The other case was the suit of N. S. Hill vs. Wm. H. Cox...

The defendant demurred and answered that he had been garnished...

The verdict of the jury was for Hill, plaintiff. Exceptions were taken...

LITERARY STAFF.—We are deeply pained to learn, through the San Antonio Ledger...

Cuba.—By the arrival of the schooner Mary & Susan...

We feel confident that no one can visit Indianola without being suited in the market.

We noticed a petition a day or two since, circulating here...

Gov. Bell is not the man to deny such a petition under such a state of facts.

But it is contended, and with great force, that notwithstanding the testimony...

It is a dangerous and a very important duty, to make the field clear...

The Merchants of Indianola have adopted this course as the first step...
