000,000 exhibit -- the Institute of Texas Cultures, depicting the role of two dozen ethnic groups in building the state -- is expected to be the main educational attraction.

A $5,000,000 U. S. Pavilion will feature a remarkable motion picture on the confluence of western civilizations.

In addition to the educational events, plenty of top-flight entertainment is booked in San Antonio's new civic center on the fairgrounds, and there are rides, souvenirs and fun events for all ages.

Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson will head a group of dignitaries including Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall, who will preside over opening ceremonies April 6.

A great Texas attraction -- Six Flags over Texas -- will launch its eighth season (midway between Dallas and Fort Worth) April 13. Facilities have been expanded into a $2,000,000 program. Pioneer Amphitheatre's 1968 production of "TEXAS" in scenic outdoor splendor near Canyon, opens June 23.

COURTS SPEAK -- In a landmark case, the State Supreme Court found Methodist Church's Hilltop Village non-profit retirement home, which has some residents who pay up to $215 a month but cares for others on a charity basis, does not meet the test for tax exemption as a purely public charity.

In a long list of other decisions, the high court:

Upheld a $5,500 judgment for a man hit by a train at Midland after he pushed a car containing a woman and eight children off the track.

Agreed that a Potter County widow should be allowed to seek damages from a builder for defective residence construction.

Held that Garland cannot require a permit of Texas Power and Light Company to serve an area the city wants served by its own power plant.

Decided that a suit against an interstate truck firm, which damaged equipment in an accident near San Marcos, must be tried under the Federal Interstate Commerce Act.

Ordered a hearing at Eastland on the effort of a candidate for district judge to prove that he meets the residence requirement necessary to get on the ballot.

Agreed with a judgment against the J. C. Penney Company for malicious prosecution of a man whose driver's license was used by another to cash a stolen $100 money order in their store at Marshall.

Accepted a motion to dismiss a suit against a Houston woman for refusal to tell a judge the whereabouts of her son who was involved in a divorce action.

Refused to grant an application for a writ of habeas corpus to obtain release from jail of an El Paso juror who was sentenced to three days and fined $100 for contempt after he flatly refused to obey a judge's order to wear a coat in the courtroom.

Austin district court has begun a long hearing on the application of Trans - Texas, Braniff and Continental airlines to enjoin Texas Aeronautics Commission from certifying Air Southwest Company's four-engine Electra flight service linking Houston, Dallas - Fort Worth and San Antonio.

HONORS ANNOUNCED --- Sherman Birdwell Jr. of Austin and Garrett Morris of Fort Worth were named by Governor Connally to new terms on the Texas Employment Commission and the Texas Public Safety Commission.

Kenneth Pearce, 37, Department of Public Safety intelligence agent in Corpus Christi is the new head of the undercover investigations section of the Texas Liquor Control Board.

Richard C. Gibson of Austin has been appointed to the legislative Internship Advisory Committee.

H. A. Beckwith, veteran state water official, was honored when the "Beckwith Arm" of the Falcon International Reservoir was named for him.

Dr. DeWitt C. Reddick, dean of the University of Texas Communications School, received award from Southern Illinois University for the meritorious service to journalism.

Governor Connally named Irby N. Taylor of Dallas and Ward Westbrook of Jasper to the Texas State Board of Accountancy.

CONSTITUTIONAL REVISION -- Judicial sub-committee of the State Constitutional Revision Commission has recommended that judges of the Texas Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals be appointed rather than elected.

Recommendations call for appointment by the governor of two court judges from a panel submitted by a special nominating commission. Judges occasionally would "run against their records" on a public ballot, with voters marking their preference for continued service or judicial retirement. Where judges are rejected, new appointments would follow.

Norman Register, director of revenue and finance for the City of Dallas, says Texas' $250 home-furnishings exemption from ad valorem taxes should be either increased or done away with. Register told the local - governments committee that in 1876 when the $250 figure was written into the constitution it was enough money to furnish a house. Now, however, that's ridiculous, he said.

Another witness before the committee said that Lubbock and Dallas are the only two cities in the state which effectively collect their ad valorem taxes on cars.

Revision commission heard strong recommendation from former Gov. Allan Shivers for four - year - terms for governors and advice from Municipal Advisory Council that cities are losing "tens of millions" of dollars in bond interest rates because of antiquated provisions in Texas law.

"AMERICAN PARTY" NAME FREE -- Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin has ruled that the "American Party" label may be used by George Wallace - for - President supporters in Texas.

Opinion, requested by Secretary of State Roy R. Barrera, noted that the American Party name has not been certified on a Texas general election ballot since 1920, therefore it is not a "pre-existing" party whose name is protected from use today.

Martin also held that county clerks must accept for filing American Party required notice for its conventions and registrars must furnish the party registered voter lists for not more than $5 a set in counties where it holds conventions.

Party is determined to show a membership of 14,259, the number necessary to get Wallace on the Texas general election ballot. Officials also served notice that their members will get a chance to vote at conventions on liquor - by-the-drink and horse race betting, just like Democrats and Republicans.

MANUAL PREPARED--Atty. Gen. Martin has mailed to county and district attorneys copies of a new manual on Texas' extradition and rendition procedures.

About 800 cases involving use of these procedures for return of fleeing legal offenders to their home states are handled by the governor's office each year.

Manual is a practical guide on previously largely - unwritten details, following custom and tradition rather than statutory or case law.

ATTACK WATER STANDARDS -- Proposed water quality standards amendments were termed unreasonable by 200 oil, gas and chemical company representatives at a Texas Water Quality Board hearing.

One amendment would permit lowering of quality standards only where it is demonstrated to the board as needed to assure economic or social development.

It calls for the highest and best degree of waste treatment available for any industry, public or private project that conceivably could create a new pollution source. Alternative proposes industry be bound to comparably high standards of treatment the same as to those required of facilities serving the general public.

TWQ board probably will take no action before April 25.

SULPHUR EXPLORATION--State School Land Board has approved an application by the Duval Corporation to increase from 800 to 1,800 feet the maximum depth of exploratory sulphur wells on a mineral lease in Culberson County.

Lease was one sold November 7 in Texas' first sulphur-lease sale on West Texas lands. State will receive one - sixth royalty on production from the lease.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler has set May 7 for another sulphur - lease sale. This one covers 19 tracts of land in Culberson, Reeves and Pecos counties involving 8,938 acres.

SHORT SNORTS -- Governor Connally designated April as Bluebonnet Month in Texas and presented Helen Dale Biggs of Vernon as Texas Bluebonnet queen of the 1968 - 69 Bluebonnet Festival . . . Vernon Maxwell Arrell, formerly with the Texas Education Agency, has been named assistant director of rehabilitation -- a new job with the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation . . . Fredrick Bell of San Antonio, a retired brigadier general, has been appointed South Texas field consultant for the Texas State Library . . . Texas Railroad Commission approved a request for discontinuance of the railroad depot in Overton, which was once used by the Missouri - Pacific Railroad . . . Seasonally adjusted construction authorized in Texas rose 15 per cent in February, after declining 3 per cent in January, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports . . . Railroad Commission has been asked for a new field designation for 79 oil wells near Kilgore, now in East Texas field . . . Loy R. Jones has retired as supervisor of big San Antonio district for the Texas Liquor Control Board . . . New attorney general's opinion upholds the form of affidavit for use in April 20

Travis County Junior College district bond election. . . . Reports that Hurricane Beulah damaged fishing by dumping too much fresh water in Texas' bays are "hogwash", according to Parks and Wildlife Department.

Extra Income Is Taxable

DALLAS--Income from all sources, unless specifically exempt by law, is subject to tax and should be reported on your 1967 Federal income tax return, according to Ellis Campbell Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue for Northern Texas.

Such items as interest on savings accounts and U. S. Savings Bonds, tips, prizes and profits from hobbies and from the sale of property, are considered taxable income and must be reported.

The gross amount of dividends and other distributions must be listed on the return but the first $100 of dividends received is not generally subject to tax.

So-called dividends on savings and loan, and credit union accounts are actually interest and are fully taxable.

The instruction booklet you received with your 1967 tax forms lists the items of income that should be included in gross income, Campbell said. A careful review of your records will help you report all of your income.

Taxpayers who fail to report all of their taxable income will be required to pay the additional tax due, plus interest and any applicable penalties.

PLAN SUMMER PASTURES

Temporary summer pastures planted to sudan, sudan-sorghum hybrids or millet can fill the grazing gap need when native pastures are on the decline. If the forage produced isn't needed for grazing, it can be utilized for hay, haylage or green-chop, says A. C. Novosad, Extension pasture specialist. He suggests soil testing as the basis for the needed fertilizer program for top yields of quality forage. See the local county agent for details.

SP/4 Phil Provence With Skeet Shooting Team

Mr. and Mrs. George Provence were joined by Mrs. Phil Provence, Reese Air Force Base, Lubbock, on a trip to San Antonio where they visited their son and her husband, SP/4 Phil Provence.

SP/4 Provence is participating with the marksmanship division of the Army in an interservice skeet shoot at Lackland Air Force Base.

He is stationed at Fort Benning, Ga. and has received a marksmanship rating of 98 on the average to date. Other branches of the service participating in the competition are teams from the Navy, Air Force and Marines.

On April 29, the team will leave Fort Benning, Ga. for a six weeks tour of Europe where they will enter competition in several countries. After returning to the states, they will enter the international skeet shoot contest in Kansas City, then return the latter part of July. The services branches are attempting to earn records to enter in the Olympics.

Mr. and Mrs. Provence returned home Sunday while the serviceman's wife remained to visit several days longer with him and in the home of her sister, Miss Jo Ann Weathersby, San Antonio.

Church Leaders Oppose Liquor

Church leaders have voiced strong opposition to Liquor-By-The-Drink, according to the "Christian Crusader," publication of Texas Alcohol Narcotics Education.

The semi-monthly publication quotes Dr. T. A. Patterson Executive Secretary of the 1.8 million-member Baptist General Convention of Texas as saying that Liquor-By-The-Drink would increase drinking with a corresponding increase in crime and traffic accidents, deaths, and alcoholism.

A statement by five Texas Methodist bishops says, "Liquor-By-The-Drink is a 'quick drink' and brings alcohol closer to the steering wheel. We believe the 'quick drink' can be the most dangerous enemy to safe driving we have yet faced."

Church of the Nazarene leaders issued a statement saying, "We join with the concerned people of Texas in urging our people to stand opposed to the Liquor-By-The-Drink and Race Track Gambling referendums to be presented to the people of Texas on May 4."

Texas Alcohol Narcotics Education (TANE) is a non-profit educational organization supported by Texas churches of several denominations.

War on Nematodes Loom on Plains

Whether or not 1968 proves a year of decision in Vietnam, it is looming as the most decisive one yet in the war on nematodes on the Texas plains.

Plains farmers will escalate their efforts, attacking with unprecedented firepower a pest that contaminates 300,000 acres and costs West Texas up to $25,000,000 a year in cotton yield.

"It looks like we're sure to treat three times more acres against nematodes this year than ever before in the history of Plains farming," said Research Nematologist Calvin Orr of the South Plains Research and Extension Center, Lubbock.

He said a survey of its dealers by the Dow Chemical Company -- the major supplier of nematocides in the area -- indicates that 60,000 acres will be fumigated to control nematodes on the Plains this year as opposed to a top of 20,000 to 25,000 acres in any previous year.

Orr said he feels this is a "conservative" figure, adding that "We have interest this year like we've never had before."

For example, he said, the research center has analyzed 10 times more soil samples for nematodes this year than in any previous year. "Until this year," he said, "we'd been examining about 200 samples a year. We've already done more than 2,000 this year and they keep coming in."

Orr said the impact of this year's stepped-up anti-nematode activity likely will be extremely significant on farming practice in the years ahead. "It will be the year of the big test," he said, "Until now, we've had small, formal experimental plots to test economic effects of soil fumigation and we've had a few farmers who've been mostly experimenting on their own."

"For the first time this year, we're going to see fumigation adopted on a reasonably broad commercial scale. Farmers who fumigate will be watching the results carefully and so will their neighbors who don't fumigate."

"If fumigation generally returns the kind of profits we've come to expect, this year probably will be the turning point in a long effort to educate farmers about the nematode problem, how to detect it and how to cope with it."

For more than five years now, the extension center has conducted research into the best methods to control nematodes -- microscopic underground animals so small 8,000 can lay on a single thumbnail without overlapping -- and demonstrations to illustrate how the practice pays.

"On all these tests," Orr reported, "we have earned a profit averaging from $1 to $4 for every $1 invested in soil fumigation. We never have had a financial failure with fumigation when tested on land where nematodes were known to be a problem."

Orr said the most uniformly dependable method for controlling nematodes is to deposit eight pounds active DBCP ingredient per acre before, during, or immediately after planting cotton with new knife-type applicators developed by Dow in the last two years and now manufactured by Prior Products, Inc., Lubbock. This amounts to a gallon per acre with conventional solutions like Fumazone 70E or approximately 2/3 of a gallon with concentrates like Fumazone 86, he added.

A previous recommendation that soil fumigant should be applied at least two weeks before planting now has been discarded, Orr said.

"Fumigating before planting still is good practice," he added, "but we've found that we can fumigate at the same time we plant -- using knives on the tool bar -- or after planting and get results which are just as good."

Post-planting treatment should be accomplished before the cotton comes up, Orr said, adding that this flexibility may prove important this year if weather conditions crowd farmers for time to get their crops in.

The Ready Reserve of the U. S. Army Reserve is composed of units and individuals available for immediate mobilization in an emergency.

NEW! For clean Sorghum... spray weeds when you see them!
with BANVEL®

Velsicol announces Banvel herbicide for control of all hard-to-kill weeds of major importance in grain sorghum. This includes carelessweed (pigweed), sunflower, lambs-quarter, purslane, morning glory and other annual broadleaf weeds. Banvel herbicide is applied post-emergence, so there are no wasted sprays in years when rain is scarce and weeds are not a problem. With Banvel you see your weed problem and then spray -- all in plenty of time to give young sorghum plants plenty of opportunity to grow.

Banvel is sprayed onto weed leaves and translocates to the roots... for new, total control of weeds. Just apply Banvel between the 10th and 25th day after emergence of grain sorghum (approximately 4 to 12 inches tall).

Banvel is not dependent on soil moisture for its effectiveness, so its results are dependable. And it's a liquid that won't clog your sprayers; nor does Banvel need constant agitation.

Banvel increases yields. It's excellent for use on grain sorghum, wheat, barley, oats and field corn. Order Banvel herbicide to get full potential from your valuable, high-yielding sorghum seed.

Vietnam News

reported by Marine Corps Combat Correspondents and edited by GYSgt. Bob Montgomery

Marines at the Khe Sanh air field continue to move underground as they dig bunkers 12 feet deep for living and working spaces.

Most recent addition to lower levels is the field's control tower. The old one received a direct rocket hit in mid-February. Sgt. William H. Linnemeir, 21, was one of the two Marines manning the tower at the time.

"Luckily it detonated on a sandbag near the lower corner of the control shack," he said. Linnemeir received only small cuts on his hand while the other air controller on duty took some shrapnel in his leg and was evacuated.

Members of Marine Air Traffic Control Unit-62 set up a new tower the next day which rises only seven feet above the runway and is well sand-bagged.

Between towers, the control unit used a radio jeep to direct air traffic in and out of the besieged field. Crouched down between the jeep and a sandbag wall, two controllers took turns peering over their protective covering to check the runway before ducking back down to their radios and talking to inbound pilots.

"It seems every time a fixed-wing aircraft lands this becomes a high-impact area," said Sgt. Robert J. Dale, 23, another of the controllers, as he slid his legs under the jeep and leaned against the wall.

"You might say we have unique problems," commented Maj. John Havlik, officer in charge of the Khe Sanh air field. "For instance our runway lights require 8,000 feet of wire and it demands a lot of maintenance."

In the interim, flare pots are being used with crash crewmen extinguishing them when the enemy starts zeroing in. Like elsewhere in northern I Corps, weather is Khe Sanh's biggest problem, according to Havlik. "If this weather would only clear," he said, referring to the low clouds clinging to the surrounding hills, "we could get attack aircraft up here to knock out those mortar and rocket positions."

Until them, however, Khe Sanh is holding its own. "The 26th Marines," said Havlik, "are doing an outstanding job on fortifications."

Digging around the runway continues, too. "With the daily rounds we need little incentive to burrow," the major said.

Meanwhile, Marines on neighboring hills receive supplies and the wounded are evacuated by helicopters operating out of Quang Tri.

Know THE Weather

Where does the moisture in the air come from? Where does the moisture of clouds come from?

Since the sun produces no moisture, and since the air around us continuously presents clouds which bring us rain, naturally the question arises: "Where does the moisture come from?"

The answer is that the air through evaporation, absorbs moisture from the earth and ocean at an amazing rate. Millions of tons of water are absorbed through evaporation every second!

Thus, when a rain brings us hundreds of thousands, or millions, of tons of water from the sky, this water has been picked up from the oceans, rivers, lakes and the earth itself through evaporation!

Without evaporation, which makes possible the transfer of moisture large areas of the earth would be useless, desert wastes.

TSTA Majority Favor Base Increase on Pay

AUSTIN -- A majority of the membership of the 1969 regular session of the Texas Legislature will apparently favor a $1,000 or more base increase in state teachers' salaries, a statewide survey of legislative candidates indicates.

The massive survey of the 370 candidates for 15 open Senate seats and 150 House seats was conducted by Texas State Teachers Association.

Candidates' opinions appear in a special 24-page section on politics and education of the April, 1968 issue of the Texas Outlook. The TSTA magazine is mailed to the nearly 123,000 members of TSTA.

Every major candidate for lieutenant governor and governor, with one exception, are pledging teachers strong support for the TSTA salary program, the Outlook reports.

Each candidate for the State Senate and State House of Representatives was mailed a questionnaire asking his "yes" or "no" response to a five-part TSTA legislative program.

Eighty per cent of the candidates replied, and 80 per cent of the replies were entirely favorable to the TSTA teacher pay program.

The Outlook also reports that governor and lieutenant governor candidates generally considered as major candidates have met informally with TSTA's Legislative Committee. These candidates were asked to offer any statements they wished to make in connection with education. In no case were candidates for the two top offices asked to declare support or non-support of the TSTA program.

However, gubernatorial candidates Dolph Briscoe, Waggoner Carr, John Hill, Preston Smith and Don Yarborough volunteered enthusiastic support and endorsement of the TSTA salary proposal.

Eugene Locke voluntarily commented that he does not support the TSTA program. Locke said he preferred to await the report of the 15-member Governor's Committee on Public School Education which is due for publication later this year.

In the race for the lieutenant governorship both Ben Barnes and Don Gladden express support for the TSTA program.

The magazine also carries statements from every candidate for governor and lieutenant governor, Democratic and Republican.

Of the 343 candidates for the House of Representatives 280 replies were received by press time for the Outlook. More are expected to respond and their replies will be included in the May issue of the magazine.

Of the 280 responding House candidates 217 replied with unqualified support for the pay program. Only three candidates offered "no" answers to the pay program.

Twenty-two House candidates offered qualified support. Ten other replies were categorized as "maybe" answers while 11 offered only generalized support. Seventeen either gave no reply or left their position totally unclear.

Only 15 members of the 31-member State Senate are up for election. Of the 27 candidates seeking the 15 Senate

Dear Editor

West Plains Hospital Administrator Eddie Faust said today, "One of the nicest things that can happen when you are in the hospital is to have a visit by a friend."

The modern hospital is a complex of many forces brought together to provide care for the patient. Of all the many-sided topics faced by the hospital administrator, visitor relations is one of the most important. In visitor relations the hospital has the opportunity to develop even better patient service.

From the patient's point of view, he is an individual brought, by illness or injury, into a strange place to get well. People wearing uniforms and speaking a foreign language, immediately become an intimate part of his life. Before he has a chance to accept his new surroundings the patient finds himself being examined, fed, dressed, moved, medicated and cared for by people that he may not even know; he may not even see them a second time to get acquainted. These people share a private knowledge of what's to be done and move quickly to do it. In the urgency of their business, the patient, whether he is nine or ninety, may feel confused and helpless, like a child.

But the patient's confusion and helplessness are recognized by hospital people, and they try in every way to reassure him and make him comfortable. One way to help relieve the patient's feeling of insecurity is to surround him with the familiar faces of those dear to him, to make him the center of their attention and care. It is also important to him to know that his next door neighbor, his business associates, church group and friends can come to the hospital and express their concern for his welfare.

Yet visitors have needs, too. Before they can offer support to the patient, they, too, must be reassured. By their first impression they must feel confident in the hospital's service. Their expressions of confidence may in large measure help the patient accept and respond to his new needs. If the hospital visitor is to be a good visitor, the hospital must put him at ease. He needs to feel welcome and know that the hospital cares what happens to him. He needs to feel that the hospital cares that he has a place to park, a place to get information, a place to get a cup of coffee, a comfortable place to wait; he needs to know that he will be helped if he gets lost and that visiting restrictions exist for the good of the patient. His purpose must be acknowledged by telling him how he can help the patient. The visitor may not always be the visitor. Some day he, too, might become a patient.

Faust said that all hospitals express concern for visitors, whether they are visiting nurses, school children on a tour, students seeking a career, citizens providing a service, executives attending a meeting, or family and friends of the patient. He added, "Our visitors must be confident that the hospital utilizes every available resource to serve this community by providing the best possible patient care and making visitors, as well as patients, feel welcome."

seats 21 have replied. Twenty said "yes" to the pay program query. The other responding candidate said "yes," but qualified his answer.

In addition, seven senators not facing election this year have voluntarily responded affirmatively.

Similar responses were given by candidates to the total TSTA program. In addition to the pay program, this includes action on a state minimum sick leave program, a practice teaching program and clarification of teacher contracts.

Water Moving Meeting Set For Six States

A delegation of Bailey County men plan to join citizens from Kansas, Colorado, Nebraska, Oklahoma and other Texans at a meeting in Lamar, Colo., Friday, April 19, to learn more of the possibilities for moving surplus water from the Missouri River to the High Plains region.

Paul Cunningham, supervising engineer, with R. W. Beck & Associates, Denver, will outline the study which has been made on this project and lead a discussion on the feasibility of the same.

The meeting is being sponsored by the Lamar Chamber of Commerce, with Chairman J. Elmer Facer of the Chamber's Agricultural Committee in charge of arrangements.

Chamber of Commerce, Congressional representatives, state and federal agencies and leaders in the field of water conservation have been invited as representatives for this six-state gathering.

The proposed diversion plan would deliver an estimated 13 million acre feet of water annually. The water would be lifted through a series of reservoirs and pumping installations to a point near Alliance, Neb. A gravity flow canal would then deliver the water to the potentially high productive High Plains acreage.

The meeting is to start at 1:30 p.m. (MST) and delegates in most instances will be able to attend the meeting with a period of one day. No registration fee is being charged.

U. S. Army Reserve Week, marking the 60th anniversary of the organization, is April 21-27.

Cancer Control Month Marked

April is cancer control month in Texas. Governor John Connally signed the official proclamation in special ceremonies at the State Capitol recently. On hand for the occasion were the President of the Texas Division of the American Cancer Society, Dr. Robert V. Walker of Dallas, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pardee of Bryan. In his proclamation, Governor Connally called cancer one of the most urgent health problems faced by mankind. He noted that cancer will claim more than 15,000 Texans this year, but that 1,500,000 Americans are alive today, cured of cancer. Governor Connally saluted the volunteers of the American Cancer Society for their work. He said the Society's programs are necessary for the final conquest of cancer.

Bryan resident, Jack Pardee, representing one of the 1,500,000 Americans who have been cured of cancer, was present for the signing. Mrs. Pardee who accompanied her husband to Austin, is an officer in the Brazos County Unit, and is the first Lifetime Pledge of the American Cancer Society. She said her reason for volunteering as a Lifetime Pledge is very simple: "I work for the American Cancer Society because I feel it is the only way I can contribute to finding a cure for cancer."
