Home Accident Proves Fatal For 5-Year Old

Rosita Silguera, age five, died approximately 15 minutes after reaching Lubbock Methodist Hospital Sunday night where she was taken by Singleton Ambulance following an accident at her home earlier. She was apparently playing in the back of a pickup at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Silguera at 1913 West Birch, when she fell out of the vehicle on her head. She was taken first to West Plains Memorial Hospital for emergency treatment before being transferred to Lubbock, where she died shortly after arrival in the emergency room of the hospital.

Rosita Silguera was born July 31, 1964 in Muleshoe. Survivors other than her parents include grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Spriano Silguera and Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Garza, all of San Marcos, two sisters, Margie and Elizabeth of the home; and four brothers, George, Mike, Jessie and Paul, all of the home. Her body was taken to San Marcos for burial with local arrangements under the direction of Singleton Funeral Home.

THE OLD... THE NEW... THE TRADITIONAL--Encompassed in one picture are representatives of several aspects of the upcoming July 4th Celebration. To begin the day will be a ride-in, fly-in breakfast. This is depicted by Jeff Smith on Bill Jim St. Clair's Senor Glow and Morgan Locker of the Muleshoe Flying Service; Mrs. J.W. Coppedge depicts the Kwahadi Indian Dancers who will march in the parade and provide evening entertainment. Smith is also parade marshal for the celebration and all-day entertainment will be provided at the airport including model airplane shows, spot landing contests and parachutists. This blending of the old, the new and the traditional is expected to provide entertainment for everyone during the day and evening.

Mule Shoe Pitching Unique In Sports

On July 4, Ed Neutzler will be in Muleshoe to defend his title as world champion 'mule shoe' pitcher. He successfully won the title in competition in Muleshoe in 1969.

It is believed that the contest is unique in that there are varied differences from horse shoe pitching, and no other competition in this particular sport is known to exist anywhere.

For both individual and double competition in mule shoe pitching, 21 points constitute a game, while in horse shoe pitching, 21 points constitute a game in doubles and 50 points for single or individual competition.

Allowed are three points for a ringer, two points for a leaner and one point for closest shoe to stake within the box; however, the opponents' shoe can cancel out another. For example, a ringer on one team would cancel out a leaner on the other team.

Eleven ounce shoes are used in mule shoe pitching which is considerably lighter than the two and one half pound horse shoes used in horse shoe pitching. A mule shoe is five and one half inches high and a horse shoe is seven and five eights inches high. Mule shoes are three and one half inches in diameter at the widest point while a horse shoe is seven inches in diameter at the widest point.

The stakes are two inches lower at 12 inches in muleshoe pitching than the fourteen inch stakes used in horse shoe pitching. Stakes are 28 feet apart for men and 30 feet apart for women in horse shoe pitching.

The best two out of three games determine the winners. For the individual competition, each mule shoe pitcher has two mule shoes and it takes two pitches per game. The first pitcher pitches the first shoe, followed by his opponent; then the first player pitches the second mule shoe, followed by his opponent. For the next

Muleshoe will take on a gay and festive air this weekend when an enterprising young man from Tulia, Don Crocker, begins decorating the town for the upcoming July 4th Celebration.

Young Crocker, who is a native of Tulia, is a junior student at Texas Tech University, Lubbock, and decorates towns for their annual celebrations as his summer work. He uses the money received to update his evergrowing decorating equipment and to pay college expenses in the fall. He is attending Texas Tech on a four year football scholarship.

He said a need for such a decorating company was realized when Tulia had problems finding anyone to decorate the town for an annual celebration. His father is the Tulia Chamber of Commerce manager, Don said large decorating companies were reluctant to spend time in a small town and that prices of the large companies for such decorations was prohibitive for the small town merchant. Thus was the idea of a decorating company for small towns utilized until he has a small but thriving summer-time business now. He said he works at night putting up the decorations and likes to leave them for five to seven days before a celebration to create interest in an upcoming event.

On the day of the celebration, a clown furnished by the company is roaming the streets entertaining children and giving away favors. In conjunction with decoration

Booster Trips For Celebration Are Scheduled

Chairman Harvey Bass, who is coordinating booster trips for the upcoming July 4th Celebration said two trips are scheduled next week. Caravans will be leaving the Chamber of Commerce office at the City Hall around 8 a.m. on Monday and Tuesday.

Bass asked that all business firms possible have at least one representative of their firm accompany the caravan as it makes a swing around the countryside boosting the July 4th festivities that are scheduled for Muleshoe.

ing business firms, the decorator furnishes street 'welcome' flags and banners free of charge to a city or town he is decorating.

This is just one of the new innovations in the overgrowing July 4th Celebration. Several new entertainments are added for this year.

Tops on the list of new entertainments could just be the Kwahadi Indian Dancers from Amarillo. The nationally known dancers will march in the parade then entertain at the football stadium that night.

All day on the 4th, there will be spot landing contests at the airport and beginning at 8:30 a.m., and featured periodically throughout the day will be parachute jumping exhibitions by members of the Amarillo Sky-Diving Association. At 9 a.m., a model airplane show will be held.

To begin the day of festivities a ride-in, fly-in breakfast will be hosted by the Muleshoe Jaycees at the Muleshoe Airport. As last year, anyone who

Hereford Hospital Expanding Facility

"We are considering going to a hospital district," commented T.E. Sleiger, administrator of the Deaf Smith County Hospital at Hereford. This comment was made during a telephone interview with the administrator last Friday. "We feel that a hospital district may solve a few problems for us."

Sleiger was contacted to check on an extensive expansion program presently underway at the Hereford hospital. He said a $500,000 bond issue was approved by Deaf Smith county voters in October, 1969 to have an extensive remodeling program. The existing hospital has 67 beds and was built in several stages.

The hospital administrator said the new addition which is being built became necessary as available beds were becoming too crowded and they were almost unable to take care of the patient load at the present hospital, as they run 90% occupancy in the medical-surgery portion.

Under construction at the present time are two circular patient complexes, interconnecting, with nine patient rooms in each circle. He said he has been called everything from "crazy" to a "genius" since planning the addition to be of a circular design.

He added that Scott-White at Temple and Mayo Brothers

Clinic in Rochester, Minn. both have the circular hospital complexes. There are nine patient rooms in each circle and a nurses station will be at one end with an exit at the other end of the circle, directly across from the nurse station. The nurse will be able to look into each of seven rooms without moving from her station. Only the two rooms directly connected to the nurse station will be obscured from immediate supervision.

In the center of both complexes will be slate floor and fountain in the steel, brick and concrete structure. Also added is a large classroom which will possibly be converted at a later date to a nursery. This will be done when plans are implemented to make one of the circular complexes into an obstetrical unit. The other complex will be utilized partially for an intensive care unit with at least two rooms equipped with closed circuit television for intensive care. Two rooms in the present facility are equipped for cardiac care and closed circuit television.

Original plans were to complete one of the complexes for an obstetrical ward, but the original bids as received were over their budgeted amount. At this time, present construction at the hospital is $90,000 - $100,000 less than the amount authorized in the bond issue, but the hospital administrator said the funds not used in the present construction will be used to repay the bond amount used or deposited and let the interest pay the interest on the bond funds used until it is needed for further expansion. The first portion of Deaf Smith County Hospital was constructed in 1925, with further additions being made to the hospital in 1927; 1957; 1962 and 1964.

Sleiger said that in the newest portion of the hospital, deluxe rooms with television, telephone and electric beds are $33 daily. He said this compares with $45 rooms in an Amarillo Hospital. The older rooms in the hospital are proportionately lower in cost.

Reid-Strickland Construction Company of Amarillo, with Jerry Munson as superintendent, began the construction on February 27 and the first phase of construction is expected to be completed late in August or the first of September. Also included in this first phase of construction are a new entrance; addition to the laboratory; new central supply and enlarge the pharmacy room; new administrator's office and remodeling and enlarging the kitchen facilities.

Guest speakers will be Elder O.B. Cummings and Elder Marvin Smith both of Oklahoma City. Services are scheduled for 8 p.m. on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and at 11 a.m. on Sunday.

Bass said everyone is welcome to attend any or all of the services and hear the special speakers.

DAD'S CAMPING TRAILER WINNER--Don Williams, Lazbuddie, is pictured with Little Miss Muleshoe, Mitzi Altman, after she drew his name as the winner of Dad's Camping Trailer which was presented last Saturday. He won on the second draw after the person whose name was first drawn was not present at the drawing.

CIRCULAR HOSPITAL COMPLEX--Under construction at the Deaf Smith County Hospital in Hereford are two circular complexes which will include both intensive care units and obstetrical units. These are just two of the several remodeling and enlarged projects now being constructed at the hospital Deaf Smith County voters authorized the new construction in October, 1969, when they passed a $500,000 bond issue.

ONE VEHICLE TURNOVER INJURES TWO--Two persons were taken to West Plains Memorial Hospital for treatment Saturday afternoon after this pickup turned over one time approximately five miles southeast of Muleshoe on Highway 84. Two of the seven persons in the pickup at the time of the accident received injuries. Lying in front of the overturned vehicle is the twisted remains of the windshield which popped out when the pickup turned over.

Wreck Sends Injured To Hospital

After veering wildly out of control for more than 400 feet, a pickup overturned approximately five miles east of Muleshoe on Highway 84 last Saturday afternoon stranding seven people over the median in the highway.

A Singleton ambulance summoned to the wreck rushed Irma Murillo, 23, of Sudan to West Plains Memorial Hospital where she is receiving treatment for back injuries. Driver of the pickup, Iniz Gonzales of Sudan was treated for a broken left arm then booked at the Bailey County Law Enforcement Center, charged with driving while intoxicated.

The accident, which occurred around 3:20 p.m. Saturday demolished a 1956 Ford pickup. Investigating officer Texas Highway Patrolman Joe Young said the pickup traveled 210 feet with the left wheels of the vehicle in the sandy median then cut sharply back across the center stripe of the four lane highway into the right lane, then slid sideways 231 feet into the median where it rolled one time.

A passenger from the pickup was also charged with being drunk and jailed at the Bailey County Law Enforcement Center.

Other passengers in the pickup were Genovio Gonzales, Jose Antonio Diaz, Leonard Gonzales and Tarnish Gonzales, all of Hereford and Joe Murillo, Sudan.

Commodity...

by the Public Welfare office in Austin.

All other persons wishing to apply for commodity food are asked to contact Mrs. Morgan at the local Commodity Distribution Center which is in the former Leal Restaurant and Tortilla Factory location.

The implementation of the Commodity Food Program in Bailey County culminates several months of negotiations between officials of the Texas Department of Welfare and County officials of this county. The Bailey County Commissioners Court declined to accept the responsibility of the program and cited the prohibitive cost involved. Because of a federal court ruling last December, the state was ordered to institute and operate the program in counties where county officials declined to bring in such a program.

The program in Bailey County will be operated in its entirety by the Texas Welfare Department and all operational funds will come from state funds.

S.W. Johnson, Austin, who is a representative of the State Department of Public Welfare has been in Muleshoe working with Mrs. Morgan and the warehouse workers.

He said he estimates that some 500 persons who have a low income or are from low income families will be using the commodity food. He added that each person who is qualified for the program will receive from 35-40 pounds of food per month. According to Johnson, this will provide them at least a minimum balanced diet and will supplement food purchased by the family.

A truck load of commodity food was unloaded at the facility last Saturday and nineteen items of food were in the first shipment. Included are beans, corn meal, flour, shortening, canned pork, dry milk, rolled wheat, instant potatoes, raisins, rice, boned turkey, canned beans, peanut butter, evaporated milk, grits, split peas, macaroni and prunes.

According to the Austin welfare worker, cold storage units and refrigeration units will be installed in the food warehouse within a short time and other items of food will become available.

What's right about America?

Today, the surest means of a book becoming a best seller is for the author to highlight and denounce bitterly the faults of this country. The same can be said of television and the movies, which prefer in these modern days to depict the seamy side of life in America.

But there's hope. As I have moved across this state, I have sensed that our people are growing weary of gloom. It's becoming easier to strike up a conversation on what's right about America.

I always suggest that there are a lot more level heads in this country than we are sometimes led to believe. There are a lot more decent, law-abiding citizens than there are criminals and cheats and sharks. There are a lot more young people in the "now" generation who want to improve America than the handful of radicals who want to burn it to ashes and start all over.

I can understand why the "majority" has broken its "silence." There's a growing impatience with agitation and controversy. But I feel we should continue to approach our nation's problems with a cool head and an open mind. I've listened to the voices of dissent. I think I know what they're a-king of their government.

One thing they want is confidence. They want the assurance that their public officials have the courage to meet the issues of the 1970s with imagination and integrity, and not with some form of "old politics" that thrashes around with problems but never quite locates the workable solutions. It was my desire to answer this urgent need that prompted me in January to seek the office of United States Senator.

KWAHADI INDIAN DANCERS

Kwahadi Dancers Spotlited

The Kwahadi Indian Dancers, Explorer Post 80 of Amarillo, Texas, began a program for older boys twenty-five years ago. From a simple beginning, it has grown into an extensive project for almost a hundred boys and leaders. Intensive research has been made into the folklore of the American Indian through visiting contemporary Indian ceremonies and reading about those of the past. Elaborate dances and staging equipment have been developed. While no boy or leader receives any pay, Kwahadi performances are of professional quality; reproducing the folk art of the Indian in all of its excitement and color as well as its romantic and sometimes tragic legendary history.

The Kwahadis have sought to do more than simply reproduce the ancient dances of the Indian as he did them. They have endeavored to capture the tradition and meaning of the dance and adapt it to modern audiences. Following the example of such professional groups as the Ballet de Folklorico of Mexico City, the Kwahadi performance recreates the pagentry of the past with precision dancing. Dances from tribal groups all over

North and Central America are portrayed, from the inspiring Flag Dance of the Plains to the ancient and unique Aztec Dance of the Sun from southern Mexico.

Those who have seen a Kwahadi performance remember the beautiful costumes. A dancer spends many hours tying feathers and beading under careful supervision, usually requiring a year or more to produce his own costume and become a proficient dancer. As most dances require additional or completely different costumes, the Kwahadis have assembled a large club wardrobe valued at over $10,000. Genuine Indian articles have been acquired where possible to add to the enjoyment of the performance. In other cases, needed costumes have been carefully reproduced from authentic originals. Various tribal dances and costumes make the Kwahadi performance entertaining and educational.

City Council Hears Report On 1969 Audit

"I have audited one of Muleshoe's busiest years, especially as to the volume of money received and spent," said Creston Faver. He was speaking to members of the Muleshoe City Council during their regular meeting Tuesday when he gave the 1969 audit report.

More than $444,000 was spent on improvements to the city, according to the audit report, including the new city hall, new water facilities, new water and sewer lines and paving. The funds were authorized in a bond issue in 1968.

Three Jaycees, Charles King, Bob Stovall and Jerry Hutton, met with the council and spoke of a parking plan the Jaycees are presently attempting to coordinate. They were assured of the city's assistance in working out the parking.

Other items discussed during the two hour meeting included the library; airport; some private property; weed elimination; mosquito spraying; paving downtown alleys; planning commission; the police department and uncollectible accounts.

Attending the meeting in the council room of the city hall were Mayor Irvin St. Clair; Councilmen Kenny Heathington, Lindal Murray, Alex Williams and Frank Ellis; City Manager Albert Field; City Secretary June Smallwood; Betty Martin, Creston Faver, Bob Stovall, Charles King, Jerry Hutton and Cieta Williams.

Teacher Raises Among Changes

AUSTIN -- Texas public school teachers--those on the state minimum salary schedule--will receive pay raises averaging about $1,050 per year in 1970-71.

Students will go to school--and teachers will teach--an extra five days (180 days instead of 175). In addition, teachers will be on duty for 10 more days of non-teaching work during the year, and will be paid on a 10-months basis, instead of nine.

These changes in the school year and the basis for figuring teacher pay result from amendments to the minimum foundation program law passed in

South Plains Fair Plans Underway

LUBBOCK -- Premiums totaling a record $38,892.50 are being offered to exhibitors during the 53rd annual Panhandle South Plains Fair here Sept. 28-Oct. 3, officials announced today.

The announcement coincided with the start of distribution of the 1970 fair catalog, which has been placed in the mail to potential exhibitors, show superintendents and officials.

Sporting a color shot of a typical Lubbock fair scene on the front cover and a center-fold layout on an all-star variety show, the catalog lists the following offered premiums:

- $1,668.50 for the Agriculture Department, junior and individual exhibits, educational exhibits and agricultural mechanics.
- $10,376 for the open dairy cattle show.
- $4,392 for the open swine show.
- $3,375 for the junior livestock show.
- $3,240 for the Appaloosa and Quarter Horse shows.
- $2,000 for the state's largest one-day rabbit show.
- $3,996 for the Women's Department.

In addition, $1,000 in cash awards is offered to units participating in the annual Parade of Bands, $400 for the Fiddlers Contest plus another $500 for miscellaneous awards.

Along with a number of special features and new attractions, fair officials have arranged an all-star variety show to headline the Fair Park Coliseum card.

On Sept. 28-29, The Ray Stevens Show, singer Gloria Loring plus Jack Blanchard and Misty Morgan will share the spotlight. The Charley Pride Show, with country singer Johnny Duncan and ventriloquist Alex Houston and Elmer, will take over Sept. 30-Oct. 1, and rounding out the weeklong run will be the Porter Wagoner show, with Dolly Parton, Speck Rhodes and the Wagonmasters, plus JoAnn Castle, who starred on the Lawrence Welk television show for more than a decade. They'll be on stage Oct. 2-3.

Ticket prices remained unchanged at $2, $3 and $4, but show times have been changed to 5:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. daily throughout the weeklong engagement. All seats are reserved.

Advance orders will be accepted by the fair association. Mail order requests should be addressed to the fair at P. O. Box 208, Lubbock.

Other special features are being arranged for the 1970 exposition, expected to draw nearly 300,000 persons in the six-day run.

Under the minimum program, a beginning bachelor's degree teacher in 1969-70 was paid $593 per month for nine months, or $5,337 for the year.

In 1970-71, a beginning bachelor's degree teacher will receive $600 per month for 10 months, or $6,000 for the year.

Many Texas school systems pay their teachers more than the state-required minimum salaries.

Texas was ranked 38th among states in average teacher pay in 1969-70. The 1970 raises and a long-range improvement plan are expected to move Texas up to a more favorable position among states in the years ahead.

The new law puts into effect in 1971-72 a continuing compensation plan which will give Texas teachers an additional five percent raise each year and cost-of-living raises in 1974 and 1978. It will allow all Texas teachers to reach the top of the pay schedule--$11,040 for bachelor's degree, and $12,040 for master's degree teachers--within 10 years of service.

The new law has left many people--teachers as well as school patrons--with questions about its work and pay aspects. The State Board of Education has attempted to answer such questions by drafting an official definition of the 180-day school term and service requirements for teachers in 1970-71 and future years.

Basically, the state board says that beginning on September 1, 1970:

--Texas public schools will have 180 days of actual classroom instruction, (where teachers and students are together in learning situations) instead of the 175 days previously required under foundation program law. (Some schools had already been operating programs longer than the minimum.)

--Most Texas teachers will be paid on a 10-month basis. (Vocational and special education teachers may be paid for 10, 11, or 12 months.)

--In addition to the 180 days of classroom instruction, teachers and other personnel previously authorized for less than 10 months under the foundation program shall be required to be on duty for an additional 10 days, making a total of 190 days, exclusive of holidays approved by the local board of trustees.

--School districts may employ teachers for more than the specified 190 days, but if they do their salaries for work beyond the 190 days must be paid wholly from local funds rather than foundation program funds.

WAR COST FOR 1971
Charles L. Schultze, a former Director of the Bureau of the Budget, has estimated that the war in Vietnam would cost the United States $12-billion to $13-billion in the 1971 fiscal year beginning July 1.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. -- A massive emigration from the state capitol, followed by a major overhaul and interior remodeling of the historic building, is about to get under way.

Unfortunately, the big reshuffle will take place at the peak of the tourist season, so visitors may be dodging carpenters, painters and movers for awhile. Soon after July 1, the new $6.6 million State Finance Building will be ready for occupancy. Employees of the State Treasurer and Comptroller will move immediately from their capitol quarters into the state's largest office facility.

As the finance departments vacate their space in the capitol, remodeling contractors will move in to re-do their quarters.

Between late July and next January when the Legislature convenes, office space for all 150 state representatives, enlarged quarters for many state senators and new committee rooms hopefully will have been built into the vacated space.

A $1.5 million appropriation was set aside by the Legislature last year for the renovation and a new elevator already is being drilled through the northern end of the capitol.

A painting contractor also is at work on the Senate chamber (a $32,850 face-lifting job), and approximately $40,000 more will be spent on 1,200 yards of new green carpet for the senators' floor.

A model committee room is among the Senate's plans. It will include a raised dais for members, individual microphones and theater seating. Senators expect to gain two or three other committee rooms.

Those who will stay in the capitol aren't too happy about the branch postoffice moving to the new finance building, but they are assured removal of a lot of temporary, makeshift structures in hallways will restore much of the old building's original basic architecture and dignity.

PENAL LAWS BEING REVISED
Texas' 1856 "frontier" penal code is being rewritten by a State Bar Committee for submission to the Legislature.

Major overhaul would eliminate duplicate articles covering the same crime and overlaps.

Proposals further seek to weed out so-called "unenforceable" laws including those against sexual acts between consenting adults. A strong new paternity law is recommended to identify fathers of illegitimate children and make them responsible for financial support.

Bar's draft would leave sentencing of convicted persons to judges instead of juries except in cases where the death penalty is involved. But it would permit judges to refuse to impose the death penalty through assessed by jurors.

Instead of general sentences for crimes, the revision would substitute four degrees of felony and three of misdemeanors, leaving prison terms to be fixed according to the specific nature of the offense and circumstances.

Code redraft also would make corporations criminally liable (as in pollution cases), establish a general trespass article (covering such offenses as college disruption) and define prohibited conduct short of completed crime.

University of Texas Law School Dean Page Keeton said the code, if adopted, would be the "best in the nation."

GALVESTON ISLAND PARK BOUGHT

State closed its deal to buy the 1,781-acre Maco Stewart Ranch on Galveston Island for a seashore park, paying $890,875 (half to be reimbursed by the federal government).

Actually, Maco Stewart Jr. willed the land to the state in 1950 pending continued use by his heirs for their lifetimes. Parks and Wildlife Commission agreed to pay three heirs $500 an acre so full title could be obtained immediately.

First development will be on the Gulf beach side, although no date has been set for opening. Galveston County clerk's office will conduct purchasing details.

COURTS SPEAK
U.S. Supreme Court has held in a Maryland case that voting in state and local elections cannot be denied persons living on federal installations, Secretary of State Martin Dies Jr.'s office says the ruling will effect some areas of Texas.

Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin plans to appeal the decision of U.S. District Judge Rey-naldo Garza in Brownsville, taking jurisdiction of Platoro Ltd.'s case demanding the state return the treasure it recovered from an ancient Padre Island shipwreck. Garza accepted the suit as a salvage case.

Federal jury in Abilene found that the Abilene School Board did not act arbitrarily in giving unexcused absences to 300 Mexican-American pupils who boycotted classes for 10 days last fall.

APPOINTMENTS
Charles H. Locklin Jr. and William G. Gibbs have been named assistant welfare commissioners for planning and coordination and personnel and training, respectively. Governor Preston Smith appointed John C. Taylor of Seguin and Joseph Patrick Kelly of Victoria to board of directors of the Guadalupe-Blanco River Authority. They succeed the late Edgar F. Engelke of Seguin and Reagan B. Cates of Victoria.

James A. Wilson of Austin is the new executive director of Texas Mass Transportation Commission.

Robert S. Weddle, former Menard News publisher, was named by the Governor as public information officer of the Texas Criminal Justice Council. Major General John White (retired) of Uvalde is the first fulltime executive director of the Nueces River Conservation and Reclamation District.

LEASE SALE SET

Second oil and gas and sulphur lease sale of 1970 will be held here at 10 a.m. August 4, Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler announced.

Two hundred and four tracts will be offered in the Gulf of Mexico, sixty-four in uplands and riverbeds.

Twelve sulphur tracts are located in far West Texas. Minimum bonus is $25 an acre ($20 for uplands and riverbeds), delay rental $4 a year, royalty of one-sixth and primary term of five years.

NURSING HOME RULES TOLD
Public Welfare Department sent 800 to 900 nursing homes regulations implementing new rates they can collect from the state and federal government and supplements collectible from patient's families.

"Skilled" care homes will get a raise from $360 to $381 a month, with no supplement. Intermediate Care III facilities will be cut from $300 to $294 and ICF II homes from $210 to $198, but the latter two groups can collect family supplements of $25 a patient.

Welfare Department served notice, however, that it will not serve as a collection agency, and homes cannot deny care to any patient for lack of a supplement. Supplementation cannot be collected from patient's assistance checks.

SAFETY DEVICE REQUIRED
Railroad Commission ordered all flowing wells in bays, estuaries, lakes, rivers or streams to be equipped with "storm chokes" or similar equipment to prevent pollution spills.

Rule goes into effect October 1 and is aimed at preventing disasters like the Chevron well spill off Louisiana. Commission also adopted a form to be used by oil companies in reporting immediately (by telephone or telegram) all spills of as much as five barrels.

SHORT SNORTS
State Health Department will operate two mobile dentist's offices for poor.

Attorney General Martin has held that school districts must pay tuition fees for pupils sent to another district for training in a 12-grade school system where higher-grade training is not available in the home district.

Alamo State Bank of Pasadena application has been filed with Department of Banking. Gordon H. Lloyd will retire June 30 after 47 years' service to the state with the Highway Department and as executive secretary of the State Employee Retirement System.
