Wellman Drops 60-36 Blitz

On Bula Team

Bula's Bulldogs and the Wellman team met in furious action last Friday night and Bula fell before a Wellman onslaught 60-36.

Bula roared back in the second half, holding Wellman to 18 points while scoring 26 points themselves.

Johnny Tubbs scored first for Wellman from 10 yards out, with Randall Redman, hitting on five, Tubbs, again from the eight yard line and Gary Beavers tabbed the conversions on the last two TD's to make it 20-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Tom Newton tabbed a 35 yard touchdown run for Bula in the second with Wayne Wood adding two points, Dick Jeter scored twice for Wellman, one on a 30 yard scamper and the other from five yards out, Tubbs added another score from the ten and Beavers added two conversions.

At halftime the score stood at 42-8.

Only two TD's were tagged in the third, the first by Archie Cresman for Wellman from the two yard line and Ron Risinger from Bula made a long 50 yard dash.

Risinger added two more touchdowns in the fourth; the long 70-yard amble downfield and another from the 10; New-roof of the building in the center of the picture, just to the right of the highline pole. All of the old part of the building was levelled in the Tuesday night fire.

Fire Levels Part Of Country Club

A fire of undetermined origin, apparently beginning in the kitchen area of the Muleshoe Country Club, levelled part of the building Tuesday night. Fire officials estimate the damage to be in excess of $35,000.

The Muleshoe Police Department dispatcher received the first call on fire at 9:22 p.m. Within two minutes the first fire unit rolled and within less than ten minutes approximately 30 members of the Bailey County Volunteer Fire Department was either on the scene or enroute. When the first two units arrived, fire had broken through an air conditioner at the back of the rambling building. Firemen kicked open the back door just enough to find that the inside of the building was already gutted by the blaze.

Water proved to be the big problem as water lines under construction did not allow firemen enough water until members of the city water department turned on a line to allow additional flow of water to the blazing building.

Just before ten p.m. fire had broken through the roof of the building and wild flames danced into the air. Throngs of sightseers flocked to the scene and officers set up traffic blocks to keep the traffic moving away from and around the fire site. Firemen were hampered for a time by clogged, narrow roads in attempting to get additional equipment into the fire area.

As the back part of the building, including the kitchen, dining room, lounge and ballroom were burning, volunteer workers were clearing golf equipment from the new front, brick part of the building. With heavy smoke fogging the area, men and boys wet handkerchiefs at an outside water fountain and tied them over their nose and mouth while going into the smoky building. The volunteers removed all of the golf equipment from the Pro Shop and attempted to get into the locker area, but were driven back by heat and smoke.

Members of the fire department put a pump into the swimming pool and pumped water from there into the burning building. The first pump would not work, so firemen obtained a city pump.

Fire Chief Earl Ladd said Wednesday morning that by 11 p.m. they knew what part of the

Mule B Team Logs One Win And One Loss

On September 13, the Muleshoe Varsity 'B' team played Sudan and lost the game, 6-12.

In the first quarter there was no score but in the second Sudan scored on a pass the PAT failed and halftime score was 0-6. In the third Tommy Taylor scored for Muleshoe on a 55-yard pass play to tie up the game 6-6.

Sudan rallied in the fourth with another TD to end the scoring at 6-12.

Coach James Morgan tabbed as outstanding offensive players, Tommy Taylor, Donnie Wheat and Jerry Scoggin. Defensively, he named Donnie Wheat, Gary Lackey and Steve Black.

A dominated Portales B team fell to the Muleshoe B team on Saturday, September 20. The Mules topped the Portales team, 8-0. Again in the game

Athletic Director Urges Team Support

The Mules will be kicking up their heels and the Mustangs will be in a fighting mood Friday night, Muleshoe's Mules will meet the Olton Mustangs on home field Friday night for the homecoming game.

Olton will be moving onto the Mule field with a one, win, one tie record for the year. In their first game against Levelland, Levelland downed the former powerhouse team 19-7. Olton's TD in that tilt was an 11-yard pass from Steve Stockdale, quarterback to Mickey Crowder, offensive end.

Olton Head Coach Jerry Slakely said the person to watch on the Olton line will probably be Alfred Garcia, a 177-pound junior, who serves at both tackle and defensive end. Garcia is said to have good speed and better than average pursuit, according to Blakely.

In their second game, Olton tied up the Canyon Eagles, 0-0. The game became a defensive contest, with neither team managing to get on the scoreboard. The Eagles managed to get into Mustang territory three times on deep drives only to find themselves fizzle within the Mustang's five yard line. They were knocking on the TD door when the final clock ran out. The Mustangs did not manage to get into Eagle territory during the entire game.

Muleshoe has been held winless in their first two games of the year falling 50-0 to Dimmitt on September 12 and 27-0 to Abernathy last Friday night. Between the two games, the players were apparently fed massive doses of self-confidence as they looked almost 100 percent better on the playing field on the second game.

Muleshoe High School Athletic Director Fred Hedgecock said that Canyon had a real fine team but that although Olton is not real big, they are scrappy and real quick. He said Olton did a real fine job in the Canyon game as they were in the right place at the right time.

Coach Hedgecock said of the Muleshoe team, "If we could improve every week as much as the boys have improved during the past week, by the end of the football season we would be a phenomenal football team."

"I have seen more improvement within one week with these boys than any group I have ever been associated with. There has been a great surge of desire, good attitude and reducing the apparent mental block about winning," he continued.

"I believe our greatest problem is believing that we can do it--ridding ourselves of the attitude that it is impossible to win. There are times that winning seems like the most impossible thing there is. Part of winning is conquering that mental block," he added.

"It is important," said Hedgecock, "to make these young men feel that we can win." Speaking of team support, Hedgecock said, "I believe the most disappointing thing I have

Football Contest

This year, the annual football contest is starting out with a husband-wife team sharing top honors the first two weeks. Last week, Mrs. Howard Splawn was first place winner and Mrs. George Chapman was in second place. Mrs. Splawn's husband was barely out of the running in the contest.

This week, Howard Splawn is first place winner with only one miss in the contest and that being the Texas Tech-Kansas upset. He guessed the Muleshoe-Abernathy score of 27-0 perfectly. In second place was Terry Bruchel, also who missed the Tech-Kansas game. However, he lost out on the tie-breaker with a five point difference in the game. Others who missed one game and their

City Begins Work On Intersection

Clyde Holt, local service station operator and wholesaler, made the first steps possible to correct a bad traffic situation at the intersection of Highways 84-70 Tuesday morning at the meeting of the City Council.

Following surveys by the Texas Highway Department Engineering Division and Ralph Douglas, local engineer for the city, recommendations were made to correct the traffic problem at the intersection.

During the meeting, Holt agreed to donate a 10 foot triangular corner right of way in order to move the corner radius back at that location. He also agreed to construct several new safety islands at his new service station under construction as per Highway Department specifications, and move back a sign at the location.

In the interest of safety, Holt took the initiative to help promote a safer flow of traffic at this intersection. Paul Mills, representative of the State District Highway Engineer's office in Lubbock, told councilmen that 39 accidents had occurred at this intersection within the past year. He said much property damage and some injuries had occurred. Mills said that in the 37 county district the Lubbock office serves this is a high figure for any other particular intersection.

To be constructed will be a new concrete valley gutter and curb to move water more freely away from the intersection. The construction will be on Highway 84 east and west of the intersection and on Highway 70 north to near the railroad tracks.

City Manager Albert Field said this will provide a more stable drainage system. He also commented that Douglas had been authorized to do preliminary work with the State Highway Engineer concerning work the Texas Highway Department will be doing on asphalt.

By the time the work is completed, not only will there be a new drainage system at the

"There are so many adults today to criticize the youth of today. They say they have no character, no morality and here we have a group of youngsters trying to do something and these same adults who criticize won't get into their car and drive a little way to support our youth. They won't get out of their easy chair and go watch a group of youngsters trying harder than anyone in America today to do something right," he added. "I firmly believe these youngsters deserve a little better than that."

"Support your young men, attend the football games and back the youth who represent your school," concluded the athletic director.

Grain Sorghum

Candidates

Announced

The Grain Sorghum Producers Association revealed today that 24 nominations have been received for the Grain Sorghum Producers Board. The grain farmers within a 29 county area, of the High Plains and Panhandle of Texas, will elect 12 men from this list to serve as the governing board for their research and promotion activities, provided the Grain Sorghum Referendum carries by a 2/3 majority. The election will be held on October 6, 1969. It will be on the same ballot with the referendum proposition. On this ballot the farmers decide whether or not they favor an expanding research and grain sorghum promotion campaign, which will be aimed at improving the net profit in grain sorghum production by assessing themselves an amount not to exceed 5 cents per ton to carry out this important program. The names will appear on the ballot in the order of receipt by the Grain Sorghum Producers Association. This 12 man board will receive no pay for their services and will be charged with the responsibility of seeing that the 5 cents per ton is spent on the projects yielding the best returns for the farmers.

Elbert Harp, executive director of GSPA, said, "we appreciate each of these men agreeing to serve on this board if elected. They will have a great responsibility, as well as a great challenge. One which we feel will be very profitable to the grain farmers in the High Plains and Panhandle."

The nominees are: A.W. Anthony, Jr., Friona (Parmer County, Texas); Don Marble, South Plains (Floyd County, Texas); K.B. Parish, Springlake (Lamb County, Texas); Jack F. In an historic act, the House this week voted to abolish the Electoral College and substitute the direct popular vote to elect the President and Vice President to the United States. This was the first time that the House has approved such a plan.

Of course, since this is a proposal to change the Constitution, the plan must also gain a 2/3 vote of the Senate and be approved by the legislatures of 3/4 of the states. Although the vote in the House indicated a generally very favorable attitude on the part of the members, I foresee a much more searching examination on the part of the various state legislatures. Constitutional changes are --- as they should be --- very rare and I believe there will be quite a bit of soul-searching on the part of state leaders before they acquiesce to change the Constitution and agree to permit the direct popular vote plan to stand.

There is little doubt that some reform of the system is necessary. I think all will agree that the certification by the Electoral College of a man who received the fewer amount of votes--a situation which is possible under the present system--rather than the man who receives the greater amount of popular votes is not good. It has happened though.

In the 46 presidential elections held to date under the electoral college system, three popular vote losers were elected President: John Quincy Adams, Rutherford B. Hayes, and William Henry Harrison. Two presidents were selected by the House of Representatives: Jefferson and Adams, and one Vice President was chosen by the Senate: Richard Mentor Johnson in 1836.

In addition to the direct popular vote system which the House consented to, three other plans have been advanced. Briefly summarized they are:

(1) the District Plan, which would preserve the electoral college system but would require electors to be chosen from single member districts within each state, with two electors running at large.

(2) the Proportional Plan, which would allocate the electoral vote in each state in accordance with the popular vote cast in the state, and (3) the Automatic Electoral Vote Plan, which would abolish the office of elector but retain the electoral votes of each state. Under the plan, the electoral vote of each state would be automatically awarded to the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes for President in that state.

Of the four plans, I prefer the District Plan simply because this would provide a realistic and effective way of overhauling the electoral college system while retaining the traditional balance between the national government and the states.

I am hopeful that a meaningful Constitutional amendment can be enacted which will do away with the inequities of the present system, but I do not favor this at the expense of the autonomy of the states. The present system binds the residents of each state more closely and results in campaigns which focus on regional, which is to say state issues. There is a community of interest expressed which is more readily understandable to the politician and more readily and easily expressed by the electorate. I think this is good.

If the direct plan is implemented by three quarters of the state legislatures, this unique feature of the American system will be lost. The question is now up to the Senate and the state legislatures to work their will on this amendment.

New Feed Being Tested Near Plainview

A first attempt in this High Plains area to determine the marketing potential of the new feed grain -- Triticale -- will begin this week at the High Plains Research Foundation. The Foundation will implement the second phase of a swine production economics study comparing Triticale with grain sorghum as a feed base. Dr. Tom Longnecker, Foundation director, said the study was being conducted to determine the value of Triticale as a base in rations for finishing hogs.

"According to chemical analysis, Triticale contains about 12.5 per cent protein as compared with 9 to 10 per cent in grain sorghum and has a better balance of amino acids than corn or grain sorghum, especially the lysine content which usually is supplemented," Dr. Longnecker said. The study will consist of three rations each of grain sorghum and Triticale with varying amounts of each grain depending on the size of pigs. Fifty SPF hogs will be used in each test. Due to Triticale's higher protein content, Dr. Longnecker said the finishing ration for pigs in the study will contain 1,635 pounds of sorghum per ton of feed compared to 1,760 pounds of Triticale per ton of feed. "In swine production, supplements are the most expensive part of the feed, usually about 45 per cent of the total cost in finishing pigs," Dr. Longnecker said. "It could be that Triticale in a finishing ration would mean less supplementation than either corn or sorghum there by cutting swine production costs," Longnecker said. "For the study, 26,000 pounds of Triticale will be used," Longnecker added. "In order for Triticale to become an economic crop in this area, a market must be developed. Since Triticale is classified as a feed grain, its main market will be through livestock," Dr. Longnecker said. He pointed out that Triticale can be grown the same as wheat and could be used for double cropping procedures, if the feeding study on swine is successful.

VIEW AND REVIEWS
Leonard A. Lecht, director of the national planning association's Priority Analysis, on defense cuts: "The increases in employment would take place in the industries producing consumer goods, services and construction industry."

Hubert Humphrey, former Vice President, speaking in Atlanta: "In January a new administration declaring its intention to eradicate hunger, came on the scene. But months have gone by and little has been accomplished."

Agriculture Secretary Clifford B. Hardin's "listening conference" at College Station September 18 was an interesting exercise. The Secretary was exposed, and most observers seem to think he listened, to statements from representatives of four national farm organizations and 14 commodity groups, plus dissertations on adult education, resource conservation, nutrition, farm credit, rural area development, and of all things "A New Approach to Solving the Long Term Problems of Agricultural Production in South America."

A lot of work and sincere thought went into the preparation of the 30 or more presentations made. Some 2,000 agricultural leaders from Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico and Oklahoma were on hand. Only time will tell whether the day at Texas A & M was time well spent or an exercise in futility.

The only directional signal flashed by the Secretary came in his opening remarks when he said "The Administration is still interested in long range land retirement but it may not be a major part of the program."

He also confirmed the feelings of many that he will offer no specific farm program when he testifies before the House Committee on Agriculture on September 24 or thereafter. All speakers at the conference were together on two points--on the necessity for maintaining and improving farm income and in opposition to a limitation on payments to individual producers under farm programs. And if the Secretary and his people "listened and learned," as they said they were to do, on those two points, the day was not wasted.

The only speaker on behalf of cotton, per se, was Joe B. Pate, Jr. of Lubbock, who spoke on behalf of the Texas Association of Cotton Producers Organizations (TACOPO), of which he is chairman. His remarks were finalized and approved by representatives of the six member organizations, meeting in the office of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, September 15.

Midway through his statement Pate summarized the views of Texas cotton producers in three points:

- (1) Cotton is an industry basic to the economy of Texas and to the economy of the Nation;
- (2) Cotton fiber is a commodity essential to the needs of the consuming public, being made available to the public at prices well below its cost of production, and

(3) If cotton is to continue its major contribution to the economy of our country, and if cotton is to continue to be made available to the consuming public in the desirable quantities and qualities, there must be a continuation of government cotton programs.

Going on to the kind of cotton program that is needed, Pate said "First, it must help us to keep production in line with demand. It must provide the means to control production when there is a threatening surplus, and it must provide the means to stimulate production when there is danger of an inadequate supply to meet market demands."

"Second, it must provide a cost of production adjustment which will help to bridge the gap between the cost of producing cotton and the price at which circumstances force producers to sell their cotton. He received one of the rare outbursts of applause when he followed this with "It is our contention, Mr. Secretary, that these objectives have been achieved in large measure for the past four years, and that they can best be achieved in the years to come within the framework of the cotton program written into the Food and Agriculture Act of 1965. Therefore we believe the present program should be the basis for future programs."

As did almost all other speakers, Pate stressed the need for improving producer income and said such improvement could be best accomplished through increased exports of U.S. cotton and expanded utilization and cost-cutting research under the auspices of USDA. On the subject of a payments limitation, he said "To limit the total payment that can be made to any producer for his contribution to the national interest under farm programs is to deny him the fruits of his labor. It is to penalize him because of the size of his operation--a size reached through hard work, management ability and enterprise."

He pointed out that a limit on payments would force many farmers to break up their land into smaller units and said "Such an upheaval in agriculture would amount to economically forced agrarian land reform. You can call it by any other name you please, but another name will not make it less onerous."

Concluding this portion of his testimony, Pate said "The imposition of a payments limitation would be a long step backward for farm programs and their effectiveness as supply management tools...a payments limitation will be a broad, solid and indelible black mark on the record of the Congress and/or the Administration that shares in the responsibility for its enactment."

HARMON HIGHLIGHTS Texas Lands Top Spot

No, we're not quite ready to jump on the Ohio State bandwagon...at least not until they've played a ball game. So, until they do, we'll go back to what we said last week that Texas just might be Top Dog this year. And this week, they are Number One. The Longhorns meet their first Southwest Conference opponent Saturday in tough Texas Tech. Texas may have to scramble to win it by 13 points. And last year's Sugar Bowl opponents, Arkansas and Georgia, are right up near the top again in the national rankings--and it's no surprise. The Razorbacks, big 41-point favorites over Tulsa, are ranked second, while Georgia, #3, has a bit more of a problem with Clemson. However, the Bulldogs are the upper-dog by 18 points. The real headliner of the day matches 4th-ranked Auburn and 8th-rated Tennessee. We're talking Southeast Conference again in this one, and if the power quotients are right (they are once in awhile), the Tigers should clip the Vols by just three points.

In the Number Five position is Penn State. They play host to the Buffaloes of Colorado, and the Easterners should rack up win number two, this one by 16 points.

Oklahoma ranked sixth and Notre Dame is seventh. The Sooners will have an easy time against Pittsburgh, winning by 40. The Irish, however, run into a familiar nemesis, 20th-rated Purdue. The power quotients are close, but we'll go with Notre Dame by six.

A surprising member of the elite group (though actually it shouldn't be a surprise) is Arizona State. The 9th-ranked Sun Devils whipped Minnesota by more than the expected margin last week, and they could get by Oregon State Saturday...the spread is 13 points.

Two West Coast powers, U.C.L.A. and Southern California, are rated 11th and 14th respectively. The Uclans just may bury Wisconsin a bit by somewhere around 26 points, and the Trojans will be 25 points too tough for Northwestern.

And speaking of Ohio State, the Bucks tackle the Horned Frogs of T.C.U. in Battle #1 for '69. The crystal ball says Ohio State will beat the Texans by 18 points.

Big Eight power Missouri came through barely unscathed in its first outing, and they should deep on winning this week. The 10th-rated Tigers will drop Illinois by 24 points.

Ole Miss, after disposing of tough Memphis State (we really thought there might have been an upset in that one), takes on Kentucky Saturday. Mississippi, #15 wins by 23.

Crime Rate Increase Noted In Texas

AUSTIN--The crime rate in Texas for the first six months of 1969 is running 7.7 per cent higher than the comparable period last year according to a report released today by the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, DPS director, said major crime increased in all categories except murder and homicide, where the statewide rate declined by 8.8 per cent.

The greatest increase was listed in the robbery category, up 31.2 per cent. Aggravated assaults were up by 20.9 per cent, auto theft up 14.8 per cent, and burglary up 9.7 per cent. Speir said rapes were up 7.2 per cent and thefts up 3.9 per cent.

In Texas, the crime clock ticked off one major crime every 1 1/3 minutes for the January through June period. There was one murder every eight hours, a rape every 4 1/2 hours, a robbery every 1 1/4 hours, and a burglary every five minutes. An aggravated assault occurred every 21 1/2 minutes, a theft every 2 1/3 minutes, and an auto theft every 16 minutes.

The greatest increase in crime was in urban areas where the overall rate increased by 8.5 per cent. In rural areas throughout Texas, the average rate increased by less than 1 per cent.

An analysis of crime rate changes in urban areas by population indicates an upswing of almost 9 per cent in cities of over 100,000 population. The rate is up 7.1 per cent in cities of over 50,000 and up 18.8 per cent in cities having populations between 25,000 and 50,000.

Cities having populations between 10,000 and 25,000 had an overall rate increase of 6.9 per cent while those between 5,000 and 10,000 had a 12.4 per cent decrease. Smaller towns from 2,500 to 5,000 population report an increase of just over 18 per cent.

Statewide crime clearance rates for the first six months held at 27 per cent, the same as 1968. However, DPS statistics indicate an 84 per cent clearance rate for murders and 66 per cent for rapes, with a 39 per cent clearance rate for robbery.

In urban areas, the 1969 crime clearance rate is 26 per cent, the same as last year. Rural clearances stand at 37 per cent, as compared to 43 per cent at mid-year 1968.

Lazbuddie Schools LONGHORN STAMPEDE

By Mike Casey

Last Friday night the Lazbuddie Longhorns posted their second victory of the 1969 football season. The Horns gave Tatum a 35-0 shellacking on the Coyotes home field.

On defense for Lazbuddie, Monte Barnes was a standout. Barnes came up with 22 tackles and was a key factor in containing the Tatum quarterback. As a team, the Longhorns held Tatum to 74 yards on the ground and 10 yards through the air.

The Horns offensive unit finished with 357 yards rushing and 56 yards passing. The Horns also had 17 1st downs to Tatum's three. Derrell Mathews was the leading individual rusher for Lazbuddie, picking up 150 yards. Arthur Graves piled up 135 yards, while Monte Barnes and Larry Hodges both picked up 29 yards.

After a scoreless first quarter, Arthur Graves rambled across from 31 yards out in the second stanza. Derrell Mathews ran for the conversion and that was the extent of the scoring in the first half.

Arthur Graves got the Longhorns their second touchdown of the night when he set sail on a 50 yard run. Derrell Mathews put the two point conversion across and the score stood 16-0 early in the third quarter. Lazbuddie got another touchdown in the third quarter when Derrell Mathews found the end zone from two yards out, the conversion attempt was not good and at the end of the third quarter the score was 22-0. The Longhorns hit paydirt twice in the final period of play. Derrell Mathews chalked up his second touchdown of the game when he got loose on an 18 yard run. Mathews kicked the extra point and at that stage of the game, Lazbuddie was out in front 29-0. Charlie Lee got the Horn's final touchdown, taking a 17 yard pass from Monte Barnes. The two-point conversion was stopped and that was the extent of the scoring.

Friday, September 26, Lazbuddie will travel to Bovina to take on a very tough team. The Mustangs, like Lazbuddie, are undefeated in two contests and a rough battle is expected. Game time will be 8:00.

The Longhorn "B" team played host to the Farwell Steer "B" team last Thursday night. The visiting Steers defeated the Longhorns 16-8.

The contest was hard-fought all the way with the Steers owning an 8-0 lead at halftime and the Longhorns scoring on the last play of the game. With just 8 seconds left on the clock, Roy Flores ran 50 yards for the Longhorns only TD of the game. Several times the Longhorns were deep in Farwell territory but had their hopes dimmed by a costly fumble or penalty. The "B" team's next game will be Saturday morning, September 27, at 10:00. They will travel to Anton to take on the Anton Bulldogs.

The ship, which is homeported in Norfolk, is scheduled to visit various European ports while it is in the Mediterranean.

PRISONERS OF WAR

North Vietnam has recently returned three American GIs after holding them for long periods as prisoners of war. One returned with a shattered elbow which had received inadequate medical attention. He and one of the two others are still hospitalized. Last Tuesday the two hospitalized Americans were well enough to talk with reporters. They told a gruesome story of the brutal and inhumane treatment they and others who are still prisoners have received at the hands of their captors.

They described in stark detail the harsh realities of solitary confinement, of men kept in small cages, of men hung in straps, of fingernails removed and of poor medical treatment. One of the men said he was willing to, as he said, "blow the whistle" on North Vietnam's claims that it treats prisoners humanely. He said he was doing so with the knowledge and consent of other Americans who are still prisoners and who are likely to suffer additional hardships when the North Vietnamese make good their threats to "get even" if they are "embarrassed." The courage of these prisoners can not go unacknowledged. Their heroism is outstanding and in the finest traditions of our nation's heritage.

Another form of heroism is being carried on gallantly here at home by the mothers, fathers, wives and children, sisters and brothers of GIs who have been listed as "missing in action" for many months. These loved ones do not even know whether their husband, father, son or brother is alive or dead. Some of them could be Texans and may be your neighbors. They do not know this, because Hanoi has not seen fit to grant even the human decency of identifying the men they are holding as prisoners of war.

The three recently allowed to return home brought the number of American prisoners released by Hanoi to a grand total of nine.

More than 1,400 American servicemen have been reported as "missing in action" in connection with the Vietnam War. The Defense Department, through all its various means of obtaining information, has been able to confirm as dead only about 300 of these 1,400 GIs. Of course we must assume that some of the missing 1,100 are also dead, but we can reasonably hope that a large number of them are alive and being held captive by the enemy.

The Geneva Accords of 1949 were designed to prevent the inhumane treatment now being suffered by our men in enemy prison camps. The Accords require countries holding prisoners of war to identify those prisoners, to release those who are seriously sick or injured, to allow impartial inspection of all prisoner-of-war facilities to insure that minimum health standards are met, and to allow free exchange of mail between prisoners and their families.

Hanoi signed those Accords in 1957 but the North Vietnamese have not honored them. They have not complied with even the most fundamental standards of human decency. They have not even identified the Americans which they are holding captive.

In this way, the North Vietnamese have been able to inflict not only physical punishment on their prisoners, but also continuing and severe mental anguish in this country on the loved ones of those prisoners. By not even allowing the families to know whether the loved one is alive or dead, the North Vietnamese needlessly extend the anguish suffered by relatives at home. And I am forced to believe, although I sincerely hope that I am mistaken, that Hanoi inflicts that anguish on Americans at home by design. Three months ago, our government formally requested that the North Vietnamese abide by the Geneva Accords regarding humane treatment of prisoners and cease its illegal acts. We made it clear that we knew what was going on and we asked that Hanoi begin a policy of compliance with the Accords.

A favorable response from the North Vietnamese would have indicated a willingness to make a small but significant step towards peace. A favorable response would have been a reasonable and simple act. It would have been the kind of indication of peaceful intent which we are seeking so eagerly at the Paris Peace Talks.

Our request for at least a list of names of Americans in North Vietnamese prisoner-of-war camps was greeted by a statement from Hanoi's chief negotiator in Paris that his country would not immediately comply.

Now it's been three months and no favorable word on the issue has come from North Vietnam. Instead, three Americans have been released. And they have told of torture and brutality and the prospect of more torture and brutality as a "reprisal" for their speaking the truth.

The release of the three prisoners, compared with the continued detention of so many more Americans without even a mention of their identities, seems more like a slap in the face than a gesture toward peace.

It should be patently clear to all Americans that North Vietnam simply does not want peace. I face this news with deep and profound sympathy for our men who are prisoners and their families but there seems no other recourse than to recognize reality.

IN MULESHOE?....Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lambert, 501 East Fourth Street, stand beside castor bean plants which have grown to between nine and ten feet tall since they were planted June 20. No special care has been given the plants the Lamberts are surprised at the lush growth. Also growing in the neatly kept yard are 'summer poinsettias' which were not planted and have just appeared in the flower beds.

Blackwells Visit New Orleans

John and Jo Gene Blackwell and daughter Melanie left September 9 for Lockhart where they visited John's grandmother, Mrs. Bessie Neeley. While there they made a trip to Floresville where they visited John's 95 year old great grandmother, Mrs. Ella Watkins.

They drove to Luling where they visited John's grandmother, Mrs. J.V. Blackwell, and a number of aunts and uncles.

They made a brief visit in Houston with Jo Gene's sister, Mrs. Gene Cristal whom she had not seen in a number of years. From Houston they went to New Orleans where they visited John's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blackwell. Visiting at the same time were Mrs. Blackwell's sister and mother from Germany, whom the M. eshoe couple enjoyed.

Jo Gene said they took the river boat trip to New Orleans and "got drowned" from backwash.

En route home they came by Amarillo where they visited with John's parents, Capt. and Mrs. J.W. Blackwell and with Mrs. Blackwell's mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. O'Dell Brown. They returned to Muleshoe Monday.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford
 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. -- Legislators closed out 44 days of special session conferences over taxes and finance.

Texas' $348.6 million tax bill, which takes effect October 1, includes:

* An increase from 3 to 3.25 per cent in the general sales tax rate and inclusion of beer and liquor in the tax base for the first time.

* A boost in the cigarette taxes from 11 cents to 15.5 cents a pack.

* Increase in corporation franchise tax from $2.75 to $3.25 per $1,000.

* Change in corporation franchise tax allocation formula to include out-of-state concerns which sell products in Texas (food and drugs exempt).

* Raise in natural gas tax from seven to 7.5 per cent of value.

* Levy of five cents a drink on alcoholic beverages sold in private clubs.

A record $5.8 billion biennial appropriations bill -- $313.8 million above the present general revenue spending level -- would provide a $205.6 million increase for education, $58 million more for health, hospitals and youth corrections, $62.2 million increase for medical aid to the needy and a 10.4 per cent increase in state employees' pay.

When the major business of the session was over, legislature turned to other matters submitted by Gov. Preston Smith which included:

* Creation of 28 new district courts over the state.

* Establishment of an antiquities code, setting state policies for historic and scientific explorations on state-owned lands.

* Removal of the statutory interest rate limits on state and local government bonds.

* A variety of "clean beach" legislation.

* Authority for creation of a non-profit corporation to provide deposit insurance for state banks and savings and loan associations in the $15,000 to $100,000 range.

LAWMAKERS RAISE $ ALLOWANCE -- Before departing for the hinterlands, legislators voted themselves increases in their contingency funds.

House raised its allowance for each representative from $450 to $875 monthly during the interim between legislative sessions. Senators raised their expense maximum from $1,000 a month to $1,700.

Legislators in both houses are paid a salary of only $4,800 a year.

INSURANCE PROBE ENDS Governor's committee studying a proposed 11.4 percent auto insurance rate increase recommended that the State Board of Insurance reduce insurance companies' expense allowance for acquisition of physical damage insurance from 25 per cent to 22.5 per cent of the premium dollar. This would scale down the proposed $43 million overall increase by about $6.6 million.

Committee found an increase in premiums "inevitable primarily because of the large increase in automobile accidents and costs of repairs in 1968".

Otherwise, said former Gov. Price Daniel, chairman of the nine-member committee, the increase is "conservative compared with rates in other states, lower than most states."

Committee also recommended that investment income derived from auto insurance premiums and loss reserves be considered directly by the Board in determining allowance for profits and contingencies.

Governor Smith said he would make no statement on the report until he has studied it with his staff.

NEW COURTS CREATED--Total of 28 new courts will begin functioning over the state as soon as Governor Smith appoints judges to fill the benches. Twenty-seven were created in a package bill and another in a single-shot measure.

Big cities will get the bulk of the courts, Harris County alone will have six, Dallas five, Bezar and Tarrant two each. One new court each will serve the counties of Nueces-Cameron-Willacy, Anderson-Henderson - Houston, Kerr - Bandera-Kendall-Menard-Concho-Kimble-McCulloch, Potter and Randall, Bell, Jefferson, Brazoria, Denton, Angelina, El Paso, Gregg and Hunt.

AG OPINIONS A person whose driver's license has been suspended must furnish proof of a valid policy of auto liability insurance or other proof of financial responsibility to get an occupational license. Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

* All dredging of bay bottoms requires a permit from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department since they are owned by the state. Burden of proof of private ownership is on the claimant. No permit is required for land owned under fresh water.

* Banking Commissioner has no power to force national banks to stop accepting deposits on Saturdays or other days they elect not to close. He can permit state banks to accept deposits on days they designate to be closed for general banking purposes but they would lose some protection against liability by having available only limited banking services.

* Texas Aeronautics Commission has jurisdiction to regulate for-hire air transportation (i.e. helicopters) wholly confined within the limits of any city or town. Agency also has power to seek injunctive relief against violators of its orders.

* Though the personal representative of an estate is not required to give security for costs, he is required to pay specified costs set out in law at the time of filing a proceeding in probate.

* Office of the ex-officio member of the Texas Air Control Board has been abolished by the Texas Clean Air Act effective September 1.

* Psychologist licensing act is not in violation of the constitution, but the proposed terms of the new board members--three years--are not in conformity with the constitution which prescribes six, four or two year terms.

APPOINTMENTS Governor Smith named Dr. Elmer Baum of Austin, state Democratic chairman, to a two-year term on the State Banking Board, succeeding Robert S. Strauss of Dallas.

Smith named Field Scovell of Dallas to the Board of Regents of Texas Tech University, replacing Charles D. Mathews who moved to the State Insurance Board. Senate promptly confirmed the appointments.

Governor named to the Board of Regents of Texas State Technical Institute Harold Glen Tate of Austin, Francis Verle Wallace of Amarillo, Russel Breckenridge Watson Jr. of Tyler, Joe J. Garza of Harlingen, Henry Clyde Schulte of Teague, Richard Lanier Thomas of Dallas, John Henry Kuitgen of Waco, John W. Niglaszo of Hearne and James Yancey Price of Lubbock.

Richard S. Robertson has been named to the job of state classification officer. He succeeds Everett L. Anschutz who joined the state employees retirement system.

OCTOBER DRAFT QUOTA SET Texas' October draft call is 1,461, reports Col. Morris Schwartz, state Selective Service Director. This is 237 less than September.

National quota is 29,000 of which 27,600 will go to the Army and 1,400 to the Marine Corps. Called for State induction in August and July were 1,548 and 1,178. Total of 8,906 is scheduled to be forwarded for armed forces pre-induction physical and mental examinations next month in preparation for future calls.

Edward M. Kennedy, Senator (D-Mass.), speaking at University of Mass.:

"If we who have given so much and suffered so greatly must make concessions for peace, President Thieu must do the same--or elect to face his failure alone."
