A grateful Mrs. Wayne Clark in the Lazbuddie community, said she is thankful that the two Clark families who reside side by side escaped injury in the tornado which struck their home Friday night.

Mrs. Clark said her family was in bed when the tornado blasted their farm and the home of Clark's family, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Clark, next door. She said she had gone to bed with her daughter who was ill, and when the windows started going out of the house, she pulled her daughter out of bed and they huddled in the floor until the storm had passed.

Lost at the Clark farm were all windows from the house, damage to the west wall of the Wayne Clark home, two cars totaled, one car scratched and banged up and seven cotton trailers demolished.

She commented that although their hay barn was totaled,

Local Church Sets Singing Convention

The annual West Texas Primitive Baptist Singing Convention will begin Saturday, April 25 at 10 a.m. in the Muleshoe Primitive Baptist Church across from West Plains Memorial Hospital, according to an announcement by Harvey Bass.

He said lunch will be served, followed by singing in the afternoon and evening.

The convention will continue on Sunday, beginning at 10 a.m. and will conclude Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m.

Bass commented, "Old time singing of old time songs, will include some Fa, So, La sacred harp singing. Singers will be in Muleshoe from several locations in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, California and possibly other states.

"If you want to hear the songs sung like Grandpa and Grandma sang, or want to help sing them, you are welcome to participate."

Damron Drug Renovated; Redecorated

Sam Damron of Damron Drug, said their business establishment is wearing a bright new face these days.

Just completed is a carpeting program throughout the drug store, the walls repainted, a remodeled prescription department and the cashier's stand has been moved to the side of the store.

Much of the work has been done at night in order to keep from interfering with the normal operation of the drug store.

The druggist said he thought all their friends and customers would enjoy the new look at the store.

scattered and twisted, the hay which was still in the barn was unharmed and intact. All out-buildings were destroyed and strewn along the path of the storm as it moved on northeast. Six trees were mangled and three evergreens destroyed.

The E. L. Clark home, next to the Wayne Clark home, was not damaged in the tornado. Mrs. Clark concluded, "In case anyone has not said it, and even if they have, much credit should be given the workmen from the Bailey County Electric Cooperative.

"They worked long hard hours to restore service in our area. Men worked throughout the night Friday, all day Saturday and into the night to replace poles and lines the storm had destroyed."

Many other people from the community praised the actions of the Bailey County Cooperative workmen, who first spotted the tornado and reported it, the Bailey County Volunteer Fire Department, which moved quickly into the area to assist and law enforcement officials from Muleshoe, Friona and Farwell who helped during the crisis.

First place to be 'hit' by the tornado was the E.A. Parham home, across the road from the Alton Morris home. Mrs. Parham said they lost a large quonset type barn. "The concrete floor is all that is left," she commented. "If people did not know we had a barn, they wouldn't know anything happened at our house."

There was damage to the south side of the house and all the windows on the south side of the Parham home were gone.

Damage was sustained by two trucks and a boat and trailer. At the Alton Morris farm, where Mrs. Morris lost her life, the storm unroofed the Morris' brick home and did extensive damage to the inside of the home; removed Morris' mother's home from the foundation, twisted it around, unroofed the home and tore up the inside; overturned trucks, farm equipment and totally destroyed a large barn.

Trees were twisted and uprooted, a battered pickup stood in the yard and at least one dead horse was lying in a stockpen.

Beams, splintered lumber, clothing, and debris littered the Morris farmyard and was scattered in the fields. Twisted sheet iron and aluminum marked the tornado's route as it danced on to the Wayne Clark farm and the Clayton Graef farm.

At the Graef farm, the tornado wrecked further damage in the form of demolishing the Graef garage, utility room, uprooted huge trees, picked up an unoccupied tenant house and dumped it across the road, damaged cars and pickups and flattened out-buildings.

The Graefs, who were in bed at the time of the sudden, devastating storm, were un-

Merger Paved Way, Plan New Hospital

On September 1, 1968, a group of interested citizens met together and formed a non-profit group in order to merge the two hospitals in Muleshoe. At the time, Green Memorial Hospital and West Plains Hospital were both in operation.

It was felt by the group that a merger was necessary in order to keep a hospital open to serve the Muleshoe and trade area around Muleshoe.

The group, Don Harmon, Olan Burrows, Jack Young, Bill Loyd, Harvey Bass and Alex Williams acted in the name of the board to purchase the hospitals.

They issued notes and since that time have used profits from the Muleshoe Nursing Home and the pharmacy in the hospital to pay the notes as they become due.

At the time of the merger, which closed Green Memorial Hospital as a hospital, and left West Plains Hospital open to serve the public, Muleshoe was in drastic straits concerning hospitals and doctors, according to a spokesman for the hospital board.

Green Memorial Hospital did not qualify for federal programs because of the structure of the building and West Plains Hospital was down to one doctor. Owners of West Plains Hospital were Dr. B. O. McDaniel, Eddie Faust and the Birdsong Estate, while Green Memorial Hospital was owned by Dr. W. M. Dean, Dr. B. E. Sanderlin, Roy Kelley and Marshall Cook.

Since the one hospital has been in operation, it is presently operating on marginal approval for federal government health programs, said the hospital spokesman.

The present hospital officials have had numerous requests from federal inspectors for improvements to the present hospital in order to keep obtaining federal funds under the Medicare and Medicaid programs.

It was emphasized that Hill-Burton funds, such as would be requested to help build a new hospital if the hospital district and bond election passes on May 16, may not be used to renovate or remodel existing hospital facilities.

Such funds may be used only for the construction and equipping of new hospital facilities. The present hospital would close its doors as far as a hospital is concerned and the facilities would become a nursing home expanding the present operation of the Muleshoe Nursing Home.

Also stressed was that no tax money collected under the hospital district would be used to pay the note on the present facility once it was closed as a hospital. The note payment would still be made by profits from the nursing home.

Dr. Charles Lewis, chairman of the temporary board of directors of the Bailey County Hospital District, attended the meeting Tuesday at noon of the Muleshoe Rotary Club to explain the proposed hospital district and bond election to Rotary Club members.

He showed slides to members and guests and gave information on the proposed district.

Muleshoe Escapes Heaviest Damages

"People are wonderful"... was the general consensus by numerous tornado and storm victims from Friday night's vicious storms which battered a wide area.

Response was immediate following the storm which first struck Bailey County around 7:30 p.m. Friday night. High winds and driving rain inundated a wide area. In south Bailey County, Mrs. Imogene Tiller lost the carport of her house and a small barn was demolished on the Arthur Shafer farm. Another barn on the Shafer farm was unroofed by the storm which followed a grey, drizzly day.

Numerous counties in the Panhandle and South Plains area were placed under a severe weather alert, which was later changed to a tornado watch following the first reports of tornadoes in the area.

Muleshoe received widespread damage, mostly of a minor nature. Jeff Peeler, Southwestern Public Service Company, said the wind knocked down three power lines in Muleshoe, interrupting electrical service for almost 20 minutes.

General Telephone Company reported six of the Muleshoe circuits were knocked out, along with two to Lazbuddie, one to Clovis and one to Lariat. The AP machine for Radio Station KMUL was also knocked out by the storm. The telephone company spokesman said 24 cases of telephone trouble were reported during the storm. Muleshoe was not affected during the Friday storm to any great extent as more than two-thirds of the circuits to Littlefield remained in operation throughout the storm hours.

Joe Harbin of Bailey County Electric Cooperative said workmen from the cooperative restored all service on their lines by 4:30 Sunday afternoon.

The workers had a whopping 65 poles to restore and many miles of downed electrical and telephone lines throughout a five county area. Most of the damage was in the Lazbuddie community, which was hit by a tornado around 10:30 p.m. Friday.

Some poles had to be replaced in the Stegall community and from wind damage in Cochran County.

Harbin said the Lazbuddie tornado moved in a definite southwest-northeast direction, according to pole and line damage. He did add that the path of the tornado in the Lazbuddie community indicated a jog or possible smaller tornado off to the side at the Alton Morris farm which moved in a southeast-northwest direction, depositing debris from the Morris farm along the path it followed.

Mrs. Alton Morris, 50, lost her life when the tornado struck their home east of Lazbuddie. Her husband and daughter were injured in the sudden storm which caught the family in bed and unaware of the storm's approach.

Jess Winn, manager of Pioneer Natural Gas in Muleshoe, said their only report of damage in Muleshoe was a broken gas meter which was struck by a fence which was blown over behind the Horton Griffin home on West Avenue J. He said minor damage was sustained to two meters at irrigation wells at Lazbuddie.

Winds in Muleshoe tossed tree limbs, garbage cans, and loose items up and down the streets and yards as it struck late Friday evening. Several store windows were broken, including the large plate glass window at the Texas Employment

Six Locations Have Poll Box For Primary

Harvey Bass, Democratic chairman of Bailey County, said voting boxes will be unchanged for the May 2 primary.

Although the four voting precincts in Bailey County have been redistricted, Bass said voters will go to the polls in their former locations. For instance, if you voted in Precinct One, at the Bailey County Courthouse, you will still vote in that box even though you may live in Precinct Two, Three or Four by the newly drawn precinct lines.

Voting boxes will be Box one, Bailey County Courthouse; Box two, old city hall, now the Bailey County Volunteer Fire Department; Box three, West Camp Baptist Church, Mays at the Longview Church; Box four, Three Way at the School; Box five, Needmore at the Needmore Community Building and Box six at Bula School.

If you live in the new precinct Two and vote at the Bailey County Courthouse, your vote will count for the Precinct Two County Commissioner and if you now live in Precinct Four and vote at the Bailey County Courthouse or the old city hall, your vote will count for the Precinct Four County Commissioner.

Bass said that by law, voting boxes cannot be changed until August or September of each year, thus the decision to vote in the same locations as always.

CAC Committee Meeting Slated Thursday Night

George Tiner of the Lubbock office of the Community Action Program, said a meeting will be held Thursday, April 23, at 7:30 p.m. in the American Legion Hall in Muleshoe.

He said the meeting will be held to name a nominating committee to hold an election for committee members of the Bailey County Community Action Committee.

He asked that all interested persons attend the meeting and added that Bailey County Commissioners Court gave permission for a Community Action Program to be instituted in this county.

Census Moves Into Wrap-up In This County

Mrs. Clarence E. Mason, supervisor of the Bailey County Census, has announced that the final wrap-up has begun in the county as the census is nearly complete.

She said she would like to express the appreciation of herself and the census workers for the cooperation received and the good response from Bailey County citizens in coordinating the necessary information.

Attention, Voters!

If you have any questions pertaining to hospital district, bond election, write your question to the Journal, Box 449, Muleshoe, Texas, and we will try to find the answers.

Jaycees Continue Beef Ticket Sale

According to Jeff Smith, chairman of the Jaycee Beef Drawing for the Muleshoe-Stegall Opportunity Plan, $660 in tickets had been sold as of Monday, April 13. High salesmen for the June 2 drawing include: Clarence Christian, 115, Doyce Turner, 112; Jeff Smith, 110; Curtis Walker, 103; Derrell Oliver, 72; Max King, 37; Leroy Maxwell, 36; Dick Johnson, 29; Ronnie Upton, 28; Roger Gorrell, 27; Raymond Schroeder, 25; Delbert Berry, 20 and Ronnie Spies, 15. Smith said the easy part of selling the tickets is in the past and the real work is ahead. He has ordered an additional 1,000 tickets.

All proceeds from the drawing will go to the Muleshoe-Stegall Opportunity Plan to help financially with students who wish to attend college and have no other means of doing so. During their regular noon meeting Monday, Jaycees voted to pay its proportionate share of the expenses of the Rubella Clinic which will be held in Muleshoe on Wednesday, May 13. They will pay up to $50 and immediately appropriated $25 for initial expenses of the mass immunization plan for pre-schoolers for German measles.

C. D. Fitzgerald, drivers' license examiner for the Texas Department of Public Safety, appeared before the Jaycees to ask that the Jaycees sponsor driver education schools to be taught by members of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Fitzgerald said the THP would furnish the manpower and equipment. The Jaycees would be in charge of publicity and acquire a place to hold the schools. Fitzgerald said there is a possibility of acquiring the basement of the Law Enforcement Center. Jaycees approved sponsoring the school.

Numerous signs and television antennas in and around Muleshoe were twisted and bent in the wind's path. Some local residents reported windows blown out of their homes, fences down, carports lifted and destroyed and other minor damage sustained in the straight, hard wind which accompanied a driving rain which deposited less than a half inch of moisture in Muleshoe.

Father Robert O'Leary of the Immaculate Conception of Mary Catholic Church said the canopy on the new center at the church was destroyed by the wind during church services Friday night. No one was injured and no other damage was sustained at the church.

Janie Crane Tagged at Tech

A couple of crutches for a spinal problem just add momentum to Janie Crane, on her speedway to an international wireline staffer career. She has been tapped for Tech's La Ventana 1970 staff covering Freshman View and Index. Janie Crane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Crane of Muleshoe. She graduated from MHS in 1966, went to Eastern New Mexico University her first two years as a journalism major, switching to Tech for the last. She will be a Senior. Her mother, Mrs. James Crane, teaches the fourth grade at Richland Hills School.

The La Ventana staff for 1971 was released Tuesday by Dave Ammons, Forth Worth, Tex., junior and Tom Scott, Lubbock Junior, co-editors for next year.

Ammons said, "Selecting the staff was the single most important thing we will have to do. We will help them with their sections, but it will largely be their own imagination and industry."

"Section editors on our yearbook," said Scott, "have more independence than on most yearbooks because of the format. The editors main job is to guide them."

The Foundation entered water conservation programs from the time of its inception in 1956. Among early practices included timing of irrigation studies to produce optimum crops with less water. Since then, the Foundation has led the field in artificial recharge studies.

Other water conservation practices under study at the Foundation includes underground permanent sprinkler installation and irrigation on bench-leveled parallel terraces.

Foundation and conservation district officials will be among state conservation winners to be honored at the awards presentation banquet in TCU Student Center Ballroom in Fort Worth May 2.

Symphony Boosts Area Arts

Sunday afternoon, Muleshoe sat back and listened to the first concert ever given here by the Amarillo Symphony, along with many others who attended from surrounding towns.

At intermission, Dr. Thomas Hohstadt, conductor, and orchestra musicians relaxed in the High School cafeteria with cokes, cookies, conversation with various members of sponsoring organizations, ushers, special guests, and an unexpected honor.

A Chamber of Commerce golden Muleshoe plaque, inscribed, "Presented to Dr. Thomas Hohstadt, an honorary citizen of Muleshoe, Texas", dated April 19, was given by Gil Lamb to commemorate the event, as well as express appreciation for the orchestra and its sparkling performance.

Texas Fine Arts Commission funds and support made possible this first major cultural program to the area, because of the hard effort and work done by the American Association of University Women, Muleshoe Branch. They were assisted by the Muleshoe Music Teachers Assn., Chamber of Commerce, Business Activities Committee, and Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority. In turn, members of these organizations interested others vital to this sizable undertaking, and gained cooperation of the news media to publicize it, Businessmen in Earth, Friona, Bovina, Farwell, Lazbuddie, Three-Way, and Muleshoe helped the sale of tickets to the concert by permitting tables to be manned one day in each community by volunteer ticket sellers.

Mrs. Jack Rennels was appointed concert co-ordinator by representatives from the sponsoring organizations, and application for state funds to Texas Fine Arts Commission was approved in the amount of $692.25. Negotiations with the Amarillo Symphony Board, Texas Fine Arts and Muleshoe's concert co-ordinator resulted in agreement on $1400, orchestra expense to stage the program in Muleshoe.

Concert finance committee members, Mrs. Eric Smith, Mrs. Gil Lamb, Mrs. Marcia

Gragg, Mrs. Eugene Howard, Clarence Christian, and Robert Hooten, and Mrs. Rennels planned ticket sales to be made by members of each organization represented, in area business firms one day in each community, with advance publicity. Also, individuals were given tickets to sell in advance of the concert date. By date of the scheduled performance, it was clear, by ticket sales, it would be a success financially. More than enough money was raised than needed to pay basic costs. The excess funds cleared, will be used to help finance the next function, supported by Texas Fine Arts Commission funds to bring the best in music, art, architecture, drama and dance to culturally isolated communities.

It is the intent of the State of Texas, in cooperation through its Texas Fine Arts Commission with the U. S. Congress, to enable communities within a 50-mile radius, to bring the lively arts within reach of every community by money grants.

These funds will be enough to provide a money base to prime a five-town drive for productions people wish to see. Using similar techniques that brought the Pops Concert here, the cooperating "Five", can spotlight attractions for every month in the future, by matching, or surpassing the cost of them, through advance ticket sales, gate receipts and Fine Arts Council membership dues.

Locally, Mrs. Rennels and the coordinating committee served as clearing house for "legmen" selling tickets, speaking at club meetings throughout the area, explaining the present production, and taking a big, first step into a cohesively entertaining community future. Counterparts in Friona, Earth, Bovina, Farwell, Lazbuddie and Three-Way did the same.

At curtain call, among many others, Mrs. Robert Hooten, Mrs. Eldon Davis, Mrs. Marcia Gragg, Mrs. John Watson, Mrs. Charles Lewis, Mrs. Joe Costen, Mrs. Addie Mae Spence, Mrs. Sam Damron, Mrs. Gilbert Lamb, wore many caps. They provided and served refreshments, manned the ticket booth, selected outstanding music students to serve as ushers, who also helped make the concert a success. Outstanding as music students, the ushers were: Chester Clay Beavers, Tanya Cherry, Dana Damron, Leland Ferris, Dellinda Henry, Donna Locke, Linda Middlebrooks, Becky Milner, Rebecca Phelps, Kathy Seymour, Norma Sowder, and Steve Woodard.

Mrs. Jack Rennels, concert coordinator, summed it all up with this statement: "I can sincerely say that I am grateful for the opportunity to have served as Coordinator of the Concert. It has been a wonderful experience for the people of Muleshoe to have the Amarillo Symphony."

'Pop's' Concert Thrills Audience

From the opening notes of "The Star Spangled Banner" sung by the enthusiastic audience to the closing strains of the rousing "Stars and Stripes Forever", Dr. Thomas Hohstadt and the Amarillo Symphony Orchestra and the concert goers had complete rapport.

"We enjoy playing to such a receptive audience as this," Dr. Hohstadt told the audience, "These area concerts are still in the experimental stage and we feel that they are worthwhile when appreciation is shown as it has been here."

Dr. Hohstadt's entertaining and pertinent comments preceded each selection, which lent informality to a mutually stimulated near-capacity audience and orchestra personnel. Spontaneous applause from the audience was prompted by his statement that the orchestra would like to come back to Muleshoe again.

Notable throughout the concert was the high degree of training of the orchestra, not only individually as excellent musicians, but as a disciplined whole, following in exact precision all the nuances of the conductor's superb craftsmanship.

The rousing overture from "L'Italiana in Algeri" by Rossini opened the concert. Dr. Hohstadt commented that all that is ever heard from this composer's prolific operatic pen are the overtures which, appropriately, are chosen by conductors as orchestral concert openers. The facility of percussionist was displayed in the Spanish rhythms of five movements of the ballet music from "El Cid" by Frenchman occasion. Mrs. McKinstry presented the new president, Mrs. Sam Damron with a framed charter from the Texas Music Teachers Association and the National Music Teachers Association. A discussion was held as to the need for a historian, and Mrs. McKinstry agreed to serve the association in this capacity.

Refreshments were served to Dana Damron, Becky Milner, and Mrs. Jack Rennels. Signalling the concert's close by shaking hands with the concert master, and bringing the orchestra to its feet to acknowledge the audience response, Dr. Hohstadt closed the first of "hopefully many more memorable fine arts events for residents in the Muleshoe area."

Mossenet, Benjamin Britten's "The Star Spangled Banner" sung by the enthusiastic audience to the closing strains of the rousing "Stars and Stripes Forever", Dr. Thomas Hohstadt and the Amarillo Symphony Orchestra and the concert goers had complete rapport.

The Muleshoe Music Teachers Association met Monday night, April 20, in the home of Mrs. Jim Milner. This was the last for spring. Activities will be resumed in September.

On the program for the evening were Connie Redwine, Deborah Burchel, and Jamie Small, all of whom played piano solos. A special guest from Littlefield, Geoffrey Grizzle, sang two voice selections, "La

Mrs. Gil Lamb reported that the Amarillo Symphony Orchestra "Pops" concert presented in Muleshoe was very successful, and read a note from Mrs. Jack Rennels thanking the MMTA for their cooperation.

Mrs. John Watson installed the new officers. She led a most impressive ceremony with each new officer placing a small lighted candle around a larger one in a beautiful flower arrangement, signifying the contribution each officer would make in furthering music education, and emphasizing music as the universal language which adds dignity to every

Do you put a higher price on an Olds than we do?

Our own surveys indicate that quite a few people think an Olds costs a lot more than it really does. Result? Many people buy an ordinary car and end up with a lot less car and value for their money.

It's so unnecessary, too, because Oldsmobile has many models that are priced right down with so-called low-priced cars. See your Olds dealer. He'll prove that you're closer to Olds than you think.

PIONEER 820

TWO FOR THE MONEY

Pioneer brand hybrids set the yield pace wherever grain sorghum is grown. Here are two performance proved varieties you can count on for this area. 820 is an old reliable, full-season heavyweight that consistently yields in the 8 to 10 thousand pound range with good fertility and water. 845 is a relatively new medium-maturity hybrid that yields like most full-season varieties. It has produced over 10,000 lbs. per acre in an official Texas A & M yield test. Pick the Pioneer brand hybrid that fits your requirements best. Then see your Pioneer dealer right away and get the seed you need for this year's crop.
