To define God is a solemn task. A quick survey of a concordance tells us many things that God is.

John 4:24 A Spirit Faithful I Corinthians 1:9 Light I John 1:5 I John 4:8 Psalm 47:7 King of all the earth Our refuge and strength Psalm 46:1 Deuteronomy 4:24 A devouring fire

There are many more but these will reassure us that God is everything we need. He is the Lord; the creator and sustainer of all that exists. Let us fall down before Him, worship and adore Him, and praise His name forever. Let us hold only to Him. There is no

CARD OF THANKS

From all the people who composed the family of Kieleigh Stephens we wish to express our heartfelt gratitude to the community for reaching out to us in our time of sorrow.

We continue to be overwhelmed by the love and concern shown to us in so many different ways by the community.

Kieleigh was a gift from God given to us for a short time. We will always remember the joy and love that she brought to our lives and we will continue to praise God for such a beautiful gift. 36-11c

CARD OF THANKS

What a great surprise 80th birthday celebration!

Thanks to everyone who came and for those who gave congratulation greetings afterward.

My daughter, who planned all, didn't have all the addresses for invitations; please accept our apology.

Thanks to my daughter, daughter-in-law and two nieces for creating beautiful decorations and furnishing delicious refreshments including a beautiful and luscious birthday cake.

The visiting was a highlight of the celebration. Among all the excitement I enjoyed opening cards and gifts. A big thanks to all for those.

While I'm giving thanks I want to thank all who attended Ike's 85th surprise birthday celebration.

Thanks to Brother Ronnie and Dannes for reminiscing and sharing, words of praise to Ike. He was very surprised. I had told him we were eating lunch at First Baptist. His response was "I didn't think First Baptist ever waited until 2:00 p.m. to eat." Thanks to all our wonderful friends.

Ike and Sue Neal

CARD OF THANKS

A flood of love filled my home at the news of the loss of my daughter Linda Edington Lundrum. Once again it reminds me of the blessing of a small community like Cross Plains have brought my life. Thank you to all who sent flowers, brought food, stopped for a visit and called on the phone. It meant so much. 36-1tp

Woman Writes Historic Letter to Her Congressman

BEXAR COUNTY- After applying Thera-Gesic* to her arthritic hands, Mary Ann W. hand wrote a forty-seven page letter to her Congressman explaining the true meaning of life. When asked where she had gathered all the wisdom for writing such a masterpiece and why she sent it to a government official, she painlessly replied, "None of your dang business!"

(Retired) Wallace Bennett was the guest of Kiwanian Bob Pipes at the Nov. 11 noon Kiwanis Club meeting. The highlights of his 26 years in the armed forces was a very interesting presentation to the Kiwanis, Key Club members and other guest, several of whom were Bennett's family members: his wife, Carol, his son and wife, Bryan and Debi, their daughter, Emma (also a Key Club member), and his nephew, Robert Bennett, who has served in Iraq and is scheduled to return early next

One of the interesting things Bennett shared was how many Cottonwood and Cross Plains acquaintances he met, quite unexpectedly, all over the world. Bennett's first service was during WWII in the Navy. After receiving his commission at Texas A & M, he entered the Army during the Korean event as an officer. Later, upon receiving his degree in theology from Texas Wesleyan, he reentered the service as a chaplain, serving therein until his retirement from the military.

Everyone is welcome to join the Kiwanis at their meetings each Tuesday at noon in the east room at Jean's Feed Barn for good fellowship and informative and interesting meetings.
