A Creek In My Back

As it will appear in the Roanoke Times and the Norfolk (Va.) Virginian-Pilot

By Allan R. Bosworth

If you haven't already heard about it, I am sorry to be the first to tell you that Billie Sol Estes has made the juke boxes of this fair land. There are now two ballads out, extolling the fame (or the notoriety of the poor farm boy who became the Robin Hood of the anonymous anhydrous ammonia tanks down around Pecos, Texas, and rode tall in the saddle until he blew in a stirrup.

Billie Sol was born a poor boy, Just a farm boy with treasures few,

But he vowed that he'd have riches,

And he swore he'd make it true.

One begins like that, which is warning enough. The other says something like:

Out in West Texas a yarn is spun All about John's tradin' son;

He never grew to be too tall, The little boy's name was Billie Sol.

Well . . . it was bound to happen as a part of our Anglo-Saxon heritage and even as a part of our own American folklore. In Chaucer's day the wandering minstrels sang about characters as shady as they were bold; in the 16th century, broadsides and ballads dealing with the exploits of pirates and highwaymen were hawked in the London streets. The custom came over in the Mayflower. Job printers who knew Ben Franklin had a field day with the exploits of Captain Kidd and other public enemies, and people alive now remember chanting:

Lizzie Borden took an axe And gave her mother forty whacks. . .

. . . and the same long memory would include:

The dirty little coward Who shot Mister Howard, And laid poor Jesse in his grave.

As a people, we have a deplorable tendency to glorify the criminal or grotesque, to perpetuate tragedy and disaster by setting them to deplorable words and music. William Bonney, of that same Pecos valley (better known as Billy the Kid) — a coldeyed, buck-toothed juvenile delinquent turned murderer — has become something of a Robin Hood to Americans, when he richly deserved execution a long time before Pat Garrett cut him down. Thousands can still sing about the wreck of Old Ninety-Seven, without being able to tell you a single fact concerning the tragedy, except the distance from Lynchburg to Danville. And before the body of Floyd Collins was cold in the Kentucky cave where he had been caught in the rocks, brother mountaineers were selling their ballad about him.

As a boy in Texas, I was raised on Sam Bass, one of the more gentlemanly outlaws, who specialized in train robbery. His song had a very haunting appeal, and only two things kept me from trying to emulate him. One was that my Daisy air rifle had a habit of hanging fire; the other was that there wasn't a railroad within ninety miles . . .

California, in the gold days, had a highwayman who anticipated the needs of the public by writing his own ballads. This was Black Bart, who called himself the "PO-8" — or poet — and left holographic treasures such as this at the scenes of his crimes:

I've labored long and hard for bread, For honor and for riches;

But on my corns too long you've tread, You fine-haired — — —

One hates to see the folklore and folk songs of the country run downhill, doesn't one? The guitar-strumming troubadours of Billie Sol Estes have fallen far short of the mark. I find their lyrics in execrable taste. If they had asked my help, I would have been glad to come up with something on a Dixie beat, like:

There's a smell of something rotten

In the fields of Texas cotton, Where the slow and salty Pecos

Man Who Stole Auto Here Nabbed After Chase By Officers

R. J. Lewis, 21, of Simpler, Miss., was in Crockett county jail yesterday in lieu of $1500 bond set by Peace Justice A. O. Fields on a charge of auto theft.

Lewis was arrested in a Sonora cafe about 3 a. m. Monday after a chase early in the night in which Crockett County Sheriff Billy Mills and Deputy Rex Fenton, Sheriff Herman Moore of Sonora, Highway Patrolmen Jim Harvey of Ozona and Patrolman Les Strawn and his partner of the Sonora unit, Game Warden David Allen of Ozona, border patrolmen Texas Rangers, the Schleicher county sheriff's department, and bloodhounds owned by Peace Justice Alfred Cooper of Sonora all participated.

Lewis stole a car belonging to Ira Pleasant in Ozona and drove to near Sonora where he was stopped by Sonora officers. He abandoned the car and took to his heels. The bloodhounds tracked him to near the race track at the edge of Sonora and there lost their quarry. Sonora officers reported three cars were stolen later in Sonora, all abandoned when they stopped running for various reasons. The search continued, with the host of officers taking part, until the wanted man was arrested in the cafe.

Lewis, who had been working out of Ozona on a seismograph crew, was also charged with car theft in Upton County where a grand jury was reported considering such a charge early this week.

Crockett Sheep Producers Favor Promotion Fund

Only Half Vote But 6 To 1 Favor Self-Help Advertising Plan

Crockett County sheepmen, by a six to one margin, favored the deduction of 1 cent per pound from incentive payments for wool to be used for wool and lamb promotion in the recent referendum conducted by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Claude Russell, Crockett county ASC office manager said yesterday.

Voting "yes" to the proposal were 74 sheepmen while 13 opposed the plan. The 74 producers who favored the selfhelp promotion plan represented 194,742 head of sheep. The 13 voting no owned 19,249 sheep.

First Fall Rains Spotty In Area; Drop Temperatures Sharply

One of the hottest, driest summers in West Texas history, or in Crockett county history at any rate, came to its end with the first day of fall Sunday and a cold front Wednesday which triggered widespread moisture in the area and dropped temperatures into the sixties.

Some moisture covered most of West Texas in the wake of the advancing weather front, but amounts varied from a light sprinkle to more than two inches.

Reports of rainfall in outlying areas of Crockett county were spotty yesterday but there were reports of falls of an inch and more northeast of the city and in far west Crockett reports of falls up to two inches were received.

Light rain began falling in Ozona about 7 p. m. Tuesday and fell intermittently for several hours, but only a total of .28 of an inch was registered through the night. An additional .03 in light drizzles during the day pushed the total to .31 of an inch.

Lions Underdogs Againt Powerful Rocksprings Goats

Angoras Sport Record Of Strength In Area Combat

By Ernie Boyd

The Ozona Lions will take on the big and rugged Rocksprings Angoras at Lions Stadium Friday night with the kickoff slated for 8 p. m.

Coach Fred Hickman's Ozona Lions, with a record of one win and one tie, will be decided underdogs this week as they face a Rocksprings team with some speed and depth and a record of two wins and only a narrow 15 to 14 loss to powerful Eldorado, who punished Sonora week before last with ease.

Scouting reports on Rocksprings reveal that the Angora Club has good average speed with several able backs and better than average size.

Reports also state that the Rocksprings club runs a single wing, using a sort of slot back formation and that the club has good power outside as well as an able passing attack, none of which is good news to Coach Hickman.

The Lions have faced a few single wing teams in the past several years but since Sonora left the league have not been too concerned with the formation.

Bronte has been a single wing team until this year and used a little of the single wing week before last, the most disturbing thing being that for the most part these were the only plays that did much damage to the Lions.

About the only encouraging news from the reports was that the Angora defense was not nearly

ANY ORDERS, CHIEF?

Following the press conference in which President Kennedy declared his awareness of the Monroe Doctrine and support of it, and that "that is why we oppose what is happening in Cuba today" — even though he did not know what that might be — he is reported to have called in Congressional leaders and asked advice.

According to Ralph de Toledano, writing in National Review, the President told the group that 61 ships had carried Red troops and arms to Cuba, that 59 MIG-17s — which may be armed with tactical nuclear weapons — had been added to Fidel's air force. Nine launching pads for 1,700 mile Intermediate Range Ballistic Missiles (not 25-mile rockets) are now operational, with 15 more under construction. Mr. Kennedy did not know whether the missiles were yet in Cuba, but admitted they might be.

"He frankly asked for advice from the Congressional leaders," writes Mr. de Toledano, and demonstrated utter bewilderment.

The answer (we suppose) now comes from the unanimously-approved joint resolution of the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services Committees and the House Foreign Affairs Committee "expressing the determination of the United States with respect to the situation in Cuba."

Following a recital of "whereas" of justification covering the Monroe Doctrine, the Rio Treaty of 1947, the 1962 Declaration of the Punta del Este meeting of the Organization of American States and

"Whereas the international Communist movement has increasingly extended into Cuba its political economic and military sphere of influence," the committee sponsors pray that it be "resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in Congress assembled, that the United States is determined—

"(A) To prevent by whatever means may be necessary, including the use of arms, the Marxist-Leninist regime in Cuba from extending by force or threat of force its aggressive or subversive activities to any part of this hemisphere;

"(B) To prevent in Cuba the creation or use of an externally supported military capability endangering the security of the United States; and

"(C) To work with the Organization of American States and with freedom-loving Cubans to support the aspirations of the Cuban people for self-determination."

To all of which palaver we have just two questions:

(A) How do you "prevent" what has already happened?

(B) When, after withholding promised air cover and allowing Cuban patriots to die on the beach of the Bay of Pigs, do we start supporting the enslaved and exiled Cubans and cleaning up the minor itch that we have allowed to grow into a threat of global nuclear war?

Education Is Women's League Program Topic

The Ozona Woman's League met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. A. S. Lock, with Mrs. Billy Mills as assisting hostess.

Mrs. Joe Bean, vice president, presided at the meeting. Officers gave their reports at the first business meeting of the new club year. Mrs. Joe Couch reported plans for the bazaar which will be held November 14. Members will be required to answer roll call with a display of articles made for the bazaar at the Oct. 9 meeting.

Mrs. Hillery Phillips, Jr. was leader for the day's program on education.

Mrs. J. G. Hufstедler gave a comparison of European and American schools. Discussed was an article in U. S. News & World Report, entitled, "Are European Children Smarter Than Ours?" The writer points out that 84 percent of American primary-school children enter high school and 23 percent of the American school population goes to college. Only 5 percent of European young people go to college. In Europe, the article stated, children learn more, work harder, play less than in the U. S. — and fewer get to high school and college. Yet European parents wonder if their school system of all work and no play will make well-rounded citizens.

In the United States the goal is to educate everybody. Practically any American youngster who wants to can get a college education and usually enjoys himself in the process, the article concluded.

Members attending were Mmes. Glenn Cox, Pete North, James Chapman, Leonard Boyd, Jimmy McMullan, Joe Pierce, IV, Perry Hubbard, Joe Couch, John R. Hunicutt, Tom Ed Montgomery, Bill Carson, Bruce Mayfield, Jerry Hayes and Brooks Dozier, and Miss Jean Powers.

GARDENING NOTES —

Spring and Fall are the seasons when grass is in active growth. So this is the time to fertilize.

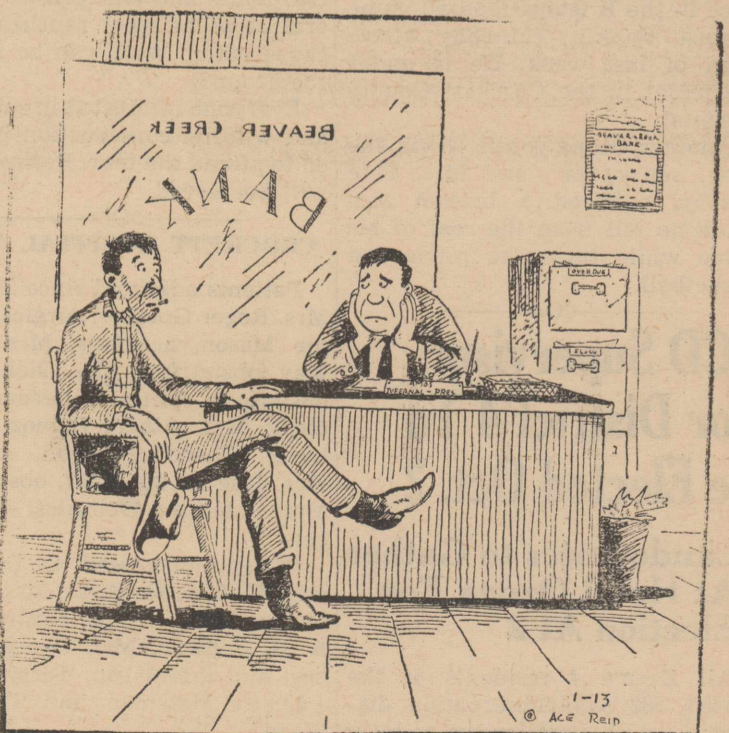

New soil should be added to lawns when they have become sunken. There is time remaining for grass to grow through a top dressing.

Now is the time to plant such seeds as larkspur, poppies, snapdragons.

Corrective pruning should be completed within the next two weeks so that new growth induced by pruning may have substance.

VOLUME I, NO. 7 SEPT. 1962

Cuba. Although I am always prepared to support the President's foreign and military policy if it serves United States' needs, I'm truly perplexed, like many Americans are, as to what that policy is. Russian tanks, rockets, military planes, and high velocity artillery have been brought into Cuba. Cuba is becoming a staging area for the infiltration, subversion, and eventual invasion of other Latin American countries. Yet, we have not invoked the Monroe Doctrine. And, apparently our Marine and Army divisions have been mislaid. Every time a crisis arises, our reserves are yanked out of their civilian lives. The last time this happened, the East Germans constructed the Berlin wall with impunity. Are we proposing now to call up other reserves, to double our fist at home, while adopting a conciliatory attitude toward the Soviets every time they foment a crisis on some cold war front? In Cuba, a free people have been put in bondage by force and without free elections. The Russians and Red Chinese are in Cuba illegally, immorally and without the slightest right to be there. Americans are perplexed about our foreign policy. U. S. unilateral nuclear disarming can be an invitation for attack upon us. Yet, while conducting nuclear disarming, we propose to call up civilians. Some Administration advisers have devised a plan to give away our Air Force, Navy, Marines, and Army to the United Nation within ten years. There are several worthwhile proposals before the Senate, which have been made by responsible Senators, both Democrat and Republican, relative to handling the Cuban problem. This is a problem of great importance. Our hemispheric security is in jeopardy, and I think the Senate should move to urgent consideration of these various proposals to deal affirmatively and firmly with Castro.

Depletion Allowance. It is particularly important to Texans that the Senate defeated an amendment to the Administration's omnibus tax bill to reduce the depletion allowance for oil and gas. This was an amendment which would have reduced the 27 1/2 percent depletion allowance, in the next year, to 25 percent. This would be followed by a reduction, in 1963, to 22 1/2 percent. In 1964, and subsequent years, the reduction would be down to 20 percent. Passage of this amendment would have a very adverse effect on the economy of our State. Regardless of whether you are in the oil business, or not, oil is vital to our State.

The oil industry, presently, is sick. The amount which can be produced has been severely curtailed because of reduced domestic consumption, and increased imports of foreign oil. Now is not the time to assault the oil industry by striking at the depletion allowance.

A Citation and 'Title' Award From Cope. Cope, the extremely liberal AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education, has "cited" me, in its current house organ as the "most right wing" member of the Senate. Cope says that based on voting records compiled by three "ultra-reactionary organizations" — Americans for Constitutional Action, Civic Affairs Associates, and Conservative Society of America — mine is the lone record rated "100 percent right" by all three. Cope's headline over the story says "Only Senator Tower 100 Percent Certified American." The judgment is Cope's, not mine, but because of the "title" and the source, you may wish to know about it.

A Program for Conservatives— An expanded version of my eight-point conservative legislative program, as introduced in the Senate during this session, is now on the newsstands, as a 60,000-word, popularly priced paperback, published as the first volume of a new Macfadden "Capitol Hill Book" series. It was officially launched at a press conference, and autograph party in Dallas on September 19, the day following the State Convention.

Joe Clayton, Jr., has returned to Dallas after spending several weeks with his family in Ozona. He is a 1962 graduate of Southern Methodist University, and will resume his studies for the second year in the SMU School of Law. He is a member of Phi Alpha Delta law fraternity, and Phi Delta Theta social fraternity.

Notes From The County Agent's Office

By Pete W. Jacoby

Cotton root rot is one of the most common plant diseases in Texas and is found generally throughout the state, says Harlan Smith, Extension Plant Specialist. It is more common in heavy alkaline soil. Root rot kills more plants in Crockett county than any other disease, in the opinion of county agent Pete Jacoby.

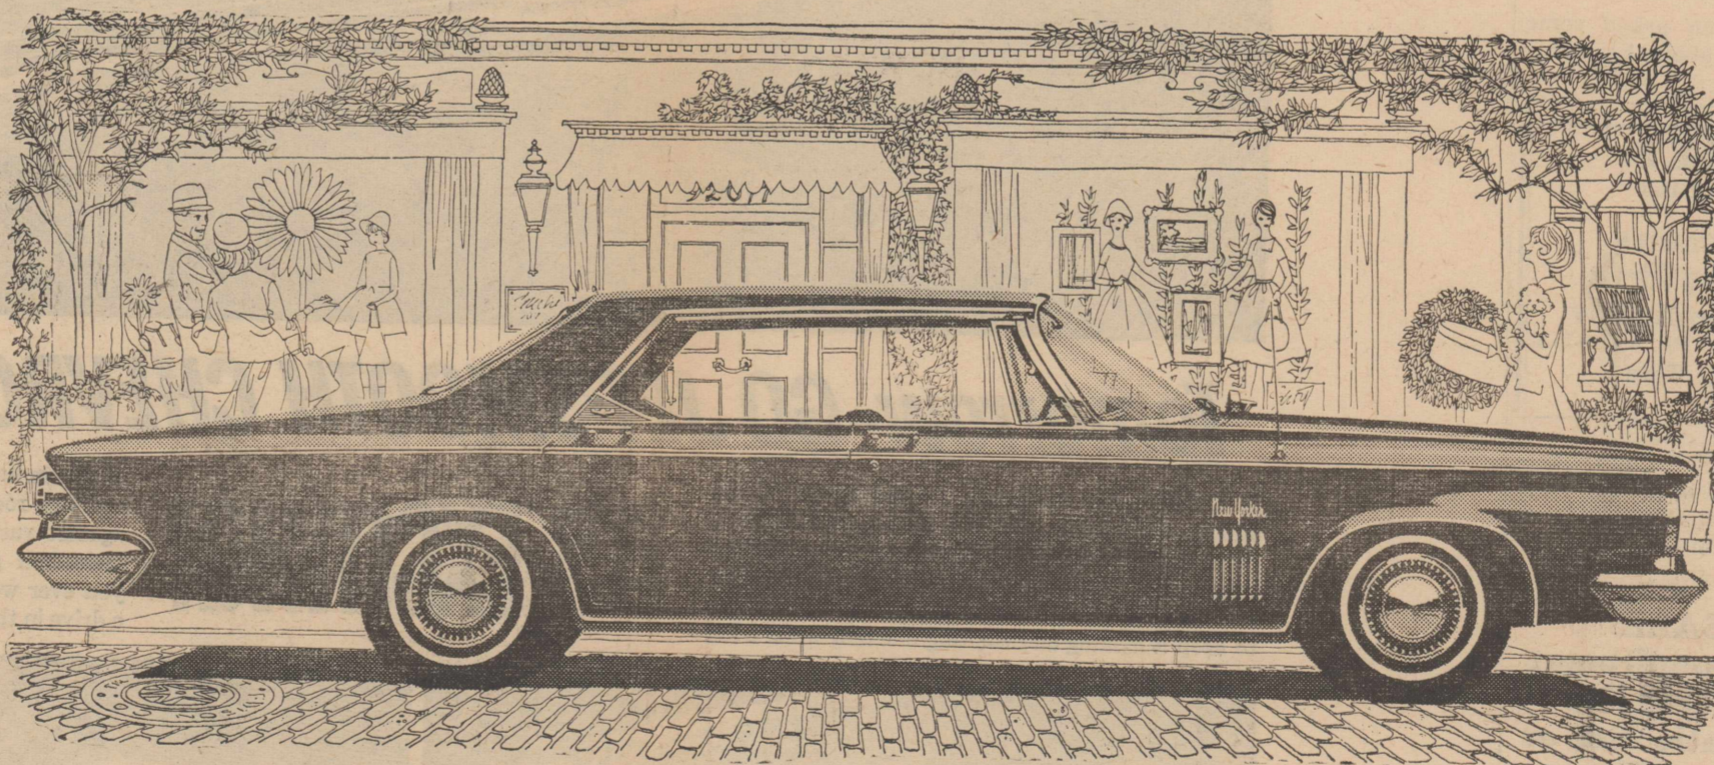

Mr. Smith points out that about 80 percent of the wild and cultivated plants are susceptible in varying degrees to the disease. The fungus may live in some native trees and shrubs without killing them, he adds.

Small flowers, shrubs and trees die suddenly after the first wilting symptoms appear. Large shrubs and trees may die more slowly. Smith says the bark of affected roots is decayed and brownish. Woolly, buff or brownish, fungal strands are present on the surface of the damaged roots.

The whole root system decays, he adds. Bark is rotted off the harder wood of the roots, and roots slip out of the soil with comparatively little pulling effort. Under moist conditions, with or without affected plants, spore mats sometimes appear on the soil surface. These mats are 2 to 12 inches in diameter, at first snow-white and cottony; later they appear tan and powdery.

Cotton root rot fungus generally invades new areas by continued slow growth through the soil from plant to plant. It may live in the soil for many years. The disease is often found as deep in the soil as roots penetrate, says Smith.

There is no cure for the disease and can be controlled only by growing resistant or immune trees and shrubs.

FRIENDSHIP

By Cheryl Clayton

To have a happy and successful life on this earth, everyone needs friends.

Learning to know the true value of friendship requires that we consider what it really means to be a friend. Emerson realized this when he said "The only way to have a friend is to be one."

We expect much understanding, trust and companionship. Do we give this in return? Our friends are usually anxious for our approval and trust as we are for theirs.

Elbert Hubbard once remarked, "Who is my friend? The man who tells me the unpleasant 'truth' about myself? I can get as much of that as I need from my enemies. My friend is the man who sees the best in me, and reminds me of it occasionally."

We must strive to be the kind of friend we would like to have.

GOSSIP

By Gladys Mathews

Has anyone noticed how popular pop tests have become?

Dolores Allen was seen riding a motorcycle Saturday night.

Seems as though Freida Kay had a snack in fifth period study hall Monday. Wonder what it was, Cookies maybe?

Wonder why Gail Johnigan keeps her bookkeeping book under her bed?

What happened to the recorder at the Freshmen side show?

Coach Cleere and Coach Hickman aren't very good golfers. Last week they tried to drive a couple of golf balls on the football field. Coach Cleere's landed in the stands and coach Hickman's missed coach Cleere's pick up by a small margin and broke a window in the field house.

Coach Cleere and his horse must be getting along better now. He's doing his daily chin-ups again.

Freida Kay made it to Devil's River last Sunday.

Gustavo has been asked some delicate questions about his summer job.

THE BRIGHTER SIDE

By Penn Baggett

Students often seem to take well meant rules and regulations of various classes as nothing more than an attempt to curb or completely destroy students' rights. Teachers need no explanation for what they do, and the student who has the courage to ask "why?" to a request made by that sovereign authority of the classroom makes a serious mistake.

As often as the question "why" is asked, the answer is "because I said so!" Students tend to question this reply and some newcomers have a hard time before they learn to accept it.

Certainly the teachers usually, if not always, have valid reason for making demands of the students, but these reasons are not so easily seen by some people.

Enforcement of policies is probably most obvious in the library or study hall. Students are strongly urged by the keepers to remain quiet so that "some who might wish to study can do so without interruption."

Talking is the most convenient means of communication and a portion of students in the library obviously have to communicate. This group of people cannot understand why anyone would want to waste an entire study hall studying. For these stubborn ones we shall present a more "logical" reason.

Freshmen and sophomores should be very quiet in the library because it is not easy for tired and overworked upperclassmen to sleep well if unnecessary noise occurs. The waking of such sleeping beauties brings about hard feelings and promotes hazing of underclassmen a great deal.

It is true that seniors and juniors are sometimes guilty of making too much noise in study hall also. Their committing this crime makes it no more advisable. The average study hall warden, with his or her calloused ears, has acquired the skill of sleeping through the amount of disturbance that comes from giggling freshmen and sophomores, but when the upperclassmen join in, even the old pros are awakened. Truly study hall is a much better place if students do not have to dodge books thrown by enraged teachers or wade through the blood of those "who wouldn't listen."

Perhaps some of the logical reasons are exaggerated and not logical at all, but we sincerely hope that these examples will convince doubting students that reasons can be found. If reasons be needed.

TRIALS AND TRIBULATIONS OF THE ROOM MOTHER

By Andie Elliott

For the hard-working room mothers, the PTA carnival started long before Friday night. Take, for example, the room mothers of Mrs. Baggett's fourth grade class, which had the jewelry booth — no names mentioned of course.

Thursday night, this optimistic soul set out to make a sign for the booth. The task appeared deceptively simple. Having painted half the sign with orange water colors, the unhappy mother found that her child had helpfully mixed all the orange with the black. For this reason, the sign displayed Friday night was half the size intended.

Friday morning, between trips to the school, the park, and back home to make beds, the harried mother somehow found time to practice engraving names on bracelets. Her one mistake was giving one to her small daughter, who promptly rounded up the entire neighborhood, or so it seemed, with the statement, "they want one, too, mama."

All too quickly, carnival time arrived. Once at the carnival, the long-suffering mother sat down to the engraving desk, where she soon found out that children's names aren't always spelled as they sound. Also added to her list of vital information was the full list of grade school romances. It seems one little girl had at least five current boyfriends.

At last the carnival's over — for another year, at least — and all room mothers somehow arrived home safe and sound (?).

The only reward for the hard-working, long-suffering room mothers is the knowledge of the fun the children had. I think everyone will agree that all the room mothers deserve a rousing "hat's off for a job well done."

FRESHMEN DAYS

That Freshman days will be October 3, 4, and 5, was voted by the Student Council at their last meeting.

The freshmen will be sold for 25c a day or 65c for 3 days. They will be sold in Mr. Leath's room Tuesday noon, Wednesday noon, and Thursday noon on a first come first serve basis.

Those wanting to buy more than one freshman will have to wait until all others have had a chance to buy one.

The Fish will present the assembly program Wednesday morning Oct. 3, for the entertainment of the upperclassmen.

The rules as to what can be done to the Fish will be given to all students before the 3rd.

Anyone breaking the rules will forfeit his freshman and will not be allowed to buy another.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. Leath announced that a meeting will be held sometime this week or next week for those out for the Junior and Senior play. He also stated that the play would probably be a comedy.

Juniors start mum sales October fifteenth for the Eldorado game. Prices of the mums will be $1.50 for those without a number, with the number it will be $2.50.

The Seniors wish to thank the mothers for their contribution to the concession stands for the football games. Keep it up, we appreciate it!

SPORTS

By Ernie Hanson

The Ozona Lions had an open date last Friday night but will be out in full force this coming Friday night against Rocksprings at Ozona. The B-team fought hard to a 0-0 tie last Thursday against Rankin.

In local games, Crane beat Rankin 41 to 0, Big Lake beat McCamey 32 to 6, and Sonora beat Menard 29 to 12.

In the Southwest Conference College football the games ran as follows: Texas 25, Oregon 13; Houston 19, Baylor 0; West Texas

30, Texas Tech 27; TCU 6, Kansas 3, LSU 21, Texas A&M 0; Maryland 7, SMU 0.

In major league baseball it looks like another year for the Los Angeles Dodgers and the New York Yankees to meet in the World Series. The top hitters and pitchers in each league are: in the National league Frank Robinson leads the batting and Elroy Face leads the pitching department; in the American league, Pete Runnels of Boston leads in the batting and Hoyt Wilhelm is leading in the pitching.

A note from the boxing world, Floyd Patterson and Sonny Liston met Tuesday night in Chicago for the heavyweight championship of the World. Many were favoring Sonny Liston.

THANKS

The sophomore class would like to thank the people who donated items and work to the Country Store and made success possible.

DAFFINITIONS

Brief Case — quick lawsuit.
Shiftless — automatic drive of others have started to sag and sigh: new flush and dry rocker panels under the doors to guard against rusting . . . self-adjusting brakes . . . Delcotron generator for longer battery life. If you ever wondered why Chevrolet leads its field, a drive in this '63 should answer all your questions.

'63 CHEVY II NOVA SPORT COUPE

Hard as it may be to believe, this year's Chevy II is better, better than last year's and better than anything in its class. It combines all the new easy-care features of the big Chevrolet with its own wonderful attributes of parkable size, four- or six-cylinder fuel economy and interiors that'd do justice to cars with twice its price and half its charm.

'63 CORVAIR MONZA CONVERTIBLE

Change it? Calm yourself, nobody's going to mess with a winner like this one! We did add self-adjusting brakes and a more fully aluminized muffler; interiors and outside trim are refined a bit, but the rest is pure Corvair with all the over-the-road goodness that implies. Oh yes, we changed the taillights so all those people you pass will know you're driving a '63.

The News Reel

A re-run of "The Ozona Story" as gleaned from the files of The Ozona Stockman

From The Stockman, Sept. 28, 1933

Eastern mohair buyers last week shelled the Texas hill country with the greatest shower of dollars the goat raisers have seen in four years. In one day 3,250,000 pounds of mohair, half of the 1933 crop sold at prices ranging from 40½ cents for adult hair to 55 cents for kid hair. In 1932 mohair averaged 8 cents a pound and went to an all-time low of 6 cents.

Hallie Hubert, local negro and former bootblack, was awarded damages in the amount of $13,000, the full amount of his plea, by a jury in district court in his suit against Harl Sprague and an insurance company. The suit was an outgrowth of an accident on the Ozona-Barnhart road in which Hubert lost his left arm.

Mrs. W. L. Boerner, mother of Mrs. J. M. Baggett of Ozona, and a former resident here, died Monday at her home in Floydada.

Tomas Mar was sentenced to five years in the state penitentiary by a Crockett county jury in his trial last week on a charge of murder in the fatal stabbing of Refugio Sanchez on July 9 of this year.

Paul Perner was elected president of the Methodist Men's Round-Up at the monthly meetng of the group in the basement of the church last night. Bryan McDonald was named vice president and M. T. Blackwell, secretary. J. H. Miller, Dr. H. B. Tandy and I. G. Rape were named to the program committee.

Ozona High School Lions, coached by Ted White, romped to an easy victory, took a stiff workout and learned a lot of football in their opening game of the season against Mertzon here Saturday. The score was 31 to 0.

E. B. Baggett, Jr., has been appointed to training for a position as appraiser for the Federal Land Bank and will go to Del Rio soon to start his training under a veteran appraiser there.

Arthur Byrd Phillips entertained group of his young friends on his sixth birthday Wednesday afternoon. Present were Ruth Townsend, Cleora Ann Cox, Vada Louise Bean, Barbara White, Joyce West, Ann West, Joanne Glover, Joyce McIntire, Daphne June Meinecke, Corinne Phillips, Nan Tandy, Norma Jay Hubbard, Milton T. Blackwell and Dick Lee McDonald.

For the fourth consecutive year, J. W. Owens, Crockett county rancher and breeder of registered Rambouillet sheep, set the top price at the recent Salt Lake City ram sale, paying $425 for a choice ram from the flock of John K. Madsen of Mount Pleasant, Utah.

B. B. Ingham, Jr., narrowly escaped serious injury or death Sunday when he was dragged more than 300 yards at the end of a lariat rope tied to the horn of a saddle on a frightened horse. Young Ingham, star lineman on the 1933 Ozona High School football squad, was attempting to rope a sheep on the Seahorn ranch when the horse fell with him. The rope became entangled around Ingham's arm and he was dragged when the horse scrambled to its feet and took off. Joe Friend, who saw the mishap from the back of his own mount, ran on to the frightened horse and stopped him.

In an effort to prevent serious accidents along the tow highways through Ozona, the sheriff's department has placed orders for traffic signs to be placed at all intersections along the highways and after these are installed will enforce careful driving rules at dangerous intersections.

Mrs. H. B. Tandy entertained the Lions Club Monday noon with several vocal numbers. Mrs. Neal Hannah played the piano accompaniment.

The last of contracted hard surfacing on Crockett county highways was completed the past week when Colglazier & Hoff pulled up stakes and left after completing the application of surface treatment on the 15-miles of Highway 27 east of the Sutton county line.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sparks are the parents of an 8-pound daughter born Wednesday. She has been named Gussie Ruth.

Ozono-Rankin Battle To Scoreless Draw In Clash of B Team Mites

By Ernie Boyd

The Ozona B team and the Rankin B team battled to a 0 to 0 draw at Lion Stadium last Thursday afternoon as the defense prevailed on both teams.

The first half belonged to the visitors as they pushed the Lion reserves around a good bit but were unable to get inside the Ozona 20 yard line. The second half belonged to the Ozona second stringers reserves who bottled up the Rankin team in their own end of the field and did not allow them to cross the Ozona 45 yard line for the balance of the contest.

Steve Livesey, Sammy Cervantez, Larry Williams and several others of the Lion reserves took big hands in the defense while Douglas Tannehill, Bill Carson and Jesus Tijerina sparked what offense the reserves managed to put together.

Rankin was sparked by a junior back who, according to Ozona's understanding of the contest, was not eligible to take part in the game but none the less the Lions contained the Rankin offense throughout the first half and then pretty well crushed the visitors in the last two quarters.

The game was the second of the year for the B teamers who showed a good deal of improvement over their first game even though Rankin was not as strong as was the Eldorado team which Ozona played first.

The B team will travel to Iraan Thursday night to meet the Iraan reserves in a game scheduled to get under way at 7 p. m.

Ronnie Mason, the B team's mighty mite, was lost for the season in the third quarter when he suffered a knee injury when he was blocked rather unexpectedly deep in the secondary.

GIRL SCOUT MEETING

Girl Scout Troop 4 met at the Scout House Wednesday for its first meeting. Officers were elected as follows: President, Cookie Coates; vice president, Helen Hayes; secretary, Cynthia Mahon; treasurer, Esther Williams; reporter, Lenora Farris; sgt. at arms, Betty Henderson.

The troop voted to collect articles of clothing, old Halloween costumes, masks, prizes etc to send to the Austin State School for their Halloween carnival Oct. 22-23. Deadline for collection was set for Oct. 10.

Mrs. Coates, leader, advised that the Troop number had been changed to No. 47 to conform to Frontier Council's renumbering system.

JUNIOR RUMMAGE SALE

The Junior Class of Ozona High School will have a rummage sale Tuesday morning, Oct. 2, in the old Meinecke store building next to Meinecke Grocery. Those who have rummage items to give are urged to bring them to the sale or contact Mrs. H. C. Noelke. Sale starts at 8 a. m.

Two completely new hardtops and three new station wagons have been added to Ford's Fairlane series for 1963. This Fairlane 500 sports coupe with its Thunderbird styled roofline, features a full-length console separating luxury-styled bucket seats, and a color-keyed interior.

Engineering advancements and modern production techniques have eliminated the need for a 1,000-mile inspection, and increased major chassis lubrication intervals to 36,000 miles, with minor lubrication intervals of 6,000 miles. These are only two of the many service-saving items designed into all Ford Division cars except club wagons and buses for 1963.

Fairlane hardtops, station wagons, and sporty sedans will go on display in dealer showrooms on Friday, September 28.

25th Anniversary Of Ozona Community Center To Be Observed At Open House on November 11

Plans are under way for the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Community Center with a silver tea and open house set for November 11th.

A review of the summer activities at the Center at a recent meeting of the board of directors brought into focus the great service the center is rendering to both young people and adults and the program since its beginning 25 years ago.

Miss Ethel Wolf and Miss Dorothy Price, who are the full time directors of the program, now have large numbers of young people engaged in all phases of scouting, hand craft, a prekindergarten Kiddie Klub, study hall, and tutoring service, as well as other projects too numerous to mention.

The purpose of the center which is sponsored by the Woman's Division of Christian Service of The Methodist Church, is to augment the educational services of the schools particularly in a cultural way so as to increase the knowledge and scope of the individual who may not have such opportunities in his home.

Most of the people of Ozona are unaware of the scope of social service and the cultural knowledge being imparted to the people it serves and one of the aims of the 25th anniversary celebration will be to better inform the people of Ozona of the service the Center renders to the community.

Mrs. Ralph Jones, who is this year's chairman of the Board, appointed a committee to begin planning for the November observance with a view informing the various social and service organizations of the work carried on at the center.

During the summer work, scouts from the Center received numerous commendations in district and regional activities, while a point of particular pride was the fact that a number of its past pupils, who are now college and University graduates, employed away from Ozona, spent all or part of their vacation as instructors in various phases of the summer work, donating their services willingly.

The report of the treasurer Mrs. L. D. Kirby, also revealed that the Mary Riddle Scholarship fund was being put to good use, and that all of the money borrowed from the fund had been repaid as agreed and can be put to use again this year.

We are telling the Nation's industrial leaders that...

EVERYTHING IS... "GO!"

... in this West Texas area

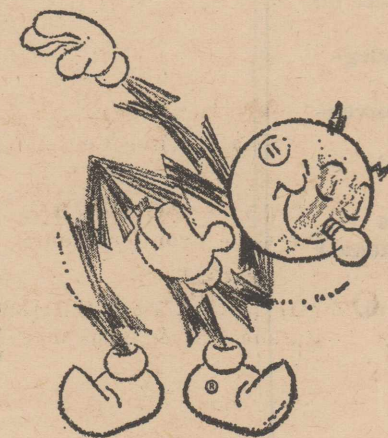

Because the space age we live in is a fast moving period of business and industrial expansion, we are working hard to see that this area gets its share.

We advertise the area's industrial advantages in national publications, and send factual mailing pieces to selected lists of business leaders. The Wall Street Journal advertisement and the colorful area folder shown above are current examples of this material.

In addition, our Area Development Representatives make periodical trips to the North and East, for personal contacts with these business executives.

WTU is enthusiastically engaged in this continuing program because we are convinced the Center of the Southwest faces GROWTH UNLIMITED.

We are backing this belief with a multi-million dollar expansion program of our own to serve more people, more businesses, more industries.

2:00 p. m. Fred Hagelstein is current Soil Conservation Supervisor of Zone 4 in Crockett county. The supervisor elected Tuesday will serve Zone 4 for the next five years on the Soil Conservation District board. All landowners operating in this zone who are at least 21 years of age are eligible to vote in the election. Wives of eligible landowners can vote and should do so since they have an interest in their soil conservation district. The Agent points out that soil conservation districts are political sub-divisions of the State of Texas and by law are charged with the responsibility of carrying out a soil and water conservation program in their district. Through them such items as technical service, equipment, leadership in small watershed projects and many other services are provided to cooperating landowners. All eligible voters of Zone 4 are urged to meet at 2:00 p. m. at the SCS office in the Hotel Ozona for the election. A short educational tour on some of the brush control work being carried on in the county will follow the election. James Glynn, local SCS Fieldman, will be in charge of the tour.

so alert as the offense but when you consider that they held Eldorado to just two touchdowns and one of them in the last minute of play and they blanked one other foe last week, it would seem that they are not giving too many points away. To further add to Coach Hickman's woes, the Lions lost one of their brightest prospects when sophomore starting fullback Aaron Shackelford checked out of school to move with his parents to Bandera last week. The Lions, already sorely short on manpower, will probably make a number of changes to compensate for the loss. Coach Hickman indicated that Billy Sanchez, a 180 pound squadman, had been showing remarkable improvement and would probably replace Robert Cox at starting defensive guard with Cox moving to Shackelford's vacated linebacker post and Bernabe Villareal moving into the fullback post on offense.

The Lions can shift either Vargas or Montgomery to fullback and use the fine running little Dubbie Scrivner but Montgomery needs frequent rest from his heavy duties as left half and outside linebacker and Scrivner has been doing a very nice job of spelling him while on offense and doubling as an end on defense.

Even though Cox has not seen any duty at the linebacker post, neither had Shackelford and Cox has speed, experience and size in his favor which could add strength to the team if Sanchez comes through as well as adding some needed size. The Lions spent the week off in some bruising blocking and tackling exercises, two phases of the game which needed some improvement. Barring injury in practice this week, the Lions should be in good shape for their clash.

Rocksprings had felt that this club would be their best in a number of years last year and an indication of how strongly they thought this is revealed in the fact that they scheduled the Lions, something they have not felt they could do for many years.

Van Miller, a freshman student at T. C. U. in Ft. Worth, spent the weekend in Ozona in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Miller.
