Ozona Air Force Station Saves Estimated $20,000 In Materials Since Feb. As Part Of AF World Wide "Project Money Tree"

The Ozona Air Force Station, which has become so familiar to the town in the past two years, is only one of hundreds of similar sites both in this country and abroad. Presently it is engaged in a massive, world wide military plan designated "Project Money Tree" and designed to save the American taxpayer literally billions of dollars, a spokesman at the base revealed this week.

All property over and above the basic needs of each military installation will be reported through channels to higher headquarters for redistribution to organizations that need these same items. The property will then be moved from organization to organization to fill shortages that presently exist. This will replace the present method of each installation buying its own items as needed rather than trying to obtain them from another base where the same property is to be found in excess. This plan, should result in saving millions of dollars.

In an effort to do their part in "Project Money Tree", personnel at Ozona A. F. S., under the direction of Lt. Jim Cotesworth and the supervision of Major Roy Lee Zunker, have been expending hundreds of extra man hours during the past three months identifying excess equipment, cutting down on requirements for more property, and eliminating costly luxury items. It is the job of Major Zunker and Lt. Cotesworth to review all possible authorizations and determine which items they must have with which to operate. The enormity of this task results from the fact that the real property at Ozona A. F. S. is valued at about $2,000,000.00, the furniture and equipment at about $250,000.00. These figures do not include any of the radar and communications equipment. This means there are thousands of items, ranging anywhere from lamps to electronic equipment, which must be counted and judged as to whether or not they are really needed here. (Continued on Page 5)

Volleyball Girls Reach Finals In State Tournament

Team Downs Cohoma & Waller but Falls To Champion Simms

By Ernie Boyd

The Ozona High School girls volleyball team reached the state finals in Abilene last Friday night but found Simms too tough in the finals as they lost a 3 to 15 decision to the champions.

Ozona gained the finals with two wins Friday, downing Coahoma in a come-from-behind 23 to 15 win and then ousting defending champion Waller 23 to 19 in a real thriller Friday night.

The Ozona girls rode the fine spiking of Sandra Whitaker and Beverly Alford and the floor play of Barbara Barbee and Janet North to come from behind a 3 to 9 count and win the Coahoma game and then the whole team played well in the Waller win.

Ozona jumped into a 14 to 7 first half lead as Beverly Alford led the way and then held off a Waller rally as Sandra Whitaker led the team at the net in the second half. Barbara Barbee, Janet North and Glenda Friend all had a good night serving to pace the girls to the win.

The loss in the finals marked the second year during the last three that the Ozona team has reached the finals having lost to last year's state champs in the first round.

The state tourney marked the final competition for two starters, Sandra Whitaker and Barbara Barbee but the balance of the team plus one alternate, one reserve and a powerful B team will be back next season.

Annual Spring Fashion Show Is Presented By High School HE Girls

The Ozona High School Home Economics Department, under the direction of Mrs. Janie B. Hull, presented its annual spring fashion show Tuesday night before a very large and responsive audience.

Theme of the show was "Swing of Fashion" and in keeping with the theme a swing was located in the middle of the rose decorated stage which gave the decoration an atmosphere of spring.

J. A. Peltó, high school Principal, introduced Mrs. Hull and made the presentation of the Minnie Henderson award for the outstanding senior home making student to Miss Ann Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tom Davidson.

Seniors Roberta Johnigan and Sandra Whitaker, and junior Janet Mason served as commentators for the show which featured the work carried on in sewing classes both in Junior High and in High School this year.

A total of 98 models appeared during the night wearing for the most part dresses made by themselves even though a few mothers and sisters appeared during the show in creations fashioned by sisters or daughters now in Mrs. Hull's classes.

The crowd attending the show was one of the largest to attend any function held at the high school in a number of years. The audience showed its deep appreciation of Mrs. Hull's work by its warm reception given in response to her introduction by Mr. Peltó.

Citizens Urged To Cooperate In Annual Clean-Up

Next Week Is Clean-Up Week; Trucks To Haul 15th & 16th

Ozona citizens were reminded this week by committees from the women's clubs of Ozona that next week is annual Spring Clean-Up week and the cooperation of every Ozona resident is sought in an effort to make the 1961 clean-up the most effective in years.

The annual clean-up is sponsored by the Ozona Woman's Club which has taken the lead in the annual townwide cleanup for more than forty years. Also cooperating in the endeavor are the Woman's Forum, the Women's League and the Ozona Garden Club.

Ladies from these organizations plan a check of the progress of the clean-up during the week and premises which show neglect will be given special attention, with a request to occupants of such properties to get into the spirit of the clean-up campaign to the end that it might be 100 percent effective throughout the city.

With all next week designated for the clean-up, the county and trash hauling service will spend Monday and Tuesday of the following week, May 15 and 16, in hauling away trash which residents have gathered and stacked about their premises. Residents are urged to have trash sacked or boxed wherever possible and to place it so that it will be readily accessible to the hauling crews.

There will be no charge to residents for the hauling service during the two designated days. So, get your trash ready, is the admonition of the club backers of the project.

Five Track Men Carry Hopes Of Ozona At Austin

Relay Team, Dash & Hurdle Men Compete In State Meet

By Ernie Boyd

Ozona track coaches Chick Womack and Sonny Cleere will take five Ozona trackmen to the State track meet in Austin this weekend as the Lions climax the 1961 season with their third straight appearance in the meet.

The Lions have entries in the 440 relay, the 100 yard dash, and the 120 yard high hurdles with the relay team rated the best chance of copying a first.

The 440 team is composed of Tony Parker, Pete Montgomery, Carl Montgomery, and Jim Doran and has posted a 43.9 this season which is one of the better times posted by teams in Austin this year.

The Lion team was second in the regional meet in Lubbock but only lost first place by a foot or so and only a slight difference in performance by either team could alter or change considerably the Lubbock finish.

Phillip Carnes will carry the Lions into the high hurdles, having placed first in Lubbock, but at least two other state hurdlers have better marks in the event. Carnes, a strong competitor, will, none the less, be considered a threat since hit hurdles, etc. can affect the outcome of this race much more decisively than do factors in sprints.

In the 100 yard dash, Jim Doran has posted as low a time this season as any of the boys entered in the event this year and should he get a good start and be running well he could take the title this year. Doran finished fourth last season and if qualifying times of other entries are any indication he could do better this year.

Two of the five boys, Jim Doran and Tony Parker will be finishing their eligibility for the Lions this week.

Churches Join In Soil Stewardship Week with Sermons Here Sunday

May 7 through 13 has been proclaimed as Soil Stewardship Week throughout the United States.

Soil Stewardship Week will be observed May 7 in Ozona churches with sermons on the subject to be preached by the Rev. Harry Trulove, pastor of the First Baptist Church; Rev. Morris Bratton, pastor of the Ozona Methodist Church, and Rev. Hugh Stiles, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church.

Furnishing program inserts commemorating Soil Stewardship Week for use in church bulletins will be the Crockett Soil Conservation District.

HAS HEART SURGERY

Joe Edwin Everett of Ozona was reported doing well this week following open hearts surgery performed Tuesday morning in Methodist Hospital in Houston. The surgery was to correct a malformation of the valve structure of the heart.

Mrs. Joe Teague, Ozona Native, Is Buried Here Fri.

Death Came To Former Betty Lou Coates In El Paso Hospital

Funeral services were held from the Ozona Methodist Church at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon for Mrs. Joe Teague, 39, of Slaton, a native Ozonan, the former Miss Betty Lou Coates, who died at 1:30 a. m. Thursday in an El Paso hospital after a brief illness.

Services were conducted at 10 a. m. the same day at the First Methodist Church in Slaton and the body was then brought to Ozona for the service here followed by interment in Cedar Hill Cemetery. Pallbearers were Bud Coates, John Coates, Roy Coates, Beecher Montgomery, Billy Ford Coates of Ft. Stockton, Jim Dudley, Gene Williams and Tommy Harris.

Mrs. Teague became ill in Slaton Monday and was flown to El Paso for treatment. She had apparently rallied but early Wednesday night her condition worsened suddenly and she died at 1:30 a. m.

Born in Ozona April 26, 1922, Mrs. Teague was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Coates. Her mother died in 1926 and her aunt, Miss Dolly Coates, of Ozona, reared her from the age of four. Her father died in 1945.

Mrs. Teague was graduated from Ozona High School in 1939 and received her bachelor degree from the University of Texas and had completed part of her requirements for the Master's degree when she married Mr. Teague in December of 1946. They had lived in Slaton for about 15 years, Mr. Teague being in the drug business there.

Surviving are the husband, one son, Gaines Teague, 9 years old, the foster mother, Miss Dolly Coates of Ozona, and a number of other aunts, uncles and cousins.

Little League Is Off To Cold Start In Spring Norther

All Four Teams In Action In Season Opener Mon. Night

By Ernie Boyd

The 1961 Little league baseball season got off on a cold footing Monday night as a large turnout sat through an unseasonably cold night to see Moore Oil beat Ozona Oil 9 to 7 in the opener and B&B lace Mason Motors 10 to 2 in the nightcap.

A bad case of first game jitters combined with a strong cold north wind affected fielding in the first contest as Ozona Oil stayed in the game all the way despite getting but two hits.

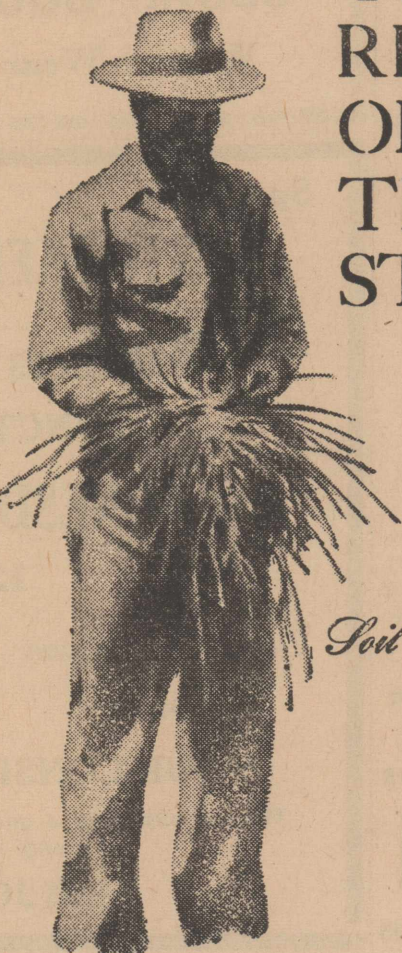

In the second contest the pitching of Tony Garza and Humberto Ramos was too much for Mason Motors who were able to collect but three hits even though one of them was a home run by Lyn Southard. B&B also included a home run in its bombardment of Mosan's pitching as Jerry Sutton parked one over the right field wall on his first trip to the plate.

During the intermission between the two games the members of last summer's League all-stars who advanced farther in the state race than had any other Ozona team, were introduced to the crowd.

Play in the league will be resume tonight beginning at 6 p. m. with the second game to follow.

Organization of a minor league for the summer continued to progress this week as boys were selected for three teams and practice was begun by the three managers.

Charles Martin, Arch Tennison, and Floyd Dunston are the three new managers in the league and are now working with their teams. The first scheduled game will probably come the first week after school is out since the schedule of activities for the next two weeks is very heavy.

WHERE WE STAND

In his address to the Washington meeting of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, and aimed more specifically at our Western Hemisphere allies and at the Kremlin, President Kennedy warned, despite his press conference statement one week earlier, that US armed forces would not intervene in Cuba "under any conditions", that "our restraint is not inexhaustible."

For the obvious benefit of our Latin neighbors, the President laid the "Yanqui" position on the line. Referring to his press conference assertion that the Cuban "contest for freedom" is a "struggle of Cuban patriots against a Cuban dictator," he went on to present long-awaited clarification:

"Should it ever appear," he said, "that the inter-American doctrine of non-interference merely conceals or excuses a policy of non-action — if the nations of this hemisphere should fail to meet their commitments against outside Communist penetration — then I want it clearly understood that this Government will not hesitate in meeting its primary obligations which are to the security of our Nation."

And for the consideration of Khrushchev, whose threatening demand that the US halt "aggression" against Cuba had already been rebuked, the President continued:

"Should that time ever come, we do not intend to be lectured on 'intervention' by those whose character was stamped for all time on the bloody streets of Budapest."

So now the issue in Cuba is finally and officially recognized for what it is, the struggle of Cuban patriots against international Communism. We shall never agree more with our Commander in Chief than when he said:

"The evidence is clear — and the hour is late. We and our friends will have to face the fact that we cannot postpone any longer the real issue of survival itself."

HUSH UP — OR BE TAXED

It used to be that a businessman, if Congress or the State Legislature or his local government was kicking around a law that could put him out of business, was free to spend some money organizing opposition and telling the hometown folks what was going on without being subject to tax penalties for doing so.

Not any more. In a series of decisions, upholding Treasury Department views, the Supreme Court contends that in denying tax deductions to a businessman for expressing his views on matters which would have seriously affected or destroyed his business it is just following national policies.

Maybe so, but if somebody is trying to pass a law to ruin your business, and if, when you open your mouth you get it stuffed with a tax bill, you're not likely to stand up and wave a flag for "national policy," the good old Constitution, or the Supreme Court either, for that matter.

However, the Court, after unloading out of one side of its mouth, came up with this one:

"The right of petition is one of the freedoms protected by the Bill of Rights, and we cannot, of course, lightly impute to Congress any intent to invade these freedoms."

This is great as far as it goes, but a businessman better not try to go any place with it because the Internal Revenue Service will be looking over his shoulder, with a gimme-glint in its eye if he spends any cash, buying advertising, traveling to his state capital or to Washington or doing anything else legal to support or protest legislative action.

Discussing public issues is essential to the operation of our kind of society — in fact it's guaranteed — so it's up to Congress to tell the Court or an administrative body like IRS to keep its mitts off the right of business to sound off.

Congress hasn't done so, as yet. There is an answer, but Congress better get moving before this one is lost by default.

It's H. R. 640, a bill put in by a number of both Democrat and Republican members of Congress, and one endorsed by the House Ways and Means Committee in 1960. It will straighten out the IRS and allow a businessman or an organization representing him — not afraid of tangling with our law makers — the right of representation without taxation, but only when spending for legislative purposes has a business connection.

Your Congressman and Senators need to know that you want them to get busy and get H. R. 640 through Congress and on President Kennedy's desk for his signature. God knows where they'll go next if we let them get away with taxing the right to talk back.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS From State Capitol

Austin, Texas — Capitol hands are engaged in a legal and dead-serious type of "numbers game."

Object is to figure out how much money certain tax bills will bring in. Also what the legislature needs to round up in order to meet the state's obligations. Then, find out how much additional cash is necessary to foot all bills. Any number of persons can play this game — and a good many are. Looks like all Texans will be affected.

Gov. Price Daniel, who takes a dim view of the House-passed 2 per cent sales tax, said it still would leave the state $50,000,000 short of needed revenue. Rep.

Charles Wilson of Trinity, sponsor of the sales tax, offered it as a means of raising $127,000,000 a year.

House Passes Budget Bill — House passed a general appropriations bill calling for the spending of $2,520,000,000 during the next two years.

House bill is about $20,000,000 higher than the appropriations bill passed by the Senate in late March. It is about $130,000,000 more than is provided for present two-year period.

One of the biggest increases would be for education, which would be boosted by $38,000,000 a year under the House bill.

Other provisions by the House would allow: $15 per month raises for state employees making less than $200 a month; 40-hour work weeks for employees of state hospitals and special schools; raises for State Liquor Control Board inspectors.

Election Code Is Target — Changes in future balloting and candidate filing procedures continue to be a prime legislative topic.

A bill introduced by Senators George Parkhouse of Dallas and Robert Baker of Houston would raise substantially the filing fees for legislative candidates in Dallas and Harris counties, a senatorial candidate would have to pay $1,000 and a House candidate, $500, compared to the present $100 for each.

Another bill by Senator Parkhouse would limit each political party to one poll watcher per precinct and require that the watcher be a resident of the precinct in which he keeps his vigil.

A bill that would allow voters to check the candidate they favored rather than scratching all others has been approved by House committee and sent to the floor. Committee also approved a bill that would require that the boxes containing ballot stubs be turned in after the election with unbroken seals.

Short Snorts
Rep. V. E. (Red) Berry's last-ditch effort legalizing horse racing and panmutuel betting was killed by the House. It sent back to committee a proposal for a statewide referendum on racing.

Fines of from $25 to $200 could be levied on policemen who trap speedsters by waiting in a hidden spot under a bill proposed by Rep. Collier Adams of Lubbock.

Texans would begin their days an hour later, use an extra hour at the end of long summer days under a daylight savings time bill introduced by Rep. Joe Ratcliff of Dallas.

Rep. Grainger McIlhany of Wheeler has introduced a new bill to exempt farm trailers from licensing requirements. It is a substitute for a similar bill vetoed by Governor Daniel. New bill includes a number of safety, weight and speed limitations.

1910 — THE OZONA WOMAN'S CLUB — 1960 FIFTY YEARS OF COMMUNITY SERVICE

Past President

Mrs. Lee Childress
1929-1930

Mrs. Lee Childress was the fourteenth president of the Ozona Woman's Club. Other officers for the year were Mrs. Will Baggett, first vice president; Mrs. W. J. Grimmer, second vice president; Mrs. S. M. Harvick, recording secretary; Mrs. R. R. Dudley, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Max Schneemann, treasurer, and Mrs. Evart White, parliamentarian and critic.

In this year the club discontinued the departments of literature and civics and started the yearbook as it has become today. The civic department became a standing committee, with Mrs. C. C. Coates as chairman. The program chairman, Mrs. W. J. Grimmer, and the yearbook chairman, Mrs. John R. Bailey, with their committees, planned an attractive yearbook.

The study topic was The Best Plays of 1927-28, edited by Burns Mantle, which included Coquette, Strange Interlude, The Royal Family, The Racket, Behold the Bridegroom, Escape and Paris Bound.

Special days observed were president's Day, Club House Program, Goodwill Day (compiled by Mrs. Frank Friend), Federation Day Luncheon, American Citizenship Day, planned by the civic committee, Texas Day pageant in the home of Mrs. Wayne West and a Fine Arts program on famous paintings.

New members were Mrs. A. W. Jones, and Mrs. Scott Peters. Associate members were Mrs. L. B. Cox, Mrs. J. J. North, Mrs. C. C. Montgomery and Mrs. L. J. Kittle. Honorary members were Mrs. Kate Baggett, Mrs. J. B. Smith and Mrs. Frank Friend.

The special project for the year was to raise funds and create an interest in a Club House for Ozona. A special program was held at which time such topics were considered as — what can we do to raise funds, how can we secure a lot, could we interest someone in donating a lot or house, as a memorial, for a club house.

Myrtle Childress was the daughter of Albert Kincaid and his wife, Ada Rosalie Drennan Kincaid. She was born in San Angelo and came to Ozona with her family in 1902. Her father was one of the early day sheepmen and served eleven years as president of the Sheep & Women's University in Denton.

She became the wife of Lee Childress, son of early settlers in Crockett County, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Childress. They made their home on the old Batchler ranch, later moving into Ozona to school their children.

Mr. and Mrs. Childress were the parents of three sons. One, Phillip Lee Childress, is deceased, the two living sons being William A. and James R. Childress, both of Ozona. Mrs. Childress is a member of the Methodist Church, worked in the Woman's Missionary Society and sang in the choir for a number of years. She was always in-

Goat Raisers Association.

Her schooling was in Ozona, interested in school affairs and PTA, belonged to the Music Club and several other civic groups. She was an active member of the Ozona Woman's Club until recently, and while president did not miss a single meeting. Mrs. Childress was the first of three Kincaid daughters to serve as club presidents. The other two were Mrs. S. M. Harvick and Mrs. W. E. Friend, Jr. Another daughter, Mrs. V. I. Pierce, has for years been a most active member, holding many offices in the club.

Special interest of Mrs. Childress besides her home and family, was the ranch, which she always enjoyed. Being interested in music, playing the piano and accordion, she loved concerts and opera. She paints china and knits and she spends many happy hours at the family fishing camp on Devil's River.

The News Reel

A re-run of "The Ozona Story" as gleaned from the files of The Ozona Stockman

From The Stockman, May 5, 1932

An average of thirty men are finding employment daily in digging the ditch for the big sewer main which is being laid to the new disposal plant south of town. These men are now making an average of $3 a day, releasing approximately $500 in cash weekly in Ozona. Ten more days will be required to complete the 9,000-foot ten-inch line.

MANNERS ARE IMPORTANT INDICES

Manners play an important part in the lives of adults, as well as teenagers. These manners are very important in the impression one person will leave on another. Common courtesy is, perhaps the most important guide to good manners. Common courtesy can be your guide in any of a number of situations. For instance, one common courtesy would be to pull out a chair for a female companion at a dinner table, or anywhere else the occasion might arise. Another example of common courtesy would be to give up your seat, in a crowded bus, to a lady or any elder person, or to rise from your seat when someone passes in front of you.

Another habit which would be appreciated is for a gentleman to remove his hat upon entering a building.

Opening a door for a lady is another indication of good manners.

The most important common courtesy is the use of profanity, especially in places where the overuse of illicit language leaves a distinct bad impression of yourself on other people.

Another division of manners is table manners. One common courtesy at the table would be for everyone at the table to wait until all persons are through eating before leaving the table, or to wait until grace has been said, and each person's plate is filled before beginning to eat.

Through his manners, a person may determine his reputation, job, and/or future husband or wife.

CARLOS ATTENDS O. H. S. ALL TWELVE YEARS

Carlos Lopez was born July 27, 1942, in Ozona. Carlos then moved to Langtry, where he lived for 5 years; then he came back to Ozona to start the first grade. Carlos has attended all 12 years of school at Ozona.
Carlos does not plan to attend college and expects to begin work when school is out.
Carlos says he enjoys playing baseball and ping-pong in his spare time.

The only improvement of O. H. S. which Carlos suggested was to do away with the research papers.

SUPPORT AWAITS LEADERSHIP

After ninety minutes alone with plates of fried chickens at the Presidential hide-a-way in the western Maryland mountains, President Kennedy and former President Eisenhower may know what we are going to do about Cuba.

But only General Eisenhower declared himself later: "I am all in favor of the US supporting the man who has to carry the responsibility for our foreign affairs," he said.

Such public support, however, as President de Gaulle has demonstrated in recent days, is like an army. It can only move collectively when the Commander-in-Chief points the way.

Ever since Castor's seizure of American business, Americans everywhere have been asking: "What do we do now?" President Eisenhower had no answer. If President Kennedy has one, we should be told.

SENIOR FESTIVALS CONTINUE

Monday night the Seniors were honored with a supper party at

Miss North's house. Almost all seniors were present. The hosts served the seniors ham, beans, potato salad and a relish plate.

The party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne West, Mr. and Mrs. Capp West, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Albers, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Hilton North, Mr. and Mrs. Pete North, Mrs. Gertrude Perry, and Miss Mildred North.

The Seniors reported that the party was quite a success even though it was a little windy and cold.

Since February 15, 1961, requirements for the Radar Station here have been reduced by more than $20,000.00 from what they had been assumed to be over the past two and one half years, due to the close scrutiny this plan requires. These same reductions are occurring throughout the Air Force all over the world thanks to "Project Money Tree."

This reduction in authorized quantities of equipment and furniture sets off a chain reaction to save many times that $20,000.00 First of all the people in charge of buying for the Air Force, and for this site in particular can cut their buying budget by that amount. Personnel involved in ordering, procuring, receiving, and inspecting can devote more time to doing a better job as they will have fewer items on which to concentrate their efforts. Additional funds will not be required to maintain equipment which is no longer needed.

The results of these extra efforts mean more and better defense for the people of this country and the free world, with far better utilization of tax dollars. Every dollar saved is a step in the right direction. "Project Money Tree," if handled world wide as conscientiously as is being done by the personnel of Ozona A. F. S., will make enormous strides in stretching the American tax dollar for defense.

Litter tossed on Texas highways and roadsides has to be hand-picked. No machine can do this chore. Last year the clean-up and mowing bill for 57,500 maintained miles of Texas highways totaled more than $7,000,000.

OH, FOR AN EDIBLE BEER CAN —

Texas Highway Department Estimates Cost Of Picking Up Beer Cans Half Cent Each; Clean-Up Bill On Texas Highways 7 Millions Last Year

Austin, Texas — The Texas Highway Department today launched a new slogan in its anti-litter campaign: "Be a neatnik, not a litterbug."

This plea comes from Texas Highway Department maintenance crews all over the state as they haul mountains of cans, bottles, paper, decaying food, and other litter from Texas highway right of way.

"Spring houseclean our Texas highways all year long by fighting that urge to toss litter from your car," they recommend.

Throwing litter on highways and roadsides is prohibited by law. Last year 281 cases against litter-throwing were completed in Texas courts. Of this number, 269 were found guilty and were fined or punished by other means.

Highway maintenance men point out that litter is local for the main part, coming from resident litterbugs and not from out-of-staters or from phantom travelers from "up the road." Surveys reveal that the litterbug is a local person, possibly a civic-minded citizen in all other phases of his life, but he fails to see the multiplication factor when he tosses out an empty cigarette package, wad of paper, or soft-drink bottle. He would not toss these objects down in his own yard, or in a friend's; but he will thoughtlessly take over the highway as his own private trashbasket.

Other evidence of the "resident litterbug" is sometime a can-and-bottle trail. Maintenance foremen report that the biggest dead-soldier tossouts are about a drink away (by car) from the nearest local emporium. Cost of removal has been estimated at one-half cent per can. Maintenance crews join poet Richard Armour in his hurry-up order to science for an edible beer can.

Maintenance men point out: No machine can pick up litter. It has to be hand-picked. That makes it an expensive operation. Last year the clean-up and moving bill for 57,500 maintained miles of Texas highways totaled more than $7,000,000. This included picking up, hauling, and unloading rubbish. Another chore for maintenance men is removal of dead animals, removal of rocks and rock piles. Wrecked cars must be hauled off.

Advertising signs in the right of way must be taken down. Maintenance crews are also responsible for mowing the grass, removing brush, and keeping vegetation from the highway markers and guard posts.

Notes From The County Agent's Office

By Pete W. Jacoby

Wood rots occur in all areas of Texas and attack most shade trees according to Harlan E. Smith Extension Plant Pathologist. "Toad-stool" or mushroom type growths on the trunk or limbs of a tree are a reminder that the disease is present. These growths form microscopic fungus seed or spores which can be carried to other trees by wind or insects. The spores germinate and enter the tree through unprotected wounds.

The great damage caused by wood rot fungi often occurs over a long period. When the tell-tale mushrooms appear, the rot may be quite extensive inside the tree. The fungus weakens and makes the infected tree more susceptible to termite and wind damage.

Oaks, hackberry, ash, elm and other shade trees may be damaged by different kinds of wood-rotting fungi. Hollow trees are partly caused by the diseases.

Prompt treatment of hail, ice, or wind damage, insect injury or any mechanical damage will help prevent wood rot infection. The application of a combination zineb and captan spray immediately after a damaging hail storm is suggested.

Badly bruised, cut or splintered wood should be given prompt surgical treatment. Edges of wounds should be smoothed with a sharp knife to promote healing. Injuries should be treated as needed with a disinfectant tree paint.

Where extensive wood rot has already occurred, the rotted wood should be completely removed; the cavity filled with a special filling and the work done by an expert.

During 1960, U. S. livestock and meat imports were equal to 6.5 percent of the total domestic production compared with 8.6 percent for both 1958 and 1959, reports Lloyd Bergsma, extension livestock marketing specialist. Beef and veal imports declined 23 percent during 1960. Imports of live animals during 1960 declined five percent to a total of 664 thousand head.

Due to lower cattle prices, the reduction in import value was considerably greater than the reduction in imports numbers. The value of cattle imported during 1960 was 50 percent below the peak year of 1958, says Bergsma.

The value of meat and other livestock products imported during 1960 totaled $464 million, which was a decline of 16 percent from the 1959 total. During 1960, however, meat and other livestock products accounted for 87 percent of all livestock and livestock product imports.

Mexico, Canada, New Zealand and Australia were the major exporters of cattle and meat to the United States during the 1959-60 fiscal year. These four countries accounted for 62 percent of the total value of livestock and livestock products imported during the year ending December 31, 1960, the value of the total cattle and meat imports.

For the six-month period ending December 31, 1960, the value of livestock and livestock products exported from the United States exceeded the value of imports of these products by two million dollars.
