Parade and bonfire thursday eve Homecoming coronation ceremonies Friday night

Four Ozona High School seniors will be presented as Football Queen nominees Friday night preceding the homecoming game. Selected as candidates are Esme Borrego, Janet Diaz, Alma Gutierrez and Vickie Reagor. Nominees are selected each year by members of the Lions' football team.

Esme is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Borrego. Her escort for the pre-game ceremony will be Butch Gonzales, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Vargas.

Candidate Janet Diaz, granddaughter of Mrs. Roas Diaz, will be escorted by Sam Hightower. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Royce Hightower.

Alma Gutierrez will be escorted by Abel Lara. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Juan Gutierrez, and he is the son of Rosendo Lara.

Vickie Reagor's escort will be James Sanchez. Vickie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Reagor. James' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Tony Sanchez.

All the escorts are 1986-87 team captains.

A week of homecoming activity will precede the Friday night tilt with Greenwood in Lion Stadium. A Thursday night bonfire and pep rally sponsored by the Lions Booster Club will be held at 8:00 p.m. across from Crockett County National Bank.

Dress codes for the week allow for Slob Day on Monday, Hillbilly Day Tuesday, 50's Day Wednesday, Clash Day Thursday and Purple and Gold Day Friday.

Also scheduled for Friday is the Poor Man's Supper sponsored by the Band Boosters at the Civic Center. Beans, cornbread, salad, tea and dessert will be served from 5:00 until 8:00 p.m. at the Civic Center for $3.00 per plate.

Homecoming week ends with a Saturday night dance at the Civic Center. Dr. Toons of Marble Falls will provide the music for the 8:00 to midnight dance.

Fly-in plans finalized

Confirmation of several specific World War II planes' participation in the Ozona Fly-In scheduled Oct. 25 has been received according to Bobby Aycock, Chamber of Commerce vice-president.

Four BT-13's will be flying in from Midland for the event. These basic trainers usually fly in formation en route.

A Kate, a Japanese naval aircraft, will also fly from Midland. Another Japanese airplane, a Val, will arrive from Jal, New Mexico.

A Corsair F-44 from Abilene and a P-51 from Breckenridge have confirmed their participation.

One individual from Midland has agreed to bring two planes but apparently has a choice of more than two from which to choose. He has not made up his mind at this point as to what the planes will be but will be bringing two warbirds.

Several other planes are "maybes" at this point, having indicated interest but not committing at this time according to Aycock.

Two radio controlled model airplane clubs vying to participate include one group from San Angelo and another from Odessa. If sufficient numbers of the little planes will be on hand from the San Angelo club, participation will be limited to them although the Odessa club has a somewhat different focus with giant (1/8) scale planes.

Possible mohair purchases

Japanese mohair spinners visit Ozona warehouses

Five Japanese manufacturers were in Ozona last week as part of a tour to become familiar with mohair production and to see Angora goats on the range. Their week-long tour of West Texas was sponsored by the Mohair Council of America in cooperation with Texas International Mohair Inc. of Brady.

The men represented spinning mills, a trading company and weavers. Included were: F. Watanabe of the Towa Keori Co., T. Hayakawa of the Nikke Victor Co., Shigeo Sugiyama of the Nippon-Hi-Spinners Co., Kazuaki Maeda of the Sanko Teito Co. and Shigenobu Kawashima of the Nagawa Co., the largest importer of mohair to Japan.

While in Ozona, the visitors toured Ozona Wool and Mohair Co., Wool Growers Central Storage Co. and the Bob Childress Ranch. Childress is president of the International Mohair

Council and has been a member of the board of directors for 15 years.

The value of the Japanese yen compared to the South African rand is currently making purchase of Texas mohair more feasible for Japan. South Africa has been providing 80 percent of the mohair purchased in Japan.

Because Texas mohair is oilier, it gives a better sheen when made into tops for spinners. The greatest number of spinners are in Japan, Italy and Great Britain.

Weaving is done primarily in Japan, Taiwan, Korea, Turkey, France, Great Britain and Poland.

Of the 44 million pounds yearly production sold, 60 percent of the mohair is used for hand knitting and is marketed mainly in Europe, Japan and the U. S. The International Mohair Council polices its own mohair with 23 laboratories to assure that mohair yarn has a certain percentage of mohair.

Fifteen percent of the world production goes into velour upholstery and children's teddy bears. Mohair is also used on the bottoms of skis for overland skiers.

Manufacture of men's suits requires eight percent of production, and 17 percent of the yearly production goes into high fashion women's wear.

Texas International Mohair Inc. of Brady is the largest top making plant in Texas and is owned by a South African firm. The Brady firm scours, combs and makes the mohair into tops.

Accompanying the Japanese group to Ozona were Bob Paschal, executive director of the Mohair Council of America and Nick Havas, Secretary of the U. S. Foreign Agriculture Service.

Sam Boswell was one of many Ozonans getting a blood pressure check Saturday during EMS Day. John L. Henderson is the attendant taking Mr. Boswell's blood pressure. The community was also invited to tour the ambulance while it was parked at the Village Shopping Center.

Lions fall to McCamey 3-35

BY T. C. TUCKER

The tables were turned on the Lions in a bad way Friday night when Ozona lost to McCamey 3-35.

The loss came after Ozona upset the highly rated Iraan Braves Sept. 19 with some of the best football played by the Lions in quite awhile.

"We made several big mental mistakes which McCamey took advantage of," said Coach Jim Green. "But the Lion players weren't lacking in effort."

Things got off on a good foot for the Lions after recovering a McCamey fumble moments into the first quarter. Ozona drove to within five yards and settled on a field goal booted by kicker Oscar Payne.

McCamey jumped right back though, scoring on their next possession off a 68 yard pass.

Even then, the Lions were still in the running. Although Ozona could not put any points on the board, they held McCamey until the second quarter when the Badgers scored from one yard out. The Lions had held on that goal line drive for five plays before McCamey could score.

With 17 seconds left in the first half, the speedy McCamey offense struck again, extending their lead to 21-3.

McCamey, who is ranked in the top ten, scored their second half points off big plays. The first came from an 80 yard run by McCamey's running back Rodney Terry, an example of McCamey's speed making up for lack of size.

The last touchdown of the night resulted from a foiled fake punt attempt. It was on this play that senior quarterback Sam Hightower had his bell rung, being hit hard after unleashing his pass downfield.

In good field position, McCamey quickly put the ball in the end zone, placing the finishing touches on a 35-3 win.

Though trailing by a wide margin, the Lions never gave up as several times the united defense held McCamey on fourth and one positions. And the offense bounced back, even at the end when Hightower remained on the sidelines and sophomore Copie Davis had to fill the quarterback spot.

Now the Lions face the job of picking themselves up and preparing for the game against Greenwood this Friday. If the pattern remains the same, the Lions stand a good chance at winning due to the home field advantage. Plus, this game also marks homecoming for Ozona and will add to Ozona's will to win.

Dentention Center incorporation approved

Crockett County Detention Center Inc. has been approved as a Sub-Chapter S corporation, and officers have been elected.

Harry Sinclair of Midland will head the organization as president. Other officers are Clayton Robinson, vice-president, and Burl Myers, secretary/treasurer.

Joining them on the Board of Directors are Bill Thornton and Sandy Stokes.

The corporation plans to develop the former radar base facility behind Crockett Heights into a 400 bed detention center to house minimum security prisoners.

Sheriff's Report

Knifing results in the arrest of one

Investigation of a knifing and an attempted break-in have occupied officers of the Sheriff's Department Sept. 28 and 29.

A 35-year-old Ozona man was cut several times by an attacker about 2:00 a.m. Sept. 28 near a private club on Pecan Street. Sheriff's deputies assisted the injured man until the ambulance arrived to take him to the hospital.

Witnesses were interviewed, and a suspect was arrested at his residence at about 2:45 a.m. by sheriff's deputies. The suspect was held on $10,000.00 bond and released Sept. 29 after making that bond. The report will be forwarded to the District Attorney's Office to await action by a Crockett County grand jury.

The victim was treated at Crockett County Hospital and released the next day.

An attempted burglary at the Chamber of Commerce office was reported Sept. 29. Entry was gained into a hallway at the back of the building, but the actual offices were not entered.

Nothing was found to be missing. Finger prints and photographs were taken at the crime scene by sheriff's deputies, and the case is being investigated.

Other Sheriff's Department activity for the week ending Sept. 30 includes:

ARRESTS:

9-23 A 28-year-old Ozona man was arrested by sheriff's deputies on charges of "assault-bodily injury". He was placed in jail on a $500 bond. The next day the subject was able to make bond and was released.

9-27 A 25-year-old Dallas man was arrested by sheriff's deputies on warrants charging parole violation. He remained in jail Tuesday awaiting transfer back to the Texas Department of Corrections.

9-28 Two Ozona men, ages 20 and 32, were arrested by sheriff's deputies for disorderly conduct and public intoxication resulting from a fight near the rodeo arena. The 20-year-old made a $200 bond, and the 32-year-old remained in jail Tuesday in lieu of $150 in fines.

9-29 A 30-year-old Ozona man surrendered to sheriff's deputies to begin serving a 30 day sentence for assault.

INCIDENTS:

9-23 An Ozona woman reported to the Sheriff's Office that she had been beaten by her husband. An investigation was made and a warrant obtained charging the husband with "assault-bodily injury". He was arrested later in the day by sheriff's deputies and placed in jail under a $500.00 bond.

8-28 An Ozona woman reported the theft of her purse from her residence on Avenue H. The purse contained $150 cash. Sept. 29 the purse and money were recovered.

9-29 A resident of Iran reported damage to his oil transport truck while it was parked at a lease site in Crockett County. The windows were broken out and the fuel tanks were ruptured. Sheriff's deputies are working with Peecos County deputies in investigating several suspects.

Deer management program explained at Lions Club

Mary Haecker with the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department presented slides and information on deer management at the Ozona Lions Club on Sept. 25. Ms. Haecker pointed out the importance of range management and deer population control in maintaining a healthy herd.

The club members received good news from the pancake committee. They appreciate the support Ozona showed for that event.

The Lions Club will hear from John Crockford of the United States Border Patrol at its meeting Oct. 2.

Dalton rites in San Angelo

Nora Dalton died at 8:40 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 23, 1986, in Crockett County Care Center. She was 77.

Graveside services were held at 2:00 p.m. Friday in Lawnhaven Memorial Gardens in San Angelo directed by Sizemore Funeral Home of Ozona.

Mrs. Dalton was born Oct. 30, 1908 in Hubbard City. A former longtime resident of San Angelo, she had been a resident of Ozona less than a year. She was a Baptist.

Woman's League hears talk on wool, mohair

The Ozona Woman's League met Tuesday, October 23, at the Crockett County National Bank. Refreshments were served by hostesses Patti May and Jane Richardson. Becky Childress then introduced and welcomed guest speaker Brian May, Ph.D. and manager of Ozona Wool and Mohair. He then gave a very informative and enlightening talk concerning the worldwide marketing of wool and mohair. May also highlighted his speech with a video depicting the various stages mohair goes through from the raw or greasy state to the production of yarns from mohair top. These yarns are then made into beautiful and fashionable clothing items enjoyed by men and women alike.

A brief business meeting followed with discussion concerning the October Fly-In and possible League participation. Members decided to man a food booth throughout the day. Also discussed were plans for the November bazaar. League members received committee and booth assignments from bazaar chairmen. Members present were: Lee Allen,

Sandy Baggett, Helen Bean, Tammy Bunger, Cathy Carson, Marilyn Chalmers, Ann Childress, Karen Childress, Becky Childress, Sandra Childress, Elizabeth Clark, Shelley Conner, Nancy Forehand, Sharon Forehand, Debbie Glasscock, Jeannine Henderson, Karen Huffman, Benny Gail Hunnicutt, Carol Hunnicutt, Teri Jackson, Barbara Malone, Patti May, Lorelei McMullan, Susan McMullan, Shawn Mitchell, Jane Richardson, Jodi Sessom, Susan Slaughter, Vicki Stokes, Carmen Sutton, Nancy Vannoy, Lisa Wagoner and Belinda Wilkins.

Freedom

By Connie Marroquin, Pastor
 Church of God of Prophecy

Freedom is a wonderful thing. We're privileged to live in a free country.

Freedom has cost the lives of many people, but they were willing to lay down their lives for freedom. A man once said, "Give me liberty or give me death." He would rather die than to live in bondage. So, do we thank God for all these good and brave people who were willing to die to make this a free country?

As the years have gone by, we have turned around and gone back into bondage again. You ask how? Well, I'll name a few. Alcohol - drugs - adultery - fornication - hatred.

Paul said in Romans 6:16, "Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey."

We live in a free country, but we are not really free. A man once said, "and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." John 8:32.

You see, Jesus loves you very much in that he was willing to lay down His life on the cross so you could have liberty. "If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free, indeed." John 8:36.

God bless you, and if you need prayer, write to us at this address, because we care for you, too. Box 1562, Ozona, Texas 76943.

Baptist Revival

Victor McManus, known internationally as the Man from Ireland, will be in Ozona October 5-9 to conduct a revival at First Baptist Church. McManus is one of the most widely known evangelists and Bible teachers in the world.

He has mastered the art of pictorial preaching; in his ministry, the Bible seems to come alive. McManus' messages are remembered because his listeners not only hear the Gospel, they see the transforming power of the Gospel.

McManus received all his higher education in England. He is a graduate of St. Andrews Theological School, has studied under and shared with some of the giants of the British and American pulpit.

More than 700 crusades and Bible conferences have been conducted by McManus throughout the world during his 30 years in evangelism and Bible teaching.

He and his wife are active members of the Ridgcrest Baptist Church in Greenville, Texas.

The community is invited to attend revival services which begin Sunday morning and continue at 7:00 p.m. that evening. Monday through Thursday services will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Church of Christ gospel meeting

Jim Hance will be the preacher at a gospel meeting at Ozona Church of Christ Oct. 5-8. Hance, the preacher for Edgemere Church of Christ in Wichita Falls, will speak at 7:30 p.m. each evening.

There will be a fellowship meal Sunday at noon.

Knights plan busy October

Three fund raisers have been planned by the Knights of Columbus during the month of October. Two of these will be to benefit the scholarship fund.

After church services Oct. 12, the K.C.'s will be selling hamburger plates. Fajita dinners will be sold at the Civic Center Oct. 24 preceeding the Ozona - Big Lake game.

The annual K.C. Tootsie Roll fundraiser for the hearing-impaired will be held Oct. 3, 4 and 5 at most local stores.

A volleyball tournament for high school and junior high students only will be held after church Oct. 19.

KNIGHTS RECEIVE DEGREE

Six candidates for the Knights of Columbus received their first degrees Sunday, Sept. 28, in San Angelo.

Candidates were: Lonnie Longoria, Alberto Borrego Sr., Manuel Munoz, Danny Ramirez, Arturo Gonzales, and Jessie Ortiz.

Residents and volunteers got a bang out of Monday morning's craft class when a balloon volunteer Marie Pierson was blowing up exploded. After a few minutes of uncontrolled laughter, work on the pinatas resumed with enthusiasm. Residents shaping things up were: Tomasa Ramos, Juana Hernandez, Manuela Perez, Pauline Clinton, Theo Burns, Lucia Rios, and Ola Mills. Volunteers were: Louise Johnigan, Ruth Hester, Mattie Cooper, Dorothy Doll, Marie Pierson and Lillian Tambunga.

Ola Mills, Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramos, Lucia Rios, Virginia Hoover, Jesus Hernandez, Pauline Clinton, Moriama Perez and Elzy Bishop made one basket after another in a game of basketball that followed Monday afternoon's exercise class.

Tuesday morning's bingo was assisted by Dorothy Doll, Mattie Cooper, Sophie Kyle, Georgia Kirby, Nancy Forehand, and Anna Bell Patrick. Prize winners were: Juana Hernandez, Edna Wallace, Pauline Clinton, Emma Taylor, Theo Burns, Moriama Perez, Rebekah West, Alice Ross and Tomasa Ramos. Minnie Karr won the first place prize of an El Chato's gift certificate.

Residents saw themselves on television Tuesday afternoon, thanks to Jo Davidson and the VCR she had taken of our last picnic at the park.

Wednesday morning's ceramic workshop had residents working on nativity sets and jack-o-lanterns. Residents attending the workshop were: Pauline Clinton, Moriama Perez, Tomasa Ramos, Juana Hernandez and Ola Mills. Volunteers were Marie Pierson, Ruth Hester and Doris Karr.

Cookies were served during Wednesday afternoon's Sunshine Hour. The local newspapers were read and residents shared jokes and funny stories.

After a pleasant visit with volunteers Vivian Hughes, JoAnn Williamson, Melinda Hokit and Clara Byrd in Thursday morning's beauty shop, residents were treated to lively piano music played by Clara.

Mid-week Bible study was presented by Charles Huffman of the Lutheran Church. Following the lesson, homemade cookies were served, compliments of Jo Ann Fenton. Thank you, Jo Ann. The cookies were delicious.

The Spanish Hour of Praise ended the day's activities just right. Visitors present were: Germana Onofre, Anita Fierro, Paula Leal, Maria Vitela, Norma Flores, Victoria DeLa Garza, Cecilia Ramos, Sulema Martinez, Beta and Lorenza Gutierrez and Fr. Richard Altenbaugh.

Charles Watson won the first place prize of a Watson gift certificate in Friday morning's bingo. Other winners included: Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramos, Edna Wallace, Manuela Perez, Minnie Karr, Rebekah West and Alice Ross. Popcorn was made and served by Anna Bell Patrick. Volunteers assisting with the cards were Lillian Tambunga, Dorothy Doll and Mattie Cooper.

Friday afternoon, residents packaged the necessary ingredients to make rice pilaf. These packages, along with the recipes will be sold in the upcoming Arts and Crafts Guild sale in November. Volunteer lending a helping hand was Jo Davidson.

Sunday's worship service was presented by the Church of Christ with a large number of members attending.

We would like to say thank you to the volunteers and visitors who shared their time with us. We appreciate it.

McCamey drills J.V. Lions 14-0

By Cople Davis

The Ozona Junior Varsity Lions put their 1-1 record on the line Sept. 25 against a highly touted McCamey team and came up short for the second week in a row as the visiting Badgers K.O.'d the Lions 14-0.

The Lions aired the ball out trying to capitalize on McCamey's inexperienced secondary, but the passing attack failed to click as Quarterback Chris Denman suffered through a dismal 2 for 22 night, throwing two interceptions and amassing only 43 yards.

One bright spot for the night was sophomore tight end Robby Tambunga who was on the receiving end of both passes.

"I had a terrible game," Denman said of his performance. "My timing and touch just weren't there. That's just something I've got to work on."

Tambunga also had some comments about the game. "We dropped some passes that could've been caught, and Chris wasn't getting a whole lot of time to throw. We'll get it together next week."

Tambunga had a 70 yard punt in the first half. On the night he average weight is 100 pounds Sept. 25.

On the rushing side of the ball, the Lions pumped out 137 yards on 31 carries for 4.4 yards a pop. The only problem was that the goal line became a barrier that no Ozona back could cross. Tailback Lalo Rodriguez was Ozona's leading ground gainer with 49 yards on 16 carries. Rodriguez has been out for four weeks due to injury and was seeing his first action in a game this season. Following closely behind Rodriguez was Roger Martinez who powered out 48 yards on six carries, the majority of which came on a 39 yard bolt early in the second quarter.

Defense was also a problem for the line as McCamey outgained Ozona in total offense 220 yards to 194. The big play was a major weapon in McCamey's arsenal as their first score came on a 68 yard pass play that shocked the Ozona secondary as well as the sparse home crowd.

With 00:31 left in the first half, the Badgers took a 7 to 0 lead. Their next score came on a 12 play, 72 yard drive capped by a two yard scoring pass from Chris Eslick to Robert Bailey to increase the Badger lead by six more points. The PAT was added making the score 14-0.

With only 7:00 remaining on the clock, the Lions tried desperately to get on the scoreboard but to no avail. The McCamey secondary tightened up and knocked away pass after pass to add to Ozona's frustration.

After a Robby Tambunga punt, the Badger's sat on the ball, draining the last few seconds from the clock. The final score - McCamey 14, Ozona 0.

Eighth grade continues domination

BY T. C. TUCKER

The 8th grade Cubs proved once more that they are capable of wiping out their opponents with the 27-6 win over McCamey Sept. 25.

Ruben Borrego led the Cubs' offense, gaining 109 yards for the night and scoring the first two touchdowns. Borrego plunged in from three yards out for the opening six points and then kicked the extra point.

Halfway through the second quarter, McCamey rallied back and scored six of their own points. On the Cubs' next possession, McCamey's offense held until Borrego broke away for a 67 yard touchdown and Ozona led 13-6 at halftime.

McCamey came out the second half and moved the ball to within five yards of the goal line. But Lonnie Martinez broke their back by returning an intercepted pass all 95 yards for Ozona's third TD of the night. Quarterback Brad Bollier connected with Mingo Perez for the extra two points.

"We played very aggressive defense," said Coach Don Payne. "Offensively, we need some work holding our blocks; both running and passing game still need some polish." Oscar Gutierrez, who had 56 yards rushing for the night, put the icing on the cake with his 22 yard run early in the fourth quarter. The extra point attempt failed, but the Cubs had another win tucked under their belt.

Defensive leaders for the Cubs included Martin Urbina, who also had 25 yards rushing; Anthony Vasquez and Gutierrez.

The Cubs' next game will be played here against Iraan Oct. 9. The game will start at 5:00 p.m. for the 7th grade with the 8th grade following.

Seventh grade Cubs pummeled 32-8

McCamey, fueled by an extremely big line, simply overpowered the relatively small Ozona squad whose average weight is 100 pounds.

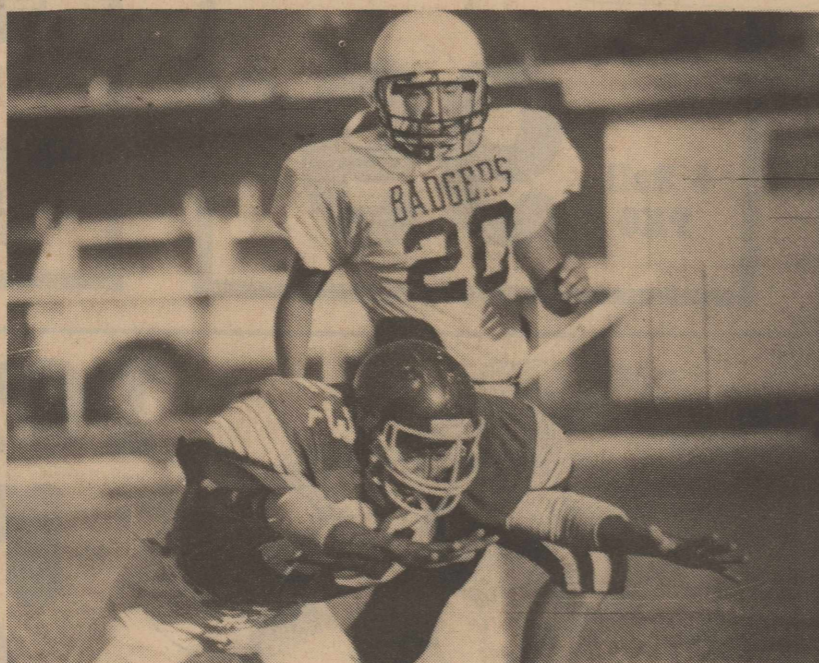

The Badgers jumped out to a quick lead in the first half when they scored twice in the first quarter. Both two-point conversions were successful, and McCamey took a 16-0 lead into the locker room at halftime Sept. 26.

After the intermission, the Badgers again stung the Cubs on a 20 yard scoring run late in the third quarter. Once again the conversion attempt succeeded, and the Cubs were faced with a 24 - 0 deficit. After another McCamey score in the fourth quarter, Adrian Vargas hit pay dirt for the Cubs on a one yard rumble to put Ozona's only points on the board for the night.

The Cubs had a disappointing night offensively as they could only muster 100 yards total offense, the bulk of which came on a 44 yard pass completion from quarterback John Babb to Mario Mendoza. Babb went 2 for 7 for 64 yards, but tossed three interceptions.

The Cubs' leading rusher was Adam Alba, who barely made a dent in the strong McCamey defense, rushing for a measly 20 yards, but on only four carries.

The Ozona 7th grade now has a 0-2-1 record as they gear up for district play in two weeks. The junior high is open this week due to homecoming.

Members of the Ozona Lion Band strut their stuff during the Ozona-McCamey game. The band is directed by Kelly Glaze and Eric Wharton, assistant.

The band is under the field direction of drum major Darla Judd.

Rachel's Reviews

by Rachel O. Hall

Osteoporosis: The Silent Disease

Osteoporosis, literally "porous bones", is a crippling, painful affliction that affects one in four women over the age of 60. The condition is characterized by dramatic bone loss throughout the skeletal system. Complications from the disease, particularly fractures of the hip, make osteoporosis the 12th leading cause of death in America.

Often called the "silent disease", osteoporosis usually goes unnoticed until late adulthood - around the age of 50-65 - when the damage is irreversible. Symptoms include painful bones, arthritic joints and a weak, brittle skeleton. In advanced cases, bones become so fragile that they may fracture at the slightest abrupt movement such as getting out of bed or answering the phone. In addition, the vertebrae in the spine may not be able to support the body's weight and, with the collapse of several vertebrae, the spine could curve into a "Dowager's Hump" deformity.

One of the leading factors linked to osteoporosis is prolonged calcium deficiency, most frequently found in women. Our bodies need daily calcium for bone growth and for the regulation of muscle contraction (including heartbeat), blood coagulation and nerve impulse transmission. When too little calcium is consumed in the diet, the body draws calcium reserves from the bones - the body's "calcium bank". When this continues over a period of time, the bones become weaker with each calcium withdrawal and eventually become porous. This is osteoporosis.

PREVENTION

Unfortunately, osteoporosis is incurable. The good news, however, is that doctors believe we may prevent the onset of the disease by eating a diet rich in calcium and maintaining a daily exercise regimen. A calcium-rich diet and daily exercise is also important for those already afflicted with osteoporosis, as it will help arrest further damage to the skeletal system.

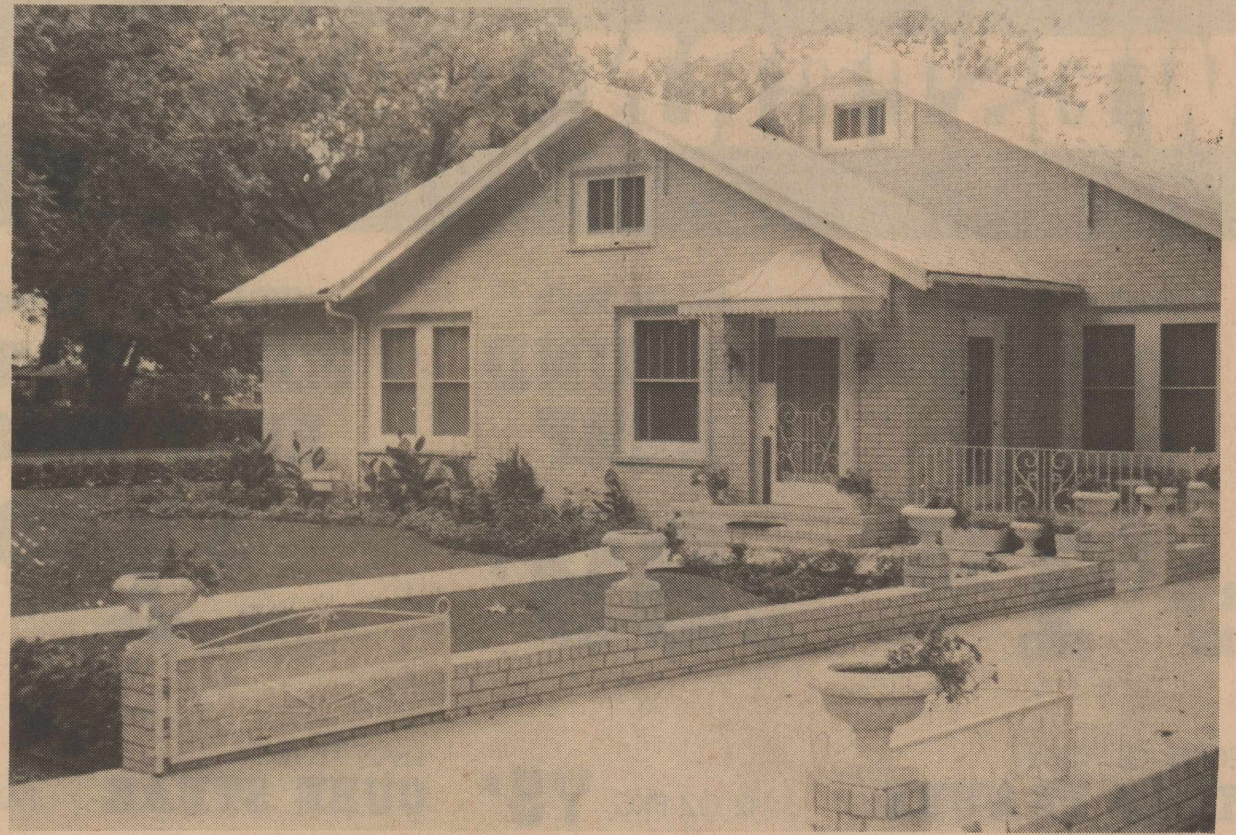

Milk and other dairy foods are the best and most easily absorbed sources of dietary calcium. Two and three-quarter glasses of milk, for example, provide the complete recommended dietary allowance of calcium for adults. Other calcium-rich foods include yogurt, cheese, ice cream and sour cream. Non-dairy foods such as sardines and salmon (with edible bones), dried beans and leafy green vegetables, such as kale and collard greens, are also sources of calcium.

Exercise also helps fight the battle of brittle bones. The best types of exercise to help strengthen bones are weight-bearing exercises. Activities such as walking, jogging, bicycling and skiing all stress the long bones of the body against the pull of gravity, thus strengthening the bone structure.

The time to start the fight against osteoporosis is now. The earlier one starts a calcium-rich eating pattern, the stronger the bones will be in later life.

Brilliant red impatiens line the front of the house while a garden of many-hued flowers fills much of the back yard.

Plants reduce soil erosion

By George Peacock
Soil conservation Service

One of the primary objectives of the Soil Conservation Service is to reduce soil erosion by providing technical assistance to landowners in the development of resource management plans. Any range management plan that reduces soil and water losses can help a rancher produce higher quality forage.

Some erosion is a natural occurrence. However, it may be increased by activities that upset the natural balance of the range ecosystem. Poor grazing management is one of the major causes of erosion on rangeland.

A raindrop that hits bare soil has a different effect from one that falls on a plant or litter. The racing raindrop smashes against the bare soil with great force, splashing water and soil particles and packing the soil surface together. The soil pores are sealed; resulting in very little water going into the soil, and runoff occurs. On the other hand, when a raindrop hits a plant or litter, its force is broken and it trickles into the soil. Grasses are the most effective means of catching and holding moisture on rangeland.

The primary treatment for rangeland erosion is plant cover. The first criteria is proper grazing management that provides growth and maintenance of healthy plants. The plants and litter form a protective cover that breaks the splash of raindrops and promotes favorable surface conditions to improve water intake.

The initiation of grazing management practices will gradually result in better production of grasses, improved condition of the range, a better water supply for livestock, and personal satisfaction in managing a resource. For more information on range management, contact the Soil Conservation Service in Ozona.

Lore Hohertz named FFA Sweetheart

Lore Hohertz has been chosen as FFA Sweetheart of 1986-87. The selection was made last week by chapter members.

The OHS junior has been active in the 4-H lamb program and enjoys training horses. She is an active rodeo participant competing in poles, barrels and goat tying events.

Golf, band and the Front Line are among Lore's interests.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hohertz.

Roger Flores and Vicki Reagor to be featured by the Fort Worth Star Telegram

Two Ozona High School seniors will be featured in a Fort Worth Star Telegram story on the life of a teenager in a small town.

Vickie Reagor and Roger Flores will be accompanied by Star Telegram reporters several days during Homecoming Week as they make their classes and during their after school hours.

"Vickie and Roger are students I felt would be most representative of the school and community," said

OHS Principal Jim Payne.

The students, their parents and Mr. Payne will be part of the interview.

"The reporters will arrive probably no later than Wednesday and are expected to stay through the Homecoming dance," said Mr. Payne.

Vickie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Reagor, and Roger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Flores.

PSAT test helps students qualify for scholarships

This fall the nearly 1.6 million students across the United States who take the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT) will have a special opportunity to familiarize themselves with the testing format also used on the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT).

This year, the PSAT/NMSQT will be offered Tuesday, Oct. 21, at Ozona High School. Students need to see Mr. Williams about taking the test. The cost will be $5.00.

Through the PSAT/NMSQT eleventh grade students are selected for the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Program, which enables talented students to compete for scholarships. Hispanic students are considered for the National Hispanic Scholar Awards Program, funded through a $2.1 million grant from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.

In addition, students can use the test as a guide to see how they ranked nationally among other students.

As preparation for the 100-minute, two-part test, students receive a Student Bulletin containing a complete sample test with an answer key and scoring instructions.

After taking the actual test, students will receive a booklet, About Your PSAT/NMSQT Scores, a descriptive explanation of test results. Students will also be able to compare their individual answers with the correct answers by consulting the Report of Student Answers, another valuable guide. Actual test booklets will also be made available to allow students to spot mistakes and work out answers correctly.

Whales couple visit Mrs. Vicki Stokes class

An enthusiastic exchange of information between students in Mrs. Vicki Stokes' social studies class and visitors from Wales took place Sept. 26 at Ozona Intermediate School. The visitors, Diana and Peter Callaghan of Cardiff, Wales, were visitors in the home his cousin and her husband, Mary Jo and Bill Mason.

The students were eager to know whether or not the young couple had met any members of the royal family. Unfortunately not, according to Diana, although they had joined their countrymen in watching the recent royal wedding on television.

Cardiff, the capital city of Wales, only has four television stations and no movie channels, the students learned. They were also told that because of little available land, homes in Wales are mostly two story, people drive smaller cars, and shops are much different.

Diana Callaghan, who is an audiologist, had been in Florida for ten days on a study grant before coming to Ozona.

An arrowhead hunting expedition at the Ward Ranch had partially prepared the couple for viewing three elaborate Indian village displays in the Stokes' classroom.

The students were eager to share information about their studies and asked questions about students in Wales.

Rugby, soccer, musicians Paul McCartney, Phil Collins and George Strait, and the Cowboy game in London were also topics of conversation.

Diana and Peter received gifts of a Texas almanac, a Texas flag, silk bluebonnets and shelled pecans before leaving the class.

Front Line members Tonya Carter and Treble West [r] joined other members of the corps in presenting an entertaining half-time show Sept. 26 in McCamey.

Boosters prepare for homecoming

A report on spirit items was given at the Ozona Lion Booster meeting Sept. 23. Picture buttons are now on sale for junior high, junior varsity and varsity.

Jerry Lay reported that there are still some jackets on hand.

Boosters were reminded of the bonfire Thursday. Anyone interested in helping haul firewood is asked to contact Lloyd Winkley.

The Boosters will be having a fajita booth at the Air Show Oct. 25. Refreshments were served and a football film was viewed.

Intermediate 4-H officers chosen

Tuesday, Sept. 23, the Ozona Intermediate 4-H Club members met and elected the following officers: Christa Chalmers, president; Stefny Sutton, vice-president; JoLynn Vannoy, secretary/reporter.

Delegates are: third grade, Casey Upham, Dana Berry; fourth grade - Micky White, Courtney Phillips; fifth grade - Stephen Gray, Mindy Coates.

After electing officers, the members made banners for the 4-H banquet.

Attending the meeting were 45 members, parents and sponsors. JoLynn Vannoy reporting

People, Places, & Things

Anyone desiring to take a hunter safety course needs to call me at 392-3972 after 7:00 p.m., and secure a place in the course, to be held Oct. 14-16 in Ozona. Especially you first-time Rocky Mountain-bound deer and elk hunters. This will be the only course offered in Crockett County in 1986 - no last minute crash courses the day before you're due to leave for Colorado.

A small percentage of Texas hunters will begin deer and turkey season Saturday, Oct. 4, with a special archery season that'll run through Nov. 2. And that doesn't bother me a bit that it's such a small percentage of hunters; most of the time I think the percentage should be even smaller!

Now before all you bow hunters get your dander up and your fletchings ruffled, let me explain myself. I used to always subscribe to the school of thought that if a bow and arrow was any good, we'd have an Indian for president. Then a few years ago, I saw a bumper sticker (obviously on a pickup with a bow in the gun rack) with a picture of ole' Sitting Bull in all his feathers and finery, atop his favorite pinto pony, with a compound bow held high in defiance. And a caption which suggestively read, "What If?"

Fact of the matter is, I have the utmost respect for a true bowhunter - the hunter who has actually graduated up from rifle hunting to go from an easy kill to a challenging hunting experience. However, we have an increasing number of folks out there each year that are packing around a bow merely as an excuse to get an early jump on the others. These would-be Robin Hoods have shot a few arrows through a hay bale in the back yard, and they say "that's good enough to kill a deer" - when it's really just good enough to wound one. In my younger days, I spent one October chasing a pack of hounds that were chasing deer across the hills with arrows sticking out of various parts of their anatomy - most of the time to no avail. If I had my way, we'd have a law that would require any potential bowhunter to qualify before he could glue an Archery Stamp on the back of his hunting license. It takes hours upon hours of practice, with hunting-class equipment, before a person has any business casting broadhead hunting arrows in the direction of wild deer.

But let's take a look at a real bowhunter. He's a guy that has taken his share of deer with a modern, flat-shooting rifle with a "surveying instrument" perched on top. He shot most of his deer out there from so far that the deer never knew where it came from. Getting his deer every year got too easy - just lost its appeal. His love for the outdoors and the thrill of the hunt was there, but the kill gave him no feeling of accomplishment. So he traded his rifle for the best and most advanced archery equipment available, then spent all summer learning just how far a hunting arrow would drop every five yards or so. And most important, he learned the limit of his ability with his equipment. He spent the last part of his self-imposed training on deer-sized silhouettes, and he realized that if he couldn't regularly hit a cottontail at 15 yards, he couldn't hit a deer in the vitals at 40. Then he spent season after season learning the lost art of getting that close to a wild deer, knowing almost is not close enough, and in the interim he forgot what deer meat tasted like. When he got his first deer with a bow, and it was probably a doe, he knew that he was the ultimate hunter. But it took PREPARATION.

So much for the moral; let's go on to the legal. Whether we're prepared or not, archery season gets underway Saturday, Oct. 4, so let's review some laws for Crockett County. Your new hunting license must have, signed across its face, an '86-87 Archery Stamp. Both sexes of deer are legal, except for mule deer, where only bucks can be taken. Any deer killed (I don't care how many days later you found it!) must be tagged with a tag off your license. You could theoretically fill your license during archery season if you're good enough, but they still must be tagged - deer taken during archery season are not extra. Turkey are the same as deer; either sex, properly tagged. Javelina are legal, and two's the limit (per person, per year).

A bow is defined as a longbow, recurved or compound, that is hand-held, hand-drawn and has no mechanical devices built into or attached to, that will enable the archer to lock the bow at full or partial draw. Other than energy stored by the drawn bow, no device to propel the arrow is permitted. Which I guess is a legal way of trying to say crossbows are not legal for taking game animals and birds, which they're not. Arrows can't be poisoned, drugged or explosive, and must bear the name and address of the user in a non-water soluble medium (I know there's no such thing as non-water soluble medium on an arrow, but the ole' India ink comes closest.) Arrows must be equipped with a broadhead hunting point at least 7/8" in width with a minimum of two cutting edges. Bows must have a minimum peak draw weight of 40 pounds, and this is the only change from past years.

Otherwise, all the other laws pertaining to game animals and birds apply to archery season. So, don your camouflage, grease up your faces, oil the pulleys on your compound bows, and get after it --- if you're qualified! And don't be surprised to see some bucks running does, if my guess is right. I predict about Oct. 15 (since this seems to be the season of the year for predictions).

Next week: Prospects for the upcoming deer season.

Conservation zones to elect directors

An election for directors in Zones 1 and 2 on the Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District Board is scheduled for Tuesday, October 14, at the S.C.S. office located at 401-First Street, announced Bill Baggett, chairman of the board. The election will be held at 7:30 p.m.

State law decrees that to be eligible to vote in a soil and water Conservation district director's election, a person must own agricultural land within the district where the election is being held. The person must also live in a county all or any part of which is in the district and the voter must be 18 years of age.

Legal qualifications state that candidate of the office of a soil and water conservation district director must own land in the zone he represents, be 18 years of age, and be actively engaged in farming or ranching. He must also live in a county all or part of which is in the district.

Zone 1 of the district includes lands in Crockett County north of U. S. Hwy. 290 and west of State Hwy. 163. Zone 2 includes all lands in Crockett County east of State Hwy. 163 from Irion County line to the north line of Section 23, Block F, approximately 10.5 miles south of Ozona thence due east to the Sutton County line.

Current members of the board of directors of the Crockett SWCD are Bill Baggett, chairman - Zone 1; Earl Action, vice-chairman - Zone 3; Gene Perry, secretary - Zone 2; Bud Hoover, member - Zone 5; and Zone 4 is vacant at this time.

The purpose of the Crockett SWCD is to promote sound soil and water conservation programs on farm and ranch lands within the district and to serve as a voice for ranchers on conservation matters and other issues affecting private property rights of landowners.

Levis and Lace hosts dancers

Dave Davis of Midland was the guest caller Saturday night for the Levis and Lace Square Dance Club.

Lillian and J. D. Brown served refreshments to local members and guests from Midland, Sonora, Del Rio and San Angelo.

After the dance, Ray and Marie Pierson hosted a late supper at their home.

The price of success is hard work according to Senior Lion George Wall. "My goal for the team is to win state, which we can do with the hard, good practices we take part in," says Wall.

The 17-year-old Wall plans an Air Force career. He is interested in computers and politics.

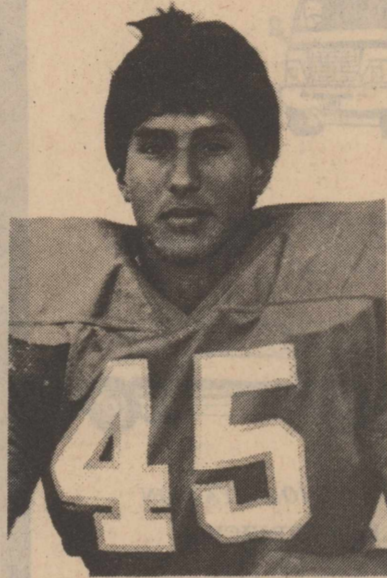

Music is important to Wall as it is to most teenagers. "I like football, school and the job I work at. I also like to ride around with friends or just hang around friends and listen to music."

No. 78
Danny Gutierrez

Tackle Danny Gutierrez is looking toward the playoffs for the Lions this year. The 17-year-old senior has participated in football and been track manager during high school. His life after high school is going to continue to be directed toward success, says Gutierrez.

Most of his leisure time is spent with friends and watching television.

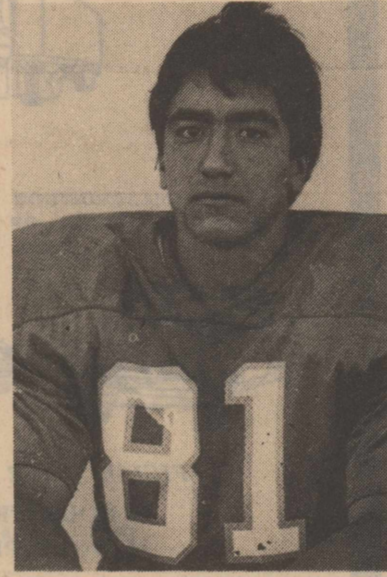

No. 45
