HOMEWORK TO DO

While the House of Representatives was deciding that we should send more foreign aid billions abroad in fiscal 1958, the City of New York was sending 536 of its schoolboy cops to reinforce the "regulars" in the city's war against 110 known "fighting" teenage gangs and other "young punks and hoodlums" responsible for 22 deaths so far this year.

The rookie cops were taken out of training, because the city can't afford the 5,000 more policemen Commissioner Kennedy says he needs to protect its nine million people. This is the city that produced the lion's share of nearly nine billion dollars of New York State tax money that went into foreign aid since World War II! The moral can be read in the reports of the McClellan Rackets Committee.

A FORECAST

If government continues to undertake more and more non-governmental activities in competition with its own citizens and taxpayers, bureaucracy will increase, public debt will grow, the dollar will continue to depreciate and there will be no tax relief for anyone.

Stock Cattle Open Strong

FORT WORTH — Trade was very active on stocker and feeder classes of cattle and calves at Fort Worth Monday and prices were from fully steady to as much as 50 cents higher. There was a rather large representation of out-of-state buyers on hand, a factor which again lent strength to the bright prospects for the late Summer and Fall market for Texas cattle this year.

In the trade Monday, good and choice stocker steer calves ranged from $20 to $24, the higher figure on some 517-pound steer calves, whose heifer mates cashed at $21.50 and scaled over 100 pounds. Plainer stocker calves sold from $14 to $19, and stocker steer yearlings and feeder steers ranged mostly from $21 down. Fleishy feeding heifers ranged from $19.50 down. A few replacement cows sold from $10 to $14.

In the slaughter division good and choice fed cattle sold at the best prices since last Fall, as good and choice fed steers cashed at $20 to $26, the top for two loads of 950-pound fed steers from Oklahoma. Plain and medium butcher sorts cashed at $13 to $19.

Fat cows drew $12 to $15, and canners and cutters brought $8 to $12. Bulls cashed at $10 to $15. Good and choice fat calves sold from $19 to $22. Medium and lower grades cashed at $10 to $18.

Slaughter Lambs, Old Ewes Weaken

A small supply of sheep and lambs cleared at steady to weaker prices at Fort Worth Monday. Slaughter lambs and slaughter ewes sold weak to 50 cents lower, and stocker and feeder classes were steady to strong.

Good and choice slaughter lambs cashed at $20 to $22.50, and cull to medium sold from $15 to $20. Stocker and feeder lambs cashed at $17 to $19, some 6-5pounders at $19. Good fat yearlings sold at $18, and some older muttons sold at $14.50 down.

Slaughter ewes cashed at $6.50 to $8.50. Some solid mouthed ewes sold as breeders around $10 to $11, and better young ewes were quoted to $13 to $15, with yearlings ewes to $18 or $20. Aged bucks sold around $5 to $6 for slaughter.

NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 5, 1957.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 37 proposing an amendment to Sub-section (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas, relating to establishment of a retirement, disability and death compensation fund for officers and employees of the State.

Section 1. That Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to read hereafter as follows: "Section 62. (a) The Legislature shall have the authority to levy taxes to provide a State Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Fund for the officers and employees of the State, and may make such reasonable inclusions, exclusions, or classifications of officers and employees of this State as it deems advisable. The Legislature may also include officers and employees of judicial districts of the State who are or have been compensated in whole or in part directly or indirectly by the State, and may make such other reasonable inclusions, exclusions, or classifications of officers and employees of judicial districts of this State as it deems advisable. Persons participating in a retirement system created pursuant to Section 1-a of Article V of this Constitution shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized in this Subsection; and persons participating in a retirement system created pursuant to Section 45-a of Article III of this Constitution shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized in this Subsection except as permitted by Section 62 of Article XVI of this Constitution. Provided, however, any officer or employee of a county as provided for in Article XVI, Section 62, Subsection (b) of this Constitution, shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized in this Subsection, except as otherwise provided herein. The amount contributed by the State to such Fund shall equal the amount paid for the same purpose from the income of each such person, and shall not exceed at any time five per centum (5%) of the compensation paid to each such person by the State.

"All funds provided from the compensation of such person or by the State of Texas for such Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Fund, as are received by the Treasury of the State of Texas, shall be invested in bonds of the United States, or in bonds issued by any agency of the United States Government, the payment of the principal of and interest on which is guaranteed by the United States; or in such other securities as are now or hereafter may be permitted by law as investments for the Permanent University Fund or for the Permanent School Fund of this State, under the same limitations and restrictions imposed by the Constitution for investment of those funds and subject to such regulations as the Legislature may provide. However, a sufficient amount of said Fund shall be kept on hand to meet the immediate payment of the amount likely to become due each year out of said Fund, such amount of funds to be kept on hand to be determined by the agency which may be provided by law to administer said Fund.

"Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment, such legislation shall not be invalid by reason of its anticipatory character."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at a special election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1957, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

Report to the People
by Congressman J. T. RUTHERFORD

The First Session of the 85th Congress grinds on, and the temper and nerves of the Members grind along with it.

Each year late in the session, in the humid "dog days" of summer, tempers flare and Members glare at each other over the slightest provocation in contrast with the mellow fellowship displayed at the beginning of the year. The explanation is simple: a lot has happened, and the members are simply tired.

It is not a good time of year to attempt to pass bills. Measures are being referred back to Committee and voted down with gusto. Since the negative rather than the positive approach is the rule in the Congress this time of year, it is sometimes best to not push bills upon the House and Senate late in the session, but to hold them for the hail-fellow-well-met spirit of the early days next year.

From Time to Time, for no reason apparent to the eye, Members of Congress will suddenly be flooded by letters or telegrams opposing (or supporting) measures upon which no action is scheduled. Apparently, persons send out literature or make speeches in which they alarm the people over the immediate prospects of action when absolutely nothing is in sight.

The thing to remember, especially this late in the session, is that every bill introduced must go through 19 long, lengthy steps before it can become law. So if initial activity is started on a bill immediately, it would be next to impossible to get very far with it prior to adjournment. Remember that, and when someone tries to alarm you over legislation in the future ask them what has been done on the matter up to the time. Chances are, you can then figure out whether they know whereof they speak.

Don't Expect Foreign oil imports to tumble just because the President's Cabinet Committee has asked major oil companies to voluntarily restrict their imports. At first blush, some people thought this was a great victory for the domestic oil industry. But an examination of the facts show that absolutely nothing in the way of improvements is guaranteed.

The recommendations made by the Cabinet Committee, and approved by the President, call for approximately a 16% cut in imports below the present level. But there are 2 big flaws in this. First, the Administration has tossed out the crude oil import recommendations made early in 1955. Second, the new program is "voluntary" just like the old one, and there is no real provision for penalty if violated. The only thing resembling such provision is that the President may invoke powers he has already had for two years. But the President has never shown any inclination to use them to curb excessive imports, and there is no reason to believe he will start now.

During the period the President had this import-control power at his fingertips, imports, actually jumped higher than at any time in history. So no real major changes should be reasonably expected.

I Have Recently obtained a report from General Joe Swing, Commissioner of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, listing entries through the ports of entry on the Mexican border in Texas, California, Arizona and

New Mexico.

Texas led the way during the 12-month period ending June 30, 1957, with forty-eight million, 860 thousand, 800 crossings. California trailed in second place with about 22 million; Arizona had 12 million, and New Mexico was last with only 155,000.

More people crossed the border at El Paso than at any other point. Some 22 million 989 thousand, 688 persons used the El Paso port of entry.

In the 16th District, the total crossing numbered twenty-five million 487 thousand 140. In addition to the El Paso figures listed above, the other 16th District points showed this breakdown: Ysleta, One million, 628 thousand, 404; Presidio, 455,646 and Fabens, 396,382.

Wednesday night the Jake Young's and Mrs. J. W. North had a supper for George and Wanda. They had the best barbecued chicken. We all looked like we had been tarred and feathered the way our napkins tore and stuck to us.

The cheerleaders are working their fingers to the bone and I do mean bone. This year they have become super industrious.

They are making their own uniforms. They are very pretty. I'm talking about the uniforms.

Alleane Young, June Bunger, George and Wanda, and Jerry and Cecilia Beasley all went to San Angelo Monday to get dressed for wedding. They must have had more fun than a barrel of monkeys because every time someone says something about it they go into hysterics!?

Say boys! There is a new girl on our block. She is a freshman and is from Seminole. Her name is Barbara Hatcher. Girls! You might know she has long brown hair and has big brown eyes. Well, as the song goes "Bye, Bye, Love".

Frances Childress is off exploring the states. I guess Bobby will have to join the lonely hearts club for a while.

Billy Bob Holden has found a new girl from Ft. Worth and from what he says she is rather cute. Gwynell's cousin, Billy Gram is here. He has had a few dates with Mary Jo Ward.

Butch Hutcheson is here from Fort Worth. He is Clayton's cousin. Speaking of Clayton, he bent "Pinky" up just a little while waving at the sheriff. Seems he should have zipped when he zagged.

The band is going to Alpine the 21st to learn to stay in a straight line for football season. We should have a gay of time.

Well it's getting to be just about that time so I had better close for this week. So long!

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS
From State Capitol

By Vern Sanford

Texas Press Association

Austin, Texas — House members are rather short on enthusiasm for a special session of the Legislature, says Speaker Waggoner Carr.

In a poll of the House, Carr received 101 answers from 149 members. Seventy said they didn't feel a special session necessary. Seventeen said they thought it was necessary; and 12 said they were willing to leave it up to the governor.

In announcing the poll results, Carr emphasized that he's all for lobby control and water conservation, the two measures Gov. Price Daniel has said he wants passed. House members, Carr reminded, approved both lobby and water bills last session.

But, said Carr, he still isn't convinced the state can afford the extra session without new taxes.

In reply, Governor Daniel repeated a previous statement that $603,312 is on hand for legislative expenses, or more than twice what a short session would cost.

Outlook probably is this: A special session will be held. There will be no open rebellion, though possibly a little legislative foot-dragging.

New Land Troubles — Who, if anyone, should pay the back taxes on land bought under the Veterans Land program, then forfeited by the purchaser?

State and local officials are in disagreement. Lack of specific legislation on this subject has resulted in two lawsuits.

In the early days of the land program a lot of veterans apparently bought land at more than it really was worth. When the drought came and things got tough, many fell behind on taxes and payments, finally had to give up and let the land go back to the Veterans Land Board. In time the board re-sold such tracts to other veterans.

Local taxing units, such as the Bexar-Atascosa-Medina Water District, say somebody has to pay the piper. It demands payment of the back taxes unpaid by the first purchaser and of the taxes that accumulated during the period when the land was forfeited to the state. Without this money, say district officials, they'll have a hard time paying off their bonds.

Viewpoint of the state, however, is that taxes ceased when the land returned to the board and that the resale was free of tax debt.

School "Wastes" Cited — Need for a little overhauling here and there in the Gilmer-Aikin school aid program is suggested in a new Texas Research League report.

Under the "minimum foundation" program the state contributes the money necessary to bring the smaller, poorer districts up to standard.

Research League pointed out that (1) under the scholastic apportionment formula (so much per pupil) some districts actually receive more money than their minimum foundation needs. And (2) guaranteed state contributions discourage local efforts to improve by raising taxes.

It's a system, says the League, that tends to perpetuate "educationally inadequate" districts.

Harrison Named — William A. Harrison, 47, apparently is to be the key man in a program designed to provide Texas with model insurance regulation.

Harrison, who has been serving temporarily without pay since

June 21, was named by the Insurance Board to a two-year term, beginning Sept. 1. Senate must confirm the appointment.

The former assistant state auditor moves into the second highest paid job in Texas government — $20,000 per year.

One of his first tasks will be to expand the department's staff of insurance company examiners. Recent legislation provided for 26 new men, bringing the staff to 65. Former department officials had complained they didn't have enough examiners to keep tabs on the thousands of companies operating in Texas.

Business Plateau — Texas business activity for the first half of 1957 is up four per cent over 1956. This despite an 11 per cent drop from May to June, says the UT Bureau of Business Research.

UT analysts say it looks as if the breathtaking rise of the past few years has lost its momentum. But they see no "strong evidence of the beginning of a downward trend." They foresee, instead, Texas business continuing, with minor ups and downs, on its present high plateau.

It'll Cost Us Too — Texans who think the federal government is going to take care of all their highway problems now are due for disillusionment.

So says State Highway Commission Chairman Marshall Formby. Interstate highway paid for with federal funds will take care of only 16 per cent of the state's traffic load, said Formby. Bringing the other 84 per cent of state roads to first-class condition will cost $2,000,000,000.

With present funds of $80,000,000 to $90,000,000 a year, it'll take 22 years, he said. "And by that time we'll need more four-lane roads."

Ask First — Various departments of the State are playing it safe today. They don't want to run afoul of what has been termed "the new moral atmosphere in Texas."

Indicative of the new trend is the "ask-first" attitude that has developed. Result: Many requests of the attorney general for rulings.

In an opinion given State Auditor C. H. Cavness it was ruled that it would be legal for a state college cafeteria to buy its milk from a dairy owned by a legislator.

Inasmuch as the Texas Constitution prohibits a lawmaker from receiving an office created during his legislative term, the Board of Pardons and Paroles asked if it would be legal for Rep. J. T. Ellis Jr. of Weslaco to be director of the new adult parole supervision system set up by the Legislature.

"This is a job, not an office," rules the attorney general.

load centers. The remainder of the planned expenditure will be used primarily for general construction and improvement of W-TU facilities.

"Electric power consumption is an accurate barometer of the health and prosperity of any area. Our undertaking this comprehensive construction program is indicative of our continued confidence in the future of the area we serve," Young said. "We are determined to do whatever is necessary to maintain a dependable and adequate supply of economical electric power for the anticipated industrial expansion of the area as well as for the expected increase in requirements of our domestic and commercial customers."

The announcement of the construction plans begins the second decade of the long-range expansion program begun at the end of World War II. Since then, WTU has invested $60 million for new facilities and for enlarging existing facilities to provide electric power for West Texas.

Since 1949, the number of electric customers has increased 43% from 72,860 to 104,000. The peak load has more than tripled, increasing from 73,400 kilowatts to 243,500 kilowatts. During the decade, the company's generating capability has almost tripled, increasing from 88,180 to 250,500 kilowatts.

Mrs. B. B. Ingham, Sr., had as guests during the past week two grandsons, Ray Boothe of San Marcos and David Ingham of Sheffield. Mrs. Ingham left Monday with Ray for Sweetwater where he will visit his other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Boothe.

West Texas Utilities Co. Plans 51 Million Dollar Expansion Of Electric Facilities In West Texas To Meet Needs of Next Five Years

West Texas Utilities Company today announced plans to spend an estimated $51,000,000 during the next five years for construction of new electric facilities in West Texas.

Cal Young, WTU President, said the company's expansion plans were based on recently completed surveys and studies which indicate that West Texas will greatly increase its use of electricity by 1961.

"Most of the proposed five-year outlay will go for the construction of new plants and installation of additional generating equipment, new transmission lines and expanded distribution facilities," Young said.

New generating equipment for WTU, including one new power plant, is expected to cost over $22,500,000 and will increase by more than two-thirds the company's system generating capability.

WTU plans to spend almost $15 million during the next five years for the construction and improvement of distribution facilities. Another $11,500,000 has been allocated for the building of new high voltage transmission lines connecting WTU power plants and

Cadillac

Keeping Current... For Economy!

In the illustration above, you see a very happy man at a very wonderful moment. The title, the keys and the car are his—and he's starting out on his first journey at the wheel. Of course, there's not much doubt as to why he decided to purchase a new Cadillac. Like everyone else who selects the "car of cars", he did it to "keep current", so to speak, on all of Cadillac's new miracles of performance and beauty and comfort. But coming to Cadillac, as he did, at this particular time of the year, we also suspect that he was inspired by the added motive of practicality. For in addition to the normal Cadillac economies of modest purchase price, low operating cost and high resale value—Cadillac dealers are, at this time, seasonally prepared to make Cadillac ownership even more attractive than ever. Because of the demand for used cars and because of increased production of the Cadillac car itself, the odds are that this gentleman received both a generous allowance on his previous car and prompt delivery of his new Cadillac. Have you considered how wonderful it would be to step into a Cadillac of your own? Then, you should pay your dealer a visit—spend an hour on the highway in the luxury of Fleetwood coachcrafting—and get the facts for yourself. You'll agree, we know, that the car is Cadillac—and the time is now!

Study Possibilities Of Wool And Mohair Processing In Texas

College Station — Wool and mohair processing plants, like many other industries, can expect more economic production if located in Texas.

A preliminary study, "The Feasibility of Processing Wool and Mohair in Texas," made by the Texas Agricultural Experiment station outlines Texas' position as a wool and mohair producer, and the historical, physical, financial and human factors involved in previous and future attempts to establish a complete wool industry in this state.

Compared with New England, where the textile industry is highly concentrated, and the Southeast, where milling has expanded in recent years, savings would be much larger for wool processing plants in Texas, and they probably could produce and market woolen and worst fabrics cheaper, the study shows.

Texas flocks normally can produce about 70 million pounds of wool and does produce about 97 percent of the nation's mohair annually. Most of the state's wool is best suited for worsted goods; and its mohair is famous as one of the strongest and best natural fibers.

At present most of Texas' raw wool and mohair is shipped to eastern markets where it is processed and manufactured into textiles which sell for a many-fold increase in price over that received by the Texas producer.

With this in mind, the Texas Legislature provided an appropriation to the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station for an overall study of the industry's possibilities in the state. A committee of five top researchers has been named to plan the study.

Director R. D. Lewis of the Experiment Station said economic and industrial leaders from all over the state are being asked to assist in the planning. Final plans for the work will be discussed with leading wool and mohair growers, warehousemen and others interested in the sheep and goat industry.

Stories And Legends Of Pecos River Told In Magazine Article

Some of the historical stories and legends surrounding the Pecos River are described in the article, "The Pecos — River of Legends" in the September issue of The Progressive Farmer magazine.

One of the most famous crossings of the Pecos was called Horsehead Crossing. It links the present Texas counties of Crane and Pecos. It received its name because so many horses died at the crossing after drinking their fill of the briny water.

Mexicans came up the old Salt Road by Presidio and crossed the Pecos at Horsehead. They went on to Salt Lake, where they obtained all the salt they could carry home.

Charles Goodnight, Oliver Loving, and other cattle drovers crossed the Pecos taking their Longhorns to market.

Billy the Kid belongs to the Upper Pecos in New Mexico. But the Lower Pecos had their tales about Judge Roy Bean. In a box-like barroom at Langtry, at the edge of the Big Bend, he used to dispense liquor with one hand and justice with the other. He helped to disprove the saying that there was "no law west of the Pecos."

Along with other legends are the tales of Pecos Bill. Young Bill, lost when his parents crossed the Pecos River, was brought up by coyotes. He learned to run as fast as any of them. When he finally discovered he wasn't a coyote, he became a cowboy. And many wild tales are told of his riding and roping accomplishments.

Who takes over when Mother takes off

We bet it's Father and we bet he leans heavily on the family's Electric Servants.

And why not? Electric servants draw mighty low wages. Lower, even, than they were 25 years ago. For instance, if yours is the typical American home, you're getting twice as much electricity for your dollar today as you did in 1932. Your electric bill may be higher, but that's because electricity is doing so much more for you now.

* Actually in homes served by WTU, the average cost of a kilowatt-hour of electric service is 20% LESS than it was 10 years ago!
